hid themselves. And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armourbearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will shew you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armourbearer, Come up after me: for the LORD hath delivered them into the hand of Israel. 13
And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armourbearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armourbearer slew 14
after him. And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armourbearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were [||]a half acre of land, which a 15 yoke of oxen might plow. And there was trembling in the host, in the field, and among all the people: the garrison, and [p]the spoilers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it was [t]a very great trembling.
And the watchmen of Saul in [q]Gibeah 16 of Benjamin looked; and behold, the multitude [r]melted away, and they went 17 on [s]beating down one another. Then said Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold Jonathan and his armour- 18

Then Saul went up from following the 46 Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.
So Saul took the kingdom over Israel, 47

and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of [z]Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of [a]Zobah, and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he turned himself, he vexed them.

48 And he [l]gathered a host, and smote [b]the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

49 Now [c]the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishui, and Melchishua: and the names of his two daughters were these; the name of the firstborn [d]Merab, and the name of the younger [e]Michal:

50 and the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of the captain of his host was [†f]Abner, the son of Ner, [g]Saul's uncle.

51 And [h]Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner the father of Abner was the son of [h]Abiel.

52 And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any strong man, or any valiant man, [i]he took him unto him.

XV. 1 Samuel also said unto Saul, [a]The LORD sent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the LORD.

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, [b]how he [c]laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt.

3 Now go and smite Amalek, and [d]utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay [e]both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

4 And Saul [f]gathered the people together, and numbered them in [g]Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah.

5 And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and [‖]laid wait in the valley.

6 And Saul said unto [h]the Kenites, Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them: for [i]ye shewed kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 And [j]Saul smote the Amalekites from [k]Havilah until thou comest to [l]Shur, that is over against Egypt.

8 And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed [m]all the people with the edge of the sword.

9 But Saul and the people [n]spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and [‖]of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but every thing that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

10 Then came the word of the LORD
11 unto Samuel, saying, [o]It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king: for he is [p]turned back from following me, [q]and hath not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the LORD all night.

12 And when Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to [r]Carmel, and behold, he set him up a place, and is gone about, and passed on, and gone down to Gilgal.

13 And Samuel came to Saul: and Saul said unto him, [s]Blessed be thou of the LORD: I have performed the command-14 ment of the LORD. And Samuel said, What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of 15 the oxen which I hear? And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites: [t]for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God; and the rest 16 we have utterly destroyed. Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the LORD hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say
17 on. And Samuel said, [u]When thou wast little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the LORD anointed thee king 18 over Israel? And the LORD sent thee on a journey, and said, Go and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until [†]they be con-
19 sumed. Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the LORD, but didst [w]fly upon the spoil, and didst evil in the 20 sight of the LORD? And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, [x]I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21 [y]But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of [d]the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God in Gil-22 gal. And Samuel said,

[z]Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices,
As in obeying the voice of the LORD?
Behold, [a]to obey is better than sacrifice,
And to hearken than the fat of rams.

For rebellion is as the sin of [f]witchcraft,
And stubbornness is as iniquity and [h]idolatry.
Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD,
[c]He hath also rejected thee from being king.

[d] And Saul said unto Samuel, [d]I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and thy words: because I [e]feared the people, and obeyed their voice. Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD. And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: [f]for thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over Israel. And as Samuel turned about to go away, [g]he laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and it rent. And Samuel said unto him, [h]The LORD hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou. And also the [i]Strength of Israel [i]will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent. Then he said, I have sinned: yet honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and [j]turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God. So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped the LORD.

Then said Samuel, Bring you hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites. And Agag came unto him delicately. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past. And Samuel said, [k]As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. And [l]Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in [m]Gilgal. Then Samuel went to [n]Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to [o]Gibeah of Saul. And [p]Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: nevertheless Samuel [q]mourned for Saul: and the LORD [r]repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

XVI. And the LORD said unto Samuel, [a]How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing [b]I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? [c]fill thine horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Beth-lehemite: for [d]I have provided me a king among his sons. And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me. And the LORD said, Take a heifer [t]with thee, and say, [e]I am come to sacrifice to the LORD. And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and [f]I will shew thee what thou shalt do: and [g]thou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee. And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and came to Beth-lehem. And the elders of the town [h]trembled at his [t]coming, and said, [i]Comest thou peaceably? And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD: [k]sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice. And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on [l]Eliab, and [l]said, Surely the LORD'S anointed is before him. But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on [m]his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the [t]outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the [n]heart. Then Jesse called [o]Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this. Then Jesse made [o][l]Shammah to pass by. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this. Again, Jesse made [p]seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, The LORD hath not chosen these. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, [p]There remaineth yet the youngest, and behold, he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, [q]Send and fetch him: for we will not sit [t]down till he come hither. And he sent, and brought him in. Now he was [r]ruddy, and withal [t]of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look to. And [s]the LORD said, Arise, anoint him: for this is he. Then Samuel took [t]the horn of oil, and [u]anointed him in the midst of his brethren; and [x]the spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to [y]Ramah.

But [z]the spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and [a]an evil spirit from the LORD [l]troubled him. And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee. Let our lord now command thy servants which are [b]before thee, to seek out a man, who is a cunning player on a harp: and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall [c]play with his hand, and thou shalt be well. And Saul said unto 17 his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me. Then answered one of the servants, and 18 said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is cunning in playing, and [d]a mighty valiant man, and a man of war, and prudent in [f]matters, and a comely person, and [e]the LORD is with him. Wherefore Saul sent messen- 19 gers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, [f]which is with the sheep. And Jesse [g]took an ass laden with bread, 20 and a bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son unto Saul. And David came to Saul, and [h]stood 21 before him: and he loved him greatly; and he became his armourbearer. And 22 Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he hath found favour in my sight. And it came 23 to pass, when [i]the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took a harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was [k]refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

Now the Philistines [a]gathered together their armies to battle, and were gathered together at [b]Shochoh, which belongeth to Judah, and pitched between Shochoh and [c]Azekah, in [f]Ephes-dammim. And 2 Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and pitched by [d]the valley of Elah, and [f]set the battle in array against the Philistines. And the Philis- 3 tines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them. And there went out a 4 champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named [e]Goliath, of [f]Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. And 5 he had a helmet of brass upon his head, and he was [f]armed with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass. And he had greaves 6 of brass upon his legs, and a [f]target of brass between his shoulders. And the 7 staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and one bearing a shield went before him. And he 8 stood and cried unto the armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? am not I a Philistine, and you [g]servants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me. If he be able 9 to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall 10 ye be our servants, and [h]serve us. And the Philistine said, I [i]defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we 11 may fight together. When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

Now David was [j]the son of that [k]Ephrathite of Beth-lehem-judah, whose name was Jesse; and he had [l]eight sons: and the man went among men for 13 an old man in the days of Saul. And the three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the [m]names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third 14 Shammah. And David was the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul. 15 But David went and returned from Saul [n]to feed his father's sheep at Beth-lehem. 16 And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty 17 days. And Jesse said unto David his son, Take now for thy brethren an ephah of this parched corn, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren; 18 and [o]carry these ten [f]cheeses unto the [f]captain of their thousand, and look [p]how thy brethren fare, and take their 19 pledge. Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of 20 Elah, fighting with the Philistines. And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the [f]trench, as the host was going forth to the [f]fight, and shouted 21 for the battle. For Israel and the Philistines had put the battle in array, army 22 against army. And David left [f]his carriage in the hand of the keeper of the carriage, and ran into the army, and 23 came and [f]saluted his brethren. And as he talked with them, behold, there came up [q]the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the armies of the Philistines, and spake [r]according to the same words: and David heard them. 24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled [f]from him, and were 25 sore afraid. And the men of Israel said, Have ye seen this man that is come up? surely to defy Israel is he come up: and it shall be, that the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and [s]will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel. And David spake to the men that 26 stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away [t]the reproach from Israel? for who is this [u]uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of [x]the living God? And the 27 people answered him after this manner, saying, [y]So shall it be done to the man that killeth him. And Eliab his eldest 28 brother heard when he spake unto the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, Why camest thou down hither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy pride, and the naughtiness of thine heart; for thou art come down that thou mightest see the battle. And David said, What have I now 29 done? [z]Is there not a cause? And he 30 turned from him towards another, and [a]spake after the same [†]manner: and the people answered him again after the former [†]manner. And when the words 31 were heard which David spake, they rehearsed them before Saul: and he [†]sent for him.

And David said to Saul, [b]Let no 32 man's heart fail because of him; [c]thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine. And Saul said to David, Thou art not 33 able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth. And 34 David said unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion and a bear, and took a [‖]lamb out of the flock: and I went out after him, and 35 smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him. Thy servant slew 36 both the lion and the bear: and this [d]uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, [d]seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God. David said 37 moreover, [e]The LORD that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and [f]the LORD be with thee. And Saul [†]armed 38 David with his armour, and he put a helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail. And 39 David girded his sword upon his armour, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them. And David put them off 40 him. And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the [‖]brook, and put them in a shepherd's [†]bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand: 41 and he drew near to the Philistine. And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and [g]the man that bare the 42 shield went before him. And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but a youth, and [h]ruddy, and of a fair coun- 43 tenance. And the Philistine said unto David, [i]Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? And the Philistine 44 cursed David by his gods. And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field. 45 Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a [k]shield: but I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, 46 whom thou hast [l]defied. This day will the LORD [†]deliver thee into mine hand; and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee; and I will give [m]the carcases of the host of the Philistines this day [n]unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; [o]that all the earth may know that there is a God in 47 Israel. And all this assembly shall know that the LORD [p]saveth not with sword and spear: for [q]the battle is the LORD'S, and [r]he will give you into our hands. 48 And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine. 49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and 50 he fell upon his face to the earth. So [s]David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was 51 no sword in the hand of David. Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took [†]his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and [u]cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their cham- 52 pion was dead, they fled. And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until thou come to the valley, and to the gates of [v]Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to [w]Shaaraim, even unto [x]Gath, and unto Ekron. 53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled their tents. 54 And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to [y]Jerusalem; but he put his armour in his tent.

55 And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto [z]Abner, the captain of the host, Abner, [a]whose son is this youth? And Abner said, [b]As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell. 56 And the king said, Inquire thou whose son the [c]stripling is. 57 And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul [d]with the head of the Philistine in his hand. 58 And Saul said to him, Whose son art thou, thou young man? And David answered, I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite.

XVIII.

1 And it came to pass, when he made an end of speaking unto Saul, that [a]the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, [b]and Jonathan loved him as his own soul. 2 And Saul took him that day, [c]and would let him go no more home to his father's house. 3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul. 4 And Jonathan stript himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle. 5 And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and [‖]behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants. 6 And it came to pass as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the [‖]Philistine, that [d]the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with [d]tabrets, with joy, and with [f]instruments of musick. 7 And the women [e]answered one another as they played, and said,

And David his ten thousands.

8 And Saul was very wroth, and the saying [f]displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can he have more but 9 [g]the kingdom? And Saul eyed David from that day and forward.

10 And it came to pass on the morrow, that [h]the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and [i]he prophesied in the midst of the house: and David [k]played with his hand, as at other times: [l]and 11 there was a javelin in Saul's hand. And Saul [m]cast the javelin; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it. And David avoided out of his pre- 12 sence twice. And Saul was [n]afraid of David, because [o]the LORD was with him, 13 and was [p]departed from Saul. Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand; and [q]he went out and came in before 14 the people. And David [‖]behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and [r]the 15 LORD was with him. Wherefore when Saul saw that he behaved himself very 16 wisely, he was afraid of him. But [s]all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them.

17 And Saul said to David, Behold my elder daughter [t]Merab, [u]her will I give thee to wife: only be thou [t]valiant for me, and fight [w]the LORD's battles. For Saul said, [x]Let not mine hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines 18 be upon him. And David said unto Saul, [y]Who am I? and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I 19 should be son in law to the king? But it came to pass at the time when Merab Saul's daughter should have been given to David, that she was given unto [z]Ad- 20 riel the [a]Meholathite to wife. And [b]Michal Saul's daughter loved David: and they told Saul, and the thing [†]pleased 21 him. And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be [c]a snare to him, and that [d]the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, Thou shalt [e]this day be my son in law in the one of the twain. 22 And Saul commanded his servants, saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now 23 therefore be the king's son in law. And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, [f]Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son in law, seeing that I am a poor man, 24 and lightly esteemed? And the servants of Saul told him, saying, [†]On this man- 25 ner spake David. And Saul said, Thus

And Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David. But Jonathan Saul's son 2 [a] delighted much in David: and Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to kill thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself until the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thyself: and I will go out and 3 stand beside my father in the field where thou art, and I will commune with my father of thee; and what I see, that I will tell thee. And Jonathan 4 spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king [b] sin against his servant, against David; because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works have been to thee-ward very good: for 5 he did [c] put his life in his hand, and [d] slew the Philistine, and [e] the LORD wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and didst rejoice: wherefore then wilt thou sin against [f] innocent blood, to slay David without a cause? And Saul hearkened unto the 6 voice of Jonathan: and Saul sware, As [g] the LORD liveth, he shall not be slain. And Jonathan called David, and Jo- 7 nathan shewed him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, [h] as [t] in times past.

And there was war again: and David 8 went out, and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled from [t] him. And [i] the evil spirit from the LORD was 9 upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his javelin in his hand: and David [j] played with his hand. And Saul sought 10 to smite David even to the wall with the javelin; but he slipt away out of Saul's presence, and he smote the javelin into the wall: and David fled, and escaped that night. [k] Saul also sent 11 messengers unto David's house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal David's wife told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to night, to morrow thou shalt be slain.

So Michal [l] let David down through a 12 window: and he went, and fled, and escaped. And Michal took an [t] image, 13 and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster, and covered it with a cloth. And when Saul sent 14 messengers to take David, she said, He is sick. And Saul sent the messengers 15 again to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him. And when the messengers were 16 come in, behold there was an image in the bed, with a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster. And Saul said unto Michal, 17 Why hast thou deceived me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said unto me, Let me go; [m] why should I kill thee?

So David fled, and escaped, and came 18 to Samuel to [n] Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth. And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, 19 David is at Naioth in [n] Ramah. And 20 Saul sent messengers to take David: [o] and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed over them, the spirit of God was upon the messengers of Saul, and they also [p] prophesied. And 21 when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also. Then went he also to Ramah, and came 22 to a great well that is in Sechu: and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, they be at Naioth in [n] Ramah. And he went 23 thither to Naioth in [n] Ramah: and [q] the

And David fled from Naioth in [a]Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? what is mine iniquity? and what is my sin before thy father, that he seeketh my life? And 2 he said unto him, God forbid; thou shalt not die: behold, my father will do nothing either great or small, but that he will [t]shew it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? it is not so. And David sware moreover, 3 and said, Thy father certainly knoweth that [b]I have found grace in thine eyes; and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved: but truly as [c]the LORD liveth, and as [d]thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and death. Then said Jonathan unto David, 4 [‖]Whatsoever thy soul [f]desireth, I will even do it for thee. And David said 5 unto Jonathan, Behold, to morrow is the [e]new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat: but let me go, that [f]I may hide myself in the fields unto the third day at even. If thy 6 father at all miss me, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run [g]to Beth-lehem his city: for there is a [h]yearly [‖]sacrifice there for all the family. If he say thus, It is well; 7 thy servant shall have peace: but if he be very wroth, then be sure that [i]evil is determined by him. Therefore thou 8 shalt [j]deal kindly with thy servant; for [k]thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of the LORD with thee: notwithstanding, [l]if there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father? And Jo- 9 nathan said, Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee? Then said 10 David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? or what if thy father answer thee roughly? And Jonathan said unto David, Come, 11 and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field. And Jonathan said unto David, 12 O LORD God of Israel, when I have [t]sounded my father about to morrow any time, or the third day, and behold, if there be good toward David, and I then send not unto thee, and [t]shew it 13 thee; [m]the LORD do so and much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do thee evil, then I will [t]shew it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and [n]the LORD be with thee, as he hath been with my 14 father. And thou shalt not only while yet I live shew me the kindness of the 15 LORD, that I die not: but also [o]thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever: no, not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David every 16 one from the face of the earth. So Jonathan [t]made a covenant with the house of David, saying, [p]Let the LORD even require it at the hand of David's 17 enemies. And Jonathan caused David to swear again, [‖]because he loved him: [q]for he loved him as he loved his own 18 soul. Then Jonathan said to David, [r]To morrow is the new moon: and thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will 19 be [t]empty. And when thou hast stayed three days, then thou shalt go down [‖]quickly, and come to [s]the place where thou didst hide thyself [t]when the business was in hand, and shalt remain by 20 the stone [‖]Ezel. And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I 21 shot at a [t]mark. And behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go, find out the arrows. If I expressly say unto the lad, Behold, the arrows are on this side of thee, take them; then come thou: for there is peace to thee, and [t]no hurt; 22 [u]as the LORD liveth. But if I say thus unto the young man, Behold, the arrows are beyond thee; go thy way: for the 23 LORD hath sent thee away. And as touching [v]the matter which thou and I have spoken of, behold, the LORD be between thee and me for ever.

24 So David hid himself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the 25 king sat him down to eat meat. And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, and David's place was 26 empty. Nevertheless Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, [w]he is not 27 clean; surely he is not clean. And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second [x]day of the month, that David's place was empty: and Saul said

10 And David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to [‖]Achish

the king of [m]Gath. And the servants 11 of Achish said unto him, Is not this David the king of the land? did they not [n]sing one to another of him in [o]dances, saying, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?
And David [p]laid up these words in his 12 heart, and was sore afraid of Achish the king of Gath. And [q]he changed his be- 13 haviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and [‖]scrabled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard. Then 14 said Achish unto his servants, Lo, you see the man [‖]is mad: wherefore then have ye brought him to me? Have I 15 need of mad men, that ye have brought this fellow to play the mad man in my presence? shall this fellow come into my house?

XXII. David therefore departed thence, and escaped to [a]the cave [b]Adullam: and when his brethren and all his father's house heard it, they went down thither to him. And [c]every one that was in 2 distress, and every one that [†]was in debt, and every one that was [†]discontented, gathered themselves unto him;
and he became a captain over them:
and there were with him about [d]four hundred men. And David went thence 3 to Mizpeh of Moab: and he said unto [e]the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and be with you, till I know what God will do for me. And he brought them 4 before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the hold. And the prophet 5 [f]Gad said unto David, Abide not in the hold; depart, and get thee into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth.

When Saul heard that David was dis- 6 covered, and the men that were with him, (now Saul abode in [g]Gibeah under a [‖]tree in [h]Ramah, having his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him;) then Saul said unto his 7 servants that stood about him, Hear now, ye Benjamites; will the son of Jesse [i]give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds;
that all of you have conspired against 8 me, and there is none that [†]sheweth me that [i]my son hath made a league with the son of Jesse, and there is [j]none of you that is sorry for me, or [†]sheweth unto me that my son hath stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at 9 this day? Then answered [k]Doeg the Edomite, which was set over the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to [l]Nob, to Ahimelech the 10 son of [m]Ahitub: and he [n]inquired of the LORD for him, and [o]gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath 11 the Philistine. Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests that were in [l]Nob: and they 12 came all of them to the king. And Saul said. Hear now, thou son of Ahitub. And he answered, [†]Here I am, 13 my lord. And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread and a sword, and hast [n]inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, [p]to lie in wait, as at 14 this day? Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, which is the king's son in law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable 15 in thine house? Did I then begin to [n]inquire of God for him? be it far from me: let not the king impute any thing unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing 16 of all this, [†]less or more. And the king said, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, 17 thou, and all thy father's house. And the king said unto the [‖]footmen that stood about him, Turn, and slay the priests of the LORD; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not shew it to me. But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall 18 upon the priests of the LORD. And the king said to Doeg, Turn thou, and fall upon the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and [q]slew on that day fourscore and five persons that [r]did wear a linen ephod.
19 And [l]Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, [s]both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.
20 And one of the sons of Ahimelech
the son of Ahitub, named [t]Abiathar, 21 [u]escaped, and fled after David. And Abiathar shewed David that Saul had 22 slain the LORD's priests. And David

And Saul 8 [e] called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men. And David knew that 9 Saul secretly practised mischief against him; and [f] he said to Abiathar the priest. Bring hither the ephod. Then said 10 David, O LORD God of Israel, thy servant hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, [g] to destroy the city for my sake. Will [h] the men of 11 Keilah deliver me up into his hand? Will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O LORD God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the LORD said, He will come down. Then 12 said David, Will [h] the men of Keilah [i] deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the LORD said, They will [i] deliver thee up. Then David and 13 his men, which were about [k] six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and [k] went whithersoever they could go. And it was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah; and he forbare to go forth. 14 And David abode in the wilderness in strong holds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of [l] Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God de- 15 livered him not into his hand. And David saw that Saul was come out to seek his life: and David was in the wilderness of [l] Ziph in a wood.

Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; and our part shall be to [t] deliver him 21 into the king's hand. And Saul said, [u] Blessed be ye of the LORD; for [w] ye 22 have compassion on me. Go, I pray you, prepare yet, and know and see his place where his [t] haunt is, and who hath seen him there: for it is told me 23 that he dealeth very subtilly. And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain: and David made [a] haste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men compassed David and his men 27 round about to take them. [a] So Ps. 31. 22.

Haste thee, and come; [b]for the Philistines have [f]invaded the land. Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place [g]Selahammahlekoth.

And David went up from thence, and dwelt in strong holds at [c]En-gedi. And it came to pass, [a]when Saul was returned from [f]following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-gedi. Then Saul took three thousand [b]chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats. And he came to the [c]sheepcotes by the way, where was a cave; and Saul went in to [d]cover his feet: and [e]David and his men remained in the sides of the cave. And the men of David said unto him, [f]Behold the day of which the LORD said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the [f]skirt of [f]Saul's robe privily. And it came to pass afterward, that [g]David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt. And he said unto his men, [h]The LORD forbid that I should do this thing unto my master, [i]the LORD's anointed, to stretch forth mine hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD. So David [f]stayed his servants with these words, and [j]suffered them not to rise against Saul. But Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way. David also rose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed himself.

And David said to Saul, [k]Wherefore hearest thou men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt? Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the LORD had delivered thee to day into mine hand in the cave: and [l]some bade me kill thee: but [m]mine eye spared thee; and I said, I will not put forth mine hand against my lord; for he is the LORD's anointed. Moreover, my father, see, yea see the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know thou and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in mine hand, and I have not sinned against thee; yet thou huntest my soul to take it. [n]The LORD judge between me and thee, and the LORD avenge me of thee: but mine hand shall not be upon thee. As saith the proverb of the ancients, Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked: but mine hand shall not be upon thee. After whom is the king of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? [o]after a dead dog, after [p]a flea. [q]The LORD therefore be judge, and judge between me and thee, and [r]see, and [s]plead my cause, and [t]deliver me out of thine hand.

And it came to pass, when David had made an end of speaking these words unto Saul, that Saul said, [t]Is this thy voice, my son David? And Saul lift up his voice, and wept. [u]And he said to David, Thou art [x]more righteous than I: for thou hast rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil. And thou hast shewed this day how that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as when the LORD had [t]delivered me into thine hand, thou killedst me not. For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? wherefore the LORD reward thee good for that thou hast done unto me this day. And now behold, [y]I know well that thou shalt surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in thine hand. [z]Swear now therefore unto me by the LORD, [a]that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father's house. And David sware unto Saul. And Saul went home; but David and his men gat them up unto [b]the hold.

And [a]Samuel died; and all the Israelites were gathered together, and [b]lamented him, and buried him [c]in his house at [d]Ramah. And David arose, and went down to [e]the wilderness of Paran. And there was a man in [fg]Maon, whose [h]possessions were in [g]Carmel; and the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. Now the name of the man was Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail: and she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance: but the man was churlish and evil in his doings; and he [i]was [b]of the house of Caleb. David heard in the wilderness that Nabal did [i]shear his sheep. And David 5 sent out ten young men, and David said unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and [t]greet him in my name: and thus shall ye say 6 to him that liveth in prosperity, [j]Peace be both to thee, and peace be to thine house, and peace be unto all that thou hast. And now I have heard that thou 7 hast shearers: now thy shepherds which were with us, we [t]hurt them not, neither was there ought [k]missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel. Ask thy young men, and they will shew 8 thee. Wherefore let the young men [l]find favour in thine eyes: for we come in [m]a good day: give, I pray thee, [n]whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David. And when David's young men came, 9 they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and [t]ceased. And Nabal answered David's 10 servants, and said, [o]Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there be many servants now a days [p]that break away every man from his master. [q]Shall I 11 then take my bread, and my water, and my [t]flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto men, whom I know not whence they be? So Da- 12 vid's young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those sayings. And David said unto 13 his men, Gird you on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword; and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about [r]four hundred men; and [r]two hundred [s]abode by the stuff.

But one of the young men told Abi- 14
gail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to [t]salute our master; and he [t]railed on them. But the men were 15 very good unto us, and we were not [t]hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields: they were 16 [u]a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep. Now therefore know and 17 consider what thou wilt do; for [w]evil is determined against our master, and against all his household: for he is such [x]a son of Belial, that a man cannot speak to him. Then Abigail made 18 haste, and [y]took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and an hundred [l]clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of 19 figs, and laid them on asses. And she said unto her servants, [z]Go on before me; behold, I come after you. But 20 she told not her husband Nabal. And it was so, as she rode on the ass, that she came down by the covert of the hill, and behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met 21 them. Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him: and he hath [a]requited me evil for good. 22 [b]So and more also do God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all that pertain to him by the morning light any 23 that [c]pisseth against the wall. And when Abigail saw David, she hasted, and [d]lighted off the ass, and [c]fell before David on her face, and bowed 24 herself to the ground, and fell at his feet, and said, [f]Upon me, my lord, upon me let this iniquity be: and let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thine [t]audience, and hear the words of thine 25 handmaid. Let not my lord, I pray thee, [t]regard this [g]man of Belial, even Nabal: for as his name is, so is he; [l]Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I thine handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst 26 send. Now therefore, my lord, [h]as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing the LORD hath [i]withholden thee from coming to shed blood, and from [t]avenging thyself with thine own hand, now [j]let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal. 27
And now this [t]blessing which thine handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men that 28
[t]follow my lord. I pray thee, forgive the trespass of thine handmaid: for the LORD will certainly make my lord [k]a sure house; because my lord [t]fighteth the battles of the LORD, and evil hath not been found in thee all thy days. 29
Yet a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy soul: but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the LORD thy God; and the souls of thine enemies, them shall he [m]sling out [t]as out of the middle of a sling. 30
And it shall come to pass, when the LORD shall have done to my lord accord-

[t] shall be [t]no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou hast shed blood causeless, or that my lord hath avenged himself: but when the LORD shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thine handmaid.
[n] And David said to Abigail, [n]Blessed 32 be the LORD God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me: and blessed 33 be thy advice, and blessed be thou, which hast [o]kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself with mine own hand. For in very 34 deed, [p]as the LORD God of Israel liveth, which hath [q]kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadst hasted and come to meet me, surely there [r]had not been left unto Nabal by the morning light any that pisseth against the wall. So 35
David received of her hand that which she had brought him, and said unto her, [s]Go up in peace to thine house; see, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have [t]accepted thy person.

And Abigail came to Nabal; and 36
behold, [u]he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and [u]Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, [w]less or more, until the morning light. But it came to pass in the 37 morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became as a stone. And it came 38 to pass about ten days after, that the LORD smote Nabal, that he died. And 39 when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, [x]Blessed be the LORD, that hath [y]pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath [z]kept his servant from evil: for the LORD hath [a]returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife. And when the 40 servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, David sent us unto thee, to take thee to him to wife. And she arose, 41 and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let [b]thine handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord. And Abigail hasted, 42 and rose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers that went [t]after her;

and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife. David 43 also took Ahinoam [c]of Jezreel; and [d] they were also both of them his wives.
But Saul had given [e]Michal his daughter, 44
David's wife, to [f]Phalti the son of Laish, which was of [g]Gallim.

And the [a]Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is 2 before Jeshimon? Then Saul arose, and went down to [b]the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wil- 3 derness of Ziph. And Saul pitched [a]in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon, by the way. But David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.
David therefore sent out spies, and 4 understood that Saul was come [c]in very deed. And David arose, and came to 5 the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and [d]Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay in the [f]trench, and the people pitched round about him.
Then answered David and said to 6 Ahimelech [e]the Hittite, and to [f]Abishai [g]the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, Who will [h]go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with thee. So David and Abi- 7 shai came to the people by night: and behold, Saul lay sleeping within the trench, and his spear stuck in the ground [i]at his bolster: but Abner and the people lay round about him. Then 8 said Abishai to David, [k]God hath [t]delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time. And David said 9 to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against [l]the LORD'S anointed, and be guiltless?
David said furthermore, [m]As the LORD 10 liveth, [n]the LORD shall smite him; or [o]his day shall come to die; or he shall descend [p]into battle, and perish. The 11 [q]LORD forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against [l]the LORD'S anointed: but, I pray thee. take thou now the spear that is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go. So 12
David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw it,

13 Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of a hill afar off; a great space being between them:
14 and David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who art thou that criest to the king?
15 And David said to Abner, Art not thou a valiant man? and who is like to thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord.
16 This thing is not good that thou hast done. [m]As the LORD liveth, ye are [t]worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master, [l]the LORD'S anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his bolster.
17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said, [s]Is this thy voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king.
18 And he said, [t]Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand?
19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If the LORD have [u]stirred thee up against me, let him [t]accept an offering: but if they be the children of men, cursed be they before the LORD; for [w]they have driven me out this day from [l]abiding in [x]the inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods.
20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the LORD: for the king of Israel is come out to seek [y]a flea, as when one doth hunt a [z]partridge in the mountains.
21 Then said Saul, [a]I have sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because my soul [b]was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, [c]I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly.
22 And David answered and said, Behold, the king's spear; and let one of the young men come over and fetch it.
23 [d]The LORD render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness: for the LORD delivered thee into my hand to day, but I would not stretch forth mine hand against the LORD'S anointed.

XXVII. 1 And David said in his heart, I shall now [f]perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in any coast of Israel: so shall I escape
2 out of his hand. And David arose, and he passed over with [a]the six hundred men that were with him [b]unto Achish, the son of Maoch, king of

4 And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: and he sought no more
5 again for him. And David said unto Achish, If [e]I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there: for why should thy servant
6 dwell in [f]the royal city with thee? Then Achish gave him [g]Ziklag that day: wherefore Ziklag pertaineth unto the kings of 7 Judah unto this day. And [l]the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was [l]a full year and four months.
8 And David and [h]his men went up, and invaded [i]the Geshurites, and the [k]Gezrites, and the [j]Amalekites: for those nations were of old the inhabitants of the land [k]as thou goest to Shur, even unto 9 the land of Egypt. And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the asses, and [l]the camels, and the apparel, and returned,
10 and came to Achish. And Achish said, [k]Whither have ye made a road to day? And David said, Against the south of Judah, and against the south of [m]the Jerahmeelites, and against the south of 11 [n]the Kenites. And David [o]saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring tidings to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, saying, So did David, and so will be his manner all the while he dwelleth in the

that the Philistines gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel. And Achish said unto David, Know thou assuredly, that thou shalt go out with me to battle, thou and thy men. And David said to Achish, 2 Surely thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of mine head for ever.

[b] ch. 25. 1. Now [b]Samuel was dead, and all 3 Israel had lamented him, and buried him in [c]Ramah, even in his own city. And Saul had put away [d]those that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land. And the Philistines gathered 4 themselves together, and came and pitched in [e]Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in [f]Gilboa. And when Saul saw the host 5 of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart greatly trembled. And when 6 Saul inquired of the LORD, [g]the LORD answered him not, neither by [h]dreams, nor by [i]Urim, nor by prophets. Then 7 said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman [j]that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and inquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman [j]that hath a familiar spirit at [k]En-dor. And Saul [l]disguised 8 himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, [m]divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up, whom I shall name unto thee. And the 9 woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath [n]cut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die? And Saul sware to 10 her by the LORD, saying, [o]As the LORD liveth, there shall no [p]punishment happen to thee for this thing. Then said 11 the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel. And when the woman saw 12 Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul. And the king said unto her, 13 Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw [q]gods ascending out of the earth. And 14 he said unto her, [t]What form is he of? And she said, An old man cometh up; and he is covered with [r]a mantle. And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself.

15 And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and [s]God is departed from me, and [t]answereth me no more, neither [t]by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make 16 known unto me what I shall do. Then said Samuel, [u]Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy? 17 And the LORD hath done [l]to him, [x]as he spake by [t]me: for [x]the LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and given it to thy neighbour, even to 18 David: [y]because thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, nor executedst his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto 19 thee this day. Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and to morrow shalt thou and [z]thy sons be with me: the LORD also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.

20 Then Saul [t]fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night. 21 And the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and [a]I have put my life in my hand, and have hearkened unto thy words which thou spakest unto 22 me. Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayest have strength, when thou goest 23 on thy way. But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, compelled him; and he hearkened unto their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon 24 [b]the bed. And the woman had [c]a fat calf in the house; and she hasted, and killed it, and took [d]flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof: 25 and she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they arose up, and went away that night.

of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands: but David and his men passed on in the rereward [f]with Achish. Then said the princes of the 3 Philistines, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me [g]these days, or these years, and [h]I have found no fault in him since he [i]fell unto me unto this day? And the princes of the Philistines were 4
wroth with him; and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, Make this fellow return, that he may go again to his place, which [j]thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest [k]in the battle he be an adversary to us: for wherewith should he reconcile himself unto his master? should it not be with the heads of these men? Is not this David, of whom they sang 5 one to another in dances, saying, [l]Saul slew his thousands, and David his ten thousands? Then Achish called David, 6 and said unto him, Surely, [m]as the LORD liveth, thou hast been upright, and [n]thy going out and thy coming in with me in the host is good in my sight: for [o]I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless [p]the lords favour thee not. Wherefore now return, and [p]go 7 in peace, that thou [t]displease not [e]the lords of the Philistines. And David said 8 unto Achish, But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant so long as I have been [t]with thee unto this day, that I may not go fight against the enemies of my lord the king? And 9 Achish answered and said to David, I know that thou art good in my sight, [q]as an angel of God: notwithstanding [r]the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle. Wherefore now rise up early in the 10 morning [s]with thy master's servants that are come with thee: and as soon as ye be up early in the morning, and have light, depart. So David and his men 11 rose up early to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to [t]Jezreel.

XXX.

And it came to pass, when David and his men were come to [a]Ziklag on the third day, that the [b]Amalekites had invaded the south, and Ziklag, and smit-2 ten Ziklag, and burnt it with fire; and had taken the women captives, that were therein: they slew not any, either great or small, but carried them away,
3 and went on their way. So David and his men came to the city, and behold, it was burnt with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were 4 taken captives. Then David and the people that were with him lift up their voice and wept, until they had no more
5 power to weep. And David's [c]two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal
6 the Carmelite. And David was greatly distressed; [d]for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was [t]grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: but [e]David encouraged himself in the LORD his God.
7 And David said to [f]Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, I pray thee, bring me hither the ephod. And Abiathar brought 8 thither the ephod to David. And [g]David inquired at the LORD, saying, Shall I pursue after this [h]troop? shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them,
9 and without fail recover all. So David went, he and [i]the six hundred men that were with him, and came to the [j]brook
10 Besor, where those that were left behind stayed. But David pursued, he and four hundred men: for two hundred abode behind, which were so faint that they could not go over the [j]brook Besor.
11 And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did eat; and 12 they made him drink water; and they gave him a piece of [k]a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, [l]his spirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any
13 water, three days and three nights. And David said unto him, To whom belongest thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me, because three days agone I fell 14 sick. We made an invasion upon the south of [m]the Cherethites, and upon the coast which belongeth to Judah, and upon the south of [n]Caleb; and we burnt 15 Ziklag with fire. And David said to him, Canst thou bring me down to this company? And he said, Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down to this company. And when he had brought 16 him down, behold they were spread abroad upon all the earth, eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah. And David smote them 17 from the twilight even unto the evening of [t]the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon [o]camels, and fled. And David [p]recovered all that the 18 Amalekites had carried away: and David rescued his two wives. And there was 19 nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: David recovered all. And David took all the flocks and the 20 herds, which they drave before those other cattle, and said, [q]This is David's spoil.

And David came to the [r]two hun- 21 dred men, which were so faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to abide at the [j]brook Besor: and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him: and when David came near to the people, he [||]saluted them. Then answered 22 all the wicked men and [s]men of Belial, of [t]those that went with David, and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them ought of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead them away, and depart. Then said 23 David, Ye shall not do so, my brethren, with that which the LORD hath given us, who hath preserved us, and delivered the company that came against us into our hand. For who will hearken unto you in 24 this matter? but [u]as his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be [v]that tarrieth by the stuff: they shall part alike. And it was so from that day 25 [†]forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel unto this day.

And when David came to Ziklag, he 26 sent of the spoil unto the elders of Judah, even to his friends, saying, Behold a [†]present for you of the spoil of the enemies of the LORD; to them which were 27 in [w]Beth-el, and to them which were in [x]south Ramoth, and to them which were in [y]Jattir, and to them which were in 28 [z]Aroer, and to them which were in [a]Siphmoth, and to them which were in [b]Eshtemoa, and to them which were in Ra- 29 chal, and to them which were in the cities of [c]the Jerahmeelites, and to them which were in the cities of [d]the Kenites, 30 and to them which were in [e]Hormah, and to them which were in Chor-[f]ashan, 31 and to them which were in Athach, and to them which were in [g]Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men were wont to haunt.

rael: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down [||]slain 2 in mount [b]Gilboa. And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul and upon his sons; and the Philistines slew [c]Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's 3 sons. And [d]the battle went sore against Saul, and the [†]archers [†]hit him; and he 4 was sore wounded of the archers. [e]Then said Saul unto his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest [f]these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and [||]abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; [g]for he was sore afraid: therefore Saul took a 5 sword, and [h]fell upon it. And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword, and died 6 with him. So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armourbearer, and all [i]his men, that same day together.

7 And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of [j]the valley, and they that were on the other side Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled; and the Phi- 8 listines came and dwelt in them. And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons 9 fallen in mount Gilboa. And [k]they cut off his head, and stripped off his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to [l]publish it in the house of their idols, and among the 10 people. And they put [m]his armour in the house of [n]Ashtaroth: and [o]they fastened his body to the wall of [p]Beth- 11 shan. And when the inhabitants of [q]Jabesh-gilead heard [||]of that which the Phi- 12 listines had done to Saul, [r]all the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan, and came to Jabesh, and [s]burnt them there. 13 And they took their bones, and [t]buried them under [u]a tree at Jabesh, and [x]fasted [y]seven days.

SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL,

OTHERWISE CALLED,

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE KINGS.

I. B.C. 1056.

NOW it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned from [a]the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had abode two days in Ziklag; it came even to pass on the third day, that behold, [b]a man came out of the camp from Saul [c]with his clothes rent, and [d]earth upon his head: and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeisance. And David said unto him, [e]From whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped. And David said unto him, [†]How went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered, That the people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also. And David said unto the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead? And the young man that told him said, As I happened by chance upon mount Gilboa, behold, [f]Saul leaned upon his spear; and lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him. And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called unto me. And I answered, [†]Here am I. And he said unto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite. He said unto me again, Stand, I pray thee, upon me, and slay me: for [‖]anguish is come upon me, because my life is yet whole in me. So I stood upon him, and slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and I took [g]the crown that was upon his head, and [h]the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord. Then David took hold on his clothes, and [c]rent them; and likewise all the men that were with him: and they mourned, and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword. And David said unto the young man that told him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite. And David said unto him, How wast thou not [i]afraid to [j]stretch forth thine hand to destroy [k]the LORD'S anointed? And [l]David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. And he smote him that he died. And David said unto him, [m]Thy blood be upon thy head; for [n]thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain [k]the LORD'S anointed. And David [o]lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son: (also he bade them teach the children of Judah the use of [p]the bow: behold, it is written in the book [‖]of Jasher.)

The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places:
[q]How are the mighty fallen!
[r]Tell it not in Gath,
Publish it not in the streets of [s]Askelon;
Lest the daughters of the Philistines [t]rejoice,
Lest the daughters of [u]the uncircumcised triumph.
Ye [w]mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew,
Neither let there be rain upon you, nor fields of offerings:
For there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away,
The shield of Saul, as though he had not been [x]anointed with oil.

will requite you this kindness, because ye have done this thing. Therefore now 7 let your hands be strengthened, and † be ye valiant: for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah have ner the son of Ner, captain of † Saul's host, took † Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to j Mahanaim:

9 and he made him king over k Gilead, and over the k Ashurites, and over † Jezreel, and over k Ephraim, and over k Benjamin,
10 and over all Israel. Ish-bosheth Saul's son was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned two years. But the house of Judah follow-
11 ed David. And the † time that David was king in b Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.
12 And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to m Gibeon.
13 And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out, and met † together by n the pool of Gibeon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other 14 side of the pool. And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men now arise, and play before us. And Joab said, 15 Let them arise. Then there arose and went over by number twelve of Benjamin, which pertained to Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants 16 of David. And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: wherefore that place was called ‖ Helkath-hazzurim, which is in 17 Gibeon. And there was a very sore battle that day; and Abner was beaten, and the men of Israel, before the ser-
18 vants of David. And there were o three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and Asahel was p as

21 said, Art thou Asahel? And he answered, I am. And Abner said to him, Turn thee aside to thy right hand or to thy left, and lay thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee his ‖ armour. But Asahel would not turn aside 22 from following of him. And Abner said again to Asahel, Turn thee aside from following me: r wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to Joab thy brother?

Joab also and Abishai pursued 24 after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lieth before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon. And 25 the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of a hill. Then Abner called to Joab, and 26 said, Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then, ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren? And Joab said, As God liveth, unless 27 [t]thou hadst spoken, surely then [†]in the morning the people had [‖]gone up every one from following his brother. So 28 Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more. And Abner and his men walked all 29 that night through the plain, and passed over Jordan, and went through all [u]Bithron, and they came to [x]Mahanaim. And Joab returned from following Ab- 30 ner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel. But 31 the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that three hundred and threescore men died. And they took up Asahel, and buried 32 him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem. And [y]Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at break of day.

Now there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: but David waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker. And [a]unto David were 2 sons born in Hebron: and his firstborn was Amnon, [b]of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; and his second, [‖]Chileab, of Abi- 3 gail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king [c]of Geshur; and the fourth, [d]Adonijah the 4 son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital; and the sixth, 5 Ithream, by Eglah David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

And it came to pass, while there was 6 war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made himself strong for the house of Saul. And 7 Saul had a concubine, whose name was [e]Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Ish-bosheth said to Abner, Wherefore hast thou [f]gone in unto my father's concu- 8 bine? Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, Am I [g]a dog's head, which against Judah do shew kindness this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargest me to day with a fault con- 9 cerning this woman? [h]So do God to Abner, and more also, except, [i]as the LORD hath sworn to David, even so I 10 do to him; to translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, [k]from Dan even to Beer- 11 sheba. And he could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.

12 And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? saying also, Make thy league with me, and behold, my hand shall be with thee, 13 to bring about all Israel unto thee. And he said, Well; I will make a league with thee: but one thing I require of thee, [†]that is, [l]Thou shalt not see my face, except thou first bring [m]Michal Saul's daughter, when thou comest to see my 14 face. And David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth Saul's son, saying, Deliver me my wife Michal, which I espoused to me [n]for an hundred foreskins of the 15 Philistines. And Ish-bosheth sent, and took her from her husband, even from 16 [o]Phaltiel the son of Laish. And her husband went with her [†]along weeping behind her to [p]Bahurim. Then said Abner unto him, Go, return. And he 17 returned. And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, Ye sought for David [†]in times past to 18 be king over you: now then do it: [q]for the LORD hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand 19 of all their enemies. And Abner also spake in the ears of [r]Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and that seemed good to the 20 whole house of Benjamin. men with him. And David made Abner and the men that were with him a feast. 21 And Abner said unto David, I will arise and go, and will gather all [a] Israel unto my lord the king, [s]that they may make a league with thee, and that thou mayest [t]reign over all that thine heart desireth. And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

22 And behold, the servants of David and Joab came from pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace. 23 When Joab and all the host that was with him were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace. 24 Then Joab came to the king, and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee; why is it that thou hast [x]sent him away, and he is quite gone? 25 Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know [u]thy going out and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest. 26 And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him again from the well of Sirah: but David knew it not. 27 And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab [x]took him aside in the gate to speak with him [||]quietly, and smote him there [y]under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

28 And afterward when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before the LORD for ever from the [†]blood 29 of Abner the son of Ner: [z]let it rest on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not [†]fail from the house of Joab one [a]that hath an issue, or [b]that is a leper, or that leaneth on [c]a staff, or that falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread. 30 So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had slain their brother [d]Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

31 And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, [e]Rent your clothes, and [f]gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David himself followed the [†]bier. 32 And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lift up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept. 33 And the king [g]lamented over Abner, and said,

Died Abner as a [h]fool dieth?
34 Thy hands were not bound,
Nor thy feet put into fetters:
As a man falleth before [†]wicked men, so fellest thou.

And all the people wept again over 35 him. And when all the people came [i]to cause David to eat meat while it was yet day, David sware, saying, [j]So do God to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or ought else, [k]till the sun be 36 down. And all the people took notice of it, and it [†]pleased them: as whatsoever the king did, [†]pleased all the people. 37 For all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner. 38 And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel? 39 And I am this day [†]weak, though anointed king; and these men [l]the sons of Zeruiah [m]be too hard for me: [n]the LORD shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

IV. And when Saul's son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, [a]his hands were feeble, and all the Israelites were 2 troubled. And Saul's son had two men that were captains of bands: the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the [†]other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon a Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin: (for [b]Beeroth also was reck- 3 oned to Benjamin: and the Beerothites [c]fled to [d]Gittaim, and were sojourners 4 there until this day.) And [c]Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son that was lame of his feet, and was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan [f]out of Jezreel, and his nurse took him up, and fled: and it came to pass, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame. And his name was [||]Me- 5 phibosheth. And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, who 6 lay on a bed at noon. And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; and they smote him [g]under the fifth rib: and Rechab and Baanah his bro- 7 ther escaped. For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bedchamber, and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and gat them away through [h]the 8 plain all night. And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul thine enemy, [i]which sought thy life; and the LORD hath avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed. And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, [j]As the LORD liveth, [k]who hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity, [l]when one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, [t]thinking to have brought good tidings, I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag, [l]who thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings: how much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed? shall I not therefore now [m]require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth? And David commanded his [n]young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the [o]sepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

V. Then [a]came all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spake, saying, Behold, [b]we are thy bone and thy flesh. Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, [c]thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD said to thee, [d]Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel. So all the elders of Israel came to the king to [e]Hebron; [f]and king David made a league with them in Hebron [g]before the LORD: and they anointed David king over Israel. David was thirty years old when he began to reign, [h]and he reigned forty years. In Hebron he reigned over Judah [i]seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.

And the king and his men went [k]to Jerusalem unto [l]the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land: which spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: [l]thinking, David cannot come in hither. Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion: [m]the same is the city of David. And David said on that day, Whosoever getteth up to [n]the gutter, and smiteth the Jebusites, and the lame and the blind, that are hated of David's soul, [o]he shall be chief and captain. [l]Wherefore they said, The blind and the lame shall not come into the house. So David dwelt in the fort, and called it the city of David. And David built round about from [p]Millo and inward. And David [t]went on, and grew great, and the LORD God of hosts was with him. [q]And [r]Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and [t]masons: and they built David a house. And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that [s]he had exalted his kingdom for his people Israel's sake.

And [t]David took him [u]mo concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron: and there were yet sons and daughters born to David. And these be the names of those that were born unto him in Jerusalem; [l]Shammua, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, Ibhar also, and [l]Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia, and Elishama, and [l]Eliada, and Eliphalet.

But when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines came up to seek David; and David heard of it, [w]and went down to the hold. The Philistines also came and [x]spread themselves in [y]the valley of Rephaim. And David [z]inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto David, Go up: for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into thine hand. And David came to [a]Baal-perazim, and David smote them there, and said, The LORD hath broken forth upon mine enemies before me, as the breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place [l]Baal-perazim. And there they left their images, and David and his men [b][l]burnt them. And the Philistines came up yet again, and [x]spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim. And when [c]David inquired of the LORD, he said, Thou shalt not go up; but fetch a compass behind them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees. And let it be, when thou [d]hearest the sound of a going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt bestir thyself: for then [e]shall the LORD go out before thee, to smite the host of the Philistines. And David did so, as the LORD had commanded

Again, David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. And aDavid arose, and went with all the people that were with him from ‖Baale of Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, ‖whose name is called by the name of the LORD of hosts bthat dwelleth between the cherubims. And they †set the ark of God cupon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in ‖Gibeah: and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drave the new cart. And they brought it out of dthe house of Abinadab which was at Gibeah, †accompanying the ark of God: and Ahio went before the ark. And David and all the house of Israel played before the LORD on all manner of instruments made of fir wood, eeven on harps, and on psalteries, and fon timbrels, and on cornets, and gon cymbals. And when they came to †Nachon's threshingfloor, Uzzah hput forth i*his hand* to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen ‖shook it. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and jGod smote him there for his ‖error; and there he died by the ark of God. And David was displeased, because the LORD had †made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place ‖Perez-uzzah to this day. And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, kHow shall the ark of the LORD come to me? So David would not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David: but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom lthe Gittite. And the ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months: and mthe LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all his household.

And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God. nSo David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness. And it was so, that when othey that bare the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed poxen and fatlings. And David qdanced before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded rwith a linen ephod. So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet. And as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal Saul's daughter slooked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart. And tthey brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in uhis place, in the midst of the vtabernacle that David had †pitched for it: and David woffered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, xhe blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts. And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine. ySo all the people departed every one to his house. yThen David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to day, who zuncovered himself to day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the avain fellows ‖shamelessly uncovereth himself! And David said unto Michal, It was before the LORD, bwhich chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel: therefore cwill I play before the LORD. And I will yet be more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight: and ‖of the maidservants which thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had in honour. Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death.

And it came to pass, awhen the king sat in his house, and the LORD had given him rest round about from all his enemies; that the king said unto bNathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in ca house of cedar, but the ark of God dwelleth within dcurtains. And Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that is ein thine heart; for the LORD is with thee. And it came to pass that night, that the word of the LORD came unto Nathan, saying, Go and tell †my servant David, Thus saith the LORD, fShalt thou build me a house for me to dwell in? Whereas I have not dwelt in any house gsince the time that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in [h]a tent and in a tabernacle. In all the places 7 wherein I have [i]walked with all the children of Israel spake I a word with [l]any of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded [k]to feed my people Israel, saying, Why build ye not me a house of cedar? Now therefore so shalt thou say 8 unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, [l]I took thee from [m]the sheepcote, [t]from following the sheep, to be ruler over my people, over Israel: and [n]I was with thee whithersoever thou 9 wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies [t]out of thy sight, and have made thee [o]a great name, like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth. Moreover I will appoint a place for my 10 people Israel, and will [p]plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and [q]move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as beforetime, and as [r]since the 11 time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel, and have [s]caused thee to rest from all thine enemies. Also the LORD telleth thee [t]that he will make thee a house. And [u]when thy days be 12 fulfilled, and thou [x]shalt sleep with thy fathers, [y]I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom. [z]He shall build a house for my name, 13 and I will [a]stablish the throne of his kingdom for ever. [b]I will be his fa- 14 ther, and he shall be my son. If he [c]commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men: but my 15 mercy shall not depart away from him, [d]as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before thee. And thine house 16 and thy kingdom shall be stablished for ever before thee: [e]thy throne shall be stablished for ever. According to all 17 these words, and according to all this [f]vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

Then went king David in, and sat be- 18 fore the LORD, and he said, [g]Who am I, O Lord GOD? and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto? And this was yet a small thing in thy 19 sight, O Lord GOD; but thou hast spoken also of thy servant's house for a great while to come. [h]And is this the [i]manner of man, O Lord GOD? And what 20 can David say more unto thee? for thou, Lord GOD, [i]knowest thy servant. For 21 thy word's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all these great things, to make thy servant know 22 them. Wherefore [j]thou art great, O LORD God: for [k]there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with 23 our ears. And [l]what one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for you [m]great things and terrible, for thy land, before [n]thy people, which thou redeemedst to thee from Egypt, from the nations and their gods? 24 For thou hast [o]confirmed to thyself thy people Israel to be a people unto thee for ever; and thou, LORD, art become 25 their God. And now, O LORD God, the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, [p]establish it for ever, and do as thou 26 hast said. And let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel: and let the house of thy servant David be established be- 27 fore thee. For thou, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, hast [t]revealed to thy servant, saying, I will build thee a house: therefore hath thy servant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee. 28 And now, O Lord GOD, thou art that God, and [q]thy words be true, and thou hast promised this goodness unto thy 29 servant: therefore now [t]let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee: for thou, O Lord GOD, hast spoken it: and with thy blessing let the house of thy servant be blessed [r]for ever.

And [a]after this it came to pass, that VIII. David smote the Philistines, and subdued them: and David took [l]Methegammah out of the hand of the Philis- 2 tines. And [b]he smote Moab, and measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground; even with two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive. And so the Moabites [c]became David's servants, and 3 [d]brought gifts. David smote also [l]Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of [e]Zobah, as he went [f]to recover his border 4 at the river Euphrates. And David took [l]from him a thousand [l]chariots, and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David [g]houghed all the IX.

And David said, Is there yet any 1 that is left of the house of Saul, that I may [a]shew him kindness for Jonathan's sake? And there was of the 2 house of Saul a servant whose name was [b]Ziba. And when they had called 3 him unto David, the king said unto him, Art thou Ziba? And he said, Thy servant is he. And the king said,
Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may shew [c]the kindness 4 of God unto him? And Ziba said unto the king, Jonathan hath yet a son, which is [d]lame on his feet. And the king said unto him, Where is he? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he is in the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, in [e]Lo-debar. Then king 5 David sent, and fet him out of the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, from [e]Lo-debar. Now when ‖Mephi- 6 bosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he answered, Behold thy servant. And Da- 7 vid said unto him, Fear not: [f]for I will surely shew thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table con- 8 tinually. And he bowed himself, and said, What is thy servant, that thou shouldest look upon such [g]a dead dog
as I am? Then the king called to Ziba, 9 Saul's servant, and said unto him, I have given unto thy master's son all that pertained to Saul and to all his house. Thou therefore, and thy sons, 10 and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth thy master's son [h]shall eat bread alway at my table.
Now Ziba had [i]fifteen sons and twenty servants. Then said Ziba unto the king, 11
According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do. As for Mephibosheth, [k]said the king, he shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons. And Mephibosheth 12 had a young son, [l]whose name was Mi-cha. And all that dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants unto Mephibosheth.
So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: 13 for he did eat continually at the king's table; and was lame on both his feet.

[a]And it came to pass after this, that X.
the king of the [b]children of Ammon 1 died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead. Then said David, [c]I will shew 2 kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father shewed kindness

him by the hand of his servants for his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.
3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, [f]Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?
4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, [d]even to their buttocks, and sent them away.
5 When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.
6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they [e]stank before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired [f]the Syrians of [f]Beth-rehob, and [g]the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king [h]Maacah a thousand men, and of [i]Ish-tob twelve thousand men.
7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of [k]the mighty men.
8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entering in of the gate: and the Syrians of Zoba, and of Rehob, and Ish-tob, and Maacah, were by themselves in the field.
9 When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians:
10 and the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon.
11 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee.
12 [j]Be of good courage, and let us [k]play the men for our people, and for the cities of our God: and [l]the LORD do that which seemeth him good.
13 And Joab drew nigh, and the people that were with him, unto the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him.
14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before [m]Abishai, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

About B. C. 1036.

15 And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered themselves together.
16 And [n]Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond [‖]the river: and they came to Helam; and [‖]Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went
17 before them. And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with 18 him. And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew [o]the men of seven [p]hundred chariots of the Syrians, and forty thousand [‖]horsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of their host, who 19 died there. And when all the kings that were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, they [q]made peace with Israel, and [r]served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

XI. About B. C. 1035.

And it came to pass, [t]after the year was expired, at the time when kings go forth to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed [a]the children of Ammon, and besieged [b]Rabbah. But 2 David tarried still at Jerusalem. And it came to pass in an eveningtide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon [c]the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman washing herself; and the woman was
3 very [d]beautiful to look upon. And David sent and inquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this [‖]Bath-sheba, the daughter of [‖]Eliam, the wife of

5 house. And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am
6 with child. And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah [g]the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David.
7 And when Uriah was come unto him, David demanded of him [t]how Joab did, and how the people did, and how the war
8 prospered. And David said to Uriah, Go down to thy house, and [h]wash thy feet. And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there [t]followed him

XII. And the LORD sent [a]Nathan unto David. And he came unto him, and said unto him, [b]There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other 2 poor. The rich man had exceeding 3 many flocks and herds: but the poor man had nothing, save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own [f]meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto 4 him as a daughter. And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for 5 the man that was come to him. And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, [c]As the LORD liveth, the man that hath 6 done this thing [f]shall surely die: and he shall restore the lamb [d]fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he 7 had no pity. Then David sent 7 home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him meat. So Tamar went to her brother 8 Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took [l]flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes. And she took a pan, and 9 poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, [e]Have out all men from me. And they went out every man from him. And Amnon 10 said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother. And when she had brought them unto 11 him to eat, he took hold of her, and said unto her, Come lie with me, my sister. And she answered him, Nay, my bro- 12 ther, do not [f]force me; for [f]no such thing ought to be done in Israel: do not thou this [g]folly. And I, whither shall I 13 cause my shame to go? and as for thee, thou shalt be as one [h]of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king; for he will not withhold me from thee. Howbeit he would not 14 hearken unto her voice: but, [i]being stronger than she, forced her, and lay with her. Then Amnon hated her [t]exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith 15 he hated her was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said unto her, Arise, be gone. And 16 she said unto him, There is no [j]cause: this evil in sending me away is greater than the other that thou didst unto me. But he would not hearken unto her. Then he called his servant that minister- 17 ed unto him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, and [k]bolt the door after her. And she had [l]a garment of 18 divers colours upon her: for with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled. And Absalom came to the king, and 24 said, Behold now, thy servant hath sheepshearers; let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants go with thy servant. And the king said to Absalom, Nay, my 25 son, let us not all now go, lest we be chargeable unto thee. And he [q]pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but bless- 26 ed him. But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him. Now Absalom had commanded his ser- 28 vants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is [r]merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not: [l]have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be [t]va- 29 liant. Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was [a]toward Absalom. 2 And Joab sent to [b]Tekoah, and fetcht thence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourner, and put on now mourning apparel, and [c]anoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman that had a long time mourned for the dead: 3 and come to the king, and speak on this manner unto him. So Joab [d]put the words in her mouth. 4 And when the woman of Tekoah spake to the king, she [e]fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, [f]Help, O king. 5 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, [f]I am [g]indeed a widow woman, and mine husband is dead. 6 And thy handmaid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was [f]none to part them, but the one smote the other, and slew him. 7 And behold, [h]the whole family is risen against thine handmaid, and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him, for the life of his brother whom he slew; and [h]we will destroy the heir also: and so they shall quench my coal which is left, and shall not [i]leave to my husband neither name nor remainder [j]upon the earth. 8 And the king said unto the woman, Go to thine house, and I will give charge concerning thee. 9 And the woman of Tekoah said unto the king, My lord, O king, [j]the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house: [k]and the king and his throne be guiltless. 10 And the king said, Whosoever saith ought unto thee, bring him to me, and he shall not touch thee any more. 11 Then said she, I pray thee, let the king remember the LORD thy God, [f]that thou wouldest not suffer [l]the revengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son. And he said, [m]As the LORD liveth, 12 there shall not one hair of thy son fall to the earth. Then the woman said, Let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak one word unto my lord the king. And he said, Say on. 13 And the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against [o]the people of God? for the king doth speak this thing as one which is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again [p]his banished. 14 For we must needs die, and are as [q]water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; [l]neither doth God respect any person: yet doth he [r]devise means, that his banished be not expelled from him. 15 Now therefore that I am come to speak of this thing unto my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, I will now speak unto the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his handmaid. 16 For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man that would destroy me and my son together out of [s]the inheritance of God. 17 Then thine handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be [t]comfortable: for [t]as an angel of God, so is my lord the king [t]to discern good and bad: therefore the LORD thy God will be with thee. 18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak. 19 And the king said, Is not the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, [u]As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, [v]none can turn to the right hand or to the left from ought that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab, he bade me, and [w]he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid: 20 to fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab done this thing: and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth. 21 And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Absalom again. 22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and [t]thanked the king: and Joab said, To day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled 23 the request of [l]his servant. And David said 22 to Ittai, Go and [x] pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him. And all the country wept with 23 a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the [y] brook [‡] Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the [z] wilderness. And lo [a] Zadok also, and 24 all the Levites were with him, [b] bearing the ark of the covenant of God: and [c] they set down the ark of God; and [d] Abiathar went up, until all the people had done passing out of the city. And 25 the king said unto Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city: if I shall find favour in the eyes of the LORD, he [e] will bring me again, and shew me both it, and [f] his habitation: but if he 26 thus say, I have no [g] delight in thee; behold, here am I, [h] let him do to me as seemeth good unto him. The king 27 said also unto Zadok the priest, Art not thou a [i] seer? return into the city in peace, and [j] your two sons with you, Ahimaaz thy son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. See, I will tarry [k] in the 28 plain of the wilderness, until there come word from you to certify me. Zadok 29 therefore and Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem: and they tarried there.

And David went up by the ascent of 30 mount Olivet, [†] and wept as he went up, and [l] had his head covered, and he went [m] barefoot: and all the people that was with him covered every man his head, and they went up, [n] weeping as they went up. And one told David, saying, 31 Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O LORD, I pray thee, [o] turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness. And it 32 came to pass, that when David was come to the top of the mount, where he worshipped God, behold, Hushai the [p] Archite came to meet him [q] with his coat rent, and [r] earth upon his head: 33 unto whom David said, If thou passest on with me, then thou shalt be [s] a 34 burden unto me: but if thou return to the city, and say unto Absalom, [t] I will be thy servant, O king; as I have been thy father's servant hitherto, so will I now also be thy servant: then mayest thou for me [u] defeat the counsel of Ahi- 35 thophel. And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the priests? therefore it shall be, that what thing soever thou shalt hear out of the king's house, [v] thou shalt tell it to Zadok and 36 Abiathar the priests. Behold, they have there [x] with them their two sons, Ahimaaz Zadok's son, and Jonathan Abiathar's son; and by them ye shall send unto me every thing that ye can hear. 37 So [y] Hushai David's friend came into the city, [z] and Absalom came into Jerusalem.

XVI. And [a] when David was a little past the top of the hill, behold, [b] Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him, with a couple of asses saddled, and upon them two hundred loaves of bread, and an hundred [c] bunches of raisins, and an hundred [d] of summer fruits, and a bottle 2 of wine. And the king said unto Ziba, [e] What meanest thou by these? And Ziba said, The asses be for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, that such as be 3 [f] faint in the wilderness may drink. And the king said, And where is thy master's son? [g] And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem: for he said, To day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my 4 father. Then said the king to Ziba, Behold, thine are all that pertained unto Mephibosheth. And Ziba said, [†] I humbly beseech thee that I may find grace in thy sight, my lord, O king.

5 And when king David came to [h] Bahurim, behold, thence came out a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was [i] Shimei, the son of Gera: [‖] he came forth, and cursed still 6 as he came. And he cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David: and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left. And thus said Shimei when he cursed, Come out, come out, thou [f]bloody man, and thou [k]man of Belial: the LORD [l]hath returned upon thee [m]all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned; and the LORD hath delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy son: and, [f]behold, thou art taken to thy mischief, because thou art a bloody man. Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah unto the king, Why should this [n]dead dog curse my lord the king? let me go over, I pray thee, and take off his head. And the king said, [o]What have I to do with you, [p]ye sons of Zeruiah? so let him curse, because the LORD hath said unto him, Curse David. Who shall then say, Wherefore hast thou done so? And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son, which [q]came forth of my bowels, seeketh my life: how much more now may this Benjamite do it? let him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD hath bidden him. [r]It may be that the LORD [s]will look on mine [t]affliction, and that the LORD will requite me good for his cursing this day. And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went along on the hill's side over against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and [f]cast dust. And the king, and all the people that were with him, came weary, and refreshed themselves there.

And [t]Absalom, and all the people the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him. And it came to pass, when Hushai the [u]Archite, David's friend, was come unto Absalom, that Hushai said unto Absalom, [f]God save the king, God save the king. And Absalom said to Hushai, Is this thy kindness to thy friend? [w]why wentest thou not with thy friend? And Hushai said unto Absalom, Nay; but whom the LORD, and this people, and all the men of Israel, choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide. And again, [x]whom should I serve? should I not serve in the presence of his son? as I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence.

Then said Absalom to Ahithophel, Give counsel among you what we shall do. And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Go in unto thy father's [y]concubines, which he hath left to keep the house; and all Israel shall hear that thou [z]art abhorred of thy father: then shall [a]the hands of all that are with thee be strong. So they spread Absalom a tent upon [b]the top of the house; and Absalom went in unto his father's concubines [c]in the sight of all Israel. And the counsel of Ahithophel, which he counselled in those days, was as if a man had inquired at the [f]oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel [d]both with David and with Absalom.

Moreover Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night: and I will come upon him while he is [a]weary and weak handed, and will make him afraid: and all the people that are with him shall flee; and I will smite the king only: and I will bring back all the people unto thee: the man whom thou seekest is as if all returned: so all the people shall be in peace. And the saying [f]pleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel. Then said Absalom, Call now [b]Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise [f]what he saith. And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake unto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken after this manner: shall we do after his [f]saying? if not; speak thou. And Hushai said unto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath [f]given is not good at this time. For, (said Hushai,) thou knowest thy father and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be [f]chafed in their minds, as [e]a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people. Behold, he is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some of them be [f]overthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom. And he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly [d]melt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men. Therefore I counsel that all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, [e]from Dan even to Beer-sheba, [f]as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and [f]that thou go to battle in thine own person. So shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground: and of him and of all the men that are with him there shall not be left so much as one. Moreover, if he be 13 gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one [g]small stone found there. And Ab- 14 salom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For the LORD had [h]appointed [i]to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom.

Then said Hushai unto Zadok and 15 to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled. Now therefore send 16 quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night [k]in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him. Now Jonathan 17 and Ahimaaz stayed by [l]En-rogel; for they might not be seen to come into the city: and a wench went and told them; and they went and told king David. Nevertheless a lad saw them, and 18 told Absalom: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a man's house [m]in Bahurim, which had a well in his court; whither they went down. And [n]the woman took and 19 spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread [o]ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known. And when 20 Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And [p]the woman said unto them, They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem. And it came to 21 pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, and said unto David, [q]Arise, and pass quickly over the water: for thus hath Ahithophel counselled against you. Then David arose, and all 22 the people that were with him, and they passed over Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan.

And when Ahithophel saw that his 23 counsel was not [t]followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and gat him home to his house, to [r]his city, and [t]put his household in order, and [s]hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the 24 sepulchre of his father. Then David came to [t]Mahanaim. And Absalom passed over Jordan, he and all the men 25 of Israel with him. And Absalom made [u]Amasa captain of the host instead of Joab: which Amasa was a man's son, whose name was [l]Ithra an Israelite, that went in to Abigal the daughter of [l]Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Joab's mo- 26 ther. So Israel and Absalom pitched 27 in the land of Gilead. And it came to pass, when David was come to Mahanaim, that [w]Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and [x]Machir the son of Ammiel of [y]Lodebar, and [z]Barzillai the Gileadite of 28 Rogelim, brought beds, and [a]basons, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and 29 beans, and lentiles, and parched pulse, and honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine, for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, and [a]weary, and thirsty, [b]in the wilderness.

And David numbered the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over 2 them. And David sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, [a]and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said unto the people, [b]I will surely go 3 forth with you myself also. [c]But the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not [l]care for us; neither if half of us die, will they [l]care for us: but now thou art [t]worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that thou [t]succour us 4 out of the city. And the king said unto them, What seemeth you best I will do. And the king stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hun- 5 dreds and by thousands. And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Ab- 6 salom. So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was 7 in the [d]wood of Ephraim; where the people of Israel were slain before the servants of David, and there was there a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men. For the battle was there 8 scattered over the face of all the country: and the wood [t]devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

And Absalom met the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon a mule, 9 and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great [c]oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth; and the mule that was under him went away. And a certain man saw it, 10 and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak. And Joab 11 said unto the man that told him, And behold, thou sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given thee ten [f]shekels of silver, and a [g]girdle. And the man 12 said unto Joab, Though I should [t]receive a thousand [f]shekels of silver in mine hand, yet would I not put forth mine hand against the king's son: [h]for in our hearing the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, [t]Beware that none touch the young man Absalom. Otherwise I should have wrought 13 falsehood against mine own life: for there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thyself wouldest have set thyself against me. Then said Joab, I may 14 not tarry thus [t]with thee. And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the [t]midst of the oak. And ten young 15 men that bare Joab's armour compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him. And Joab blew the trumpet, and 16 the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people.
And they took Absalom, and cast him 17 into a great pit in the wood, and laid [i]a very great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel [j]fled every one to his tent. Now Absalom in his lifetime had 18 taken and reared up for himself [k]a pillar, which is in [l]the king's dale: for he said, [m]I have no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name: and it is called unto this day, Absalom's place.
Then said [n]Ahimaaz the son of Za- 19
dok, Let me now run, and bear the king tidings, how that the LORD hath [t]avenged him of his enemies. And 20
Joab said unto him, Thou shalt not [t]bear tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day: but this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the 21 king's son is dead. Then said Joab to [o]Cushi, Go tell the king what thou hast seen. And Cushi bowed himself unto 22 Joab, and ran. Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab, But [t]howsoever, let me, I pray thee, also run after Cushi. And Joab said, Wherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing that 23 thou hast no tidings [l]ready? But howsoever, [p]said he, let me run. And he said unto him, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of [q]the plain, and over-24 ran Cushi. And David sat between the two gates: and [r]the watchman went up to the roof over the gate unto the wall, and lift up his eyes, and looked,
25 and behold a man running alone. And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, there is tidings in his mouth. And he came 26 apace, and drew near. And the watchman saw another man running: and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold another man running alone. And the king said, He also bringeth
27 tidings. And the watchman said, [t]Me thinketh the running of the foremost is [s]like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, [t]He is a good man, and cometh with good tid-
28 ings. And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king, [l]All is well. And he fell down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said, Blessed be the LORD thy God, which hath [t]delivered up the men that lift up their 29 hand against my lord the king. And the king said, [t]Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the king's servant, and me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, 30 but I knew not what it was. And the king said unto him, Turn aside, and stand here. And he turned aside, and 31 stood still. And behold, Cushi came; and Cushi said, [t]Tidings, my lord the king: for the [u]LORD hath avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against 32 thee. And the king said unto Cushi, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Cushi answered, [w]The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee to do thee hurt, be as that young 33 man is. And the king was much moved, and went up to [x]the chamber over the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, [y]O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom: would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son.

XIX. And it was told Joab, Behold, the king weepeth and mourneth for Absalom. And the [f]victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people: for the people heard say that day how the king was grieved for his son. And the people gat them by stealth that day [a]into the city, as people [b]being ashamed steal away when they flee in battle. But the king [c]covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son. And Joab came into the house to the king, and said, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy servants, which this day have saved thy life, and the lives of thy sons and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives, and the lives of thy concubines; [f]in that thou lovest thine enemies, and hatest thy friends: for thou hast declared this day, [f]that thou regardest neither princes nor servants: for this day I perceive, that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died this day, then [d]it had pleased thee well. Now therefore arise, go forth, and speak [f]comfortably unto thy servants: for I swear by the LORD, if thou go not forth, there will not tarry one with thee this night: and that will be worse unto thee than all the evil that befell thee from thy youth until now. Then the king rose, and sat in the gate. And they told unto all the people, saying, Behold, the king doth sit in the gate. And all the people came before the king: for Israel [e]had fled every man to his tent.

And all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he is fled out of the land for Absalom. And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why [f]speak ye not a word of bringing the king back? And king David sent to [g]Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak unto the elders of Judah, saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, even to his house. Ye are my brethren, ye are [g]my bones and my flesh: wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king? And say ye [h]to Amasa, Art thou not of my bone, and of my flesh? [i]God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not [j]captain of the host before me continually in the room of Joab. And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, [k]even as the heart of one man; so that they sent this word unto the king, Return thou, and all thy servants. So the king returned, and came to Jordan. And Judah came to [l]Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over Jordan.

And [m]Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite, which was of [n]Bahurim, hasted and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David. And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and [o]Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went over Jordan before the king. And there went over a ferry boat to carry over the king's household, and to do [f]what he thought good. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he was come over Jordan; and said unto the king, Let not my lord impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember that which thy servant [p]did perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should [q]take it to his heart. For thy servant doth know that I have sinned: therefore, behold, I am come the first this day of all [r]the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king. But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he [s]cursed the LORD'S anointed? And David said, [t]What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that ye should this day be adversaries unto me? [u]shall there any man be put to death this day in Israel? for do not I know that I am this day king over Israel? Therefore [v]the king said unto Shimei, Thou shalt not die. And the king sware unto him.

And [w]Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came again in peace. And it came to pass, when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said unto him, [x]Wherefore wentest not thou with me, Mephibosheth? And he answered, 26

My lord, O king, my servant deceived me: for thy servant said, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and go to the king; because thy servant is [y] lame. And [y]he hath slandered thy ser- 27 vant unto my lord the king; but my lord the king is [z]as an angel of God: do therefore what is good in thine eyes.
For all of my father's house were but 28 [†]dead men before my lord the king: [a]yet didst thou set thy servant among them that did eat at thine own table. What right therefore have I yet to cry any more unto the king? And the king said 29 unto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I have said, Thou and Ziba divide the land. And Mephibo- 30 sheth said unto the king, Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his own house.

[b] And [b]Barzillai the Gileadite came 31 down from [c]Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan. Now Barzillai was a very 32 aged man, even fourscore years old: and [c]he had provided the king of sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man. And the king said 33 unto Barzillai, Come thou over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem. And Barzillai said unto the king, 34 [†]How long have I to live, that I should go up with the king unto Jerusalem? I 35 am this day fourscore years old: and can I discern between good and evil? can thy servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? wherefore then should thy servant be yet [d]a burden unto my lord the king? Thy 36 servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward?
Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back 37
again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and of my mother. But behold thy servant [e]Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good unto thee. And the 38 king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt [†]require of me, that will I do for thee. And all the 39 people went over Jordan. And when the king was come over, the king [f]kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he re-40 turned unto his own place. Then the king went on to Gilgal, and [†]Chimham went on with him: and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel.

41 And behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and [g]have brought the king, and his household, and all David's men with him, over Jor-42 dan? And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is [h]near of kin to us: wherefore then be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten at all of the king's cost? or 43 hath he given us any gift? And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than ye: why then did ye [†]despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king?
And [i]the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

XX. And there happened to be there [a]a man of Belial, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he blew a trumpet, and said, [b]We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: [c]every man to 2 his tents, O Israel. So every man of Israel went up from after David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri: but the men of Judah clave unto their king, 3 from Jordan even to Jerusalem. And David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten women his [d]concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in [†]ward, and fed them, but went not in unto them.
So they were [†]shut up unto the day of 4 their death, [†]living in widowhood. Then said the king to [e]Amasa, [†]Assemble me
the men of Judah within three days, 5 and be thou here present. So Amasa went to [†]assemble the men of Judah: but he tarried longer than the set time which 6 he had appointed him. And David said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take thou [f]thy lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced 7 cities, and [†]escape us. And there went out after him Joab's men, and the [g]Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. When they were at the great 8 stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them. And Joab's garment that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon it a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out. And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in 9 health, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to [h]kiss him. But Amasa took no heed 10 to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so [i]he smote him therewith [k]in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and [t]strake him not again; and he died. So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri. And one of Joab's men stood 11 by him, and said, He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him go after Joab. And Amasa wallowed in 12 blood in the midst of [l]the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still. When 13 he was removed out of [l]the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

And he went through all the tribes of 14
Israel unto [m]Abel, and to Beth-[n]maachah, and all [o]the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him. And they came and besieged 15 him in [m]Abel of Beth-maachah, and they [p]cast up a bank against the city, and [q]it stood in the trench: and all the people that were with Joab [r]battered the wall, to throw it down. Then cried a 16 wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, that I may speak with thee. And when he was come near unto her, 17 the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear. Then she spake, saying, [s]They were 18 wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ask counsel at [m]Abel: and so they ended the matter. I am one of them 19 that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou [q]swallow up [r]the inheritance of the LORD? And 20
Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should [q]swallow 21 up or destroy. The matter is not so: but a man [s]of mount Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri [t]by name, hath lift up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.
22 Then the woman went unto all the people [t]in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it out to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they [t]retired from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king.
23 Now [u]Joab was over all the host of Israel: and [x]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over [y]the Cherethites and over 24 the Pelethites: and [z]Adoram was over the tribute: and [a]Jehoshaphat the son 25 of Ahilud was [l]recorder: and Sheva was scribe: and [b]Zadok and Abiathar were 26 the priests: and [c]Ira also [d]the Jairite was [l]a chief ruler about David.

Then there was a famine in the days XXI.
of David three years, year after year; and David [f]inquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because [a]he slew
2 the Gibeonites. And the king called the Gibeonites, and said unto them; (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but [b]of the remnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to slay them in his zeal to the children of 3 Israel and Judah.) Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless [c]the 4 inheritance of the LORD? And the Gibeonites said unto him, [l]We will have no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any 5 man in Israel. And he said, What you shall say, that will I do for you. And they answered the king, The man that consumed us, and that [d][l]devised against us that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Israel,
6 let seven men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up unto the LORD [e]in Gibeah of Saul, [l]whom the LORD did choose. And the king said, I
7 will give them. But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of [f]the LORD'S oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

But the king took the two sons of [g]Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of ‖Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she [t]brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite: and he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill before the LORD: and they fell all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in [h]the beginning of barley harvest. And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, [i]from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night. And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done. And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from [j]the men of Jabesh-gilead, [k]which had stolen them from the street of [l]Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had slain Saul in Gilboa: and he brought up from thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged. And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son buried they in the country of Benjamin in [m]Zelah, in the sepulchre of Kish his father: and they performed all that the king commanded. And after that [n]God was intreated for the land.

Moreover the Philistines had yet war again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines: and David waxed faint. And Ishbi-benob, which was of the sons of ‖the giant, the weight of whose [t]spear weighed three hundred [o]shekels of brass in weight, he being girded with a new sword, thought to have slain David. But [p]Abishai the son of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David sware unto him, saying, [q]Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the [t]light of Israel. [r]And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob: then [s]Sibbechai the [s]Hushathite slew ‖Saph, which was of the sons of ‖the giant. And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where [t]Elhanan the son of ‖Jaare-oregim, a Beth-lehemite, slew [u]the brother of Goliath the Gittite, [v]the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. And there was yet a battle in [x]Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to ‖the giant. And when he ‖defied Israel, Jonathan the son of [y]Shimea the brother of David slew him. These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell [z]by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

XXII.

And David spake [a]unto the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul: [b]and he said,

The LORD is [c]my rock, and [d]my fortress, and my deliverer;
The God [e]of my rock; [f]in him will I trust:
He is my [g]shield, and the [h]horn of my salvation, my [i]high tower, and my [k]refuge,
My saviour; thou savest me from violence.
I will call on the LORD, [l]who is worthy to be praised:
So shall I be saved from mine enemies.
When the ‖waves of death compassed me,
The floods of [t]ungodly men made me afraid;
The ‖sorrows of hell compassed me about;
The snares of death prevented me:
In my distress [m]I called upon the LORD,
And cried to my God:
And he did hear my voice out of his temple,
And my cry [n]did enter into his ears.
Then [o]the earth shook and trembled;
[p]The foundations of heaven moved
And shook, because he was wroth.
There went up a smoke [t]out of his nostrils,
And fire out of his mouth devoured:
Coals were kindled by it.
He [q]bowed the heavens also, and came down;
And [r]darkness was under his feet.

XXIII. Now these be the last words of David.
[a]David the son of Jesse said,
[b]And the man who was raised up on high,
[c]The anointed of the God of Jacob,
And the sweet psalmist of Israel, said,
[d]The Spirit of the LORD spake by me, 2
And his word was in my tongue.
The God of Israel said, 3
[e]The Rock of Israel spake to me, [l]He that ruleth over men must be just,
Ruling [f]in the fear of God.
And he shall be as the light of the 4 morning, when [g]the sun riseth,
Even a morning without clouds;
As the tender grass springing out of the earth
By clear shining after rain.
Although my house be not so with God; 5
[b]Yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, Ordered in all things, and sure:
For this is all my salvation, and all my desire,
Although [i]he make it not to grow.
But the sons of [j]Belial shall be all of 6 them as thorns thrust away,
Because they cannot be taken with hands:
But the man that shall touch them 7 must be [t]fenced with iron and [k]the staff of a spear;
And they shall be utterly burnt with fire in the same place.
[l]These be the names of the mighty 8 men whom David had: [l]The Tachmonite that sat in the seat, chief among [m]the captains; the same was Adino the Eznite: [l]he lift up his spear against eight hundred, [t]whom he slew at one 9 time. And after him was [n]Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when [o]they defied the Philistines that were there gathered together to battle, and 10 the men of Israel were gone away: he arose, and smote the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave unto the sword: and the LORD wrought a great [p]victory that day; and the people returned after him only to spoil. 11 And after him was [q]Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered together [l]into a troop, where was a piece of ground full of lentiles: and the people fled from the 12 Philistines. But he stood in the midst of the ground, and defended it, and slew the Philistines: and the LORD wrought a great [p]victory. And [l]three 13 of the thirty chief went down, and came to David in the harvest time unto [r]the cave of Adullam: and the troop of the Philistines pitched in [s]the valley of Re- 14 phaim. And David was then in [t]a hold, and [u]the garrison of the Philis- 15 tines was then in Beth-lehem. And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the 16 gate. And the three mighty men brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: nevertheless he would not drink thereof, but 17 poured it out unto the LORD. And he said, Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this: is not this [w]the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty 18 men. And Abishai, the brother of Joab,

XXIV. [a]And [b]again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and [c]he moved David against them to say, [d]Go, number Israel and Judah. For the king 2 said to Joab the captain of the host, which was with him, [e]Go now through all the tribes of Israel, [f]from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and number ye the people, that I may know the number of the 3 people. And Joab said unto the king, Now [g]the LORD thy God add unto the people, how many soever they be, an hundredfold, and that the eyes of my lord the king may see it: but why doth my lord the king delight in this thing? 4 Notwithstanding the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host. And Joab and the captains of the host went out from the presence of the king, to number the 5 people of Israel. And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in [h]Aroer, on the right side of the city that lieth in the midst of the [i]river of Gad, and toward 6 [k]Jazer: then they came to Gilead, and to the [l]land of Tahtim-hodshi; and they came to [m]Dan-jaan, and about to [n]Zi- 7 don, and came to the [o]strong hold of Tyre, and to all the cities of [p]the Hivites, and of [p]the Canaanites: and they went out to the south of Judah, even to 8 Beer-sheba. So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and 9 twenty days. And Joab gave up the sum of the number of the people unto the king: [q]and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men [r]that drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

10 And [s]David's heart smote him after that he had numbered the people. And David said unto the LORD, [t]I have sinned greatly in that I have done: and now, I beseech thee, O LORD, take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I 11 have [u]done very foolishly. For when David was up in the morning, the word of the LORD came unto the prophet 12 [v]Gad, David's [w]seer, saying, Go and say unto David, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things; choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto 13 thee. So Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, Shall [x]seven years of famine come unto thee in thy land? or wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies, while they pursue thee? or that there be three days' pestilence in thy land? now advise, and see what answer I shall return 14 to him that sent me. And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the hand of the LORD; for his mercies are [y]great: and let me not fall into the hand of man. So the 15

LORD sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even to the time appointed: and there died of the people [t] from Dan even to Beer-sheba seventy thousand men.

And when the angel stretched out 16
his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, [u] the LORD repented him of the evil,
and said to [w] the angel that [x] destroyed
the people, It is enough: stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD was by the threshingplace of [†] Araunah the Jebusite. And David spake unto the 17
LORD when he saw the angel that smote
the people, and said, Lo, I have sinned, and I [y] have done wickedly: but these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my father's house. And Gad 18 came that day to David, and said unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of [†] Araunah the Jebusite. And David, according to 19 the saying of Gad, went up as the LORD commanded. And Araunah looked, and 20 saw the king and his servants coming on toward him: and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king on 21 his face upon the ground. And Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, [z] To buy the threshingfloor of thee, to build an altar unto the LORD, that [a] the plague may be stayed from the people.
22 And Araunah said unto David, Let my lord the king take and offer up what [b] seemeth good unto him: behold, here be oxen for burnt sacrifice, and [c] threshing instruments and other [d] instruments of 23 the oxen for wood. All these things did Araunah, as a king, give unto the king.
And Araunah said unto the king, The 24 LORD thy God [e] accept thee. And the king said unto Araunah, Nay; but I will surely buy it of thee at a price: neither will I offer burnt offerings unto the LORD my God of that which doth cost me nothing. So David bought the threshingfloor and the oxen for [f] fifty 25 shekels of silver. And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and [g] offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.
So [h] the LORD was intreated for the land, and [i] the plague was stayed from Israel.

Wherefore his servants said unto him, †Let there be sought for my lord the king †a young virgin: and let her stand before the king, and let her †cherish him, and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king may get heat. So they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the coasts of Israel, and found Abishag a [a]Shunammite, and brought her to the king. Wherefore Nathan spake unto Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not? Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon. Go and get thee in unto king David, and say unto him, Didst not thou, my lord O king, swear unto thine handmaid, saying, [l]Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? why then doth Adonijah reign? Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and †confirm thy words. And Bath-sheba went in unto the king into the chamber: and the king was very old; and [m]Abishag the Shunammite ministered unto the king. And Bath-sheba bowed, and did obeisance unto the king. And she said unto him, My lord, [n]thou swarest by the LORD thy God unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne. And now behold, Adonijah reigneth; and now, my lord the king, thou knowest it not: [o]and he hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the host: but Solomon thy servant hath he not called. And thou, my lord O king, the eyes of all Israel are upon thee, that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. Otherwise it shall come to pass, when my lord the king shall [p]sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted †offenders. than the prophet. And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground. And Nathan said, My lord O 24 king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? [q]For he is gone down this 25 day, and hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest; and behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, [t]God save king Adonijah. [r]But me, even me thy servant, and Za- 26 dok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and thy servant Solomon, hath he not called. Is this thing done 27 by my lord the king, and thou hast not shewed it unto thy servant, who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him? Then king David answered 28 and said, Call me Bath-sheba. And she came [t]into the king's presence, and stood before the king. And the king 29 sware, and said, [s]As the LORD liveth, that hath redeemed my soul out of all distress, [t]even as I sware unto thee by 30 the LORD God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; even so will I certainly do this day. Then Bath-sheba 31 bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and said, [u]Let my lord king David live for ever.

And king David said, [w]Call me Za- 32 dok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king. The king 33 also said unto them, Take with you [x]the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon [t]mine own mule, and bring him down to [y]Gihon: and let Zadok the priest and 34 Nathan the prophet [z]anoint him there king over Israel: and [a]blow ye with the trumpet, and say, God save king Solomon. Then ye shall come up after 35 him, that he may come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah. And 36 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, Amen: the LORD God of my lord the king say so too. [b]As the LORD hath been with my lord 37 the king, even so be he with Solomon, and [c]make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David. So 38 Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the [d]Cherethites, and the [e]Pelethites, went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and 39 brought him to Gihon. And Zadok the priest took a horn of [f]oil out of the tabernacle, and [g]anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and [h]all the people said, God save king Solomon. 40 And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with [i]pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth rent with the sound of them.

41 And Adonijah and all the guests that were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, Wherefore is this noise of the city being 42 in an uproar? And while he yet spake, behold, [j]Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said unto him, Come in; for [j]thou art a valiant 43 man, and bringest good tidings. And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, Verily our lord king David hath 44 made Solomon king. And the king hath sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the [k]Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's 45 mule: and Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon: and they are come up from thence rejoicing, so that the city [l]rang again. This is the noise that ye have 46 heard. And also Solomon [m]sitteth on 47 the throne of the kingdom. And moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, God make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and [n]make his throne greater than thy throne. And the king [o]bowed 48 himself upon the bed. And also thus said the king, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which [p]hath given one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes even 49 seeing it. And all the guests that were with Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way.

50 And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose, and went, and [q]caught 51 hold on the horns of the altar. And it was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah feareth king Solomon: for lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear unto me to day that he will not slay his be put to death this day. And king 25

Solomon sent by the hand of [m]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him that he died. m See 2 Sam. 8. 18.

26 And unto Abiathar the priest said the king, Get thee to [n]Anathoth, unto thine own fields; for thou art [t]worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because [o]thou barest the ark of the Lord GOD before David my father, and because [p]thou hast been afflicted in all where*in* my father was afflicted. 27 So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto the LORD; that he might [q]fulfil the word of the LORD, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in [r]Shiloh.

28 Then tidings came to Joab: for Joab [s]had turned after Adonijah, though [t]he turned not after Absalom. And Joab fled [u]unto the tabernacle of the LORD, and [v]caught hold on the horns of the altar. 29 And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD; and behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall upon him. 30 And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of the LORD, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, Nay; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me. 31 And the king said unto him, [w]Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; [x]that thou mayest take away the innocent blood, which Joab shed, from me, and from the house of my father. 32 And the LORD [y]shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and [z]better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof, to wit, [a]Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and [b]Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah. 33 Their blood shall therefore return [c]upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the LORD. 34 So [d]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him: and he was buried [e]in his own house in the wilderness. 35 And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host: and [f]Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of [g]Abiathar.

36 And the king sent and called for [h]Shimei, and said unto him, Build thee a house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither. 37 For it shall be, that on the day thou goest out, and passest over [i]the brook Kidron, thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die: [j]thy blood shall be upon thine own head. 38 And Shimei said unto the king, The saying is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days. 39 And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto [k]Achish son of Maachah king of [l]Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants be in Gath. 40 And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath. 41 And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again. 42 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for a certain, on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The word that I have heard is good. 43 Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have charged thee with? 44 The king said moreover to Shimei, Thou knowest [m]all the wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father: therefore the LORD shall [n]return thy wickedness upon thine own head; 45 and king Solomon shall be blessed, and [o]the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever. 46 So the king commanded [d]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; which went out, and fell upon him, that he died. And the [p]kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

III. 1 And [a]Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the [b]city of David, until he had made an end of building his [c]own house, and [d]the house of the LORD, and [e]the wall 2 of Jerusalem round about. Only the people sacrificed in high places, because there was no house built unto the name 3 of the LORD, until those days. And Solomon [f]loved the LORD, [g]walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high 4 places. And the king went to [h]Gibeon to sacrifice there; [i]for that was the great [j]high place: a [k]thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer up on that altar.

5 [l]In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon [m]in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee.
6 And Solomon said, Thou hast shewed unto thy servant David my father great [n]mercy, according as he [n]walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that thou [o]hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.
7 And now, O LORD my God, [p]thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I am but [q]a little child: I know not how [r]to go out or come in.
8 And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou [s]hast chosen, a great people, [t]that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude.
9 [u]Give therefore thy servant an [v]understanding heart [x]to judge thy people, that I may [y]discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?
10 And the speech [z]pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing.
11 And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself [a]long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding [b]to discern judgment;
12 [a]behold, I have done according to thy word: [b]lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.
13 And I have also [c]given thee that which thou hast not asked, both [d]riches, and honour: so that there [e]shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days.
14 And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, [e]as thy father David did walk, then I will [f]lengthen thy days.
15 And Solomon [g]awoke; and behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem, and stood before [h]the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt offerings, and offered peace offerings, and [i]made a feast to all his servants.

16 Then came there two women, that were harlots, unto the king, and [k]stood before him.
17 And the one woman said, O my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of 18 a child with her in the house. And it came to pass the third day after that I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also: and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the 19 house, save we two in the house. And this woman's child died in the night;
20 because she overlaid it. And she rose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while thine handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her
21 dead child in my bosom. And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, which I did 22 bear. And the other woman said, Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son. And this said, No; but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son. Thus they spake before the king.
23 Then said the king, The one saith, This is my son that liveth, and thy son is the dead: and the other saith, Nay; but thy son is the dead, and my 24 son is the living. And the king said, Bring me a sword. And they brought 25 a sword before the king. And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the 26 other. Then spake the woman whose the living child was unto the king, for her bowels [t]yerned upon her son, and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor 27 thine, but divide it. Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the 28 mother thereof. And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the [u]wisdom of God was [v]in him, to do judgment.

IV. So king Solomon was king over all
2 Israel. And these were the princes which he had; Azariah the son of Za-
3 dok [w]the priest, Elihoreph and Ahiah, the sons of [a]Shisha, [w]scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the [w]recorder.
4 And [b]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the host: and Zadok and [c]Abiathar
5 were the priests: and Azariah the son of Nathan was over [d]the officers: and Zabud the son of Nathan was [e]prin-
6 cipal officer, and [f]the king's friend: and Ahishar was over the household: and

[g] Adoniram the son of Abda was over the [h] tribute. And Solomon had twelve 7
[d] officers over all Israel, which provided victuals for the king and his household: each man his month in a year made provision. And these are their names: 8
[i] The son of Hur, in [h] mount Ephraim: [k] the son of Dekar, in Makaz, and in 9
[i] Shaalbim, and [j] Beth-shemesh, and Elon-beth-hanan: [k] the son of Hesed, in Aru- 10 both; to him pertained [k] Sochoh, and all the land of [l] Hepher: [k] the son of Abi- 11
nadab, in all [m] the region of Dor; which had Taphath the daughter of Solomon to wife: Baana the son of [n] Ahilud; to 12 him pertained [o] Taanach and [o] Megiddo, and all [p] Beth-shean, which is by [q] Zartanah beneath [r] Jezreel, from [p] Beth-shean to [s] Abel-meholah, even unto the place that is beyond [t] Jokneam: [k] the son 13 of Geber, in [u] Ramoth-gilead; to him pertained [v] the towns of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; to him also pertained [w] the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, threescore great cities [w] with walls and brasen bars: Ahi- 14
nadab the son of [x] Iddo had [k] Mahanaim: [y] Ahimaaz was in Naphtali; he also took 15
Basmath the daughter of Solomon to wife: Baanah the son of [z] Hushai was 16 in Asher and in Aloth: Jehoshaphat the 17 son of Paruah, in Issachar: [a] Shimei the 18 son of Elah, in Benjamin: Geber the 19 son of Uri was in the country of Gilead, in [b] the country of Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only officer which was in the land. Judah and Israel were many, [c] as 20 the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking, and making merry.

And [d] Solomon reigned over all king- 21
doms from [e] the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt: [f] they brought presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life. And 22 Solomon's [t] provision for one day was thirty [t] measures of fine flour, and three-score [t] measures of meal, ten fat oxen, 23 and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, beside [g] harts, and [g] roebucks, and [h] fallowdeer, and fatted fowl. For he had dominion over 24 all the region on this side the river, from [i] Tiphsah even to [j] Azzah, over all the kings on this side the river: and [k] he had peace on all sides round about him. And Judah and Israel dwelt [t] safely, 25
[l] every man under his vine and under his fig tree, [m] from Dan even to Beer- 26
sheba, all the days of Solomon. And Solomon had [n] forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thou- 27 sand horsemen. And those [o] officers provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that came unto king Solomon's table, every man in his month: they 28 lacked nothing. Barley also and straw for the horses and [l] dromedaries brought they unto the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge.

And [p] God gave Solomon wisdom and 29 understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart, even [q] as the sand that is on the sea shore. And Solo- 30 mon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all [r] the children of the east country, and all [s] the wisdom of Egypt. For he 31 was [t] wiser than all men; [u] than Ethan the [v] Ezrahite, and [w] Heman, and [x] Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all nations round 32 about. And [y] he spake three thousand proverbs: and his [z] songs were a thou- 33 sand and five. And he spake of trees, from [a] the cedar tree that is in Lebanon even unto [b] the hyssop that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and 34 of fishes. And there came of all people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from [c] all kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

And [l] Hiram king of [a] Tyre sent his 1 servants unto Solomon; for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the room of his father: [b] for Hiram was ever 2 a lover of David. And [c] Solomon sent 3 to Hiram, saying, Thou knowest how that David my father could not build a house unto the name of the LORD his God [d] for the wars which were about him on every side, until the LORD put 4 them under the soles of his feet. But now the LORD my God hath given me [e] rest on every side, so that there is nei- 5 ther adversary nor evil [f] occurrent. And behold, I [t] purpose to build a house unto the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, [g] he 6 shall build a house unto my name. Now therefore command thou that they hew me cedar trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with thy servants: and unto thee will I give hire for thy servants according to all that thou shalt [t]appoint: for thou knowest that there is not among us any that can skill to hew timber like unto the [h]Sidonians. And it came to pass, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, [i]Blessed be the LORD this day, which hath given unto David a wise son over this great people. And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have [t]considered the things which thou sentest to me for: and I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of [j]fir. My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon unto the sea: and I will convey them by sea in flotes unto the place that thou shalt [t]appoint me, and will cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receive them: and thou shalt accomplish my desire, [k]in giving food for my household. So Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and fir trees according to all his desire. And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand [l]measures of wheat for food to his household, and [l]twenty [l]measures of pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year. And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, [m]as he promised him: and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two made a league together.

And king Solomon raised a [t]levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men. And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses: a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: and [n]Adoniram was over the levy. And Solomon had [o]threescore and ten thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand hewers in the mountains; besides the chief of Solomon's [p]officers which were over the work, [o]three thousand and three hundred, [q]which ruled over the people that wrought in the work. And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, and [r]hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the house. And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders did hew them, and the [s]stonesquarers: so they prepared timber and stones to build the house.

VI.

And it came to pass in [a]the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, [b]in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which is [c]the second month, that he [t]began to build the house of the LORD. And [c]the house which king Solomon built for the LORD, the length thereof was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits. And the porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof before the house. And for the house he made [s]windows of narrow lights. And [s]against the wall of the house he built [t]chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of [t]the oracle: and he made [t]chambers round about: the nethermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without in the wall of the house he made [t]narrowed rests round about, that [g]the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house. And the house, when it was in building, [h]was built of stone made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building. The door for the middle chamber was in the right [t]side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third. [i]So he built the house, and finished it; and covered the house [s]with beams and boards of cedar. And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying, Concerning this house which thou art in building, [j]if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I perform my word with thee, [k]which I spake unto David thy father: and [l]I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not [m]forsake my people Israel.

So Solomon built the house, and [n]finished it. And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, [s]both [o]the floor of the house, and the walls of the cieling: and he covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of [p]fir. And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor and the walls with boards of cedar: he even built them son that [c]shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto my name. And the LORD hath performed 20 his word that he spake, and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, [d]as the LORD promised, and have built a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. And 21 I have set there a place for the ark, wherein is [e]the covenant of the LORD, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

And Solomon [f]stood before the altar 22 of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and [g]spread forth his hands toward heaven: and he said, 23

[h]LORD God of Israel, [i]there is no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath, [k]who keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants that [l]walk before thee with all their heart: who hast kept 24 with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him: thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day. Therefore 25 now, LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him, saying, [m]†There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel; [n]so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walk before me as thou hast walked before me. [n]And now, O God of Israel, let 26 thy word, I pray thee, be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father.

But will God indeed dwell on the 27 earth? behold, [o]the heaven and [p]heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded? Yet have thou respect unto the prayer 28 of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee to day: that [q]thine 29 eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which thou hast said, [r]My name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall make ‖towards this place. And hearken 30 thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray ‖towards this place: and hear thou in heaven [s]thy dwelling place: and when thou hearest, forgive.

If any man trespass against his neigh- 31 bour, †and [t]an oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and the oath come

32 before thine altar in this house: then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, [u]condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

33 [w]When thy people Israel be smitten down before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee, and [x]shall turn again to thee, and confess thy name, and pray, and make supplication unto thee

34 ‖in this house: then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest unto their fathers.

35 [y]When heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; if they pray towards this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their

36 sin, when thou afflictest them: then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, that thou [z]teach them [a]the good way wherein they should walk, and give rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.

37 [b]If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, blasting, mildew, locust, or if there be caterpillar; if their enemy besiege them in the land of their ‖cities; whatsoever plague, whatsoever

38 sickness there be: what prayer and supplication soever be made by any man, or by all thy people Israel, which shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and [c]spread forth his hands towards this

39 house: then hear thou in heaven [d]thy dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou, even thou only, [e]knowest the hearts of 40 all the children of men;) that they may fear thee [f]all the days that they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

41 Moreover concerning a stranger, that is not of thy people Israel, but cometh out of a far country for thy

42 name's sake; (for they shall hear of thy great name, and of thy [g]strong hand, and of thy stretched out arm:) when he shall come and pray towards this house;

43 hear thou in heaven [d]thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for: [h]that all people of the earth may know thy name, to [i]fear thee, as do thy people Israel; and that they may know that †this house, which I have builded, is called by thy name.

For thou didst 53 separate them from among all the people of the earth, to be thine inheritance, [w]as thou spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord GOD.

And it was so, that when Solomon had 54 made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the LORD, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from [x]kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven. And he stood, 55 and [y]blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying, Blessed 56 be the LORD, that hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not [t]failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his ser- 57 vant. The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not 58 [z]leave us, nor [a]forsake us: that he may [b]incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers. 59 And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before the LORD, be nigh unto the LORD our God day and night, that he maintain the [c]cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel [t]at all times, as the matter shall 60 require: [d]that all the people of the earth may know that [e]the LORD is God, and 61 that there is none else. Let your heart therefore be [f]perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.

62 [g]And the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD. 63 And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered unto the LORD, two and twenty thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel 64 dedicated the house of the LORD. The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings: because [h]the brasen altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of 65 the peace offerings. And at that time Solomon held [i]a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from [j]the entering in of Hamath unto [k]the river of Egypt, before the LORD our God, [l]seven days and seven days, even four- 66 teen days. [l]On the eighth day he sent the people away: and they [‖]blessed the king, and went unto their [m]tents joyful and [n]glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

IX. And [a]it came to pass, when Solomon had finished the building of the house of the LORD, [b]and the king's house, and all Solomon's [c]desire which he was pleased to do, that the LORD appeared to 2 Solomon the second time, [d]as he had 3 appeared unto him at [e]Gibeon. And the LORD said unto him, I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house, which thou hast built,

And if thou wilt [h] walk be- 4 fore me, [i] as David thy father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and my judgments: then I will establish the 5 throne of thy kingdom upon Israel for ever, [k] as I promised to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel. But if you 6 shall at all [l] turn from following me, you or your children, and will not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods, and worship them: [m] then will I 7 cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed [n] for my name, will I cast out of my sight; [o] and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all people: and at this house, [p] which is high, every 8 one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, [q] Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and to this house? And they 9 shall answer, Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath the LORD brought upon them all this evil.

And [r] it came to pass at the end of 10 [s] twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD, and the king's house, (now Hiram the 11 king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar trees and fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire,) that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. And Hiram came 12 out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they [t] pleased him not. And he said, [t] What cities 13 are these which thou hast given me, my brother? And he called them the land of [u] Cabul unto this day. And Hiram 14 sent to the king sixscore talents of gold.

And this is the reason of [u] the levy 15 which king Solomon raised; for to build the house of the LORD, and his own house, and [x] Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and [y] Hazor, and [z] Megiddo, and [a] Gezer. For Pharaoh king of Egypt had 16 gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the [b] Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and given it for a present unto his daughter, [c] Solomon's wife. 17 And Solomon built Gezer, and [d] Beth- 18 horon the nether, and [e] Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land, and 19 all the cities of [f] store that Solomon had, and [g] cities for his [h] chariots, and cities for his horsemen, and [i] that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his domi- 20 nion. And all the people that were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which were not 21 of the children of Israel, their children [i] that were left after them in the land, [j] whom the children of Israel also were not able utterly to destroy, [k] upon those did Solomon levy a tribute of [l] bond- 22 service unto this day. But of the children of Israel did Solomon [m] make no bondman: but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his 23 horsemen. These were the chief of the [n] officers that were over Solomon's work, [o] five hundred and fifty, [p] which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work. 24 But [q] Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David unto [r] her house which Solomon had built for her: then did he 25 build [s] Millo. And [t] three times in a year did Solomon offer burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar which he built unto the LORD, and he burnt incense [t] upon the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the house.

26 And king Solomon made a navy of ships in [u] Ezion-geber, which is beside [x] Eloth, on the [t] shore of the Red sea, 27 in the land of Edom. And Hiram sent in the navy his servants, shipmen that had knowledge of the sea, with the ser- 28 vants of Solomon. And they came to [y] Ophir, and fet from thence gold, four hundred and [z] twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

And when the [a] queen of [b] Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to prove 2 him with [c] hard questions. And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was 3 in her heart. And Solomon told her all her [t] questions: there was not any thing hid from the king, which he told her not.

throne of Israel: [h]because the LORD loved Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, [i]to do judgment and justice. And 10 she [j]gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones:
there came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon. [k]And the 11 navy also of Hiram, that brought gold from [l]Ophir, brought in from Ophir great plenty of [ll]almug trees, and precious stones. And the king made of the al- 12 mug trees [ll]pillars for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, harps also and psalteries for singers: there came no such almug trees, nor were seen unto this day. And king Solomon 13 gave unto the queen of Sheba all her desire, what*soever* she asked, besides that which Solomon gave her [t]of his royal bounty. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

[m]Now the weight of gold that came 14 to Solomon in one year was six hundred threescore and six talents of gold, be- 15 sides that he had of the merchantmen, and of the traffick of the [n]spice merchants, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the [ll]governors of the country.
And king Solomon made two hundred 16 targets of beaten gold: six hundred she- kels of gold went to one target. And he 17 made three hundred [o]shields of beaten gold; [p]three pound of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in [q]the house of the forest of Lebanon. More- 18 over the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the [r]best 19 gold. The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round [t]behind: and there were [t]stays on either side on the place of the seat, and two 20 lions stood beside the stays. And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps:
there was not [t]the like made in any 21 kingdom. And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of [s]the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: [l]none were of silver: it was nothing accounted of in 22 the days of Solomon. For the king had at sea a navy of [u]Tharshish with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of Tharshish, bringing gold, and silver, [v]ivory, and apes, and 23 peacocks. So [w]king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and 24 for wisdom. And all the earth [t]sought to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which 25 God had put in his heart. And they brought every man his [w]present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and armour, and spices, horses, 26 and mules, a rate year by year. [x]And Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had [y]a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the cities for chariots, and with the king 27 at Jerusalem. [z]And the king [t]made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as [a]the sycomore trees that are in the vale, for abundance.
28 [t]And Solomon had [b]horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a 29 price. And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for an hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of [c]the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out [t]by their means.

But [a]king Solomon loved [b]many strange women, [ll]together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Am-monites, Edomites, Zidonians, and [c]Hit-2 tites; of the nations concerning which the LORD said unto the children of Israel, [d]Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you: for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods: Solomon clave unto these in 3 love. And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his heart. For it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that [c]his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and [f]his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, [g]as was the heart of David his father. For Solomon went after [h]Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after [i]Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. And Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD, and [t]went not fully after the LORD, as did David his father. Then did Solomon [i]build a high place for [j]Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in [k]the hill that is before Jerusalem, and for [l]Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon. And likewise did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods.

And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because [m]his heart was turned from the LORD God of Israel, which had appeared unto him [n]twice, and [o]had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the LORD commanded. Wherefore the LORD said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this [t]is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, [p]I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant. Notwithstanding in thy days I will not do it for David thy father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son. [q]Howbeit I will not rend away all the kingdom; but will give [r]one tribe to thy son for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, [s]which I have chosen.

And the LORD stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the king's seed in Edom. [t]For it came to pass, when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten every male in Edom; (for six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom:) that Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt; Hadad being yet a little child. And they arose out of [u]Midian, and came to [v]Paran: and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt; which gave him a house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land. And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the [w]queen. And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house: and Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh. And when Hadad heard in Egypt that [x]David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, [t]Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country. Then Pharaoh said unto him, But what hast thou lacked with me, that behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country? And he answered, [t]Nothing: howbeit let me go in any wise.

And God stirred him up another adversary, Rezon the son of Eliadah, which fled from his lord [y]Hadadezer king of Zobah: and he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a band, when David slew them [z]of Zobah: and they went to [a]Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus. And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, beside the mischief that Hadad did: and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

And [b]Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an [c]Ephrathite of [d]Zereda, Solomon's servant, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow woman, even he [e]lift up his hand against the king. And this was the cause that he [e]lift up his hand against the king: Solomon built [f]Millo, and [t]repaired the breaches of the city of David his father. And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon seeing the young man that he [t]was industrious, he made him ruler over all the [t]charge of the house of Joseph. And it came to pass at that time when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet [g]Ahijah the [h]Shilonite found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field: and Ahijah caught the new garment that was on him, and [i]rent it in twelve pieces: and he said to Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, [j]Behold, I will rent the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee: (but he shall have one tribe for my servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel:) because that they

a To ver. 24, 2 Chr. 10. 1—11. 4. b See Josh. 17. 7. c ch. 11. 26. d ch. 11. 40.
1 And a Rehoboam went to b Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king.
2 And it came to pass, when c Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was yet in d Egypt, heard of it, (for he was fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt:)
3 that they sent and called him. And Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came, and spake unto Rehoboam, saying, e ch. 4. 7. e Thy father made our 4 yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee.
5 And he said unto them, Depart yet for three days, then come again to me.
6 And the people departed. And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men, that f See ch. 10. 5 marg. f stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, and said, How do you advise that I may answer this people?
7 And they spake unto him, saying, g Comp. 2 Chr. 10. 7. g If thou wilt be a servant unto this people this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be thy servants for 8 ever.
But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men that were grown up with him, and which 9 f stood before him: and he said unto them, What counsel give ye that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us 10 lighter?
And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou speak unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.
11 And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with

So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, j ver. 5. j as the king had appointed, saying, 13 Come to me again the third day.
And the king answered the people k ver. 11. I will add to your yoke: my father also chastised you with whips, but I will

Wherefore the king hearkened not unto the people; for the cause was l ver. 24. See Josh. 11. 20. l from the LORD, that he might perform his saying, which m ch. 11. 11, 31. m the LORD spake by Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
16 So when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying,

n What portion have we in David?
n See 2 Sam. 20. 1.
Neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse:

To your [n]tents, O Israel:
Now see to thine own house, David.
So Israel departed unto their tents.
17 But as for [o]the children of Israel which dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.
18 Then king Rehoboam sent [p]Adoram, who was over the tribute; and all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. Therefore king Rehoboam [t]made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.
19 So [q]Israel [t]rebelled against the house of David unto this day.
20 And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah [r]only.
21 And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.
22 But the word of God came unto [s]Shemaiah [t]the man of God, saying,
23 Speak unto Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying,
24 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house; [u]for this thing is from me. They hearkened therefore to the word of the LORD, and returned to depart, according to the word of the LORD.
25 Then Jeroboam [x]built Shechem [y]in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built [z]Penuel.
26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David:
27 if [a]this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah.
28 Whereupon the king took counsel, and made [b]two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: [c]behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.
29 And he set the one in [d]Beth-el, and the other put he in [e]Dan.
30 [f]And this thing became a sin: for the people went to worship before [g]the one, even 31 unto [e]Dan. And he made [h]a house of high places, and [i]made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of 32 the sons of Levi. And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto [j]the feast that is in Judah, and he [k]offered upon the altar (so did he in Beth-el.) [k]sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el [k]the priests of the high places 33 which he had made. So he [l]offered upon the altar which he had made in Beth-el the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had [l]devised of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the children of Israel: and he [l]offered upon the altar, [t]and burnt incense.

And behold, there [a]came [b]a man of God out of Judah by the word of the LORD unto Beth-el: and Jeroboam stood
2 by the altar [t]to burn incense. And he cried against the altar in the word of the LORD, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the LORD; Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, [c]Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones
3 shall be burnt upon thee. And he gave [d]a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the LORD hath spoken: Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured
4 out. And it came to pass, when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Beth-el, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he
5 could not pull it in again to him. The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given
6 by the word of the LORD. And the king answered and said unto the man of God, [e]Intreat now the face of the LORD thy God, and [f]pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God besought [t]the LORD, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before.
7 And the king said unto the man of God, Come home with me, and [g]refresh thyself, and [h]I will give thee a reward.

king, [i]If thou wilt give me half thine house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place: for so was it charged me by 9 the word of the LORD, saying, Eat no bread, nor drink water, nor turn again by the same way that thou camest. So 10 he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el.

Now there dwelt an old prophet in 11 [j]Beth-el; and his son came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el: the words which he had spoken unto the king, them they told also to their father. And 12 their father said unto them, What way went he? For his sons had seen what way the man of God went, which came from Judah. And he said unto his 13 sons, Saddle me the ass. So they saddled him the ass: and he rode thereon, and went after the man of God, and 14 found him sitting under an oak: and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Judah? And he said, I am. Then he said unto him, 15 Come home with me, and eat bread. And he said, [k]I may not return with 16 thee, nor go in with thee: neither will I eat bread nor drink water with thee in this place: for [l]it was said to me [m]by 17 the word of the LORD, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou camest. He said unto him, I am a 18 prophet also as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him. So he went back with him, and did eat 19 bread in his house, and drank water. And it came to pass, as they sat at the 20 table, that the word of the LORD came unto the prophet that brought him back: and he cried unto the man of God that 21 came from Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the LORD, and hast not kept the commandment which the LORD thy God commanded thee, but camest back, and hast eaten bread 22 and drunk water in the place, of the which the LORD did say to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy carcase shall not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

And it came to pass, after he had 23 eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the ass, to wit, for the prophet whom he had brought 24 back. And when he was gone, [n]a lion met him by the way, and slew him: and his carcase was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it, the lion also 25 stood by the carcase. And behold, men passed by, and saw the carcase cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carcase: and they came and told it in the city [o]where the old prophet dwelt. 26 And when the prophet that brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who was disobedient unto the word of the LORD: therefore the LORD hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath [p]torn him, and slain him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake unto him. 27 And he spake to his sons, saying, Saddle me the ass. And they saddled him. 28 And he went and found his carcase cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcase: the lion had not eaten the carcase, nor [p]torn the ass. 29 And the prophet took up the carcase of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back: and the old prophet came to the city, to mourn and 30 to bury him. And he laid his carcase in his own grave; and [q]they mourned over him, saying, Alas, my brother. 31 And it came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spake to his sons, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre wherein the man of God is buried; [r]lay my bones beside 32 his bones: [s]for the saying which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Beth-el, and against all [t]the houses of the high places which are in the cities of [u]Samaria, shall surely come to pass.

33 After this thing Jeroboam returned not from his evil way, but [v]made again [w]of the lowest of the people priests of the high places: whosoever would, he [v]consecrated him, and he became one of 34 the priests of the high places. [x]And this thing became sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even [y]to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the earth.

XIV. At that time Abijah the son of Jero- 2 boam fell sick. And Jeroboam said to his wife, Arise, I pray thee, and disguise thyself, that thou be not known to be the wife of Jeroboam; and get thee to [a]Shiloh: behold, there is [b]Ahijah the prophet, which told me that [b]I should be king over this people. And [c]take [3] [†]with thee ten loaves, and [‖]cracknels, and a [‖]cruse of honey, and go to him: he shall tell thee what shall become of the child. And Jeroboam's wife did so, [4] and arose, and went to [a]Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. But Ahijah could not see; for his eyes [†]were set by reason of his age. And the LORD [5] said unto Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam cometh to ask a thing of thee for her son; for he is sick: thus and thus shalt thou say unto her: for it shall be, when she cometh in, that she shall feign herself to be another woman. And [6] it was so, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, Come in, thou wife of Jeroboam; why feignest thou thyself to be another? for I am sent to thee with [†]heavy tidings. Go, tell Jeroboam, Thus [7] saith the LORD God of Israel, [d]Forasmuch as I exalted thee from among the people, and made thee prince over my people Israel, and [e]rent the kingdom [8] away from the house of David, and gave it thee: and yet thou hast not been as my servant David, [f]who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do that only which was right in mine eyes; but hast done evil [9] above all that were before thee: [g]for thou hast gone and made thee other gods, and [h]molten images, to provoke me to anger, and [i]hast cast me behind thy back: therefore, behold, [j]I will bring [10] evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam [k]him that pisseth against the wall, [l]and him that is shut up and left in Israel, and [m]will take away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as a man taketh away dung, till it be all gone. [n]Him that dieth of [11] Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat: for the LORD hath spoken it. Arise thou therefore, get [12] thee to thine own house: and when thy feet enter into the city, the child shall die. And all Israel shall mourn for him, [13] and bury him: for he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him [o]there is found some good thing toward the LORD God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam. [p]Moreover the LORD shall [14] raise him up a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam that day: [q]but what? even now. For the LORD [15] shall smite Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water, and he shall [r]root up Israel out of this [s]good land, which he gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them [t]beyond the river, [u]because they have made their groves, [v]provoking the [16] LORD to anger. And he shall give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, who did sin, and [w]who made Israel to [17] sin. And Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to [x]Tirzah: and when she came to the [y]threshold of the [18] door, the child died; and they buried him; and all Israel mourned for him, [z]according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by the hand of his ser- [19] vant Ahijah the prophet. And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he [a]warred, and how he reigned, behold they are written in the book of the chronicles [20] of the kings of Israel. And the days which Jeroboam reigned were two and twenty years: and he [†]slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his stead.

[21] And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. [b]Rehoboam was forty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city [c]which the LORD did choose out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was [d]Naamah an Ammo- [22] nitess. [e]And Judah did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they [f]provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they had committed, above all that their fa- [23] thers had done. For they also built them [g]high places, and [‖]images, and [h]groves, on [i]every high hill, and [ij]under [24] every green tree. And there were also [k]sodomites in the land: and they did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.

[25] And it came to pass [l]in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt [m]came up against Jerusalem: [26] and he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he even took away all: and he took away all the shields of gold [27] [n]which Solomon had made. And king Rehoboam made in their stead brasen shields, and committed them unto the hands of the chief of the [†]guard, which [28] kept the door of the king's house. And it was so, when the king went into the house of the LORD, that the guard bare them, and brought them back into the guard [o]chamber. [p]Now the rest of the 29 acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And 30 there was [q]war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days. And Reho- 31 boam [r]slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. [s]And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess. And ‖Abijam his son reigned in his stead.

XV. Now [a]in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat reigned Abijam over Judah. Three years reigned 2 he in Jerusalem. [b]And his mother's name was [‖]Maachah, the daughter of [‖]Abishalom. And he walked in all the 3 sins of his father, which he had done before him: and [c]his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father. Nevertheless 4 for David's sake did the LORD his God give him a [‖]lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem: because David [d]did that 5 which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and turned not aside from any thing that he commanded him all the days of his life, [e]save only in the matter of Urijah the Hittite. [f]And there was war be- 6 tween Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life. [g]Now the rest of the 7 acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? [h]And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. [i]And Abijam slept with his fa- 8 thers; and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead.

And in the twentieth year of Jero- 9 boam king of Israel reigned Asa over Judah. And forty and one years reign- 10 ed he in Jerusalem. And his [‖]mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom. [k]And Asa did that which 11 was right in the eyes of the LORD, as did David his father. And he took 12 away [l]the sodomites out of the land, and removed all the [m]idols that his fathers had made. And also [n]Maachah 13 his mother, even her he removed from being [o]queen, because she had made an idol in a grove; and Asa [l]destroyed her idol, and [p]burnt it by the brook [q]Kidron. [r]But the high places were not 14 removed: nevertheless Asa's heart was perfect with the LORD all his days. And 15 he brought in the [t]things which his father had dedicated, and the things which himself had dedicated, into the house of the LORD, silver, and gold, and vessels.

And there was war between Asa and 16 Baasha king of Israel all their days. And [s]Baasha king of Israel went up 17 against Judah, and built [t]Ramah, [u]that he might not suffer any to go out or 18 come in to Asa king of Judah. Then Asa took all the silver and the gold [v]that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king Asa sent them to [w]Ben-hadad, the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, that dwelt at [x]Damascus, say- 19 ing, There is a league between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee a [y]present of silver and gold; come and break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may [t]depart from me. 20 So Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of the hosts which he had against the cities of Israel, and smote [z]Ijon, and [a]Dan, and [b]Abel-beth-maachah, and all [c]Cinneroth, with all 21 the land of Naphtali. And it came to pass, when Baasha heard thereof, that he left off building of [t]Ramah, and dwelt 22 in [d]Tirzah. Then king Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah; none was [t]exempted: and they took away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, where*with* Baasha had builded; and king Asa built with them [e]Geba of Ben- 23 jamin, and [f]Mizpah. [g]The rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Nevertheless [h]in the time of his old age 24 he was diseased in his feet. [i]And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and ‖Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead.

And [j]Nadab the son of Jeroboam [t]be- 25 gan to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned 26 over Israel two years. And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin 27 [k]wherewith he made Israel to sin. [l]And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha smote him at [m]Gibbethon, which 29 he reigned, that he smote all the house of Jeroboam; he left not to Jeroboam any that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according unto [n]the saying of the LORD, which he spake by his servant

30 [o]Ahijah the Shilonite: because of [p]the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and which he made Israel sin, by his provocation wherewith he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.
31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
32 [q]And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.
33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in [d]Tirzah, twenty and four years.
34 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and [r]walked in the way of Jeroboam and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

XVI. About B.C. 930.
1 Then the word of the LORD came to [a]Jehu the son of [b]Hanani against Baasha, saying,
2 [c]Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee prince over my people Israel; and [d]thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins;
3 behold, I will [e]take away the posterity of Baasha, and the posterity of his house; and will make thy house like [f]the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
4 [g]Him that dieth of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth of his in the fields shall the fowls of the air eat.
5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
6 So Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in [h]Tirzah: and Elah his son reigned in his stead.
7 And also by the hand of the prophet [i]Jehu the son of Hanani came the word of the LORD against Baasha, and against his house, even for all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, in provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam; and because [k]he killed him.
8 In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, two 9 years. And his servant [l]Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza [t]steward 10 of his house in Tirzah. And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of 11 Judah, and reigned in his stead. And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he slew all the house of Baasha: he left him [m]not one that pisseth against a wall, [s]neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends.
12 Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, [n]according to the word of the LORD, which he spake against Baasha
13 [u]by [o]Jehu the prophet, for all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, by which they sinned, and by which they made Israel to sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their 14 [p]vanities. Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
15 In the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah did Zimri reign seven days in Tirzah. And the people were encamped [q]against Gibbethon, which 16 belonged to the Philistines. And the people that were encamped heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slain the king: wherefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over 17 Israel that day in the camp. And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.
18 And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with 19 fire, and died, for his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in [r]walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did,
20 to make Israel sin. Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his [s]treason that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
21 Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri.
22 But the people that followed Omri prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, 23 and Omri reigned. In the thirty and first year of Asa king of Judah began B.C. 925.

Omri to reign over Israel, [t]twelve years: six years reigned he in Tirzah. 24 And he bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill, [tu]Samaria. 25 But [v]Omri wrought evil in the eyes of the LORD, and [w]did worse than all that were before him. 26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger with their [x]vanities. 27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he shewed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 28 So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

B. C. 918. 29 And in the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty and two years. 30 And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD [y]above all that were before him. 31 And it came to pass, [t]as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that [z]he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the [a]Zidonians, and went and [b]served Baal, and worshipped him. 32 And he reared up an altar for Baal in [c]the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria. 33 And Ahab made [d]a grove; and Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger [e]than all the kings of Israel that were before him.

34 In his days did Hiel the Bethelite build [f]Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his firstborn, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest son Segub, [g]according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Joshua the son of Nun.

About B. C. 910. 1 And [t]Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab, [a]As the LORD God of Israel liveth, [b]before whom I stand, [c]there shall not be dew nor rain [d]these years, but according to my word. 2 And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, 3 Get thee hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thyself by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan. 4 And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there. 5 So he went and did according unto the word of the LORD: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan. 6 And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook. 7 And it came to pass [t]after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

8 And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, 9 Arise, get thee to [c][ii]Zarephath, which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee. 10 So he arose and went to [c]Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there [f]gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink. 11 And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thine hand. 12 And she said, [a]As the LORD thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but a handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and behold, I am [f]gathering [g]two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die. 13 And Elijah said unto her, Fear not; go and do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and after make for thee and for thy son. 14 For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that the LORD [t]sendeth rain upon the earth. 15 And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, did eat [ll]many days. 16 And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake [t]by Elijah.

17 And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him. 18 And she said unto Elijah, [h]What have I to do with thee, O thou [i]man of God? art thou come unto me to [j]call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son? 19 And he

XVIII. About B. C. 906. And it came to pass after [a]many days, that the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third year, saying, Go, shew thyself unto Ahab; and [b]I will send rain upon the earth. And Elijah went to shew himself unto Ahab. And there was a sore famine in Samaria. And Ahab called [f]Obadiah, which was [f]the governor of his house. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly: for it was so, when [f]Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took an hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.) And Ahab said unto Obadiah, Go into the land, unto all fountains of water, and unto all brooks: peradventure we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, [f]that we leese not all the beasts. So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

And as Obadiah was in the way, behold Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Art thou that my lord Elijah? And he answered him, I am: go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here. And he said, What have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me? As the LORD thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, He is not there; he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they found thee not. And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here. And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from thee, that [c]the spirit of the LORD shall carry thee whither I know not; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I thy servant fear the LORD from my youth. Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the LORD, how I hid an hundred men of the LORD's prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water? And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here: and he shall slay me. And Elijah said, [d]As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will surely shew myself unto him to day. So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, [e]Art thou he that [f]troubleth Israel? And he answered, I have not [f]troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, [g]in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and [h]thou hast followed Baalim. Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount [i]Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of [k]the groves four hundred, which eat at [l]Jezebel's table. So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and [m]gathered the prophets together unto mount [i]Carmel. And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two [f]opinions? [n]if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word. Then said Elijah unto the people, [o]I, even I only, remain a prophet of the LORD; [p]but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men. Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God that [q]answereth by fire, let him be God. [f]It is well spoken. And Elijah said 25 unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first; for ye are many; and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under. And they took the bullock 26 which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal
from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, [g]hear us. But there was no voice, nor any that [g]answered. And they [h]leapt upon the altar which was made. And it came to pass at noon, 27 that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry [i]aloud: for he is a god; either [k]he is talking, or he [l]is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked. And they cried 28 loud, and [m]cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancets, till [n]the blood gushed out upon them. And 29 it came to pass, when midday was past, and they prophesied until the time of the [o]offering of [p]the evening sacrifice, that there was [q]neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any [r]that regarded. And 30 Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was [s]broken down. And Elijah took twelve stones, 31
according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, [t]Israel shall be thy name: and with the stones 32 he built an altar in the name of the LORD: and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed. And he [u]put 33 the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and [v]pour it on the burnt sacrifice, and on the wood. And he said, Do it the 34 second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time. And the water [w]ran round about 35 the altar; and he filled [x]the trench also with water. And it came to pass at 36 the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, LORD [y]God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, [z]let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that [a]I have done all these things at thy word. Hear me, O LORD, hear 37 me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again.
38 Then [b]the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in 39 the trench. And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, [c]The LORD, he is the God; 40 the LORD, he is the God. And Elijah said unto them, [d]Take the prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape. And they [e]took them: and Elijah brought them down to the [f]brook Kishon, and [g]slew them there.
41 And Elijah said unto Ahab, Get thee up, eat and drink; for there is [h]a sound 42 of abundance of rain. So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of [i]Carmel; and he [k]cast himself down upon the earth, and 43 put his face between his knees, and said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing.
And he said, Go again seven times.
44 And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there ariseth [l]a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's hand. And he said, Go up, say unto Ahab, [t]Prepare [m]thy chariot, and get thee down, that the rain stop thee 45 not. And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to 46 [n]Jezreel. And [o]the hand of the LORD was on Elijah; and he [p]girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab [t]to the entrance of [n]Jezreel.

And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and withal how he had [a]slain
2 all the prophets with the sword. Then Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, [b]So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as 3 the life of one of them by to morrow about this time. And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to [c]Beer-sheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there.
4 But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he [d]requested [t]for himself that he might die;
and said, It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better 5 than my fathers. And as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, behold then, an angel touched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat. And he looked, 6 and behold, there was a cake baken on the coals, and a cruse of water at his [t]head. And he did eat and drink, and laid him down again. And the 7 angel of the LORD came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat; because the journey is too great for thee. And he 8 arose, and did eat and drink, and went in the strength of that meat [c]forty days and forty nights unto [f]Horeb the mount of God.

And he came thither unto a cave, 9 and lodged there; and behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said unto him, What doest thou here, Elijah? And he said, I have been very [g]jealous 10 for the LORD God of hosts: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, [h]thrown down thine altars, and [i]slain thy prophets with the sword; and [j]I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away. And he said, Go forth, and 11 stand [k]upon the mount before the LORD. And behold, the LORD passed by, and [l]a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake: and after the earth- 12 quake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a [m]still small voice. And it was so, when Elijah 13 heard it, that [n]he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. [o]And behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What doest thou here, Elijah? [p]And he said, I have been very jealous 14 for the LORD God of hosts: because the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away. And the LORD said unto him, 15 Go, return on thy way to the wilderness of [q]Damascus: and when thou comest, [r]anoint Hazael to be king over Syria: and [s]Jehu the son of Nimshi 16 shalt thou anoint to be king over Israel: and [*]Elisha the son of Shaphat of [t]Abel-meholah shalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room. And it shall 17 come to pass, that him that escapeth the sword of [u]Hazael shall [x]Jehu slay: and him that escapeth from the sword 18 of Jehu [y]shall Elisha slay. Yet [z][‖]I have left me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and [a]every mouth which hath not kissed him.

19 So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah passed by him, and cast [b]his mantle 20 upon him. And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, [c]Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee. And he said unto him, [†]Go back again: for 21 what have I done to thee? And he returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh [d]with the instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat. Then he arose, and [e]went after Elijah, and [f]ministered unto him.

XX. And [a]Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his host together: and there were thirty and two kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and he went up and besieged [b]Samaria, and warred a- 2 gainst it. And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the city, and said unto him, Thus saith Ben-hadad, 3 Thy silver and thy gold is mine; thy wives also and thy children, even the 4 goodliest, are mine. And the king of Israel answered and said, My lord, O king, according to thy saying, I am 5 thine, and all that I have. And the messengers came again, and said, Thus speaketh Ben-hadad, saying, Although I have sent unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and 6 thy wives, and thy children; yet I will send my servants unto thee to morrow about this time, and they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy servants; and it shall be, that whatsoever is [†]pleasant in thine eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it 7 away. Then [c]the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, [d]Mark, I pray you, and see how this man seeketh mischief: for he sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; 8 and [†]I denied him not. And all the elders and all the people said unto him, Hearken not unto him, nor consent.

Wherefore he said unto the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him word again. And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said, The gods [c] do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that [t] follow me. And [c] the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth on his [f] harness boast himself as he that putteth it off. And it came to pass, when Ben-hadad heard this [t] message, as he was [g] drinking, he and the kings in the [l] pavilions, that he said unto his servants, [l] Set yourselves in array. And they set themselves in array against the city.

And behold, there [t] came a prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, [h] I will deliver it into thine hand this day; and [i] thou shalt know that I am the LORD. And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Even by the [l] young men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall [t] order the battle? And he answered, Thou. Then he numbered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty two: and after them he numbered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand. And they went out at noon. But Ben-hadad was [k] drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him. And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria. And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, take them alive. So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army which followed them. And they slew every one his man: and the Syrians fled; and Israel pursued them: and Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with the horsemen. And [c] the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.

And [t] the prophet came to [c] the king of Israel, and said unto him, Go, strengthen thyself, and mark, and see what thou doest: for at [m] the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against thee. And the servants of the king of Syria said unto him, Their gods are gods of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we; but let us fight against them in [n] the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. And do this thing, Take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their rooms: and number thee an army, like the army [t] that thou hast lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight against them in [n] the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so. And it came to pass at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad numbered the Syrians, and went up to [o] Aphek, [t] to fight against Israel. And the children of Israel were numbered, and [l] were all present, and went against them: and the children of Israel pitched before them like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country. And there came [p] a man of God, and spake unto the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Because the Syrians have said, [q] The LORD is God of the hills, but he is not God of the valleys, therefore [r] will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that I am the LORD. And they pitched one over against the other seven days. And so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined: and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in one day. But the rest fled to [o] Aphek, into the city; and there a wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men that were left. And Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, [l] into an inner chamber. And his servants said unto him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings: let us, I pray thee, [s] put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to [c] the king of Israel: peradventure he will save thy life. So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to [c] the king of Israel, and said, Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me live. And he said, Is he yet alive? he is my brother. Now the

And a certain man of [y]the sons of the prophets said unto his neighbour [z]in the word of the LORD, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refused to smite him. Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee. And as soon as he was departed from him, [a]a lion found him, and slew him. Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, [f]so that in smiting he wounded him. So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and [b]disguised himself with ashes upon his face. And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king: and he said, Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he be missing, then [c]shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt [f]pay a talent of silver. XXI. And it came to pass after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in [a]Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

[a] See Josh. 17. 16.

And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying, [b]Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house: and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it; or, if it [f]seem good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money. And Naboth said to Ahab, The LORD forbid it me, [c]that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee. And Ahab came [d]into his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him: for he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread. But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said unto him, Why is thy spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread? And he said unto her, Because I spake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said unto him, Give me thy vineyard for money; or else, if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it: and he answered, I will not give thee my vineyard. And Jezebel his wife said unto him, Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? arise, and eat bread, and let [e]thine heart be merry: I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite. So she wrote letters [f]in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto [g]the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth. And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth [f]on high among the people: and set two men, [h]sons of Belial, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, [i]Thou didst [j]blaspheme God and the king. And then carry him out, and stone him, that he may die. And the men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jezebel had sent unto them, and as it was written in the letters which she had sent unto them. [k]They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people. And there came in two men, [g]children of Belial, and sat before him: and the men of Belial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did [j]blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died. Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money: for Na-both is not alive, but dead. And it 16 came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

And [l]the word of the LORD came to 17
Elijah [m]the Tishbite, saying, Arise, go 18 down to meet Ahab king of Israel, which is in [n]Samaria: behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is the LORD, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speak

Elijah, [p]Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee: because thou hast [q]sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD, behold, [r]I will bring evil upon thee, 21

boam the son of Nebat, and like [y]the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked me to anger, and [z]made Israel to sin. And of Jezebel also spake the 23 LORD, saying, [a]The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the [b]wall of Jezreel. [b]Him that 24 dieth of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat. (But 25 [c]there was none like unto Ahab, which did [d]sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife [e]stirred up. And he did very 26 abominably in following [c]idols, according to all things [f]as did the Amorites, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel). And it came to 27 pass, when Ahab heard those words, that [g]he rent his clothes, and [h]put sackcloth upon his flesh, and [i]fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.
And the word of the LORD came to 28
Elijah the Tishbite, saying, Seest thou 29
how Ahab humbleth himself before me?
because he humbleth himself before me,
I will not bring the evil in his days: but [k]in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house.

it came to pass on the third year, that [b]Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came 3 down to [c]the king of Israel. And the king of Israel said unto his servants, Know ye that [d]Ramoth in Gilead is ours, and we be [f]still, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria?
4 And he said unto Jehoshaphat, Wilt thou go with me to battle to Ramoth-gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, [e]I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy 5 horses. And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Inquire, I pray thee, at 6 the word of the LORD to day. Then the king of Israel [f]gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for the Lord shall deliver it into the hand of 7 the king. And [g]Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD
besides, that we might inquire of him?
8 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehosha-9 phat said, Let not the king say so. Then the king of Israel called an [l]officer, and said, Hasten hither Micaiah the son of 10 Imlah. And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, having put on their robes,

the LORD, With these [k]shalt thou push the Syrians, until thou have consumed 12 them. And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the king's hand.

13 And the messenger that was gone to call Micaiah spake unto him, saying,

COMMONLY CALLED,

THE FOURTH BOOK OF THE KINGS.

I. About B. C. 896.

THEN Moab [a]rebelled against Israel [b]after the death of Ahab. And Aha- 2 ziah fell down through a lattice in his [c]upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them, Go, inquire of [d]Baal-zebub the god of [e]Ekron whether [f]I shall recover of this disease. But the angel 3 of the LORD said to Elijah [g]the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to inquire of [d]Baal-zebub the god of [e]Ekron? Now there- 4 fore thus saith the LORD, [1]Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah departed. And when the 5 messengers turned back unto him, he said unto them, Why are ye now turned back? And they said unto him, There 6 came a man up to meet us, and said unto us, Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to inquire of [d]Baal-zebub the god of [e]Ekron? therefore thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And he said 7 unto them, [1]What manner of man was he which came up to meet you, and told you these words? And they answered 8 him, He was [h]a hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said, It is Elijah [g]the Tishbite. Then the king sent unto him a captain 9 of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him: and behold, he sat on the top of a hill. And he spake unto him, Thou [i]man of God, the king hath said, Come down. And Elijah answered and said 10 to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, then [j]let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there came down fire from heaven, 11 and consumed him and his fifty. Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, O man of God, thus hath 12 the king said, Come down quickly. And Elijah answered and said unto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And [k]the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his 13 fifty. And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and [1]fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, [1]be pre- 14
cious in thy sight. Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let my life now be 15 precious in thy sight. And the angel of the LORD said unto Elijah, Go down with him: be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with him unto 16 the king. And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to inquire of [d]Baal-zebub the god of [e]Ekron, is it not because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? therefore thou shalt not come down off that bed on which thou art gone

So he died [f][The second year that Jehoram was Prorex, and the eighteenth of Jehoshaphat, ch. 3. 1]. according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And [f]Jehoram reigned in his stead in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of 18 Judah; because he had no son. II. And it came to pass, when the LORD would [a]take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with [b]Elisha from [c]Gilgal. And Elijah said unto 2 Elisha, [d]Tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to [e]Beth-el. And Elisha said unto him, [f]As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Beth-el. And [g]the sons of the prophets that 3 were at Beth-el came forth to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master [h]from thy head to day? And he said, Yea, I know it; hold you your peace. And Eli- 4 jah said unto him, Elisha, tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to [i]Jericho. And he said, [f]As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came to Jericho. And the sons of the prophets that were 5 at Jericho came to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master [h]from thy head to day? And he answered, Yea, I know it; hold you your peace. And Elijah said 6 unto him, Tarry, I pray thee, here; for the LORD hath sent me to Jordan. And he said, [f]As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on. And fifty men of 7 the sons of the prophets went, and stood [j]to view afar off: and they two stood by Jordan. And Elijah took [k]his mantle, 8 and wrapt it together, and smote the waters, and [m]they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground. And it came to pass, 9 when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let [n]a double portion of thy spirit be upon me. And he said, [l]Thou hast asked a hard 10 thing: nevertheless, if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so. And it came to pass, as they still went 11 on, and talked, that behold, there appeared [o]a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and [p]Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. And Elisha saw it, and he cried, 12 [q]My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and [r]rent them in 13 two pieces. He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the [t]bank of Jordan; 14 and he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the LORD God of Elijah? and when he also had smitten the waters, [s]they parted hither and thither: 15 and Elisha went over. And when the sons of the prophets which were [u]to view at Jericho saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed them- 16 selves to the ground before him. And they said unto him, Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty [v]strong men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure [w]the spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon [x]some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shall not send. 17 And when they urged him [y]till he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought 18 three days, but found him not. And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho,) he said unto them, Did I not say unto you, Go not?

19 And the men of the city said unto Elisha, Behold, I pray thee, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord seeth: but the water is naught, and the ground 20 [z]barren. And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt therein. And they 21 brought it to him. And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and [aa]cast the salt in there, and said, Thus saith the LORD, I have healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more 22 death or barren [bb]land. So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spake.

23 And he went up from thence unto Beth-el: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth [cc]little [dd]children out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, Go up, thou bald head; 24 go up, thou bald head. And he turned back, and looked on them, and [ee]cursed them in the name of the LORD. And there came forth two she bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two [ff]chil- 25 dren of them. And he went from thence to mount [gg]Carmel, and from thence he returned to [hh]Samaria.

he wrought evil in the sight of the LORD; but not like his father, and like his mother: for he put away the [f]image of Baal [b]that his father had made. 3 Nevertheless he cleaved unto [c]the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, [d]which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom. 4 And Mesha king of Moab was a [e]sheepmaster, and rendered unto the king of Israel an hundred thousand [f]lambs, and an hundred thousand rams, with the wool. 5 But it came to pass, when [g]Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. 6 And king Jehoram went out of Samaria the same time, and numbered all Israel. 7 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me against Moab to battle? And he said, I will go up: [i]I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses. 8 And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way through the wilderness of Edom. 9 So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and [k]the king of Edom: and they fetcht a compass of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the host, and for the cattle that [l]followed them. 10 And the king of Israel said, [l]Alas, that the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab. 11 But [m]Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD, that we may inquire of the LORD by him? And [n]one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, [o]which poured water on the hands of Elijah. 12 And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him. 13 And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, [p]What have I to do with thee? [q]get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to [r]the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, Nay: for the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab. 14 And Elisha said, [s]As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I [t]regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward thee, nor see thee. 15 But now bring me [u]a minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that [w]the hand of the LORD came upon 16 him. And he said, Thus saith the LORD, 17 Make this valley full of [x]ditches. For thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye, and your cattle, and 18 your beasts. And this is but [y]a light thing in the sight of the LORD: he will deliver the Moabites also into your hand. 19 And ye shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all wells of water, and [t]mar every good piece of land with 20 stones. And it came to pass in the morning, when [z]the meat offering was offered, that behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

21 And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they [t]gathered all that were able to [t]put on armour, and upward, and stood 22 in the border. And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood: 23 and they said, This is blood: the kings are surely [t]slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to 24 the spoil. And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but [l]they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their 25 country. And they beat down the cities, and [a]on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: [t]only in [b]Kir-haraseth left they the stones thereof; howbeit the slingers went about it, and smote 26 it. And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men [c]that drew swords, to break through even unto the king of Edom: but they could not. 27 Then [d]he took his eldest son that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Israel: and they departed from him, and [e]returned to their own land.

IV. Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of [a]the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD: and [b]the creditor is come to take unto him my 2 two sons to be bondmen. And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oil.

3 Then he said, Go, [c]borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; [f]borrow not a few.
4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full.
5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured out.
6 And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed.
7 Then she came and told [d]the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy [l]debt, and live thou and thy children of the rest.
8 And [t]it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to [e]Shunem, where was [f]a great woman; and she [t]constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread.
9 And she said unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is a holy [d]man of God, which passeth by us continually.
10 Let us make a little [g]chamber, I pray thee, on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.
11 And it fell on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the [g]chamber, and lay there.
12 And he said to [h]Gehazi his servant, Call this [e]Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him.
13 And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast been [i]careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to [k]the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people.
14 And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Verily she hath no child, and her husband is old.
15 And he said, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood in the door.
16 And he said, [l]About this [t]season, according to the time of life, thou shalt [m]embrace a son. And she said, Nay, my lord, [d]thou man of God, [n]do not lie unto thine handmaid.
17 And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life.
18 And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his 19 father to the reapers. And he said unto his father, [o]My head, my head. And he said to a lad, Carry him to his 20 mother. And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died.
21 And she went up, and laid him on [p]the bed of [d]the man of God, and shut
22 [q]the door upon him, and went out. And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to [d]the man of God, and come 23 again. And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? it is neither [r]new moon, nor sabbath. And she said, 24 It shall be [t]well. Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; [t]slack not thy riding for 25 me, except I bid thee. So she went and came unto the man of God to [s]mount Carmel. And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her [t]afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, yonder is that [e]Shunammite:
26 run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her, Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she answered, It is well.
27 And when she came to the man of God to [u]the hill, she [x]caught [t]him by the feet: but Gehazi came near to thrust her away. And the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul is [t]vexed within her: and the LORD hath hid it from me, and hath not told me.
28 Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? [y]did I not say, Do not deceive me?
29 Then he said to Gehazi, [z]Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, [a]salute him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again: and [b]lay my 30 staff upon the face of the child. And the mother of the child said, [c]As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and 31 followed her. And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor [t]hearing. Wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is not [d]awaked.
32 And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed. He went in therefore, 33 and [e]shut the door upon them twain, and [f]prayed unto the LORD. And he 34 went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he [g]stretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child waxed warm. Then he returned, 35 and walked in the house [t]to and fro;

and went up, and [g]stretched himself upon him: and the child neesed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.
And he called Gehazi, and said, Call 36

And when she was come in unto him, he said, Take up thy son. Then she 37

And Elisha came again to [i]Gilgal: 38 and there was a [k]dearth in the land; and [l]the sons of the prophets were [m]sitting before him: and he said unto his servant, [n]Set on the great pot, and seethe pottage for the sons of the prophets.
And one went out into the field to 39 gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered thereof wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred them into the pot of pottage: for they knew them not. So they poured out for the men 40 to eat. And it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, O thou man of God, there is death in the pot. And they could not eat thereof. But he said, 41 Then bring meal. And [o]he cast it into the pot; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. And there was no [t]harm in the pot.

And there came a man from Baal- 42
[p]shalisha, and [q]brought the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley, and [r]full ears of corn [t]in the husk thereof. And he said, [s]Give unto the people, that they may eat. And 43 his [t]servitor said, What, should I set this before an hundred men? He said again, Give the people, that they may eat: for thus saith the LORD, They shall eat, and [u]shall leave thereof. So he set 44 it before them, and they did eat, and [u]left thereof, according to the word of the LORD.

V. Now Naaman, [a]captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man [t]with his master, and [‖]honourable, because by him the LORD had given [‖]deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man
2 in valour, but he was a leper. And the Syrians had gone out by [b]companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and 3 she [t]waited on Naaman's wife. And she said unto her mistress, Would God my lord were [t]with the prophet that is in Samaria; for he would [t]recover him 4 of his leprosy. And one went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of 5 Israel. And the king of Syria said, Go to, go, and I will send a letter unto the king of Israel. And he departed, and [c]took [t]with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten [d]changes 6 of raiment. And he brought the letter to [e]the king of Israel, saying, Now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have therewith sent Naaman my servant to thee, that thou mayest recover him of 7 his leprosy. And it came to pass, when [e]the king of Israel had read the letter, that [f]he rent his clothes, and said, [g]Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? wherefore [h]consider, I pray you, and see how he seek-8 eth a quarrel against me. And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that [e]the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in 9 Israel. So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the 10 door of the house of Elisha. And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying,
Go and [i]wash in Jordan seven times,
and thy flesh shall come again to thee, 11 and thou shalt be clean. But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, Beho'd, [†‖]I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and [t]strike his hand over the place, and 12 recover the leper. Are not [‖]Abana and Pharpar, rivers of [k]Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean? So he 13 turned and went away in a rage. And his servants came near, and spake unto him, and said, [l]My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean? Then went 14 he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of [m] the man of God: and [m]his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, [n] and [n]he was clean.

And he returned to the man of God, 15 he and all his company, and came, and stood before him: and he said, Behold, now I know that there is [o]no God in all the earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take [p]a blessing of thy servant. But he said, [q]As the LORD 16 liveth, before whom I stand, [r]I will receive none. And he urged him to take it; but he refused. And Naaman 17 said, Shall there not then, I pray thee, be given to thy servant two mules' burden of earth? for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto the LORD. In this thing the LORD 18 pardon thy servant, that when my master goeth into the house of [s]Rimmon to worship there, and [t]he leaneth on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon: when I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon thy servant in this thing. And he 19 said unto him, [u]Go in peace. So he departed from him [t]a little way.

But [x]Gehazi, the servant of Elisha 20
the man of God, said, Behold, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but, [y]as the LORD liveth, I will run after him, and take somewhat of him. So Gehazi followed after Naa- 21 man. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he [z]lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, [t]Is all well? And he said, All is well. My 22 master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there be come to me from [a]mount Ephraim two young men of [b]the sons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments. And Naaman said, [c]Be 23 content, take two talents. And he urged him, and [d]bound two talents of silver in two [e]bags, with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bare them before him. And when he came to the ‖tower, 24 he took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house: and he let the men go, and they departed. But 25
he went in, and stood before his master.
And Elisha said unto him, Whence comest thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy 26 servant went [f]no whither. And he said unto him, Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and menservants, 27 and maidservants? The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence [g]a leper as white as snow.

VI. And [a]the sons of the prophets said unto Elisha, Behold now, the place where we dwell with thee is too strait 2 for us. Let us go, we pray thee, unto Jordan, and take thence every man a beam, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. And he answer-3 ed, Go ye. And one said, Be content,
I pray thee, and go with thy servants.
4 And he answered, I will go. So he went with them. And when they came 5 to Jordan, they cut down wood. But as one was felling a beam, the [t]axe head fell into the water: and he cried, and said, Alas, master, for it was [b]bor-6 rowed. And the man of God said, Where fell it? And he shewed him the place. And [c]he cut down a stick, and cast it in thither; and the iron did 7 swim. Therefore said he, Take it up to thee. And he put out his hand, and took it.

8 Then the king of Syria warred against Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place 9 shall be my ‖camp. And the man of fore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a [f]great host: and they came by night, and compassed the city about. And when the [g]servant of the man of 15 God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, a host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master, how shall we do? And he answered, 16 Fear not: for [h]they that be with us are moe than they that be with them. And 17 Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and behold, the mountain was full of [i]horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha. And when they came down to him, 18 Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with [j]blindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. And Elisha said unto them, This 19 is not the way, neither is this the city: [k]follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. But he led them to Samaria. And it came to pass, when 20 they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, [l]LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and behold, they were in the midst of Samaria. And the king of Israel said 21 unto Elisha, when he saw them, [m]My father, shall I smite them? shall I smite them? And he answered, Thou shalt 22 not smite them: wouldest thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive [n]with thy sword and with thy bow? [o]set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master. And he prepared great provi- 23 sion for them: and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So [p]the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

And it came to pass after this, that 24 [q]Ben-hadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria. And there was a great fa- 25 mine in Samaria: and behold, they besieged it, until an ass's head was sold for fourscore pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a kab of dove's dung for five pieces of silver. And as the king 26 of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, Help, my lord, O king. And he said, 27 [r]If the LORD do not help thee, whence shall I help thee? out of the [s]barn- 28 floor, or out of the winepress? And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, This woman said unto me, Give thy son, that we may eat him to day, and we will eat 29 my son to morrow. So [t]we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the [u]next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him: and she hath 30 hid her son. And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he [v]rent his clothes; and he passed by upon the wall, and the people looked, and behold, he had [w]sackcloth within upon his flesh. Then he 31 said, [x]God do so and more also to me, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand on him this day.

But Elisha sat in his house, and [y]the 32 elders sat with him; and the king sent a man from before him: but ere the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, See ye how this son of [z]a murderer hath sent to take away mine head? look, when the messenger cometh, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door: [a]is not the sound of his master's feet behind 33 him? And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down unto him: and he said, Behold, this evil is of the LORD; [b]what should I wait for the LORD any longer? Then Elisha said, VII. Hear ye the word of the LORD; Thus About B. Then [d]a lord on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, Behold, [e]if the LORD would make windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof. And there were four leprous men [f]at 3 the entering in of the gate: and they said one to another, Why sit we here until we die? If we say, We will enter 4 into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the host of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall 5 but die. And they rose up in [g]the twilight, to go unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the uttermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, there was no man there. For the Lord 6 had made the host of the Syrians [f]to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host:

and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us [g]the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us. [h]Where- 7 fore they arose and fled in [e]the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses,
and their asses, even the camp [i]as it was, and fled for their life. And when 8 these lepers came to the utternost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it. Then they 9 said one to another, We do not well:
this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, [t]some mischief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the king's household.
So they came and called unto the por- 10
ter of the city: and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents [i]as they were. And he called the porters; 11 and they told it to the king's house within.

And the king arose in the night, and 12 said unto his servants, I will now shew
you what the Syrians have done to us.
They know that we be hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city. And 13 one of his servants answered and said, Let some take, I pray thee, [k]five of the horses that remain, which are left [t]in the city, (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it:
behold, I say, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed:) and let us send and see. They 14 took therefore two chariot horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see. And they 15 went after them unto Jordan: and lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. And the messengers returned, and told the king. And the 16 people went out, and spoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, [l]according 1 ver. 1.

of the gate: and the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spake [n]when n ch. 6. 32.
18 the king came down to him. And it came to pass as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, [l]Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be to morrow about this time in the gate 19 of Samaria: and that [m]lord answered the man of God, and said, Now behold, if the LORD should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with 20 And so it fell out unto him: for the people trode upon him in the gate, and he

and it was told him, saying, The man of God is come hither. And the king said unto [f]Hazael, Take [h]a present in thine hand, and go, meet the man of God, and [i]inquire of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease? So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present [t]with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, [k]Thy son Ben-hadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease? And Elisha said unto him, Go, say unto him, Thou mayest certainly recover: howbeit the LORD hath shewed me that [l]he shall surely die. And he settled his countenance [t]stedfastly, [m]until he was ashamed: and the man of God wept. And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know [n]the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, and [o]wilt dash their children, and [p]rip up their women with child. And Hazael said, But what, [q]is thy servant a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, [r]The LORD hath shewed me that thou shalt be king over Syria. So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He told me that [s]thou shouldest surely recover. And it came to pass on the morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dipt it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died: and Hazael reigned in his stead.

And in the fifth year of [t]Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being then king of Judah, [u]Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah [t]began to reign. [x]Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for [y]the daughter of Ahab was his wife: and he did evil in the sight of the LORD. Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah for David his servant's sake, [z]as he promised him to give to him alway a [t]light, [a]and to his children. In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and [b]made a king over themselves. So Joram went over to Zair, and all the chariots with him: and he rose by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots: and the people fled [c]into their tents. [t]Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then [d]Libnah revolted at the same time. And the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers [e]in the city of David: and [t][g]Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

In the [g]twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel did Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah begin to reign. [h]Two and twenty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the [t]daughter of Omri king of Israel. And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab: for he was [i]the son in law of the house of Ahab. And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to the war against [k]Hazael king of Syria in [l]Ramoth-gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram. And [m]king Joram went back to be healed in [n]Jezreel of the wounds [t]which the Syrians had given him at [l]Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. [o]And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was [t]sick.

And Elisha the prophet called one of [a]the children of the prophets, and said unto him, [b]Gird up thy loins, and take this [c]box of oil in thine hand, and go to [d]Ramoth-gilead: and when thou comest thither, look out there [e]Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among [t]his brethren, and carry him to an [t]inner chamber: then take the [c]box of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel. Then open the door, and flee, and tarry not. So the young man, even the young man [a]the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead. And when he came, behold, the captains of the host were sitting; and he said, I have an errand to thee, O captain. And Jehu said, Unto which of all us? And he said, To thee, O captain. And he arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I have anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, even over Israel. And thou 7 shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, [g]at the hand of Jezebel. For the whole house 8 of Ahab shall perish: and [h]I will cut off from Ahab [i]him that pisseth against the wall, and [k]him that is shut up and left in Israel: and I will make the house of 9

Ahab like the house of [l]Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of [m]Baasha the son of Ahijah: [n]and the 10 dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of [o]Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.

Then Jehu came forth to the servants 11 of his lord: and one said unto him, [p]Is all well? wherefore came [q]this mad fellow to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man, and his [r]communication. And they said, It is false; tell us 12

one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again. Then he sent out a second on horse- 19 back, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered, What hast thou to do 20 with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, He came even unto them, and cometh not again: and the [‖]driving is [z]like the driving of Jehu [a]the son of Nimshi; for he driveth
21 [†]furiously. And Joram said, [†]Make ready. And his chariot was made ready. And [b]Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and [†]met him [c]in the portion of Naboth 22 the Jezreelite. And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, What peace, so long as the [d]whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel and her [d]witchcrafts are 23 so many? And Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is 24 treachery, O Ahaziah. And Jehu [†]drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he [†]sunk
25 down in his chariot. Then said Jehu to Bidkar his [e]captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode [f]together after Ahab his father, [g]the LORD laid this 26 [h]burden upon him; surely I have seen yesterday the [†]blood of Naboth, and the [†]blood of his sons, saith the LORD; and [g]I will requite thee in this [‖]plat, saith the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him into the [†]plat of ground, according to the word of the LORD.

27 But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. And Jehu followed after him, and said, Smite him also in the chariot. [i]And they did so at the going up to Gur, which is by [i]Ibleam. And he 28 fled to [‖]Megiddo, and died there. And his servants [j]carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the city of Da-
29 vid. And in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began [‖]Ahaziah to reign over Judah.

30 And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she [k†]painted her face, and tired her head, and [†]look-31 ed out at a window. And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Had [m]Zimri peace, who slew his master?
32 And he lift up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who?

again, and told him. And he said, This

X. And Ahab had seventy sons in [a]Sa- 1 maria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, unto the rulers of Jez-reel, to the elders, and to [†]them that brought up Ahab's children, saying, Now 2
as soon as this letter cometh to you, seeing your master's sons are with you,
and there are with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and armour;
look even out the best and meetest of 3 your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house. But they were exceedingly 4 afraid, and said, Behold, two kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand? And he that was over the 5 house, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and the bringers up of the children, sent to Jehu, saying, [b]We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes. Then he wrote a letter the 6 second time to them, saying, If ye be [†]mine, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by to morrow this time. Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, which brought them up. And it came 7 to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and slew seventy persons, and put their heads in [c]baskets, and sent him them to Jezreel.
And there came a messenger, and told 8 him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning.
9 And it came to pass in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, [d]I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who slew all these?
10 Know now that there shall [e]fall unto the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spake concerning the house of Ahab: for the LORD hath done that which he spake [f]by his 11 servant Elijah. So Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jez-reel, and all his great men, and his [‖]kinsfolks, and his [g]priests, until [h]he left him none remaining.
12 And he arose and departed, and came to Samaria. And as he was at 13 the [†]shearing house in the way, Jehu [†]met with the [i]brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah; and we go down [†]to salute
the children of the king and the chil-14 dren of the [k]queen. And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of the shearing house, even two and forty men; neither 15 left he any of them. And when he was departed thence, he [†]lighted on [l]Jehonadab the son of [m]Rechab coming to meet him: and he [†]saluted him, and said to him, Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? And Jehonadab answered, It is. If it be, [n]give me thine hand. And he gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the 16 chariot. And he said, Come with me, and see [o]my zeal for the LORD. So 17 they made him ride in his chariot. And when he came to Samaria, he slew [p]all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD, [q]which he spake to Elijah.
18 And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, [r]Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu shall serve 19 him much. Now therefore call unto me all the [s]prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal; whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtilty, to the intent that he might 20 destroy the worshippers of Baal. And Jehu said, [†]Proclaim a [t]solemn assembly for Baal. And they [u]proclaimed it. 21 And Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the [x]house of Baal; and the house of Baal was [||]full from one end to another. 22 And he said unto him that was over the vestry, [y]Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments. 23 And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal, and said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshippers of Baal only. 24 And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings, Jehu appointed fourscore men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, he that letteth him go, [z]his life shall be for the life of him. 25 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the [a]guard and to the captains, [b]Go in, and slay them; let none come forth. And they smote them with [†]the edge of the sword; and the [a]guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal. 26 And they brought forth the [†]images out of the house of Baal, and burnt them. 27 And they brake down the image of Baal, and brake down the house of Baal, and made it [c]a draught house unto this day. 28 Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel. 29 Howbeit from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, [d]who made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, [e]the golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan. 30 And the LORD said unto Jehu, Because thou hast done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all that was in mine heart, [f]thy children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel. 31 But Jehu [†]took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart: for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, [d]which made Israel to sin.

32 In those days the LORD [g]began [†]to cut Israel short: and [h]Hazael smote them in all the coasts of Israel; 33 from Jordan [†]eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, [i]from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, [||]even [k]Gilead and Bashan. 34 Now the [k]rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 35 And Jehu slept with his fathers: and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead. 36 And [†]the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty and eight years.

XI. [a]And when [b]Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the [†]seed royal. 2 But [‖]Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took [‖]Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stale him from among the king's sons which were slain; and they hid him, even him and his nurse, in the bedchamber from Athaliah, so that he was not slain. 3 And he was with her hid in the house of the LORD six years. And Athaliah did reign over the land.

4 And the seventh year [c]Jehoiada sent and fet the rulers over hundreds, with the [d]captains and the [e]guard, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and shewed them 5 the king's son. And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you [f]that enter in on the sabbath shall even be keepers 6 of the watch of the king's house; and a third part shall be at the gate of [g]Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the [e]guard: so shall ye keep the watch of the house, [‖]that it be not broken 7 down. And two [‖]parts of all you [f]that go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the 8 LORD about the king. And ye shall [h]compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand: and he that cometh within [i]the ranges, let him be slain: and be ye with the king as [j]he goeth out and as he cometh in. 9 And the captains over the hundreds did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men [f]that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came 10 to Jehoiada the priest. And to the captains over hundreds did the priest give king David's spears and [k]shields, that were in the temple of the LORD. And 11 the [e]guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, round about the king, from the right [f]corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple, along by the altar and the temple. And he brought forth the king's son, 12 and put [l]the crown upon him, and gave him [m]the Testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapt their hands, and said, [t]God save the king. And when Athaliah 13 heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the temple of the LORD. And when she 14 looked, behold, the king stood by [n]a pillar, as the manner was, and the princes and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and [o]blew with trumpets: and Athaliah [p]rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, Treason. But Jehoiada the priest com- 15 manded the captains of the hundreds, [q]the officers of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth without [i]the ranges: and him that followeth her kill with the sword. For the priest had said, Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD. And they laid hands on 16 her; and she went by the way by the which [r]the horses came into the king's house: and there was she slain.

And [s]Jehoiada made a covenant be- 17 tween the LORD and the king and the people, that they should be the LORD'S people; [t]between the king also and the people. And all the people of the land 18 went into the [u]house of Baal, and brake it down; [x]his altars and his images brake they in pieces throughly, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed [f]officers over the house of the LORD. And he took 19 [y]the rulers over hundreds, and the captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, and came by the way [z]of the gate of the guard to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings. And all 20 the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was in quiet: and they slew Athaliah with the sword beside the king's house. Seven years old was Jehoash when he 21 began to reign.

XII. In the seventh year of Jehu [a]Jehoash began to reign; and forty years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zibiah of [b]Beer-sheba. And 2 Jehoash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all his days wherein 3 Jehoiada the priest instructed him. But [c]the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt in- 4 cense in the high places. And Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the [l]dedicated things [d]that is brought into the house of the LORD, even [e]the money of every one that passeth the account, [f]the money that every man is set at, and all the money that [f]cometh into any man's heart to bring into the house 5 of the LORD, let the priests take it to them, every man of his acquaintance: and let them [g]repair the breaches of the house, [h]wheresoever any breach shall be 6 found. But it was so, that [t]in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash [i]the priests had not repaired the breaches of 7 the house. Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and the other priests, and said unto them, Why repair ye not the breaches of the house? now therefore receive no more money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the 8 breaches of the house. And the priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the breaches 9 of the house. But Jehoiada the priest took [k]a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one cometh into the house of the LORD: and the priests that kept the [l]door put therein all the money that was brought into the house 10 of the LORD. And it was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's [f]scribe and the [l]high priest came up, and they [t]put up [m]in bags, and told the money that was 11 found in the house of the LORD. And they gave the money, being told, [n]into the hands of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the house of the LORD: and they [t]laid it out to the carpenters and builders, that wrought 12 upon the house of the LORD, [n]and to masons, and hewers of stone, and to buy timber and hewed stone to repair the breaches of the house of the LORD, and for all that [t]was laid out for the 13 house to repair it. Howbeit [o]there were not made for the house of the LORD [p]bowls of silver, snuffers, basons, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought 14 into the house of the LORD: but they gave that to the workmen, and repaired money to be bestowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully. The [r]trespass mo- 16 ney and [s]sin money was not brought into the house of the LORD: [t]it was the priests'.

Then [u]Hazael king of Syria went up, 17 and fought against [x]Gath, and took it:
and Hazael [y]set his face to go up to Jerusalem. And Jehoash king of Ju- 18 dah [z]took all the hallowed things that Jehoshaphat, and Jehoram, and Aha-ziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicate, and [a]his own hallowed things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and in the king's house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria: and [b]he [†]went away from Jerusalem. And the rest of 19
the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
And [c]his servants arose, and made a 20 conspiracy, and slew Joash in [‖]the house of Millo, which goeth down to [d]Silla.
For [‖]Jozachar the son of Shimeath, and 21
Jehozabad the son of [‖]Shomer, his servants, smote him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

XIII. [†]In the three and twentieth year of Jo- 1
ash the son of Ahaziah king of Judah Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seventeen years. And he did that which 2 was evil in the sight of the LORD, and [†]followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, [a]which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom. And [b]the an- 3 ger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of [c]Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of [d]Ben-hadad the son of Ha-zael, [e]all their days. And Jehoahaz [f]be- 4 sought the LORD, and the LORD harkened unto him: for [g]he saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them. ([h]And the LORD gave 5 Israel a [i]saviour, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians: and the children of Israel dwelt in [k]their tents, [†]as beforetime. Nevertheless they 6 departed not from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, [a]who made Israel sin, but [†]walked therein: and [l]there [†]remained 7 the grove also in Samaria.) Neither did he leave of the people to Jehoahaz but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and had made them 8 like the dust [m]by threshing. Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the 9 kings of Israel? And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria: and [‖]Joash his son reigned in his stead*.
10 In the thirty and seventh year of Jo-ash king of Judah began [‖]Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz to reign over Israel in 11 Samaria, and reigned sixteen years. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD; he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, [a]who made Israel sin: but he walked 12 therein. [n]And the rest of the acts of Joash, and [o]all that he did, and his might [p]wherewith he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the 13 kings of Israel? And Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat upon his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.
14 Now [q]Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness whereof he died. And Joash the king of Israel came down unto him, and wept over his face, and said, O [r]my 15 father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. And Elisha said unto him, Take bow and arrows.
And he took unto him bow and arrows.
16 And he said to the king of Israel, [†]Put thine hand upon the bow. And he put his hand upon it: and Elisha put his 17 hands upon the king's hands. And he said, Open the window eastward. And he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot.
And he shot. And he said, The arrow of the LORD'S deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for thou shalt smite the Syrians in [s]Aphek, till thou 18 have consumed them. And he said,
Take the arrows. And he took them.
And he said unto the king of Israel,
Smite upon the ground. And he smote 19 thrice, and stayed. And [t]the man of God was wroth with him, and said, Thou shouldest have smitten five or six times; then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it: whereas now 20 thou shalt smite Syria but [u]thrice. And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the bands of the [w]Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year. And 21 it came to pass, as they were burying a man, that behold, they spied a band of men; and they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha: and when the man [†]was let down, and touched the bones of Elisha, [x]he revived, and stood up on his feet.

But [y]Hazael king of Syria oppressed 22 Israel all the days of Jehoahaz. [z]And 23 the LORD was gracious unto them, and had compassion on them, and [a]had respect unto them, because of his covenant with [b]Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from his [†]presence as yet. So Hazael king of Syria died; and Ben- 24 hadad his son reigned in his stead. And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz [†]took 25 again out of the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael the cities, which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. [c]Three times did Joash beat him, and recovered the cities of Israel.

XIV. In [a]the second year of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel reigned [b]Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah. He was twenty and five years old when 2 he began to reign, and reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. And he did that which was right 3 in the sight of the LORD, yet not like David his father: he did according to all things as Joash his father did. [c]How- 4 beit the high places were not taken away: as yet the people did sacrifice and burnt incense on the high places. And it 5 came to pass, as soon as the kingdom was confirmed in his hand, that he slew his servants [d]which had slain the king his father. But the children of the mur- 6 derers he slew not: according unto that which is written in the book of the law of Moses, where*in* the LORD commanded, saying, [e]The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall be put to death for his own sin. [f]He slew of Edom in [g]the val- 7 ley of salt ten thousand, and took [‖]Selah by war, and called the name of it [h]Joktheel unto this day.

[i]Then Amaziah sent messengers to 8 Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, [j]let us look one another in the face. And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, [k]The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the [l]cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle. Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, and [m]thine heart hath lifted thee up: glory of this, and tarry [†]at home: for why shouldest thou [n]meddle to thy hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee? But Amaziah would not hear. Therefore Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at [o]Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah. And Judah [†]was put to the worse before Israel; and they [p]fled every man to their tents. And Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah, at [o]Beth-shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from [q]the gate of Ephraim unto [r]the corner gate, four hundred cubits. And he took [s]all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria. [t]Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? And Jehoash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son reigned in his stead.

[u]And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years. And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? [x]Now they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem: and he fled to [y]Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there. And they brought him on horses: and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David. And all the people of Judah took [‖]Azariah, which was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah. He built [z]Elath, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

[b]And he did that which was right 3 in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done; [c]save that the high places were not re- 4 moved: the people sacrificed and burnt incense still on the high places. And 5 the LORD [d]smote the king, so that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and [e]dwelt in a several house. And Jotham the king's son was over the house, judging the people of the land. son of Jeroboam reign over Israel in 9 Samaria six months. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of 10 Nebat, [g]who made Israel to sin. And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and [l]smote him before the people, and slew him, and reigned in his 11 stead. And the rest of the acts of Zachariah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of 12 Israel. This was [h]the word of the LORD which he spake unto Jehu, saying, Thy sons shall sit on the throne of Israel unto the fourth generation. And so it came to pass.

13 Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the nine and thirtieth year of [l]Uzziah king of Judah; and he reigned 14 [a]a full month in Samaria. For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from [k]Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead. 15 And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

16 Then Menahem smote [l]Tiphsah, and all that were therein, and the coasts thereof from [k]Tirzah: because they opened not to him, therefore he smote it; and all [m]the women therein that were 17 with child he ript up. In the nine and thirtieth year of Azariah king of Judah began Menahem the son of Gadi to reign over Israel, and reigned ten years in Sa- 18 maria. And Menahem [t]exacted the money of Israel, even of all [r]the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty [p]shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and stayed not 21 there in the land. In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign. 2 [a]Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD his 3 God, like David his father. But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, [b]and made his son to pass through the fire, [c]according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out 4 from before the children of Israel. And [d]he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and [e]on the hills, and under every green tree. 5 [f]Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but [g]could 6 not overcome him. At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drave the Jews from [†]Elath: and the Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt 7 there unto this day. [h]So Ahaz sent messengers to [†]Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am thy servant and thy son: come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, which 8 rise up against me. [h]And Ahaz [i]took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a [j]present to the king of Assyria. 9 And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him: for the king of Assyria went up against [†]Damascus, and [†]took it, and carried the people of it captive to [k]Kir, and slew Rezin.

10 And king Ahaz went to [†]Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to [kk]Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of 11 it, according to all the workmanship thereof. And Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus: so Urijah the priest made it against king Ahaz came 12 from Damascus. And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and [l]the king approached to 13 the altar, and offered thereon. And he burnt his burnt offering and his meat offering, and poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of [t]his peace offerings, upon the altar. And he brought 14 also [m]the brasen altar, which was before the LORD, from [n]the forefront of the house, from between [o]the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of [o]the altar. And king Ahaz 15 commanded Urijah the priest, saying, Upon [o]the great altar burn [p]the morning burnt offering, and the evening meat offering, and the king's burnt sacrifice, and his meat offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meat offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and [m]the brasen altar shall be for me to inquire by. Thus 16 did Urijah the priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded. And king 17 Ahaz [q]cut off [r]the borders of the bases, and removed the laver from off them; and took down [s]the sea from off the brasen oxen that were under it, and put it upon a pavement of stones. And the 18 covert for the sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's entry without, turned he from the house of the LORD for the king of Assyria.

[t]Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz 19 which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And Ahaz slept with his fa- 20 thers, and was buried [u]with his fathers in the city of David: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

XVII. In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah began ‖Hoshea the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel nine years. 2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him. Against 3 him came up [a]Shalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and [t]gave him ‖presents. And the king 4 of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no ‖present to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison. Then [b]the king of Assyria came up 5 throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years. [c]In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king 6 of Assyria took Samaria, and [d]carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them [e]in Halah and in Habor by the river of [e][f]Gozan, and in the cities of the [g]Medes.

For so it was, that the children of Is- 7 rael had sinned against the LORD their God, [i]which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had 8 feared other gods, and walked in the statutes [k]of the heathen, [l]whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel, and [l]of the kings of Israel, which 9 they had made. And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against the LORD their God, and they built them high places in all their cities, [m]from the tower of the 10 watchmen to the fenced city. [n]And they set them up [t]images and [o]groves in every high hill, and under every green 11 tree: and there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom the LORD carried away before them; and wrought wicked things [p]to 12 provoke the LORD to anger: for they served [q]idols, [r]whereof the LORD had said unto them, [s]Ye shall not do this 13 thing. Yet the LORD [t]testified against Israel, and against Judah, [t]by all the prophets, and by all [u]the seers, saying, [w]Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you [t]by my servants the prophets. 14 Notwithstanding they would not hear, but [x]hardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, that did not be- 15 lieve in the LORD their God. And they rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed [y]vanity, and [z]became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD [a]had charged them, that they should not do like them. 16 And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them molten images, even [b]two calves, and made [c]a grove, and worshipped [d]all the 17 host of heaven, and served [e]Baal. And [f]they caused their sons and [f]their daughters to pass through the fire, and [g]used divination and [h]enchantments, and [i]sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, [k]to provoke him to anger. 18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah [l]only. Also [m]Judah kept not 19 the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made. And the LORD [n]re- 20

jected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and [o]delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight. For [p]he rent Israel 21 from the house of David; and [q]they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king:
and Jeroboam [r]drave Israel from following the LORD, and [s]made them sin a great sin. For the children of Israel 22 walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them; until the LORD removed Israel 23 out of his sight, [t]as he had said by all his servants the prophets. [u]So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.

[x]And the king of Assyria brought 24 men from [y]Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from [z]Ava, and from [a]Hamath, and from [a]Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.
And so it was at the beginning of their 25 dwelling there, that they feared not the LORD: therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which slew some of them.
Wherefore they spake to the king of 26
Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and, behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land. Then the 27 king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land. Then one of the priests whom 28 they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in [b]Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.
Howbeit every nation made gods of 29 their own, and put them in [c]the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt. And the men of 30 [d]Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, and the 31 Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites [e]burnt their children in fire to [f]Adrammelech and Anamme-lech, the gods of Sepharvaim. So they 32 feared the LORD, and [g]made unto themselves of the lowest of them priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in [c]the houses of the high places.
[h]They feared the LORD, and served 33 their own gods, after the manner of the nations [i]whom they carried away from thence. Unto this day they do after 34 the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, [i]whom he named Israel; with 35 whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, [k]Ye shall not fear other gods, nor [l]bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them: but the LORD, [m]who brought 36 you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and [n]a stretched out arm, him shall ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye do sacrifice.
And the statutes, and the ordinances, 37
and the law, and the commandment, which he wrote for you, [o]ye shall observe to do for evermore; and [k]ye shall not fear other gods. And the cove- 38 nant that I have made with you [p]ye shall not forget; neither [k]shall ye fear other gods. But [q]the LORD your God 39 ye shall fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.
Howbeit they did not hearken, but 40
they did after their former manner. [r]So 41 these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children, and their children's children:
as did their fathers, so do they unto this

and he called it [f]Nehushtan. He [g]trusted in the LORD God of Israel; [h]so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him. For he [i]clave to the LORD, and departed not [t]from following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses. And [k]the LORD was with him; and he [l]prospered whithersoever he went forth: and he [m]rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not. He [n]smote the Philistines, even unto [t]Gaza, and the borders thereof, [o]from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

And [p]it came to pass in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it. And at the end of three years they took it: even in the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken. And the king of Assyria did carry away Israel unto Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes: because [q]they obeyed not the voice of the LORD their God, but [r]transgressed his covenant, and all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear them, nor do them.

Now [s]in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah did [t]Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them. And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to [t]Lachish, saying, I have offended; return from me: that which thou puttest on me will I bear. And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah [u]three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold. And Hezekiah [x]gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house. At that time did Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave [t]it to the king of Assyria.

[y]And the king of Assyria sent [z]Tartan and Rabsaris and Rab-shakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a [t]great host against Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by [a]the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field. And when they had called to the king, there came out to them [b]Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and [b]Shebna the [f]scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph [c]the recorder. And Rab-shakeh said unto them, Speak ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, [d]What confidence is this wherein thou trustest? Thou [f]sayest, (but they are but [t]vain words,) [f]I have counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me? Now behold, thou [t]trustest upon [e]the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him. But if ye say unto me, We trust in the LORD our God: is not that he, [f]whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem? Now therefore, I pray thee, give [f]pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them. How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? Am I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants [g]in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and talk not with us in the Jews' language in the ears of the people that are on the wall. But Rab-shakeh said unto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink [t]their own piss with you? Then Rab-shakeh stood and [h]cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spake, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria: Thus saith the king, [i]Let not Hezekiah [j]deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand: neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. Hearken not to Hezekiah: 31 for thus saith the king of Assyria, ‖Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me, and then eat ye every man [k]of his own vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his [l]cistern: until I come and 32 take you away to a land like your own land, [l]a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil olive and [m]of honey, that ye may live, and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he ‖persuadeth you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. [n]Hath any of the gods of the nations 33 delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? [o]Where 34 are the gods of [p]Hamath, and of [q]Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and [‖]Ivah? have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand? Who are 35 they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of mine hand, that [r]the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of mine hand? But the people held their peace, and 36 answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not. Then came [s]Eliakim the son of 37 Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah [t]with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

XIX. And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that [a]he rent his clothes, and [b]covered himself with sackcloth, and [c]went into the house of the LORD. And he sent Eliakim, which was over 2 the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, [b]covered with sackcloth, [d]to Esai the prophet the son of Amoz. And they said unto 3 him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and ‖blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth. [e]It may be the LORD 4 thy God will hear all the words of Rab-shakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent [f]to reproach the living God; and [g]will reprove the words which [h]the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for [i]the remnant that are [‖]left. So the servants of king 5 Hezekiah came to Isaiah. And *Isaiah 6 said unto them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words which thou hast heard, with which [k]the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed 7 me. Behold, [l]I will send [m]a blast upon him, and he [n]shall hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 So Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against [o]Libnah: for he had heard that he was 9 departed from [p]Lachish. And [q]when he heard say of Tirhakah king of [r]Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against thee: he sent messengers again 10 unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God [s]in whom thou trustest [t]deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of 11 the king of Assyria. Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly: and shalt thou be delivered? 12 [u]Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed; as [x]Gozan, and [y z]Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of [z]Eden which were 13 in [a]Thelasar? [b]Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of [c]Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah?

14 And Hezekiah received the [d]letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before 15 the LORD. And [e]Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, which dwellest [f]between the cherubims, [g]thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; 16 thou hast made heaven and earth. LORD, [h]bow down thine ear, and hear: [i]open, LORD, thine eyes, and see: and hear the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent him [k]to reproach the living God. 17 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their 18 lands, and have [‖]cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but [l]the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed 19 them. Now therefore, O LORD our God, I beseech thee, save thou us out of his hand, [m]that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD God, even thou only.

saying, I beseech thee, O LORD, [c]remember now how I have walked before thee in truth and with [d]a perfect heart, and [e]have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah [f]wept [†]sore. And it came to pass, afore Isaiah was gone out into the middle [‖]court, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying, Turn again, and tell Hezekiah [g]the captain of my people, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, [h]I have heard thy prayer, I have seen [i]thy tears: behold, I will heal thee: on the third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the LORD. And I will add unto thy days fifteen years; and I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and [k]I will defend this city for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake. And [l]Isaiah said, Take a lump of figs. And they took and laid it on [m]the boil, and he recovered. And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, [n]What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day? And Isaiah said, This sign shalt thou have of the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he hath spoken: [o]shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees? And Hezekiah answered, [p]It is a light thing for [q]the shadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees. And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the LORD: and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the [†]dial of Ahaz.

[r]At that time [‖]Berodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present unto Hezekiah: for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. And Hezekiah [s]hearkened unto them, and shewed them all the house of his [‖]precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his [‖]armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not. Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country, even from Babylon. And he said, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, [t]All the things that are in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them. And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah. Hear the word of the LORD. Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, [u]shall be carried unto Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD. And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, [x]shall they take away; [‖]and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, [y]Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. And he said, [‖]Is it not good, if peace and truth be in my days? [z]And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he [a]made a pool, and a conduit, and [b]brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And [c]Hezekiah slept with his fathers: and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

Manasseh [a]was twelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hephzi-bah. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, [b]after the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel. For he built up again the high places [c]which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made a grove, [d]as did Ahab king of Israel; and worshipped [e]all the host of heaven, and served them. And [f]he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD said, [g]In Jerusalem will I put my name. And he built altars for [e]all the host of heaven in [h]the two courts of the house of the LORD. And [i]he made his son pass through the fire, and [j]observed times, and [k]used enchantments, and dealt with [l]familiar spirits and wizards: he wrought much wickedness in the sight of the LORD, to [m]provoke him to anger. And he set a graven image of the grove that he had made in the house, of which the LORD said to David, and to Solomon his son, [n]In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever: [o]neither will I make the feet of Israel move any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; only if they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them. But they 9 hearkened not: and Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than did the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel.

And the LORD spake by his servants 10 the prophets, saying, [p]Because Manas- 11 seh king of Judah hath done these abominations, [q]and hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, which were before him, and [r]hath made Judah also to sin with his [s]idols: therefore 12 thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, [t]both his ears shall tingle. And I will stretch over Jerusalem [u]the 13 line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, [†]wiping it, and turning it upside down. And I 14 will forsake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies; because they have done that which 15 was evil in my sight, and have [m]provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day.

[x]Moreover Manasseh shed innocent 16 blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem [†]from one end to another; beside his sin [r]wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. Now [y]the rest 17 of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And 18 [z]Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of [a]Uzza: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

[b]Amon was twenty and two years old 19 when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of [c]Jotbah. And he did that 20 which was evil in the sight of the LORD, [d]as his father Manasseh did. And he 21 walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them: and he [e]forsook the LORD God of his 22 fathers, and walked not in the way of 23 the LORD. And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and slew the 24 king in his own house. And the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son 25 king in his stead. Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles 26 of the kings of Judah? And he was buried in his sepulchre [f]in the garden of Uzza: and *Josiah his son reigned in his stead.

Josiah [a]was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter 2 of Adaiah of [b]Boscath. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and [c]turned not aside 3 to the right hand or to the left. [d]And it came to pass in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of the LORD, 4 saying, Go up to Hilkiah [e]the high priest, that he may sum the silver which is [f]brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the [†]door have 5 gathered of the people: and let them [g]deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD: and let them give it to the doers of the work which is in the house of the LORD, to repair the 6 breaches of the house, [g]unto carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the 7 house. Howbeit [h]there was no reckoning made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand, because they dealt faithfully.

8 And Hilkiah the high priest said unto Shaphan the scribe, [†]I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah gave the book to 9 Shaphan, and he read it. And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Thy servants have [†]gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the oversight of the 10 house of the LORD. And Shaphan the scribe shewed the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath delivered me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king.

And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that [j]he rent his clothes. And the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and [k]Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and ‖Achbor the son of ‖Michaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahiah a servant of the king's, saying, Go ye, inquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found: for great is [l]the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not hearkened unto the words of this book, to do according unto all that which is written concerning us. So Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah, went unto Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of ‖Tikvah, the son of ‖Harhas, keeper of the [†]wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem [‖]in the college;) and they communed with her. And she said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read: [m]because they have forsaken me, and have burnt incense unto other gods, that they might [n]provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore [o]my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched. But to the king of Judah which sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall ye say to him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, As touching the words which thou hast heard; because thine [p]heart was tender, and thou hast [q]humbled thyself before the LORD, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, that they should become [r]a desolation and [s]a curse, and [j]hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard thee, saith the LORD. Behold therefore, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou [t]shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.

XXIII. [a]And the king sent, and they gathered unto him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, [†]both small and great: and [b]he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant [c]which was found in the house of the LORD. And the king stood by [d]a pillar, and made a covenant before the LORD, [e]to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people stood to the covenant. And the king commanded Hilkiah [f]the high priest, and the priests [g]of the second order; and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for [h]Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven: and he burnt them without Jerusalem in the fields of [i]Kidron, and carried the ashes of them unto Beth-el. And he [†]put down the [†]idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; them also that burnt incense unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the ‖planets, and to [j]all the host of heaven. And he brought out the [k]grove from the house of the LORD, without Jerusalem, unto the [i]brook Kidron, and burnt it at the brook Kidron, and [l]stampt it small to powder, and cast the powder thereof [m]upon the graves of the children of the people. And he brake down the houses of [n]the sodomites, that were by the house of the LORD, [o]where the women wove [†]hangings for the grove. And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burnt incense, from [p]Geba to [q]Beer-sheba, and brake down the high places of the gates that were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city. [r]Nevertheless the priests of the high places came not up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they did eat of the unleavened bread among their brethren. And he defiled [s]Topheth, which is in [t]the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man [u]might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to [w]Molech. And he [x]took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entering in of the house of the LORD, by the [y]chamber of Nathan-melech the ‖chamberlain, which was in the [z]suburbs, and burnt the chariots of the sun with fire. And the altars that were [a]on the top of the [b]upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which [c]Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, did the king beat down, and ‖brake them down from thence, and cast the dust of them into [d]the brook Kidron. And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of ‖the mount of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for [e]Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and for [f]Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for [e]Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile. And he brake in pieces the †images, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men.

Moreover the altar that was at Beth-el, and the high place [g]which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, [h]who made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he brake down, and burnt the high place, and stampt it small to powder, and burnt the grove. And as Josiah turned himself, he spied the sepulchres that were there in the mount, and sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burnt them upon the altar, and polluted it, [i]according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words. Then he said, What [k]title is that that I see? And the men of the city told him, It is [l]the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that thou hast done against the altar of Beth-el. And he said, Let him alone; let no man move his bones. So they let his bones †alone, with the bones [m]of the prophet that came out of Samaria. And all the houses also of the high places that were [n]in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Beth-el. And he ‖[o]slew all the priests of the high places that were there upon the altars, and [p]burnt men's bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

And the king commanded all the people, saying, [q]Keep the passover unto the LORD your God, [r]as it is written in [s]the book of this covenant. [t]Surely there was not holden such a passover from the days of the judges that judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah; but in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, wherein this passover was holden to the LORD in Jerusalem. Moreover the [u]workers with familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the ‖images, and [x]the idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might perform [y]the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD. [z]And like unto him was there no king before him, that turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and [a]with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him. Notwithstanding the LORD turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled against Judah, [b]because of all the †provocations that Manasseh had provoked him withal. And the LORD said, I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as [c]I have removed Israel, and [d]will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and [e]the house of which I said, My name shall be there. Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? [f]In his days [g]Pharaoh-nechoh king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates: and king Josiah went against him; and he slew him at [h]Megiddo, when he [i]had seen him. And [k]his servants carried him in a chariot [l]dead from [h]Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own sepulchre. And [m]the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead.

‖Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was [n]Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of [o]Libnah. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done. And Pharaoh-nechoh 33 put him in bands at [p]Riblah in the land of [q]Hamath, [‖]that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and [†]put the land to a tribute of [r]an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold. And Pharaoh- 34 nechoh made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the room of Josiah his father, and [s]turned his name to [*]Jehoiakim, and took Jehoahaz away: and he came [t]to Egypt, and died there. And Jehoiakim 35 gave [u]the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he [x]taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh: he exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of every one according to his taxation, to give it unto Pharaoh-nechoh.

[y]Jehoiakim was twenty and five year 36 old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zebudah, the daughter of Pedaiah of [z]Rumah. [a]And 37 he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

XXIV. In [a]his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant [b]three years: then he turned and rebelled against him. [c]And the LORD sent 2 against him [d]bands of the Chaldees, and [de]bands of the Syrians, and [ef]bands of the Moabites, and bands of [g]the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, [h]according to the word of the LORD, which he spake [i]by his servants the prophets. Surely at the command- 3 ment of the LORD came this upon Judah, to remove them out of his sight, [i]for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did; and also for [j]the innocent blood 4 that he shed: for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; which the LORD would not pardon. [k]Now the rest of 5 the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? So Jehoiakim [l]slept with his fathers: 6 and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead. And the king of Egypt came 7 not again any more out of his land: for [m]the king of Babylon had taken from the [n]river of Egypt unto the river Euphrates all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

[‖]Jehoiachin was [o]eighteen years old 8 when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. And his mother's name was Nehushta, the daugh- 9 ter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all [p]that his 10 father had done. At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and 11 the city [†]was besieged. And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants did 12 besiege it. And [q]Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his [‖]officers: and the king of Babylon [r]took him in the 13 eighth year of [‖]his reign. And he carried out thence all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and [s]the treasures of the king's house, and [t]cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which [u]Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, [x]as the LORD had said. 14 And [y]he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even [z]ten thousand captives, and all [a]the craftsmen and smiths: none remained, save [b]the poorest sort 15 of the people of the land. And [c]he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his [‖]officers, and [d]the mighty of the land, those carried he into captivity from 16 Jerusalem to Babylon. And [e]all the men of might, even [z]seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths a thousand, all that were strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought 17 captive to Babylon. And [f]the king of Babylon made Mattaniah [g]his father's brother king in his stead, and [h]changed his name to Zedekiah.

18 [i]Zedekiah was twenty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was [k]Hamutal, the 19 daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. [l]And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Je- 20 hoiakim had done. For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence, [m]that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. And it came to pass [a]in the ninth year of his reign, in the [b]tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he, and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it; and they built [c] forts against it round about.

And the city was besieged unto the 2 eleventh year of king Zedekiah. And 3 on the ninth day of the [d]fourth month [e]the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land. And [e]the city was broken up, 4 and [f]all the men of war [g]fled by night by the way of the gate between two walls, which is by [h]the king's garden: (now the [i]Chaldees were against the city round about:) and [j]the king went the way toward [k]the plain. And the 5 army of the Chaldees pursued after the king, and overtook him in [k]the plains of Jericho: and all his army were scattered from him. So they took the king, 6 and [l]brought him up to the king of Babylon to [m]Riblah; and they [l]gave judgment upon him. And they slew 7
the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and [l][n]put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and [o]bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.

And in the [p]fifth month, on the [q]se- 8 venth day of the month, which is [r]the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan, [s]captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem:
and [t]he burnt the house of the LORD, 9
and the king's house, and [t]all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house burnt he with fire. And all the 10 army of the Chaldees, that were [u]with the captain of the guard, [w]brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about.
Now [x]the rest of the people that were 11 left in the city, and the [y]fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Ne-buzar-adan the captain of the guard carry away. But the captain of the 12 guard left [z]of the poor of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen. [z]And 13 [a]the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and [b]the bases, and [c]the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, did the Chaldees break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon. And [d]the pots, and [d]the 14 shovels, and [e]the snuffers, and [f]the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away. And [d]the firepans, and [d]the 15 bowls, and such things as were of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away. [g]The 16 two pillars, [l]one sea, and [h]the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD; [i]the brass of all these 17 vessels was without weight. [k]The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the chapiter upon it was brass:
and the height of the chapiter [l]three cubits; and the wreathen work, and pomegranates upon the chapiter round about, all of brass: and like unto these had the second pillar with wreathen 18 work. And the captain of the guard took [m]Seraiah [n]the chief priest, and [o]Zephaniah [p]the second priest, and the 19 three keepers of the [l]door: and out of the city he took an [l]officer that was set over the men of war, and [q]five men of them that [l]were in the king's presence, which were found in the city, and the [l]principal scribe of the host, which mustered the people of the land, and three-score men of the people of the land 20 that were found in the city: and Ne-buzar-adan captain of the guard took these, and brought them to the king of 21 Babylon to [r]Riblah: and the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at [r]Riblah in the land of Hamath. [s]So Judah was carried away out of their land.

22 And as for the people that remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made [t]Gedaliah the son of [u]Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler.
23 And when all the [x]captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Geda-liah governor, there came to Gedaliah to [y]Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth [z]the [a]Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a [b]Maachathite, they 24 and their men. And Gedaliah sware to them, and to their men, and said unto them, Fear not to be the servants of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon; and it shall 25 be well with you. But [c]it came to pass in the [d]seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed [l]royal, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldees 26 that were with him at [y]Mizpah. And all the people, both small and great,
and the captains of the armies, arose, and came to [e]Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldees.

V.

Now the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel, (for [a]he was the firstborn; but, forasmuch as he [b]defiled his father's bed, [c]his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright. For [d]Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the [‖]chief ruler; but the birthright was Joseph's:) [e]the sons, I say, of Reuben the firstborn of Israel were, Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. The sons of Joel; Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son, Micah his son, Reaia his son, Baal his son, Beerah his son, whom [‖]Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria carried away captive: he was prince of the Reubenites. And his brethren by their families, [f]when the genealogy of their generations was reckoned, were the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah, and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of [‖]Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in [g]Aroer, even unto [h]Nebo and [i]Baal-meon: and eastward he inhabited unto the entering in of the wilderness from the river Euphrates: because their cattle were multiplied [j]in the land of Gilead. And in the days of Saul they made war [k]with the Hagarites, who fell by their hand: and they dwelt in their tents [†]throughout all the east land of Gilead.

And the children of Gad dwelt over against them, in the land of Bashan unto [l]Salchah: Joel the chief, and Shapham the next, and Jaanai, and Shaphat in Bashan. And their brethren of the house of their fathers were, Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jachan, and Zia, and Heber, seven. These are the children of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz; Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, chief of the house of their fathers. And they dwelt in Gilead in Bashan, and in her towns, and in all the suburbs of [m]Sharon, upon [†]their borders. All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of [n]Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of [o]Jeroboam king of Israel.

The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, of [†]valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and [p]to shoot with bow, and skilful in war, were four and forty thousand seven hundred and threescore, [q]that went out to the war. And they made war with [r]the Hagarites, with [s]Jetur, and [s]Nephish, and Nodab. And they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for [t]they cried to God in the battle, and he was intreated of them; because they [u]put their trust in him. And they [†]took away their cattle; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and of asses two thousand, and of [†]men an hundred thousand. For there fell down many slain, because the war was of God. And they dwelt in their [x]steads until [y]the captivity. And the children of the half tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land: they increased from Bashan unto Baal-hermon and [z]Senir, and unto [z]mount Hermon. And these were the heads of the house of their fathers, even Epher, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, mighty men of valour, [†]famous men, and heads of the house of their fathers. And they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went [a]a whoring after the gods of the people of the land, whom God destroyed before them. And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of [b]Pul king of Assyria, and the spirit of [c]Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria, and he carried them away, even the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and brought them unto [d]Halah, and [d]Habor, and Hara, and [d]to the river Gozan, unto this day.

And these are they whom David set over the service of song in the house of the LORD, [b]after that the ark had rest. And they ministered before the dwelling place of the tabernacle of the congregation with singing, until Solomon had built the house of the LORD in Jerusalem: and then they waited on their office according to their order. And these are they that [t]waited with their children.

Meshelemiah was porter of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. All 22 these which were [b]chosen to be porters in the gates were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by their genealogy in their villages, whom [a]David and Samuel [c]the seer [f]did ordain in their [g]set office. So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of 23 the house of the LORD, namely, the house of the tabernacle, by wards. In 24 four quarters were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south. And 25 their brethren, which were [d]in their villages, were to come [e]after seven days from time to time with them. For 26 these Levites, the four chief porters, were in their [g]set office, and were over the [h]chambers and treasuries of the house of God. And they lodged round 27 about the house of God, because [f]the charge was upon them, and the opening thereof every morning pertained to them. And certain of them had the charge of 28 the ministering vessels, that they should [i]bring them in and out by tale. Some 29 of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels, and all the [h]instruments of the sanctuary, and [k]the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices. And some of 30 the sons of the priests [l]made the ointment of the spices. And Mattithiah, 31 one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of [m]Shallum the Korahite, had the [g]set office over the things that were made [n]in the pans. And other of their 32 brethren, of the sons of the Kohathites, were [o]over the [p]shewbread, to prepare it every sabbath. And these are [q]the 33 singers, chief of the fathers of the Levites, who remaining in the chambers were [r]free: for [s]they were employed in that work [t]day and night. These chief 34 fathers of the Levites were chief throughout their generations; these dwelt at Jerusalem.

[u]And in Gibeon dwelt the father of 35 Gibeon, Jehiel, whose wife's name was Maachah: and his firstborn son Abdon, 36 then Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab, and Gedor, and Ahio, and 37 Zechariah, and Mikloth. And Mikloth 38 begat Shimeam. And they also dwelt with their brethren at Jerusalem, over against their brethren.

[v]And Ner begat Kish; and Kish begat 39 Saul; and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab, and Esh-baal. And the son of Jonathan was 40 [w]Merib-baal: and Merib-baal begat Micah. And the sons of Micah were, 41 Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, [x]and Ahaz. And Ahaz begat [y]Jarah; and 42 Jarah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begat Moza; and 43 Moza begat Binea; and [z]Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son. And 44 Azel had six sons, whose names are these, Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan: these were the sons of Azel.

Now [a]the Philistines fought against X. 1 Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down 2 [b]slain in mount Gilboa. And the Philistines followed hard after Saul, and after his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and [c]Abinadab, and Malchi- 3 shua, the sons of Saul. And the battle went sore against Saul, and the [d]archers [d]hit him, and he was wounded of the 4 archers. Then said Saul to his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and [e]abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. So Saul took a sword, and fell 5 upon it. And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise 6 on the sword, and died. So Saul died, and his three sons, and all [f]his house died together.

7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the valley saw that [g]they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they forsook their cities, and fled: and the Philistines came and dwelt in 8 them. And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his 9 sons fallen in mount Gilboa. And when they had stripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry tidings [h]unto their idols, and to 10 the people. And they put his armour in the house of their gods, and fastened 11 [g]his head in the temple of Dagon. And when all Jabesh-gilead heard all that 12 the Philistines had done to Saul, they arose, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under [i]the oak 13 in Jabesh, and fasted seven days. So Saul died for his transgression which he [k]committed against the LORD, even [l]ga-

XI.

Then [a] all Israel gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh. And 2 moreover [†] in time past, even when Saul was king, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD thy God said unto thee, Thou shalt [‖] feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be ruler over my people Israel. There- 3 fore came all the elders of Israel to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel, [b] according to the word of the LORD [†] by Samuel.

And David and all Israel went to 4 Jerusalem, which is Jebus; where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land. And the inhabitants of Jebus 5 said to David, Thou shalt not come hither. Nevertheless David took the [c] castle of Zion, which is the city of David. And David said, Whosoever 6 smiteth the Jebusites first [d] shall be [†] chief and captain. So Joab the son of Zeruiah went first up, and was chief. And David dwelt in the castle; there- 7 fore they called [‖] it the city of David. And he built the city round about, even 8 from Millo round about: and Joab [†] repaired the rest of the city. So David 9 [†] waxed greater and greater: for the LORD of hosts was with him.

of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD 15 saved them by a great [‖] deliverance. Now [‖] three of the thirty captains went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines encamped [j] in the valley of Rephaim. 16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines' [k] garrison was then at 17 Beth-lehem. And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, 18 that is at the gate. XII. Now [a]these are they that came to David to Ziklag, [f]while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish: and they were among the mighty men, helpers of the war. They were [b]armed with bows, and 2 separated themselves unto David into the hold to the wilderness men of might, and men [f]of war fit for the battle, that could handle shield and [j]buckler, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and [k]were [f]as swift as the roes upon the mountains: Ezer the first, 9 ward the west. And there came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the 17 hold unto David. And David went out [f]to meet them, and [m]answered and said unto them, If ye be come peaceably unto me to help me, mine heart shall [f]be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no ‖wrong in mine hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and [n]rebuke it.

Then David received them, and made 19 them captains of the band. And there fell some of Manasseh to David, [q]when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle: but they helped them not: for the lords of the Philistines upon advisement sent him away, saying, He will fall to his master Saul [f]to the 20 were of Manasseh. And they helped David ‖against [r]the band of the rovers: for they were all mighty men of valour, 22

the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour for the war, seven thousand and one hundred. Of the children of [z]Levi 26 four thousand and six hundred. And 27 Jehoiada was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred; and [a]Zadok, a 28 young man mighty of valour, and of his father's house twenty and two captains And of the children of Benja- 29 min, the [†]kindred of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto [†b]the greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul. And of the children of [b]Eph- 30 raim twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, [†]famous throughout the house of their fathers. And of the half tribe of Manasseh 31 eighteen thousand, which [c]were expressed by name, to come and make David king. And of the children of Issachar, 32 which were men [d]that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their commandment. Of Zebu- 33 lun, [e]such as went forth to battle, [‖]expert in war, with all instruments of war, fifty thousand, which could [‖]keep rank: they were [†]not of double heart. And of 34 Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty and seven thousand. And of the Danites 35 expert in war twenty and eight thousand and six hundred. And of [b]Asher, 36 [e]such as went forth to battle, [‖]expert in war, forty thousand. And [b]on the 37 other side of Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, an hundred and twenty thousand. All these men 38 of war, that could keep rank, came [f]with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king. And there 39 they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them. Moreover they that 40 were nigh them, even unto Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on [g]asses, and on [g]camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and [‖]meat, meal, [h]cakes of figs, and [i]bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly: for there was joy in Israel.

XIII. And David consulted with the captains B. C. 1045. of thousands and hundreds, and with 2 every leader. And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the LORD our God, [†]let us send abroad unto our brethren every where, that are [a]left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are [†]in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto 3 us: and let us [†]bring again the ark of our God to us: for [b]we inquired not at it in the days of Saul. And all the con- 4 gregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all 5 the people. So [c]David gathered all Israel together, from [d]Shihor of Egypt even [e]unto the entering of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from [f]Kirjath- 6 jearim. [g]And David went up, and all Israel, to [h]Baalah, that is, to Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the LORD, that dwelleth between the cherubims, 7 whose name is called [i]on it. And they [†]carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza 8 and Ahio drave the cart. And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, and with [†]singing, and with [k]harps, and with [k]psalteries, and with timbrels, and with [k]cymbals, 9 and with trumpets. And when they came unto the threshingfloor of [‖]Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold 10 the ark; for the oxen [‖]stumbled. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he put his hand to the ark: and 11 there he [l]died before God. And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called [‖]Perez-uzza to this 12 day. And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the 13 ark of God home to me? So David [†]brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. 14 And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the LORD [m]blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

XIV. Now [a]Hiram king of Tyre sent mes- About B. C. 1043. sengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build 2 him a house. And David perceived that the LORD had confirmed him king over Israel, for his kingdom was lift up on high, because of his people Israel.

And David took [f]moe wives at Jerusalem: and David begat moe sons and daughters. Now [b]these are the names of his children which he had in Jerusalem; Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon, and Ibhar, and Elishua, and Elpalet, and Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia, and Elishama, and [i]Beeliada, and Eliphalet.

And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard of it, and [c]went out against them. And the Philistines came and [d]spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim. And David inquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thine hand. So they came up to Baal-perazim; and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place [l]Baal-perazim. And when they had left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were [e]burnt with fire. And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley. Therefore David inquired again of God; and God said unto him, Go not up after them; turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees. And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines. David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from [l]Gibeon even to Gazer. And [f]the fame of David went out into all lands; and the LORD brought [g]the fear of him upon all nations.

And David made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and [a]pitched for it a tent. Then David said, [t]None ought to carry the [b]ark of God but the Levites: for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever. And David [c]gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto [d]his place, which he had prepared for it. And David assembled the children of Aaron, and the Levites: of the sons of [e]Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his [l]brethren an hundred and twenty: of the sons of [e]Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty: of the sons of [e]Gershom; Joel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and thirty: of the sons of [f]Elizaphan; Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred: of the sons of [g]Hebron; Eliel the chief, and his brethren fourscore: of the sons of [g]Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve.

And David called for [h]Zadok and [i]Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for [j]Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, and said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: [jj]sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel unto [d]the place that I have prepared for it. For [k]because ye did it not at the first, the LORD our God [l]made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order. So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel. And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the [m]staves thereon, as [n]Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD. And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers with instruments of musick, [o]psalteries and [o]harps and [o]cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy. So the Levites appointed [p]Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, [q]Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, [r]Ethan the son of Kushaiah; and with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, [s]Ben, and [t]Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the porters. So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with [t]cymbals of brass; and Zechariah, and [l]Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with [t]psalteries [u]on Alamoth; and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and [s]Azaziah, with [t]harps [l]on the Sheminith [x]to excel. And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, [t]was for [t]song: he instructed about the [t]song, because he was skilful. 22

And Berechiah and Elkanah were door-keepers for the ark. And Shebaniah, 23 and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and 24
Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow [y]with the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-edom and Jehiah were door-keepers for the ark.

So [z]David, and the elders of Israel, 25 and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom with joy. And it came to pass, 26 when God helped the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered [a]seven bullocks and seven rams. And David was clothed 27 with a robe of [b]fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the [t]song with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen.
Thus all Israel brought up the ark of 28
the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the [c]cornet, and with [d]trumpets, and with [e]cymbals, making a noise with [e]psalteries and [e]harps.
[f]And it came to pass, as the ark of 29
the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

So they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before God.
And when David had made an end of 2 offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. And he 3 dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.
And he appointed certain 4 of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to [a]record, and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel: [b]Asaph the chief, and [c]next 5 to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom: and Jeiel [t]with [d]psalteries and with [d]harps; but Asaph made a sound with [d]cymbals; Benaiah also and Jahaziel 6

7 Then on that day David delivered
[f]first this psalm to thank the LORD into the hand of [b]Asaph and his brethren.
8 [g]Give thanks unto the LORD, [h]call upon his name,
[i]Make known his deeds among the people.
9 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him,
[k]Talk you of all his wondrous works.
10 Glory ye in his holy name:
Let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.
11 Seek the LORD and his strength,
12 [m]Remember his marvellous works that he hath done,
His [n]wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;
13 O ye seed of Israel his servant,
Ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones.
14 He is the LORD our God;
His [o]judgments are in all the earth.
15 Be ye mindful always of his covenant;
The word which he commanded to a thousand generations;
16 Even of the covenant [p]which he made with Abraham,
And of his [p]oath unto Isaac;
17 And hath confirmed the same to Jacob for a law,
And to Israel for an everlasting covenant,
18 Saying, [q]Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan,
[t]The lot of your inheritance;
19 When ye were but [t]few,
Even [r]a few, and [s]strangers in it.
20 And when they went from nation to nation,
And from one kingdom to another people;
21 [t]He suffered no man to do them wrong:
Yea, he [u]reproved kings for their sakes,
22 Saying, Touch not mine anointed,
And do my [x]prophets no harm.
23 [y]Sing unto the LORD, all the earth;
Shew forth from day to day his salvation.
24 Declare his glory among the heathen;
His marvellous works among all nations.
25 For [z]great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised:

He also is to be feared [a] above all gods.
For all the gods of the people are [b] idols:
But the LORD made the heavens.
Glory and honour are in his presence;
Strength and [d] gladness are in his place.
Give unto the LORD, ye kindreds of the people,
Give unto the LORD glory and strength.
Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name:
Bring an offering, and come before him:
Worship the LORD in [g] the beauty of holiness.
Fear before him, all the earth:
The world also shall be stable, that it be not moved.
Let the heavens be glad, and [h] let the earth rejoice:
And let men say among the nations, [i] The LORD reigneth.
Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof:
Let the fields rejoice, and all that is therein.
Then shall the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the LORD,
Because he cometh to judge the earth.
[l] O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good;
For his mercy endureth for ever.
And say ye,
[m] Save us, O God of our salvation,
And gather us together, and deliver us from the heathen,
That we may give thanks to thy holy name,
And glory in thy praise.
[n] Blessed be the LORD God of Israel for ever and ever.
[o] And all the people said, Amen, and praised the LORD.
So he left there [p] before the ark of the covenant of the LORD Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the ark continually, as [q] every day's work required: and Obed-edom with their brethren, threescore and eight; Obed-edom also the son of Jeduthun and [r] Hosah to be porters: and [s] Zadok the priest, and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD [t] in the high place that was at Gibeon, to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD upon [u] the altar of the burnt offering [w] continually [f] morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the law of the LORD, which he commanded Israel; and with them [x] Heman and [y] Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen, who [z] were expressed by name, to give thanks to the LORD, [a] because his mercy endureth for ever; and with them [x] Heman and [y] Jeduthun with [b] trumpets and cymbals for those that should make a sound, and with [b] musical instruments of God. And [c] the sons of Jeduthun were [f] porters. [d] And all the people departed every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

Now [a] it came to pass, as David sat in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in a house of cedars, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD remaineth under curtains.

XVII.

Then Nathan said unto David, Do all that is in thine heart; for God is with thee. And it came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying, Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me a house to dwell in: for I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day; but [f] have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another. Wheresoever I have walked with all Israel, spake I a word to any of the [b] judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me a house of cedars? Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, even [f] from following the sheep, that thou shouldest be ruler over my people Israel: and I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the earth. Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness [c] waste them any more, as at the beginning, and since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Moreover I will subdue all thine enemies. Furthermore I tell thee that the LORD will build thee a house. And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will stablish his kingdom. 12 He shall build me a house, and I will stablish his throne for ever. 13 [d] I will be his father, and he shall be my son: and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from [e] him that was before thee: but I will settle him in mine house and in my kingdom for ever: and his throne shall be established for evermore. 15 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

16 And David the king came and sat before the LORD, and said, Who am I, O LORD God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto? 17 And [f] yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God; for thou hast [f] also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and [g] hast regarded me according to the [h] estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God. 18 What can David speak more to thee for the honour of thy servant? for thou knowest thy servant. 19 O LORD, for thy [i] servant's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these [j] great things. 20 O LORD, there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears. 21 And what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt? 22 For thy people Israel didst thou make thine own people for ever; and thou, LORD, becamest their God. 23 Therefore now, LORD, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house be established for ever, and do as thou hast said. 24 Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel: and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee. 25 For thou, O my God, [l] hast told thy servant that thou wilt build him a house: therefore thy servant hath found [k] in his heart to pray before thee. 26 And now, LORD, thou art God, and hast promised this 27 goodness unto thy servant: now therefore [m] let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou blessest, O LORD, and it shall be blessed for ever.

XVIII. Now [a] after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took [b] Gath and her [c] towns out of the hand of the Philistines. 2 And he smote Moab; and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts. 3 And David smote [l] Hadarezer king of Zobah unto [d] Hamath, as he went to stablish his dominion by the river Euphrates. 4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and [l] seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them an hundred chariots. 5 And when the Syrians of [n] Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men. 6 Then David put [e] garrisons in Syria-damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went. 7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. 8 Likewise from [l] Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much brass, wherewith [f] Solomon made the brasen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass. 9 Now when [l] Tou king of [d] Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah; 10 he sent [l] Hadoram his son to king David, [l] to inquire of his welfare, and [l] to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him; (for Hadarezer [l] had war with Tou;) and [g] with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass. 11 Them also king David dedicated unto the LORD, with the silver and the gold that he brought from all these nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek. 12 Moreover [l] Abishai the son of Zeruiah slew of the Edomites in the valley of salt eighteen thousand. 13 And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

XIX. Now [a]it came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead. And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him. But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, †Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land? Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst hard by their buttocks, and sent them away. Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return. And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves †odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of [b]Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-[c]maachah, and out of Zobah. So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of [c]Maachah and his people; who came and pitched before [d]Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle. And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men. And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the city: and the kings that were come were by themselves in the field. Now when Joab saw that †the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the ‖choice of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians. And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of †Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon. And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee. Be of good courage, and let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the LORD do that which is good in his sight. So Joab and the people that were with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; and they fled before him. And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

1 And [a]Satan stood up against Israel, and [b]provoked David to number Israel. 2 And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it. 3 And Joab answered, The LORD make his people an hundred times so many moe as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be [c]a cause of trespass to Israel? 4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem. 5 And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were [d]a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was [d]four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword. 6 [e]But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was abominable to Joab.

7 [f]And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Israel. 8 And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly. 9 And the LORD spake unto Gad, David's seer, saying, 10 Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I [f]offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee. 11 So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, [f]Choose thee 12 either [f]three years' famine; or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him 13 that sent me. And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; for very [f]great are his mercies: but let me not 14 fall into the hand of man. So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.

15 And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshingfloor of [f]Ornan 16 the Jebusite. And David lift up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were [g]clothed 17 in sackcloth, fell upon their faces. And David said unto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be plagued.

of this threshingfloor, that I may build an altar therein unto the LORD: thou shalt [f]grant it me for the full price: that the plague may be stayed from the people. And Ornan said unto David, Take 23 it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the [i]wheat for the meat offering; I give it all. And king David said to Or- 24 nan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings without cost. So David gave 25 to Ornan for the place [j]six hundred shekels of gold by weight. And David built 26 there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD; and [k]he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering. And the 27 LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

At that time when David saw that the 28 LORD had answered him in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there. [l]For the tabernacle of 29 the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt offering, were at that season in the high place at Gibeon. But David could not go 30 before it [m]to inquire of God: for he was [n]afraid because of the sword of the angel of the LORD. Then David said, [a]This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of the burnt offering for Israel. And David commanded to gather 2 together [b]the strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew [c]wrought stones to build the house of God. And David prepared iron in 3 abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the [cc]joinings; and brass in abundance [d]without weight; also ce- 4 dar trees in abundance: for [e]the Zidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David. And David said, 5 Solomon my son is [f]young and tender, and the house that is to be builded for the LORD must be exceeding magnifical, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

Then he called for Solomon his son, 6 and charged him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel. And David 7 said to Solomon, My son, as for me, [g]it was in my mind to build a house [h]unto 8 the name of the LORD my God: but the word of the LORD came to me, saying, [i]Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and [j]hast made great wars: thou shalt not build a house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the 9 earth in my sight. Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him [k]rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be [l]Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days. 10 [l]He shall build a house for my name; and [m]he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever. 11 Now, my son, [n]the LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of 12 thee. Only the LORD [o]give thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God. 13 [p]Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel: [q]be strong, and of good courage; [r]dread not, nor be dis- 14 mayed. Now behold, [s]in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD an [t]hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron [t]without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and 15 thou mayest add thereto. Moreover there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and [t]workers of stone and timber, and all manner of cunning men 16 for every manner of work. Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is [u]no number. Arise therefore, and be doing, and [v]the LORD be with thee.

17 David also commanded all [w]the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, say- 18 ing, Is not the LORD your God with you? and hath he [x]not [y]given you rest on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into mine hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD, 19 and before his people. Now [z]set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God; arise therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring [a]the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the

of the sons of Ithamar: and thus were they divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men [d] of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar [d] according to the house of their fathers. Thus were they 5 divided by [e] lot, one sort with another; for the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the house of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar. And Shemaiah the son of 6 Nethaneel the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the king, and the princes, and [c] Zadok the priest, and [c] Ahimelech the son of [f] Abiathar, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites: one [f] principal household being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar. Now the first lot came forth to 7 [g] Jehoiarib, the second to [h] Jedaiah, the 8 third to [h] Harim, the fourth to Seorim, the fifth to [i] Malchijah, the sixth to Mija- 9 min, the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth 10 to [j] Abijah, the ninth to Jeshua, the 11 tenth to Shecaniah, the eleventh to Elia- 12 shib, the twelfth to Jakim, the thirteenth 13 to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to 14 [h] Immer, the seventeenth to Hezir, the 15 eighteenth to Aphses, the nineteenth to 16 Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezekel, the one and twentieth to Jachin, the 17 two and twentieth to Gamul, the three 18 and twentieth to Delaiah, the four and twentieth to Maaziah. These were the 19 orderings of them in their service [k] to come into the house of the LORD, according to their manner, under Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

And the rest of the sons of Levi were 20 these: Of the sons of [l] Amram; [ll] Shubael: of the sons of Shubael; Jehdeiah. Con- 21 cerning [l] Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah. Of the 22 Izharites: [ll] Shelomoth: of the sons of Shelomoth; Jahath. And the sons [m] of 23 Hebron; Jeriah [m] the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth. Of the sons of Uzziel; 24 [n] Michah: of the sons of Michah; Shamir. The brother of Michah was [n] Is- 25 shiah: of the sons of Isshiah; Zechariah. [o] The sons of Merari were Mahli and 26 Mushi: the sons of Jaaziah; Beno. The 27 sons of Merari by Jaaziah; Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibri. Of Mahli 28 came Eleazar, [p] who had no sons. Con- 29 cerning [q] Kish: the son of Kish was 30 Jerahmeel. [r] The sons also of Mushi; [s] Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites after the 31 house of their fathers. These likewise [t] cast lots over against their brethren the sons of Aaron [u] in the presence of David the king, and [c] Zadok, and [c] Ahimelech, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites, even the principal fathers over against their younger brethren.

Moreover David and [a] the captains of XXV. 1 the host separated to the service of the sons of [b] Asaph, and of [c] Heman, and of [d] Jeduthun, [e] who should prophesy with [f] harps, with [f] psalteries, and with [f] cymbals: and the number of the workmen 2 according to their service was: of the sons of [b] Asaph; [ff] Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and [ll] Asarelah, the sons of Asaph under the hands of Asaph, [e] which prophesied [t] according to the order of 3 the king. Of [d] Jeduthun: the sons of Jeduthun; Gedaliah, and [l] Zeri, and Jeshaiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, [ll] six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun, [e] who prophesied with a harp, to 4 give thanks and to praise the LORD. Of [c] Heman: the sons of Heman; Bukkiah, Mattaniah, [ll] Uzziel, [l] Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, 5 Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth: all these were the sons of Heman the king's [g] seer in the [l] words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman 6 fourteen sons and three daughters. All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of the LORD, with [f] cymbals, [f] psalteries, and [f] harps, for the service of the house of God, [t] according to the king's order to [b] Asaph, [d] Jeduthun, 7 and [c] Heman. So the number of them, with their brethren that were instructed in the songs of the LORD, even all that were [h] cunning, was [i] two hundred fourscore and eight.

8 And they cast lots, ward against [j] ward, as well the small as the great, 9 the [h] teacher as the scholar. Now [k] the first lot came forth for Asaph to [l] Joseph: the second to [m] Gedaliah, who [n] with 10 his brethren and sons were twelve: the third to [l] Zaccur, [n] he, his sons, and his 11 brethren, were twelve: the fourth to [m] Izri, he, his sons, and his brethren, were 12 twelve: the fifth to [l] Nethaniah, he, his 13 sons, and his brethren, were twelve: the sixth to [o] Bukkiah, he, his sons, and his 14 brethren, were twelve: the seventh to

XXVI. Concerning the divisions of the porters: Of the Korhites was [l] Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of [l] Asaph. And the sons of [a] Meshelemiah were, [a] Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elioenai the seventh. Moreover the sons of [b] Obed-edom were, Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth, Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth: for God blessed [l] him. Also unto [c] Shemaiah his son were sons born, that ruled throughout the house of their father: for they were mighty men of valour. The sons of Shemaiah; Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brethren were [d] strong men, Elihu, and Semachiah. All these of the sons of Obed-edom: they and their sons and their brethren, able men for strength for the service, were threescore and two of Obed-edom. And [e] Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, [d] strong men, eighteen. Also [f] Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons; Simri the chief, (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him the chief;) Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen. Among these were the divisions of the porters, even among the chief men, having wards one against another, to minister in the house of the LORD.

And they [g] cast lots, [l] as well the small as the great, according to the house of their fathers, for every gate. And the lot eastward [g] fell to [l] Shelemiah. Then for Zechariah his son, a wise counseller, they cast lots; and his lot came out northward. To Obed-edom southward; and to his sons the house of [t] Asuppim. To Shuppim and Hosah the lot came forth westward, with the gate [h] Shallecheth, by [i] the causeway [k] of the going up, ward against ward. Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and toward Asuppim two and two. At [l] Parbar westward, four at [i] the causeway, and two at Parbar. These are the divisions of the porters among the sons of [m] Kore, and among the sons of [n] Merari.

And of the Levites, Ahijah was over [o] the treasures of the house of God, and over the treasures of the [t] dedicate things. As concerning the sons of [l] Laadan; the sons of the Gershonite Laadan, chief fathers, even of Laadan the Gershonite, were [l] Jehieli. Which Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasures of the dedicate things, which David the king, and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the host, had [t] dedicated. [t] Out of the spoils won in battles did they [t] dedicate to maintain the house of the LORD. XXVIII.

And David [a]assembled all the princes of Israel, [b]the princes of the tribes, and [c]the captains of the companies that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and [d]the stewards over all the substance and [j]possession of the king, [i]and of his sons, with the [j]officers, and with [e]the mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem. Then David the 2 king stood up upon his feet, and said,
Hear me, my brethren, and my people:
As for me, [f]I had in mine heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for [g]the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building: but God said 3 unto me, [h]Thou shalt not build a house for my name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed [i]blood.
Howbeit the LORD God of Israel [k]chose 4 me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel [l]for ever: for he hath chosen [i]Judah to be the ruler; and of the house of Judah, [k]the house of my father; and [l]among the sons of my father he liked me to make me king over all Israel: [m]and of all my sons, 5 (for the LORD hath given me many sons,) [n]he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of [o]the kingdom 6 of the LORD over Israel. And he said unto me, [p]Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I 7 will be his father. Moreover I will establish his kingdom [j]for ever, [q]if he be [t]constant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day.
8 Now therefore in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God: that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you 9 [j]for ever. And thou, Solomon my son, [r]know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with [s]a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for [t]the LORD
searcheth all hearts, and understandeth [u]all the imaginations of the thoughts:
if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but [v]if thou forsake him, he will 10 [w]cast thee off for ever. Take heed now; for the LORD hath chosen thee to build a house for the sanctuary: [ww]be strong, and do it.
11 Then David gave to Solomon his son [x]the pattern of [y]the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the [z]upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of [a]the mercy seat, 12 and the pattern [t]of all that he had by the spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the [b]chambers round about, [c]of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the of the priests and the [e]Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of 14 service in the house of the LORD. He gave of gold by weight for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service; silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments 15 of every kind of service: even the weight for the [f]candlesticks of gold, and for their [g]lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof:

and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, both for the candlestick, and also for the lamps thereof, according to 16 the use of every candlestick. And by weight he gave gold for the tables of shewbread, for every table; and likewise

silver for the tables of silver: also pure 17
gold for the [h]fleshhooks, and the [i]bowls,

[l]bason; and likewise silver by weight for of incense [n]refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the [o]chariot of nant of the LORD. All this, [r]said Da- 19 vid, the LORD made me understand in writing [s]by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern. And David 20 said to Solomon his son, [t]Be strong and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed: for the LORD

God, even my God, [u]will be with thee;
[t]he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee,

ing [y]skilful man, for any manner of people will be wholly at thy commandment.

XXIX. Furthermore David the king said un-B. C. 1015. to all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet [a]young and tender, and the work is great: for the [b]palace is not for man, but for the LORD God. Now I 2 have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood;
[c]onyx stones, and stones [d]to be set,
[e]glistering stones, and [f]of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and [g]marble stones in abundance. More- 3 over, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, even [b]three 4 thousand talents of gold, of the gold of [i]Ophir, and seven thousand talents of [j]refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withal: the gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing [l]to consecrate his service this day unto the LORD?

6 Then [k]the chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds,
with [l]the rulers over the king's work, 7 offered willingly, and gave for the service of the house of God of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand [m]drams, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and one hundred thousand ta-8 lents of iron. And they with whom [n]precious stones were found gave them to the [o]treasure of the house of the LORD, [o]by the hand of [p]Jehiel the 9 Gershonite. Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they [q]offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.
10 Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation: and David said, [r]Blessed be thou, LORD God of Is-11 rael our father, for ever and ever. Thine, O LORD, is the [s]greatness, and the [t]power, and the [t]glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the [t]kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted 12 as head above all. [u]Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and [w]in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.
13 Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, 14 and praise thy glorious name. But who am I, and what is my people, that we should [l]be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and 15 [l]of thine own have we given thee. For we are [x]strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: [y]our days on the earth are as a shadow, and 16 there is none [l]abiding. O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee a house for thine holy name cometh of thine hand, and is all 17 thine own. I know also, my God, that thou [z]triest the heart, and [a]hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen [b]with joy thy people, which are [l]present here, to offer willingly unto 18 thee. O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in [c]the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and [l]prepare their heart unto thee: and give unto Solomon my son [d]a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the [e]palace, for the which [f]I have made provision.

And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the LORD your God. And all the congregation [g]blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and [h]bowed down their heads, and worshipped the LORD, and the king. And they sacrificed sacrifices unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings unto the LORD, on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their [i]drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel: and did eat and drink before the LORD on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king [j]the second time, and [k]anointed him unto the LORD to be the chief governor, and [j]Zadok to be priest. [l]Then Solomon sat on [m]the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him.

And all the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, [t]submitted themselves unto Solomon the king. And the LORD [n]magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and [o]bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

And the time that he reigned over Israel was [p]forty years; [q]seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem. THE SECOND BOOK

OF THE

CHRONICLES.

I.

B. C. 1015.

AND [a]Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and [b]the LORD his God was with him, and [c]magnified him exceedingly. Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to [d]the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers. So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to [e]the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, [f]which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness. [g]But the ark of God had David brought up from [h]Kirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem. Moreover [i]the brasen altar, that [j]Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, [‖]he put before the tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the congregation [k]sought unto it. And Solomon went up thither to the brasen altar before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and [l]offered a thousand burnt offerings upon it.

[m]In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee. And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign in his stead. Now, O LORD God, let thy promise unto David my father [n]be established: for thou hast made me king over a people [†]like the dust of the earth in multitude. Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people, that is so great? And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, [o]wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king: wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and [o]wealth, and honour, such as [p]none of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

Then Solomon came from his journey to [q]the high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel. [r]And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and [s]he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in [t]the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. And the king [†]made silver and gold at Jerusalem as plenteous as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycomore trees that are in the vale for abundance. And [†]Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price. And they fetcht up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they out horses for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, [†]by their means. And Solomon [a]determined to build a house for the name of the LORD, and a house for his kingdom. And [b]Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men [c]to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred [c]to oversee them.

him cedars to build him a house to dwell therein, [f]even so deal with me. Behold, 4 I build a house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him [g]sweet incense, and for [g]the continual shewbread, and for [h]the burnt offerings morning and evening, [h]on the sabbaths, and [h]on the new moons, and on [h]the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. But who [j]is able to build him a 6 house, seeing [j]the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then, that I should build him a house, save only to burn sacrifice before him? Send me now therefore a man cunning 7 to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in [k]purple, and [l]crimson, and blue, and that can skill [l]to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, [m]whom David my father did provide. Send me 8 also cedar trees, fir trees, and [n]algum trees, out of Lebanon: for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and behold, my servants shall be with thy servants, even to prepare me 9 timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build shall be [t]wonderful great. And behold, [u]I will give to thy 10 servants, the hewers that cut timber, [o]twenty thousand [p]measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand [p]measures of barley, and twenty thousand [q]baths of wine, and [o]twenty thousand [q]baths of oil.

Then Huram the king of Tyre an- 11 swered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, [r]Because the LORD hath loved his people, he hath made thee king over them. Huram said moreover, [s]Blessed 12 be the LORD God of Israel, [t]that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, [t]endued with prudence and understanding, that [u]might build a house for the LORD, and a house for his kingdom. And now I have sent 13 a cunning man, endued with understanding, of Huram my father's, [x]the son of 14 a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilful [y]to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in [z]fine linen, and in crimson; also to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my 15 lord David thy father. Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine, which [a]my lord hath spoken 16 of, let him send unto his servants: and we will cut wood out of Lebanon, [t]as much as thou shalt need: and we will bring it to thee in flotes by sea to [t]Joppa; and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem. 17 [b]And Solomon numbered all [t]the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering where*with* [c]David his father had numbered them; and they were found an hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hun- 18 dred. And he set [d]threescore and ten thousand of them to be bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand to be hewers in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people a work.

III. Then [a]Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem in mount [b]Moriah, [l]where the LORD appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshingfloor of [c]Ornan the Jebusite. 2 And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

3 Now these are the things wherein Solomon was [t]instructed for the building of the house of God. [d]The length by cubits after the first measure was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty 4 cubits. And the [e]porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it 5 within with pure gold. And [f]the greater house he cieled with [g]fir tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set there- 6 on [h]palm trees and [i]chains. And he [t]garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of 7 Parvaim. He overlaid also the house, the [k]beams, the [l]posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and [h]graved cherubims on the walls. 8 And he made the [m]most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and [n]he overlaid it with fine gold, amount- 9 ing to six hundred talents. And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the [o]upper chambers with gold.

10 And in the [m]most holy house he made [p]two cherubims [l]of image work, and overlaid them with gold. And the wings 11 of the cherubims were twenty cubits long:

one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.
And one wing of the other cherub was 12 five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub. The wings of these cherubims 13 spread themselves forth twenty cubits:
and they stood on their feet, and their faces were [f]inward.

And he made the [p]vail of blue, and 14 purple, and crimson, and [q]fine linen, and [r]wrought cherubims thereon. [s]Also he 15 made before the house two pillars of [t]thirty and five cubits [u]high, and the chapiter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits. And he made 16 chains, as in [v]the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and made [w]an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains. And he reared up 17 the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left;
and called the name of that on the right hand [x]Jachin, and the name of that on the left [y]Boaz.

Moreover he made [a]an altar of brass, 4 twenty cubits the length thereof, and twenty cubits the breadth thereof, and ten cubits the height thereof.

[b]Also he made a molten sea of ten 2 cubits [c]from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof;
and a line of thirty cubits did compass
it round about. And under it was the 3 similitude of [d]oxen, which did compass
it round about: ten in a cubit, compass-ing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen were cast, when it was cast. It 4 stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward. And the thickness of it was a 5 handbreadth, and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, [g]with flowers of lilies; and it received and held [h]three thousand baths.

He made also [i]ten lavers, and put 6 five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: [k]such things as they offered for the burnt offering they [l]washed in them; but the sea was for 7 the priests to wash in. And he made [m]ten candlesticks of gold [n]according to their form, and set them in the temple,
five on the right hand, and five on the 8 left. He made also [o]ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. And he 9 made an hundred [p]basons of gold. Furthermore he made [q]the court of the priests, and [r]the great court, and doors for [r]the court, and overlaid the doors 10 of them with brass. And [s]he set the sea on the right side of the east end, over against the south.

11 [t]And Huram made the pots, and the shovels, and the [u]basons. And Huram [v]finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God; 12 to wit, the two pillars, and [w]the pommels, and the chapiters which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the chapiters which were on the top of 13 the pillars; and [x]four hundred pomegranates on the two wreaths; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the [w]two pommels of the chapiters 14 which were [v]upon the pillars. He made also [y]bases and [z]lavers made he upon 15 the bases; one sea, and twelve oxen un-16 der it. The pots also, and the shovels, and [a]the fleshhooks, and all their instruments, did [b]Huram his father make to king Solomon for the house of the LORD 17 of [c]bright brass. In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the [d]clay ground between Succoth and [e]Zereda-18 thah. Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for [f]the weight of the brass could not be found 19 out. And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden altar also, and [g]the tables whereon 20 the shewbread was set; moreover the candlesticks with their lamps, that they should burn [h]after the manner before 21 the [i]oracle, of [k]pure gold; and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, made he of gold, and that [l]perfect gold; 22 and the snuffers, and the [m]basons, and the spoons, and the censers, of [k]pure gold: and the [n]entry of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most holy place, and the doors of the house of the temple, were of gold. Thus all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished: and Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the

[a]Then Solomon assembled the elders 2 of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion. Where- 3 fore all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto the king in the feast which was in the seventh month. And 4 all the elders of Israel came; and [b]the Levites took up the ark. And they 5 brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, these did the priests [c]and the Levites bring up. Also king Solomon, and all the 6 congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude. And the 7 priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, to the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims: for the cherubims spread forth 8 their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above. And they drew 9 out the staves of the ark, that the ends of the staves were seen [d]from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen without. And [f]there it is unto this day.
There was nothing in the ark save the 10 two tables which Moses put therein at Horeb, [g]when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt. [e]And it came 11 to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place: (for all the priests that were [h]present were sanctified, and did not then wait by [i]course: also the Levites 12 which were the singers, all of them [k]of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, being arrayed in [l]white linen, having [m]cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them an hundred and twenty [n]priests sounding with trumpets:) it came even to pass, as 13
the trumpeters and singers were as one,
to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and when they lift up their voice with [o]the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of musick, and praised the LORD, [p]saying,
For he is good; for his mercy endureth
for ever: [q]that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the LORD; 14 [r]so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God.

VI. [a]Then said Solomon, The LORD hath said that he would dwell in the thick 2 darkness. But I have built a house of habitation for thee, and a [b]place for thy 3 dwelling for ever. And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel: and all the congrega-4 tion of Israel stood. And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father Da-5 vid, saying, Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt
I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, that my name might be there; [c]neither chose I any man 6 to be a ruler over my people Israel: [d]but I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David 7 to be over my people Israel. Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD 8 God of Israel. But the LORD said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build a house for my name, thou didst well in that it was in 9 thine heart: notwithstanding thou shalt not build the house; but thy son which shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall 10 build the house for my name. The LORD therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken: for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the 11 name of the LORD God of Israel. And in it have I put the ark, wherein is the covenant of the LORD, that he made to thy servants, that walk before thee with all their hearts: thou which hast 15 kept with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him; and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day. Now 16 therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, [f] There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; yet so that thy children take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me. Now then, O 17 LORD God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David.

But will God in very deed dwell with 18 men on the earth? behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built? Have respect therefore to 19 the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee: that thine eyes may be open [h] upon 20 this house day and night, [h] upon the place whereof thou hast said that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth [i] towards this place. Hearken there- 21 fore unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall [k] make towards this place: hear thou from thy dwelling place, even from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive.

If a man sin against his neighbour, 22 [l] and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house; then hear thou 23 from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, by requiting the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head; and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousness.

And if thy people Israel [m] be put to 24 the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee; and shall return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee [n] in this house; then hear thou from the 25 heavens, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to them and to their fathers.

[o] When the heaven is shut up, and 26 there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; yet if they pray towards this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost 27 afflict them; then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou hast taught them the good way, wherein they should walk; and send rain upon thy land, which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.

If there be dearth in the land, if 28 there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillars; if their enemies besiege them [f] in the cities of their land; whatsoever sore or what- 29 soever sickness there be: then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own sore and his own grief, and shall spread forth 30 his hands [g] in this house: then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou only knowest the hearts of the children of men:) 31 that they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways, [t] so long as they live [f] in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

Moreover concerning the stranger, 32 [j] which is not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great name's sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arm; if they come and 33 pray in this house; then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Israel, and may know that [f] this house which I have built is called by thy name.

If thy people go out to war against 34 their enemies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray unto thee toward this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for 35 thy name; then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their [p] cause. If 36 they sin against thee, (for there is no man which sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and [q] they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near; yet if they [r] bethink themselves 37 in the land whither they are carried

Now [a]when Solomon had made an end of praying, the [b]fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and [c]the glory of the LORD filled the house. [d]And the priests could not enter into 2 the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD'S house. Moreover Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brasen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat.
8 Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto[k] the 9 river of Egypt. And [a]it came to pass at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house, that the cities which Huram had [b]restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there. And Solomon went to [c]Hamath-[d]zobah, and prevailed against it. And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store cities, which he built in Hamath. Also he built [e]Beth-horon the upper, and [e]Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, [f]with walls, gates, and bars; and Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and [†]all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion. As for all the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of Israel, but of their children, who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed not, them did Solomon make to pay tribute until this day. But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen. And these were the chief of king Solomon's officers, even [g]two hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the people. And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are [†]holy, whereunto the ark of the LORD hath come.

Then Solomon offered burnt offerings unto the LORD on the altar of the LORD, [h]which he had built before the porch, even [i]after a certain rate [k]every day, offering according to the commandment of Moses, [l]on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts, [m]three times in the year, even in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles. And [a]when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart. And Solomon told her all her questions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not. And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, and the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel; his [†]cupbearers also, and their apparel; and his ascent by which he went up into the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her. And she said to the king,

It was a true [t]report which I heard in mine own land of thine [u]acts, and of thy wisdom: howbeit I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and behold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: for thou exceedest the fame that I heard. Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom. Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee to set thee on [b]his throne, to be king for the LORD thy God: because thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgment and justice. And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon. And the servants also of Huram, and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold from Ophir, brought [x]algum trees and precious stones. And the king made of the algum trees [y]terraces to the house of the LORD, and to the king's palace, and harps and psalteries for singers: and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah. And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, besides that which [c]she had brought unto the king. So she turned, and went away to her own land, she and her servants.

[d]Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and threescore and six talents of gold; besides that which chapmen and merchants brought. And all the kings of Arabia and [z]governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon. And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target. And three hundred shields made he of beaten gold: [e]three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with [f]pure gold. And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and [g]stays on each side of the sitting place, and two lions standing by the stays: and twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom. And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of [h]pure gold: [i]none were of silver; it was [k]not any thing accounted of in the days of Solomon. For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram: every three years once came the ships of Tarshish bringing gold, and silver, [l]ivory, and apes, and peacocks. And king Solomon passed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, that God had put in his heart. And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, [m]harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year. [n]And Solomon had [o]four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; whom he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. [p]And he reigned over all the kings from the [q]river even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. And the king [r]made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycomore trees that are in [s]the low plains in abundance. And they brought unto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

tude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee. And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed. And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to return answer to this people? And they spake unto him, saying, [c] If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever. But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him. And he said unto them, What advice give ye that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us? And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins. For whereas my father [f] put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I [d] will chastise you with scorpions. So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day. And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, and answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I [d] will chastise you with scorpions. So the king hearkened not unto the people: for the cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spake by the hand of [e] Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying,

What portion have we in David?
And we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse:
Every man to your tents, O Israel:
And now, David, see to thine own house.

So all Israel went to their tents. But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. Then king Rehoboam sent [f] Hadoram that was over the tribute; and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. But king Rehoboam [t] made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

XI. And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam. But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all [a] Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against [aa] your brethren: return every man to his house, for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built [b] cities for defence in Judah. He built even [c] Beth-lehem, and [d] Etam, and [e] Tekoa, and [f] Beth-zur, and [g] Shoco, and [h] Adullam, and [i] Gath, and [k] Mareshah, and [l] Ziph, and [m] Adoraim, and [n] Lachish, and [o] Azekah, and [p] Zorah, and [q] Aijalon, and [r] Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin, [b] fenced cities. And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and of oil and wine. And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel [t] resorted to him out of all their coasts. For the Levites left [s] their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and his sons [t] had cast them off from executing the priest's office unto the LORD: and he ordained him [u] priests for the high places, and for [x] the devils, and for [y] the calves which he had made. And [z] after them out of all the tribes of Israel such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers. 2 him. And it came to pass, that [c]in the fifth year of king Rehoboam Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed
3 against the LORD, with twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; the [d]Lubims, the Sukkiims, and the [d]Ethiopians. And he took [e]the fenced
4 cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem. Then came [f]Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith
5 the LORD, [g]Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak. Whereupon the princes
6 of [h]Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, [i]The LORD is righteous. And when the LORD saw
7 that they [j]humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them [k]some deliverance; and [l]my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. Nevertheless they shall be his servants;
8 that they may know [m]my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the coun-
9 tries. [n]So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold [o]which Solomon had 10 made. Instead of which king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of 11 the king's house. And when the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came and fet them, and brought them again into the guard 12 chamber. And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether: [p]and also in Judah things went well.
13 So king Rehoboam [q]strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for [r]Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, [s]the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was 14 Naamah an Ammonitess. And he did evil, because he [t]prepared not his heart
15 to seek the LORD. [u]Now the acts of Rehoboam, [v]first and last, are they not written in the [w]book of [x]Shemaiah the prophet, and of [y]Iddo the [z]seer concerning [a]genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam 16 continually. And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and [b]Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

XIII. Now [c]in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over 2 Judah. He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was [d]Michaiah the daughter of Uriel of [e]Gibeah. [f]And there was war between 3 Abijah and Jeroboam. And Abijah [g]set the battle in array with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men: Jeroboam also [h]set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, being mighty men of valour.
4 And Abijah stood up upon mount [i]Zemaraim, which is in [j]mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and 5 all Israel; ought you not to know that the LORD God of Israel [h]gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons by [i]a covenant of salt? Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, is risen up, and hath [k]rebelled against his lord. And there are gathered unto him [l]vain men, [m]the children of Belial, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was [n]young and tender hearted, and could not withstand them. And now ye think to withstand [o]the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and ye be a great multitude, and there are with you [p]golden calves, which Jeroboam made you for gods. [q]Have ye not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? so that whosoever cometh [r]to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are [s]no gods. [t]But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests, which minister unto the LORD, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business: and they burn unto the LORD every morning and every evening [u]burnt sacrifices and [u]sweet incense: the [uw]shewbread also set they in order upon the pure table; and [x]the candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, [y]to burn every evening: for we [z]keep the charge of the LORD our God; but ye have forsaken him. And behold, God himself is with us for our captain, and his priests [a]with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, [b]fight ye not against the LORD God of your fathers; for you shall not prosper.

But Jeroboam caused [c]an ambushment to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambushment was behind them. And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind: and they cried unto the LORD, and [d]the priests sounded with the trumpets. Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that God [e]smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. And the children of Israel fled before Judah: and [f]God delivered them into their hand. And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men. Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they [g]relied upon the LORD God of their fathers. And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, [h]Beth-el with the towns thereof, and Jeshanah with the towns thereof, and [i]Ephrain with the towns thereof. Neither did Jeroboam [k]recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and the LORD [l]struck him, and [m]he died. But Abijah [n]waxed mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters. And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the [o]story of the prophet [o]Iddo. So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and [a]Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years.

And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God: for he took away the altars of the strange gods, and [b]the high places, and brake down the [l]images, and [c]cut down the groves: and commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment. Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah [b]the high places and the [l]images: and the kingdom was quiet before him. And he built [d]fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in [e]those years; because the LORD had given him rest. Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them [f]walls, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought him, and [g]he hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.

And [a] the spirit of God came upon [b] Azariah the son of Oded: and he went [2] out [†] to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; The LORD is with you, while ye be with him; and [c] if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but [d] if ye forsake him, he will forsake you. Now [3] [e] for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, and without [f] a teaching priest, and without law. But [g] when [4] they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them. And [h] in those [5] times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries. And na- [6] tion was [†] destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity. Be [i] ye strong therefore, and [7] let not [k] your hands be weak: for [l] your work shall be rewarded.

And when Asa heard these words, [8] and the prophecy of [b] Oded the prophet, he took courage, and [m] put away the [†] abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities [n] which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the LORD, that was [o] before the porch of the LORD. And he gathered all Ju- [9] dah and Benjamin, and [p] the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was [10] with him. So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the [q] third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign [11] of Asa. And they offered unto the LORD [†] the same time, of [r] the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred [12] oxen and seven thousand sheep. And they [s] entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all [13] their heart and with all their soul; that whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel [t] should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or [14] woman. And they sware unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with [u] cornets. [15] And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and [c] sought him with their whole desire; and he was [c] found of them: and the LORD [v] gave them rest round about.

XVIII. B.C. 897.

Now Jehoshaphat [a]had riches and honour in abundance, and [b]joined affinity with Ahab. And [†]after certain years [2] [c]he went down to Ahab to [d]Samaria. And Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and [e]persuaded him to go up with him to [f]Ramoth-gilead. And Ahab king of Israel said [3] unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war. And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day. Therefore the king of [5] Israel gathered together of prophets four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the king's hand. But Jehoshaphat said, Is there [6] not here a prophet of the LORD [†]besides, that we might inquire of him? And the king of Israel said unto Je- [7] hoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so. And the king of Israel called for [8] one of his [‖]officers, and said, [†]Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla. And [9] the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a [‖]void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them. And Ze- [10] dekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the LORD, With these thou shalt push Syria until [†]they be consumed. And [11] all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

And the messenger that went to call [12] Micaiah spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king [†]with one assent; let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good. And [13] Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, even what my God saith, that will I speak. And when he was come to the king, [14] the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered [15] into your hand. And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou say nothing but the truth [16] to me in the name of the LORD? Then he said, I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return therefore every man to his house in peace. [17] And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, [‖]but evil? [18] Again he said, Therefore hear the word of the LORD; I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and [19] on his left. And the LORD said, Who shall [g]entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spake saying after this manner, and another saying after that [20] manner. Then there came out a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will [g]entice him. And the LORD said [21] unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD said, Thou shalt [g]entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do [22] even so. Now therefore behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee. [23] Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the spirit of the LORD from me to speak [24] unto thee? And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go [‖]into an inner chamber to hide [25] thyself. Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and [26] to Joash the king's son; and say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until [27] I return in peace. And Micaiah said, If thou certainly return in peace, then hath not the LORD spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, all ye people.

[28] So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to [29] Ramoth-gilead. And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and will go to the battle; but

And Jehoshaphat the king of Judah [a] returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem. And [b] Jehu the son of Hanani [c] the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and [d] love them that hate the LORD? therefore is [e] wrath upon thee from before the LORD. Nevertheless there are [f] good things 3 found in thee, in that thou hast [g] taken away the groves out of the land, and hast [h] prepared thine heart to seek God. And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: 4 and [l] he went out again through the people from [i] Beer-sheba to [j] mount Ephraim, and brought them back unto the LORD God of their fathers. And he set [k] judges 5 in the land throughout all [l] the fenced cities of Judah, city by city, and said 6 to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for [m] ye judge not for man, but for the LORD, who is with you [l] in the judgment. Wherefore now let the fear of 7 the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for there is [n] no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor [o] respect of persons, nor taking of gifts. Moreover in Jeru- 8 salem did Jehoshaphat set [p] of the Levites, and of the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, [m] for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies, when they returned to Jeru- 9 salem. And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do [q] in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a [r] perfect 10 heart. And [s] what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even [t] warn them that they trespass not against the LORD, and so [u] wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: [v] this do, and ye shall not trespass. 11 And behold, [x] Amariah the chief priest is over you [y] in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, [y] for all the king's matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. It came to pass after this also, that the children of [a] Moab, and the children of [b] Ammon, and with them other beside the [c] Ammonites, came against Je- 2 hoshaphat to battle. unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help. And now behold, 10 the children of [q]Ammon and Moab and [r]mount Seir, whom thou [s]wouldest not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but [t]they turned from them, and destroyed them not; behold, I say, how they reward us, to 11 come [u]to cast us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit. O 12 our God, wilt thou not [x]judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but [y]our eyes are upon thee. And all Judah 13 stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

Then upon Jahaziel the son of Zecha- 14 riah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of [z]Asaph, [a]came the spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation; and he said, Hearken ye, all 15 Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat, Thus saith the LORD unto you, [b]Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for [c]the battle is not yours, but God's. To morrow go ye down against 16 them: behold, they come up by the [f]cliff of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the [g]brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel. [d]Ye shall not need 17 to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: [b]fear not, nor be dismayed; to morrow go out against them: [e]for the LORD will be with you. And Jehosha- 18 phat [f]bowed his head with his face to the ground: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD. And the 19 Levites, of the children of the [g]Kohathites, and of the children of the [h]Korhites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

And they rose early in the morning, 20 and went forth into [i]the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; [k]Believe in the LORD your God, so shall you be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper. And when 21 he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, and [l]that should praise [l]the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, [m]Praise the LORD; for his 22 mercy endureth for ever. [†]And when they began [†]to sing and to praise, the LORD set [n]ambushments against the children of [o]Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; 23 and [‖]they were smitten. For the children of [n]Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped 24 [†][p]to destroy another. And when Judah came toward the watch tower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and [†]none 25 escaped. And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and [q]precious jewels, which they stript off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it 26 was so much. And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of [‖]Berachah; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Berachah, unto this day. Then they re- 27 turned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the [†]forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; [r]for the LORD had made them 28 to rejoice over their enemies. And they came to Jerusalem with [s]psalteries and harps and trumpets unto the house of 29 the LORD. And [t]the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel. 30 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet: for his [u]God gave him rest round about. 31 [x]And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the 32 daughter of Shilhi. And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and departed not from it, doing that which was right 33 in the sight of the LORD. Howbeit [y]the high places were not taken away: for as yet the people had not [z]prepared their hearts unto the God of their 34 fathers. Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, [a]first and last, behold they are written in the [†]book of Jehu the

Now Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Jehoram his son [‖]reigned in his stead. And he had 2 brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of [a]Israel. And their father gave 3 them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of [b]precious things, with [c]fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to [‖]Jehoram; because he was the firstborn. Now when Jehoram was risen 4 up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of [a]Israel.

[d]Jehoram was thirty and two years 5 old when he [‖]began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. And 6 he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had [e]the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD. Howbeit the 7 LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a [†]light to him and to his sons for ever. In his days the Edom- 8 ites revolted from under the [†]dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king. Then Jehoram went forth [f]with his 9 princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots. So the 10 Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers. Moreover he made 11 high places in the mountains of Judah, and [g]caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and [h]compelled Judah thereto.

And there came a [‖]writing to him 12 from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in [i]the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in 13 [k]the ways of Asa king of Judah, but hast walked in [l]the way of the kings of Israel, and hast [g]made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go a whoring, like to the [m]whoredoms of the house of Ahab, and also hast [n]slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were [o]better 14 than thyself: behold, with [†]a great plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy 15 goods: and thou shalt have great sickness by [p]disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness 16 day by day. Moreover the LORD [q]stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the [r]Philistines, and of the [r]Arabians, that 17 were near the [s]Ethiopians: and they came up into Judah, and brake into it, and [t]carried away all the [t]substance that was found in the king's house, and [u]his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save [x‖]Jeho- 18 ahaz, the youngest of his sons. [‖]And after all this the LORD smote him in [y]his 19 bowels with an incurable disease. And it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two [z]years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like [a]the burning of his fathers. [b]Thirty and two 20 years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed [†]without being desired. Howbeit they buried him in the city of David, [c]but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

XXII.

And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made [a]Ahaziah his [b]youngest son king in his stead: for the [c]band of men that came with [d]the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. [e]So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reign- 2 ed. [f]Forty and two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Athaliah [g]the 3 daughter of Omri. He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counseller to do wicked- 4 ly. Joash was seven years old when he began to reign, and [a]he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. And 2 Joash [b]did that which was right in the sight of the LORD [c]all the days of Jehoiada the priest. And Jehoiada took for 3 him two wives; [d]and he begat sons and daughters. And it came to pass after 4 this, that Joash [e]was minded [f]to repair the house of the LORD. And he gather- 5 ed together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of all [g]Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye haste the matter. [g]Howbeit the Levites hastened it not. And the king called for Jehoi- 6 ada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of [h]Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Is- 7 rael, for the [i]tabernacle of Witness? For [k]the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the [l]dedicate things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon 8 Baalim. And at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it [m]without at the gate of the house of the 9 LORD. And they made [t]a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD [n]the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel 10 in the wilderness. And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they 11 had made an end. Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in 12 abundance. And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to [o]mend 13 the house of the LORD. So the workmen wrought, and [t]the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthened it. 14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, [p]whereof were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and [s]to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually [q]all the days of Jehoiada.

upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass. [x]Yet he sent prophets to 19 them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they [y]testified against them: but they would not give ear. And the 20 spirit of God [f]came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, [z]Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? [a]because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you. And they conspired against him, 21 and [b]stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king [c]in the court of the house of the LORD. Thus 22 Joash the king remembered not [d]the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD [e]look upon it, and [f]require it.

And it came to pass [f]at the end of 23 the year, that [g]the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all [h]the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of [f]Damascus. For 24 the army of the Syrians [i]came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So [j]they executed judgment against Joash. And 25 when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great [k]diseases,) [l]his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the [m]sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, [n]but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings. And these are 26 they that conspired against him; [l]Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of [l]Shimrith a Moabitess. Now concerning his sons, 27 and [o]the greatness of the burdens laid upon him, and the [f]repairing of the house of God, behold they are written in the [l]story of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

XXV.

Amaziah [a]was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. And he did that 2 which was right in the sight of the LORD, but not [b]with a perfect heart. Now it 3 came to pass, when the kingdom was [f]established to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father. 4 But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

5 Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them [c]from twenty years old and above, and found them [d]three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could [e]handle spear 6 and shield. He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for an hundred talents of silver. 7 But there came [f]a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children 8 of Ephraim. But if thou wilt go, do it, be strong for the battle: God [g]shall make thee fall before the enemy: for [h]God hath power to help, and to [g]cast 9 down. And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the [f]army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give 10 thee much more than this. Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go [f]home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home [f]in great anger. 11 And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and [i]went to the valley of salt, and smote of [k]the children 12 of Seir ten thousand. And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of [l]the rock, and cast them down from the top of [l]the rock, that they all were broken in pieces. 13 But [f]the soldiers of the army [m]which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, [n]fell upon the cities of Judah, from [o]Samaria even unto [p]Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14 Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that [q]he brought the gods of [k] the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them. Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, [r] which could not deliver their own people out of thine hand? And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? forbear; [s] why shouldest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbare, and said, I know that [t] God hath [†] determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

Then [u] Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face. And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The [‖] thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by [†] a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle. Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites; and thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldest thou meddle to thine hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee? But Amaziah would not hear; for [t] it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because [w] they sought after the gods of Edom. So Joash the king of Israel went up; and they saw one another in the face, both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah. And Judah was [†] put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent. And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of [x] Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the [y] gate of Ephraim to [†] the corner gate, four hundred cubits. And [z] he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with [a] Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

[b] And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years. Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, [c] first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel? Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away [†] from following the LORD they [†] made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there. And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of [‖] Judah. Then all the people of Judah took [‖] Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah. He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

[a] Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. [a] And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah did. And [b] he sought God in the days of Zechariah, who [c] had understanding [†] in the visions of God: and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to prosper. And he went forth and [d] warred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of [e] Gath, and the wall of [f] Jabneh, and the wall of [g] Ashdod, and built cities [‖] about Ashdod, and among the Philistines. And God helped him against the [h] Philistines, and against the [h] Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the [i] Mehunims. And the [k] Ammonites gave [l] gifts to Uzziah: and his name [†] spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt: for he strengthened himself exceedingly. Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the [m] corner gate, and at the [n] valley gate, and at [o] the turning of the wall, and [‖] fortified them. Also he built towers in the desert, and [‖] digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country, and in [p] the plains: [q] husbandmen also, and [q] vinedressers in the mountains, and in [‖r] Carmel: for he loved [†] husbandry. Moreover Uzziah had a host of fighting men, that went out to war by [s] bands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the [t] ruler, under the hand of Hanaiah, one of the king's captains. The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred. And under 13 their hand was [t]an army, [u]three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy. And Uzziah prepared for them 14 throughout all the host [x]shields, and [x]spears, and [y]helmets, and [yz]habergeons, and [x]bows, and [t]slings to cast stones. And he made in Jerusalem 15 [a]engines, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the [b]bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal. And his name [t]spread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong.

But [c]when he was strong, [d]his heart 16 was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and went into [e]the temple of the LORD [f]to burn incense upon [e]the altar of incense. And [g]Azariah the priest went 17 in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were [h]valiant men: and they withstood Uzziah the 18 king, and said unto him, [i]It pertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the [k]priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the LORD God. Then Uzziah was wroth, 19 and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, [l]the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar. And Azariah the chief 20 priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they [m]thrust him out from thence; yea, himself [n]hasted also to go out, because [n]the LORD had smitten him. And Uzziah the king was a leper 21 unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a [t]several house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land. Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, [p]first 22 and last, did [q]Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, write. So Uzziah slept 23 with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers [r]in the field of the burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built [e]castles and towers. He fought 5 also with the king of the [f]Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand [g]measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. [t]So much did 6 the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year, and the third. So Jotham became mighty, [h]because he [i]prepared his ways before the LORD his 7 him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they [e]smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to [t]Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a 6

all [f]valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah [g]the king's son, and Azrikam [g]the governor of the house, and Elkanah that was [f]next to the king. And the children of Israel carried away captive of their [h]brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria. But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, [i]because the LORD God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that [j]reacheth up unto heaven. And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God? Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you. Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and [k]Jehizkiah the son of [l]Shallum, stood up against them that came from the war, and said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass: for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel. So [m]the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation. And the men [n]which were expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and [o]gave them to eat and to drink, and [p]anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, [q]the city of palm trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

[r]At that time did king Ahaz send unto the kings of Assyria to help him. For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away [t]captives. The [s]Philistines also had [t]invaded the cities of [u]the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken [w]Beth-shemesh, and [x]Ajalon, and [y]Gederoth, and [z]Shocho with the [a]villages thereof, and [b]Timnah with the [a]villages thereof, Gimzo also and the [a]villages thereof: and they dwelt there. For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of [c]Israel; for he [d]made Judah naked, and transgressed sore against the LORD. And [e]Tilgathpilneser king of Assyria came unto him, and distressed him, but strengthened him not. [f]For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.

And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD: this is that king Ahaz. For [g]he sacrificed unto the gods of [l]Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, [h]that they may help me. But they [i]were the ruin of him, and of all [c]Israel. And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and [j]cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and [k]shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and [l]he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem. And in every several city of Judah he made high places [l]to burn incense unto other gods, and [m]provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers. [n]Now the rest of his acts and of all his ways, [o]first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem: [p]but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of [c]Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

Hezekiah [a]began to reign when he was XXIX. five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of [b]Zechariah. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done. He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, [c]opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them. And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street, and said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites, [d]sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place. For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have [e]turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and [f]turned their backs. Also they have [f]shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burnt incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel. Wherefore the [g]wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to [h]trouble, to astonishment, and to [h]hissing, as ye see with your eyes. For lo, [i]our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. Now it is [j]in mine heart to make [k]a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us. My sons, [l]be not now negligent: for the LORD hath [l]chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that you should minister unto him, and [l]burn incense.

Then the Levites arose, [m]Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the [n]Kohathites: and of the sons of [n]Merari, [o]Kish the son of Abdi, and [m]Azariah the son of Jehaleleel: and of the [n]Gershonites; [p]Joah the son of Zimmah, and [m]Eden the son of Joah: and of the sons of [q]Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jeiel: and of the sons of [r]Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah: and of the sons of [s]Heman; [m]Jehiel, and [m]Shimei: and of the sons of [s]Jeduthun; [m]Shemaiah, and Uzziel. And they gathered their brethren, and [t]sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, [l]by the words of the LORD, [u]to cleanse the house of the LORD. And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the [x]brook Kidron. Now they began on the first day of [y]the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, [u]We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread table, with all the vessels thereof. Moreover [z]all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and behold, they are before the altar of the LORD. Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD. And they brought [a]seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven [a]he goats, for a [b]sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD. So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and [c]sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar. And they brought [t]forth the he goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation; and [d]laid their hands upon them: and the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, [e]to make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel. And [f]he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, [g]according to the commandment of David, and of [h]Gad the king's [i]seer, and [k]Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandment [t]of the LORD [t]by his prophets. And the Levites stood with [l]the instruments of David, and [m]the priests with the trumpets. And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And [t]when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began also with [m]the trumpets, and with [t]the instruments ordained by David king of Israel. And all the congregation worshipped, and the [t]singers sang, and [m]the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt offering was finished. And when they had made an end of offering, [n]the king and all that were [t]present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped. Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the [i]seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and [n]they bowed their heads and worshipped. Then He- 31 zekiah answered and said, Now ye have [l]consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and [o]thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and [o]thank offerings; and as many as were [p]of a free heart burnt offerings. And the number of the burnt offerings, 32 which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD. And the consecrated things were six hun- 33 dred oxen and three thousand sheep. But the priests were too few, so that 34 they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore [q]their brethren the Levites [t]did help them, till the work was ended, and [r]until the other priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more [s]upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. And also 35 the burnt offerings were in abundance, with [t]the fat of the peace offerings, and [u]the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order. And Heze- 36

kiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

XXX.

And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel. For the king 2 had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the [a]second month. For they could not keep it [b]at that 3 time, [c]because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. And the thing [f]pleased 4 the king and all the congregation. So 5 they established a decree to [d]make proclamation throughout all Israel, [e]from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written. So [f]the 6 posts went with the letters [f]from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, [g]turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the 7 hand of [h]the kings of Assyria. And [i]be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, who therefore [k]gave them up to desolation, 8 as ye see. Now [t]be ye not [t]stiffnecked, as your fathers were, but [t]yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever: and serve the LORD your God, [m]that the fierceness of his wrath may 9 turn away from you. For if ye turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children shall find [n]compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is [o]gracious and [p]merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, [q]if ye re- 10 turn unto him. So [r]the posts passed from city to city through the country of [r]Ephraim and Manasseh even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to 11 scorn, and [s]mocked them. Nevertheless divers of [t]Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and 12 came to Jerusalem. Also in Judah the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, [u]by the word of the LORD.

And there assembled at Jerusalem 13 much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the [w]second month, a very great congregation. And they 14 arose and took away the [x]altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and [y]cast 15 them into the brook Kidron. Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the [w]second month: and the priests and the Levites [z]were ashamed, and [a]sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt offerings into the 16 house of the LORD. And they stood in [t]their place after their manner, according to the law of Moses [b]the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the 17
Levites. For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified: therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them

And in every work 21 that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

XXXII. [a]After these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of As- syria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought [†]to win them for himself. And 2 when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that [†]he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem, he took coun- 3 sel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city: and they did help him. So there was gathered 4 much people together, who stopt all the fountains, and [b]the brook that [†]ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water? Also he strengthened himself, [c]and built up all the wall 5 that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired [d]Millo in the city of David, and made [‖]darts and shields in abund- 6 ance. And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and [†]spake comfortably to them, 7 saying, [e]Be strong and courageous, [f]be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for [g]there be moe with us 8 than with him: with him is an [h]arm of flesh; but [i]with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people [†]rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand. Then they [u] cried 18 with a loud voice in the Jews' speech unto the people of Jerusalem [x] that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city. And they spake [y] against the God 19 of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were [z] the work of the hands of man. And for 20 this cause [a] Hezekiah the king, and [b] the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven. [c] And the LORD 21 sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with [d] shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels [f] slew him there with the sword. Thus 22 the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side. And many brought 23 [e] gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and [f] presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that [f] he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

[g] In those days Hezekiah was sick to 24 the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he [‖] gave him [h] a sign. But Hezekiah [i] rendered 25 not again according to the benefit done unto him; for [k] his heart was lifted up: therefore there was [l] wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem. Not- 26 withstanding Hezekiah [m] humbled himself for [t] the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them [n] in the days of Hezekiah. And Hezekiah had exceeding much 27 riches and honour: and he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of [t] pleasant jewels; [o] storehouses also for 28 the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and [p] stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks. Moreover he provided 29 him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for God had given him substance very much. [q] This same 30 Hezekiah also stopped the upper [r] watercourse of [s] Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his 31 works. Howbeit in the business of the [t] ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, [t] who sent unto him to inquire of the [u] wonder that was done in the land, God left him, [w] to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart. Now the rest 32 of the acts of Hezekiah, and his [t] goodness, behold, they are written in [x] the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the [y] book of the kings of 33 Judah and Israel. [z] And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the [‖] chiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

Manasseh [a] was twelve years old when XXXIII. he began to reign, and he reigned fifty 2 and five years in Jerusalem: but did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before 3 the children of Israel. For [t] he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven, 4 and served them. Also he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD had said, In Jerusalem shall my 5 name be for ever. And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two 6 courts of the house of the LORD. And he caused his children to pass through the fire in [b] the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and [c] used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. 7 And he set a carved image, [d] the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put 8 my name for ever: neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers; so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand 9 of Moses. So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

And the LORD spake to Manasseh, 10 and to his people: but they would not hearken. Wherefore [c]the LORD brought 11 upon them the captains of the host [f]of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the [f]thorns, and bound him with [g]fetters, and [g]carried him to Babylon. And when he was in affliction, he 12 [h]besought the LORD his God, and [i]humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, and prayed unto him: and 13 he [k]was intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh [l]knew that the LORD he was God. Now after this he built a wall 14 without the city of David, on the west side of [m]Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the [n]fish gate, and compassed about [f]Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.
And he took away the [o]strange gods, 15 and the [p]idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city. And he repaired the 16 altar of the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings and [q]thank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel. Nevertheless [r]the peo- 17 ple did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only. Now 18
the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and [s]his prayer unto his God, and the words of [t]the seers that spake to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of [u]Israel. [s]His prayer also, 19 and how God [k]was intreated of him, and all his sin, and his trespass, and [x]the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he [i]was humbled: behold, they are written among the sayings of [l]the seers. So Manasseh slept with his fa- 20 thers, and they buried him [y]in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

[z]Amon was two and twenty years old 21 when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem. But he did that 22 which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all [a]the carved images which Manasseh his father had made,

and served them; and humbled not him- 23 self before the LORD, [b]as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amon [t]trespassed more and more. And his 24 servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house. But the people 25 of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

Josiah [a]was eight years old when he XXXIV.
began to reign, and he reigned in Jeru- 1
salem one and thirty years. And he 2 did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left. For 3 in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to [b]seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem [c]from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the [d]molten images. [e]And they 4 brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the [f]images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it [g]upon the [t]graves of them that had sacrificed 5 unto them. And he [g]burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. And so 6 did he in the cities of [h]Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their [i]mattocks round about.
And when he had broken down the al- 7 tars and the groves, and had [j]beaten the graven images [t]into powder, and cut down all the [j]idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.
Now [k]in the eighteenth year of his 8 reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent [l]Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and [m]Maaseiah the [n]governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz [o]the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God. And when they 9 came to [p]Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of [h]Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem. And they put it in the 10 hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and mend the house: even to the artificers 11 and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for [q]couplings, and [‖]to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. And the men 12 did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of [r]Merari; and [s]Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the [r]Kohathites, [t]to set it forward; and other of the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of musick. XXXV. About B.C. 623.

Moreover [a] Josiah kept a passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem: and they killed the passover on the [b] fourteenth day of the first month. And he set the priests 2 in their charges, and [c] encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD, and said unto the Levites [d] that taught all 3 Israel, which were holy unto the LORD, [e] Put the holy ark [f] in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; [g] it shall not be a burden upon your shoulders: serve now the LORD your God, and his people Israel, and prepare 4 yourselves [h] by the houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the [i] writing of David king of Israel, and according to the [k] writing of Solomon his son. And [l] stand in the holy place ac- 5 cording to the [m] divisions of [f] the families of the fathers of your brethren [f] the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites. So kill the passover, and 6 [n] sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses. And Josiah [f] gave to the peo- 7 ple, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the [o] passover offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of [p] the king's substance. And his 8 princes [f] gave willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: [q] Hilkiah and [r] Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the [o] passover offerings two thousand and six hundred [s] small cattle, and three hundred oxen. [u] Conaniah 9 also, and [u] Shemaiah and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, [f] gave unto the Levites for [o] passover offerings five thousand [s] small cattle, and five hundred oxen. So the service was prepared, and 10 the priests [x] stood in their place, and the Levites [y] in their courses, according to the king's commandment. And [z] they 11 killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled [a] the blood from their hands, and [b] the Levites flayed them. And they removed 12 the burnt offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen. And 13 [c] they roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings [c] sod they in [d] pots, and in [e] caldrons, and in [f] pans, and [f] divided them speedily among all the people. 14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of burnt offerings and [f] the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests 15 the sons of Aaron. And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their [f] place, according to the commandment of [g] David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's [h] seer; and [i] the porters waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; [h] for their brethren the Levites prepared for them. So 16 all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the command- 17 ment of king Josiah. And the children of Israel that were [f] present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of 18 [j] unleavened bread seven days. And [k] there was no passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of [l] Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of [m] Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were [f] present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

20 [n] After all this, when Josiah had prepared the [f] temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against [o] Carchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against 21 him. But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, [p] What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against [f] the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: [q] forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, 22 that he destroy thee not. Nevertheless Josiah would not [r] turn his face from him, but [s] disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho [t] from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the [y] valley of 23 [u] Megiddo. And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore 24 [f] wounded. [x] His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried [l] in one of the se-pulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem [y]mourned for Josiah. And Jeremiah [z]lamented for Josiah: and all [a]the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them [b]an ordinance in Israel: and behold, they are written in the lamentations. Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his [f]goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the LORD, and his deeds, [c]first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

Then [a]the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem. Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And the king of Egypt [f]put him down at Jerusalem, and [f]condemned the land in an hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

[b]Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God. [c]Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in [f]fetters, to [d]carry him to Babylon. [e]Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon. [f]Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and [f]Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

[g]Jehoiachin was [h]eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. And [f]when the year was expired, [i]king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, [k]with the [l]goodly vessels of the house of the LORD, and made [f]Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

[m]Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and humbled not himself before [n]Jeremiah the prophet speaking from the mouth of the LORD. And he also [o]rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, [p]who had made him swear by God: but he [q]stiffened his neck, and [r]hardened his heart from turning unto the LORD God of Israel. Moreover all the chief of the priests, and the people, [s]transgressed very much after all the abominations of the heathen: and polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem. And the LORD God of their fathers [t]sent to them [f]by his messengers, rising up [f]betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place: but they [u]mocked the messengers of God, and [x]despised his words, and [y]misused his prophets, until [z]the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no [f]remedy. [a]Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who [b]slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or [c]him that stooped for age: he gave them all into his hand. And [d]all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes; all these he brought to Babylon. [e]And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the [f]palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the [g]goodly vessels thereof. And [f][h]them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon; where [i]they were servants to him and his sons until [k]the reign of the kingdom of Persia: to fulfil the word of the LORD by the mouth of [l]Jeremiah, until [m]the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate [n]she kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years.

[o]Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath the LORD God of heaven given me; and he hath charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people? The LORD his God be with him, and let him go up.

I.

B.C. 536.

NOW in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD [a]by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, [b]that he [†]made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath [c]charged me to build him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel, ([d]he is the God,) which is in Jerusalem. And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place [†]help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, besides the freewill offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit [c]God had [f]raised, to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem. And all they that were about them [‖]strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with [g]precious things, beside all that was willingly offered. [h]Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, [i]which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods; even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth [j]by the hand of [k]Mithredath the [l]treasurer, and numbered them unto [m]Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah. And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of silver, nine and twenty [n]knives, thirty [o]basons of gold, silver basons of a second sort [n]four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

All the vessels of gold and of silver were [p]five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with them of [†]the captivity that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

his place: they gave after their ability 69 unto the [l]treasure of the work [m]threescore and one thousand [n]drams of gold, and five thousand [o]pound of silver, and one hundred priests' garments. So the priests, 70 and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

III.

[a]And when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem.
Then stood up [l]Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and 2 [l]Zerubbabel the son of [l]Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is [b]written in the law of Moses [c]the man of God. And they set 3 the altar upon his bases; for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries: and they offered burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD, even [d]burnt offerings morning and evening.
They kept also the [e]feast of tabernacles, 4
[f]as it is written, and offered [g]the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, [f]as the duty of every day required; and afterward offered the [h]con- 5 tinual burnt offering, both [i]of the new moons, and of all the [k]set feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a freewill offering unto the LORD. From the first day 6 of the [l]seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD. But [t]the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid. They gave money also 7 unto the masons, and to the [l]carpenters;
and [m]meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of [n]Joppa, [o]according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

Now in the second year of their com- 8
ing unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began [p]Zerubbabel
the son of Shealtiel, and [p]Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites from [q]twenty years old and upward, [r]to set forward the work of the house of the LORD. Then stood [s]Je- 9 shua with his sons and his brethren,
[s]Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of [l]Judah, [t]together, [r]to set forward the workmen in the house of God: the sons of [t]Henadad, with their sons and their bre- 10 thren the Levites. And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests [u]in their apparel with [w]trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with [x]cymbals, to praise the LORD, [y]after the ordinance of David king of Israel. And they [z]sung together 11 by course in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; [a]because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever towards Israel.
And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. But many of the priests 12 and Levites and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men [b]that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy: so that the people could not dis- 13 cern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people:
for the people shouted with a loud shout,
and the noise was heard afar off.

IV.

Now when [a]the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that [t]the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the LORD God of Israel; then they came 2 to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him [b]since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assur, 3 which brought us up hither. But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, [c]You have nothing to do with us [d]to build a house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as [e]king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us. Then 4 [f]the people of the land [g]weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building, and hired coun- 5 sellers against them, to [h]frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia. And in the reign of 6 [t]Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an [i]accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jeru- 7 salem. And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote [l]Bishlam, [j]Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their [t]companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of [k]the letter was written [l]in the Syrian

8 *Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the [l]scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort: 9 then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their [t]companions; [m]the Dinaites, the [n]Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the [n]Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the [o]Susanchites, the Dehavites, and the [p]Elamites, 10 and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble [q]Asnappar brought over, and set in the cities of [r]Samaria, and the rest that are on this side the river, [s]and [t]at such a time. 11 This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king:

Thy servants the men on this side the river, and at such a time. 12 Be it known unto the king, that the Jews which came up from thee to us are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have [l]set up the walls thereof, and [t]joined the foundations. 13 Be it known now unto the king, that, if this city be builded, and the walls set up again, then will they not [t]pay [t]toll, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the [l]revenue of the kings. 14 Now because [t]we have maintenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore have we sent and certified the king; 15 that search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have [t]moved sedition [t]within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed. 16 We certify the king that, if this city be builded again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side the river.

17 Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their [t]companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river:

[u]Peace, and at such a time. 18 The letter which ye sent unto us hath been [x]plainly read before me. 19 And [t]I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath [t]made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein. 20 There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have [y]ruled over all countries beyond the river; and [t]toll, tribute, and custom, was paid unto them. 21 [t]Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until another commandment shall be [t]given from me. 22 Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

23 Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them 24 to cease [t]by force and power. Then ceased the work of the house of the God which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Then the prophets, [a]Haggai the prophet, and [b]Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of 2 Israel, even unto them. Then rose up [c]Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and [c]Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them.

3 At the same time came to them [d]Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, [e]Who hath commanded you to build this 4 house, and to make up this wall? Then said we unto them [f]after this manner, What are the names of the men [t]that 5 make this building? But [g]the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they [h]returned answer by let- 6 ter concerning this matter. The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and his companions the [i]Apharsachites, which were on this side the river, sent 7 unto Darius the king: they sent a letter unto him, [t]wherein was written thus:

8 Unto Darius the king, all peace. Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is builded with [t]great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and 9 prospereth in their hands. Then asked we those elders, and said unto them

thus, [k]Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls?
10 We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them.
11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel
12 builded [l]and set up. But [m]after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of [n]Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.
13 But in the first year of [o]Cyrus the king of Babylon the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.
14 And [p]the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, whose name was [q]Sheshbazzar, whom he had made 15 [l]governor; and said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place.
16 Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and [r]laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and [s]yet it is not finished.
17 Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, [t]let there be search made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

VI. Then Darius the king made a decree, [a]and search was made in the house of the [t]rolls, where the treasures were [t]laid
2 up in Babylon. And there was found at [b]‖Achmetha, in [c]the palace that is in the province of the [d]Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written:

3 In the first year of Cyrus the king the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof threescore cubits, and the 4 breadth thereof threescore cubits; [e]with three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expences be
5 given out of the king's house: and also let [f]the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and [t]brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house
6 of God. Now therefore, [g]Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and [t]your companions the [h]Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, be ye
7 far from thence: let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in his place.
8 Moreover [t]I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's [i]goods, even of the [k]tribute beyond the river, forthwith expences be given unto these men, that they be not 9 [t]hindered. And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without 10 fail: that they may offer sacrifices [t]of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and [t]pray for the life of the king, and 11 of his sons. Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, [t]let him be hanged thereon; and let his house be 12 made [m]a dunghill for this. And the God that [n]hath caused his name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed.

13 Then Tatnai, governor on this side the river, Shethar-boznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily.
14 And [o]the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they builded, and finished it, according to the [t]commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the [t]commandment of [p]Cyrus, and [q]Darius, and [r]Artaxerxes king of Persia. And this house was 15 finished on the third day of the month [s]Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king. And the 16 children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of [t]the children of the captivity, kept [t]the dedication of this house of God with joy, and offered 17 at the dedication of this house of God an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and [u]for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he goats,

according to the number of the tribes of Israel. And they set the priests in 18 their [x]divisions, and the Levites in their [y]courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; [t z]as it is written in the book of Moses.

*And the children of the captivity kept 19
the passover [a]upon the fourteenth day of the first month. For the priests and 20 the Levites were [b]purified together, all of them were pure, and [b]killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. And the children of 21
Israel, which were come again out of captivity, and [c]all such as had separated themselves unto them from the [d]filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the LORD God of Israel, did eat, and 22 kept the feast of unleavened bread [e]seven days with joy: for the LORD had made them joyful, and [f]turned the heart of [g]the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

VII.

Now after these things, in the reign of [a]Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra [b]the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, the son of Shallum, the 2 son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, the 3 son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, the son of Zerahiah, 4 the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, the 5 son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest: this Ezra went up from 6 Babylon; and he was [c]a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, [d]according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him. And there went up some of the 7 [e]children of Israel, and of the priests, and [f]the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and [g]the Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Arta-xerxes the king. And he came to Jeru- 8 B.C. 457.

salem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. For upon 9 the first day of the first month [t]began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, [h]according to the good hand of his God upon him. For Ezra [i]had 10 prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to [k]teach in Israel statutes and judgments. Now 11 this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel.

*Artaxerxes, [l]king of kings, [l]unto Ezra 12
the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, [m]and at such a time. [n]I make a decree, that 13 all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.
Forasmuch as thou art sent [t]of the king, 14 and of his [o]seven counsellers, to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which is in thine hand; and to carry the silver 15 and gold, which the king and his [o]coun-sellers have freely offered unto the God of Israel, [p]whose habitation is in Jeru- 16 salem, [q]and all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, [r]offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem: that thou mayest buy 17 speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their [s]meat offerings and their [t]drink offerings, and [u]offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem. And what- 18 soever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and gold, that do after the will of your God. The vessels also that 19 are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, those deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem. And 20 whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house. And I, 21 even I Artaxerxes the king, do [n]make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it

[*] [d] Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, [e] which hath put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem: and [f] hath extended mercy unto me before the king, and his [g] counsellers, and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was strengthened as [h] the hand of the LORD my God was upon me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

VIII. About B.C. 457. These are now the chief of their fathers, and this is the genealogy of them that went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king. Of the sons of [a] Phinehas; Gershom: of the sons of [a] Ithamar; [b] Daniel: of the sons of David; [c] Hattush. Of the sons of [d] Shechaniah, of the sons of [e] Pharosh; Zechariah: and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males an hundred and fifty. Of the sons of [f] Pahath-moab; Elihoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males. Of the sons of [d] Shechaniah; the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males. Of the sons also of [ff] Adin; Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males. And of the sons of [g] Elam; Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males. And of the sons of [h] Shephatiah; Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him fourscore males. Of the sons of [i] Joab; Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males. And of the sons of Shelomith; the son of Josiphiah, and with him an hundred and threescore males. And of the sons of [k] Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males. And of the sons of [k] Azgad; Johanan [‖] the son of Hakkatan, and with him an hundred and ten males. And of the last sons of [l] Adonikam, whose names are these, Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them threescore males. Of the sons also of [m] Bigvai; Uthai, and [‖] Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to [n] Ahava: and there [‖] abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the [o] sons of Levi. Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for [p] Zechariah, and for [q] Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding. And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia, and [†] I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God. And [r] by the good hand of our God upon us they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of [s] Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and [t] Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen; and [u] Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of [v] Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty; also of the [w] Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were expressed by name. Then I [y] proclaimed a fast there, at the river [n] Ahava, that we might [z] afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a [a] right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance. For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, [b] The hand of our God is upon all them [c] for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that [d] forsake him.

So we fasted and besought our God for 23
this: and he was [e]intreated of us.

Then I separated twelve of the chief 24 of the priests, [f]Sherebiah, [g]Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them, and 25 weighed unto them [h]the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the [i]offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellers, and his lords, and all Israel there [k]present, had offered: I 26 even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents, and of gold an hundred talents; also twenty [l]basons 27 of gold, of a thousand [m]drams; and two vessels of [t]fine copper, [t]precious as gold.
And I said unto them, Ye are [m]holy 28 unto the LORD; the vessels are [n]holy also; and the silver and the gold are [h]a freewill offering unto the LORD God of your fathers. Watch ye, and keep them, 29 until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in [o]the chambers of the house of the LORD.
So took the priests and the Levites the 30 weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

Then we departed from the river of 31
[p]Ahava on [q]the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem: and [r]the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way. And [s]we came to Jerusalem, and 32 abode there three days. Now on the 33 fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels [t]weighed in the house of our God by the hand of [u]Meremoth the son of [x]Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was [y]Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of [z]Binnui, Levites; by number and by weight of 34
every one: and all the weight was written at that time. Also the children [a]of 35 those that had been carried away, which were come out of the captivity, offered burnt offerings unto the God of Israel, [b]twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering unto the LORD.
And they delivered the king's [c]commis- 36 sions unto the king's [d]lieutenants, and to the [e]governors on this side the river:
and they [f]furthered the people, and the house of God.

land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it [f] from one end to another with their [a] uncleanness. Now therefore [b] give not your daughters 12 unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor [c] seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and [d] leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever. And after all 13 that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for [e] our great trespass, seeing that thou our God [f] hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such [g] deliverance as this; should we 14 again break thy commandments, and [h] join in affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldest thou not be [i] angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor [g] escaping? O LORD God of Israel, 15 [k] thou art righteous: for we remain yet [g] escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee [l] in our trespasses: for we cannot [m] stand before thee because of this.

X. Now [a] when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and [b] casting himself down [c] before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people [f] wept very sore. And Shechaniah the son of [d] Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have [e] trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing. Now therefore let us make a covenant 3 with our God [f] to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that [f] tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done [g] according to the law. Arise; for this matter be- 4 longeth unto thee: we also will be with thee: [h] be of good courage, and do it. Then arose Ezra, and made the chief 5 priests, the Levites, and all Israel, [i] to swear that they should do according to this word. And they sware. Then Ezra 6 rose up [k] from before the house of God, and went into the [l] chamber of [m] Johanan the son of [m] Eliashib: and when he came thither, he did [n] eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been 7 carried away. And [nn] they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves to- 8 gether unto Jerusalem; and that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be [t] forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

9 Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the street of the house of God, [o] trembling because of this matter, and for [f] the 10 great rain. And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and [f] have taken strange wives, 11 to increase the trespass of Israel. Now therefore [p] make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and [q] separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the 12 strange wives. Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do. 13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for [f] we are many that have transgressed in this thing. 14 Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at [r] appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until [s] the fierce wrath of our God [f] for this matter be turned from us. 15 Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah [f] were employed about this matter: and [t] Meshullam and [u] Shabbethai the Levite helped them. And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated. and sat down in [v] the first day of the tenth month to ex- 17 amine the matter. And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by [v] the first day of the first month.

18 And among the sons of the priests there were found that had taken strange wives: namely, of the sons of [w] Jeshua

THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH.

I. About B.C. 446.

1 THE words of [a]Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month [b]Chisleu, in [c]the twentieth year, as I was in [d]Shushan [e]the palace, that [f]Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also [g]is broken down, and [h]the gates thereof are burnt with fire. And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that [i]I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven, and said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, [k]the great and terrible God, [l]that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments: let [m]thine ear now be attentive, and [mn]thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and [o]confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: [p]both I and my father's house have sinned. We have [q]dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, [r]which thou commandedst thy servant Moses. Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, [s]If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations: [t]but if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; [u]though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them [x]unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there. [y]Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand. O Lord, I beseech thee, [z]let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, [a]who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's [b]cupbearer.

II. About B.C. 445.

2 And it came to pass in the month [a]Nisan, in [b]the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and [c]I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence. Wherefore the king said unto me, [d]Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but [e]sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid, and said unto the king, [f]Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when [g]the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and [h]the gates thereof are consumed with fire? Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to [i]the God of heaven. And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it. And the king said unto me, (the [j]queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a [j]time. Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the [k]governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah; and a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's [l]forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the [m]palace which appertained to the house, and for

B.C. 445.

9 Then I came to the [k]governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me. 10 When [p]Sanballat the [q]Horonite, and [r]Tobiah the servant, the [s]Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man [t]to seek the welfare of the children of Israel. 11 [u]So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days. 12 And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon. 13 And I went out by night by the [w]gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the [x]dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were [y]broken down, and [z]the gates thereof were consumed with fire. 14 Then I went on to the [a]gate of the fountain, and to the [b]king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass. 15 Then went I up in the night by the [c]brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the [w]gate of the valley, and so returned. 16 And the [d]rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the [d]rulers, nor to the rest that did the work. 17 Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem [e]lieth waste, and [f]the gates thereof are burnt with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more [g]a reproach. 18 Then I told them of [h]the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they [i]strengthened their hands for this good work. 19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and [k]Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they [l]laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? [m]will ye rebel against the king? 20 Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: [n]but you have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

III.

1 Then [a]Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they built the [b]sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the [c]tower of Meah they sanctified it, unto the [d]tower of Hananeel. 2 And [†]next unto him builded [e]the men of Jericho. And next to them builded 3 [f]Zaccur the son of Imri. But the [g]fish gate did the sons of [h]Hassenaah build, who also [i]laid the beams thereof, and [j]set up the doors thereof, the locks 4 thereof, and the bars thereof. And next unto them repaired [n]Zadok 5 the son of Baana. And next unto them the [o]Tekoites repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to [p]the work of 6 their Lord. Moreover the [q]old gate repaired Jehoiada the son of [r]Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah; they [i]laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, 7 and the bars thereof. And next unto them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon [s]the Meronothite, the men of [t]Gibeon, and of [u]Mizpah, unto the [x]throne of the governor on this side the 8 river. Next unto him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, of the [y]goldsmiths. Next unto him also repaired [z]Hananiah the son of one of the [a]apothecaries, and they [‖]fortified Jerusalem unto the 9 [b]broad wall. And next unto them repaired Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of [c]the half part of Jerusalem. 10 And next unto them repaired Jedaiah the son of Harumaph, even over against his house. [f]Malchijah the son of [g]Harim, and [h]Hashub the son of [i]Pahath-moab, repaired the [†]other piece, and the [k]tower of the fur- 12 naces. And next unto him repaired Shallum the son of [l]Hallohesh, the ruler of [c]the half part of Jerusalem, he and 13 his daughters. to build the wall. And our adversaries 11 said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them,
and slay them, and cause the work to cease. And it came to pass, that when 12
the Jews which dwelt by [m]them came, they said unto us [n]ten times, [l]From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you. Therefore set 13
I [t]in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.
And I looked, and rose up, and said 14 unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, [o]Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord, which is [p]great and terrible, and [q]fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.
And it came to pass, when our ene- 15
mies heard that it was known unto us, and God had [r]brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work. And 16 it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the [s]spears, the shields, and the bows, and the [s]habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah. They which builded on the 17 wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.
For the builders, every one had his 18 sword girded [t]by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me. And [t]I said unto the no- 19
bles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another. In what 20 place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: [u]our God shall fight for us. So we laboured 21 in the work: and half of them held the spears from [x]the rising of the morning till the stars appeared. Likewise at the 22 same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day. So neither I, nor my brethren, 23 nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, [l]saving that every one put them off for washing.

But the former [r]governors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of [x]the fear of God. Yea also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work. Now it came to pass, when [a]Sanballat, and [a]Tobiah, and [‖]Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; ([b]though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;) that Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us [bb]meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of [c]Ono. But they thought to do me mischief. And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you? Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner. Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand; wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and [‖]Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Jews think [d]to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words. And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together. Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou [e]feignest them out of thine own heart. For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, [f]O God, strengthen my hands. Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was [g]shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee. And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in. And lo, I perceived [h]that God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might [i]reproach me. [k]My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the [h]prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month [l]Elul, [m]in fifty and two days. And it came to pass, that when [n]all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for [o]they perceived that this work was wrought of our God. Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah [l]sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them. For there were many in Judah [p]sworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shechaniah the son of [q]Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of [r]Meshullam the son of Berechiah. Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my [‖]words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house. Now the city was [f]large and great: but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded,

And my God put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up [f]at the first, and found written therein,

[g]These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one unto his city; who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, [h]Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number, I say, of the men of the people of Israel was this:

The children of Parosh, two thousand an hundred seventy and two. The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two. The children of Arah, [h]six hundred fifty and two. The children of Pahath-moab, of the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand and eight hundred and [i]eighteen. The children of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four. the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of ‖Perida, the 58 children of Jaala, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel, the chil- 59 dren of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth Zebaim, the children of ‖Amon. All the 60 Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

And these were they which went up 61 also from Tel-melah, Tel-haresha, Cherub, ‖Addon, and Immer: but they could not shew their fathers' house, nor their ‖seed, whether they were of Israel. The 62 children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred tforty and two. And of the priests: 63 the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai, which took one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite to wife, and was called after their name. These sought their register 64 among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood. And ‖the Tirshatha said 65 unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim.

The whole congregation together was 66 forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore, beside their manservants 67 and their maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had utwo hundred forty and five singing men and singing women. Their horses, seven hundred 68 thirty and six: their mules, two hundred forty and five: their camels, four hun- 69 dred thirty and five: six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.

And †some of the chief of the fathers 70 gave unto the work. The Tirshatha gave to the treasure xa thousand drams of gold, fifty xbasons, five hundred and thirty priests' garments. And some of 71 the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work ytwenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pound of silver. And that which 72 the rest of the people gave was ytwenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pound of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments. So the priests, 73 and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities; zand when the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

VIII. And all the people agathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before the bwater gate; and they spake unto Ezra the cscribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Is- 2 rael. And Ezra the priest brought dthe law before the congregation both of men and women, and all tthat could hear with understanding, upon ethe first day 3 of the seventh month. And dhe read therein before the street that was before the bwater gate tfrom the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive 4 unto the book of the law. And Ezra the scribe stood upon a tpulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood fMattithiah, and Shema, and gAnaiah, and hUrijah, and Hilkiah, and iMaaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and kMalchiah, and lHashum, and Hashbadana, mZechariah, 5 and mMeshullam. And Ezra opened the book in the tsight of all the people; (for nhe was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood 6 up: and Ezra oblessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, pAmen, Amen, with qlifting up their hands: and they rbowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their 7 faces to the ground. Also sJeshua, and tBani, and uSherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, xShabbethai, yHodijah, iMaaseiah, zKelita, aAzariah, bJozabad, cHanan, cPelaiah, and the Levites, dcaused the people to understand the law: and the peo- 8 ple e*stood* in their place. So they read in the book in the law of God fdistinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

9 And Nehemiah, which is ‖the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites gthat taught the people, said unto all the people, h*This* day is holy unto the LORD your God; imourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law. 10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the LORD is your strength. So the Levites stilled all the people, 11 saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved. And all 12 the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to [j]send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had [k]understood the words that were declared unto them. And on the second 13 day [l]were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even [l]to understand the words of the law. And they found written in the 14 law which the LORD had commanded [t]by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in [m]booths in the feast of the seventh month: and that they should 15 [n]publish and proclaim in all their cities, and [o]in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive branches, and [p]pine branches, and myrtle branches, and [q]palm branches, and branches of [q]thick trees, to make booths, as it is written. So the people went forth, and 16 brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon [r]the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in [s]the street of the water gate, and in the street of the [t]gate of Ephraim. And 17 all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day [u]had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very [x]great gladness. Also day by day, from 18 the first day unto the last day, [y]he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was [t]a solemn assembly, according unto the manner.

Now in the twenty and fourth day of [a]this month the children of Israel were assembled with [b]fasting, and with [c]sackclothes, and [d]earth upon them. And 2 [e]the seed of Israel separated themselves from all [t]strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers. And they [f]stood up in 3 their place, and [g]read in the book of the law of the LORD their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God. Then 4 stood up upon the [l]stairs of the Levites, [h]Jeshua, and [h]Bani, [i]Kadmiel, [k]Shebaniah, [l]Bunni, [m]Sherebiah, [h]Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice 5 unto the LORD their God. Then the Levites, [h]Jeshua and [i]Kadmiel, [h]Bani, [n]Hashabniah, [m]Sherebiah, [o]Hodijah, [k]Shebaniah, and [p]Pethahiah, said,

Stand up and bless the LORD your God for ever and ever: and blessed be [q]thy glorious name, which is exalted 6 above all blessing and praise. [r]Thou, even thou, art LORD alone; [s]thou hast made heaven, [t]the heaven of heavens, with [u]all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou [x]preservest them all; and the host of heaven wor- 7 shippeth thee. Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose [y]Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of 8 [z]Abraham; and foundest his heart [a]faithful before thee, and madest a [b]covenant with him to give the land of [c]the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and [d]hast performed thy 9 words; for thou art righteous: and [e]didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest [f]their cry by the Red sea; 10 and [g]shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they [h]dealt proudly against them. So didst thou [i]get thee a name, 11 as it is this day. And [k]thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into [l]the deeps, as a stone 12 into the mighty waters. Moreover thou [m]leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way 13 wherein they should go. [n]Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them [o]right judgments, and [t]true laws, 14 good statutes and commandments: and madest known unto them thy [p]holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Mo- 15 ses thy servant: and [q]gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and [r]broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should [s]go in to possess the land [t]which thou hadst 16 sworn to give them. fathers [t]dealt proudly, and [u]hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments, and refused to obey, neither [x]were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but [u]hardened their necks, and in their rebellion [y]appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art [z]a God ready to pardon, [za]gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not. Yea, [b]when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought [c]great provocations; yet thou in [d]thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: [e]the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go. Thou gavest also thy [f]good spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy [g]manna from their mouth, and gavest them [g]water for their thirst. Yea, [b]forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; [i]their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not. Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into [k]corners: so they possessed the land of [l]Sihon, and the land of the king of [m]Heshbon, and the land of [n]Og king of Bashan. Their children also multipliedst thou as [o]the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it. So [p]the children went in and possessed the land, and [q]thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them [t]as they would. And they took strong cities, and a [r]fat land, and possessed [s]houses full of all goods, [l]wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and [t]fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and [t]became fat, and delighted themselves in [u]thy great goodness. Nevertheless [x]they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and [y]cast thy law behind their backs, and [z]slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought [a]great provocations. [b]Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to [c]thy manifold mercies thou gavest them [d]saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies. But after they had rested, [f][c]they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and [f]many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies; and testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they [g]dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, ([h]which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and [f]withdrew the shoulder, and [i]hardened their neck, and would not hear. Yet many years didst thou [f]forbear them, and [k]testifiedst against them by thy spirit [f]in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: [m]therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands. Nevertheless for [n]thy great mercies' sake [o]thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a [p]gracious and [q]merciful God. Now therefore, our God, the [r]great, the mighty, and the terrible God, [s]who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the [t]trouble seem little before thee, [t]that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, [t]since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day. Howbeit [u]thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but [x]we have done wickedly: neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them. For they [y]have not served thee in their kingdom, and in [z]thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and [z]fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works. Behold, [a]we are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it: and [b]it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast singers, the Nethinims, and [e]all they that had separated themselves from the people of the lands unto the law of God,

Moses [h]the servant of God, and to

of the LORD our Lord, and his judgwould not give [i]our daughters unto the

the priest the son of Aaron shall be

The Levites in the days of [j]Eliashib, 22
[k]Joiada, and [o]Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers: also the priests, to the reign of Darius the Persian. The sons of Levi, the chief of 23 the fathers, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of [o]Johanan the son of Eliashib. And the 24 chief of the Levites: [p]Hashabiah, [q]Sherebiah, and [r]Jeshua the son of [r]Kadmiel, with their brethren [s]over against them, [t]to praise and [u]to give thanks, [v]according to the commandment of David [w]the man of God, [x]ward over against ward;
[y]Mattaniah, and [y]Bakbukiah, [z]Obadiah, 25
[a]Meshullam, [a]Talmon, [a]Akkub, were porters keeping the ward at the [b]thresholds of the gates. These were in the 26 days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of [b]Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah [c]the governor, and of Ezra the priest, [d]the scribe.

And at [e]the dedication of the wall of 27
Jerusalem they sought the Levites [f]out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with [g]cymbals, psalteries, and 28 with harps. And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of [h]the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of [i]Neto-29 phathi; also from the house of [j]Gilgal, and out of the fields of [k]Geba and [l]Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.
30 And the priests and the Levites [m]purified themselves, and purified the people, 31 and the gates, and the wall. Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof [n]one went on the right hand upon the 32 wall [o]toward the dung gate: and after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the 33 princes of Judah, and [p]Azariah, [q]Ezra, 34 and [r]Meshullam, Judah, and Benjamin, 35 and [s]Shemaiah, and [t]Jeremiah, and certain of the priests' sons [u]with trumpets;
namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan,
the son of Shemaiah, the son of Matta-niah, the son of [w]Michaiah, the son of 36 [x]Zaccur, the son of Asaph: and his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with [y]the musical instruments of David [z]the man of God, and Ezra the 37 scribe before them. And at the [a]fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by [b]the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above
the house of David, even unto the [c]water 38 gate east*ward*. And [d]the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the [e]tower of the furnaces even unto 39 the [f]broad wall; and from above the [g]gate of Ephraim, and above the [h]old gate, and above the [i]fish gate, and the [k]tower of Hananeel, and [k]the tower of Meah, even unto the [k]sheep gate: and 40 they stood still in the [l]prison gate. So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and 41 the half of the rulers with me: and the priests; Eliakim, [m]Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, [n]Elioenai, [o]Zechariah, and 42 [p]Hananiah, with trumpets; and [m]Maaseiah, and [q]Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and [r]Uzzi, and [r]Jehohanan, and [m]Malchi-jah, and Elam, and [s]Ezer. And the singers [t]sang loud, with Jezrahiah their 43 overseer. Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: [t]for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

44 [u]And at that time were some appointed over the [w]chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions [‖]of the law for the priests and Levites: [†]for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites [†]that waited. 45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, [x]according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son. 46 For [y]in the days of David and [y]Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God. 47 And all Israel in the days of [z]Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, [a]every day his portion: and [b]they [‖]sanctified holy things unto the Levites: and [k]the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

XIII. On that day [a†]they read in the book of Moses in the [†]audience of the people; and therein was found written, [b]that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever; 2 because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but [c]hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: [d]howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing. 3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, [e]that they separated from Israel all [f]the mixed multitude.

4 And before this, [g]Eliashib the priest, [†]having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto [h]Tobiah: 5 and he had prepared for him a great chamber, [i]where aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, [†]which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests. 6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: for in the [k]two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes [l]king of Babylon came I unto the king, and [†]after certain days [‖]obtained I leave of the king: 7 and I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that [g]Eliashib did for [h]Tobiah, [m]in preparing him [n]a chamber in the courts of the house of God. 8 And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber. 9 Then I commanded, and they [o]cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again [m]the vessels of the house of God, with the meat offering and the frankincense.

10 And I perceived that [p]the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to 11 [q]his field. Then [r]contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is [s]the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their [†]place. 12 Then brought all Judah [t]the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the 13 oil unto the [‖]treasuries. And [u]I made treasurers over the [‖]treasuries, [x]Shelemiah the priest, and [y]Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, [z]Pedaiah: and [†]next to them was [a]Hanan the son of [b]Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted [c]faithful, and [†]their office was to distribute unto their brethren. 14 [d]Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my [†]good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the [‖]offices thereof.

15 In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses [e]on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, [f]which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified [g]against them in the 16 day wherein they sold victuals. There dwelt men of [h]Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the chil- 17 dren of Judah, and in Jerusalem. Then [i]I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sab- 18 bath day? [k]Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by pro- 19 faning the sabbath. And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem [l]began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought 20 in on the sabbath day. So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice. 21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye [†]about the

And I 22 commanded the Levites that they should [m]cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, [n]concerning this also, and spare me according to the [l]greatness of thy mercy.

In those days also saw I Jews that 23 [t][o]had married wives of [p]Ashdod, of [q]Ammon, and of [q]Moab: and their chil- 24 dren spake half in the speech of [p]Ashdod, and [t]could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language [t]of each people. And I [r]contended 25 with them, and [l]cursed them, and smote certain of them, and pluckt off their hair, and [s]made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves. [t]Did 26 not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet [u]among many nations was there no king like him, [x]who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin. 27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to [y]transgress against our God in marrying strange wives? 28 And one of the sons [z]of Joiada, the son of [a]Eliashib the high priest, was son in law to [b]Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me. 29 [c]Remember them, O my God, [t]because they have defiled the priesthood, and [d]the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites. 30 Thus [e]cleansed I them from all strangers, and appointed the wards of the priests and the Levites, every one in his business; 31 and for [f]the wood offering, [g]at times appointed, and for the firstfruits. THE BOOK OF ESTHER.

I. NOW it came to pass in the days of [a]Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, from [b]India even unto [c]Ethiopia, over [d]an hundred and seven and twenty [e]provinces:) that in those 2 days, when the king Ahasuerus [f]sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in [g]Shushan the palace, in the third 3 year of his reign, he [h]made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the [i]nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him: when he shewed the riches of 4 his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days. And 5 when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were [†]present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of [k]the garden of the king's palace; where were white, green, and 6 [‖]blue hangings, fastened with cords of [!]fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: [m]the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement [‖]of red, and blue, and white, and black marble. And they gave them drink in 7 vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and [†]royal wine in abundance, [†]according to the state of the king. And the drinking 8 was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure. Also Vashti the queen made 9 a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

On the seventh day, when [n]the heart 10 of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, [o]Harbona, [p]Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven [‖]chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, to bring Vashti the queen 11 before the king with the [q]crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was [†]fair to look on. 12 But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment [†]by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in 13 him. Then the king said to the [r]wise men, [s]which knew the times, (for so was the king's manner towards all that knew 14 law and judgment: and the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and [t]Memucan, the [u]seven princes of Persia and Media, [x]which saw the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom;) 15 [†]What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the cham- 16 berlains? And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus. 17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but 18 she came not. Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and 19 wrath. [†]If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment [†]from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the [y]Medes, [†]that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate [†]unto 20 another that is better than she. And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all

II. B. C. 518.

After these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was [a]decreed against her. Then said the king's servants that 2 ministered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king: and 3 let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, [†]unto the custody of [‖]Hege the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their [b]things for purification be given them: and let the 4 maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

Now in Shushan the palace there was 5 a certain Jew, whose name was [c]Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, [d]a Benjamite; who [e]had been carried away from Je- 6 rusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with [‖]Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away. And 7 he [†]brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, [f]his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was [†]fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter. So 8 it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens [g]were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women. And the maiden pleased him, 9 and she [h]obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her [i]things for purification, with [†]such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and [†]he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the 10 house of the women. [k]Esther had not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she 11 should not shew it. And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, [†]to know how Esther did, and what should become of 12 her. Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for 13 the purifying of the women;) then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the 14 women unto the king's house. In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by 15 name. Now when the turn of Esther, [l]the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them 16 that looked upon her. So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh 17 year of his reign. And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and [‖]favour [†]in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti. 18 Then the king [m]made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a [†]release to the provinces, and [n]gave gifts, [o]according to the state of the king. 19 And when the virgins were gathered together [p]the second time, then Mordecai sat [q]in the king's gate. 20 [r]Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was [s]brought up with him.

In those days, while Mordecai sat in 21 the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, [‖]Bigthan and [t]Teresh, of those which kept [†]the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus. And the thing was known to 22 Mordecai, [u]who told it unto Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king, thereof in Mordecai's name. And when 23 inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in [x]the book of the chronicles before the king.

III.

After these things did king Ahasuerus [a]promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the [b]Agagite, and [a]advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him. And all the king's 2 servants, that were [c]in the king's gate, bowed, and reverenced Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence. Then the king's servants, 3 which were [c]in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the [d]king's commandment? Now it came 4 to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew. And 5 when Haman saw that Mordecai [e]bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman [f]full of wrath. And he thought 6 scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

In the first month, that is, the month 7 [g]Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast [h]Pur, that is, [i]the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month [k]Adar. And 8 Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and [l]their laws are [m]diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not [†]for the king's profit to suffer them. If it please the king, let it be 9 written [†]that they may be destroyed: and I will [†]pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it 10 into the king's treasuries. And the king [n]took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha 11 the [b]Agagite, the Jews' [‖]enemy. And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee. 12 [o]Then were the king's [‖]scribes called on the thirteenth day of the [p]first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's [q]lieutenants, and to the [r]governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of [s]every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; [t]in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring. 13 And the letters were sent [u]by posts into all the king's provinces, [v]to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, [w]in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month [k]Adar, and [x]to take 14 the spoil of them for a prey. [y]The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready 15 against that day. [u]The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but [z]the city Shushan was perplexed.

IV.

When Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai [a]rent his clothes, and put on [b]sackcloth with [c]ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried 2 with a loud and a bitter cry; and came even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the king's gate clothed 3 with sackcloth. And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and [d]fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and [†]many 4 lay in [b]sackcloth and [c]ashes. So Esther's maids and her [†]chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he re- 5 ceived it not. Then called Esther for [e]Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, [†]whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was. So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate. And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of [f]the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them. Also he gave him [g]the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people. And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai. Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai: All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into [h]the inner court, who is not called, [i]there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom [k]the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days. And they told to Mordecai Esther's words. Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews. For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there [l]enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this? Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer: Go, gather together all the Jews that are [l]present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink [l]three days, night or day; I also and my maidens will fast likewise: and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and [m]if I perish, I perish. So Mordecai [l]went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

V. Now it came to pass [a]on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in [b]the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house. And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that [c]she obtained favour in his sight: and [d]the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre. Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee [e]to the half of the kingdom. And Esther answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him. Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared. [f]And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, [g]What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even [e]to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed. Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request is; [h]if I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and [l]to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to morrow as the king hath said.

Then went Haman forth that day joyful and with a [i]glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, [k]that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai. Nevertheless Haman [l]refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and [l]called for his friends, and [m]Zeresh his wife. And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and [n]the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had [o]promoted him, and how he had [o]advanced him above the princes and servants of the king. Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and to morrow am I [p]invited unto her also with the king. Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate. Then said [m]Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a [l]gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to morrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.

VI. On that night [f]could not the king sleep, and he commanded to bring [a]the book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king. And it 2 was found written, that Mordecai had told of [g]Bigthana and [b]Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the [h]door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus. And the king said, 3 What [c]honour and [c]dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him. And the king said, Who is in the court? 4 Now Haman was come into [d]the outward court of the king's house, [e]to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him. And the king's servants said unto 5 him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in. So Haman came in. And 6 the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man [i]whom the king delighteth to honour? Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself? And Haman answered the king, 7 For the man [i]whom the king delighteth to honour, [j]let the royal apparel be 8 brought [k]which the king useth to wear, and [l]the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head: and let this apparel and 9 horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most [m]noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, and [n]bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour. Then the 10 king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: [o]let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken. Then took Haman the apparel 11 and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour. And Mordecai came again to 12 the king's gate. But Haman [p]hasted to his house mourning, and [q]having his head covered. And Haman told [r]Ze- 13 resh his wife and all his friends [s]every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, 14 but shalt surely fall before him. And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and [t]hasted to bring Haman unto [u]the banquet that Esther had prepared.

So the king and Haman came [f]to VII. 2 banquet with Esther the queen. And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, [v]What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, 3 even to the half of the kingdom. Then Esther the queen answered and said, [w]If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my 4 people at my request: for we are [e]sold, I and my people, [f]to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's 5 damage. Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, [f]that durst 6 presume in his heart to do so? And Esther said, [x]The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman [d]was afraid [g]before the king and the 7 queen. And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into [e]the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was [y]evil determined against him by the 8 king. Then the king returned out of [e]the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon [z]the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also [f]before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face. 9 And [b]Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, the [f]gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, [i]who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king 10 said, Hang him thereon. So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then [k]was the king's wrath pacified.

On that day did the king Ahasuerus VIII.

give the house of Haman the Jews' enemy unto Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told [a]what he was unto her. And the king took off [b]his ring, 2 which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman. And Esther spake yet again before the 3 king, and fell down at his feet, [†]and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the [c]Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews. Then [d]the king held 4 out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king, and said, If it please the king, 5 and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing [e]seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters [†]devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the [c]Agagite, [‖]which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces: for how can I [†]endure 6 to see [f]the evil that shall [g]come unto my people? or how can I [†]endure to see the destruction of my kindred? Then the king Ahasuerus said unto 7 Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, [h]I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews. Write ye 8 also for the Jews, as it liketh you, [i]in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, [k]may no man reverse. [l]Then were the king's scribes 9 called at that time in the third month, that is, the month [m]Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the [n]lieutenants, and the [o]deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from [p]India unto Ethiopia, [p]an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province [q]according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language. [r]And he wrote [i]in the king 10 Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on [s]mules, [t]camels, and young dromedaries: [r]where- 11 in the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and [u]to take 12 the spoil of them for a prey, [x]upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the 13 month Adar. [y]The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was [†]published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves 14 on their enemies. So the posts that rode upon [s]mules and [t]camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment, and the decree 15 was given at Shushan the palace. And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king [z]in royal apparel of [‖]blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of [a]fine linen and [b]purple: and [c]the city of Shushan 16 rejoiced and was glad. The Jews had [d]light, and gladness, and joy, and ho- 17 nour. And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and [e]a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; for [f]the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

Now [a]in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when [b]the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule 2 over them that hated them;) the Jews [c]gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as [d]sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for [e]the fear of 3 them fell upon all people. And all the rulers of the provinces, and the [f]lieutenants, and the [g]deputies, and [†]officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon 4 them. For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai [h]waxed greater and greater. 5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did [t] what they would unto those that hated them.

6 And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men.
7 And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and 8 Aspatha, and Poratha, and Adalia, and 9 Aridatha, and Parmashta, and Arisai,
10 and Aridai, and Vajezatha, [i] the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but [k] on the spoil laid they not their hand.

11 On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace
12 [l] was brought before the king. And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or [l] what is thy request further? and it shall be done.
13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do [m] to morrow also according unto this day's decree, and [t] let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.
14 And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.
15 For the Jews that were in Shushan [n] gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but [o] on the prey they laid not their hand.
16 But the other Jews [p] that were in the king's provinces [n] gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, but [o] they laid not their hands on the prey,
17 on the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day [t] of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.
18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together [q] on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.
19 Therefore the Jews [r] of the villages, that dwelt in the [s] unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and [t] a good day, and of [u] sending portions one to another.

20 And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasue-
21 rus, both nigh and far, to [w] stablish this among them, that they should keep the [x] fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly,
22 as the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into [t] a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of [u] sending portions one to another, and [y] gifts
23 to the poor. And the Jews [z] undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them;
24 because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, [a] had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to [t] consume them, and to de-
25 stroy them; but [t] when [b] Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should [c] return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gal-
26 lows. Wherefore they called these days Purim after the name of [l] Pur. Therefore for all the words of [d] this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto 27 them, the Jews [w] ordained, and [z] took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as [e] joined themselves unto them, so as it should not [t] fail, that they would keep [f] these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year;
28 and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not [t] fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them [t] perish from 29 their seed. Then Esther the queen, [g] the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with [t] all authority, to [w] confirm this [h] second letter of Purim.
30 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to [i] the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, 31 with words of peace and truth, to [w] confirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had [w] enjoined them, and as they had [w] decreed [t] for themselves and for their seed, the matters of [k] the fastings and their cry.

THE BOOK OF JOB.

I.

THERE was a man in the land of [a]Uz, whose name was [b]Job; and that man was [c]perfect and upright, and one that [d]feared God, and [e]eschewed evil. And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters. His [f]substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great [g]household; so that this man was the greatest of all the [h]men of the east. And his sons went and [i]feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and [k]called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and [l]offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and [m]cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job [n]continually.

Now [o]there was a day when [p]the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and [q]Satan came also [r]among them. And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, [s]From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. And the LORD said unto Satan, [t]Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, [u]a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought? Hast not thou [v]made a hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? [w]thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his [x]substance [y]is increased in the land. But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, [z]and he will curse thee [a]to thy face. And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy [b]power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

And [c]there was a day [d]when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house: and there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them: and [e]the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, [f]The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burnt up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, [g]The Chaldeans made out [h]three [i]bands, and [k]fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, [l]Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house: and behold, there came a great wind [m]from [n]the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. Then Job [o]arose, and [p]rent his [q]mantle, and [r]shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped, and said,

[c]Naked came I out of my mother's womb,
And naked shall I return thither:
The [d]LORD [e]gave, and the LORD hath taken away;
[f]Blessed be the name of the LORD.

II. Again [a] there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD. [b] And the LORD said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. [c] And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he [d] holdeth fast his [e] integrity, although thou movedst me against him, [f] to destroy him [r] without cause. And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life. [g] But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will [h] curse thee to thy face. [i] And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; [k] but save his life. So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore [j] boils [k] from the sole of his foot unto his crown. And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; [l] and he sat down among the ashes. Then said his wife unto him, [m] Dost thou still [n] retain thine integrity? [h] curse God, and die. But he said unto her, Thou speakest as [o] one of the foolish women speaketh. What? [p] shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? [q] In all this did not Job [r] sin with his lips.

And when they lift up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they [w] rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled [x] dust upon their heads toward heaven. So they sat down with him upon the ground [y] seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great. 11 12 13

For I have not [m]concealed [mm]the words of [n]the Holy One.

What is my strength, that I should hope?
And what is mine end, that I should [o]prolong my life?
Is my strength the strength of stones?
Or is my flesh [t]of brass?

And is [p]wisdom driven quite from me?

[t]To him that is afflicted pity should be shewed [q]from his friend;
But he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.
My brethren [r]have dealt deceitfully as a brook,
And [s]as the stream of brooks they pass away;
Which are blackish by reason of the ice,
And wherein the snow is hid:
What time they wax warm, [t]they vanish:
[t]When it is hot, they are [t]consumed out of their place.
The paths of their way [t]are turned aside;
They go to [u]nothing, and perish.
The troops of [x]Tema looked,
The companies of [y]Sheba waited for them.
They were [z]confounded because they had hoped;
They came thither, and were [z]ashamed.

[l]For now ye are [t]nothing;

Did I say, Bring unto me?
Or, Give a reward for me of your [a]substance?
Or, Deliver me from the enemy's hand?
Or, Redeem me from the hand of the [b]mighty?

Teach me, and I will hold my tongue:
And cause me to understand wherein I have erred.
How [c]forcible are right words!
But what doth your arguing reprove?

Do ye imagine to reprove words,
And the speeches of one that is [d]desperate, which are as wind?
Yea, [t]ye overwhelm the fatherless,
And you [e]dig a pit for your friend.

Now therefore be content, [f]look upon me;
For it is [t]evident unto you if I lie.
[g]Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity;
Yea, return again, my righteousness is [t]in it.

Are not his days also [a]like the days of a hireling?

So am I made to possess [d]months of [e]vanity,
And wearisome nights are appointed to me.

When shall I arise, and [t]the night be gone?
And I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.
My flesh is clothed with [f]worms and clods of dust;
My skin is broken, and [g]become loathsome.
My days are swifter than [h]a weaver's shuttle,
And are spent without hope.

O remember that my life is [i]wind:
Mine eye [t]shall no more [l]see good.
[k]The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more:
Thine eyes are upon me, and [l]I am not.
As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away:
So he that [l]goeth down to the grave shall come up no more.
[m]He shall return no more to his house,
[n]Neither shall [k]his place know him any more.

[l] That is, I can live no longer.

Therefore I will not refrain my mouth; 11
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
I will [o]complain [p]in the bitterness of my soul.

Am I a sea, or a whale, 12
That thou settest a watch over me?
[q]When I say, My bed shall comfort 13
me,
My couch shall [r]ease my [o]complaint;
[s]Then thou scarest me with dreams, 14
And terrifiest me through visions:
So that my soul chooseth strangling, 15
And death rather [t]than my life.
I [t]loathe it; I would not live alway: 16
[u]Let me alone; for my days are [x]vanity.

[y]What is man, that thou shouldest 17 magnify him?
And that thou shouldest [z]set thine heart upon him?
And that thou shouldest visit him 18
[a]every morning,
And try him [b]every moment?
How long wilt thou not [c]depart from 19
me,
Nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?

I have sinned; what shall I do unto 20
thee,
O thou [d]preserver of men?
Why hast thou set me as a [e]mark against thee,
So that I am a burden to myself?
And why dost thou not pardon my 21
transgression,
And take away mine iniquity?
For now shall I sleep in the dust;
And thou shalt [f]seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

VIII.

Then answered [a]Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

How long wilt thou speak these things? 2
And how long shall the words of thy mouth be like [b]a strong wind?
[c]Doth God pervert judgment? 3
Or [d]doth the Almighty pervert justice?
If [e]thy children have sinned against 4
him,
And he have cast them away [t]for their transgression;
[f]If thou wouldest [g]seek unto God be- 5 times,
And make thy supplication to the Almighty;
If thou wert pure and upright; 6
Surely now he would awake for thee,
And make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.
Though thy beginning was small, 7
Yet thy latter end should greatly increase.
[h]For inquire, I pray thee, of the former age, 8
And prepare thyself to the search of their fathers:
(For [i]we are but of yesterday, and 9
know [t]nothing,
Because our days upon earth are [j]a shadow:)
Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, 10
And utter words out of their heart?

Can the [k]rush grow up without mire? 11
Can the [l]flag grow without water?
[m]Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and 12
not cut down,
It withereth before any other herb.
So are the paths of all that forget God; 13
And the [n]hypocrite's hope shall perish:
Whose hope shall be cut off, 14
And whose trust shall be [t]a spider's web.
He shall lean upon [o]his house, but it 15
shall not stand:
He shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.
He is [p]green before the sun. 16
And his [q]branch shooteth forth in his garden,
His roots are [r]wrapped about the heap, 17
And seeth the place of stones.
If he destroy him [s]from his place, 18
Then it shall deny him, [t]saying, I have not seen thee.
Behold, this is the joy of his way, 19
And [u]out of the earth shall others grow.

Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, 20
Neither will he [t]help the evil doers:
Till he [x]fill thy mouth with laughing, 21
And thy lips with [t]rejoicing.
They that hate thee shall be [y]clothed 22
with shame;
And the [z]dwelling place of the wicked [t]shall come to nought.

Then Job answered and said, IX.

I know [a]it is so [b]of a truth: 2
But [c]how should man be just [f]with God?
If he will contend with him, 3
He cannot answer him one of a thousand.

He is [d]wise in heart, and mighty in strength:
Who hath hardened [e]himself against him, and hath prospered?

Which removeth the mountains, and they know not:
Which overturneth them in his anger.
Which [f]shaketh the earth out of her place,
And [g]the pillars thereof tremble.
Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not;
And sealeth up the stars.

Which alone [h]spreadeth out the heavens,
And treadeth upon the [i]waves of the sea.
[j]Which maketh [k]Arcturus, [l]Orion,
And [l]Pleiades, and the chambers of the south.
[m]Which doeth great things past finding out;
Yea, and wonders without number.

Lo, he goeth by me, and [n]I see him not: he passeth on also, [n]but I perceive him not.
Behold, he taketh away, [o]who can hinder him?
[p]Who will say unto him, What doest thou?
If God will not withdraw his anger,
The [q]proud helpers do stoop under him.
[r]How much less shall I answer him,
And [s]choose out my words to reason with him?
[t]Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer,
But I would make supplication to my judge.

If I had called, and he had answered me;
Yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.
For he [u]breaketh me with a tempest,
And multiplieth my wounds [v]without cause.
He will not suffer me [w]to take my breath,
But filleth me with bitterness.
If I speak [x]of strength, lo, he is strong:
And if of judgment, [y]who shall set me a time to plead?
If I justify myself, [z]mine own mouth shall condemn me:
If I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse.

Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soul:
I would [a]despise my life.
This is one thing, therefore I said it,
[b]He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.
If the [c]scourge slay suddenly,
He will laugh at the trial of the innocent.
The earth is given into the hand of the wicked:
[d]He covereth the faces of the judges thereof;
[e]If not, where, and who is he?

Now [f]my days are swifter than [g]a post:
They flee away, [f]they see no good.
They are passed away as the [h]swift ships:
As [i]the eagle that hasteth to the prey.
[j]If I say, I will forget my complaint,
I will leave off my heaviness, and [k]comfort myself:
I am afraid of all my sorrows,
I know that thou [l]wilt not hold me innocent.

If I be wicked,
Why then labour I in vain?
If I wash myself with [m]snow water,
And [n]make my hands never so clean;
Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch,
And mine own clothes shall [o]abhor me.
For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him,
And [p]we should come together in judgment.
[q]Neither is there [r]any [s]daysman betwixt us,
That might [t]lay [u]his hand upon us both.
[u]Let him take his [v]rod away from me,
And [w]let not his fear terrify me:
Then would I speak, and not fear him;
[x]But it is not so with me.

My soul [a]is [b]weary of my life;
I will leave my complaint [c]upon myself;
I will speak [d]in the bitterness of my soul.
I will say unto God, Do not [e]condemn me;
Shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.
[f]Is it good unto thee that thou shouldest oppress,
That thou shouldest [g]despise [h]the work of thine hands,
And shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

Then answered [a] Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

[a] ch. 2. 11.

[b] Should not the multitude of words 2
be answered?
And should [f] a man full of talk be justified?
Should thy [l] lies make men hold their 3
peace?
And when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?
For [c] thou hast said, My [d] doctrine is 4 pure,
And I am clean in thine eyes.
But O that God would speak, 5
And open his lips against thee;
And that he would shew thee the se- 6
crets of wisdom,
That they are [e] double to [f] that which is.
Know therefore that God [g] exacteth

Then answered [a]Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,
Should [b]a wise man utter [t]vain knowledge, 2
And fill his [c]belly with [d]the east wind?
Should he reason with [dd]unprofitable talk? 3
Or with speeches wherewith he [e]can do no good?
Yea, [t]thou castest off [f]fear, 4

For thy mouth [t]uttereth thine iniquity, 5
And thou choosest the tongue of the crafty.
[g]Thine own mouth condemneth thee, 6
and not I;
Yea, thine own lips [h]testify against thee.
Art thou the first man that was born? 7
Or [i]wast thou made [j]before the hills?
Hast thou heard [k]the secret of God? 8
And dost thou [l]restrain wisdom to thyself?

[n]With us are both the grayheaded and 10
[o]very aged men,
Much elder than thy father.

with thee?
Is there any secret thing with thee?
Why doth thine heart carry thee away? 12
And what do thine eyes wink at,
That thou turnest thy [p]spirit against 13
God,
And lettest such words go out of thy mouth?
[q]What is man, that he should be 14 clean?
And he which is [r]born of a woman, that he should be righteous?
[s]Behold, he putteth no trust in his 15
[t]saints;
Yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight.
[u]How much more abominable and 16
[x]filthy
Is man, [y]which drinketh iniquity like water?
I will shew thee, hear me; 17
And that which I have seen I will declare:
Which wise men have [z]told 18
[a]From their fathers, and [z]have not hid it:
Unto whom alone the earth was given, 19
And [b]no stranger passed among them.
The wicked man travaileth with pain 20

[e] So 1 Thess. 5. 3.

He believeth not that he shall return 22
out of darkness,
And he is waited for of the sword.
He [f]wandereth abroad for bread, [g]say- 23
ing, Where is it?
He knoweth that the day of darkness
[h]is ready at his hand.
Trouble and anguish shall make him 24 afraid;
They shall [i]prevail against him, [j]as a king ready to the battle.

For he stretcheth out his hand against 25
God,
And strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.
He [k]runneth upon him, even [l]on his 26 neck,
Upon the thick bosses of his bucklers:
Because he [m]covereth his face with 27
his fatness,
And maketh collops of fat on his flanks.
And he dwelleth in desolate cities, 28
And in houses which no man inhabiteth,
Which are ready to become heaps.
He shall not be rich, neither shall his 29 substance continue, Neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.
He shall not depart out of dark- 30
ness;
The flame shall dry up his [n]branches,
And [o]by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.

Let not him that is deceived trust in 31
vanity:
For vanity shall be his recompence.
It shall be [p]accomplished [q]before his 32 time,
And his [q]branch shall not be green.
He shall [r]shake off his [s]unripe grape 33
as the vine,
And shall cast off his [s]flower as the olive.
For [t]the congregation of hypocrites 34
shall be [u]desolate,
And fire shall consume the [w]tabernacles of bribery.
[x]They conceive [y]mischief, and bring 35
forth [y][l]vanity,

I could heap up words against you,
And [d]shake mine head at you.

And the moving of my lips should

XVII.

[‖]My breath is corrupt,
My days are [a]extinct,
[b]The graves are ready for me.
Are there not mockers with me? 2
And doth not mine eye [†]continue in their provocation?

with me?
For thou hast hid their heart from 4

Therefore shalt thou not exalt them.

He hath made me also [f]a byword of 6

And [‖]aforetime I was as a tabret.
[g]Mine eye also is dim by reason of 7

And all [‖]my members are [h]as a

And the innocent shall [j]stir up him-

The righteous also shall hold on his 9

And he that hath [k]clean hands [†]shall be stronger and stronger.
But as for you all, [l]do you return, and 10
come now:
For I cannot find one wise man among you.

[m]My days are past, 11
My purposes are [n]broken off,
Even [†]the thoughts of my heart.
[o]They change the night into day: 12
[p]The light is [†]short, [q]because of darkness.

[q] As ch. 23. 17 (Heb.).

If I wait, the grave is mine [r]house: 13
I have made my bed in the darkness.
I have [†]said to corruption, Thou art 14
my father:
To the worm, Thou art my mother,
and my sister.
And where is now my hope? 15
As for my hope, who shall see it?
They shall go down to the [s]bars of 16
the pit, [t]When our [u]rest [x]together is in the dust.

Then answered [a]Bildad the Shuhite, XVIII.
and said,

[b]How long will it be ere you make an 2
end of words?
Mark, and afterwards we will speak.
Wherefore are we counted [c]as beasts, 3
And reputed vile in your sight?

He [d]teareth [†]himself in his anger: 4
Shall the earth be forsaken for thee?
And shall [e]the rock be removed out of his place?
Yea, [f]the light of the wicked shall be 5

And his [‖]candle shall be put out

[l]The grin shall take him by the heel, 9
And [m]the robber shall prevail against

2 [a]Hear diligently my speech,

3 Suffer me that I may speak;
And after that I have spoken, [b]mock on.
4 As for me, is my [c]complaint to man?

7 [g]Wherefore do the wicked live,

22 [l]Shall any teach God knowledge?

27 Behold, I know your thoughts,

28 For ye say, [s]Where is the [t]house of the prince?
And where are [f][tu]the dwelling places of the wicked?
29 Have ye not asked them that go by the way?

[c]O that I knew where I might find him! 3
That I might come even to his [d]seat!
I would [e]order my cause before him, 4
And fill my mouth with [f]arguments.
I would know the words which he would answer me, 5
And understand what he would say unto me.

Will he plead against me [g]with his great power? 6
No; but he would put strength in me.
There the righteous might dispute with him; 7
So should I be delivered for ever from my judge.
[h]Behold, I go [i]forward, but he is not there; 8
And [i]backward, [h]but I cannot perceive him:
On [k]the left hand, where he doth work, but I cannot behold him: 9
He hideth himself on [l]the right hand, that I [h]cannot see him:

But he [m]knoweth [t]the way that I take: 10
When [n]he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.
[o]My foot hath held his steps, 11
His way have I kept, and not [p]declined.
Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips; 12 [t]I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than [‖]my necessary food.
But he is in one mind, and [q]who can turn him? 13
And what [r]his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

For he performeth the thing that is appointed for me: 14
And many such things are [s]with him.
Therefore am I troubled at his [t]presence: 15
When I consider, I am afraid of him.
For God [u]maketh my heart soft, 16
And the Almighty troubleth me:
Because I was not cut off [x]before the darkness, 17
Neither hath he covered the [y]darkness from [z]my face.

Why, seeing [a]times are not [b]hidden from the Almighty, XXIV.
Do they that [c]know him not see his [d]days?
2 Some remove the [e]landmarks;
They violently take away flocks, and [‖]feed thereof.
3 They [f]drive away the ass of the fatherless,
They [g]take the widow's ox for a pledge.
4 They [h]turn the needy out of the way:
[i]The poor of the earth [l]hide themselves together.
5 Behold, as [m]wild asses in the desert,
[n]Go they forth to their work; [o]rising betimes [p]for a prey:
The wilderness yieldeth food for them and for their children.
6 They reap every one his [t]corn in the field:
And [t]they gather the vintage of the wicked.
7 They cause the naked to lodge without clothing,
That they have no covering in the cold.
8 They [q]are wet with the showers of the mountains,
And [r]embrace the rock for want of a shelter.

9 They pluck the fatherless from the breast,
And [g][s]take a pledge of the poor.
10 They [t]cause him to go naked [n]without clothing,
And [x]they take away the sheaf from the hungry;
11 [x] Which make oil within their walls,
And [y]tread their winepresses, and suffer thirst.
12 Men [z]groan from out of the city,
And the soul of the [z]wounded crieth out:
Yet God layeth not [a]folly to them.

13 They are of those [b]that rebel against the light;
They know not the ways thereof,
Nor abide in the paths thereof.
14 The murderer rising with the light
Killeth the poor and needy,
And in the night is as a thief.
15 The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for [c]the twilight,
[d]Saying, No eye shall see me:
And [t]disguiseth his face.

Moreover Job [t]continued his parable, and said,
O that I were [a]as in months past,
As in the days when God preserved me;
[b]When his [l]candle shined upon my head,
And when by his light I walked through darkness;
As I was in the days of my youth,
When [c]the secret of God was upon my [d]tabernacle;

When the Almighty was yet with me,
When [e]my children were about me;
When [f]I washed my steps with [g]butter,
And [h]the rock [i]poured [f]me out rivers of [k]oil;
When I went out to the [l]gate through the [l]city,
When I prepared my seat in the [m]street;
The young men saw me, and hid themselves:
And [n]the aged arose, and stood up.
The princes refrained talking,
And [o]laid their hand on their mouth.
[t]The nobles held their peace,
And their [p]tongue cleaved to [q]the roof of their mouth.
When the ear heard me, then it blessed me;
And when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:
Because I delivered the poor that cried,
And [r]the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.
The [s]blessing of him that was [t]ready to perish came upon me:
And I caused [u]the widow's heart to [x]sing for joy.
[y]I put on righteousness, and it clothed me:
My judgment was as a robe and a [z]diadem.
I was [a]eyes to the blind,
And feet was I to the lame.
I was a father to the poor:
And the cause [b]which I knew not I searched out.
And I [bb]brake [t]the jaws of the wicked,
And [t]pluckt the spoil out of his teeth.
[c]Then I said, I shall die in my [d]nest,
And I shall multiply my days [e]as the sand.
My [f]root was [t]spread out [g]by the waters,
And the dew lay all night upon my [fh]branch.
My glory was [t]fresh in me,
And my [i]bow was [t]renewed in my hand.
Unto me men gave ear, and waited,
And kept silence at my counsel.
After my words they spake not again;
And my speech [k]dropped upon them.

XXX.

But now they that are [t]younger than I [a]have me in derision,
[b]Whose fathers I would have disdained
To have set with the dogs of my flock.
Yea, whereto might the strength of their hands [c]profit me, 2
In whom [d]old age was perished?
For want and [e]famine they were [f]solitary; 3
[f]Flying into the [g]wilderness
[t]In former time [h]desolate and waste.
Who cut up mallows by the bushes, 4
And juniper roots for their meat.
[i]They were driven forth from among men, 5
(They cried after them as after a thief;)
To dwell in the clifts of the valleys, 6
In [t]caves of the earth, and in the [k]rocks.
[l]Among the bushes they [m]brayed; 7
Under the [n]nettles they were gathered together.
They were children of [o]fools, yea, children of [t]base men: 8
They were viler than the earth.

[p]And now am I their [q]song, 9
Yea, [r]I am their byword.
They [s]abhor me, they flee far from me, 10
[t]And spare not [t]to spit in my face.
Because he hath [u]loosed my cord, and [x]afflicted me, 11
They have also let loose the bridle [y]before me.
[z]Upon my right hand rise the youth; 12
They [a]push away my feet,
And they [b]raise up against me the ways of their destruction.
They mar my path, 13
They set forward my [c]calamity,
They have no helper.

They came upon me as a wide [d]breaking in of waters: 14
In the [e]desolation they rolled themselves upon me.
[f]Terrors are turned upon me: 15
They pursue [t]my soul as the wind:
And my welfare passeth away [g]as a cloud.
And now [h]my soul is poured out [i]upon me; 16
The days of affliction have taken hold upon me.
My bones are pierced in me [k]in the night season: 17
And my [l]sinews take no rest.
[m]By the great force of my disease is my garment [n]changed: 18
[o]It bindeth me about as the [p]collar of my coat.
He hath cast me into the mire, 19
And [o]I am become [pp]like [q]dust and ashes.
I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me: 20
I stand up, and thou regardest me not.
Thou art [t]become cruel to me: 21
With [t]thy strong hand thou [r]opposest thyself against me.
Thou liftest me up to the wind; thou causest me to ride upon it, 22
And [s]dissolvest my [l]substance.
For [t]I know that thou wilt bring me to death, 23
And to the house appointed for [u]all living.

Howbeit he will not stretch out his hand to the [t]grave, 24
Though they [x]cry in his [y]destruction.
[z]Did not I weep [t]for him that was in trouble? 25
Was not my soul grieved for the poor?
[a]When I looked for good, then evil came unto me: 26
And when I waited for light, there came [aa]darkness.
My bowels [b]boiled, and rested not: 27
The days of affliction [c]prevented me.
[d]I went mourning [e]without the sun: 28
I stood up, and I cried [f]in the congregation.
I am a brother to [g]dragons, 29
And a companion to [l]owls.
[h]My skin is black upon me, 30
And [i]my bones [k]are burnt with heat.

XXXI.

I [a]made a covenant with mine [b]eyes;
[c]Why then should [cc]I think upon a maid?
For what [d]portion of God is there 2
from above?
And what [d]inheritance of the Almighty from [e]on high?
Is not destruction to the wicked? 3
And [f]a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?
[g]Doth not he see my ways, 4
And [h]count all my steps?

If I have walked with vanity, 5
Or if my foot hath hasted to deceit;
[†]Let me be weighed in an even balance, 6
That God may know mine integrity.
If my step hath turned out of the way, 7
And [i]mine heart walked after mine eyes,
And if any [k]blot hath cleaved to my hands;
Then [l]let me sow, and let another eat; 8
Yea, let my [m]offspring be rooted out.

If [n]mine heart have been deceived by 9
a woman,
Or if [o]I have laid wait at my neighbour's door;
Then let my wife [p]grind unto another, 10
And let [q]others bow down upon her.
For this is a [r]heinous crime; 11
Yea, it is [s]an iniquity [t]to be punished by the judges.
For it is [u]a fire that consumeth to [v]de- 12
struction,
And would root out all mine increase.

If I did despise the cause of my man- 13 servant or of my maidservant,
When they contended with me;
[c]What then shall I do when God 14
riseth up?
And when he [w]visiteth, [x]what shall I answer him?
Did not he that made me in the 15
womb make him?
And [‖]did not [y]one fashion us in the womb?

[i]O that one would hear me! 35
[k]Behold, my desire is, that [k]the Almighty would answer me,
And that mine adversary [l]had written a book.
Surely I would take it [m]upon my shoulder, 36
And [n]bind it as [o]a crown to me.
I would declare unto him the number of my steps; 37
As a prince would I go near unto him.

If my land cry against me, 38
Or that the furrows likewise thereof [t]complain;
[p]If I have eaten [t]the fruits thereof without money, 39
Or have [t]caused the owners thereof to lose their life:
Let [q]thistles grow instead of wheat, 40
And [l]cockle instead of barley.

[r]The words of Job are ended.

XXXII. So these three men ceased [t]to answer Job, because he was [a]righteous in his own eyes. Then was kindled the wrath 2 of Elihu the son of Barachel [b]the Buzite, of the kindred of [b]Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified [t]himself [c]rather than God. Also 3 against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had [d]condemned Job.
Now Elihu had [t]waited till Job had 4 spoken, because they were [t]elder than he. When Elihu saw that there was no 5 answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

And Elihu the son of Barachel the 6
Buzite answered and said,
I am [t]young, and ye are [e]very old;
Wherefore I was afraid, and [t]durst not [ee]shew you mine [f]opinion.
I said, Days should speak, 7
And multitude of years should teach wisdom.

And [h]the [g]inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.
[i]Great men are not always wise: 9
[k]Neither do the aged understand judgment.
Therefore I said, Hearken to me; 10
I also will shew mine [f]opinion.
Behold, I waited for your words; 11
I gave ear to your [t]reasons,
Whilst you searched out [t]what to say.
Yea, I [t]attended unto you, 12

Neither will I answer him with your speeches.

But stood still, and answered no more:)
[n]I said, I will answer also my part, 17
I also [o]will shew mine [f]opinion.

[t]The spirit within me constraineth me.

I will open my lips and answer.

Neither let me [r]give flattering titles unto man.

Set [e]thy words in order before me, stand up.
Behold, I am [f]according to thy wish in God's stead:
I also am [f]formed out of [f]the clay.
Behold, [g]my terror shall not make thee afraid,
Neither shall [h]my hand be heavy upon thee.

Surely thou hast spoken [i]in mine hearing,
And I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,
[i]I am clean [j]without transgression,
I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me.
Behold, he findeth [k]occasions against me,
[l]He counteth me for his enemy,
[m]He putteth my feet in the stocks,
[mn]He marketh all my paths.
Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee,
That God is greater than man.

Why dost thou [o]strive against him?
For [f]he giveth not account of any of his matters.
For God speaketh once,
Yea twice, yet man [p]perceiveth it not.
[q]In a dream, in a vision of the night,
[r]When deep sleep falleth upon men,
In slumberings upon the bed;
Then [f]he openeth the ears of men,
And [s]sealeth their instruction.
That he may withdraw man from his [t]purpose,
And hide [t]pride from man.
He keepeth back his soul from the pit,
And his life [f]from perishing by [u]the sword.

He is chastened also with pain upon his bed,
And the multitude of his bones with strong pain:
So that [w]his life abhorreth bread,
And his soul [f]dainty meat.
His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen;
And his bones that were not seen [x]stick out.

Yea, his [y]soul draweth near unto the grave,
And his [y]life to the destroyers.

If there be a [z]messenger with him, an [a]interpreter,
[b]One among [c]a thousand,
To shew unto man [d]his uprightness:
Then he is gracious unto him, and saith,
Deliver him from going down to the pit:
I have [e]found [g]a ransom.

[f]His flesh shall be fresher [f]than a child's:
He [f]shall return to the days of his youth:
He shall [g]pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him:
And [h]he shall see his face [i]with joy:
For he will render unto man his righteousness.
[k]He [k]looketh upon men, and if any [l]say,
I [m]have sinned, and [m]perverted that which was right,
And it profited me not;
[n]He will deliver [n]his soul from going into the pit,
And his life [o]shall see the light.

Lo, all these things worketh God
[f]Oftentimes with man,
[p]To bring back his soul from the pit,
To be enlightened [q]with the light of the living.
Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me:
Hold thy peace, and I will speak.
If thou hast any thing to say, [r]answer me:
[s]Speak, for I desire to justify thee.
If not, hearken unto me:
Hold thy peace, and I shall [t]teach thee wisdom.

Furthermore Elihu [a]answered and said,

Hear my words, O ye wise men;
And give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.
[b]For the ear trieth words,
As the [f]mouth tasteth meat.
[c]Let us choose to us judgment:
Let us know among ourselves what is good.

[f] Should I lie against my right? 6

What man is like Job, 7
[h] Who drinketh up scorning like water?
Which goeth in company with the 8
workers of iniquity,
And walketh with wicked men.
For [i] he hath said, It [k] profiteth a man 9
nothing
That he should delight himself with God.

Therefore hearken unto me, ye [t] men 10
of understanding:
[l] Far be it from God, [m] that he should do wickedness;
And from the Almighty, [n] that he should commit iniquity.
[o] For the work of a man shall he ren- 11
der unto him,
And cause every man to find [p] according to his ways.

Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, 12
Neither will [q] the Almighty pervert judgment.
Who hath [r] given him a charge over 13
the earth?
Or [s] who hath disposed [t] the whole world?
If he [t] set his heart [t] upon man, 14
If he [u] gather unto himself his [v] spirit and his breath;
All flesh shall [u] perish together, 15
And man [u w] shall turn again unto dust.

If now thou hast understanding, [x] hear 16
this:
Hearken to the voice of my words.
[y] Shall even he that hateth right [t] go- 17
vern?
And wilt thou condemn him that is most just?
Is it fit [z] to say to a king, Thou art 18
[a] wicked?
And to princes, Ye are ungodly?
How much less to him that [b] accepteth 19
not the persons of princes,
Nor regardeth the [c] rich more than the poor?
For [d] they all are the work of his hands.
[e] In a moment shall they die, 20
And the people shall be troubled [f] at midnight, and pass away:
And [t] the mighty shall be taken away [g] without hand.

[h] For his eyes are upon the ways of 21
man,
And he seeth all his [i] goings.
[k] There is no darkness, nor [l] shadow of 22
death,
Where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
For he will not lay upon man more 23
than right;
That he should [t] enter into judgment with God.

He shall [ll] break in pieces mighty men 24
[t] without number,
And set [m] others in their stead.
Therefore he knoweth their works, 25
And he [n] overturneth them [o] in the night, so that they are [t] destroyed.
He [p] striketh them as wicked men 26
[t] In the open sight of others;
Because they turned back [t] from him, 27
And would not [q] consider any of his ways:
So that they [r] cause the cry of the 28
poor to come unto him,
And [s] he heareth the cry of the afflicted.

When he [t] giveth quietness, who then 29 can make trouble?
And [u] when he hideth his face, who then can behold him?
Whether it be done against a nation,
Or against a man only:
That the hypocrite reign not, 30
Lest [x] the people be ensnared.
Surely it is meet to be said unto God, 31
I [y] have borne chastisement, I will not [z] offend any more:
[a] That which I see not teach thou 32
me:
If I have done iniquity, I will do no more.
[t] Should it be according to thy mind? 33
he will recompense it,
Whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I:
Therefore [b] speak what thou knowest. 34
Let men [t] of understanding tell me,
And let a wise man hearken unto me.
Job hath spoken [c] without knowledge, 35
And his words were without wisdom.
[ll] My desire is that Job may be tried 36 unto the end
Because of his answers for wicked men.
For he addeth rebellion unto his sin, 37
He clappeth [d] his hands amongst us,
And multiplieth his words against God.

XXXV. Elihu [a]spake moreover, and said,
Thinkest thou this to be right, 2
That thou saidst, [b]My righteousness is more than God's?
For thou saidst, [c]What advantage will 3
it be unto thee?
And, [d]What profit shall I have, [f]if I be cleansed from my sin?
[f]I will answer thee, 4
And [e]thy companions with thee.
[f]Look unto the heavens, and see: 5
And behold the clouds which are higher than thou.
If thou sinnest, [g]what doest thou a- 6
gainst him?
Or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?
[h]If thou be righteous, what givest 7
thou him?
Or what receiveth he of thine hand?
Thy wickedness may hurt [i]a man as 8
thou art;
And thy righteousness may profit [i]the son of man.
By reason of the multitude of [k]op- 9
pressions they [l]make the oppressed to cry:
They [l]cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.
But none saith, Where is God [m]my 10 Maker,
[n]Who giveth songs [o]in the night;
Who teacheth us more than the beasts 11
of the earth,
And maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?
There they cry, [p]but none giveth an- 12
swer,
Because of the pride of evil men.
Surely God will not hear vanity, 13
Neither will the Almighty [q]regard it.
Although thou sayest [r]thou shalt not 14
see him,
Yet judgment is before him; therefore [s]trust thou in him.
But now, because it is not so, [t]he 15
hath [t]visited in his anger;
Yet [u]he knoweth it not in great extremity:
Therefore doth Job [u]open his mouth 16
[x]in vain;
He [y]multiplieth words [z]without knowledge.

XXXVI. Elihu also proceeded, and said,
Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee 2
[f]That I have yet to speak on God's behalf.
I will fetch my [a]knowledge from afar, 3
And will ascribe righteousness to [b]my Maker.
For truly my words shall not be false: 4
He that is [c]perfect in knowledge is with thee.
Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth 5 not [d]any:
He is [e]mighty in strength and [f]wisdom.
He preserveth not the life of the 6
wicked:
But giveth right to the [g]poor.
He [f]withdraweth not his eyes from 7
the righteous:
But with kings are they [g]on the throne;
Yea, he doth [h]establish them for ever, and they are exalted.
And if they be [i]k bound in [k]fetters, 8
And be holden in cords of [i]affliction;
Then he sheweth them their [l]work, 9
And their transgressions that they [m]have exceeded.
[n]He openeth also their ear to disci- 10
pline,
And commandeth that they return from iniquity.
[o]If they obey and serve [p]him, 11
They shall [q]spend their days in prosperity,
And their years [r]in pleasures.
[o]But if they obey not, 12
[t]They shall perish by the sword,
And they shall die [s]without knowledge.
But the hypocrites in heart [t]heap up 13
wrath:
They cry not when he [u]bindeth them.
[x][t]They die in youth, 14
And their life is among the [l]unclean.
He delivereth the [l]poor in his affliction, 15
And [n]openeth their ears in oppression.
Even so would he have [y]removed 16
thee out of the strait
Into [z a]a broad place, where there is no [a]straitness;
And [f b]that which should be set on [c]thy table should be full of [d]fatness.
But thou hast fulfilled the judgment 17
of the wicked:
[l]Judgment and justice take hold on thee.

Then a great [f]ransom cannot [i]deliver thee.

Will he esteem thy [g]riches? no, not gold,
Nor all [h]the forces of strength.
[i]Desire not [k]the night,
When people are [l]cut off [m]in their place.
Take heed, [n]regard not iniquity:
For this hast thou [o]chosen rather than affliction.

Behold, God exalteth by his power:
[p]Who teacheth like him?
Who [q]hath enjoined him his way?
Or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?
Remember that thou magnify his work,
Which [r]men [s]behold.
Every man may see it;
Man may behold it afar off.

Behold, God is great, and we [t]know him not,
[u]Neither can the number of his years [x]be searched out.
For he [y]maketh small the drops of water:
They pour down rain according to [z]the vapour thereof:
Which [a]the clouds do drop
And [a]distil upon man abundantly.
Also can any understand the [b]spreadings of the clouds,
Or the noise of his [c]tabernacle?

Behold, he spreadeth [d]his light upon it,
And [e]covereth [f]the bottom of the sea.
For by them [ee]judgeth he the people;
He [f]giveth meat [g]in abundance.
With clouds he covereth [d]the light;
And commandeth it not to shine by the cloud [h]that cometh betwixt.
[i]The noise thereof sheweth concerning it,
The cattle also concerning [f]the vapour.

XXXVII.

At this also my heart trembleth,
And is moved out of his place.
[f]Hear attentively the noise of his voice,
And the sound that goeth out of his mouth.

He directeth it under the whole heaven,
And his [f]lightning unto the [f]ends of the earth.
After it a voice roareth:
He [a]thundereth with the voice of his excellency;
And he will not stay them when his voice is heard.
God thundereth [b]marvellously with his voice;
[c]Great things doeth he, which [d]we cannot comprehend.

For he saith to [e]the snow, Be thou on the earth;
[f]Likewise to the small rain,
And to the great rain of his strength.
He [f]sealeth up the hand of every man;
That all men may know his work.
Then the beasts go into [g]dens,
And remain in their [g][h]places.
[f]Out of the south cometh [i]the whirlwind:
And [e]cold out of the [f]north.
By the breath of God [k]frost is given:
And [l]the breadth of the waters is straitened.

Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud:
He scattereth [f]his bright cloud:
And it is turned round about by his [m]counsels:
[n]That they may do whatsoever he commandeth them
Upon the face of [o]the world in the earth.
He causeth it to come, whether [p]for [f]correction,
Or [q]for his land, or [r]for mercy.

Hearken unto this, O Job:
Stand still, and [s]consider the wondrous works of God.
Dost thou know when God disposed them,
And caused [t]the light of his cloud to shine?
Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds,
The wondrous works of him which is [u]perfect in [x]knowledge?

How thy garments are warm,
When he quieteth the earth by [y]the south wind?

[t] So ver. 11. [u] ch. 36. 4. Comp. 1 Sam. 2. 3. [x] See ch. 32. 6. [y] See Deut. 33. 23.

Hast thou with him [z]spread out the sky,
Which is strong, and as a [a]molten looking glass?
Teach us what we shall say unto him; for we cannot order [b]our speech [c]by reason of [d]darkness.
Shall it be told him that I speak?
If a man speak, surely he shall be [e]swallowed up.

And now men see not the bright [f]light
Which is in the clouds:
But the wind passeth, and cleanseth them.
[f]Fair weather cometh out of the north:
[g]With God is terrible majesty.
Touching the Almighty, [h]we cannot find him out: he is [i]excellent in power,
And in [k]judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict.
[l]Men do therefore [m]fear him:
He [n]respecteth not any that are [o]wise of [p]heart.

XXXVIII. Then the LORD [a]answered Job out of [b]the whirlwind, and said,
Who is this that darkeneth counsel
By words [c]without knowledge?
[d]Gird up now thy loins like a man;
[e]For I will demand of thee, and [f]answer thou me.

[f]Where wast thou when I laid [g]the foundations of the earth?
Declare, [f]if thou hast understanding.
Who [h]hath laid the measures thereof, [i]if thou knowest?
Or who hath stretched the line upon it?
Whereupon are the [f]foundations thereof [f]fastened?
Or who laid [k]the corner stone thereof;
When [l]the morning stars [k]sang together,
And all [m]the sons of God [k]shouted for joy?

Or who [n]shut up the sea with doors,
When it [o]brake forth, as if it had issued out of the womb?
When I [h]made the cloud the garment thereof,
And [p]thick darkness a swaddling band for it,

And [k]where the slain are, there is she.

Moreover the LORD [a]answered Job, and said,
Shall he that [b]contendeth with the Almighty instruct him?
He that reproveth God, let him answer it.

Then Job answered the LORD, and said,
Behold, [c]I am vile; what shall I answer thee?
[d]I will lay my hand upon my mouth.
[e]Once have I spoken; but I will not answer:
Yea, [e]twice; but I will proceed no further.

Then answered the LORD unto Job out of [f]the whirlwind, and said,
[g]Gird up thy loins now like a man:
[h]I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
[i]Wilt thou also disannul my judgment?
Wilt thou condemn me, [k]that thou mayest be righteous?
Hast thou an arm like God?
Or, canst thou [l]thunder with a voice like him?

Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency;
And [m]array thyself with glory and beauty.
Cast abroad [n]the rage of thy wrath:
And [o]behold every one that is proud, and abase him.
[o]Look on every one that is proud, and [o]bring him low;
And tread down the wicked [p]in their place.
[q]Hide them [q][r]in the dust together;
And bind their faces in secret.
Then will I also confess unto thee
That [s]thine own right hand can save thee.

Behold now [t]behemoth,
Which I made with thee;
He eateth [t]grass as an ox.
Lo now, his strength is in his loins,
And his force is in the navel of his belly.
[u]He moveth his tail like a cedar:
The sinews of his stones are [u]wrapt together.
His bones are as strong pieces of brass;
His bones are like bars of iron.

He is the [w]chief of the [x]ways of God:
He that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.
Surely the mountains bring him forth food,
Where all the beasts of the field play.
He lieth under the shady trees,
In the covert of the reed, and [y]fens.
The shady trees cover him with their shadow;
The [z]willows of the brook compass him about.
Behold, [a]he drinketh up a river, and [a]hasteth not:
He trusteth that he can [b]draw up Jordan into his mouth.
[c]He taketh it with his eyes:
His nose pierceth through snares.

XLI.

Canst thou draw out [l]leviathan with a [a]hook?
Or his tongue with a cord [t]which thou lettest down?
Canst thou [b]put a [c]hook into his nose? 2
Or bore his jaw through with a [b]thorn?
Will he make many supplications unto thee? 3
Will he speak soft words unto thee?
Will he [d]make a covenant with thee? 4
Wilt thou take him for a servant [e]for ever?
Wilt thou [f]play with him as with a bird? 5
Or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens.

Shall [g]the companions [h]make a banquet of him? 6
Shall they [i]part him among the [k]merchants?
Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? 7
Or his head with fish spears?
Lay thine hand upon him, 8
Remember the battle, do no more.
Behold, the hope of him [l]is in vain: 9
Shall [m]not one be [n]cast down even at the sight of him?

None is so [o]fierce that dare stir him up: 10
Who then is able to stand before me?
[p]Who hath [pp]prevented me, that I should repay him? 11
[q]Whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine.

I will not conceal his [r]parts, 12
Nor his power, nor his comely proportion.
Who can discover [s]the face of his garment? 13
Or who can come to him [l]with his double bridle?
Who can open the doors of his face? 14
His teeth are [t]terrible round about.

His [t]scales are his pride, 15
Shut up together as with a close seal.
One is so near to another, 16
That no air can come between them.
They are [u]joined one to another, 17
They [x]stick together, that they cannot be sundered.

By his neesings a [y]light doth shine, 18
And his eyes are like [z]the eyelids of the morning.
Out of his mouth go burning lamps, 19
And sparks of fire leap out.

Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, 20
As out of a [a]seething pot or [b]caldron.
His breath [cc]kindleth coals, 21
And a flame goeth out of his mouth.

In his neck remaineth strength, 22
And [t]sorrow is turned into joy before him.
[r]The flakes of his flesh are [u]joined together: 23
They are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved.
His heart is as firm as a stone; 24
Yea, as hard as [e]a piece of the nether millstone.
When he raiseth up himself, the [d]mighty are afraid: 25
By reason of breakings they purify themselves.

The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold: 26
The spear, the dart, nor the [l]habergeon.
He esteemeth iron as straw, 27
And brass as rotten wood.
The [e]arrow cannot make him flee: 28
Slingstones are turned with him into stubble.
Darts are counted as stubble: 29
He laugheth at the shaking of a [f]spear.
[t]Sharp stones are under him: 30
He spreadeth [g]sharp pointed things upon the mire.
He maketh [h]the deep to [i]boil like a pot: 31
He maketh the sea like a pot of ointment.
He maketh a path to shine after him; 32
One would think [h]the deep to be hoary.
[k]Upon earth there is not his [l]like, 33
[l]Who is made without fear.
He beholdeth all high things: 34
He is a king over all [m]the children of pride.

Then Job answered the LORD, and said, XLII.

I know that thou [a]canst do every thing, 2
And that [l]no [b]thought can be [c]withholden from thee.
[d]Who is he that hideth counsel 3
Without knowledge?
Therefore have I uttered that I understood not;
[c]Things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak: 4
[f]I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

I have heard of thee [g]by the hearing of the ear:
But now mine eye seeth thee.
[h]Wherefore I abhor [i]myself, and repent
In [k]dust and [k]ashes.

And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to [m]Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is [n]right, as my servant Job hath. Therefore take unto you now [o]seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and [p]offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall [q]pray for you: for [r]him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is [n]right, like my servant Job. So [m]Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted [r]Job. And the LORD [r]turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD [r]gave Job [s]twice as much as he had before. Then came there unto him all his [t]brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his [t]acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they [u]bemoaned him, and [u]comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him [x]a piece of money, and every one an [y]earring of gold.

So the LORD blessed [z]the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had [a]fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses. [b]He had also seven sons and three daughters. And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch. And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and [c]their father gave them inheritance among their brethren. After this lived Job an hundred and forty years, and [d]saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations. So Job died, being old and [e]full of days.

PSALM I.

BLESSED is the man
That [a]walketh not in the counsel of the [‖]ungodly,
Nor standeth in the way of sinners,
Nor [b]sitteth in the seat of the [c]scornful.
But [d]his delight is in the law of the LORD; 2
And [e]in his law doth he meditate day and night.
And he shall be [f]like a tree planted 3
by the rivers of water,
That bringeth forth his fruit in his season;
[g]His leaf also shall not [†]wither;
And whatsoever he doeth shall [h]prosper.
The ungodly are not so: 4
But are [i]like the chaff which the wind driveth away.
Therefore the ungodly shall not [j]stand 5
in the judgment,
Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
For [k]the LORD knoweth the way of 6
the righteous:
But the way [l]of the ungodly shall perish.

PSALM II.

B. C. 1047?
[a]Why do [b]the heathen [‖]rage,
And the people [†]imagine a vain thing?
The [c]kings of the earth set themselves, 2
And the [c]rulers take counsel together,
Against the LORD, and against his [d]anointed, [e]saying,
Let us [f]break their bands asunder, 3
And cast away their cords from us.
He that [g]sitteth in the heavens shall 4 [h]laugh:
The LORD shall [hi]have them in derision.
Then shall he speak unto them in his 5
wrath,
And [‖]vex them in his sore displeasure.
Yet have I [†]set my king 6
[†]Upon my holy hill of Zion.
I will declare [‖]the decree: 7
The LORD hath said unto me, [k]Thou art my Son;
This day have I begotten thee.
Ask of me, 8
And I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance,
And [l]the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.
Thou shalt [m]break them [n]with a rod 9
of iron;
Thou shalt dash them in pieces [o]like a potter's vessel.
Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: 10
Be instructed, ye judges of the earth.
Serve the LORD with fear, 11
And rejoice with [p]trembling.
[q]Kiss the [r]Son, lest he be angry, 12
And ye perish from the way,
[s]When his wrath is kindled but a little:
[t]Blessed are [u]all they that put their trust in him.

PSALM IV.

To the ‖chief Musician on *Neginoth,
A Psalm of David.

Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness:
Thou hast [a]enlarged me when I was in distress;
[‖]Have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.
O ye sons of men, how long will ye 2
turn my glory into shame?
How long will ye love vanity, and seek after [b]leasing? Selah.
But know that the LORD hath [c]set 3
apart him that is [cc]godly for himself:
The LORD will hear when I call unto him.
[d]Stand in awe, and sin not: 4
[e]Commune with your own heart[ee] upon your bed, and be still. Selah.
[f]Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, 5
And [g]put your trust in the LORD.
There be many that say, Who will 6
shew us any good?
LORD, [h]lift thou up [i]the light of thy countenance upon us.

Give ear to my words, O LORD,
Consider my [a]meditation.

[*] Comp. Ps. 87. 7 (Heb.).

2 Hearken unto the voice of my cry, [aa]my King, and my God:
For [b]unto thee will I pray.
3 My voice shalt thou hear [c]in the morning, O LORD;
In the morning will I direct [d]my prayer unto thee, and will [e]look up.
4 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness:
Neither shall evil dwell with thee.
5 The [f]foolish shall not stand [†]in thy sight:
Thou hatest all workers of iniquity.
6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak [g]leasing:
The LORD will abhor [†]the bloody and deceitful man.
7 But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy:
And in thy fear [gg]will I worship [h]toward [†]thy holy temple.
8 [i]Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness because of [†]mine enemies;
[j]Make thy way straight before my face.
9 For there is no [‖]faithfulness [†]in their mouth;
[jj]Their inward part is [†]very wickedness;
[k]Their throat is [l]an open sepulchre;
[m]They flatter with their tongue.
10 [‖]Destroy thou them, O God;
Let them fall [‖]by their own counsels;
Cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions;
For they have rebelled against thee.
11 But let [n]all those that put their trust in thee [o]rejoice:
Let them ever shout for joy, because [†]thou defendest them:
Let them also that love thy name [p]be joyful in thee.

O LORD my God, [a] in thee do I put my trust:
[b] Save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me:
Lest he [c] tear my soul like a lion,
Rending it in pieces, while there is [†] none to deliver.
O LORD my God, [d] if I have done this;
If there be [e] iniquity in my hands;
If I have rewarded evil unto [ee] him that was at peace with me;
(Yea, [f] I have delivered him that without cause is mine enemy:)
Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it;
Yea, let him [g] tread down my life upon the earth,
And lay mine honour in the dust. Selah.

[l] Judge me, O LORD, [l] according to my righteousness,
And according to mine integrity that is [m] in me.
O let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just:
[n] For the righteous God trieth [o] the hearts and reins.
[p] My defence is of God,
Which saveth [p] the upright in heart.
[‖] God judgeth the righteous,
And God is angry with the wicked every day.
If he turn not, he will [q] whet his sword;
He hath [r] bent his bow, and [s] made it ready.
He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death;
He ordaineth [t] his arrows against [u] the persecutors.
Behold, he travaileth with [v] iniquity,
And hath [v] conceived mischief,
And [v] brought forth falsehood.
[†] He made a pit, and digged it,
And [w] is fallen into the ditch which he made.

countenance, will not seek after [d] God:
[‖] God is not in all his [e] thoughts.
His ways are always grievous; 5 [f] Thy judgments are far above out of his sight:
As for all his enemies, [g] he puffeth at them.
[h] He hath said in his heart, [i] I shall 6 not be moved:
[j] For I shall [†] never be in adversity.
[jj] His mouth is full of cursing 7
and [†] deceit and [k] fraud:
[l] Under his tongue is [m] mischief and [‖] vanity.
He sitteth in the lurking places of 8
the villages:
[n] In the secret places doth he murder
the innocent:
His eyes [†] are privily set against [o] the poor.
[p] He lieth in wait [†] secretly [q] as a lion 9
in his [r] den:
He lieth in wait to catch the
poor:
He doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into [s] his net.
[†] He croucheth, and [†] humbleth him- 10
self,
That [o] the poor may fall [‖] by his strong ones.
[h] He hath said in his heart, God hath 11 forgotten:
[u] He hideth his face; [x] he will never see it.
(ק) Arise, O LORD; O God, lift up 12
thine hand:
Forget not the [‖] humble.
Wherefore doth the wicked [y] contemn 13
God?
[h] He hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not [z] require it.
(ר) Thou hast seen it; for thou be- 14
holdest mischief and spite,
[a] To requite it with thy hand:
[o] The poor [†b] committeth himself unto
thee;
[c] Thou art the helper of the fatherless.
(ש) [d] Break thou the arm of the 15
wicked and the evil man:
[z] Seek out his wickedness till thou find none.

PSALM XI.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

About B.C. 1060.

[a] In the LORD put I my trust:
[b] How say ye to my soul,
Flee as a bird to your mountain?
2 For lo, [c] the wicked bend their bow,
[d] They make ready their arrow upon the string,
That they may [†] privily shoot at [c] the upright in heart.
3 If [f] the foundations be destroyed,
What [g] can the righteous do?
4 [h] The LORD is in [i] his holy temple, [k] The LORD'S throne is in heaven:
[l] His eyes behold,
His eyelids try, the children of men.
5 The LORD [m] trieth the righteous:
But the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.
6 Upon the wicked he shall rain [‡] snares, fire and [n] brimstone,
And [‖] a [o] horrible tempest: this shall be [p] the portion of their cup.
7 For the righteous LORD [q] loveth righteousness;
[r] His countenance doth behold the upright.

To the [‖] chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

1 [a]How long wilt thou forget me, O LORD? [a]for ever?
How long wilt thou [aa]hide thy face from me?
2 How long shall I take counsel in my soul,
Having sorrow in my heart daily?
How long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?
3 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God:
[b]Lighten mine eyes, [c]lest I sleep the sleep of death;
4 [d]Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him;
And those that trouble me rejoice when [c]I am moved.
5 But I have [f]trusted in thy mercy;
[fg]My heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.
6 I will sing unto the LORD, because he hath [h]dealt bountifully with me.

PSALM XIV.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

1 [a]The [b]fool hath said in his heart, [c]There is no God.
[d]They are corrupt, they have done abominable works,
[c]There is none that doeth good.
2 The LORD [f]looked down from heaven upon the children of men,
To see if there were [e]any [g]that did understand, and [h]seek God.
3 [e]They are all gone aside, they are all together become [t]filthy:
There is none that doeth good, no, not one.
4 Have all the workers of iniquity [i]no knowledge?
Who [k]eat up my people as they eat bread,
And [l]call not upon the LORD.
5 [m]There [t]were they in great fear:
[n]For God is in the generation of the righteous.
6 [n]You have shamed the counsel of the poor,
Because the LORD is his [o]refuge.
7 [t]O that the salvation of Israel were come [p]out of Zion!
When the LORD [q]bringeth back the captivity of his people,
Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

A [*]Prayer of David.

Hear [f]the right, O LORD, [a]attend

Give ear unto my prayer, that goeth
[f]not out of feigned lips.
Let my sentence come forth [aa]from 2
thy presence;
Let thine eyes behold [b]the things that are equal.
Thou hast [c]proved mine heart; thou 3 hast [d]visited me [e]in the night;
Thou hast [f]tried me, and shalt find
nothing;
I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.
Concerning the works of men, by the 4
word of thy lips
I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.
[g]Hold up my goings in thy [h]paths, 5
That my footsteps [f]slip not.

LORD,
From men of [s]the world, [t]which have their portion in this life,
And whose belly thou fillest with thy

PSALM XVIII.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David 1
[a]the servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of [b]this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: And he said, [bb]I will love thee, O LORD, my strength.
The LORD is my rock, and my for- 2
tress, and my deliverer;
My God, [f]my strength, [c]in whom I will trust;
My buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

[a] Ps. 36, title.
[b] To ver. 50, 2 Sam. 22. 1—51, where see references.
[bb] So Ps. 116. 1.
[f] Heb. my rock. ver. 31, 46. Ps. 19. 14. & 73. 26. & 144. 1. See Deut. 32. 4.
[c] Cited Heb. 2. 13.

I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised:
So shall I be saved from mine enemies.
The [l]sorrows of death compassed me,
And the floods of [t]ungodly men made me afraid.
The [l]sorrows of hell compassed me about:
The snares of death [d]prevented me.
[dd]In my distress I called upon the LORD,
And cried unto my God:
He heard my voice out of his temple,
And my cry came before him, even into his ears.
Then the earth shook and trembled;
The foundations also [e]of the hills moved
And were shaken, because he was wroth.
There went up a smoke [t]out of his nostrils,
And [f]fire out of his mouth devoured:
Coals were kindled by it.
He bowed the heavens also, and came down:
And darkness was under his feet.
And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly:
Yea, he did [g]fly upon the wings of the wind.
He made darkness his secret place;
His pavilion round about him
Were [h]dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.
At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed,
[i]Hail-stones and coals of fire.
The LORD also thundered in the heavens,
And the Highest gave his voice;
[i]Hail-stones and coals of fire.
Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them;
And he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.
Then [j]the channels of waters were seen,
And the foundations of the world were discovered
At thy rebuke, O LORD,
At the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.
He sent from above, he took me,
He drew me out of [l]many waters.
He delivered me from my strong enemy,
And from them which hated me: [jj]for they were too strong for me.
They [d]prevented me in the day of my calamity:
But the LORD was my stay.
He brought me forth also into a large place;
He delivered me, because he delighted in me.
The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness;
According to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.
For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.
For all his judgments were before me,
And [k]I did not put away his statutes from me.
I was also upright [t]before him,
And I kept myself from mine iniquity.
Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness,
According to the cleanness of my hands [t]in his eyesight.
With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful;
With an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright;
With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure;
And with the froward thou wilt [l]shew thyself froward.
For thou wilt save the afflicted people;
But wilt bring down [l]high looks.
For thou wilt [ll]light my [l]candle:
The LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.
For by thee I have [l]run through a troop;
And by my God have I leaped over a wall.
As for God, his way is perfect:
The word of the LORD is [l]tried:
He is a buckler to all those that trust in him.
For who is God save the LORD?
Or who is a rock save our God?
It is God that [mn]girdeth me with strength,
And [n]maketh my way perfect.
He maketh my feet like hinds' feet,
And setteth me upon my high places.

So that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.
Thou hast also given me the shield 35
of thy salvation:
[o] And thy right hand hath [p]holden me up,
And [‖] thy gentleness hath made me great.
Thou hast enlarged my steps under 36
me,
That [†] my feet did not slip.
I have pursued mine enemies, and 37
overtaken them:
Neither did I turn again till they were consumed.
I have wounded them that they were 38
not able to rise:
They are fallen under my feet.
For thou hast girded me with strength 39
unto the battle:
Thou hast [†] subdued under me those that rose up against me.
Thou hast also given me the necks of 40
mine enemies;
That I might destroy them that hate me.
[q] They cried, but there was none to 41
save them:
Even unto the LORD, but he answered them not.
Then did I beat them small as the 42
dust before the wind:
I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets.
Thou hast delivered me from the 43
strivings of the people;
And thou hast made me the head of the heathen:
A people whom I have not known shall serve me.
[†] As soon as they hear of me, they 44
shall obey me:
[†] The strangers shall [‖] submit themselves unto me.
[†] The strangers shall fade away, 45
And be afraid out of their close places.
The LORD liveth; and blessed be my 46
rock;
And let the God of my salvation be exalted.
It is God that [†] avengeth me, 47
And [r] subdueth the people under me.
He delivereth me from mine enemies: 48
Yea, thou liftest me up above those that rise up against me:
Thou hast delivered me from the [†] violent man.

[s] Therefore will I [‖t] give thanks 49 unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen,
And sing praises unto thy name.
Great deliverance giveth he to his 50
king;
And sheweth mercy to [u] his anointed,

PSALM XIX.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

The [a] heavens declare the glory of God;
And the firmament sheweth his handywork.
2 Day unto day [aa] uttereth speech,
And night unto night [b] sheweth knowledge.
3 There is no speech nor language,
[‖] Where their voice is not heard.
4 [c‖] Their [d] line is gone out through all the earth,
And their words to the end of the world.
In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,
5 [e] Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his [f] chamber,
And [g] rejoiceth [e] as a strong man to run a race.
6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven,
And his [h] circuit unto the ends of it:
And there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.
7 The [‖] law of the LORD is perfect, [‖] converting the soul:
The [i] testimony of the LORD is [i] sure, making wise [j] the simple.
8 The [k] statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart:
[l] The commandment of the LORD is pure, [m] enlightening the eyes.
9 The fear of the LORD is [l] clean, enduring for ever:
The judgments of the LORD are [†] true and righteous altogether.
10 More to be desired are they than [n] gold, yea, than much [o] fine gold:
[p] Sweeter also than honey and [†] the [q] honeycomb.
11 Moreover by them is thy servant [r] warned:
And in keeping of them there is great reward.

[a]My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?
Why art thou so far [b]from helping me, and from the words of [c]my roaring?
2 O my God, I cry [d]in the daytime, but thou hearest not;
And in the night season, and [e]am not silent.

But thou art holy, O thou that in- 3
habitest the [c]praises of Israel.
Our fathers trusted in thee: 4
They trusted, and thou didst deliver
them.
They [d]cried unto thee, and were de- 5
livered:
[e]They trusted in thee, and were not confounded.
But I am [f]a worm, and no man: 6
A [ff]reproach of men, and [g]despised of the people.
[h]All they that see me laugh me to 7 scorn:
They [i]shoot out the lip, [i]they shake
the head, saying,
[j]He trusted on the LORD that [k]he 8
would deliver him:
Let him deliver him, [l]seeing he [l]delighted in him.
But thou art he that [mn]took me out 9
of the womb:
Thou [l]didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts.
I was [n]cast upon thee from the 10
womb:
Thou art my God [o]from my mother's belly.
Be not far from me; for trouble is near; 11
For there is [t]none to help.
Many bulls have compassed me: 12 [p]Strong [q]bulls of Bashan have [r]beset me round.
[s]They [t]gaped upon me with their 13 mouths,
As a ravening and a roaring lion.
I am [ss]poured out like water, 14
And all my bones are [l]out of joint:
[t]My heart is [u]like wax;
It is [t]melted in the midst of my bowels.
My strength is [x]dried up like a pot- 15
sherd;
And [y]my tongue cleaveth to my jaws;
And thou hast brought me into the dust of death.
For [z]dogs have compassed me: 16
The assembly of the wicked have [zz]inclosed me:
[a]They pierced my hands and my feet.
I may tell all my bones: 17
[b]They look and stare upon me.
[c]They part my garments among 18
them,
And cast lots upon my vesture.
But be not thou far [d]from me, O LORD: 19
O my strength, haste thee to help me.
Deliver my soul from the sword; 20 [t]My darling [t]from the power of the [e]dog.
[f]Save me from the lion's mouth: 21
For thou hast [g]heard me from the horns of [h]the unicorns.
[i]I will declare thy name unto 22
[j]my brethren:
In the midst of the congregation
will I praise thee.
[k]Ye that fear the LORD, praise him; 23
All ye the seed of Jacob, [l]glorify
him;
And fear him, all ye the seed of Israel.
For he hath not despised nor ab- 24
horred the affliction of the afflicted; Neither hath he hid his face from
him;
But [m]when he cried unto him, he heard.
My praise shall be of thee [n]in the 25
great congregation:
[o]I will pay my vows before them that fear him.
[p]The meek shall eat and be satisfied: 26
They shall praise the LORD that seek
him:
[q]Your heart shall [r]live for ever.
[s]All the ends of the world shall re- 27 member and turn unto the LORD:
And all the [t]kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.
[u]For the kingdom is the LORD's: 28
And he is the governor among the nations.
All they that be [v]fat upon earth shall 29
eat and worship:
All they that go down to the dust
shall [w]bow before him:
And none can keep alive his own soul.
A seed shall serve him; 30 [x]It shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.
[y]They shall come, and shall declare 31
his righteousness
[z]Unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done this.

PSALM XXIV.

A Psalm of David.

[a] The earth is the LORD'S, and [b] the fulness thereof;
The world, and they that dwell therein.
For he hath [c] founded it [d] upon the seas,
And established it upon the floods.
[e] Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD?
And who shall stand in his [f] holy place?
[g] [f] He that hath [h] clean hands, and [i] a pure heart;
Who hath not [j] lift up his soul unto vanity,
Nor sworn deceitfully.
He shall receive the blessing from the LORD,
And righteousness from [k] the God of his salvation.
This is the generation of them that seek him,
That [l] seek thy face, [f] O Jacob. Selah.

[m] Lift up your heads, O ye gates;
And be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors;
And [n] the King of glory shall come in.
Who is this King of glory?
The LORD strong and mighty,
The LORD mighty in battle.
Lift up your heads, O ye gates;
Even lift them up, ye everlasting doors;
And the King of glory shall come in.
Who is this King of glory?
The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.

PSALM XXV.

A Psalm of David.

(א) Unto thee, O LORD, do I [a] lift up my soul.
O my God, (ב) I [b] trust in thee: [c] let me not be ashamed,
[d] Let not mine enemies triumph over me.
(ג) Yea, let [c] none that wait on thee be ashamed:
[cc] Let them be ashamed which [f] transgress without cause.
(ד) [g] Shew me thy ways, O LORD;
[gg] Teach me thy paths.
(ה) [h] Lead me in thy truth, and teach me:
For thou art the God of my salvation;
On thee do I wait all the day.
(ו) Remember, O LORD, [f] thy tender mercies and [i] thy lovingkindnesses;
For they have been ever of old.
(ח) Remember not [j] the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions:
[k] According to thy mercy remember thou me
For thy goodness' sake, O LORD.
(ט) [kk] Good and upright is the LORD:
[h] Therefore will he teach sinners in the way.
(י) The meek will he [l] guide in judgment:
And the meek will he [l] teach his way.
(כ) All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth
Unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.
(ל) [m] For thy name's sake, O LORD,
Pardon mine iniquity; for it is great.
(מ) What man is he that feareth the LORD?
[n] Him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.
(נ) His soul [l] shall [o] dwell at ease;
And [oo] his seed [p] shall inherit the earth.
(ס) [q] The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him;
[r] And he will shew them his covenant.
(ע) [r] Mine eyes are ever towards the LORD;
For he shall pluck my feet out of [s] the net.
(פ) [t] Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me;
For I am [u] desolate and afflicted.
(צ) The troubles of my heart are enlarged:
O bring thou me out of my distresses.

PSALM XXVI.

A Psalm of David.

aJudge me, O LORD; for I have bwalked in mine integrity:
cI have trusted also in the LORD; therefore I shall not dslide.
eExamine me, O LORD, and prove me;
fTry gmy reins and my heart.
For thy lovingkindness is before mine eyes:
And hI have walked in thy truth.
iI have not sat with kvain persons,
Neither will I go in with dissemblers.
I have lhated the congregation of evildoers;
And iwill not sit with the wicked.
mI will wash mine hands in innocency:
So will I compass thine altar, O LORD:
That I may npublish with the voice of thanksgiving,
And tell of all thy owondrous works.
pLORD, I have loved the habitation of thy house,
And qthe place twhere thine honour dwelleth.
‖Gather not my soul with sinners,
Nor my life with †bloody men:
In whose hands is mischief,
And their right hand is †full of rbribes.
But as for me, I will swalk in mine integrity:
Redeem me, and be merciful unto me.
My foot standeth in an teven place:
uIn the congregations will I bless the LORD.

PSALM XXVII.

A Psalm of David.

The LORD is amy light and bmy salvation; cwhom shall I fear?
The LORD is bthe strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, †came upon me to deat up my flesh,
They stumbled and fell.
eThough a host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear:
Though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.
fOne thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after;
That I may gdwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life,
To behold ‖the hbeauty of the LORD, and to inquire in his temple.
For in the time of trouble he shall ihide me in his pavilion:
In the secret of his tabernacle shall he ihide me;
He shall jset me up upon a rock.
And now shall kmine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me:
Therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices †of joy;
I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD.
lHear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice:
lHave mercy also upon me, and answer me.
‖When thou saidst, mSeek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek.
nHide not thy face far from me;
Put not thy servant away in anger:
Thou hast been my help; leave me not,
Neither forsake me, oO God of my salvation.
When my father and pmy mother forsake me,
Then the LORD †will take me up.
qTeach me thy way, O LORD,
And lead me in †a plain path, because of †mine enemies.
rDeliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies:
For sfalse witnesses are risen up against me, and such as tbreathe out cruelty.
I had fainted, unless I had believed
To see the goodness of the LORD uin the land of the living.
xWait on the LORD:
yBe of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart:
Wait, I say, on the LORD.

PSALM XXVIII.

A Psalm of David.

Unto thee will I cry, O LORD, [a]my rock; [b]be not silent [†]to me:
Lest, if thou be silent [†]to me, [c]I become like [cd]them that go down into the pit.
[ii]Hear the voice of my supplications, 2
when I cry unto thee,
When I [dd]lift up my hands [‖e]toward thy holy [f]oracle.
Draw me not away with the wicked, 3
and with [ff]the workers of iniquity,
[g]Which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts.
[h]Give them according to their deeds, 4
And according to the wickedness of their endeavours:
Give them after the work of their hands;
Render to them [hh]their desert.
Because [i]they regard not the works of 5
the LORD,
Nor the operation of his hands,
He shall destroy them, and not build them up.

Blessed be the LORD, because he hath 6
[ii]heard the voice of my supplications.
The LORD is my strength and my [j]shield; 7
My heart [k]trusted in him, and I am helped:
Therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth;
And with my song will I praise him.
The LORD is [‖]their strength, 8
And he is the [†]saving strength of his anointed.
Save [l]thy people, 9
And bless [l]thine inheritance:
[‖]Feed them also, and lift them up for ever.

PSALM XXIX.

A Psalm of David.

Give unto the LORD, O [†]ye mighty,
[a]Give unto the LORD glory and strength.
[a]Give unto the LORD [†a]the glory due 2 unto his name;
Worship the LORD [‖]in [b]the beauty of holiness.
The voice of the LORD is upon the 3 waters:
[c]The God of glory thundereth:
The LORD is upon [‖d]many waters.
The voice of the LORD is [†]powerful; 4
The voice of the LORD is [†]full of majesty.
The voice of the LORD breaketh the 5 cedars;
Yea, the LORD breaketh [e]the cedars of Lebanon.
He maketh them also to [f]skip like a 6
calf;
Lebanon and [g]Sirion like a young [h]unicorn.
The voice of the LORD [†]divideth the 7 flames of fire.
The voice of the LORD shaketh the 8
wilderness;
The LORD shaketh the wilderness of [i]Kadesh.
The voice of the LORD maketh [k]the 9
hinds [‖]to calve,
And discovereth the forests:
And in his temple [‖]doth every one speak of his glory.
The LORD sitteth upon [l]the flood; 10
Yea, [m]the LORD sitteth King for ever.
The LORD will give [n]strength unto his 11
people;
The LORD will bless his people with peace.

PSALM XXX.

B. C. 1042.

A [*]Psalm and Song [†]at the dedication of the house of David.

[a]I will extol thee, O LORD; for thou hast lifted me up,
And hast [aa]not made my foes to rejoice over me.
O LORD my God, [b]I cried unto thee, 2
and thou hast [bb]healed me.
O LORD, [c]thou hast brought up my 3 soul from [d]the grave:
Thou hast kept me alive, that I should not [e]go down to the pit.
Sing unto the LORD, O ye [f]saints of 4 his,
And give thanks [‖]at the remembrance of his holiness.
For [g†]his anger endureth but a mo- 5
ment; [h]in his favour is life:
[i]Weeping may endure [†]for a night,
but [†]joy cometh [j]in the morning.
And [k]in my prosperity I said, 6
[l]I shall never be moved.
LORD, by thy favour thou hast [†]made 7
my mountain to stand strong:
[m]Thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled.
I cried to thee, O LORD; 8
And [mm]unto the LORD I made supplication.

declare thy truth?
[o]Hear, O LORD, and have mercy up- 10
on me:
LORD, be thou my helper.
Thou hast turned for me my mourn- 11
ing [p]into dancing:
Thou hast put off my [q]sackcloth, and girded me with gladness;
To the end that [l]my glory may sing 12
praise to thee, and not be silent.
O LORD my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

PSALM XXXI.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

[a]In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust;
[a]Let me never be ashamed:
[b]Deliver me in thy righteousness.
[c]Bow down thine ear to me; deliver 2
me speedily:
Be thou [t]my strong rock,
For a house of [d]defence to save me.
[d]For thou art my rock and my for- 3
tress;
Therefore [e]for thy name's sake [f]lead me, and [g]guide me.
[h]Pull me out of the [i]net that they 4
have laid privily for me:
For [u]thou art my strength.
[j]Into thine hand I commit my 5 spirit:
Thou hast redeemed me, O LORD
[k]God of truth.
[l]I have hated them that [m]regard ly- 6
ing vanities:
But [n]I trust in the LORD.
I will be glad and rejoice in thy 7
mercy:
For thou hast considered my trouble;
Thou hast [o]known my soul in adver-
sities;
And hast not [p]shut me up into the 8
hand of the enemy:
Thou hast set my feet [q]in a large room.
[r]Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for 9
[rr]I am in trouble:
[s]Mine eye is consumed with grief,
yea, my soul and my belly.
For my life is spent with grief, and 10
my years with sighing:
My strength faileth because of mine [t]iniquity, and [u]my bones are consumed.

I was a reproach among all mine ene- 11
mies,
But [w]especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine [x]acquaintance:
[y]They that did see me without fled from me.
I [z]am forgotten as a dead man out of 12
mind:
I am like [t]a broken vessel.
[a]For I have heard the slander of 13
many:
[ab]Fear was on every side:
While they took counsel together
against me,
They devised to take away my life.
But [c]I trusted in thee, O LORD: 14
I said, Thou art my God.
[d]My times are in thy hand: 15
[e]Deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and [e]from them that persecute me.
[f]Make thy face to shine upon thy 16
servant:
Save me for thy mercy's sake.
[g]Let me not be ashamed, O LORD; 17
for I have called upon thee:
Let the wicked be ashamed, and [h][l]let them be silent in the grave.
Let the lying lips be put to silence; 18
Which speak [t]grievous things [i]proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.
O how great is thy goodness, [k]which 19
thou hast laid up for them that fear
thee;
Which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee
[l]Before the sons of men!
Thou shalt hide them in [m]the secret 20 of thy presence from the pride of
man:
Thou shalt [no]keep them secretly in a pavilion from [o]the strife of tongues.
Blessed be the LORD: for [p]he hath 21 shewed me his marvellous kindness in a [l]strong city.
For [q]I said in my haste, [r]I am cut 22 off [s]from before thine eyes:
Nevertheless thou heardest [ss]the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.
O love the LORD, all ye his [t]saints: 23
For the LORD preserveth the faithful,
And plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.
[u]Be of good courage, and he shall 24
strengthen your heart,
All ye that [x]hope in the LORD.

PSALM XXXII.

‖A Psalm of David, Maschil.

[a]Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD [b]imputeth not iniquity,
And [c]in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 When I kept silence, [d]my bones waxed old
Through my [e]roaring all the day long.

4 For day and night thy [f]hand was heavy upon me:
My [g]moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah.

5 I [h]acknowledged my sin unto thee,
And mine iniquity have I not hid.
[i]I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD;
And thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

6 For this shall every one that is [ii]godly pray unto thee [j]in a time when thou mayest be found:
Surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him.

7 Thou art my [k]hiding place; thou shalt preserve me [l]from trouble;
Thou shalt compass me about with [m]songs of deliverance. Selah.

8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go:
[l]I will guide thee with mine eye.

9 [n]Be ye not as the horse,
Or as the mule, which have no understanding:
[o]Whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle,
Lest they come near unto thee.

10 [p]Many sorrows shall be to the wicked:
But [q]he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about.

11 [r]Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous:
And [s]shout for joy, all ye that are [t]upright in heart.

PSALM XXXIII.

1 Rejoice [a]in the LORD, O ye righteous:
For [b]praise is comely for the upright.

2 Praise the LORD with [c]harp:
Sing unto him with the [c]psaltery and [d]an instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing unto him [e]a new song;
Play skilfully [f]with a loud noise.

4 For the word of the LORD is right;
And all his works are done [ff]in truth.

5 [g]He loveth righteousness and judgment:
[h]The earth is full of the [i]goodness of the LORD.

6 [j]By the word of the LORD were the heavens made;
And [k]all the host of them [l]by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together [m]as a heap:
[n]He layeth up the depth in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD:
Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9 For [o]he spake, and it was done;
He commanded, and it stood fast.

10 [p]The LORD [l]bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought:
He maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11 [q]The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever,
The thoughts of his heart [l]to all generations.

12 [r]Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD;
And the people whom he hath [s]chosen for his own inheritance.

13 [t]The LORD looketh from heaven;
He beholdeth all the sons of men.

14 From [u]the place of his habitation he [w]looketh
Upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

15 He fashioneth their hearts alike;
[x]He [w]considereth all their works.

16 [y]There is no king saved by the multitude of a host:
A mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

17 [z]A horse is a vain thing for safety:
Neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

18 Behold, [a]the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him,
[b]Upon them that hope in his mercy;

19 [c]To deliver their soul from death,
And to keep them alive [d]in famine.

20 [e]Our soul [f]waiteth for the LORD:
He is [g]our help and our shield.

21 For our [h]heart shall rejoice in him,
Because we have [i]trusted in his holy name.

22 Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us,
According as we [b]hope in thee.

PSALM XXXIV.

A Psalm of David, when [a]he changed his behaviour before ‖Abimelech; who [b]drove him away, and [b]he departed.

(א) I will bless the LORD [c]at all times:
His praise shall continually be in my mouth.
(ב) [d]My soul shall [e]make her boast in the LORD:
The humble shall hear thereof, and [ee]be glad.
(ג) O [f]magnify the LORD with me,
And let us exalt his name together.
(ד) I [g]sought the LORD, and he [h]heard me,
And delivered me from all my fears.
(ה) They looked unto him, and ‖were lightened:
(ו) And their faces were not ashamed.
(ז) This poor man [h]cried, and the LORD heard him,
And [i]saved him out of all his troubles.
(ח) [k]The angel of the LORD [l]encampeth
Round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.
(ט) O [m]taste and see that [mm]the LORD is good:
[n]Blessed is the man that [o]trusteth in him.
(י) O fear the LORD, ye his saints:
For there is no want to them that fear him.
(כ) [p]The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger:
But [q]they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing.
(ל) [qq]Come, ye children, hearken unto me:
I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
(מ) [r]What man is he that desireth life,
And loveth many days, that he may [s]see good?
(נ) [t]Keep thy tongue from evil,
And thy lips from [u]speaking guile.
(ס) [w]Depart from evil, and do good;
Seek peace, and [x]pursue it.
(ע) [y]The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous,
And [z]his ears are open unto their cry.
(פ) [a]The face of the LORD is against them that do evil,
[b]To cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.
(צ) [bb]The righteous cry, and [c]the LORD heareth,
[c]And delivereth them out of all their troubles.
(ק) [d]The LORD is nigh [f]unto them that are of a [e]broken heart;
And saveth such as be [f]of a contrite spirit.
(ר) [f]Many are the afflictions of the righteous:
[g]But the LORD delivereth him out of them all.
(ש) He keepeth all his bones:
[h]Not one of them is broken.
(ת) [i]Evil shall slay the wicked:
And they that hate the righteous [l]shall be desolate.
(פ) *The LORD [k]redeemeth the soul of his servants:
And none of them that trust in him ‖shall be desolate.

PSALM XXXV.

A Psalm of David.

[a] Plead my cause, O LORD, [b]with them that strive with me:
Fight against them that fight against me.
Take hold of [c]shield and buckler,
And stand up [d]for mine help.
Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me:
Say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.
[dd] Let them be [ef]confounded and [e]put to shame that seek after my soul:
Let them be [ef]turned back and [e]brought to confusion that devise my hurt.
Let them be [g]as chaff before the wind:
And let the angel of the LORD chase them.
Let their way be [f]dark and [h]slippery:
And let the angel of the LORD persecute them.
For without cause have they [i]hid for me their net in a pit,
Which without cause they have digged for my soul.
[j] Let destruction come upon him [f]at unawares;
And [ik]let his net that he hath hid catch himself:
Into that very destruction let him fall.
And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD:
[l]It shall rejoice in his salvation.

All [m]my bones shall say,
LORD, [n]who is like unto thee,
Which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him,
Yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him?
[o]False witnesses did rise up;
[t]They laid to my charge things that I knew not.
[p]They rewarded me evil for good
To the [t]spoiling of my soul.
But as for me, [q]when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth:
I [u]humbled my soul with fasting;
And my prayer [r]returned into mine own bosom.
I [t]behaved myself [t]as though he had been my friend or brother:
[s]I bowed down heavily, as [s]one that mourneth for his mother.
But in mine [t]adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together:
Yea, the abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not;
They did [t]tear me, and ceased not:
With [u]hypocritical mockers in feasts,
They [x]gnashed upon me with their teeth.
Lord, how long wilt thou [y]look on?
Rescue my soul from their destructions,
[t]My darling from the lions.
[z]I will give thee thanks in the great congregation:
I will praise thee among [t]much people.
[a]Let not them that are mine enemies [t]wrongfully rejoice over me:
[b]Neither let them [c]wink with the eye [d]that hate me [de]without a cause.
For they speak not peace:
But they devise deceitful matters against them that are quiet in the land.
Yea, they [f]opened their mouth wide against me,
And said, [g]Aha, aha, our eye hath seen it.
This [h]thou hast seen, O LORD: [i]keep not silence:
O Lord, [k]be not far from me.
[l]Stir up thyself, and [m]awake [n]to my judgment,
Even unto my cause, my God and my Lord.

[o]Judge me, O LORD my God, according to thy righteousness;
And [p]let them not rejoice over me.
Let them not say in their hearts, [t][q]Ah, so would we have it:
Let them not say, [r]We have swallowed him up.
[s]Let them be ashamed and brought to confusion together that rejoice at mine hurt:
Let them be [t]clothed with shame and dishonour that [u]magnify themselves against me.
[x]Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favour [t]my righteous cause:
Yea, let them [y]say continually, [z]Let the LORD be magnified, [a]Which hath pleasure in the [b]prosperity of his servant.
And [c]my tongue shall speak of thy righteousness
And of thy praise all the day long.

PSALM XXXVI.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David [a]the servant of the LORD.

The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart,
That [b]there is no fear of God before his eyes.
For [c]he flattereth himself in his own eyes,
[f]Until his [g]iniquity be found to be hateful.
The words of his mouth are [g]iniquity and [d]deceit:
[e]He hath left off to be wise, and to do good.
[f]He deviseth [f][g]mischief upon his bed;
He setteth himself in [h]a way that is not good;
[i]He abhorreth not evil.
[j]Thy mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens;
And thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.
Thy righteousness is like [t]the great mountains;
[k]Thy judgments are a great deep:
O LORD, [l]thou preservest man and beast.
How [t]excellent is thy lovingkindness, O God!
Therefore the children of men put their trust [m]under the shadow of thy wings.

PSALM XXXVII.

A Psalm of David.

(א) [a]Fret not thyself because of evil-doers,
Neither [b]be thou envious against the
workers of iniquity.
For they shall soon [c]be cut down 2 [d]like the grass,
And wither as the green herb.

(ב) [e]Trust in the LORD, and do good; 3
So shalt thou dwell in the land, and [f]verily [ee]thou shalt be fed.
[f]Delight thyself also in the LORD; 4
And [g]he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

(ג) [f][h]Commit thy way unto the LORD; 5 [e]Trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.
And [i]he shall bring forth thy righte- 6
ousness as the light,
And thy judgment as [j]the noonday.

(ד) [f]Rest in the LORD, and [k]wait pa- 7
tiently for him:
[a]Fret not thyself because of him [l]who prospereth in his way,
Because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

(ה) [m]Cease from anger, and forsake 8
wrath:
[a]Fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.
[mm]For evildoers shall be cut off: 9
But those that wait upon the LORD,
they shall [n]inherit the earth.

(ו) For [o]yet a little while, and the 10
wicked shall not be:
Yea, thou shalt diligently consider [p]his place, and it shall not be.
But [q]the meek shall [n]inherit the 11
earth;
And shall [f]delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

(ז) The wicked [l]plotteth against the 12
just,
And [r]gnasheth upon him with his teeth.
[s]The Lord shall laugh at him: 13
For he seeth that [t]his day is coming.

(ח) The wicked have drawn out the 14
sword, and have [u]bent their bow,
To cast down [w]the poor and needy,
And to slay [l]such as be of upright conversation.
Their sword shall enter into their 15
own heart,
And [x]their bows shall be broken.

(ט) [y]A little that a righteous man 16 hath
Is better than [z]the riches of many wicked.
For [a]the arms of the wicked shall 17
be broken:
But the LORD [b]upholdeth the righteous.

(י) The LORD [c]knoweth the days of 18
the upright:
And [d]their inheritance shall be for ever.
They shall not be ashamed in the 19
evil time:
And [e]in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

(כ) But the wicked shall perish, 20
And the enemies of the LORD shall be as [t]the fat of lambs:
They shall consume; [f]into smoke shall they consume away.

(ל) The wicked [g]borroweth, and pay- 21
eth not again:
But the righteous [h]sheweth mercy,
and [h]giveth.
[i]For such as be blessed of him [j]shall 22
inherit the earth;
And they that be cursed of him [j]shall be cut off.

(מ) [k]The steps of a good man are 23
[l]ordered by the LORD:
And he delighteth in his way.

PSALM XXXVIII.

A Psalm of David, [*] to bring to remembrance.

O [a] LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath:
Neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.
2 For [b] thine arrows stick fast in me,
And [c] thy hand presseth me sore.
3 There is [d] no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger;
Neither is there any [t] rest in [e] my bones because of my sin.
4 For [f] mine iniquities are gone over mine head:
As a heavy burden they are too [g] heavy for me.
5 My [h] wounds stink and are corrupt
Because of my foolishness.
6 I am [t] troubled; I am [i] bowed down greatly;
[k] I go [i] mourning all the day long.
7 For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease:
And there is [d] no soundness in my flesh.
8 I am feeble and [l] sore broken:
I have [m] roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.
9 Lord, all my desire is before thee;
And [n] my groaning is not hid from thee.
10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me:
As for [o] the light of mine eyes, it also [t] is gone from me.
11 [p] My lovers and my friends [q] stand aloof from my [t] sore;
And [l] my [r] kinsmen [s] stand afar off.
12 They also that seek after my life [t] lay snares for me:
And they that seek my hurt [t] speak [u] mischievous things,
And imagine [x] deceits all the day long.
13 But [y] I, as a deaf man, heard not;
And I was [z] as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.
14 [y] Thus I was as a man that heareth not,
And in whose mouth are no [a] reproofs.
15 For [l] in thee, O LORD, do I hope:
Thou wilt [l] hear, O Lord my God.
16 For I said, Hear me, [b] lest otherwise they should rejoice over me:
When [c] my foot slippeth, they [d] magnify themselves against me.

PSALM XXXIX.

To the chief Musician, even to [*] Jeduthun, A Psalm of David.

I said, I will [a]take heed to my ways,
That [b]I sin not with my tongue:
I will keep [f][c]my mouth with a bridle,
While the wicked is before me.
[d]I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even [dd]from good;
And my sorrow was [f]stirred.
[e]My heart was hot within me,
While I was [f]musing the fire burned:
Then spake I with my tongue,

LORD, [g]make me to know mine end,
And the measure of my days, what it is;
That I may know [h]how [h]frail I am.
Behold, thou hast made my days as a [i]handbreadth;
And [k]mine [l]age is as nothing before thee:
[m]Verily every man [f]at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah.

Surely every man walketh in [f]a vain shew:
[m]Surely they [n]are disquieted in vain:
[o]He heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.
And now, Lord, what wait I for?
[p]My hope is in thee.
Deliver me from all my transgressions:
[q]Make me not the reproach of the foolish.
[r]I was dumb, I opened not my mouth;
[s]Because thou didst it.

PSALM XL.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

I [f][a]waited patiently for the LORD;
And he inclined unto me, and [b]heard my cry.
He brought me up also out of [f]a horrible pit, out of the [c]miry [d]clay,
And [e]set my feet upon a rock, and [f]established my goings.
And he hath put [g]a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God:
Many shall [h]see it, and [h]fear, and shall [i]trust in the LORD.
[k]Blessed is that man that maketh the LORD his trust,
And respecteth not [l]the proud, nor such as [m]turn aside to lies.
Many, O LORD my God, are [n]thy wonderful works which thou hast done,
And [o]thy thoughts which are to us-ward:
[l]They cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee:
If I would declare and speak of them,
[p]They are moe than can be numbered.
[q]Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire;
Mine ears hast thou [f]opened:
Burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.
Then said I, Lo, I come:
In the [r]volume of the book it is [s]written of me,
I delight to do [t]thy will, O my God:
Yea, thy law is [f][u]within my heart.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

[a] Blessed is he that considereth [‖] the poor:
The LORD will [b] deliver him [†] in time of trouble.
The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive;
And he shall be blessed upon the earth:
And [‖] thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.
The LORD will [bb] strengthen him upon the bed of languishing:
Thou wilt [†] make all his bed in his sickness.

And if he come to see me, he [e] speaketh vanity:
His heart gathereth iniquity to itself;
When he goeth abroad, he telleth it.
All that hate me whisper together against me:
Against me do they devise [†] my hurt.
[†] An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him:
And now that he [f] lieth he shall rise up no more.
[g] Yea, [†] mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted,
[h] Which did eat of my bread,
Hath [†] lift up his heel against me.
But thou, O LORD, [c] be merciful unto me,
And raise me up, that I may requite them.
By this I know that thou favourest me,
Because mine enemy doth not triumph over me.
And as for me, [i] thou upholdest me in mine integrity,

For I had gone with the multitude,
I [g] went with them to the house of God,
With the voice of joy and praise,
with a multitude that kept holyday.
[h] Why art thou [t] cast down, O my soul? and [h] why art thou [i] disquieted in me?
[j] Hope thou in God: for I shall yet [‖k] praise him [l] For the help of his countenance.
O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee
[l] From the land of Jordan, and of the [m] Hermonites, from [‖] the hill Mizar.
[n] Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy [o] waterspouts:
[p] All thy [q] waves and thy billows are gone over me.
Yet the LORD will [r] command his lovingkindness in the daytime,
And [s] in the night his song shall be with me,
And my prayer unto the God of my life.
I will say unto God [t] my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me?
[u] Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?
As with a [‖] sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me;
[c] While they say daily unto me, Where is thy God?
[x] Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me?
Hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him,
Who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

XLIII.

[a] Judge me, O God, and [b] plead my cause against an [‖] ungodly nation:
O deliver me [t] from the deceitful and unjust man.
For thou art [c] the God of my strength: why dost thou [d] cast me off?
[e] Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?
O send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me;
Let them bring me unto [f] thy holy hill, and to [ff] thy tabernacles.
Then will I go unto the altar of God,
Unto God [t] my exceeding joy:
Yea, upon the harp will I praise thee, O God my God.
[g] Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me?
Hope in God: for I shall yet praise him,
Who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM XLIV.

To the chief Musician for [*] the sons of Korah, Maschil.

We have heard with our ears, O God,
[a] Our fathers have told us,
What work thou didst in their days, in [b] the times of old.
How thou didst [c] drive out the heathen with thy hand, and [d] plantedst them;
How thou didst afflict the people, and [e] cast them out.
For they got not the land in possession [f] by their own sword,
Neither did their own arm save them:
But thy right hand, and thine arm, and [ff] the light of thy countenance, [g] Because thou hadst a favour unto them.
[h] Thou art my King, O God:
[i] Command deliverances for Jacob.
Through thee will we [k] push down our enemies:
Through thy name will we [l] tread them under that rise up against us.
For [m] I will not trust [f] in my bow,
Neither shall my sword save me.
But thou hast saved us from our enemies,
And hast [n] put them to shame that hated us.
[o] In God we boast all the day long,
And praise thy name for ever. Selah.
But thou hast [p] cast off, and put us to shame;
And [q] goest not forth with our armies.
Thou makest us to [r] turn back from the enemy:
And they which hate us spoil for themselves.
[s] Thou hast given us [t] like sheep appointed for meat;
And hast [t] scattered us among the heathen.

My heart [t]is inditing a good matter:
I speak of the things which I have made touching the king:
My tongue is the [a]pen of [b]a ready writer.

Thou art fairer than the children of men:
[c]Grace is poured into thy lips:
Therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.
[d]Gird thy sword [e]upon thy thigh, [f]O most mighty,
With thy [g]glory and thy majesty.
And in thy majesty [t][h]ride prosperously
Because of truth and meekness and righteousness;
And thy right hand shall teach thee [i]terrible things.
Thine [j]arrows are sharp
In the heart of the king's enemies;
Whereby the people fall under thee.
[k]Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever:
The sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.
[l]Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness:
Therefore [m]God, thy God, hath [n]anointed thee
With the oil of [o]gladness above thy fellows.
All thy garments smell of [p]myrrh, and [p]aloes, and cassia,
Out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.
Kings' daughters were among [q]thy honourable women:
[r]Upon thy right hand did stand the [s]queen in [t]gold of [u]Ophir.
Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear;
[w]Forget also thine own people, and thy father's house;
So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty:
For he is [x]thy Lord; and [y]worship thou him.
And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with [z]a gift;
Even [a]the rich among the people shall intreat [t]thy favour.
The king's daughter is [b]all glorious [c]within:
Her clothing is of wrought gold.
[d]She shall be brought unto the king [e]in raiment of needlework:
The virgins her companions that follow her shall be brought unto thee.
With gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought:
They shall enter into the king's palace.

PSALM XLVI.

To the chief Musician [f] for the sons of Korah, [*] A Song upon [†] Alamoth.

God is our [a] refuge and strength,
[b] A very present help [c] in trouble.
2 Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed,
And though the mountains be carried into [†] the midst of the sea;
3 [d] Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled,
Though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah.

4 There is [e] a river, the streams whereof shall make glad [f] the city of God,
The holy place of the tabernacles of the most High.
5 God is [g] in the midst of her; [h] she shall not be moved:
God shall help her, [†] and that right early.
6 [i] The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved:
He [k] uttered his voice, the earth [l] melted.
7 [m] The LORD of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is [†] our refuge. Selah.

8 [n] Come, behold the works of the LORD,
What desolations he hath made in the earth.
9 [o] He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth;
[p] He breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder;
[q] He burneth the chariot in the fire.
10 [r] Be still, and know that I am God:
[s] I will be exalted among the heathen,
I will be exalted in the earth.
11 [m] The LORD of hosts is with us;

To the chief Musician, A Psalm [f] for the sons of Korah.

O [a] clap your hands, all ye people;
[aa] Shout unto God with the voice of triumph.
2 For the LORD most High is [b] terrible;
He is a great King over all the earth.
3 He shall [c] subdue the people under us,

4 He shall choose our [d] inheritance for us,
The [e] excellency of Jacob whom he loved. Selah.

5 [f] God is gone up with a shout,
The LORD with the sound of a trumpet.
6 Sing praises to God, sing praises:
Sing praises unto our King, sing praises.
7 For God is [g] the King of all the earth:
[h] Sing ye praises [†] with understanding.
8 [i] God reigneth over the heathen:
God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness.

[f] On the sides of the north, [g] the city of the great King.
3 God is known in her palaces for a [h] refuge.
4 For lo, [i] the kings were assembled, they passed by together.
5 They saw it, and so they [k] marvelled;
They were troubled, and [l] hasted away.

PSALM XLIX.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm [‖] for the sons of Korah.

[a]Hear this, all ye people;
Give ear, all ye inhabitants of the [a]world:
Both [b]low and high, 2
Rich and poor, together.
My mouth shall speak of [bb]wisdom; 3
And the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.
I will incline mine ear to [c]a parable: 4
I will open [d]my dark saying upon the harp.
Wherefore should I fear in [dd]the days 5
of evil,
When [e]the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about?
They that [f]trust in their wealth, 6
And boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;
None of them [g]can by any means 7
redeem his brother,
Nor [h]give to God [i]a ransom for him:
(For [k]the redemption of their soul is 8 precious,
And it ceaseth for ever:)
That he should still live for ever, 9
And [l]not see corruption.
For he seeth that [m]wise men die, 10
Likewise the [m]fool and the [n]brutish person perish,
And [o]leave their wealth to others.

PSALM L.

A Psalm [‖] of Asaph.

The [a]mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth
[b]From the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.
2 Out of Zion, [c]the perfection of beauty,
[d]God hath shined.
3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence:
[e]A fire shall devour before him,
And it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

[f] He shall call to the heavens from above,
And to the earth, that he may judge his people.
Gather [g] my saints together unto me;
[h] Those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.
And [i] the heavens shall declare his righteousness:
For [j] God is judge himself. Selah.

[k] Hear, O my people, and I will speak;
O Israel, and [k] I will testify against thee:
[l] I am God, even thy God.
[m] I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices
Or thy burnt offerings, to have been [mm] continually before me.
[n] I will take no bullock out of thy house,
Nor he goats out of thy [o] folds.
For every beast of the forest is mine,
And the cattle upon a thousand hills.
I know all the fowls of the mountains:
And [p] the wild beasts of the field are [t] mine.
If I were hungry, I would not tell thee:
[q] For the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.
Will I eat the flesh of [r] bulls,
Or drink the blood of goats?
[s] Offer unto God [t] thanksgiving;
And [u] pay thy vows unto the most High:
And [v] call upon me in the day of trouble:
[w] I will deliver thee, and thou shalt [x] glorify me.

But unto the wicked God saith,
[y] What hast thou to do to declare my statutes,
Or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth?
[z] Seeing thou hatest instruction,
And [a] castest my words behind thee.
When thou sawest a thief, then thou [b] consentedst with him,
And [t] hast been partaker with adulterers.
[t] Thou givest thy mouth to evil,
And [c] thy tongue frameth deceit.

Thou sittest and [d] speakest against thy brother;
Thou slanderest thine own mother's son.
These things hast thou done, and [e] I kept silence;
[f] Thou thoughtest that I was altogether such a one as thyself:
But I will [g] reprove thee, and [h] set them in order before thine eyes.
Now consider this, ye that [i] forget God,
Lest I tear you in pieces, and there be [k] none to deliver.
[l] Whoso offereth praise [x] glorifieth me:
And to him [t] that ordereth his conversation aright
Will I shew the salvation of God.

PSALM LI.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, [*] when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Bath-sheba.

About B. C. 1034.

[a] Have mercy upon me, O God, [a] according to thy lovingkindness:
According unto the multitude of thy tender mercies [b] blot out my transgressions.
[c] Wash me throughly from mine iniquity,
And cleanse me from my sin.
For [d] I acknowledge my transgressions:
And my sin is [e] ever before me.
[f] Against thee, thee only, have I sinned,
And done this evil [g] in thy sight:
[h] That thou mightest be justified when thou speakest,
And be clear when thou judgest.
Behold, [i] I was shapen in iniquity;
And in sin did my mother [t] conceive me.
Behold, thou desirest truth [j] in the inward parts:
And in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.
[k] Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean:
[c] Wash me, and [l] I shall be whiter [t] than snow.
Make me to hear joy and gladness;
That [m] the bones which thou hast [n] broken may rejoice.
[o] Hide thy face from my sins,
And [b] blot out all mine iniquities.
Create in me [p] a clean heart, O God;
And [q] renew [ll] a [r] right spirit within me.

[a] The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God.
Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity:
[b] There is none that doeth good.
2 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men,
To see if there were [b] any that did understand, that did seek God.
3 [b] Every one of them is [c] gone back, they are altogether become filthy;
There is none that doeth good, no, not one.

Save me, O God, by thy name,

[a] Hear my prayer, O God;
Give ear to the words of my mouth.
For [b]strangers are risen up against me,
And oppressors seek after my soul:
They have not set God before them. Selah.
Behold, [c]God is mine helper:

PSALM LV.

To the chief Musician on [*] Neginoth, [†]Maschil, A Psalm of David.

[a]Give ear to my [b]prayer, O God;
And hide not thyself from my [b]supplication.
[a]Attend unto me, and [c]hear me:
I mourn in my [d]complaint, and [e]make a noise;
Because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked:
For [f]they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they hate me.
My heart is sore pained within me:
And [g]the terrors of death are fallen upon me.
[h]Fearfulness and [h]trembling are come upon me,
And [i]horror hath [†]overwhelmed me.
And I said, O that I had wings like a dove,
For then would I fly away, and be at rest.
Lo, then would I wander far off,
And remain in the wilderness. Selah.
I would hasten my escape
From the windy storm and [j]tempest.
[jj]Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues:
For I have seen [k]violence and strife in the city.
Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof:
Mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.
[l]Wickedness is in the midst thereof:
[m]Deceit and guile depart not from her streets.
For it was not an enemy that reproached me; then I could have borne it:
Neither was it he that hated me that did [n]magnify himself against me; then I would have hid myself from him:
But it was thou, [†]a man mine equal,
My [o]guide, and mine [p]acquaintance.
[†]We took sweet [q]counsel together,
And [r]walked unto the house of God in [q]company.
Let death seize upon them,
And let them [s]go down [s]quick into [‖]hell:
For wickedness is in their [t]dwellings, and among them.
As for me, I will call upon God;
And the LORD shall save me.
[u]Evening, and morning, and [w]at noon, will I [x]pray, and [x]cry aloud:
And he shall hear my voice.
He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me:
For there were [y]many [z]with me.
God shall hear, and afflict them,
Even he that abideth [a]of old. Selah.
[‖]Because they have no [b]changes,
Therefore they fear not God.
He hath put forth his hands against [c]such as be at peace with him:
[†]He hath broken his covenant.
[d] The words of his mouth [e]were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart:
[e]His words were softer than oil, [e]yet were they drawn swords.
[g]Cast thy [‖]burden upon the LORD, and he shall [h]sustain thee:
He shall never suffer the righteous [i]to be moved.
But thou, O God, [j]shalt bring them down into [k]the pit of destruction:
[†]Bloody and deceitful men [†]shall not live out half their days;
But [m]I will trust in thee.

To the chief Musician, ‖* Al-taschith, Michtam of David; [t]when Saul sent, and they watcht the house to kill him.

[a]Deliver me from mine enemies, O my God:
[t]Defend me from [ab]them that rise up against me.
Deliver me from [bb]the workers of iniquity,
And save me from [c]bloody men.
For lo, they [d]lie in wait for my soul:
The mighty [e]are gathered against me;
[f]Not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O LORD.
They run and prepare themselves [f]without my fault:
[g]Awake [t]to help me, and behold.
Thou therefore, [b]O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, [g]Awake to visit all the heathen:
Be not merciful to any wicked [i]transgressors. Selah.

[j]They return at evening:
They make a noise like a dog,
And go round about the city.
Behold, they [k]belch out with their mouth:
[l]Swords are in their lips:
For [m]who, say they, doth hear?
But thou, O LORD, [n]shalt laugh at them;

How long will ye imagine mischief against a man?
Ye shall be slain all of you:

They delight in lies:

PSALM LXIII.

A Psalm of David, *when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

O God, thou art my God; [a] early will I seek thee:
[b] My soul thirsteth for thee,
[b] My flesh longeth for thee,
In a [c] dry and [†] thirsty land, [†] where no water is;
To see [cc] thy power and thy glory, 2
So as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.
Because [d] thy lovingkindness is [e] better than life, 3
My lips shall praise thee.
Thus will I bless thee [f] while I live: 4
I [g] will lift up my hands in thy name.
[h] My soul shall be satisfied as with 5
[†] marrow and fatness;
And my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:
When [i] I remember thee upon my bed, 6
And meditate on thee in [j] the night watches.
Because thou hast been [k] my help, 7
Therefore [l] in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.
My soul followeth hard after thee: 8
Thy right hand [m] upholdeth me.
[n] But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, 9
Shall go into [o] the lower parts of the earth.
[†] They shall fall by the sword: 10
They shall be a portion for foxes.
But [p] the king shall rejoice in God; 11
Every one that [q] sweareth by him shall glory:
But [r] the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

They commune [†] of laying snares privily;
[h] They say, Who shall see them?
They search out iniquities;
[‖] They accomplish [†] a diligent search:
Both [i] the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.
But God [d] shall shoot at them with an arrow;
Suddenly [†] shall they be wounded.
So they shall make [k] their own tongue to fall upon themselves:

Hear me, O LORD; [d]for thy loving-kindness is good:
[e]Turn unto me [f]according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.
And [g]hide not thy face from thy servant;
For I [h]am in trouble: [t][i]hear me speedily.
Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it:
Deliver me because of mine enemies.

Thou hast known [j]my reproach, and [k]my shame, and my dishonour:
Mine adversaries are all before thee.
Reproach hath broken my heart; and [l]I am full of heaviness:
And [m]I looked for some [t]to take pity, but there was none;
And for [n]comforters, but I found none.
They gave me also [o]gall for my meat;
And [p]in my thirst they gave me [q]vinegar to drink.
[r]Let their [s]table become a snare before them:
And that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap.
[t]Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not;
And [u]make their loins continually to shake.
Pour out thine indignation upon them,
And let thy wrathful anger take hold of them.
[x]Let [y][t]their habitation be desolate;
And [t]let none dwell in their tents.
For [z]they persecute [a]him whom thou hast smitten;
And they [b]talk to the grief of [t]those whom thou hast wounded.
[c]Add [l]iniquity unto their iniquity:
And let them not come into thy righteousness.
Let them be blotted out of [d]the book of the living,
And not be [e]written with the righteous.

But I am poor and sorrowful:
Let thy salvation, O God, [f]set me up on high.
I will praise the name of God with a song;
And will [g]magnify him with [h]thanksgiving.

This also shall please the LORD better than an ox
Or bullock that hath horns and [i]hoofs.
The [k][‖]humble shall see this, and be glad:
And [l]your heart shall live that seek God.
For the LORD heareth the poor,
And [m]despiseth not his prisoners.
[n]Let the heaven and earth praise him,
The seas, and every thing that [t]moveth therein.

[o]For God will save Zion,
And will build the cities of Judah:
That they may dwell there, and [p]have it in possession.
[q]The seed also of [r]his servants shall inherit it:
And [p]they that love his name shall [s]dwell therein.

PSALM LXX.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, [*] to bring to remembrance.

Make haste, [a]O God, to deliver me;
Make haste [t]to help me, O LORD.
Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul:
Let them be turned backward, and [b]put to confusion, [b]that desire my hurt.
Let them [c]be turned back for a reward of their shame
That say, Aha, aha.
Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee:
And let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.
But I am poor and needy: [d]make haste unto me, O God:
Thou art my help and my deliverer;
O LORD, make no tarrying.

PSALM LXXI.

[a]In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust:
Let me never be put to confusion.
Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape:
Incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

PSALM LXXIII.

‖ A Psalm of * Asaph.

‖ Or, A Psalm for Asaph.
* See Ps. 50, title.

[t] Truly God is good to [a] Israel,
Even to such as are [t] of a clean heart.
But as for me, my feet were almost 2
[b] gone;
My steps had well nigh slipt.
[c] For I was [d] envious at the [e] foolish, 3
When I saw the [f] prosperity of the wicked.
For there are no [g] bands in their 4
death:
But their strength is [t] firm.
They are not [t] in trouble as other 5
men;
Neither are they [h] plagued [t] like other
men.
[n] Therefore pride compasseth them 6
about [i] as a chain;
Violence covereth them [j] as a garment.
[k] Their eyes stand out with fatness: 7 [l] They have more than heart could wish.
They are corrupt, and speak wickedly 8
concerning oppression:
[l] They speak [m] loftily.
They set their mouth against the hea- 9
vens,
And their tongue walketh through the
earth.
[n] Therefore his people return hither: 10
And waters of a full [o] cup [p] are wrung out to them.
And they say, [q] How doth God 11 know?
And is there knowledge in the most High?

Behold, these are the ungodly, 12 [r] Who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.
[s] Verily I have cleansed my heart in 13 vain,
And [t] washed my hands in innocency.
For all the day long have I been 14
[h] plagued,
And [t] chastened [tt] every morning.
If I say, I will speak [u] thus; 15 Behold, I should offend against [v] the generation of thy children.
When I [w] thought to know this, 16
[t] It was too painful for me;
Until I went into [x] the sanctuary of 17
God;
Then [y] understood I [z] their end.

[24] [l]Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel,
And afterward [m]receive me to glory.
[25] Whom have I in heaven but thee?
And there is none upon earth that I desire [n]besides thee.
[26] [o]My flesh and my heart faileth:
But God is the [p]strength of my heart, and [q]my portion [r]for ever.
[27] For, lo, [s]they that are far from thee shall perish:
Thou hast destroyed all them that [t]go a whoring from thee.
[28] But it is good for me to draw near to God:
I have put my trust in the Lord GOD,
That I may [u]declare all thy works.

PSALM LXXIV.

[v]Maschil of [w]Asaph.

[1] O God, why hast thou [x]cast us off for ever?
Why doth thine anger [y]smoke against [z]the sheep of thy pasture?
[2] Remember thy congregation, which [a]thou hast purchased of old;
The [b]rod of [c]thine inheritance, which [d]thou hast redeemed;
This mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.
[3] Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual [e]desolations;
Even [f]all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary.
[4] Thine enemies [g]roar in the midst of thy [h]congregations;
[k]They set up their ensigns for signs.

[5] A man was famous according as he had lifted up
Axes upon the thick trees.
[6] But now they break down [l]the carved work thereof
At once with axes and hammers.
[7] [m][t]They have cast fire into thy sanctuary,
[n]They have defiled [o]by casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground.
[8] [p]They said in their hearts, Let us [q]destroy them together:
They have burnt up all the [r]synagogues of God in the land.
[9] We see not our [s]signs:
[q]There is no more any prophet:
Neither is there among us any that knoweth [t]how long.
[10] O God, [t]how long shall the adversary [s]reproach?
Shall the enemy [s]blaspheme thy name for ever?
[11] Why [t]withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand?
Pluck it out of thy bosom.
[12] For [u]God is my King of old,
Working salvation in the midst of the earth.
[13] [x]Thou didst [t]divide the sea by thy strength:
[y]Thou brakest the heads of the [u]dragons in the waters.
[14] Thou brakest the heads of [z]leviathan in pieces,
And gavest [a]him to be meat [b]to the people inhabiting the wilderness.
[15] [c]Thou didst [d]cleave the fountain and the flood:
[e]Thou driedst up [f]mighty rivers.
[16] The day is thine, the night also is thine:
Thou hast prepared [g]the light and the sun.
[17] Thou hast [g]set all the borders of the earth:
Thou hast [f]made [h]summer and winter.
[18] [i]Remember this, that the enemy hath [k]reproached, O LORD,
And [l]that [m]the foolish people have [k]blasphemed thy name.
[19] O deliver not the soul of [n]thy turtledove unto the [o]multitude of the wicked:
Forget not the [o]congregation of thy poor for ever.

In [a] Judah is God known:
His name is great in Israel.
In [b] Salem also is his [c] tabernacle,
And his dwelling place in Zion.
There [d] brake he the [e] arrows of the bow,
The shield, and the sword, and the battle. Selah.
Thou art more glorious and excellent than the mountains of [f] prey.
[g] The stouthearted are spoiled, they have [h] slept their sleep:
And none of the men of might have found their hands.
At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob,
Both [i] the chariot and horse [h] are cast into a dead sleep.
Thou, even thou, art [r] to be feared:
And who may [k] stand in thy sight when once thou art angry?
[l] Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from heaven;
The earth feared, and was still,
When God arose [l] to judgment,
To save all the meek of the earth. Selah.

The remainder of wrath shalt thou [n] restrain.

*‖ Maschil of Asaph.

[a] Give ear, O my people, to my law:
Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
2 [b] I will open my mouth in a [c] parable:
I will [d] utter [e] dark sayings of old:
3 Which we have heard and known,
And [f] our fathers have told us.
4 [g] We will not hide them from their children,
[h] Shewing to the generation to come
The praises of the LORD, and his strength,
And [i] his wonderful works that he hath done.
5 For he established [j] a testimony in [k] Jacob,
And appointed a law in [k] Israel,
Which he commanded our fathers,
[g] That they should make them known to their children:
6 That [l] the generation to come might know them, even [m] the children which should be born;
Who should arise and [g] declare them to their children:
7 That they might set their [n] hope in God,
And not forget the works of God,
But [nn] keep his commandments:
8 And [o] might not be as their fathers,
A [p q] stubborn and [p r] rebellious generation;
A generation [†] that set not their heart aright,
And whose spirit was not [s] stedfast with God.
9 The children of Ephraim, being [t] armed, and [†] carrying [t u] bows,
[w] Turned back in the day of battle.
10 They kept not the covenant of God,

12 y Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers,
In the land of Egypt, in z the field of Zoan.
13 He a divided the sea, and caused them to pass through;
And he b made the waters to stand as a heap.
14 c In the daytime also he led them with a cloud,
And all the night with a light of fire.
15 d He clave the rocks in the wilderness,
And gave them drink as out of the great depths.
16 He brought dd streams also out of e the rock,
And caused waters to run down like rivers.
17 And they sinned yet more against him
By f provoking the most High in the g wilderness.
18 And h they tempted God in their heart

19 Yea, they spake against God; they said,

And r opened the doors of heaven,
24 And had s rained down manna upon them to eat,
And had given them of t the corn of heaven.
25 ‖ Man did eat u angels' food:
He sent them meat w to the full.
26 He caused an east wind t to blow in the heaven:
And by his power he x brought in the south wind.
27 He rained flesh also upon them y as dust,
And t feathered fowls like z as the sand of the sea:
28 a And he let it fall in the midst of their camp,
Round about their habitations.
29 b So they did eat, and were well filled:
For he gave them their own c desire;
30 They were not estranged from their c lust.
But d while their meat was yet in their mouths,
31 The wrath of God e came upon them,
And slew the f fattest of them,
And t smote down the ‖ chosen men of Israel.
32 For all this g they sinned still,
And h believed not for his wondrous works.
33 Therefore i their days did he consume in k vanity,
And their years in trouble.
34 When he slew them, then they l sought him:
And they l returned and l m inquired early after God.
35 And they remembered that n God was their rock,
And the high God o their redeemer.
36 Nevertheless they did p flatter him with their mouth,
And they q lied unto him with their tongues.
37 For r their heart was not s right with him,
Neither were they h stedfast in his covenant.
38 But he, being t full of compassion, u forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not:
Yea, many a time turned he his anger away,
And did not stir up all his wrath.
39 For w he remembered that they were but x flesh;
w y A wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.
40 How oft did they ‖ provoke him in the wilderness,
And z grieve him in a the desert!
41 Yea, they turned back and b tempted God,
And c limited the d Holy One of Israel.
42 They e remembered not his hand:
Nor the day when he delivered them ‖ from the enemy.

43 [f] How he had [t] wrought his [g] signs in Egypt,
And his [gh] wonders in [i] the field of Zoan:
44 And [k] had turned their rivers into blood;
And their [l] floods, that they could not drink.
45 He sent [m] divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them;
And [n] frogs, which destroyed them.
46 He gave also their increase unto [o] the caterpillar,
And their labour unto [p] the locust.
47 [q] He [t] destroyed their vines with hail,
And their [r] sycomore trees with [‖] frost.
48 [t] He gave up their cattle also to the hail,
And their flocks to [‖] hot thunderbolts.
49 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger,
Wrath, and indignation, and trouble,
[s] By sending evil angels among them.
50 [t] He made a way to his anger;
He spared not their soul from death,
But [t] gave [t] their life over to the pestilence;
51 And [u] smote all the firstborn in Egypt;
[x] The chief of their strength in the tabernacles [y] of Ham:
52 But [z] made his own people to go forth [a] like sheep,
And [z] guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
53 And [b] he [a] led them on safely, so that they feared not:
But [c] the sea [t] overwhelmed their enemies.
54 And he brought them to the border of his [d] sanctuary,
Even to this [de] mountain, which his right hand had purchased.
55 [f] He cast out the heathen also before them,
And [g] divided them an inheritance by [h] line,
And made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.
56 [i] Yet they [k] tempted and [l] provoked the most high God,
And kept not his testimonies:
57 But [m] turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers:
They were turned aside [n] like a deceitful bow.
58 For they [o] provoked him to anger with their [p] high places,
And [q] moved him to jealousy with their [r] graven images.
59 When God heard this, he [s] was wroth,
And greatly [t] abhorred Israel:
60 [u] So that he forsook the [v] tabernacle of [w] Shiloh, [x] The tent which he [u] placed among men;
61 And delivered [y] his strength into [z] captivity,
And his glory into the enemy's hand.
62 He [a] gave his people over also [b] unto the sword;
And [c] was wroth with his inheritance.
63 The fire consumed their young men;
And their maidens were not [t] given to marriage.
64 [d] Their priests fell by the sword;
[e] And their widows [f] made no lamentation.
65 Then the Lord [g] awaked as one out of sleep,
And [h] like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.
66 And [i] he smote his enemies in the hinder parts:
He put them to a perpetual reproach.
67 Moreover he [j] refused the tabernacle of [jj] Joseph,
And chose not the tribe of Ephraim:
68 But chose the tribe of Judah,
The mount Zion [k] which he loved.
69 And he built his sanctuary like high palaces,
Like the earth which he hath [t] established for ever.
70 [m] He chose David also his servant,
And took him from the [n] sheepfolds:
71 [t] From following the ewes [o] great with young he brought him
To [p] feed [q] Jacob his people,
And [q] Israel [r] his inheritance.
72 So he fed them according to the [s] integrity of his heart;
And [t] guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

PSALM LXXX.

To the chief Musician [*] upon Shoshannim-Eduth, A Psalm [‖] of Asaph.

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel,
Thou that leadest [a] Joseph [aa] like a flock;
Thou that dwellest [b] between the cherubims, [c] shine forth.
2 [d] Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh
[e] Stir up thy strength,
And [†] come and save us.
3 [f] Turn us again, O God,
[g] And cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

4 [h] O LORD God of hosts,
[i] How long [†] wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?
5 Thou feedest them with [k] the bread of tears;
And givest them tears to drink in great [l] measure.
6 Thou makest us a strife unto [m] our neighbours:
And our enemies laugh among themselves.
7 [f] Turn us again, O God of hosts,
And cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

8 Thou hast brought [n] a vine out of Egypt:
Thou hast [o] cast out the heathen, and [p] planted it.
9 Thou [q] preparedst room before it,
And didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land.
10 The hills were covered with the shadow of it,
And the boughs thereof were like [†] the goodly cedars.
11 She sent out her [r] boughs unto the sea,
And her [s] branches [t] unto the river.

12 Why hast thou then [u] broken down her hedges,
So [u] that all they which pass by the way do [x] pluck her?
13 The boar [y] out of the wood doth waste it,
And [z] the wild beast of the field doth devour it.

PSALM LXXXI.

To the chief Musician [*]upon Gittith, A Psalm [‖]of Asaph.

[a]Sing aloud unto God our strength:
[b]Make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob.
Take a psalm, and bring hither the [c]timbrel,
The pleasant [d]harp with the [d]psaltery.
Blow up the [e]trumpet [f]in the new moon,
In [g]the time appointed, on our solemn feast day.
For this was a statute for Israel,
And a law of the God of Jacob.
This he ordained in [h]Joseph for [i]a testimony,
When [k]he went out [l]through the land of Egypt:
[l] Where I heard a language that I [m]understood not.

I [n]removed his shoulder from the [o]burden:
His hands [f]were delivered from the [p]pots.
[q]Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee;
I [r]answered thee in the secret place of thunder:
I [s]proved thee at the waters of [l]Meribah. Selah.
[t]Hear, O my people, and [t]I will testify unto thee:
O Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me;

There shall no [u]strange god be in thee;
Neither shalt thou worship any [w]strange god.
[x]I am the LORD thy God,
Which brought thee out of the land of Egypt:
[y]Open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.
But my people would not hearken to my voice;
And Israel [yy]would none of me.
So I [z]gave them up [‖]unto their own heart's lust:
And they [a]walked in their own counsels.
[b]O that my people had hearkened unto me,
And Israel [c]had walked in my ways!
I should soon have subdued their enemies,
And [d]turned my hand against their adversaries.
[e]The haters of the LORD should have [f]submitted themselves unto him:
But their time should have endured for ever.
He should have fed them also [f]with the finest of the wheat:
And with [f]honey out of the rock should I have satisfied thee.

PSALM LXXXII.

A Psalm [‖]of Asaph.

[a]God [b]standeth in the congregation of the mighty;
[c]He judgeth among the [d]gods.
[e]How long will ye judge unjustly,
And [f g]accept the persons [g]of the wicked? Selah.
[f]Defend the [h]poor and [i]fatherless:
[i]Do justice to the afflicted and needy.
[k]Deliver the [h]poor and needy:
[l]Rid them out of the hand of the wicked.
[m]They know not, neither will they understand;
[n]They walk on in darkness:
[o]All the foundations of the earth are [f]out of course.
[p]I have said, Ye are [q]gods;
And all of you are [r]children of the most High.
But [s]ye shall die [t]like men,
And fall like one of the princes.
Arise, O God, judge the earth:

PSALM LXXXIII.

*A Song or Psalm ‖of Asaph.

1 [a]Keep not thou silence, O God:
[b]Hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God.
2 For lo, thine enemies [c]make a tumult:
And they that [d]hate thee have [e]lift up the head.
3 [f]They have taken crafty counsel against thy people,
And consulted against [g]thy hidden ones.
4 They have said, Come, and let us [h]cut them off [i]from being a nation;
That the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.
5 For they have [k]consulted together with one [l]consent:
They [l]are confederate against thee:
6 The tabernacles of [m]Edom, and the [n]Ishmaelites;
Of [m]Moab, and the [o]Hagarenes;
7 [ps]Gebal, and [m]Ammon, and [q]Amalek;
The [r]Philistines with the inhabitants of [s]Tyre;
8 [st]Assur also is joined with them:
[t]They have [u]holpen [x]the children of Lot. Selah.

9 Do unto them as unto the [y]Midianites;
As to [z]Sisera, as to Jabin, at [a]the brook of Kison:
10 Which perished at [b]En-dor:
They became [c]as dung for the earth.
11 Make their nobles like [d]Oreb, and like [d]Zeeb:
Yea, all their [e]princes as [f]Zebah, and as [f]Zalmunna:
12 Who said, [g]Let us take to ourselves
The [h]houses of God in possession.
13 O my God, make them [i]like a wheel;
As the stubble [ip]before the wind.
14 [k]As the fire burneth a wood,
And as the flame [m]setteth the mountains on fire;
15 So [i]persecute them [n]with thy [o]tempest,
And make them afraid with thy [ip]storm.
16 [q]Fill their faces with shame;
That they may seek thy name, O LORD.
17 Let them be [r]confounded and troubled for ever;
Yea, let them be [r]put to shame, and perish:
18 That men [s]may know that thou, [t]whose name [u]alone is JEHOVAH,
Art [w]the most High over all the earth.

PSALM LXXXIV.

To the chief Musician *upon Gittith, A Psalm ‖for the sons of Korah.

1 How [a]amiable are [b]thy tabernacles, O LORD of hosts!
2 [c]My soul longeth, yea, even [d]fainteth for [e]the courts of the LORD:
My heart and my flesh crieth out for [f]the living God.
3 Yea, the [g]sparrow hath found a house,
And the [g]swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young,
Even thine altars, O LORD of hosts, [h]my King, and my God.
4 [i]Blessed are they that dwell in thy house:
They [k]will be still praising thee. Selah.
5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee;
In whose heart are [l]the ways of them.
6 Who passing through the valley ‖of Baca make it a well;
The [m]rain also [t]n]filleth the pools.
7 They go [lo]from strength to strength,
Every one of them in Zion [p]appeareth before God.
8 [q]O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer:
Give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.
9 [r]Behold, O God our [s]shield,
And look upon the face of [t]thine anointed.
10 For a day in [e]thy courts is better than a thousand.
[f]I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God,
Than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.
11 For the LORD God is [u]a sun and [s]shield:
The LORD will give grace and glory:
[x]No good thing will he withhold from them that [y]walk uprightly.

PSALM LXXXV.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm ‖for the sons of Korah.

LORD, thou hast been [‖] favourable unto thy land:
Thou hast [a] brought back the captivity of Jacob.
Thou hast [b] forgiven the iniquity of thy people,
Thou hast [b] covered all their sin. Selah.
Thou hast taken away all thy wrath:
[‖] Thou hast [c] turned [d] thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.
[e] Turn us, O God of our salvation,
[f] And cause thine anger toward us to cease.
[g] Wilt thou be angry with us for ever?
Wilt thou [h] draw out thine anger to all generations?
Wilt thou not [i] revive us again:
That [j] thy people may rejoice in thee?
Shew us thy mercy, O LORD,
And grant us thy salvation.
[k] I will hear what God the LORD will speak:
For [l] he will speak peace unto his people, and to [m] his saints:
But let them not [n] turn again to [o] folly.
Surely [p] his salvation is nigh them that fear him;
That [q] glory may dwell in our land.
[r] Mercy and truth [rr] are met together;
[s] Righteousness and [st] peace have kissed each other.
Truth shall [u] spring out of the earth;
And [u] righteousness shall look down from heaven.
Yea, [x] the LORD shall give that which is good;
And [y] our land shall yield her increase.
[z] Righteousness shall go before him;
And shall set us in the way of his steps.

PSALM LXXXVI.

‖ A Prayer of David.

[a] Bow down thine ear, O LORD, hear me:
For [b] I am poor and needy.
Preserve my soul; for I am [‖] holy:
O thou my God, save thy servant [c] that trusteth in thee.
[d] Be merciful unto me, O Lord:
For [e] I cry unto thee [‖] daily.
Rejoice the soul of thy servant:
For [f] unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.
For thou, Lord, art good, and [ff] ready to forgive;
And [g] plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.
[h] Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer;
And [hi] attend to the voice of my supplications.
[j] In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee:
[k] For thou wilt answer me.
[l] Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord;
Neither are there any works [m] like unto thy works.
All nations whom thou hast made [n] shall come
And [o] worship before thee, O Lord;
And shall glorify thy name.
For thou art [p] great, and [q] doest wondrous things:
[r] Thou art God alone.
[s] Teach me thy way, O LORD; [t] I will walk in thy truth:
Unite my heart to fear thy name.
I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart:
And I will glorify thy name for evermore.
For great is thy mercy toward me:
And thou hast [u] delivered my soul from [v] the lowest [‖] hell.
O God, [w] the proud are risen against me,
And the assemblies of [t] violent men have sought after my soul;
And have not set thee before them.
[x] But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, Longsuffering, and [g] plenteous in mercy and truth.
O [y] turn unto me, and [d] have mercy upon me;
Give thy strength unto [z] thy servant,
And save [z] the son of thine handmaid.
[a] Shew me a token [b] for good;
That they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed:
Because thou, LORD, hast [c] holpen me, and comforted me.

* A Song or Psalm ‖for the sons of Korah. To the chief Musician upon *Mahalath †Leannoth, ‖Maschil of *Heman the [a]Ezrahite.

O LORD [a]God of my salvation,
I have [b]cried day and night before thee:
Let my prayer come before thee: 2
[c]Incline thine ear unto my cry;
For my soul is full of troubles: 3
And [d]my life draweth nigh unto [e]the grave.
I am counted [f]with them that go 4
down into the pit:
I am as a man that hath no strength:
Free among the dead, 5
Like the slain that lie in the grave,
Whom thou [g]rememberest no more:
And they are [h]cut off ‖from thy hand.
Thou hast laid me in [i]the lowest pit, 6
[k]In darkness, in [l]the deeps.
Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, 7
And thou hast afflicted me with [m]all thy waves. Selah.

Thou hast put away [n]mine acquaint- 8
ance far from me;
Thou hast made me [o]an abomination unto them:
I am [p]shut up, [q]and I cannot come forth.

9 [r]Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction:
LORD, [s]I have called daily upon thee,
[t]I have stretched out my hands unto thee.
10 [g]Wilt thou [u]shew wonders to the dead?
Shall [x]the dead arise and praise thee? Selah.
11 Shall thy lovingkindness [g]be declared in the grave?
Or thy faithfulness in [y]destruction?
12 Shall [z]thy wonders be known in [a]the dark?
And thy righteousness in the land of [b]forgetfulness?
13 But [c]unto thee have I cried, O LORD;
And [d]in the morning shall my prayer [e]prevent thee.
14 LORD, why [f]castest thou off my soul?
Why [g]hidest thou thy face from me?
15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up:
While I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.
16 Thy fierce wrath [h]goeth over me;
Thy [i]terrors have cut me off.
17 [j]They came round about me [l]daily like water;
They [k]compassed me about together.
18 [l]Lover and friend [m]hast thou put far from me,
And [m]mine acquaintance into [n]darkness.

[a] I will sing of the [bc]mercies of the LORD for ever:
With my mouth will I make known [cd]thy faithfulness †to all generations.
2 For I have said, Mercy shall be [i]built up for ever:
[d]Thy faithfulness [e]shalt thou establish in the very heavens.
3 I have made a covenant with [f]my chosen,
I have [g]sworn unto David my servant,
4 [h]Thy seed will I stablish for ever,
And [i]build up [k]thy throne [l]to all generations. Selah.

5 And [m]the heavens shall praise [n]thy wonders, O LORD:
[d]Thy faithfulness also [nn]in the congregation [o]of the saints.

For who in the heaven [p] can be compared unto the LORD?
Who among [q] the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?
God is greatly to be feared in [qq] the assembly [o] of the saints,
And [r] to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.
O LORD God of hosts,
Who is a strong [s] LORD [t] like unto thee?
Or to [d] thy faithfulness round about thee?
Thou rulest the raging of the sea:
When the waves thereof arise, thou [u] stillest them.
Thou hast broken [ll] Rahab in pieces,
as one that is slain;
Thou hast [y] scattered thine enemies
[t] with thy strong arm.
The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine:
As for [a] the world and [a] the fulness thereof, thou hast [b] founded them.
The north and the south thou hast created them:
Tabor and [c] Hermon shall [f] rejoice
in thy name.
Thou hast [t] a mighty arm:
Strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand
Justice and judgment are the [ll] habitation of thy throne:
Mercy and truth shall [i] go before thy face.
Blessed is the people that know the [k] joyful sound:
They shall walk, O LORD, in the [l] light of thy countenance.
In thy name shall they rejoice all the
day:
And in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.
For thou art the glory [m] of their strength:
And in thy favour [n] our horn shall be exalted.
For [ll] the LORD is our defence;
And [p] the Holy One of Israel is [q] our
king.
Then thou spakest in vision to [r] thy holy one,
And saidst, I have [s] laid help upon
one that is [t] mighty;
I have exalted one [u] chosen out of the people.

[x] I have found David my servant;
[y] With my holy oil have I anointed
him:
[z] With whom my hand shall be established:
Mine arm also shall [z] strengthen him.
The enemy shall not exact upon him;
Nor [a] the son of wickedness afflict him.
And I will [b] beat down his foes before his face,
And plague them that hate him.
But [c] my faithfulness and [c] my mercy shall be with him:
And in my name [d] shall his horn be exalted.
I will set his hand also in [e] the sea,
And his right hand in [e] the rivers.
He shall cry unto me, Thou art [f] my Father,
My God, and [g] the rock of my salvation.
Also I will make him [b] my firstborn,
[i] Higher than the kings of the earth.
[k] My mercy will I keep for him for evermore,
And [l] my covenant shall stand fast with him.
[m] His seed also will I make to endure
for ever,
And [n] his throne [o] as the days of heaven.
[p] If his children [q] forsake my law,
And walk not in my judgments;
If they [t] break my statutes,
And keep not my commandments;
Then will I [r] visit their transgression with [s] the rod,
And their iniquity with [s] stripes.
Nevertheless [c] my lovingkindness [t] will
I not utterly take from him,
Nor suffer [c] my faithfulness [t] to fail.
[l] My covenant will I not [t] break, Nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.
Once have I [u] sworn [v] by my holiness
[t] That I will not lie unto David.
[m] His seed shall endure for ever,
And [n] his throne [x] as the sun before
me.
It shall be established for ever as [x] the moon,
And as a faithful [y] witness in heaven.
Selah.

But thou hast [z] cast off and [ab] abhorred,
Thou [ac] hast been wroth with [d] thine anointed.

Thou hast [e]made void the covenant 39
of thy servant:
[f]Thou hast profaned [g]his crown by casting it [h]to the ground.
[i]Thou hast broken down all his 40
hedges;
Thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin.
[i]All that pass by the way spoil him: 41
He is [j]a reproach to his neighbours.
Thou hast set up the right hand of 42
his adversaries;
Thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.
Thou hast also turned the edge of his 43 sword,
And hast not made him to stand in the battle.
Thou hast made his [l]glory to cease, 44
And cast his throne down [h]to the ground.
[k]The days of his youth hast thou 45
shortened:
Thou hast covered him with shame.
Selah.

[l][m]How long, LORD? [m]wilt thou hide 46
thyself, [m]for ever?
Shall thy wrath [n]burn like fire?
[o]Remember how short [p]my time is: 47
Wherefore hast thou made all [q]men
in vain?
[r]What man is he that liveth, and shall 48 not [s]see death?
Shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave? Selah.

Lord, where are thy former [t]loving- 49
kindnesses,
Which thou [u]swarest unto David in thy [tv]truth?
[w]Remember, Lord, the reproach of 50
thy servants;
How I do bear [x]in my bosom the re- proach of all the mighty people; Wherewith [w]thine enemies have re- 51
proached, O LORD;
Wherewith they have reproached the [y]footsteps of [d]thine anointed.

[z]Blessed be the LORD for evermore. 52

PSALM XC.

[ll]A Prayer [*] of Moses the man of God.

LORD, [a]thou hast been our dwelling place [t]in all generations.
2 [b]Before [c]the mountains were [d]brought forth,
Or ever thou hadst [bd]formed [e]the earth and the world, [f]Even from everlasting to everlasting,
thou art God.
3 Thou [g]turnest man to destruction;
And sayest, Return, ye children of men.
4 For [h]a thousand years in thy sight
[i]Are but as yesterday [ll]when it is past,
And as a watch in the night.
5 Thou [k]carriest them away as with a flood; [l]they are as a sleep:
In the morning they are [mn]like grass which [ll][o]groweth up.
6 [p]In the morning it [nq]flourisheth, and [o]groweth up;
[p]In the evening it is [mq]cut down, and withereth.
7 For we are consumed by thine anger,
And by thy wrath are we troubled.
8 [r]Thou hast set our iniquities before
thee,
[s]Our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.
9 For all our days are [t]passed away in thy wrath:
We spend our years [ll]as a tale that is told.
10 [tt]The days of our years are threescore years and ten;
And if by reason of strength they be
fourscore years,
Yet is their strength labour and sorrow;
For it is soon cut off, and we fly away.
11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger?
Even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.
12 [u]So teach us to number our days,
That we may [t]apply our hearts unto wisdom.
13 [w]Return, O LORD, [x]how long?
And let it [y]repent thee concerning
thy servants.
14 O satisfy us [z]early with thy mercy;
That [a]we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
15 Make us glad according to [b]the days
wherein thou hast afflicted us,
And [b]the years wherein we have seen
evil.
16 Let [c]thy work appear unto thy servants,
And thy glory unto their children.

PSALM XCI.

He that dwelleth in [a]the secret place of the most High Shall [f]abide [b]under the shadow of the Almighty.
I will say of the LORD, He is my [c]refuge and [d]my fortress:
My God; [e]in him will I trust.
Surely he shall [f]deliver thee from [g]the snare of the fowler,
And from the [h]noisome pestilence.
He shall cover thee with his [i]feathers,
And [k]under his [bi]wings shalt thou trust:
His truth shall be thy [l]shield and buckler.
Thou shalt not be afraid [m]for the terror by night:
Nor for the arrow that flieth by day;
Nor for the pestilence that walketh in [n]darkness;
Nor for the [o]destruction that wasteth at noonday.
A thousand shall fall at thy side,
And ten thousand at thy right hand;
But it shall not come nigh thee.
Only with thine eyes shall thou behold
And [oo]see the reward of the wicked.
Because thou hast made the LORD, which is my [c]refuge,
Even the most High, thy [p]habitation;
[q]There shall no evil befall thee,
Neither shall any [r]plague come nigh thy [s]dwelling.
[t]For he shall give [u]his angels charge over thee,
To keep thee in all thy ways.
They shall bear thee up in their hands,
Lest thou [x]dash thy foot against a stone.
Thou shalt tread upon the [y]lion and [z]adder:
The young lion and the [z]dragon shalt thou [a]trample under feet.
[b]Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him:
I will [c]set him on high, because he hath [d]known my name.
He shall [e]call upon me, and I will answer him:
I will be with him in trouble;
[f]I will deliver him, and [g]honour him.

And shew him my salvation.

PSALM XCII.

* A Psalm or Song for the sabbath day.

[a]It is a good thing to [b]give thanks unto the LORD,
And to [b]sing praises unto thy name, O most High:
To shew forth thy [c]lovingkindness in the morning,
And [c]thy faithfulness [†]every night,
[d]Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the [bd]psaltery;
[‖]Upon the [bd]harp with a solemn sound.
For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through [e]thy work:
I will triumph in the [e]works of thy hands.
O LORD, [f]how great are thy works!
And thy thoughts are very [g]deep.
A [h]brutish man knoweth not;
Neither doth [h]a fool understand this.
When [i]the wicked [k]spring as the grass,
And when all [j]the workers of iniquity do [kl]flourish:
It is that they shall be destroyed for ever:
But thou, LORD, art [m]most High for evermore.
For lo, [n]thine enemies, O LORD,
For lo, [n]thine enemies shall perish;
All [j]the workers of iniquity shall [o]be scattered.
But [p]my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of [q]an unicorn:
I shall be anointed [r]with [s]fresh oil.
[t]Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies,
And mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me.
[u]The righteous shall [k]flourish like [x]the palm tree:
He shall grow like [y]a cedar in Lebanon.

Shall [k]flourish in [b]the courts of our God.
They shall still bring forth fruit in old 14
age;
They shall be fat and [f]flourishing;
[c]To shew that the LORD is upright: 15
He is [d]my rock, and [e]there is no unrighteousness in him.

PSALM XCIII.

[a b]The LORD reigneth, [c]he is clothed with majesty;
The LORD [d]is clothed [c]with strength,
wherewith [e]he hath girded himself:
[b]The world also is stablished, that [f]it cannot be moved.
[g]Thy throne is established [f]of old: 2
Thou art from everlasting.
The [h]floods have lifted up, O LORD, 3 [d]The floods have lifted up their voice;
[d]The floods lift up their waves.
[i]The LORD [j]on high is mightier 4
Than the noise of many waters, Yea, than the [k]mighty [l]waves of the sea.
Thy testimonies are very sure: 5
Holiness becometh thine house,
O LORD, [f]for ever.

PSALM XCIV.

O LORD [f]God, [a]to whom vengeance
belongeth;
[b]O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, [f]shew thyself.
[c]Lift up thyself, thou [d]judge of the 2
earth:
Render a reward to the proud.

LORD, [e]how long shall the wicked, 3
[b]How long shall the wicked triumph?
How long shall they [ee]utter and speak 4 [f]hard things?
And all [g]the workers of iniquity boast themselves?
They [h]break in pieces thy people, O 5
LORD,
And afflict thine heritage.
They slay the widow and the stranger, 6
And murder the fatherless.
[i]Yet they say, The [k]LORD shall not see, 7
Neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.
[l]Understand, ye [l]brutish [m]among the 8
people:
And ye [l]fools, when will ye be wise?
9 [n]He that planted the ear, shall he not hear?
He that formed the eye, shall he not see?
10 He that [o]chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct?
[p]He that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know?
11 [q]The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man,
That they are [r]vanity.
12 Blessed is the man whom thou [o s]chas-
tenest, O [k]LORD,
And [p]teachest him out of thy law;
13 That thou mayest [t]give him rest from [u]the days of adversity, Until [v]the pit be digged for the wicked.
14 For [w]the LORD will not cast off his people,
Neither will he forsake his inheritance.
15 But judgment shall return unto righteousness:
And all [x]the upright in heart [t]shall follow it.
16 Who will [y]rise up for me [z]against the evildoers?
Or who will [y]stand up for me [z]against [g]the workers of iniquity?
17 [a]Unless the LORD had been my help,
My soul had [‖b]almost dwelt in [c]silence.
18 When I said, [d]My foot slippeth;
Thy mercy, O LORD, [e]held me up.
19 In the multitude of my [f]thoughts within me
Thy comforts delight my soul.
20 Shall the throne of [g]iniquity have fellowship with thee,
Which frameth mischief [h]by a law?
21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous,
And [i]condemn the innocent blood.
22 But the LORD is my [j]defence;
And my God is [k]the rock of my [l]refuge.
23 And [m]he shall bring upon them their own iniquity,
And shall [n o]cut them off in their own wickedness;
Yea, the LORD our God [o]shall [n]cut them off.

I will [a]behave myself wisely in a perfect way. O [b]when wilt thou come unto me?
I will [c]walk within my house with [cd]a perfect heart.
I will set no [f]wicked thing before mine eyes:
[e]I hate the work of [f]them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.
[g]A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not [h]know a wicked person.
Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I [i]cut off:
Him that hath [k]a high look and [l]a proud heart [m]will not I suffer.
Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me:
He that walketh [l][n]in a perfect way, he shall serve me.
[o]He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house:
He that telleth lies [t]shall not tarry in my sight.
I will [p]early [i]destroy all the wicked of the land;
That I may cut off all [q]wicked doers from [r]the city of the LORD.

PSALM CII.

A [s] Prayer ‖of the afflicted, when he is [t]overwhelmed, and [s]poureth out his complaint before the LORD.

[a]Hear my prayer, O LORD,
And let my [b]cry [c]come unto thee.
[d]Hide not thy face from me
In the day when [e]I am in trouble;
[f]incline thine ear unto me:
[g]In the day when I call [h]answer me speedily.
[i]For my days are consumed ‖like smoke,
And [k]my bones are burnt as a hearth.
My heart is smitten, and [l]withered like grass;
‖So that I forget to eat my bread.
By reason of the voice of my groaning [m]my bones cleave to my ‖skin.

8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day;
And they that are [q]mad against me are sworn [r]against me.
9 For I have eaten ashes like bread,

And [o]the people which shall be created shall praise [p]the LORD.
19 For he hath [q]looked down from the height of his sanctuary;
[r]From heaven did the LORD behold the earth;
20 To hear [s]the groaning of the prisoner;
To loose [t]those that are appointed to death;

A Psalm of David.

[a]Bless the LORD, O my soul:
And all that is within me, bless his holy name.
[a]Bless the LORD, O my soul, 2
And [b]forget not all his benefits:
Who [cd]forgiveth all thine iniquities; 3
Who [de]healeth all thy diseases;
Who [f]redeemeth [g]thy life from [h]destruction; 4
Who [i]crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;
Who satisfieth thy [k]mouth with good things; 5
So that thy youth is renewed [l]like the eagle's.
The LORD [m]executeth righteousness 6
And [m]judgment for all that are oppressed.
[n]He made known his ways unto Moses, 7
His acts unto the children of Israel.
[o]The LORD is merciful and gracious, 8
Slow to anger, and [t]plenteous in mercy.
[p]He will not always chide: 9
Neither will he [q]keep his anger for ever.

[z]He remembereth that we are [a]dust.

For [cc]the wind passeth over it, and [t]it is gone; 16

But [e]the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon [v]them that fear him, 17
And his righteousness [f]unto children's children;
To such as [g]keep his covenant, 18
And to those that remember his [h]commandments to do them.
The LORD hath prepared [i]his throne in the heavens; 19
And [k]his kingdom ruleth over all.
Bless the LORD, ye [l]his angels, 20
[t]That excel in strength, that [m]do his commandments, Hearkening unto the voice of his word.
Bless ye the LORD, all ye [ln]his hosts; 21
Ye [o]ministers of his, that do [p]his pleasure.
[q]Bless the LORD, all his works 22

PSALM CIV.

[a]Bless the LORD, O my soul.
O LORD my God, [b]thou art very great; 1
[c]Thou art clothed with [d]honour and majesty. 2
Who coverest thyself with [e]light as with a garment:
Who [f]stretchest out the heavens like [g]a curtain:

Who [h]layeth the beams of his [i]chambers [j]in the waters:
Who maketh [k]the clouds his chariot:
Who walketh [l]upon the wings of the wind:
[m]Who maketh his angels spirits;
[n]His ministers a flaming [n]fire:
[p] Who laid the foundations of the earth,
That [q]it should not be removed for ever.
[r]Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment:
The waters stood above the mountains.
[s]At thy rebuke they fled;
At [t]the voice of thy thunder they [u]hasted away.
[‖]They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys
Unto [x]the place which thou hast [p]founded for them.
[x]Thou hast set [y]a bound that they may not pass over;
[z] That they turn not again to cover the earth.
[f]He sendeth the springs into the valleys,
Which [t]run among the hills.
They [a]give drink to every beast of the field:
The [b]wild asses [t]quench their thirst.
By them shall [c]the fowls of the heaven have their habitation,
Which [t]sing among the branches.
He [a]watereth the hills from his [i]chambers:
[d]The earth [p]is satisfied with [e]the fruit of thy works.
[f]He causeth the [g]grass to grow for the cattle,
And [h]herb for the service of man:
That he may bring forth [fi]food out of the earth;
And [k]wine that [l]maketh glad the heart of man,
And [m†]oil to make his face to shine,
And bread which [n]strengtheneth man's heart.
[o]The trees of the LORD [p]are full of sap;
[q]The cedars of Lebanon, [r]which he hath planted;
Where the birds make their nests:
As for the [s]stork, the fir trees are her house.

The high hills are a refuge for the [t]wild goats;
And the rocks for the [u]conies.
He appointed the moon [x]for seasons:
[y]The sun knoweth his going down.
[z]Thou makest darkness, and it is night:
Wherein [t]all the beasts of the forest do [i]creep forth.
The [a]young lions roar after their [a]prey,
And [b]seek their meat from God.
The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together,
And lay them down in their [c]dens.
[d]Man goeth forth unto [e]his work
And to his labour until the evening.
O LORD, how manifold are thy works!
[f]In wisdom hast thou made them all:
The earth is full of thy [g]riches.
So is this great and [h]wide sea,
[i]Wherein are things creeping innumerable,
Both small and great beasts.
There go the ships:
There is that [k]leviathan, whom thou hast [t]made to [t]play therein.
These [m]wait all upon thee;
That thou mayest [mn]give them their meat in due season.
That thou givest them they gather:
[nn]Thou openest thine hand, they are filled with good.
[o]Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled:
[p]Thou takest away their breath, they die,
And [pq]return to their dust.
Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created:
And thou renewest the face of the earth.

The glory of the LORD [t]shall endure for ever:
[r]The LORD shall rejoice in his works.
He looketh on the earth, and [s]it trembleth:
He [t]toucheth the hills, and they smoke.
I will sing unto the LORD [u]as long as I live:
I will sing praise to my God [u]while I have my being.
My [x]meditation of him shall be sweet:
I will be glad in the LORD.
Let [y]the sinners be consumed out of the earth,
And let the wicked be no more.
[z]Bless thou the LORD, O my soul.

Talk ye of all his wondrous works.
Glory ye in his holy name: 3
Let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.
Seek the LORD, and his [c]strength: 4
Seek his face evermore.
Remember his [d]marvellous works that 5
he hath done;
His wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;
O ye seed of [e]Abraham his servant, 6
Ye children of Jacob, [e]his chosen.
He is the LORD our God: 7
His judgments are in all the earth.
He hath [f]remembered his cove- 8
nant for ever,
The word which he commanded [g]to a thousand generations.
[f] Which covenant he made with 9
Abraham,
And his oath unto Isaac;
And confirmed the same unto Jacob 10
for a law,
And to Israel for an everlasting covenant:
[h] Saying, Unto thee will I give the 11
land of Canaan,
[f] The lot of your inheritance:
When [i]they were but [j]a few men in 12
number;
Yea, very few, and strangers in it.
When they went from one nation to 13
another,
From one kingdom to another people;
He suffered no man to do them wrong: 14
Yea, he reproved kings for their sakes;
[h] Saying, [k]Touch not mine anointed, 15
And do my prophets no harm.
Moreover, [l]he called for a famine 16
upon the land:
He [m]brake the whole [m]staff of bread.
[n] He sent a man before them, 17
Even Joseph, who [o]was sold for a servant:
[p] Whose feet they hurt with [q]fetters: 18
[r] He was laid in iron:
Until the time that [s]his word came: 19
[t] The word of the LORD [u]tried him.
[w] The king sent and [x]loosed him; 20
Even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.
[y] He made him lord of his house, 21
And ruler of all his [t]substance:

26 [g] He sent Moses his servant;

And [y]caterpillars, and that without number,
35 And did [z]eat up all the herbs in their land,
And [z]devoured the fruit of their ground.
36 [a] He smote also all the first-born in their land,
[a] The chief of all their strength.
37 He brought them forth also [b]with silver and gold:
And there was not one [c]feeble person among their tribes.

For [e]the fear of them that fell upon them.

And fire to give light in the night.

And satisfied them with [k]the bread of heaven.

[t]Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CVI.

[t]Praise ye the LORD.
[a]O give thanks unto the LORD; [b]for he is good:
[c]For his mercy endureth for ever.
Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? 2
Who can shew forth all his praise?
Blessed are they that keep judgment, 3
And he that [c]doeth righteousness [f]at all times.
[g]Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: 4
O visit me with thy salvation;
That I may see the good of [h]thy chosen, 5
That I may rejoice in the gladness of [i]thy nation,
That I may glory with thine inheritance.
We have [k]sinned [l]with our fathers, 6
[km]We have committed iniquity, [kn]we have done wickedly.
Our fathers [o]understood not thy wonders in Egypt; 7
They [p]remembered not the multitude of thy mercies;
But [q]provoked him at the sea, even at [r]the Red sea.
Nevertheless he saved them [s]for his name's sake, 8
That he [t]might make his mighty power to be known.
[u]He [w]rebuked the Red sea also, and it was [x]dried up: 9
So [y]he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.
And [z]he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, 10
And [a]redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
And [b]the waters covered their enemies: 11
[c]There was not one of them left.
Then [d]believed they his words; 12
They [d]sang his praise.
[e][t]They soon forgat his works; 13
They [f]waited not for his counsel:
[g]But [t]lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, 14
And [h]tempted God in [i]the desert.
And [j]he gave them their request; 15
But sent [k]leanness into their soul.
[l]They envied Moses also in the camp, 16
And [m]Aaron the saint of the LORD.
[n]The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, 17
And [o]covered [n]the company of Abiram.
And [p]a fire was kindled in their company; 18
[q]The flame burnt up [r]the wicked.
[s]They made a calf [t]in Horeb, 19
And worshipped the molten image.
Thus [u]they changed their glory 20
Into [x]the similitude of an ox that eateth grass.
They [y]forgat God their saviour, 21
Which had done [z]great things in Egypt;
Wondrous works in the land [a]of Ham, 22
And [z]terrible things by [b]the Red sea.
[c]Therefore [d]he said that he would destroy them, 23
Had not Moses [e]his chosen stood before him [f]in the breach,
To turn away his wrath, [g]lest he should destroy them.
Yea, [h]they despised [t]the pleasant land, 24
They [i]believed not his word:
[k]But [l]murmured in their tents, 25
And hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD.
Therefore [m]he lifted up his hand against them, 26
[t]To overthrow them in the wilderness:
[t]To overthrow their seed also among the nations, 27
And to [u]scatter them in the lands.
They [o]joined themselves also unto [p]Baal-peor, 28
And [q]ate the sacrifices of [r]the dead.
Thus they provoked him to anger with [s]their inventions: 29
And the plague brake in upon them.

Then [t]stood up Phinehas, and [u]exe- 30
cuted judgment:
And so [t]the plague was stayed.
And [w]that was counted unto him for 31 righteousness
Unto all generations for evermore.
[x]They [y]angered him also at the waters 32
of strife,
[z]So that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:
Because they [a]provoked his spirit, 33
[b]So that he [c]spake unadvisedly with his lips.
[d]They did not destroy the nations, 34
Concerning whom [e]the LORD commanded them:
[f]But were mingled among the hea- 35
then,
And learned their works.
And [g]they served their idols: 36
[h]Which were a snare unto them.
Yea, [i]they sacrificed their sons 37
And their daughters unto [k]devils,
And shed innocent blood, 38
Even the blood of their sons and of their daughters,
[i]Whom they sacrificed unto the idols
of Canaan:
And [l]the land was polluted with blood.
Thus were they [m]defiled with their 39
own works,
And [mn]went a whoring with [o]their own inventions.
Therefore [p]was the wrath of the LORD 40
kindled against [q]his people, Insomuch that he abhorred [q]his own inheritance.
And [p]he gave them into [r]the hand of 41
the heathen;
And they that hated them ruled over
them.
Their enemies also [s]oppressed them, 42
And they were [t]brought into subjection under their hand.
[u]Many times did he deliver them; 43
But they [a]provoked him [w]with their counsel,
And were [t]brought low for their iniquity.
Nevertheless he regarded [x]their afflic- 44
tion,
When [y]he heard their [z]cry:
And he [a]remembered for them his 45
covenant,
And [b]repented [c]according to the multitude of his mercies.
He made them also [c]to be pitied 46
Of all those that carried them captives.
[f]Save us, O LORD our God, 47
And [g]gather us from among the hea-
then,
To give thanks unto thy holy name,
And to triumph in thy praise.
[h]Blessed be the LORD God of Israel 48

PSALM CVII.

[a]O give thanks unto the LORD, for he 1 is good:

so,
[c]Whom he hath redeemed from the

From the east, and from the west, from the north, and [f]from the south.
They [f]wandered in the wilderness in 4
[g]a solitary way;
They found no [gg]city to dwell in.
[h]Hungry and thirsty, 5
Their soul [i]fainted in them.
[j]Then they cried unto the LORD [k]in 6
their trouble,
And he delivered them out of their distresses.
And he led them forth by the [l]right 7
way,
That they might go to [gg]a city of habitation.
[m]Oh that men would praise the LORD 8
for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men!

And filleth the [p]hungry soul with goodness.

Therefore he brought down their heart 12
with labour;
They fell down, and there was [x]none
to help.
[y]Then they cried unto the LORD in 13
their trouble,
And he saved them out of their dis-
tresses.
[z]He brought them out of [a]darkness 14
and the shadow of death,
And [b]brake their bands in sunder.
[bb]Oh that men would praise the LORD 15
for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the
children of men!
For he hath [c]broken the gates of brass, 16
And cut the bars of iron in sunder.

[d]Fools because of their transgression, 17
And because of their iniquities, are afflicted.
[e]Their soul abhorreth all manner of 18
meat;
And [f]they draw near unto [g]the gates of death.
[h]Then they cry unto the LORD in their 19
trouble,
He saveth them out of their dis-
tresses.
He [ik]sent [k]his word, and [l]healed 20
them,
And [m]delivered them from their [n]destructions.
[o]Oh that men would praise the LORD 21
for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the
children of men!
And let them [p]sacrifice the sacrifices 22
of thanksgiving,
And [q]declare his works with [l]rejoicing.

[r]They that go down to the sea in 23
ships,
That do business in [s]great waters;
These see the works of the LORD, 24
And his wonders in the deep.
For [t]he commandeth, and [t]raiseth the 25
[u]stormy wind,
Which lifteth up the waves thereof.
They mount up to the heaven, they 26
go down again to the depths:
Their soul [x]is melted because of trouble.
They reel to and fro, and [y]stagger 27
[z]like a drunken man,
And [t]are at their wit's end.
[a]Then they cry unto the LORD in their 28
trouble,
And he bringeth them out of their distresses.

[b]He maketh the storm a [c]calm, 29
So that the waves thereof are still.
Then are they glad because they [d]be 30
quiet;
So he bringeth them unto their desired haven.
[e]Oh that men would praise the LORD 31
for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the
children of men!
Let them [f]exalt him also [g]in the con- 32
gregation of the people,
And [g]praise him in the assembly of the elders.

He turneth rivers into a wilderness, 33
And the watersprings into [h]dry
ground;
[i]A fruitful land into [t]barrenness, 34
For the wickedness of them that dwell therein.
He turneth the wilderness into [kl]a 35
standing water,
And [m]dry ground into watersprings;
And there he maketh the hungry to 36 dwell,
That they may prepare [n]a city for habitation;
And sow the fields, and plant vine- 37
yards,
Which may yield fruits of increase.
He blesseth them also, so that [o]they 38
are multiplied greatly;
And suffereth not their cattle to decrease.
Again, they are minished and brought 39
low
Through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.
[p]He poureth contempt upon princes, 40 [q]And causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.
Yet [r]setteth he the poor on high [l]from 41
affliction,
And [s]maketh him families like a flock.
[t]The righteous shall see it, and re- 42
joice:
And all [u]iniquity shall stop her mouth.
[x]Whoso is wise, and will observe these 43 things,
Even they shall understand the loving-kindness of the LORD.

For thy mercy is great [b]above the heavens:
And thy truth reacheth unto the [l][c]clouds.
Be thou exalted, O God, [b]above the heavens:
And thy glory above all the earth.
[d]That thy beloved may be delivered; Save with thy right hand, and answer me.
God hath spoken in his holiness;
I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem,
And mete out the valley of Succoth.
Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine;
Ephraim also is the strength of mine head;
Judah is my lawgiver;
Moab is my washpot;
Over Edom will I cast out my shoe;
Over Philistia [e] will I triumph.
Who will bring me into [e][f]the strong city?
Who will lead me into Edom?
Wilt not thou, O God, who hast cast us off?
[g]And wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?
Give us help from trouble:
For vain is the help of man.
Through God we shall do valiantly:
For he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

PSALM CIX.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

[a]Hold not thy peace, [b]O God of my praise;
For the mouth of the wicked and the [†]mouth of the deceitful [†]are opened against me:
They have spoken against me with a lying tongue.
They compassed me about also with words of hatred;
And fought against me [c]without a cause.
For my love they [d]are my adversaries:
But [e]I give myself unto [f]prayer.
And [g]they have rewarded me evil for good,
And hatred for my love.
[h]Set thou a wicked man over [i]him:
And [k]let [l]Satan stand [k]at his right hand.
[m]When he shall be judged, let him [†]be condemned:
And let [n]his prayer become sin.
Let his days be few;
And [o]let another take his [l]office.
Let [p]his children be fatherless,
And his wife a widow.
Let his children [q]be continually vagabonds, and [r]beg:
Let them seek [s]their bread also out of their desolate places.
Let the extortioner [t]catch all that he hath;
And [u]let the strangers spoil his labour.
Let there be none to [w]extend mercy unto him:
Neither let there be [x]any to favour his fatherless children.
Let [y]his posterity be cut off;
And in the generation following let [z]their name be blotted out.
Let [a]the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD;
And let not the sin of his mother [b]be blotted out.
Let them be before the LORD continually,
[c]That he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.
Because that he remembered not to shew mercy,
But persecuted [d]the poor and needy man,
That he might even slay the [e]broken in heart.
[f]As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him:
As he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.
As [g]he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment,
So let it [h]come [†]into his bowels like water,
And like oil into his bones.
Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him,
And for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.
Let this be the reward of [i]mine adversaries from the LORD,
And of them that speak evil against my soul.
But do thou for me, O GOD the Lord,
[j]for thy name's sake:
[k]Because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me.

shaked their heads.

That they may know that this is thy 27
hand;
That thou, LORD, hast done it.
Let them curse, but bless thou: [t] 28
When they arise, let them be ashamed; but let [u] thy servant rejoice.
Let [v] mine [x] adversaries [w] be clothed 29
with shame,
And let them [x] cover themselves with their own [w] confusion, as with a mantle.

my mouth;
Yea, [y] I will praise him among the multitude.
For he shall stand [z] at the right hand 31
of the poor,
To save him [†] from those that condemn his soul.

PSALM CX.

A Psalm of [*] David.

[a] The LORD said unto my Lord,
[b] Sit thou [c] at my right hand,
[d] Until I make thine enemies thy [e] footstool.
The LORD shall send the [f] rod of thy 2
strength [g] out of Zion:
[h] Rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.
[i] Thy people shall be willing in the day 3 of thy power, [k] in the beauties of holiness [‖] From the womb of the morning: thou hast [l] the dew of thy youth.
[m] The LORD [n] hath sworn, and 4
[o] will not repent,
[m p] Thou art a [q] priest [r] for ever
After the order of [s] Melchizedek.
5 The Lord [t] at thy right hand [y] Shall strike through [u] kings in [w] the day of [x] his wrath.
6 He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies;
He [y] shall wound the heads over [‖] many countries.
7 He [z] shall drink of the brook in the
way:
Therefore shall he lift up the head.

PSALM CXI.

[†] Praise ye the LORD.
(א) [a] I will praise the LORD with my whole heart,
(ב) [b] In the assembly of the upright,
and [a] in the congregation.
2 (ג) [c] The works of the LORD are great,
(ד) Sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.
3 (ה) [d] His work is [e] honourable and glorious:

4 (ז) He hath made his wonderful works
to be remembered:
(ח) The LORD is [g] gracious and full of compassion.
5 (ט) He hath given [h] meat unto them
that fear him:
(י) He will ever be mindful of his covenant.
6 (כ) He hath shewed his people the power of his works,
(ל) That he may give them the heritage of the heathen.
7 (מ) The works of his hands are [i] verity and judgment;
(נ) All his commandments are [k] sure.
8 (ס) [l] They [†] stand fast for ever and
ever,
(ע) And are done in [‖] truth and uprightness.
9 (פ) [m] He sent [n] redemption unto his people:
(צ) He hath commanded his covenant
for ever:
(ק) [o] Holy and [o p] reverend is his name.
10 (ר) The fear of the LORD is the beginning of [q] wisdom:
(ש) [‖] A good understanding have all they [†] that do [r] his commandments:

PSALM CXII.

[1] [1] Praise ye the LORD.

(א) [a] Blessed is the man that feareth the LORD,

(ב) That [b] delighteth greatly in his commandments.

(ג) [c] His seed shall be mighty upon earth: 2

(ד) The generation of the upright shall be blessed.

(ה) [d] Wealth and [d] riches shall be in his house: 3

(ו) And [e] his righteousness endureth for ever.

(ז) [f] Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness: 4

(ח) He is [g] gracious, and full of compassion, and [h] righteous.

(ט) A good man [i] sheweth favour, and lendeth: 5

(י) He will [j] guide his affairs with [1] [k] discretion.

(כ) Surely [l] he shall not be moved for ever: 6

(ל) [m] The righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.

(מ) [n] He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: 7

(נ) His [o] heart is fixed, [p] trusting in the LORD.

(ס) His heart is [q] established, [n] he shall not be afraid, 8

(ע) Until he [r] see his desire upon his enemies.

(פ) [s] He hath [t] dispersed, he hath given to the poor; 9

(צ) [e] His [u] righteousness endureth for ever;

(ק) His [v] horn shall be exalted with honour.

(ר) The wicked shall see it, and be grieved; 10

(ש) He shall [w] gnash with his teeth, and [x] melt away:

(ת) [y] The desire [yz] of the wicked shall perish.

*PSALM CXIII.

[1] [1] Praise ye the LORD.

[a] Praise, O ye [ab] servants of the LORD,
Praise the name of the LORD.

[c] Blessed be the name of the LORD 2
From this time forth and for evermore.

[d] From the rising of the sun unto the 3 going down of the same [e] The LORD's name is [f] to be praised.

4 The LORD is [g] high above all nations,
And [h] his glory above the heavens.

5 [i] Who is like unto the LORD our God,
Who [1] dwelleth on high,

6 [j] Who humbleth himself to behold
The things that are in heaven, and in the earth?

7 [k] He raiseth up the poor out of the dust,
And lifteth the needy out of the dunghill;

8 [k] That he may [l] set him with princes,
Even with the princes of his people.

9 [m] He maketh the barren woman [1] to keep house,
To be a joyful mother of children.
[n] Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXIV.

When [a] Israel went out of Egypt,
The house of Jacob [b] from a people of strange language;

2 Judah was [c] his sanctuary,
And Israel [d] his dominion.

3 [e] The sea saw it, and fled:
[f] Jordan was driven back.

4 [g] The mountains skipped like rams,
And the [h] little hills like lambs.

5 [i] What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest?
Thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back?

6 [g] Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams;
And ye [h] little hills, like lambs?

7 [k] Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord,
At the presence of the God of Jacob;

8 Which turned [l] the rock into [m] a standing water,
The [n] flint into a fountain of waters.

PSALM CXV.

[a] Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us,
But unto thy name [b] give glory,
For thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

2 Wherefore should the heathen say,
[c] Where is now their God?

3 [d] But our God is in the heavens:
[e] He hath done whatsoever he pleased.

4 [f] Their idols are silver and gold,
[g] The work of men's hands.

Noses have they, but they smell not:
[l]They have hands, but they handle not:
Feet have they, but they walk not:
Neither speak they through their throat.
[m]They that make them are like unto them;
So is every one that trusteth in them.

[n]O Israel, [o]trust thou in the LORD:
[p]He is their help and their [q]shield.
[n]O house of Aaron, [o]trust' in the LORD:
[p]He is their help and their [q]shield.
[n r]Ye that fear the LORD, [o]trust in the LORD:
[p]He is their help and their [q]shield.

The LORD hath been mindful of us: he will bless us;
He will bless [s]the house of Israel;
He will bless [s]the house of Aaron.
He will bless [n t]them that fear the LORD,
Both small [t]and great.
The LORD shall [u]increase you more and more,
You and your children.
You are [v]blessed of the LORD
[w]Which made heaven and earth.

[x]The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD'S:
But the earth hath he given to the children of men.
[xx]The dead praise not the [y]LORD,
Neither any that go down into [z]silence.
[a]But we will bless the [y]LORD
From this time forth and for evermore.
[b]Praise the LORD.

PSALM CXVI.

I [a]love the LORD, because [b]he hath heard [bb]My voice and my supplications.
Because he hath [c]inclined his ear unto me,
Therefore will I call upon him [t]as long as I live.
[d]The sorrows of death [e]compassed me,
And the [f]pains of hell [t]gat hold upon me:
I found trouble and sorrow.

[g]Then called I upon the name of the LORD;
O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.
[h]Gracious is the LORD, and [i]righteous;
Yea, our God is [h]merciful.
The LORD preserveth the [k]simple:
[l]I was brought low, and he helped me.
Return unto thy [m]rest, O my soul;
For the LORD [n]hath dealt bountifully with thee.
[o]For thou hast delivered my soul from death,
Mine eyes from tears,
And [o]my feet from falling.
I will walk before the LORD
[p]In the land of the living.
[q]I believed, therefore have I spoken:
I was greatly afflicted:
[r]I said in my haste,
[s]All men are liars.

What shall I [t]render unto the LORD
For all his [t]benefits towards me?
I will take the [u]cup of salvation,
[x]And call upon the name of the LORD.
[y]I will pay my vows unto the LORD
Now in the presence of all his people.
[z]Precious in the sight of the LORD
Is the death of his [a]saints.
Oh LORD, truly [b]I am thy servant;
I am thy servant, and [c]the son of thy handmaid:
Thou hast [d]loosed my bonds.
I will [e]offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving,
[f]And will call upon the name of the LORD.
[g]I will pay my vows unto the LORD
Now in the presence of all his people,
In the [h]courts of the LORD'S house,
In the midst of thee, O Jerusalem.
[i]Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXVII.

O [a]praise the LORD, all ye nations:
Praise him, all ye people.
For [b]his merciful kindness is great toward us:
And [c]the truth of the LORD endureth for ever.
[d]Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXVIII.

[a] O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good:
Because his mercy endureth for ever.
[b] Let Israel now say,
That his mercy endureth for ever.
[b] Let the house of Aaron now say,
That his mercy endureth for ever.
[b] Let them now [c] that fear the LORD say,
That his mercy endureth for ever.
[d] I called upon the [e] LORD [f] in [f] distress:
The [e] LORD answered me, and [g] set me in [h] a large place.
[i] The LORD is [f] on my side; [j] I will not fear:
What can man do unto me?
[k] The LORD taketh my part with them that help me:
Therefore shall [l] I see my desire upon them that hate me.
It is better to [m] trust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in man.
It is better to [m] trust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in [n] princes.
All nations [o] compassed me about:
But in the name of the LORD will I [f] destroy them.
[o] They compassed me about; yea, they compassed me about:
But in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.
[o] They compassed me about [p] like bees;
They are quenched [q] as the fire of thorns:
For in the name of the LORD I will [f] destroy them.
Thou hast [r] thrust sore at me that I might fall:
But the LORD helped me.
The [se] LORD is my strength and song,
And [st] is become my salvation.
The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous:
[u] The right hand of the LORD [v] doeth valiantly.
The right hand of the LORD is exalted:
[u] The right hand of the LORD [v] doeth valiantly.
I [w] shall not die, but live,
And [x] declare the works of the [e] LORD.
The [e] LORD hath [y] chastened me sore:
But he hath not given me over unto death.
[z] Open to me the gates of righteousness:
I will go into them, and I will praise the [e] LORD:
This gate of the LORD,
[a] Into which the righteous shall enter.
I will praise thee: for [b] thou hast heard me,
[c] And art become my salvation.
[d] The stone which the builders refused
Is become [e] the head stone of the corner.
[f] This is the LORD's doing;
It is marvellous in our eyes.
This is the day which the LORD hath made;
We will rejoice and be glad in it.
[f] Save now, I beseech thee, O LORD:
O LORD, I beseech thee, send now prosperity.
[g] Blessed be [h] he that cometh [i] in the name of the LORD:
[k] We have blessed you out of the house of the LORD.
God is the LORD, which hath [l] shewed us light:
Bind the [m] sacrifice with cords,
Even unto [n] the horns of the altar.
Thou art my God, and I will praise thee:
Thou art my God, I will [o] exalt thee.
[p] O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good:
For his mercy endureth for ever.

PSALM CXIX.

ALEPH.

(א) Blessed are the [ll] undefiled in the way,
[a] Who walk in the law of the LORD.
(א) Blessed are they that [w] keep his testimonies,
And that [b] seek him with the whole heart.
(א) [c] They also do no iniquity:
They walk in his ways.
(א) Thou hast commanded us
To keep thy [d] precepts diligently.
(א) O that my ways [e] were directed
To keep thy statutes!
(א) Then [ee] shall I not be ashamed,
When I have respect unto all thy commandments.
(א) I will praise thee with uprightness of heart,
When I shall have learned [f] thy righteous [f] judgments.
(א) I will keep thy statutes:
O forsake me not utterly.

(ב) With my whole heart have I [h]sought thee: 10
O let me not [h]wander from thy commandments.
(ב) [i]Thy word have I hid in mine heart, 11
That I might not sin against thee.
(ב) Blessed art thou, O LORD: 12
[j]Teach me thy statutes.
(ב) [k]With my lips have I declared 13
All the judgments of thy mouth.
(ב) I have [l]rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, 14
As much as in all riches.
(ב) I will [m]meditate in thy precepts, 15
And have respect unto thy ways.
(ב) I will [n]delight myself in thy statutes: 16
I will not forget thy word.

(ה) [t]Turn away [q]mine eyes from be- 37
holding vanity;
And [a]quicken thou me in thy way.
(ה) [r]Stablish thy word unto thy ser- 38
vant,
Who is devoted to thy fear.
(ה) Turn away [s]my reproach which I 39 fear:
For thy judgments are good.
(ה) Behold, I have [t]longed after thy 40
precepts:
[a]Quicken me in thy righteousness.

VAU.

(ו) Let thy mercies [u]come also unto 41
me, O LORD,
Even thy salvation, [w]according to thy word.
(ו) [l]So shall I have wherewith to an- 42
swer him that [x]reproacheth me:
For I trust in thy word.
(ו) And take not the word of truth 43
utterly out of my mouth;
For I have [y]hoped in thy judgments.
(ו) So shall I keep thy law continually 44
For ever and ever.
(ו) And I will walk [t]at liberty: 45
For I seek thy precepts.

ZAIN.

(ז) Remember the word unto thy ser- 49
vant,
Upon which thou hast [d] caused me to hope.
(ז) This is my [e] comfort in my affliction: 50
For [f] thy word hath [g] quickened me.
(ז) The [h] proud have [i] had me greatly 51
in derision:
Yet have I not [j] declined from thy law.
(ז) I remembered thy judgments of old, 52
O LORD;
And have comforted myself.
(ז) [k] Horror hath taken hold upon me 53
because of the wicked
That [l] forsake thy law.
(ז) Thy statutes have been my songs 54
In the house of my [m] pilgrimage.
(ז) [n] I have remembered thy name, O 55
LORD, in the night,
And have kept thy law.
(ז) This I had, 56
Because I [nn] kept thy precepts.

CHETH.

(ח) Thou art [o] my portion, O LORD: 57
I have said that I would keep thy words.
(ח) I intreated thy [t] favour with my 58
whole heart:
[p] Be merciful unto me [q] according to thy word.
(ח) [r] I thought on my ways, 59
And turned my feet unto thy testimonies.
(ח) I made haste, and [s] delayed not 60
To keep thy commandments.
(ח) The [u] bands of the wicked have 61 robbed me:
But [t] I have not forgotten thy law.
(ח) At [u] midnight I will rise to give 62
thanks unto thee
Because of [w] thy righteous judgments.
(ח) I am a companion of all them that 63 fear thee,
And of them that keep thy precepts.
(ח) [x] The earth, O LORD, is full of thy 64
mercy:
[y] Teach me thy statutes.

TETH.

(ט) Thou hast dealt well with thy ser- 65
vant,
O LORD, [z] according unto thy word.
(ט) Teach me good [a] judgment and 66
knowledge:
For I have believed thy commandments.
(ט) [b] Before I was afflicted I went 67 astray:
But now have I kept thy word.
(ט) [c] Thou art good, and [c] doest good; 68
[d] Teach me thy statutes.
(ט) The [e] proud have [f] forged a lie 69
against me:
But I will [ff] keep thy precepts with my whole heart.
(ט) [g] Their heart is as fat as grease; 70
But I [h] delight in thy law.
(ט) It [b] is good for me that I have 71 been afflicted;
That I might learn thy statutes.
(ט) [i] The law of thy mouth is better 72 unto me
Than thousands of gold and silver.

JOD.

(י) [j] Thy hands have [k] made me and 73
[k] fashioned me:
[l] Give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.
(י) They that fear thee will [m] be glad 74
when they see me;
Because I have [n] hoped in thy word.
(י) I know, O LORD, that thy judg- 75
ments are [t] right,
And that [b] thou [o] in faithfulness hast afflicted me.
(י) Let, I pray thee, thy merciful kind- 76
ness be [t] for my comfort, [p] According to thy word unto thy servant.
(י) Let thy tender mercies [p] come unto 77
me, that I may live:
For thy law is [q] my delight.
(י) [r] Let the proud be ashamed; for 78 they dealt perversely with me [s] without a cause:
But I will [t] meditate in thy precepts.
(י) Let those that fear thee turn unto 79
me,
And those that have known thy testimonies.
(י) Let my heart be sound in thy sta- 80

LAMED.

(ל) For ever, O LORD, 89
[m]Thy word is settled in heaven.
(ל) Thy [n]faithfulness is [t]unto all gen- 90
erations:
Thou hast established the earth, and
it [t]abideth.
(ל) They continue this day accord- 91
ing to thine [o]ordinances:
For all are thy servants.
(ל) Unless thy law had been [p]my de- 92 lights,
I should then have perished in mine
affliction.
(ל) [q]I will never forget thy precepts: 93
For with them thou hast [l]quickened me.
(ל) I am thine, save me; 94
For I have sought thy precepts.
(ל) The wicked have waited for me 95
to destroy me:
But I will consider thy testimonies.
(ל) [r]I have seen an end of all perfec- 96
tion:
But thy commandment is exceeding [s]broad.

MEM.

(מ) O [t]how love I thy law! 97
It is [u]my meditation all the day.
(מ) Thou through thy commandments 98 hast made me [v]wiser than mine enemies:
For [t]they are ever with me.
(מ) I [vw]have more understanding than 99
all my teachers:
[x]For thy testimonies are [u]my medi-

(מ) [v]I [y]understand more than the 100 ancients,

(מ) [z]I have refrained my feet from 101
every evil way,
That I might keep thy word.
(מ) I have not departed from thy 102 judgments:
For thou hast taught me.
(מ) How [a]sweet are thy words unto 103
my [t]taste!
Yea, sweeter [a]than honey to my mouth!
(מ) Through thy precepts I get un- 104
derstanding:
Therefore [b]I hate every false way.

NUN.

*A Song of degrees †of David.

LORD, [a] my heart is not haughty, nor [b] mine eyes lofty:
Neither [c] do I [†] exercise myself in great matters, or in things too [†] high for me.
Surely I have behaved and quieted [†] myself,

My soul is even as a weaned child.

*A Song of degrees.

LORD, [a] remember David,
And all his afflictions:
How he sware unto the LORD,
And [aa] vowed unto [b] the mighty God of Jacob;
Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house,
Nor go up into my bed;
I will not [c] give sleep to mine eyes,
Or [c] slumber to mine eyelids,
Until [d] I find out a place for the LORD,
[†] A habitation for [b] the mighty God of Jacob.
Lo, we heard of [e] it at [f] Ephratah:
[g] We found it in the fields [h] of the wood.
We will go into his [i] tabernacles:
[j] We will worship at his [k] footstool.
[l] Arise, O LORD, into [m] thy rest;
Thou, and the [en] ark of thy strength.

PSALM CXXXVII.

About B.C. 570.

By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down, yea, we wept,
When we remembered Zion.
We hanged our harps 2
Upon the [a]willows in the midst thereof.
For there they that carried us away 3 captive required of us [†]a song;
And they that [†]wasted us required of us mirth,
Saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion.
[b]How shall we sing the LORD's song 4
In a [†]strange land?
If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, 5
[bb]Let my right hand forget her cunning.
If I do not remember thee, 6
Let my [c]tongue cleave to the roof of
my mouth;
If I prefer not Jerusalem above [†]my chief joy.
Remember, O LORD, [d]the children 7
of Edom in the day of Jerusalem; Who said, [†]Rase it, rase it, even to the foundation thereof.
O daughter of Babylon, [e]who art to 8
be [†]destroyed;
Happy shall he be, [†g]that [h]rewardeth
thee
As thou hast served us.

PSALM CXXXVIII.

A Psalm of David.

I will praise thee with my whole
heart:
[a]Before the gods will I sing praise 2
unto thee.
I will worship [b]towards [c]thy holy temple,
And praise thy name for thy loving-kindness and for thy truth:
For thou hast [d]magnified [e]thy word above all thy name.
In the day when I cried thou answer- 3
edst me,
And [f]strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.
[g]All the kings of the earth shall praise 4
thee, O LORD,
When they hear the words of thy mouth.
Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the 5
LORD:
For great is the glory of the LORD.
[b]Though the LORD be high, yet [h]hath 6
he respect unto the lowly:
But [i]the proud he knoweth afar off.
[k]Though I walk in the midst of trou- 7
ble, [l]thou wilt revive me:
Thou shalt [m]stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies,
And thy right hand shall save me.
The LORD will [n]perfect that which 8 concerneth me:
[o]Thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever:
Forsake not [p]the works of thine own hands.

[*] See Ps. 4, title.
[*] To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.
O LORD, [a]thou hast searched me, and known me.

[a] See Ps. 44. 21. So Ps. 7. 9. & 17. 3. Jer. 12. 3.

Thou knowest [b c]my downsitting and [c d]mine uprising,
[e]Thou understandest my [f]thought afar off.
[e]Thou [g]compassest my path and my lying down,
And art [g]acquainted with all my ways.
For there is not a word in my tongue,
But lo, O LORD, [h]thou knowest it altogether.
Thou hast [i]beset me behind and before,
And [k]laid thine hand upon me.
Such [l]knowledge is [m]too wonderful for me;
It is high, I cannot attain unto it.
[n]Whither shall I go from thy spirit?
Or whither [o]shall I flee from thy presence?
[p]If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there:
[q]If I [r]make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.
If I take [s]the wings of the morning,
And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;
Even there shall thy hand [t]lead me,
And thy right hand shall hold me.
If I say, [u]Surely the darkness shall cover me;
Even the night shall be light about me.
Yea, [u]the darkness [t]hideth not from thee;
But the night shineth as the day:
[t]The darkness and the light are both alike to thee.
For thou hast [v]possessed my reins:
Thou hast [w]covered me in my mother's womb.
I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made:
[x]Marvellous are thy works;
And that my soul knoweth [t]right well.
[y]My [l]substance was not hid from thee,
When I was made in secret,
And [z]curiously wrought in [a]the lowest parts of the earth.
[y]Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect;
And in thy book [t]all my members were written,
[l] Which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

PSALM CXL.

[*] To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.
[a] Deliver me, O LORD, [b]from the evil man:
[b] Preserve me from the [†]violent man;
Which imagine mischiefs in their heart;
Continually are they [c]gathered together for war.
[d]They have sharpened their tongues like [e]a serpent;
[f]Adder's [e]poison is [g]under their lips. Selah.
Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked;
[b]Preserve me from the violent man;
Who have purposed to [h]overthrow my goings.
The proud have [i]hid [k]a snare for me, and [l]cords;
They have spread a [m]net by the way side;
They have set [n]grins for me. Selah.
I [nn]said unto the LORD, Thou art my God:
Hear [o]the voice of my supplications, O LORD.

Thou hast [q]covered my head in the day of [r]battle.
Grant not, O LORD, [s]the desires of the wicked:
Further not his wicked device;
[t‖]Lest they exalt themselves. Selah.

As for the head of those that compass me about,
[u]Let the mischief of their own lips cover them.
Let burning coals [w]fall upon them:
Let them be cast into the fire;
Into deep pits, that they rise not up again.
Let not [†‖]an evil speaker be established in the earth:
Evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

I know that the LORD will [x]maintain the cause of the afflicted,
And [xy]the right of the poor.
Surely [z]the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name:
The upright shall dwell in thy presence.

PSALM CXLI.

A Psalm of David.

LORD, I cry unto thee: [a]make haste unto me;
Give hear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee.
Let [b]my prayer be [†]set forth before thee as [b]incense;
And [c]the lifting up of my hands as [d]the evening sacrifice.
Set [e]a watch, O LORD, before my mouth;
[e]Keep the door of my lips.
[f]Incline not my heart to any evil thing,
To practise wicked works with men that [g]work iniquity:
And [h]let me not eat of their dainties.

[ii‖]Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness:
And let him reprove me; it shall be an [k]excellent oil,
Which shall not break my head:
For yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.
When [l]their judges are overthrown in stony places,
[l]They shall hear my words; for they are sweet.

[m]Our bones are scattered [n]at the grave's mouth,
As when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth.

But [o]mine eyes are unto thee, O GOD the Lord:
[p]In thee is my trust; [†]leave not my soul destitute.
Keep me from [q]the snare which they have laid for me,
And the [r]grins of [g]the workers of iniquity.
Let the wicked [s]fall into their own nets,
Whilst that I withal [†]escape.

PSALM CXLII.

‖Maschil of David; A Prayer [*]when he was in the cave.

[a]I cried unto the LORD with my voice;
With my voice unto the LORD did I [b]make my supplication.
I [c]poured out my [d]complaint before him;
I shewed before him my trouble.
When [e]my spirit was overwhelmed within me,
Then thou knewest my path.
In the way wherein I walked
Have they [f]privily laid a snare for me.
[g‖]I looked on my [h]right hand, and beheld,
But there was no man that would [i]know me:
Refuge [†]failed me;
[†]No man cared for my soul.
I cried unto thee, O LORD:
[k]I said, Thou art my [l]refuge
And [m]my portion [n]in the land of the living.
[o]Attend unto my cry;
[p]For I am brought very low:
Deliver me from my persecutors;
[q]For they are stronger than I.

PSALM CXLVII.

[a] Praise ye the LORD:
For [b]it is good to sing praises unto our God;
[c]For it is pleasant; and [d]praise is comely.
[e]The LORD doth build up Jerusalem: 2
He [f]gathereth together [g]the outcasts of Israel.
[h]He healeth [i]the broken in heart, 3
And [k]bindeth up their [l]wounds.
[l]He telleth the number of the stars; 4
[m]He calleth them all by their names.
[n]Great is our Lord, and [o]of great 5 power:
[p]His understanding is infinite.
[q]The LORD [r]lifteth up the meek: 6
He casteth the wicked down to the ground.
[s]Sing unto the LORD with thanks- 7 giving;
Sing praise upon the [t]harp unto our God:
Who covereth the heaven with clouds, 8
[u]Who prepareth rain for the earth,
[v]Who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.
[w]He giveth to the beast his food, 9
And [x]to the young ravens which cry.
He delighteth not in the strength of 10
[y]the horse:
He taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.
[z]The LORD taketh pleasure in them 11
that fear him,
[a]In those that hope in his mercy.
Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem; 12
Praise thy God, O Zion.
For he hath strengthened [b]the bars 13
of thy gates;
He hath blessed thy children within thee.
[c]He maketh peace in thy borders, 14
And [d]filleth thee with the [e]finest of the wheat.
[e]He sendeth forth his commandment 15 upon earth:
His word runneth very swiftly.
He giveth [f]snow like wool: 16
He [g]scattereth the [h]hoarfrost like ashes.
He casteth forth his [hi]ice like morsels: 17
Who can stand before his [i]cold?
[k]He sendeth out his word, and melt- 18
eth them:
He causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.
19 [l]He sheweth [t]his word unto Jacob,
[m]His statutes and his judgments unto Israel.
20 [n]He hath not dealt so with any nation:
And as for his [o]judgments, they have not known them.
[p]Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXLVIII.

[t]Praise ye the LORD.
Praise ye the LORD [a]from the heavens:
Praise him [aa]in the heights.
2 Praise ye him, all [b]his angels:
Praise ye him, all [b]his hosts.
3 Praise ye him, sun and moon:
Praise him, all ye stars of light.
4 Praise him, [bb]ye heavens of heavens,
And [c]ye waters that be above the heavens.
5 [r]Let them praise the name of the LORD:
For [d]he commanded, and they were created.
6 [e]He hath also stablished them for ever and ever:
He hath made a decree [f]which shall not pass.
7 Praise the LORD [g]from the earth,
Ye [h]dragons, and all deeps:
8 [i]Fire, and [i]hail; snow, and vapour;
[k]Stormy wind [l]fulfilling his word:
9 [m]Mountains, and all hills;
[n]Fruitful [m]trees, and all cedars:
10 [o]Beasts, and all [o]cattle;
[o]Creeping things, and [l]flying fowl:
11 Kings of the earth, and all people;
Princes, and all [p]judges of the earth:
12 Both young men, and maidens;
Old men, and [q]children:
13 [r]Let them praise the name of the LORD:
For [s]his name alone is [t]excellent;
[t]His glory is above the earth and heaven.
14 He also [u]exalteth the horn of his people,
[w]The praise of all his [x]saints;
Even of the children of Israel, [y]a people near unto him.
[z]Praise ye the LORD.

THE PROVERBS.

I. [Before CHRIST written about 1000].

1 THE [a] proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel.
2 To know wisdom and [b] instruction;
To [c] perceive the words of [d] understanding;
3 To receive the [b] instruction of wisdom,
[e] Justice, and judgment, and [f] equity;
4 To give [f] subtilty to the [g] simple,
To the young man knowledge and [h] discretion.
5 A wise man will hear, and [b] will increase [i] learning;
And a man of understanding shall [ii] attain unto [j] wise counsels:
6 To [c] understand a [a] proverb, and [k] the interpretation;
The words of the wise, and their [l] dark sayings.
7 [m] The fear of the LORD is [n] the beginning of knowledge:
But [n] fools despise wisdom and [b] instruction.
8 [o] My son, hear the [b] instruction of thy father,
And [p] forsake not the law of thy mother:
9 For they shall be [f] an ornament of grace unto thy head,
And [q] chains about thy [r] neck.
10 My son, [s] if sinners entice thee,
Consent thou not.
11 If they say, Come with us, let us [t] lay wait for blood,
Let us [u] lurk privily for the innocent without cause:
12 Let us [v] swallow them up alive [w] as the grave;
And whole, [x] as those that go down into the pit:
13 We shall find all precious substance,
We shall fill our houses with spoil:
14 Cast in thy lot among us;
Let us all have one purse:
15 My son, [y] [x] walk not thou in the way with them;
Refrain thy foot from their path:
16 [z] For their feet run to evil,
And make haste to shed blood.
17 Surely in vain [a] the net is spread [f] in the sight of any bird.
18 And they [c] lay wait for their own blood;
They [c] lurk privily for their own lives.
19 So are the ways of every one [d] that is greedy of gain;
Which taketh away the life of [dd] the owners thereof.
20 [f] [e] Wisdom crieth without:
She uttereth her voice in the streets:
21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in [ee] the openings of the gates:
In the city she uttereth her words, saying,
22 How long, ye [f] simple ones, will ye love simplicity?
And the [g] scorners delight in their scorning,
And fools [h] hate knowledge?
23 Turn you at my reproof:
Behold, [i] I will [j] pour out my spirit unto you,
I will make known my words unto you.
24 [k] Because I have called, and ye [l] refused;
I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;
25 But ye have [m] set at nought all my counsel,
And [n] would none of my reproof:
26 I also will [o] laugh at your calamity;
I will [o] mock when your fear cometh;
27 When your fear cometh as [p] desolation,
And your destruction cometh as a whirlwind;
When distress and anguish cometh upon you:

a My son, if thou wilt receive my words,
a And b hide my commandments with thee;
So that thou bb incline thine ear unto 2
wisdom,
And apply thine heart to understanding;
Yea, if thou criest after c knowledge, 3
And † liftest up thy voice for understanding;
If thou seekest her d as silver, 4
And searchest for her as for e hid treasures;
k Then shalt thou understand the fear 5
of the LORD,
And find the knowledge of God.
For f the LORD giveth wisdom: 6
Out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.
He b layeth up g sound wisdom for the 7
righteous:
He is a h buckler to them that i walk uprightly.
He ii keepeth the paths of judgment, 8
And j preserveth the way of his saints.
k Then shalt thou understand l righteousness, and judgment, 9
And m equity; yea, every good path.
When wisdom entereth into thine 10
heart,
And knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;
n Discretion o shall preserve thee, 11
Understanding shall keep thee:

12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man,
From the man that speaketh p froward things;
13 Who leave the paths of uprightness,
To q walk in the ways of darkness;
14 r Who rejoice to do evil,
And s delight in the p frowardness of the wicked;
15 Whose ways are t crooked,
And they u froward in their paths:
16 w To deliver thee from the x strange woman,
w Even from y the stranger which z flattereth with her words;
17 Which forsaketh a the guide of her youth,
And forgetteth the covenant of her God.
18 For b her house inclineth unto death,
And her c paths unto d the dead.
19 None that go unto her return again,
Neither take they hold of the paths of life.
20 That thou mayest walk in the way of good men,
And keep the paths of the righteous.
21 For the upright e shall dwell in the land,
And the perfect shall remain in it.
22 But the wicked f shall be cut off from the earth,
And g the transgressors shall be ‖ rooted out of it.

2 For b length of days, and † long life,
And c peace, shall they add to thee.
3 Let not d mercy and truth forsake thee:
e Bind them about thy f neck;

[m] Be not wise in thine own eyes:
[n] Fear the LORD, and [no] depart from evil.
It shall be [t] health to thy navel,
And [tp] marrow to thy bones.

Honour the LORD with thy substance,
And with [q] the firstfruits of all thine increase:
So shall thy [r] barns be filled with plenty,
And thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

[s] My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD;
Neither be weary of his correction:
For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth;
Even [t] as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

[u] Happy is the man that findeth wisdom,
And [t] the man that getteth understanding.
For [x] the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver,
And the gain thereof than [y] fine gold.
She is more precious than [z] rubies:
And [a] all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.
[b] Length of days is in her right hand;
And in her left hand [c] riches and honour.
[d] Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
And all her paths are peace.
She is [e] a tree of life to them that [ee] lay hold upon her:
And happy is every one that retaineth her.
[f] The LORD [g] by wisdom hath founded the earth;
[g] By understanding hath he [l] established the heavens.
By his knowledge [h] the depths are broken up,
And [i] the clouds drop down [j] the dew.

My son, [k] let not them depart from thine eyes:
Keep [l] sound wisdom and [m] discretion:
So shall they be [n] life unto thy soul,
And grace to thy [o] neck.

[p] Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely,
And [q] thy foot shall not stumble.
[r] When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid:
Yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.
[s] Be not afraid of sudden fear,
[ss] Neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh.
For the LORD shall be thy confidence,
And shall [t] keep thy foot from being taken.

[u] Withhold not good from [t] them to whom it is due,
When it is [x] in the power of thine hand to do it.
[y] Say not unto thy neighbour,
Go, and come again, and to morrow I will give;
When thou hast it by thee.
[l] Devise not evil against thy neighbour,
Seeing he dwelleth securely by thee.
[z] Strive not with a man without cause,
If he have done thee no harm.
[a] Envy thou not [t] the oppressor,
And choose none of his ways.
For the [b] froward is abomination to the LORD:
But [c] his secret is with the righteous.
[d] The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked:
But [dd] he blesseth the habitation of the just.
Surely [e] he scorneth the [f] scorners:
But he giveth grace unto the lowly.
[g] The wise shall inherit glory:
But shame [t] shall be the promotion of fools.

IV.

[a] Hear, ye children, the instruction of a father,
And attend to know [b] understanding.
For I give you good [c] doctrine,
Forsake you not my law.
For I was my father's son,
[d] Tender and [e] only beloved in the sight of my mother.
[f] He taught me also, and said unto me,
Let thine heart retain my words:
[g] Keep my commandments, and live.

hi Get wisdom, i get b understanding:

Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee:
j Love her, and she shall keep thee.

‖ A crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.

Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings;
And o the years of thy life shall be many.
p I have taught thee in the way of wisdom;
I have led thee in right paths.
When thou goest q thy steps shall not be straitened;
And r when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.
s Take fast hold of instruction; s let her not go:
Keep her; for she is thy life.

t Enter not into the path of the wicked,
And u go not in the way of evil men.
x Avoid it, pass not by it,
y Turn from it, and pass away.
z For they sleep not, except they have done mischief;
And their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.
For they eat the bread of wickedness,
And drink the wine of violence.
a But the path of the just is b as the shining light,
That shineth c more and more unto the perfect day.
d The way of the wicked is as darkness:
They know not e at what they stumble.

ee My son, attend to my words;
Incline thine ear unto my sayings.
f Let them not depart from thine eyes;
g Keep them in the midst of thine heart.

For they are h life unto those that find them,
And i health to all their flesh.
Keep thy heart i with all diligence;
j For out of it are k the issues of life.
Put away from thee i a l froward mouth,

My son, if thou [a]be surety for thy friend,
If thou hast [a]stricken thy hand with a stranger,
Thou art snared with the words of 2
thy mouth,
Thou art [b]taken with the words of thy mouth,
Do this now, my son, and deliver thy- 3
self,
When thou art come into the hand of thy friend;
Go, [c]humble thyself, [‖]and make sure thy friend.
[d]Give not sleep to thine eyes, 4
[d]Nor slumber to thine eyelids.
Deliver thyself as a [e]roe from the 5
hand of the hunter,
And [f]as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

[g]Go to the [h]ant, thou [i]sluggard; 6

[l]Which having no [m]guide, [n]overseer, 7 or ruler,
[h]Provideth her meat in the summer, 8
And [o]gathereth her food in the harvest.
How long wilt thou sleep, O [i]sluggard? 9
When wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?
[p]Yet a little [d]sleep, a little [d]slumber, 10
A little folding of the hands to sleep:
[q]So shall [r]thy poverty come as one 11
that travelleth,
And thy want as an armed man.

Walketh with a [s]froward mouth.
He [t]winketh with his eyes, 13
He speaketh with his feet,
He teacheth with his fingers;
[u]Frowardness is in his heart, 14
[x]He deviseth mischief continually;
He [†]soweth discord.
Therefore shall his calamity come 15
suddenly;
[y]Suddenly shall he be broken [z]without remedy.

These [a]six things doth the LORD 16 hate:
Yea, [a]seven are an abomination [†]unto him:
[†]A proud look, [b]a lying tongue, 17
And [cc]hands that shed innocent blood, [d]A heart that deviseth [e]wicked ima- 18
ginations,
[cf]Feet that be swift in running to mischief,
A false witness [g]that speaketh lies, 19
And he that [h]soweth discord among brethren.

[i]My son, keep thy father's command- 20
ment,
And [i]forsake not the law of thy mother:
[k]Bind them continually upon thine 21
heart,
And [l]tie them about thy [m]neck.
[n]When thou goest, it shall lead thee; 22
[n]When thou sleepest, it [o]shall keep thee;
And when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.
For the commandment is [p]a [‖]lamp; 23
and the law is [p]light;
And [pp]reproofs of instruction are the way of life:
To keep thee from the evil woman, 24
From [q]the flattery [‖]of the tongue of a [r]strange woman.

[s] Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; 25
Neither let her take thee with [t] her eyelids.
For [u] by means of a whorish woman 26
a man is brought to [x] a piece of bread:
And [y] the adulteress will [z] hunt for the precious life.
Can a man [a] take [b] fire in [c] his bosom, 27
And his clothes not be burnt?
Can one [d] go upon hot coals, 28
And his feet not be [dd] burnt?
So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; 29
Whosoever toucheth her shall not be [dd] innocent.
Men do not despise a thief, if he steal 30
[e] To satisfy his [ee] soul when he is hungry;
But if he [f] be found, [f] he shall restore 31
[g] sevenfold;
He shall give all the substance of his house.
But whoso committeth adultery with 32
a woman [h] lacketh [i] understanding:
He that doeth it destroyeth his own soul.
A wound and dishonour shall he get; 33
And his reproach shall not be wiped away.
For [j] jealousy is the rage of a man: 34
Therefore he will not spare [k] in the day of vengeance.
[l] He will not regard any ransom; 35
Neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

VII.

[a] My son, keep my words,
And [a] lay up my commandments with thee.
[b] Keep my commandments, and [b] live; 2
And my law as [c] the apple of thine eye.
[d] Bind them upon thy fingers, 3
[d] Write them upon the table of thine heart.
Say unto wisdom, Thou art [e] my sister; 4
And call understanding thy [f] kinswoman:
[g] That they may keep thee from the 5
strange woman,
[g] From the stranger which flattereth with her words.
For [h] at the window of my house 6
[h] I looked through my casement,
And beheld among the [i] simple ones, 7
I discerned among [l] the youths,
A young man [k] void of understanding,
Passing through the [l] street near [m] her 8 corner;
And he went the way to her house,
In the [n] twilight, [l] in the evening, 9
In the [o] black and dark night:
And behold, [oo] there met him a woman 10
With [p] the attire of a harlot, and subtil of heart.
(She is [q] loud and [r] stubborn; 11
[s] Her feet abide not in her house:
Now is she without, now in the streets, 12
And [ss] lieth in wait at [m] every corner.)
So she caught him, and kissed him, 13
And [t] with an impudent face said unto him,
[t] I have [t] peace offerings with me; 14
This day have I [u] payed my vows.
Therefore came I forth to meet thee, 15
[x] Diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.
I have deckt my bed with [y] coverings 16
of tapestry,
With carved works, with [z] fine linen of Egypt.
I have [a] perfumed my bed 17
With [b] myrrh, [b] aloes, and [c] cinnamon.
Come, let us take our fill of love 18
until the morning:
Let us solace ourselves with loves.
For the [d] goodman is not at home, 19
He is gone a long journey:
He hath taken a [e] bag of money [f] with 20
him,
And will come home at [g] the day appointed.
With her much [f] fair speech she caused 21
him to yield,
With [g] the flattering of her lips she forced him.
He goeth after her [t] straightway, 22
As an ox goeth to the slaughter, Or as a fool to the correction of the stocks;
Till a dart strike through his liver; 23
[h] As a bird hasteth to the snare,
And knoweth not that it is for his life.

[ik] Hearken unto me now therefore, O 24
ye children,
And [k] attend to the words of my mouth.
Let not thine heart [l] decline to her 25
ways,
Go not astray in her paths.
For she hath cast down many wounded: 26
Yea, [m] many strong men have been slain by her.
[n] Her house is the way to hell, 27
Going down to [o] the chambers of death.

1 Doth not [ab]wisdom cry?
And [b]understanding [a]put forth her voice?
2 She standeth in the top of [c]high places by the way,
In the places of the paths.
3 She [a]crieth at the [d]gates, at the entry of [ee]the city,
At the coming in at the doors.
4 Unto you, O men, I call;
And my voice is to the sons of man.
5 O ye [f]simple, understand [f]wisdom:
And, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.
6 Hear, for I will speak of [g]excellent things;
And the opening of my lips shall be [h]right things.
7 For my [i]mouth shall [k]speak truth;
And wickedness is [t]an abomination to my lips.
8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness;
There is nothing [tt]froward or [l]perverse in them.
9 They are all [m]plain to him that understandeth,
And right to them that find knowledge.
10 Receive my instruction, and not silver;
And knowledge rather than [n]choice gold.
11 [o]For wisdom is better than [p]rubies;
And [q]all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

12 I [r]wisdom dwell with [s]prudence,
And find out knowledge of [s]witty inventions.
13 [t]The fear of the LORD is to [u]hate evil:
[x]Pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way,
And [y]the froward mouth, do I hate.
14 [z]Counsel is mine, and [a]sound wisdom:
I am understanding; [b]I have strength.
15 [c]By me kings reign,
And [d]princes decree justice.
16 By me princes rule,
And nobles, even all the judges of the earth.
17 [e]I love them that love me;
And [f]those that [g]seek me early shall find me.
18 [hi]Riches and honour are with me;
Yea, durable [i]riches and [i]righteousness.
19 My fruit is [j]better than [k]gold, yea, than [l]fine gold;
And [j]my revenue than [k]choice silver.
20 I [l]lead in the way of righteousness,
In the midst of the paths of judgment:
21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance;
And I will fill their treasures.

22 [m]The LORD [n]possessed me [o]in [p]the beginning of his way,
Before his works [q]of old.
23 I was [r]set up from everlasting, from the beginning,
[s]Or ever the earth was.
24 When there were no [t]depths, I was [u]brought forth:
When there were no fountains abounding with water.
25 Before the mountains [v]were settled,
[w]Before the hills was I [u]brought forth:
26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the [x]fields,
Nor [l]the [x]highest part of the dust of the world.
27 When he [y]prepared the heavens, I was there:
When he [z]set [l]a compass upon the face of the [t]depth:
28 When he established the clouds above:
When he strengthened the fountains of the [t]deep:
29 [a]When he gave to the sea [b]his decree,
That the waters should not pass his commandment;
When he [z]appointed [c]the foundations of the earth:
30 [d]Then I was by him, as [e]one brought up with him:
And I was daily his [f]delight,
[g]Rejoicing always before him;
31 [g]Rejoicing in [h]the habitable part of his earth;
And my [f]delights were [i]with the sons of men.

32 [j]Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children:
For [k]blessed are they that keep my ways.
33 [l]Hear instruction, and be wise,
And [m]refuse it not.
34 [n]Blessed is the man [o]that heareth me,
Watching daily at my gates,
Waiting at the posts of my doors.

[b]A wise son maketh a glad father:
[b]But a foolish son is the [c]heaviness of his mother.
Treasures of wickedness [d]profit nothing:
[d]But [e]righteousness delivereth from death.
[f]The LORD will not suffer the [ff]soul of the righteous to famish:
But he casteth away [‖]the [g]substance of the wicked.
[h]He becometh poor that dealeth with a [i]slack hand:
But [i]the hand of the diligent maketh rich.
He that [k]gathereth in summer is a wise son:
But he that [l]sleepeth in harvest is a [m]son that causeth shame.
Blessings are upon the head of the just:
[n]But violence [o]covereth the mouth of the wicked.
[p]The memory of the just is blessed:
But [q]the name of the wicked shall rot.
The wise in heart will receive commandments:
[r]But [t]a prating fool [‖]shall fall.
[s]He that walketh uprightly [t]walketh surely:
But he that perverteth his ways [u]shall be known.
He that [x]winketh with the eye causeth sorrow:
[r]But a prating fool [‖]shall fall.
[y]The mouth of a righteous man is [z]a well of life:
[n]But violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

Hatred stirreth up strifes: 12
But [a]love covereth all sins.
In the lips of him that hath under- 13
standing wisdom is found:
But [b]a rod is for the back of him that is void of [f]understanding.
Wise men [c]lay up knowledge: 14
But the mouth of the foolish is near

[e]The rich man's wealth is his strong 15
city:
The [d]destruction of the poor is their

But he that refuseth reproof [g]erreth.
He that hideth hatred with lying lips, 18
And [g]he that uttereth a slander, is

[h]In the multitude of words there want- 19
eth not sin:
But [i]he that refraineth his lips is wise.
The tongue of the just is as [j]choice 20
silver:
The heart of the wicked is little worth.
The lips of the righteous feed many: 21
[k]But fools die for want [f]of wisdom.
[l]The blessing of the LORD, it maketh 22

[a]A [f]false balance is abomination to XI.

But [f]a just weight is his delight.
[b]When pride cometh, then cometh 2
shame:
But with the [c]lowly is wisdom.
[d]The integrity of the upright shall 3 guide them:
But [d]the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them.
[e]Riches profit not [f]in the day of 4
wrath:
[e]But righteousness delivereth from death.
The righteousness of the perfect shall 5
[f]direct his way:
But the wicked shall fall by his own
wickedness.
The righteousness of the upright [g]shall 6 deliver them:
But transgressors [h]shall be taken in their own naughtiness.
When a wicked man dieth, [i]his ex- 7
pectation shall perish:
And [j]the hope of unjust men perisheth.
[k]The righteous is delivered out of 8
trouble,
And the wicked cometh in his stead.
A [j]hypocrite with his mouth destroy- 9 eth his neighbour:
[l]But through knowledge shall the just be delivered.
[m]When it goeth well with the righte- 10
ous, the city rejoiceth:
And when the wicked perish, there is

He that is [t] void of wisdom [p]despiseth his neighbour:
But a man of understanding holdeth his peace.
[t] A talebearer revealeth secrets:
But he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.
[pp] Where no [q] counsel is, the people fall:
[p] But in the multitude of counsellers there is safety.
[r] He that is surety for a stranger [t] shall smart for it:
And he that hateth [t] suretiship is sure.
[s] A gracious woman retaineth honour:
And [t] strong men retain riches.
[u] The merciful man doeth good to his own soul:
But he that is [w] cruel troubleth his own flesh.
The wicked worketh a deceitful work:
But to [x] him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward.
As righteousness tendeth [y] to life:
So [z] he that pursueth evil pursueth it to his own death.
They that are [a] of a froward heart are abomination unto the LORD:
But such as are [b] upright in their way are [c] his delight.
[d] Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished:
But [e] the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.
As [f] a jewel of gold in a swine's snout,
So is a fair woman which [t] is without [ff] discretion.
The desire of the righteous is only good:
But the expectation of the wicked is [g] wrath.
[gg] There is that [h] scattereth, and yet increaseth;
And there is that withholdeth more than is meet, [i] but it tendeth to poverty.
[j] The liberal soul [k] shall be made fat:
And [kk] he that watereth shall be watered also himself.
He that withholdeth corn, [l] the people shall curse him:
But blessing shall be upon the head of him that [ll] selleth it.
He that [m] diligently seeketh good procureth favour:
But [n] he that seeketh mischief, it shall come unto him.
[o] He that trusteth in his riches shall fall:
But the righteous shall [p] flourish as [q] a branch.
He that troubleth his own house [r] shall inherit the wind:
And the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.
[q] The fruit of the righteous is a [s] tree of life;
And [t] he that [t] winneth souls is wise.
[u] Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth:
Much more the wicked and the sinner.
Whoso loveth instruction loveth knowledge:
But he that [a] hateth reproof is [b] brutish.
A good man [c] obtaineth favour of the LORD:
But a man of wicked devices will he condemn.
A man shall not be established by wickedness:
But [d] the root of the righteous [e] shall not be moved.
[f] A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband:
But she that [g] maketh ashamed is as [h] rottenness in his bones.
The thoughts of the righteous are right:
But the [i] counsels of the wicked are deceit.
The words of the wicked are to [k] lie in wait for blood:
But [l] the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.
[m] The wicked are [n] overthrown, and are not:
But [m] the house of the righteous shall stand.
A man shall be commended [nn] according to his wisdom:
But he that is [t] of a perverse heart shall be despised.
[o] He that is despised, and hath a servant, is better Than he that honoureth himself, and lacketh bread.
[p] A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast:
But the [l] tender mercies of the wicked are [q] cruel.
[r] He that tilleth his land [rr] shall be satisfied with bread:
But [s] he that followeth [t] vain persons is [u] void of understanding.

The wicked desireth [l]the [v]net of evil men:
But the root of the righteous [w]yieldeth fruit.
[t x]The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips:
But [y]the just shall come out of trouble.
[z]A man shall be [a]satisfied with good by [a]the fruit of his mouth:
And the [b]recompence of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.
[c]The way of a fool is right in his own eyes:
But he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise.
[d]A fool's wrath is [f]presently known:
But a prudent man covereth shame.
He that [e]speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness:
But [e]a false witness deceit.
[ee]There is that [f]speaketh [g]like the piercings of a sword:
But the tongue of the wise is [h]health.
The lip of truth shall be established for ever:
But [i]a lying tongue is but for a moment.
Deceit is in the heart of them that [k]imagine evil:
But to the counsellers of peace is joy.
[l]There shall no evil happen to the just:
But the wicked shall be filled with mischief.
[m]Lying lips are [mu]abomination to the LORD:
But they that deal truly are his delight.
[o]A prudent man concealeth knowledge:
But [o]the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.
The hand of the [pq]diligent shall bear rule:
But the [p][l]slothful shall be [r]under tribute.
[s]Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop:
[s] But [t]a good word maketh it glad.
The righteous is more [l]excellent than his neighbour:
But the way of the wicked seduceth them.
The [u]slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting:
But the substance of a [u]diligent man is precious.

In the way of righteousness is life;
And in the pathway thereof there is no death.

A wise son heareth his father's instruction:
But a scorner [a]heareth not rebuke.
A [b]man shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth:
But the soul of the transgressors [c]shall eat violence.
[d]He that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life:
But [dd]he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.
[e]The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing:
But [e]the soul of the diligent [f]shall be made fat.
A righteous man hateth lying:
But a wicked man is loathsome, and cometh to shame.
[g]Righteousness keepeth him that is [h]upright in the way:
But wickedness [g]overthroweth [t]the sinner.
[i]There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing:
[ii]There is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches.
[j]The ransom of a man's life are his riches:
But the poor [k]heareth not rebuke.
[l]The light of the righteous rejoiceth:
But the [l]lamp [l]of the wicked shall be put out.
[m]Only by pride cometh contention:
But with the well advised is wisdom.
[n]Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished:
But he that gathereth [t]by labour shall increase.
Hope deferred maketh the heart sick:
But [o]when the desire cometh, it is [p]a tree of life.
Whoso [q]despiseth [r]the word shall be destroyed:
But he that feareth the commandment [l]shall be [s]rewarded.
The law of the wise is a [t]fountain of life,
[u]To depart from [uv]the snares of death.
[wx]Good understanding giveth [x]favour:
But the way of transgressors is hard.
[y]Every prudent man dealeth with knowledge:
But a fool [t]layeth open his folly.
A wicked messenger falleth into mischief:

But the foolish [c] plucketh it down with her hands.
He [cc] that walketh in [d] his uprightness feareth the LORD:
But [e] he that is [f] perverse in his ways despiseth him.
In the mouth of the foolish is a [g] rod of pride:

[o] Fools [p] make a mock at sin:
But among the righteous there is [q] favour.
The heart knoweth [t] his own bitterness;
And a stranger doth not intermeddle with his joy.
[r] The house of the wicked shall be overthrown:
But [r] the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.
[s] There is a way which seemeth right unto a man,
But [tu] the end thereof are the ways of death.
Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful;
And [uw] the end of that mirth is [x] heaviness.
The backslider in heart [y] shall be filled with his own ways:
And a good man shall be satisfied from himself.
The simple believeth every word:
But the prudent man looketh well to his going.
[z] A wise man feareth, and [a] departeth from evil:
But the fool [b] rageth, and is confident.
He that is [c] soon angry dealeth foolishly:
And a man of wicked devices is hated.
The [d] simple inherit folly:

He that [f] despiseth his neighbour sinneth:
But he that hath mercy on the poor, [g] happy is he.
Do they not err that [h] devise evil?

Than an hundred stripes into a fool.
An evil man seeketh only rebellion:
Therefore a [r]cruel messenger [s]shall be sent against him.
[t] Let a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man,
[tt] Rather than a fool in his folly.
[u] Whoso rewardeth [x]evil for good,
Evil shall not depart from his house.
The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water:
Therefore [y]leave off contention, before it [z]be meddled with.
He that [a]justifieth the wicked, and he that [b]condemneth the just,
Even they both are abomination to the LORD.
Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool
To [c]get wisdom, seeing he hath no heart to it?
[d] A friend loveth at all times,
And a brother is born for adversity.
A man void of [t]understanding [e]striketh hands,
And [e]becometh surety in the presence of his friend.
He loveth transgression that loveth strife:
And [f]he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.
[t] He that hath a froward heart findeth no good:
And he that hath a perverse tongue falleth into mischief.
[g] He that begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow:
And the father of a fool hath no joy.
[h] A merry heart doeth good [l]like a medicine:
But a [h]broken spirit [i]drieth the bones.

[l]To pervert the ways of judgment.
[m]Wisdom is [n]before him that hath 24 understanding;
But [n]the eyes of a fool are in the ends
of the earth.
[g]A foolish son is a grief to his fa- 25
ther,
And bitterness to [nn]her that bare him.
Also [b]to [o]punish the just is not 26
good,
Nor to strike princes for equity.
He that hath knowledge [oo]spareth his 27
words:
And a man of understanding is of [ll]an excellent spirit.
Even a fool, [p]when he holdeth his 28
peace, is counted wise:
And he that shutteth his lips is es- teemed a man of understanding.

XVIII.

[t]Through desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh
And [b]intermeddleth with all [c]wisdom.
A fool hath no delight in under- 2
standing,
But [d]that his heart may discover itself.
When the wicked cometh, then com- 3
eth also contempt,
And with ignominy reproach.
[e]The words of a man's mouth are as 4
[f]deep waters,
And the wellspring of wisdom as [g]a flowing brook.
It is not good to [h]accept the person 5
of the wicked,
To [i]overthrow the righteous in judgment.
A fool's lips enter into contention, 6
And his mouth calleth for [k]strokes.
[l]A fool's mouth is his destruction, 7
And his lips are the snare of his soul.
[m]The words of a [ll]talebearer are [ll]as 8 wounds,
[m]And they go down into the [t]inner-most parts of the belly.
He also that is slothful in his work 9
Is [n]brother to him that is a [o]great waster.
The name of the LORD is [p]a strong 10
tower:
The righteous runneth into it, and [t]is safe.

[q]The rich man's wealth is his strong 11
city,
And as a high wall in his own [r]conceit.
[s]Before destruction the heart of man 12
is haughty,
And [t]before honour is humility.
He that [l]answereth a matter [u]before 13
he heareth it,
It is folly and shame unto him.
The spirit of a man will sustain his 14
infirmity;
But [x]a wounded spirit who can bear?
The heart of the prudent [y]getteth 15
knowledge;
And the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.
[z]A man's gift maketh room for 16
him,
And bringeth him before great men.
He that is first in his own cause seem- 17
eth just;
But [a]his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.
The lot causeth contentions to cease, 18
And parteth between the mighty.
A brother offended is harder to be 19
won than a strong city:
And their contentions are like the bars of a [b]castle.
[c]A man's belly shall be satisfied with 20
[c]the fruit of his mouth;
And with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.
[d]Death and life are in the power of 21
the tongue:
And they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.
[e]Whoso findeth a wife findeth a [f]good 22 thing,
And [g]obtaineth favour [h]of the LORD.
The poor useth intreaties; 23
But [i]the rich answereth roughly.
A man that hath friends must [j]shew 24
himself friendly:
And [k]there is [l]a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.
[a]Better is the poor [b]that walketh in XIX.
his integrity,
[a]Than he that is perverse in his lips, 2
and is a fool.
Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good;
And [c]he that hasteth with his feet, 3
sinneth.
The foolishness of man [d]perverteth
his way:
And [e]his heart fretteth against the LORD.

Counsel in the heart of man is like [5] [l]deep water;
But a man of understanding will [m]draw it out.
[n]Most men will proclaim every one [6] his own [o]goodness:
But a [p]faithful man who can find?
The just man [p]walketh in his integrity: [7]
[q]His children are blessed after him.
A [r]king that sitteth in the throne of [8] judgment
[r]Scattereth away all evil with his eyes. [9]
[s]Who can say, I have made my heart [t]clean,
I am pure from my sin?
[u][t]Divers weights, and [t]divers mea- [10] sures,
Both of them are alike abomination to the LORD.
Even a child is [w]known by his doings. [11]
Whether his work be pure, and whether it be right.
[x]The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, [12]
[y]The LORD hath made even both of them.
[z]Love not sleep, lest thou come to [13] poverty;
[a]Open thine eyes, and thou shalt be [b]satisfied with bread.
It is naught, it is naught, saith the [14] buyer:
But when he is gone his way, then he boasteth.
[c]There is gold, and a multitude of [15] [d]rubies:
But the lips of knowledge are a [e]precious jewel.
[f]Take his garment that is surety for a [16] stranger:
[f]And [g]take a pledge of him for a [h]strange woman.
[t]Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; [17]

[k]Every purpose is established by [18] counsel:
And with [l]good advice [m]make war.

[a]Man's goings are of the LORD; [24]
How can a man then understand his own way?
It is a snare to the man who [b]devour- [25] eth that which is holy,
And [c]after vows to make inquiry.
A wise king [d]scattereth the wicked, [26]

[g]Searching all [h]the inward parts of the belly.
[i]Mercy and truth preserve the king: [28]

The glory of young men is their [29] strength:

But [d]the LORD [c]pondereth the hearts.
[e]To do justice and judgment [3]

[f][t]A high look, and [g]a proud heart, [4]
And [l]the [h]plowing of the wicked, is sin.
The thoughts of [i]the diligent tend only [5] to plenteousness;
But of every one that is [k]hasty [l]only to want.
[m]The getting of treasures by a lying [6] tongue
Is [n]a vanity [o]tossed to and fro of them [p]that seek death.

The way of man is froward and strange:
But as for the pure, his work is right.
[t] It is better to dwell in a [u]corner of the housetop,
[t] Than with [f]a brawling woman in [f]a wide house.
[y] The soul of the wicked desireth evil:
His neighbour [f]findeth no favour in his eyes.
[z] When the scorner is [a]punished, the simple is made wise:
And when the wise [b]is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.
The righteous man [bc]wisely considereth the house of the wicked:
But [d] God overthroweth the wicked for their wickedness.
[e] Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor,
He also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.
[f] A gift in secret pacifieth anger:
And a reward in [g]the bosom strong wrath.
It is joy to the just to do judgment:
[h] But destruction shall be to [i]the workers of iniquity.
The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding [j] Shall remain in the congregation of [k]the dead.
He that loveth [l]pleasure shall be a poor man:
He that loveth wine and [l]oil shall not be rich.
[m] The wicked shall be a [n]ransom for the righteous,
And the transgressor for the upright.
[o] It is better to dwell [f]in the wilderness,
Than with a contentious and an angry woman.
[p] There is treasure to be desired and [lq]oil in the dwelling of the wise;
But a foolish man [r]spendeth it up.
[s] He that followeth after righteousness and mercy
[t] Findeth life, righteousness, and honour.
[u] A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty,
And casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.
[w] Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue
[x] Keepeth his soul [y]from troubles.
Proud and [z]haughty scorner is his name,
Who dealeth [f]in proud wrath.
[a] The desire of the slothful killeth him;
For his hands refuse to labour.
He [b]coveteth greedily all the day long:
But [c]the righteous giveth and spareth not.
[d] The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination:
How much more, when he bringeth it [f]with a wicked mind?
[f] A false witness shall perish:
But the man that heareth, speaketh [c]constantly.
A wicked man [f]hardeneth his face:
But as for the upright, he [lg]directeth his way.
[h] There is no wisdom nor understanding Nor counsel against the LORD.
[i] The horse is prepared against the day of battle:
But [lk]safety is of the LORD.

A [a] good name is rather [b]to be chosen than great riches,
And [l]loving favour rather than silver and gold.
The rich and poor [c]meet together:
[d] The LORD is [e] the Maker of them all.
[f] A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself:
[f] But the simple pass on, and [g]are punished.
[l] By humility and the fear of the LORD
Are [f]riches, and honour, and life.
[k] Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward:
He that doth [f]keep his soul shall be far from them.
[m] [f] Train up a child [f]in the way he should go:
And when he is old, he will not depart from it.
The rich ruleth over the poor,
And the borrower is servant [f]to the lender.
He that [o]soweth [p]iniquity shall [p]reap vanity:
[l] And the [q]rod of his anger shall fail.

[a] The slothful man saith, There is 13
a lion without,
I shall be slain in the streets.
The mouth of [b] strange women is [c] a 14
deep pit:
[d] He that is abhorred of the LORD

[f] surely come to want.

[g] Bow down thine ear, and hear [i] the 17 words of the wise,
And [h] apply thine heart unto my knowledge.
For it is a pleasant thing if thou keep 18
[i] them [f] within thee;
They shall withal be fitted in thy lips.
That thy trust may be in the LORD, 19
I have made known to thee this day, [‖] even to thee.

of truth [‖] to them that send unto

[m] Rob not the poor, because he is 22 spoiled them.

Make no friendship with [r] an angry 24

And with a furious man [rr] thou shalt not go:
Lest thou learn his ways, 25
And get a snare to thy soul.
Be not thou one of [s] them that strike 26

Or of [s] them that are sureties for

If thou hast nothing to pay, 27

[x] Seest thou a man [y] diligent in his 29

XXIII.

When thou sittest to eat with a ruler,
Consider diligently what is before
thee:
And put a knife to thy throat, 2
If thou be a man [a] given to [b] appetite.
[c] Be not desirous of his [cd] dainties: 3
For they are deceitful meat.
[e] Labour not to be rich: 4
Cease from thine own [f] wisdom.
[f] Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that 5 which is not?
For [g] riches certainly make themselves
wings;
They fly away as an eagle toward heaven.

[h] Eat thou not the bread of him that 6
hath [i] an evil eye,
[c] Neither desire thou his [cd] dainty meats:
For as he thinketh in his [b] heart, so 7
is he:
Eat and drink, saith he to thee;
[j] But his heart is not with thee.
The morsel which thou hast eaten 8
shalt thou [k] vomit up,
And [l] lose thy sweet words.
[l] Speak not in the ears of a fool: 9
For he will despise the wisdom of thy words.
[m] Remove not the old [‖] landmark; 10
And enter not into the fields of the fatherless:
For their [n] Redeemer is mighty; 11
He [o] shall plead their cause with thee.

And shall not he render to every man [w]according to his works?

[y]So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul:
When thou hast found it, then [z]there shall be a reward,
[z]And thy expectation shall not be cut off.
[a]Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous;
Spoil not his resting place:
[b]For a just man falleth [c]seven times, and riseth up again:
But [d]the wicked shall [e]fall into mischief.
[f]Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth,
And let not thine heart be glad when he [e]stumbleth:
Lest the LORD see it, and [t]it displease him,
And he turn away his wrath from him.
[g‖]Fret not thyself because of evil men,

2 [b]Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth;
A stranger, and not thine own lips.
3 A stone is [†]heavy, and [c]the sand weighty;

4 [†]Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous;

8 [j]As a bird that wandereth from her nest,
So is a man that wandereth from his place.
9 [k]Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart:
So doth the sweetness of a man's friend [†]by [l]hearty counsel.
10 Thine own friend, and [m]thy father's friend, forsake not;
Neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity:
For [n]better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off.

11 [o]My son, [p]be wise, and make my heart glad,
That I may [q]answer [r]him that reproacheth me.
12 [s]A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself;
But [t]the simple pass on, and are punished.
13 [u]Take his garment that is surety for a stranger,

So the heart of man to man.

Yet will not his foolishness depart from him.

Be thou diligent to know the state of 23

And considereth not that [w] poverty shall come upon him.
[x] He that rebuketh a man, afterwards shall find more favour
Than he that [y] flattereth with the tongue.
Whoso robbeth his father or his mother,
And saith, It is no transgression;
The same [z] is the companion of [t] a destroyer.
[a] He that is [b] of a proud heart [c] stirreth up strife:
But he that putteth his trust in the LORD [d] shall be made fat.
[e] He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool:
But whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.
[f] He that giveth unto the poor [g] shall not lack:
But he that [h] hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.
[i] When the wicked rise, men [k] hide themselves:
But when they perish, the righteous increase.
[l a] He, that being often reproved [b] hardeneth his neck,
Shall suddenly be destroyed, and that [c] without remedy.
[d] When the righteous are [l] in authority, the people rejoice:
But [e] when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.
[f] Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father:
But [g] he that [h] keepeth company with harlots [i] spendeth his substance.
The king by judgment [j] establisheth the land:
But [l] he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.
A man that [l] flattereth his neighbour

[n] In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare:
But [o] the righteous doth [p] sing and rejoice.
[q] The righteous considereth the cause of the poor:
But [r] the wicked regardeth not to know it.

[s] Scornful men [l] bring a city into a snare:
But wise men turn away wrath.
If a wise man [t] contendeth with a foolish man,
[u] Whether he rage or laugh, there is no [x] rest.
[t y] The bloodthirsty hate the upright:
But the just seek his soul.
[z] A fool uttereth all his mind:

[b] If a ruler hearken to lies,
All his servants are wicked.
The poor and [l] the deceitful man [c] meet together:
[d] The LORD lighteneth both their eyes.
[e] The king that faithfully judgeth the poor,
[f] His throne shall be established for ever.
[g] The rod and reproof give wisdom:
But a child [h] left to himself [i] bringeth [k] his mother to shame.
When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth:
But [l] the righteous shall [m] see their fall.
[g n] Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest;
Yea, [k] he shall give delight unto thy soul.
[o] Where there is no vision, the people [l] perish:
But [p] he that keepeth the law, happy is he.
[s] A servant will not be corrected by words:
For though he understand he will not answer.
[q] Seest thou a man that is hasty [l] in his words?
[r] There is more hope of a fool than of him.
He that delicately bringeth up [s] his servant from a child Shall have him become his son at the length.
[t] An angry man stirreth up strife,
And [u] a furious man aboundeth in transgression.
A [w] man's pride shall bring him low:
But honour shall uphold the [x] humble in spirit.
Whoso is partner with a thief [y] hateth his own soul:
[z] He heareth cursing, and [a] bewrayeth it not.

11 There is a generation that [x] curseth their father,
And doth not bless their mother.
12 There is a generation that are [y] pure in their own eyes,
And yet is not washed from their filthiness.
13 There is a generation, O how [z] lofty are their eyes!
And their eyelids are lifted up.
14 There is a generation, [a] whose teeth are as swords,
And their [b] jaw teeth as knives,
To [c] devour the poor from off the earth,
And the needy from among men.
15 The horseleach hath two daughters, crying, Give, give.
There are [d] three things that are never satisfied,
Yea, [d] four things say not, [f] It is enough:
16 [e] The grave; and [f] the barren womb:
The earth that is not filled with water;
And the fire that saith not, It is enough.
17 The eye that [g] mocketh at his father,
And [h] despiseth [i] to obey his mother,
[k] The ravens of [l] the valley shall [f] pick it out,
And the young eagles shall eat it.
18 There be [d] three things which are [m] too wonderful for me,
Yea, [d] four which I know not:
19 [n] The way of an eagle in the air;
The way of a serpent upon a rock;
[o] The way of a ship in the [f] midst of the sea;
And the way of a man with a maid.
20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman;
She eateth, and wipeth her mouth,
And saith, I have done no wickedness.
21 For [d] three things [p] the earth is disquieted,
And for [d] four which it cannot bear:
22 [q] For a servant when he reigneth;
And [r] a fool when he is filled with meat;
23 For an [s] odious woman [t] when she is married;
And a handmaid [u] that is heir to her mistress.
24 There be four things which are little upon the earth,
But they are [f] exceeding wise:

v The ants are a people not strong, 25
Yet w they prepare their meat in the summer;
x The y conies are but a feeble folk, 26
Yet make they their houses in x the rocks;
The locusts z have no king, 27
Yet go they forth all of them [t]a by bands;
The spider taketh hold with her hands, 28
And is in kings' palaces.

There be b three things which go well, 29
Yea, b four are comely in going:
A c lion which is strongest among 30
beasts,
And d turneth not away for any;
A [||]greyhound; a he goat also; 31
And a king, against whom there is no rising up.

If thou hast done foolishly in lifting 32
up thyself,
Or if thou hast e thought evil,
f Lay thine hand upon thy mouth.
Surely the churning of milk bringeth 33
forth butter,
And the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood:
So the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

ECCLESIASTES,

OR,

THE PREACHER.

Before CHRIST about 977.

I. THE words of the [a]Preacher, the son of David, [b]king in Jerusalem.

2 [c]Vanity of vanities, saith the [a]Preacher, [c]vanity of vanities; [d]all is [c]vanity.

3 [f]What profit hath a man [g]of all his labour which he taketh under the sun?

4 [h]One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: but [i]the earth abideth for ever.

5 [k]The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and [l]hasteth to his place where he arose.

6 [l]The wind goeth toward [m]the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

7 [n]All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place [o]from whence the rivers come, thither they [l]return again.

8 All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: [p]the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

9 [q]The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been [r]already of old time, which was before us.

11 There is [s]no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

12 I the [a]Preacher was [t]king over Israel in Jerusalem.

13 And [u]I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done [v]under heaven: [w]this sore [x]travail hath God given to the sons of man [t]to be exercised therewith.

14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and behold, all is [cy]vanity and [y]vexation of spirit.

15 [z]That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and [t]that which is wanting cannot be numbered.

16 I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, [a]I am come to great estate, and have [a]gotten more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart [t]had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.

17 And [b]I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know [c]madness and [d]folly: I perceived that this also is [e]vexation of spirit.

18 For [f]in much wisdom is much [g]grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth [g]sorrow.

II. I said in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore [a]enjoy pleasure: and behold, this also is vanity.

2 [b]I said of laughter, It is [c]mad: and of mirth, What doeth it?

3 [d]I sought in mine heart [t]to give myself unto wine, (ddyet acquainting mine heart with wisdom) and to lay hold on [e]folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven [t]all the days of their life.

4 I made me great works; [t]I builded me

5 houses; [g]I planted me vineyards:

6 I made me [h]gardens and [i]orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits:

7 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees: I [k]got me servants and maidens, and had [t]servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of [l]great and small cattle above all that

8 were [m]in Jerusalem before me: [n]I gathered me also silver and gold, and the [o]peculiar treasure of [p]kings and of the

[q] provinces: I gat me [r]men singers and women singers, and the [s]delights of the sons of men, as [t]musical instruments, and that of all sorts. So [t]I was great, and increased more than all that were before me [m]in Jerusalem: also [u]my wisdom remained with me. And whatsoever mine eyes desired I [x]kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and [y]this was my portion of all my labour. Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and behold, all was [z]vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no [a]profit under the sun.

And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and [b]madness, and [c]folly: for what can the man do that cometh [cc]after the king? [d]even that which hath been [e]already done. Then I saw [f]that wisdom excelleth [c]folly, as far as light [a]excelleth darkness. [f]The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also [g]that [h]one event happeneth to them all. Then said I in my heart, As [h]it happeneth to the fool, so it [f]happeneth even to me; and why was I then [i]more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity. For there is [j]no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which [e]now is, in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And [g]how dieth the wise man? as the fool. Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is [k]vanity and vexation of spirit. Yea, I hated all my labour which I had [f]taken under the sun: because [l]I should leave it unto the man that shall be [m]after me. And [l]who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity. Therefore I [mm]went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun. For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in [n]equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he [f]leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil. For what hath man [o]of all his labour, and of the [p]vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun? For all [q]his days are [r]sorrows, and his [s]travail [r]grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

[t]There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he [l]should make his soul [u]enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, [w]that it was from the hand of God. For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereunto, more than I? For [x]God giveth to a man that is good [f]in his sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth [s]travail, [f]to gather and to heap up, [y]that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is [z]vanity and vexation of spirit.

Gen. 7. 1. Luke 1. 6. [y] See Prov. 13. 22.

To every thing there is a season, and [a]a time to every [b]purpose under the heaven:

A time [f]to be born, and a time to [c]die;
A time to plant, and a time to [d]pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time [e]to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time [f]to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
A time to embrace, and a time [g][f]to refrain from embracing;

A time to [l]get, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to [h]rent, and a time to sew;
A time [i]to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate;
A time of war, and a time of peace.

[j]What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth?

I have seen the [k]travail, which [l]God hath given to the sons of men [k]to be exercised in it. He hath made every thing [m]beautiful [n]in his time: also he hath [o]set the world in their heart, so that [p]no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end. I know [q]that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and [f]to do good in his life. And also [s]that every man should eat and drink, and [t]enjoy the good of all his labour, [u]it is the gift of God. I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever:

[x] nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him. [y] That 15 which hath been, is [z] now; and that which is to be hath [z] already been; and God [a] requireth [f] that which is past.

And moreover I saw under the sun 16 the place of judgment, that [b] wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there. I said in 17 mine heart, [a] God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is [c] a time [d] there for every purpose and for every work.

I said in my heart [e] concerning the 18 estate of the sons of men, [f] that God might [f] manifest them, and that they might see [g] that they themselves are beasts. For [h] that which befalleth the 19 sons of men befalleth beasts; even [i] one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no pre-eminence above a beast: for all is vanity. All go unto one place; [k] all are of the 20 dust, and all turn to dust again. Who 21 knoweth [f] the spirit [f] of man that [f] goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth? Where- 22 fore I perceive [m] that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for [n] that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see [o] what shall be after him?

So [a] I returned, and considered all the [b] oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had [c] no comforter; and on the [f] side of their oppressors there was power; but they had [c] no comforter. Wherefore [d] I praised the 2 dead which are [e] already dead more than the living which are [f] yet alive. Yea, 3 better is he than both they, [d g] which hath not [f] yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

Again, I considered all travail, and 4 [f] every right work, that [f] for this a man [i] is envied of his neighbour. This is also [j] vanity and vexation of spirit. The fool 5 [k] foldeth his hands together, and [l] eateth his own flesh. [m] Better is a handful with 6 [n] quietness, than both the hands full with travail and [j] vexation of spirit.

Then [o] I returned, and I saw vanity 7

under the sun. There is one alone, and 8 there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his [p] eye satisfied with riches; neither [q] saith he, [r] For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, 9 yea, it is a sore [s] travail. Two are better than one; because they have a good 10 reward for their labour. For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but [t] woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up. 11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but [u] how can one be warm 12 alone? And if one [x] prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a [y] three-fold cord is not quickly broken.

13 [z] Better is a [a] poor and a wise child than an old and [b] foolish king, [f] who will 14 no more be [c] admonished. [d] For out of [e] prison he cometh to reign; [f] whereas also he that is born in his kingdom be- 15 cometh poor. I considered all the living which walk under the sun, [g] with the second child that shall stand up in his 16 stead. There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: [h] they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is [i] vanity and vexation of spirit.

[a] Keep thy foot when thou goest to [aa] the house of God, and be more ready to hear, [b] than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do 2 evil. [c] Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any [f] thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy 3 words be [d] few. For a dream cometh through the multitude of [e] business; and a fool's voice is known [f] by multitude of 4 words. [g] When thou vowest a vow unto God, [h] defer not to pay it; for he hath no [i] pleasure in fools: pay that which 5 thou hast vowed. Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou should- 6 est vow and not pay. [j] Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before [k] the angel, that it was [l] an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work 7 of thine hands? For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but [m] fear thou God.

poor, and [o]violent perverting of judgment and justice in a [p]province, marvel not [t]at the matter: for [q]he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.

9 Moreover [r]the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth [s]abundance with increase: this is also vanity.

11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what [t]good is there to [u]the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 [x]There is [y]a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for [u]the owners thereof to their hurt.

14 But those riches perish by evil [z]travail: and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

15 [a]As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is [y]a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and [b]what profit hath he that hath [c]laboured for the wind?

17 All his days also [d]he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

18 Behold that which I have seen: [e†]it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to [f]enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun [†]all the days of his life, which God giveth him: for [g]it is his portion.

19 Every man also [h]to whom God hath given riches and [i]wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; [k]this is the gift of God.

20 [‖]For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

VI.

1 [a]There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

2 a man [b]to whom [c]God hath given [c]riches, [d]wealth, and [c]honour, so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God [b]giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that [e]the days of his years be many, and [ee]his soul be not filled with good, and also [f]that he have no burial; I say, that [g]an untimely birth is better than he.

4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and [h]his name shall be covered with darkness.

5 Moreover he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more [i]rest than the other.

6 Yea, [k]though he live a thousand years twice told, yet [ee]hath he [l]seen no good: do not all go to one place?

7 [m]All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the [†n]appetite is not filled.

8 For what hath the wise [o]more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 Better is [p]the sight of the eyes [†]than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 That which hath been [h]is named [r]already, and it is known that it is man: [s]neither may he contend with him that is [t]mightier than he.

11 Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man [o]the better?

12 For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, [†]all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as [u]a shadow? for [x]who can tell a man [y]what shall be after him under the sun?

VII.

1 A [a]good [b]name is better than precious [b]ointment; and [c]the day of death than the day of one's birth.

2 It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will [d]lay it to his heart.

3 [†e]Sorrow is better than laughter: [f]for by the sadness of the countenance [g]the heart is made better.

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5 [h]It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6 For [i]as the [†]crackling of thorns under a pot, [k]so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity.

7 Surely [†]oppression [m]maketh a wise man mad; and [n]a gift destroyeth the heart.

8 Better is [o]the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and [p]the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

bosom of fools. Say not thou, What 10 is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not inquire [t] wisely concerning this. Wis- 11 dom is [l] good with an inheritance: and by it there is [s] profit [t] to them that see the sun. For wisdom is a [t] defence, 12 and money is a [t] defence: but the [u] excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom [w] giveth life to [x] them that have it. Consider the work of God: for who 13 can [y] make that straight, which he hath [yz] made crooked? [a] In the day of pro- 14 sperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath [t] set the one over against the other, [b] to the end that man should find nothing after him.

All things have I seen in the days 15 of my vanity: [c] there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that prolongeth [d] his life in his wickedness. Be not right- 16 eous over much; [e] neither make thyself [f] over wise: why shouldest thou [t] destroy thyself? Be not over much wicked, 17 neither be thou foolish: [g] why shouldest thou die [t] before thy time? It is good 18 that thou shouldest take hold of [h] this; yea, also from [i] this [k] withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all. [l] Wisdom 19 strengtheneth the wise more than ten [m] mighty men which are in the city. [n] For there is not a just man upon earth, 20 that doeth good, and [n] sinneth not. Also [t] [o] take no heed unto all words 21 that are spoken; lest thou hear [p] thy servant curse thee: [o] for oftentimes also 22 thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

All this have I proved by wisdom: 23 [q] I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me. That which is far off, and 24 [r] exceeding deep, [s] who can find it out? [t] [t] I applied mine heart to know, and 25 to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the [u] reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness: and I find more [w] bitter 26 than death the woman, whose heart is [x] snares and nets, and her hands as bands: [t] whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but [y] the sinner shall be taken by her. Behold, this have I found, 27

[z] saith the Preacher, [l] counting one by 28 one, to find out the account: which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: [ab] one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman [c] among all those 29 have I not found. Lo, this only have I found, [d] that God hath made man upright; but [e] they have sought out many [f] inventions.

Who is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? [a] a man's wisdom [b] maketh his face to shine, and [t] the boldness of his face 2 shall be changed. I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, and that 3 [c] in regard of [d] the oath of God. [e] Be not hasty [f] to go out of his sight: [g] stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth what- 4 soever pleaseth him. Where the word of a king is, there is [h] power: and [i] who may say unto him, What doest thou? 5 Whoso keepeth the commandment [t] shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and [j] judgment.

6 Because [k] to every purpose there is time and [j] judgment, therefore the misery 7 of man is great upon him. For [l] he knoweth not that which shall be: for [m] who can tell him [l] when it shall be? 8 There is no man that hath [n] power over the spirit [o] to retain the spirit; neither hath he [h] power in the day of death: and there is no [l] [p] discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver [q] those that are given to it. 9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein 10 one man ruleth over another to his own hurt. And [r] so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from [s] the place of the holy, and [t] they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity.

11 [u] Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men [x] is 12 fully set in them to do evil. Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and [y] his [z] [a] days be prolonged, yet surely I know that [a] it shall be well [b] with them that fear God, which fear 13 before him: but it [bc] shall not be well

[d] See Job 14. 2.

There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, [e] unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, [f] to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity. Then I commended mirth, because [g] a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall [h] abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

IX. For all this [t] I considered in my heart even to [a] declare all this, [b] that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: [c] no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them. [d] All things come alike to all: there is [e] one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and [f] he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath. This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is [e] one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and [g] madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion. For the living know that they shall die: but [h] the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for [i] the memory of them is forgotten. Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is [k] now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, [e]leave not thy place; for [f]yielding [g]pacifieth great offences. 4

There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an [h]error which proceedeth [i]from the ruler: [k]folly is set [l]in great dignity, and the rich sit in [l]low place. [m]I have seen servants [n]upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth. 5 6 7

[o]He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso [p]breaketh a hedge, [q]a serpent shall bite him. Whoso [r]removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that [s]cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby. 8 9

If the iron [t]be blunt, and he do not [u]whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is [x]profitable to [y]direct, 10

Surely the serpent will bite without [z]enchantment; and [t]a babbler is no [x]better. 11

[a]The words of a wise man's mouth are [t]gracious; but [b]the lips of a fool will swallow up himself. The beginning of the words of his mouth is [c]foolishness: and the end of [t]his talk is mischievous [d]madness. [e]A fool also [t]is full of words: [f]a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, [g]who can tell him? The labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the city. 12 13 14 15

[h]Woe to thee, O land, when [i]thy king is [j]a child, and thy princes [k]eat in the morning. Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes [l]eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness. 16 17

By much slothfulness the building [m]decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house [n]droppeth through. 18

A feast is made for laughter, and [o]wine [t]maketh merry: but [p]money answereth all things. 19

[q]Curse not the king, no not in thy [l]thought; and curse not the rich [r]in thy bedchamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and [s]that which hath wings shall tell the matter. 20

Cast thy bread [a][t]upon the waters: [b]for thou shalt find it after many days. 1

[c]Give a portion to [d]seven, and also to eight; [e]for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth. 2

If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the [f]south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be. 3

He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and [g]he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap. 4

As thou knowest not what is the way of the [h]spirit, nor [i]how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child: even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all. 5

In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening [k]withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether [t]shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be [l]alike good. 6

Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to [m]behold the sun: 7

but if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember [n]the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity. 8

[o]Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy [p]youth, and [q]walk in the ways of thine heart, and in [r]the sight of thine eyes: [s]but know thou, that for all these things [t]God will bring thee into judgment. 9

Therefore remove [l]sorrow from thy heart, and [u]put away evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity. 10

Remember now thy Creator [a][t]in the days of thy [b]youth, [s]while [c]the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when [d]thou shalt say, I have no [e]pleasure in them; [s]while the sun, or [f]the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, 1 2

Therefore do the virgins love thee.
4 [f]Draw me, [g]we will run after thee:
[h]The king hath brought me into his [i]chambers:
[j]We will be glad and rejoice in thee,
We will remember [d]thy love more than wine:
[‖]The upright love thee.
5 I am black, but [k]comely, [l]O ye daughters of Jerusalem,
As [m]the tents of [n]Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon.
6 Look not upon me, because I am black,
Because the sun hath [o]looked upon me:
My mother's children were angry with me;
They made me [p]the keeper of the vineyards;
But [q]mine own vineyard have I not kept.
7 Tell me, O thou [qq]whom my soul loveth,
Where thou feedest, where thou makest [r]thy flock to rest at noon:
For why should I be [‖]as one that turneth aside by the flocks of [s]thy companions?
8 If thou know not, [t]O thou fairest among women,
Go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock,
And feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents.
9 I have compared thee, [u]O my love,
To a company of [x]horses in Pharaoh's chariots.
10 [y]Thy cheeks are comely with [z]rows of jewels,
Thy neck with chains of gold.
11 We will make thee [z]borders of gold
With studs of silver.
12 While [a]the king sitteth at his table,
My [b]spikenard sendeth forth the smell thereof.
13 A bundle of [c]myrrh is my well-beloved unto me;
He shall lie all night betwixt my breasts.
14 My beloved is unto me as a [d]cluster of [‖]camphire
In the vineyards of [e]En-gedi.
15 [f]Behold, thou art fair, [‖]my love; behold, thou art fair;
[fg]Thou hast doves' eyes.
16 Behold, thou art fair, my beloved, yea, pleasant:
Also our bed is green.
17 The [h]beams of [i]our house are [j]cedar,
And our [‖]rafters of [j]fir.

I am the [a]rose of [b]Sharon,
And the [c]lily of the valleys.
2 As the [c]lily among thorns,
So is [d]my love among the daughters.
3 As the [e]apple tree among the trees of the wood,
So is my beloved among the sons.
[†]I sat down [f]under his shadow with great delight,
And [g]his fruit was sweet to my [†]taste.
4 [h]He brought me to the [†]banqueting house,
And his banner over me was love.
5 [i]Stay me with [j]flagons, [†]comfort me with [e]apples:
For [l]I am sick of love.

Leaping [s] upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills.

Behold, he standeth behind our wall,

me,
[x] Rise up, [d] my love, my fair one, and

My beloved is gone down into [b] his 2 garden, to the [c] beds of spices,
To feed in the gardens, and to gather [d] lilies.
[e] I am my beloved's, and my beloved 3
is mine:
He feedeth among the [d] lilies.

Thou art beautiful, O [f] my love, as 4
[g] Tirzah,
[h] Comely as Jerusalem,
[i] Terrible as an army [k] with banners.
Turn away thine eyes from me, for 5
[l] they have overcome me:
[l] Thy hair is as a flock of goats that appear from Gilead.

[m] Thy teeth are as a flock of sheep 6 which go up from the washing,
Whereof every one beareth twins, and there is not one barren among them.
[n] As a piece of a pomegranate are thy 7 temples within thy locks.
There are [o] threescore queens, and 8
fourscore concubines,
And [p] virgins without number.
[q] My dove, [r] my undefiled is but one; 9
She is the only one of her mother,
She is the [s] choice one of [t] her that bare her.
[u] The daughters saw her, and blessed her;
Yea, [o] the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

[x] Who is she that looketh forth as the 10 morning,
Fair as [y] the moon, [s] clear as [yz] the sun,
And [i] terrible as an army with banners?

I went down into the garden of nuts 11
to see the [a] fruits of the valley,
And [b] to see whether the vine flourished, and [b] the [c] pomegranates [d] budded.
[f] Or ever I was aware, 12
My soul [l] made me like the [e] chariots of Ammi-nadib.

Return, return, O [f] Shulamite; 13
Return, return, that we may look upon thee.

What will ye see in the Shulamite?

As it were the [g] company [l] of two armies.

How beautiful are [a] thy feet with 1

The joints of thy thighs are like [c] jewels,
The work of the hands of [d] a cunning workman.
Thy navel is like a round [e] goblet, 2 which wanteth not [f] liquor:
Thy belly is like a heap of wheat set about with [f] lilies.
[g] Thy two breasts are like two young 3
roes that are twins.
[h] Thy neck is as a tower of ivory; 4

Thine head upon thee is like [l][o]Carmel,
And [p]the hair of thine head like purple;
[q]The king is [t]held in the [r]galleries.
How fair and how [s]pleasant art thou, O love, for [t]delights!
This thy stature is like to a [u]palm tree,
And thy breasts to [x]clusters of grapes.
I said, I will go up to the [u]palm tree,
I will take hold of the boughs thereof:
Now also thy breasts shall be as [x]clusters of the vine,
And the smell of thy nose like [y]apples;
And [z]the roof of thy mouth like the best wine,
For my beloved, [a]that goeth down [t]sweetly,
Causing the lips [l]of those that are [b]asleep to speak.

[c]I am my beloved's, and his [d]desire is towards me.
Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field;
Let us lodge in the villages.
Let us get up early to the vineyards;
Let us [e]see if the vine flourish, whether the [f]tender grape [t]appear,
And [e]the pomegranates bud forth:
There will I give thee my loves.
The [g]mandrakes give a smell,
And at [h]our gates are all manner of [i]pleasant fruits, [j]New and old,
Which I have [k]laid up for thee, O my beloved.

VIII.

O that thou wert as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother!
When I should find thee without, I would kiss thee;
Yea, [t]I should not be despised.
I would lead thee, and [a]bring thee into my mother's house, who would instruct me:
I would cause thee to drink of [b]spiced wine, of the [c]juice of my [d]pomegranate.
[e]His left hand should be under my head,
[c]And his right hand should embrace me.

[f]I charge you, [g]O daughters of Jerusalem,
[t]That ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please.

[h]Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness,
Leaning upon her beloved?

I [i]raised thee up under the [k]apple tree:
There thy mother brought thee forth:
There she brought thee forth that bare thee.

Set me as a seal upon thine heart,
As [l]a seal upon thine arm:
For [m]love is strong as death;
[n]Jealousy is [t]cruel as the grave:
The [o]coals thereof are coals of fire,
Which hath [p]a most vehement [q]flame.
Many waters cannot quench love,
Neither can the floods drown it:
[i]If a man would give all the substance of his house for love,
It would utterly be contemned.

We have a little sister, and [r]she hath no breasts:
What shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?
If she be a wall, we will build upon her a [s]palace of silver:
And if she be a door, we will inclose her with [t]boards of cedar.

I am a wall, and my breasts like [u]towers:
Then was I in his eyes as one that found [t]favour.
Solomon had a [v]vineyard at [w]Baal-hamon;
[x]He let out the vineyard unto [y]keepers;
Every one for the fruit thereof was to bring [z]a thousand pieces of silver.

My vineyard, which is mine, is before me:

Thou, O Solomon, must have [z]a thousand,
And [y]those that keep the fruit thereof [a]two hundred.

[b]Thou that dwellest in the gardens,
[c]The companions hearken to thy voice:
[d]Cause me to hear it.

[e][t]Make haste, my beloved,
And [f]be thou like to a roe or to a young hart
Upon the mountains of spices.

†THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET

ISAIAH.

Before CHRIST about 760.

I.

THE [a]vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem [aa]in the days of [b]Uzziah, [c]Jotham, [d]Ahaz, and [e]Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 [f]Hear, O heavens, and [g]give ear, O earth:
For the LORD hath spoken,
I have [gg]nourished and brought up children,
And they have rebelled against me.

3 [h]The ox knoweth his owner,
And the ass his master's [i]crib:
But Israel [k]doth not know,
My people [l]doth not consider.

4 Ah sinful nation, a people [†]laden with iniquity,
[m]A seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters:
They have forsaken the LORD,
They have [n]provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger,
They are [†]gone away backward.

5 [o]Why should ye be stricken any more?
Ye will [†]revolt more and more:
The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no [p]soundness in it;
But [q]wounds, and [qr]bruises, and [s]putrifying sores:
They have not been closed, neither bound up, neither [t]mollified with [‡]ointment.

7 [u]Your country is desolate,
Your cities are burnt with fire:
Your land, strangers devour it in your presence,
And it is desolate, [†]as overthrown by strangers.

8 And the daughter of Zion is left [v]as a cottage in a vineyard,
As [vv]a lodge [w]in a garden of cucumbers,
As a besieged city.

9 [x]Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us [y]a very small remnant,
We should have been as [z]Sodom,
And we should have been like unto [z]Gomorrah.

10 Hear the word of the LORD, ye [a]rulers of [b]Sodom;
Give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

11 To what purpose is [c]the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD:
I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts;
And I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of [†]he goats.

12 When ye come [†d]to appear before me,
[e]Who hath required this at your hand, to tread [f]my courts?

13 Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me;
[gh] The new moons and [g]sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, [i]I cannot away with;
It is [l]iniquity, even [k]the solemn meeting.

14 Your [h]new moons and your [l]appointed feasts my soul hateth:
They are [m]a trouble unto me;
[n]I am weary to bear them.

15 And [o]when ye spread forth your hands, [p]I will hide mine eyes from you:
Yea, when ye [†]make many prayers, I will not hear:
[q]Your hands are full of [†]blood.

16 [r]Wash ye, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes;

17 [s]Cease to do evil; learn to do well

18 Come now, and [w] let us reason together, saith the LORD:
Though your sins be as scarlet, [x] they shall be as white as snow;
Though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.
19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:
20 But if ye refuse and rebel,
Ye shall be devoured with the sword:
[y] For the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

21 How is the faithful city [z] become a harlot!
It was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it;
But now murderers.
22 [a] Thy silver is become dross,
[b] Thy wine mixt with water:
23 [c] Thy princes are rebellious, and [d] companions of thieves:
Every one [e] loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards:
[f] They judge not the fatherless,
Neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.
24 Therefore saith [g] the Lord, the LORD of hosts, [h] the mighty One of Israel,
Ah, I will [i] ease me of mine adversaries,
And [k] avenge me of mine enemies:
25 And I will [l] turn my hand upon thee,
And [†] purely [m] purge away [a] thy dross,
And take away all thy tin:
26 And I will restore thy judges [n] as at the first,
And thy counsellers as at the beginning:
Afterward thou shalt be called,
The city of righteousness, [o] the faithful city.
27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment,
And [‖] her converts with righteousness.
28 And [p] the [†q] destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together,
And they that [r] forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be [s] ashamed of [t] the oaks which ye have desired,
And ye shall be confounded for [u] the gardens that ye have chosen.
30 For ye shall be as [v] an oak whose leaf fadeth,

[a] See ch. 1. 1.

2 [aa] And it shall come to pass [b] in the last days,
That [c] the mountain of the LORD'S house shall be [‖d] established in the top of the mountains,
And shall be exalted above the hills;
And [e] all nations shall flow unto it.
3 And many people shall go and say,
[g] Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
To the house of the God of Jacob;
And he will [h] teach us of his ways,
And we will walk in his paths:
For [i] out of Zion shall go forth the law,
And [f] the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
4 And he shall judge among the nations,
And shall rebuke many people:
And [k] they shall beat their swords into [l] plowshares,
[k] And their spears into [‖m] pruning-hooks:
Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
[n] Neither shall they learn war any more.
5 O house of Jacob, come ye,
And let us [o] walk in the light of the LORD.
6 Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob,
Because they be replenished [‖p] from the east,
And are [q] soothsayers [r] like the Philistines,
And they [‖s] please themselves in the children of strangers.
7 Their land also is [t] full of silver and gold,
Neither is there any end of their treasures;
Their land is also [u] full of horses,
Neither is there any end of their chariots:

Their land also is [v]full of [w]idols;
They worship the work of their own hands,
That which their own fingers have made:
And [x]the mean man boweth down,
And [x]the great man [y]humbleth himself;
Therefore forgive them not.

[z a]Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust,
[z a]For fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty.
[b]The lofty looks of man shall be humbled,
And the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down,
And [c]the LORD alone shall be exalted [d]in that day.
For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is [e]proud and lofty,
And upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be [e]brought low:
And upon all [f]the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up,
And upon all [g]the oaks of Bashan,
And [h]upon all the high mountains,
And [h]upon all the hills that are lifted up,
And upon every high tower,
And upon every fenced wall,
And upon all [i]the ships of Tarshish,
And upon all [t]pleasant pictures.
And [j]the loftiness of man shall be bowed down,
And the haughtiness of men shall be made low:
And the LORD alone shall be exalted [j]in that day.
And [k l]the [w]idols he shall utterly abolish.
And [l]they shall go into the [m]holes of the rocks,
And into the caves of [t]the earth,
[l]For fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty,
When he ariseth [n]to shake terribly the earth.
[d]In that day [o]a man shall cast [t]his [w]idols of silver, and his [w]idols of gold,
[l]Which they made each one for himself to worship,
To the moles and to [p]the bats;

[l]To go into [q]the clifts of the rocks.
And into [r]the tops of the ragged rocks,
[l]For fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty,
When he ariseth [n]to shake terribly the earth.

[s]Cease ye from man, [t]whose breath is in his nostrils:
For wherein is he to be accounted of?

For behold, [a]the Lord, the LORD of hosts,
[b]Doth take away from Jerusalem and from Judah [c]the stay and the staff,
The whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water,
[d]The mighty man, and the man of war,
The judge, and the prophet, and [e]the prudent, and the ancient,
The captain of fifty, and [t]the honourable man,
And the counseller, and [f]the cunning artificer, and the [t]eloquent orator.
And [h]I will give children to be their princes,
And [i]babes shall rule over them.
And the people shall be [j]oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour:
The child shall [k]behave himself proudly against the ancient,
And the base against the honourable.
When [l]a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying,
Thou hast clothing, be thou our [m]ruler,
And let this [n]ruin be under thy hand:
[o]In that day shall he [t]swear, saying,
I will not be a [t]healer;
For in my house is neither bread nor clothing:
Make me not a [m]ruler of the people.
For Jerusalem [n]is ruined, and Judah is fallen:
Because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD,
[p]To provoke the eyes of his glory.
The shew of their countenance doth witness against them;
And they [q]declare their sin [r]as Sodom, they hide it not.
Woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.
Say ye to the righteous, [s]that it shall be [t]well with him:
For [u]they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

V.

Now will I sing to [a] my wellbeloved
[b] a song of my beloved touching
[c] his vineyard.
[a] My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in
[†] a very fruitful hill:
And [d] he [‖] fenced it, and [e] gathered 2 out the stones thereof,
And [d] planted it with [f] the choicest vine,
And [d] built a tower in the midst of it,
And [d] also [†] made [g] a winepress therein:
And [h] he looked that it should bring forth grapes,
And it brought forth wild grapes.
And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, 3
and men of Judah,
Judge, I pray you, betwixt me and
my vineyard.
What could have been done more to 4
my vineyard,
That I have not done in it?
Wherefore, [h] when I looked that it should bring forth grapes,
Brought it forth wild grapes?
And now go to, I will tell you what 5
I will do to my vineyard:
I will take away [i] the hedge thereof,
and [j] it shall be eaten up;
And [k] break down the wall thereof,
and it shall be [†] trodden down:
And I will lay it waste: 6
It shall not be pruned, nor digged;
But there shall come up [l] briers and thorns:
I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.
For [m] the vineyard of the LORD of 7 hosts is the house of Israel,
And the men of Judah [†] his pleasant plant:
And he looked for judgment, but behold [†] oppression;
For righteousness, but behold a cry.

Woe unto them that join [o] house to 8
house,
That lay [o] field to field, till there be no place,
That [†] they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!
[‖] In mine ears said the LORD of hosts, 9
[†] Of a truth many houses shall be desolate,
Even great and fair, without inhabitant.
Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield 10
one [p] bath,
And [q] the seed of [p] a homer shall yield [p] an ephah.

Woe unto them that rise up early in 11
the morning, that they may follow strong drink;
[s] That continue until night, till wine
[‖t] inflame them!
And [uv] the harp, and [uw] the viol, the 12
[uvxy] tabret, and [uy] pipe,
And wine, are in their feasts:
But [z] they regard not [a] the work of
the LORD, [z] Neither [a] consider [b] the operation of his hands.
Therefore my people are gone into 13 captivity, [c] because they have no
knowledge:
And [†] their honourable men are famished,
And their multitude dried up with thirst.
Therefore [d] hell hath enlarged herself, 14
And [e] opened [f] her mouth without measure:
And their glory, and [ff] their multitude,
and their [g] pomp,
And [ff] he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.
And [h] the mean man shall be brought 15
down,
And the mighty man shall be humbled,
And the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled:
But [i] the LORD of hosts shall be ex- 16
alted in judgment,
And [‖i] God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness.
Then shall the lambs feed after [j] their 17 manner,
And the waste places of [k] the fat ones shall [l] strangers eat.

Woe unto them that draw iniquity 18
with cords of vanity,
And [m] sin as it were with a cart rope:
[n] That say, Let him make speed, and 19
hasten his work,
That we may see it:
And let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come,
That we may know it.

Woe unto them [†] that call evil good, 20
and good evil;
[o] That put darkness for light, and light for darkness;
That put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

Woe unto them that are [p] wise in their 21
own eyes,
And prudent [†] in their own sight

a In the year that king b Uzziah died VI.
c I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and ii his 2 train filled the temple. Above it stood the seraphims: each one had d six wings; e with twain he covered his face, and f with twain he covered his feet, and 3 with twain he did fly. And t one cried unto another, and said, gHoly, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts:
thiThe whole earth is full of his glory.
4 And the posts of the t door moved at the voice of him that cried, and k the

6 Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, t having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from 7 off n the altar: and he t o laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is 8 taken away, and p thy sin purged. Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for q us? r Then I said, t s Here am I; 9 send me. And he said, Go, and tell this people, tt Hear ye ii indeed, but understand not;
And see ye t indeed, but perceive not.
10 u Make the heart of this people fat,
And make their ears heavy, and v shut their eyes;
w Lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears,
And understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.
11 Then said I, x Lord, how long? And he answered,
Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant,
And the houses without man,
And the land be t utterly desolate,
12 And y the LORD have removed men far away,
And there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

[x] To the law and to the testimony: 20
[y] If they speak not according to this word,
[z] It is because there is [†] no light in them.
And they shall pass through it, hardly 21
bestead and [a] hungry:
And it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves,
And [b] curse their king and their God, and look upward.
And [c] they shall look unto the earth; 22
And behold [d] trouble and darkness, [e] dimness of [d] anguish;
And they shall be driven to darkness.
Nevertheless [a] the dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation,
When at the [b] first [c] he lightly afflicted [d] the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,
And [e] afterward [f] did more grievously afflict her [d] by the way of the sea, [g] Beyond Jordan, [h] in Galilee [‖] of [i] the nations.
The [dj] people [k] that walked in darkness have seen a great light: 2
They that dwell in the land of [l] the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.
[ll] Thou hast multiplied the nation, and 3
[‖] not increased the joy:
They joy before thee according to the [m] joy in harvest,
And [n] as men rejoice when [o] they divide the spoil.
[‖] For thou hast broken [p] the yoke of his 4 burden, and [q] the staff of his shoulder, [q] The rod of his oppressor, as in [r] the day of [s] Midian.
[‖] For every battle of the warrior is with 5
confused noise,
And garments rolled in blood;
[tt] But this shall be with burning and [†] fuel of fire.
[u] For unto us a child is born, unto us 6
[v] a Son is given:
And [w] the government shall be [x] upon his shoulder:
And his name shall be called [y] Wonderful, [z] Counseller, [a] The mighty God, [b] The everlasting [c] Father, [d] The Prince of Peace.

7 Of the increase of his government and peace [e] there shall be no end,
[e] Upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom,
To order it, and to stablish it [f] with judgment and with justice
From henceforth even for ever.
[g] The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

8 The Lord sent a word into Jacob,
And it hath lighted upon Israel.
9 And all the people shall [h] know,
Even [i] Ephraim and the inhabitant of [k] Samaria,
That say in the pride and stoutness of heart,
10 The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones:
[l] The sycomores are cut down, but we will [m] change them into cedars.
11 Therefore the LORD shall [n] set up the adversaries of [o] Rezin against him,
And [†] join his enemies together;
12 [p] The Syrians before, and [q] the Philistines behind;
And they shall devour Israel [†] with open mouth.
[r] For all this his anger is not turned away,
But his hand is stretched out still.

13 For [s] the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them,
Neither do they seek the LORD of hosts.
14 Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel [t] head and tail, [tu] Branch and [tv] rush, [x] in one day.
15 The ancient and [y] honourable, he is the head;
And [z] the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.
16 For [‖a] the leaders of this people [z] cause them to err;
And [‖a] they that are led of them are [†a] destroyed.
17 Therefore [b] the Lord shall have no joy in their young men,
Neither shall have mercy on their fatherless and widows:
For every one is [c] a hypocrite and an evildoer,
And every mouth speaketh [†cc] folly.
[d] For all this his anger is not turned away,
But his hand is stretched out still.

For wickedness [c]burneth as the fire : 18

And they shall mount up like [h]the lifting up of smoke.

hosts is the land darkened,
And the people shall be as the [t]fuel of the fire :
[i]No man shall spare his brother.
And he shall [t]snatch on the right 20
hand, and be hungry ;
And [k]he shall eat on the left hand, and [k]they shall not be satisfied :
[l]They shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm :
[m]Manasseh, Ephraim ; and Ephraim, 21
Manasseh :
And [n]they together shall be against Judah.
[d]For all this his anger is not turned away,

X.

Woe unto [a]them that decree unrighteous decrees,
And [||]that write [aa]grievousness which they have prescribed ;
To turn aside the needy from judg- 2
ment,
And to take away the right from [b]the poor of my people,
[bb]That widows may be their prey,
And that [b]they may rob the fatherless.
And [c]what will ye do in [d]the day of 3
[e]visitation,
And in [e]the desolation which shall come [f]from far?
To whom will ye flee for help?
And where will ye leave your glory?
[g]Without me they shall bow down 4
under the prisoners,
And they shall fall under the slain.
[h]For all this his anger is not turned away,
But his hand is stretched out still.

[||]O [t]Assyrian, [i]the rod of mine anger, 5
[||]And [i]the staff in their hand is mine indignation.
I will send him against [k]a hypocriti- 6
cal nation,
And against the people of my wrath [l]will I give him a charge,
[m]To take the spoil, and to take the prey,
And [t]to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

Howbeit [n]he meaneth not so, 7
Neither doth his heart think so ;
But it is in his heart to destroy
And cut off nations not a few.
For he saith, Are not my princes al- 8 together kings?
Is not [p]Calno as [q]Carchemish?
[r]Is not [s]Hamath as [t]Arpad?
Is not [u]Samaria [v]as Damascus?
[w]As my hand hath found the king- 10
doms of [x]the idols,
And whose graven images did excel
them of Jerusalem and of [u]Samaria ; Shall I not, as I have done unto [u]Sa- 11
maria and her [x]idols,
So do to Jerusalem and her [y]idols?
Wherefore it shall come to pass, that 12
[z]when the Lord hath performed his whole work
[a]Upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem,
[b]I will [t]punish the fruit [t]of the stout heart of [c]the king of Assyria,
And the glory of his high looks.
[d]For he saith, By the strength of my 13
hand I have done it,
And [e]by my wisdom ; for I am prudent :
And I have removed the bounds of the people,
And have robbed their treasures,
And I have put down the inhabitants
[||]like [f]a valiant man :
And [g]my hand hath found as a nest 14
the riches of the people :
And as one gathereth eggs that are left,
Have I gathered all the earth ;
And there was none that moved the wing,
Or opened the mouth, or [h]peeped.

Shall the axe [i]boast itself against him 15
that heweth therewith?
Or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it?
[||]As if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up,
Or as if the staff should lift up [||]itself, as if it were no wood.
Therefore shall [k]the Lord, the Lord 16
of hosts,
Send among his [l]fat ones [m]leanness ;
And under his glory he shall kindle a burning
Like the burning of a fire.
And the light of Israel shall be for a 17 fire,
And his Holy One for a flame :
And [n]it shall burn and devour [o]his thorns and his briers [p]in one day ;

And shall consume [q]the glory of his 18 forest, and of [r]his fruitful field, [t]Both soul and body:
And they shall be as when [t]a standard-bearer fainteth.
And the rest of the trees of his forest 19
shall be [t]few,
That a child may write them.

And it shall come to pass [u]in that 20
day,
That the remnant of Israel,
And [v]such as are escaped of the house of Jacob,
[w]Shall no more again stay upon him
that smote them;
But [x]shall stay upon the LORD,
The Holy One of Israel, in truth.
[y]The remnant shall return, even the 21
remnant of Jacob,
Unto [z]the mighty God.
For [a]though thy people Israel 22 be [b]as the sand of the sea, Yet a remnant [t]of them shall return:
[c]The consumption decreed shall overflow [||]with righteousness.
For the Lord GOD of hosts shall 23 [d]make a consumption, even determined,
In the midst of all the land.
Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD of 24 hosts,
O my people that dwellest in Zion,
[e]Be not afraid of the Assyrian:
He shall smite thee with [f]a rod,
[||]And shall lift up his [f]staff against thee, [g]after [h]the manner of Egypt.
For [i]yet [j]a very little while, and [k]the 25
indignation shall cease,
And mine anger in their destruction.
And [l]the LORD of hosts shall stir up 26
a scourge for him
According to [m]the slaughter of Mi-dian at the rock Oreb:
And as [n]his rod was upon the sea,
So shall he lift it up [g]after [h]the manner of Egypt.
And it shall come to pass [o]in that 27
day,
That [p]his burden [t]shall be taken away
from off thy shoulder,
And his yoke from off thy neck,
And the yoke [q]shall be destroyed
because of [r]the anointing.

He is come to [rr]Aiath, he is passed 28

They are gone over [v]the passage: 29 they have taken up their lodging at is fled.

[t]Lift up thy voice, O daughter of 30
[z]Gallim:
Cause it to be heard unto Laish, O poor [a]Anathoth.
[b]Madmenah is removed; 31
The inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves to flee.
As yet shall he remain at [c]Nob that 32
day:
He shall [d]shake his hand [c]against [ee]the mount of [f]the daughter of Zion,
The hill of Jerusalem.
Behold, [g]the Lord, the LORD of hosts, 33
Shall lop [h]the bough with terror:
And [i]the high ones of stature shall be
hewn down,
And the haughty shall be humbled.
And he shall cut down [k]the thickets 34

of [b]the stem of [c]Jesse,
And [d]a Branch shall grow out of [e]his roots:
And [f]the Spirit of the LORD shall 2 rest upon him,

standing,
