°make us a king to judge us like all the nations."

6 But the thing °displeased Samuel, when they said, "Give us a king to judge us." And Samuel prayed unto °the LORD.

7 And °the LORD said unto Samuel, "Hearken unto the voice of the People in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected Me, that I should not reign over them.

8 According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken Me, and served other gods, so do they also unto thee.

9 Now therefore hearken unto their voice:

m howbeit yet protest solemnly unto them, and shew them the manner of the king that shall reign over them."

m 10 And Samuel told all the words of °the LORD unto the People that asked of him a king.

11 And he said, °"This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: He will take your sons, and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariots.

12 And he will appoint him captains over thousands, and captains over fifties; and will set them to °ear his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots.

13 And he will take your daughters to be confectionaries, and to be cooks, and to be bakers.

14 And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, even the best of them, and give them to his servants.

15 And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of °your vineyards, and give to his officers, and to his servants.

16 And he will take your menservants, and your maidservants, and your goodliest °young men, and your asses, and put them to his work.

17 He will take the tenth of your sheep: and ye shall be his servants.

18 And ye shall cry out in that day because of your king which ye shall have chosen you; and °the LORD will not °hear you in that day."

n 19 Nevertheless the People refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, "Nay; but we will have a king over us;

20 That we also may be like all the nations; and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles."

o 21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearsed them in °the ears of °the LORD.

22 And °the LORD said to Samuel, "Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king."

7 Now therefore stand still, that I may reason with you before ⁸the LORD of all the right-

1000 eous acts of [3] the LORD, which He did to you and to your fathers.

8 When [c] Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cried unto [3] the LORD, then [3] the LORD [c] sent Moses and Aaron, which brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and [c] made them dwell in this place.

9 And when they forgat [3] the LORD their [c] God, He sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the host [c] of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.

10 And they cried unto [3] the LORD, and said, 'We have [c] sinned, because we have forsaken [3] the LORD, and have served Baalim and Ashtaroth: but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve Thee.'

11 And [3] the LORD sent Jerubbaal, [c] and Bedan, and Jephthah, [c] and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and ye dwelled safe.

12 And when [c] ye saw that Nahash the king of the [c] children of Ammon came against you, ye said unto me, 'Nay; but a king shall reign over us:' when [3] the LORD your [9] God was your king.

c² (p. 380) 13 Now therefore behold the king whom ye have chosen, [c] and whom ye have desired! and, behold, [3] the LORD hath set a king over you.

E² c³ 14 If ye will fear [3] the LORD, and serve Him, and obey His voice, and not rebel against the commandment of [3] the LORD, then shall both ye and also the king that reigneth over you continue following [3] the LORD your [9] God:

15 But if ye will not obey the voice of [3] the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of [3] the LORD, then shall the hand of [3] the LORD be against you, [c] as it was against your fathers.

d¹ f 16 Now therefore stand and see this great thing, which [3] the LORD will do before your eyes.

17 Is it not wheat harvest to day? I will call unto [3] the LORD, and He shall [c] send thunder and rain; that ye may perceive and see that your [c] wickedness is great, which ye have done in the sight of [3] the LORD, in asking you a king."

18 So Samuel called unto [3] the LORD; and [3] the LORD sent thunder and rain that day: and all the People greatly feared [3] the LORD and Samuel.

19 And all the People said unto Samuel, [c] "Pray for thy servants unto [3] the LORD thy [9] God, that we die not: for we have added unto all our [10] sins this [c] evil, to ask us a king."

20 And Samuel said unto the people, "Fear not: ye have done all this [17] wickedness: yet turn not aside from following [3] the LORD, but serve [3] the LORD with all your heart;

21 And turn ye not aside: for then should ye go after vain things, which cannot profit nor deliver; for they are [c] vain.

22 For [3] THE LORD [c] WILL NOT FORSAKE HIS PEOPLE for His great name's sake: because it hath pleased [3] the LORD to make you [c] His People.

It points to a dense growing wood or thicket; and it has been suggested that it was the cannabis indica, or hemp plant, producing the Eastern intoxicant hashish. This would produce an effect on the eyes, though it would subsequently dull the senses. Song 5. 1 would read "I have eaten my cannabis with my honey". The Sept. and Vulg. did not understand either passage, and the latter misled with "honeycomb" (favum). 28 straitly = strictly. faint = weary. 29 land = people. 998 to 974 32 And the People flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the People did eat them with the blood.

33 Then they told Saul, saying, [26] "Behold, the People ° sin against [3] the LORD, in that they eat with the blood." And he said, "Ye have ° transgressed:

v roll a great stone unto me ° this day."

p. 385) 34 And Saul said, "Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, 'Bring me hither [20] every man his ox, and [20] every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat; and [33] sin not against [3] the LORD in eating with the blood.'" And all the People brought [20] every man ° his ox with him that night, and slew them there.

u 35 And Saul built an altar unto [3] the LORD: the same was the first altar that he built unto [3] the LORD.

r 36 And Saul said, "Let us go down after the (p. 384) Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them." And they said, "Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee."

q Then said the priest, "Let us draw near hither unto [18] God."

37 And Saul asked counsel of [18] God, "Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt Thou deliver them into the hand of Israel?" But He answered him not that day.

38 And Saul said, "Draw ye near hither, all the chief of the People: and know and see wherein this [33] sin hath been this day.

39 For, as [3] the LORD liveth, Which saveth Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die." But there was not a [20] man among all the People that answered him.

40 Then said he unto all Israel, "Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side." And the People said unto Saul, "Do what seemeth good unto thee."

41 Therefore Saul said unto ° the LORD [18] God of Israel, ° "Give a perfect lot." And Saul and Jonathan were taken: but the People escaped.

42 And Saul said, "Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son." And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, "Tell me what thou hast done." And Jonathan told him, and said, "I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and, °lo, I must die."

44 And Saul answered, [18] "God °do so and more also: for thou shalt surely die, Jonathan."

45 And the People said unto Saul, "Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? [18] God forbid: as [3] the LORD liveth, there shall ° not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought with [18] God this day." So the People ° rescued Jonathan, that he died not.

46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.

F w y (p. 385) 47 So Saul took the kingdom over Israel, ° and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the ° children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he turned himself, ° he vexed them.

48 And he gathered ° an host, and smote the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

z 49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and ° Ishui, and Melchi-shua: and the names of his two daughters were these; the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the younger Michal:

The scribes, having written the word "Israel", went forward to the word "Israel" a line or two farther on, and omitted the words between, which are preserved in two ancient versions, older than any Heb. MS. extant. These omitted words are enclosed within brackets below, in the translation given of the Sept. version:—"LORD God of Israel, [Why hast thou not answered Thy servant this day? Is the iniquity in me, or in Jonathan my son? LORD God of Israel, Give clear [manifestation, i. e. Urim]; and if [the lot] should declare this, give, I pray Thee, to Thy People Israel, give, I pray, holiness" (i. e. Thummim, a perfect lot). a c 6 And Saul said unto the °Kenites, °"Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them:

18 And [1]the LORD sent thee on a journey, and said, 'Go and utterly destroy the [c]sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until [c]they be consumed.'

19 Wherefore then didst thou not [c]obey the voice of [1]the LORD, but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst [c]evil in the sight of [1]the LORD?"

R^2 i^2). 386)

20 And Saul said unto Samuel, "Yea, I have [c]obeyed the voice of [1]the LORD, and have gone the way which [1]the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21 But the People took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto [1]the LORD thy [15]God in Gilgal."

k^2

22 And Samuel said, "Hath [1]the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of [1]the LORD? [12]Behold, [c]to obey is better than sacrifice, and [c]to hearken than the fat of rams.

23 For rebellion is as the [c]sin of [c]witchcraft, and stubbornness is as [c]iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of [1]the LORD, He hath also rejected thee from being king."

i^2

24 And Saul said unto Samuel, "I have [23]sinned: for I have [c]transgressed the [c]commandment of [1]the LORD, and thy [c]words: because I feared the People, and [20]obeyed their voice.

25 Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my [23]sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship [1]the LORD."

26 And Samuel said unto Saul, "I will not return with thee: for thou hast rejected the word of [1]the LORD, and [1]the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over Israel."

27 And as Samuel turned about to go away, [c]he laid hold upon the skirt of [c]his mantle, and it rent.

28 And Samuel said unto him, [1]"The LORD hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou.

29 And also [c]the [c]Strength of Israel will not lie nor [c]repent: for ℌe is not [c]a man, that He should [c]repent."

R^3 i^3

30 Then he said, "I have [23]sinned: yet honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my People, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship [1]the LORD thy [15]God."

k^3

31 So Samuel turned again after Saul;

3 And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will shew thee what thou shalt do: and thou shalt anoint unto Me him whom I name unto thee."

m (p. 387) 4 And Samuel did that which [1]the LORD spake, and came to [c]Beth-lehem. And the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and [c]said, "Comest thou peaceably?"

5 And he said, "Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto [1]the LORD: sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice." And he sanctified [c]Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

21 And David came to Saul, and stood before him: and °he loved °him greatly; and he became his armourbearer.

17 °Now the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle, and were gathered together at Shochoh, which belongeth to Judah, and pitched between Shochoh and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim.

2 And Saul and the °men of Israel were gathered together, and pitched °by the valley of Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines.

3 And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them.

5 °And he had an helmet of brass upon his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand °shekels of brass.

6 And he had greaves of brass upon his legs, and a °target of brass between his shoulders.

7 And the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed [4]six hundred [7]shekels of iron: and one bearing a °shield went before him.

8 And he stood and cried unto the armies of Israel, and said unto them, "Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? am not I a Philistine, and ye servants to Saul? choose you a °man for you, and let him come down to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us."

10 And the Philistine said, "I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a [8]man, that we may fight together."

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and °greatly afraid.

C v x (p. 390) 974 13 And the three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

y 14 And David ° was the youngest:

x and the three eldest followed Saul.

y 15 But David went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Beth-lehem.

w 16 And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself ° forty days.

B z¹ 17 And Jesse said unto David his son, "Take now for thy brethren an °ephah of this parched corn, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren;

18 And carry these ten cheeses unto the captain of their thousand, and look how thy brethren fare, and take ° their pledge."

z² 19 Now Saul, and they, and all the [8] men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

20 And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, ° as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the trench, as the host was going forth to the °fight, and shouted for the battle.

21 For Israel and the Philistines had put the battle in array, army against army.

22 And David left his °carriage in the hand of the keeper of the °carriage, and ran into the army, and came and saluted his brethren.

C w 23 And as he talked with them, ° behold, there came up the [4] champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the ° armies of the Philistines, and spake according to the same words: and David heard them.

24 And all the °men of Israel, when they saw the °man, fled from him, and ° were sore afraid.

v a 25 And the [24] men of Israel said, "Have ye seen this [24] man that is come up? surely to defy Israel is he come up: and it shall be, that the [24] man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, ° and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel."

b d 26 And David spake to the ° men that stood by him, saying, "What shall be done to the [8] man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the reproach from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should ° defy the armies of the living ° God?"

e 27 And the people answered him after this manner, saying, "So shall it be done to the [8] man that killeth him."

c 28 And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake unto the [12] men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, "Why camest thou down hither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy pride, and the naughtiness of thine heart; for thou art come down that thou mightest see the battle."

c 29 And David said, "What have I now done? Is there not a cause?"

Z u (p. 389) t 32 And David said to Saul, ° "Let no ° man's heart fail because of him; thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine."

33 And Saul said to David, "Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art but a youth, and he a [8] man of war from his youth."

974 34 And David said unto Saul, "Thy servant °kept °his father's sheep, °and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock:
35 And I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his °beard, and smote him, and slew him.
36 Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of °them, seeing he hath °defied the armies of the °living °God."
37 David said moreover, °"The LORD That delivered me out of the °paw of the lion, and out of the °paw of the bear, He will deliver me out of the °hand of this Philistine." And Saul said unto David, "Go, and °the LORD be with thee."

s (p. 389) 38 And Saul armed David with his armour, and he put an helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail.
39 And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he °assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, "I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them." And David put them off him.
40 And he took his °staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand:

r f (p. 391) and he drew near to the Philistine.
41 And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and the [8] man that bare the shield went before him.

g h^1 42 And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but a youth, and °ruddy, and of a fair countenance.
43 And the Philistine said unto David, "Am I a °dog, that thou comest to me with staves?" And the Philistine cursed David by his °gods.
44 And the Philistine said to David, "Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the °field."

h^2 45 Then said David to the Philistine, "Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a °shield; but I come to thee in the name of °the LORD of hosts, the [26]God of the armies of Israel, Whom thou hast [36]defied.
46 This day will [37]the LORD deliver thee into mine hand; °and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee; and I will °give the carcases of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know °that there is a [26]God in Israel.
47 And all this °assembly shall know that [37]the LORD saveth not with sword and spear: for the battle is [37]the LORD'S, and He will give you into our [37]hands."

f 48 And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine.

g 49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth.
50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.
51 Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and °drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith.

chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled their ° tents.

54 And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to °Jerusalem; but he put his armour in his tent.

Y (p. 389) 55 And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto Abner, the captain of the host, "Abner, °whose son is this youth?" And Abner said, "As °thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell."

56 And the king said, "Inquire thou [55] whose son the stripling is."

57 And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

58 And Saul said to him, [55] "Whose son art thou, thou young man?" And David answered, "I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

18 And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that the °soul of °Jonathan was knit with the °soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own °soul.

2 And Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more home to his father's house.

3 Then Jonathan and David °made a covenant, because he loved him as his own [1] soul.

4 And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, °and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.

5 And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the °men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the People, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

X 6 And it came to pass as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the °Philistine, that the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and °dancing, to meet king Saul, with °tabrets, with joy, and with instruments of musick.

7 And the women answered one another as they played, and said,

"Saul hath slain his thousands,
And David his ten thousands."

Y 8 And Saul was very wroth, and °the saying displeased him; and he said, "They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can he have more but the kingdom?"

9 And Saul eyed David from that day and forward.

V 10 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the °evil °spirit from °God came upon Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house: and David played with his hand, as at other times: and there was a javelin in Saul's hand.

11 And Saul °cast the javelin; for he said, "I will smite David even to the wall with it." And David avoided out of his presence twice.

i¹ j 12 And Saul was °afraid of David,

(p. 392) k because °the LORD was with him, °and was departed from Saul.

l 13 Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand; and he went out and came in before the People.

14 And David behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and [12] the LORD was with him.

15 Wherefore when Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he was °afraid of him.

17 And Saul said to David, °"Behold my elder daughter Merab, ℌer will I give thee to wife: only be thou °valiant for me, and fight [12]the LORD'S battles." For Saul said, °"Let not mine hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him."

18 And David said unto Saul, "Who am ℑ? and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son in law to the king?"

19 But it came to pass at the time when Merab Saul's daughter should have been given to David, that ℌe °was given unto Adriel the Meholathite to wife.

20 And Michal Saul's daughter loved David: and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.

21 And Saul said, "I will give him her, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him." Wherefore Saul said to David, "Thou shalt this day be my son in law in the one of the twain."

22 And Saul commanded his servants, saying, "Commune with David secretly, and say, [17]'Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the king's son in law.'"

23 And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, "Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son in law, seeing that ℑ am a poor °man, and lightly esteemed?"

24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, "On this manner spake David."

25 And Saul said, "Thus shall ye say to David, 'The king desireth not any dowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies.'" But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son in law: and the days were not expired.

27 Wherefore David arose and went, ℌe and °his men, and slew of the Philistines two hundred °men; and David brought their foreskins, and °they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the king's son in law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife.

28 And Saul saw and knew that [12]the LORD was with David, and that °Michal Saul's daughter loved him.

29 And Saul was yet the more [12]afraid of David; and Saul became David's enemy continually.

30 Then the princes of the Philistines went forth: and it came to pass, °after they went forth, that David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was much set by.

19 And Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David.

2 But Jonathan Saul's son delighted much in David: and Jonathan told David, saying, "Saul my father seeketh to kill thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself °until the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thyself:

3 And ℑ will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou art, and ℑ will commune with my father of thee; and °what I see, that I will tell thee."

4 And Jonathan spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, "Let not the king °sin against his servant, against David; because he hath not °sinned against thee, and because his works have been to thee-ward very good:

5 For he did put his °life in his hand, and slew the Philistine, and °the LORD wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and didst rejoice: wherefore then wilt thou [4]sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause?"

6 And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul sware, "As [5]the LORD liveth, he shall not be slain."

7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan shewed him all those things.

And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as in times past.

8 And there was war again: and David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled from him.

9 And the °evil °spirit from [5]the LORD was upon Saul, as ℌe sat in his house with his javelin in his hand: and David played with his hand.

z 4 Then said Jonathan unto David, "Whatsoever [3]thy soul desireth, I will even do it for thee."

L^1 a^1 395) 5 And David said unto Jonathan, [2]"Behold, to morrow is the new moon, and ℵ °should not fail to sit with the king at meat: but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field °unto the third day at even.

6 If thy father at all miss me, then say, 'David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to Beth-lehem his city: for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.'

7 If he say thus, 'It is well;' thy servant shall have peace: but if he be very wroth, then be sure that °evil is determined by him.

8 Therefore thou shalt deal kindly with thy servant; for thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of [3]the LORD with thee: notwithstanding, if there be in me [1]iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father?"

9 And Jonathan said, "Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly that [7]evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee?"

b^1 10 Then said David to Jonathan, "Who shall tell me? or what if thy father answer thee roughly?"

c^1 11 And Jonathan said unto David, "Come, and let us go out into the field." And they went out both of them into the field.

12 And Jonathan said unto David, °"O [3]LORD °God of Israel, when I have sounded my father about to morrow any time, or [5]the third day, and, [2]behold, if there be good toward David, and I then send not unto thee, and shew it thee;

14 And thou shalt not only while yet I live shew me the kindness of [3]the LORD, that I die not:

22 But if I say thus unto the young man, 'Behold, the arrows are beyond thee;' go thy way: for [3]the LORD hath sent thee away.

was the second day of the month, that David's place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, "Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to [2]meat, neither yesterday, nor to day?"
28 And Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Bethlehem:
29 And he said, 'Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there:
and now, if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren.' Therefore he cometh not unto the king's table."
30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, ° "Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness?
31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he °shall surely die."
32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, "Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done?"
33 And Saul cast a javelin at him to smite him: whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David.
34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

b^3 35 And it came to pass in the morning, (p. 395) that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him.
36 And he said unto his lad, "Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot." And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.
37 And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, "Is not the arrow beyond thee?"
38 And Jonathan cried after the lad, "Make speed, haste, stay not." And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.
39 But the lad knew not any thing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter.
40 And Jonathan gave his °artillery unto his lad, and said unto him, "Go, carry them to the city."
41 And as soon as the lad was gone, David arose °out of a place toward the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David exceeded.

c^3 42 And Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace, forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of [3]the LORD, saying, [3]'The LORD be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for ever.'" And he arose and departed: and Jonathan went into the city.

and hath said unto me, 'Let no [1]man know any thing of the business whereabout I send thee, and what I have commanded thee:' and I have appointed my servants to such and such a place.
3 Now therefore what is under thine hand?
give me five loaves of bread in mine hand, or what there is present."

4 And the priest answered David, and said, d^2
"There is no °common bread under mine hand, but there is °hallowed bread; if the young men have °kept themselves at least from women."
5 And David answered the priest, and said unto him, "Of a truth women have been kept out, and the °vessels of the young men are °holy, and the bread is in a manner [4]common, d³ 8 And David said unto Ahimelech, "And is there not here under thine hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste."

7 Then Saul said unto his servants that stood about him, "Hear now, ye Benjamites; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds;

8 That all of you have conspired against me, and there is none that sheweth me that my son hath made a league with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you that °is sorry for me, or sheweth unto me that my son hath stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?"

i 9 °Then answered Doeg the Edomite, which was set over the servants of Saul, and said, "I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub,

10 And he enquired of °the LORD for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

k 11 Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests that were in Nob: and they came all of them to the king.

968 to 967

12 And Saul said, "Hear now, thou son of Ahitub." And he answered, "Here I am, my lord."

13 And Saul said unto him, "Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast enquired of [3]God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?"

14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, "And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, which is the king's son in law, and °goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house?

15 °Did I then begin to enquire of [3]God for him? be it far from me: let not the king impute any thing unto his servant, °nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, less or more."

16 And the king said, "Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy father's house."

17 And the king said unto the °footmen that stood about him, "Turn, and slay the priests of [10]the LORD; because their °hand also is with David, and because they knew ° when he fled, and did not shew it to me." But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of [10]the LORD.

18 And the king said to Doeg, "Turn thou, and fall upon the priests." And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and °slew on that day fourscore and five °persons that did wear a linen ephod.

19 And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both °men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

9 And David knew that Saul °secretly practised mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring hither the ephod."

11 Will the °men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, °as Thy servant hath heard? O [2]LORD [7]God of Israel, 13 Then David and his [3]men, which were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went whithersoever they could go.

20 Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of thy [c]soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him into the king's hand."
21 And Saul said, "Blessed be ye of [2]the LORD; for ye have compassion on me.
22 Go, I pray you, [c]prepare yet, and know and see his place where his [c]haunt is, and who hath seen him there: for it is told me that he dealeth very subtilly.

6 And thus shall ye say to °him that liveth in prosperity, 'Peace be both to thee, and peace be to thine house, and peace be unto all that thou hast.

d 18 Then Abigail made haste, °and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five °measures of parched corn, and an hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses.

19 And she said unto her servants, "Go on before me; [14]behold, I come after you." But she told not her husband Nabal.

20 And it was so, as she rode on the ass, that she came down by the covert of the hill, and, [14]behold, David and his [11]men came down against her; and she met them.

Y 21 Now David had said, "Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him: and he hath requited me [17]evil for good.

22 So and more also do °God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all that pertain to him by the morning light °any that pisseth against the wall."

Z d (p. 401) 962

23 And when Abigail saw David, she hasted, and lighted off the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, 24 And fell at his feet, and said, "Upon me, my lord, upon me let this °iniquity be: and let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thine audience, and hear the words of thine handmaid.

25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this [2]man of Belial, even Nabal: for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I thine handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send.

26 Now therefore, my lord, as [26]the LORD liveth, and as thy °soul liveth, seeing °the LORD hath withholden thee from °coming to shed blood, and from °avenging thyself with thine own hand, now let thine enemies, and they that seek [17]evil to my lord, be as Nabal.

27 And now this °blessing which thine handmaid hath °brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men that follow my lord.

28 I pray thee, forgive the °trespass of thine handmaid: for [26]the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house; because my lord fighteth the battles of [26]the LORD, and [17]evil hath not been found in thee all thy days.

29 Yet a °man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy [26]soul: but the [26]soul of my lord shall be bound in the °bundle of life with [26]the LORD thy [22]God; and the [26]souls of thine enemies, them shall He °sling out, as out of the middle of a sling.

30 And it shall come to pass, when [26]the LORD shall have done to my lord according to all the good that He hath spoken concerning thee, and shall have appointed thee ruler over Israel;

31 That this shall be no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou hast °shed blood causeless, or that my lord hath °avenged himself: but when [26]the LORD shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thine handmaid."

c 32 And David said to Abigail, "Blessed be [26]the LORD [22]God of Israel, Which sent thee this day to meet me:

33 And blessed be thy °advice, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from [26]coming to shed blood, and from [31]avenging myself with mine own hand.

34 For in very deed, as [26]the LORD [22]God of Israel liveth, Which hath kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadst hasted and come to meet me, surely there had not been left unto Nabal by the morning light [22]any that pisseth against the wall."

35 So David received of her hand that which she had brought him, and said unto her, "Go up in peace to thine house; see, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have °accepted thy person."

X a 36 And Abigail came to Nabal; and, °behold, he held a °feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light.

37 But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his °heart died within him, and he became as a stone.

38 And it came to pass about ten days after, that [26]the LORD smote Nabal, that he died.

b 39 And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Blessed be [26]the LORD, That hath pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept His servant from [17]evil: for [26]the LORD hath returned the °wickedness of Nabal upon his own head." And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife.

40 And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, "David sent us unto thee, to take thee to him to wife."

41 And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, [36]"Behold, let thine handmaid be a servant to °wash the feet of the servants of my lord."

42 And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers that °went after her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife.

W 43 David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and they were also both of them his wives.

44 But Saul had given °Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Phalti the son of Laish, which was of Gallim.

T A (p. 40 26 And the Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, "Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon?"

B g 2 Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen °men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.

962 3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon, by the way. But David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.
4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come in very deed.

h (402) 5 And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay in the °trench, and the People pitched round about him.
6 Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, "Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp?" And Abishai said, "I will go down with thee."
7 So David and Abishai came to the People by night: and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within the °trench, and his °spear stuck in the ground at his °bolster: but Abner and the People lay round about him.
8 Then said Abishai to David, ° "God hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore °let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time."
9 And David said to Abishai, ° "Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against °the LORD'S anointed, and be guiltless?"
10 David said furthermore, "As ⁹the LORD liveth, ⁹the LORD shall smite him; or his day shall come to die; or he shall descend into battle, and perish.
11 ⁹The LORD forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against ⁹the LORD'S anointed: but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his bolster, and the °cruse of water, and let us go."
12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; and they gat them away, and °no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all asleep; because a deep sleep from ⁹the LORD was fallen upon them.
13 Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of an hill afar off; a great space being between them:

Eg 14 And David cried to the People, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Answerest thou not, Abner?" Then Abner answered and said, "Who art thou that criest to the king?"

h i¹ (403) 15 And David said to Abner, "Art not thou a valiant °man? and who is like to thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou °not kept thy lord the king? for there came one of the People in to destroy the king thy lord.
16 This thing is not good that thou hast done. As ⁹the LORD liveth, ye are worthy to die, because ye have °not kept your master, ⁹the LORD'S anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his bolster."

i² k¹ 17 And Saul °knew David's voice, and said, "Is this thy voice, my son David?"

l¹ And David said, "It is my voice, my lord, O king."
18 And he said, "Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what °evil is in mine hand?
19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If ⁹the LORD have stirred thee up against me, let Him accept an °offering: but if they be the °children of °men, cursed be they before ⁹the LORD; for they have driven me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of ⁹the LORD, saying, 'Go, °serve other gods.'
20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of ⁹the LORD: for the king of Israel is come out to seek °a flea, as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountains."

21 Then said Saul, "I have °sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because my °soul was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have °erred exceedingly." k²

22 And David answered and said, ⁷"Behold the king's spear! and let one of the young men come over and fetch it. l²
23 °The LORD render to every ¹⁵man his righteousness and his faithfulness: for ⁹the LORD delivered thee into my hand to day, but I would not stretch forth mine hand against °the LORD'S anointed.
24 And, ⁷behold, as thy °life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my °life be much set by in the eyes of ⁹the LORD, and let Him deliver me out of all tribulation."

27 And David said °in his heart, °"I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in any °coast of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand."

5 And David said unto Achish, "If I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there: for why should thy servant dwell in the royal city with thee?"

9 And the woman said unto him, ⁷"Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off those that have ³familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my °life, to cause me to die?"

10 And Saul sware to her by ⁶the LORD, saying, "As ⁶the LORD liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing."

11 Then said the woman, "Whom shall I bring °up unto thee?" And he said, "Bring me °up Samuel."

t but David and his ° men passed on in the rereward with Achish.

s 3 Then said the princes of the Philistines, "What do these Hebrews here?" And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, "Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me these days, or these years, and I have found no fault in him since he ° fell ° unto me unto this day?"

4 And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him; and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, "Make this ° fellow return, that he may go again to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he be an adversary to us: for wherewith should he reconcile himself unto his master? ° should it not be with the heads of these [2] men?

5 Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying,

'Saul slew his thousands,
And David his ten thousands?'"

6 Then Achish called David, and said unto him, "Surely, as ° the LORD liveth, thou hast been upright, and thy going out and thy coming in with me in the host is good in my sight: for I have not found ° evil in thee since the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless ° the [2] lords favour thee not.

7 Wherefore now return, and go in peace, that thou displease not the [2] lords of the Philistines."

8 And David said unto Achish, "But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant so long as I have been ° with thee unto this day, that I may not go fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"

9 And Achish answered and said to David, "I know that thou art good in my sight, as ° an angel of ° God: notwithstanding the princes of the Philistines have said, 'He shall not go up with us to the battle.'

10 Wherefore now rise up early in the morning ° with thy master's servants that are come ° with thee: and as soon as ye be up early in the morning, and have light, depart."

11 So David ° and his ° men rose up early to t depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

E G 30 And it came to pass, when David and his ° men were come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded ° the south, and Ziklag, and smitten Ziklag, and ° burned it with fire;

2 And had taken ° the women captives, that were therein: they slew not any, either great or small, but carried them away, and went on their way.

3 So David and his [1] men came to the city, ° and, behold, it was ° burned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captives.

4 Then David and the People that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

5 And David's two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail °the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And David was greatly distressed; for the People spake of stoning him, because the °soul of all the People was °grieved, °every man for his sons and for his daughters:

H u but David °encouraged himself in °the LORD his °God.

7 And David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, "I pray thee, bring me hither the ephod." And °Abiathar brought thither the ephod to David.

8 And David enquired at [6]the LORD, saying, "Shall I pursue after this troop? shall I overtake them?" And He answered him, "Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them, and without fail recover all."

v 9 So David went, he and the six hundred °men that were with him, and came to the brook Besor, where those that were left behind stayed.

10 But David pursued, he and four hundred [9]men: for two hundred abode behind, which were so faint that they could not go over the brook Besor.

J 11 And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did eat; and they made him drink water;

12 And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, his °spirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, °three days and three nights.

13 And David said unto him, "To whom belongest thou? and whence art thou?" And he said, "I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me, because three days agone I fell sick.

14 We made an invasion upon the south of the °Cherethites, and upon the coast which belongeth to Judah, and upon the south of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire."

15 And David said to him, "Canst thou bring me down to this company?" And he said, "Swear unto me by [6]God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down to this °company."

16 And when he had brought him down, °behold, they were spread abroad upon all the °earth, eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.

H u 17 And David smote them from °the twilight even unto the evening of the next day: and there escaped not a °man of them, save four hundred young [9]men, which rode upon camels, and fled.

18 And David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away: and David rescued his two wives.

19 And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: David recovered all.

20 And David took all the flocks and the herds, which they °drave before those other °cattle, and said, "This is David's spoil."

21 And David came to the two hundred [1]men, z which were so faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to abide at the brook Besor: and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the People that were with him: and when David came near to the People, °he saluted them.

22 Then answered all the wicked [17]men and men of Belial, of those that went with David, and said, "Because they went not with us, we will not give them ought of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every [17]man his wife and his °children, that they may lead them away, and depart."

23 Then said David, "Ye shall not do so, my brethren, with that which [6]the LORD hath given us, Who hath preserved us, and delivered the [15]company that came against us into our hand.

24 For who will hearken unto you in this matter? but as his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be that tarrieth by the stuff: they shall part alike."

25 °And it was so from that day forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel unto this day.

26 And when David came to Ziklag, he sent G of the spoil unto the elders of Judah, even to his friends, saying, [18]"Behold a °present for you of the spoil of the enemies of [6]the LORD;"

22 And Abner said again to Asahel, "Turn thee aside from following me: wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to Joab thy brother?"

23 Howbeit he refused to turn aside: wherefore Abner with the hinder end of the spear smote him under the fifth rib, that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place: and it came to pass, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died ° stood still.

24 Joab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lieth before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

25 And the °children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, "Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then, ere thou bid the People return from following their brethren?"

27 And Joab said, "As °God liveth, unless thou hadst °spoken, surely then in the morning the People had gone up every one from following his brother."

28 So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.

29 And Abner and his [3] men walked all that night through the plain, and passed over Jordan, and went through all °Bithron, and they came to Mahanaim.

30 And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the People together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen [3] men and Asahel.

31 But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's [3] men, so that three hundred and threescore °men died.

32 And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem. And Joab and his [3] men went all night, and they came to Hebron at break of day.

3 Now there was long war between the house of °Saul and the house of David: but David waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

2 And unto David were sons born in Hebron: and his firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;

3 And his second, Chileab, of Abigail the °wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, °Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur;

4 And the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital;

5 And the sixth, Ithream, by Eglah °David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

6 And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul [2] and the house of David, that Abner made himself strong for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and °Ish-bosheth said to Abner, "Wherefore hast thou gone in unto my father's concubine?"

8 Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, "Am I a dog's head, which against Judah do shew kindness this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargest me to day with a °fault concerning this woman?

9 So do °God to Abner, and more also, except, °as °the LORD hath sworn to David, even so I do to him;

10 To translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beer-sheba."

11 And he could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.

960 to 953 saying also, "Make thy °league with me, and, °behold, my °hand shall be with thee, to bring about all Israel unto thee."

p (p. 411) 13 And he said, °"Well; I will make a [12]league with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, Thou shalt not see my face, except thou first bring Michal Saul's daughter, when thou comest to see my face."

14 And David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth Saul's son, saying, "Deliver me my wife Michal, which I espoused to me for an hundred foreskins of the Philistines."

15 And Ish-bosheth sent, and took her from °her husband, even from °Phaltiel the son of Laish.

16 And her husband went with her °along weeping behind her to Bahurim. Then said Abner unto him, "Go, return." And he returned.

o 17 And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, "Ye sought for David in times past to be king over you:

18 Now then °do it: for [9]the LORD hath spoken of David, saying, 'By the hand of My servant David I will save My people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.'"

19 And Abner also spake in the ears of Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and that seemed good to the whole house of Benjamin.

p q (p. 412) 20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty °men with him. And David made Abner and the °men that were with him a feast.

r t 21 And Abner said unto David, "I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel unto my lord the king, that they may make a [12]league with thee, and that thou mayest reign over all that °thine heart desireth." And David °sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

u 22 And, [12]behold, the servants of David and Joab came from °pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had [21]sent him away, and he was gone in peace.

23 When Joab and all the host that was with him were come, they told Joab, saying, "Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace."

t 24 Then Joab came to the king, and said, °"What hast thou done? [12]behold, Abner came unto thee; °why is it that thou hast [21]sent him away, and he is quite gone?

25 Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know thy going out and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest."

u 26 And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him again from the well of Sirah: but David knew it not.

s v 27 And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him quietly, and smote him there under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

w 28 And afterward when David heard it, he said, "I and my kingdom are guiltless before [9]the LORD for ever from the °blood of Abner the son of Ner:

29 Let it °rest on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not fail from the house of Joab one that hath an issue, °or that is a leper, °or that leaneth on a staff, °or that °falleth on the sword, °or that lacketh bread."

v 30 So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had slain their brother Asahel at °Gibeon in the battle.

w 31 And David said to Joab, and to all the People that were with him, "Rend your clothes, and gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner." And king David himself followed the °bier.

32 And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the People wept.

g 23 And when David enquired of [2] the LORD, he said, "Thou shalt not go up; but fetch a compass behind them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

24 And let it be, when thou hearest the sound of a going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt bestir thyself: for then shall [2] the LORD go out before thee, to smite the host of the Philistines."

h 25 And David did so, ° as [2] the LORD had commanded him; and smote the Philistines from ° Geba until thou come to Gazer.

H P[1] i 6 Again, David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.

2 And David arose, and went with all the people that were with him from ° Baale of Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of ° God, ° whose name is called by the name of ° the LORD of hosts That dwelleth between the cherubims.

3 And they set the ark of [2] God upon ° a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in Gibeah: and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drave the new cart.

4 And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab which was at Gibeah, accompanying the ark of [2] God: and Ahio went before the ark.

k 5 And David and all the house of Israel played before ° the LORD on all manner of ° instruments made of fir wood, even on harps, and on psalteries, and on ° timbrels, and on cornets, and on ° cymbals.

l 6 And when they came to ° Nachon's threshingfloor, Uzzah put forth ° his hand to the ark of [2] God, and took hold of it; for the oxen shook it.

7 And the anger of [5] the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and [2] God smote him there for his ° error; and there he died by the ark of [2] God.

8 And David was displeased, because [5] the LORD had ° made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perez-uzzah to this day.

m 9 And David was afraid of [5] the LORD that day, and said, "How shall the ark of [5] the LORD come to me?"

10 So David would not remove the ark of [5] the LORD unto him into the city of David: but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

11 And the ark of [5] the LORD continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months:

When the Philistines did it in ignorance (1 Sam. 6. 7) no judgment fell on them, because the Law of Moses was not delivered to them. But David should have known: hence judgment came. The solemn lesson is that anything introduced into the worship of God contrary to His requirements is deserving of His judgments. This includes all that is contrary to John 4. 24, and all that is of the flesh, which "profiteth nothing" (John 6. 63). All this is like David's "new cart" and is sin in God's sight. 12 And it was told king David, saying, [5]"The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that °pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of [2]God."

i So David went and °brought up the ark of [2]God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness.

15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of [5]the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

p¹ So all the People departed °every one to his house.

o³ 21 And David said unto Michal, °"It was before [5]the LORD, Which chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the People of [5]the LORD, over Israel: therefore will I play before [5]the LORD.

22 And I will yet be more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight: and of the maidservants which thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had in honour."

word of [1]the LORD came unto Nathan, saying, s 8 Now therefore so shalt thou say unto My servant David, 'Thus saith °the LORD of hosts, °'I took thee from the sheepcote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My People, °over Israel:

9 And I was with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies out of thy sight, and °have made thee a great name, like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth.
10 Moreover I will appoint a place for My People Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the [6]children of °wickedness afflict them any more, as beforetime, 11 And as since the time that I commanded judges to be over My People Israel, and have caused thee to rest from all thine enemies. Also [1]the LORD telleth thee that °He will make thee an °house.
12 And when thy days be fulfilled, and thou shalt °sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom.

7 And David said unto him, "Fear not: for I will surely shew thee [1]kindness for Jonathan °thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of °Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually."

8 And he bowed himself, and said, °"What is thy servant, that thou shouldest look upon such °a dead dog as °I am?"

9 Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, "I have given unto thy master's son all that pertained to Saul and to all his house.

10 Thou therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread alway at my table." Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

10 And it came to pass after this, that the king of the °children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead.

2 Then said David, "I will shew °kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, °as his father shewed kindness unto me."

And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants for his father. And David's servants came into the land of the [1]children of Ammon.

3 And the princes of the [1]children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, "Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, to °search °the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?"

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them, because the °men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, "Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return."

6 And when the [1]children of Ammon saw that they stank before David, the [1]children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king Maacah a thousand °men, and of °Ish-tob twelve thousand °men.

7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entering in of the gate: and the Syrians of Zoba, and of Rehob, and °Ish-tob, and Maacah, were by themselves in the field.

9 When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians:

10 And the rest of the People he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the [1]children of Ammon.

11 And he said, "If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the

q 420)

13 And Joab drew nigh, and the People that were with him, unto the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him.
14 And when the [1] children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abishai, and entered into the city.

So Joab returned from the [1] children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

15 And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered themselves together.
16 And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the [°] river: and they came to Helam; and [°] Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.
17 And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam.

And the Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him.
18 And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew the men of [°] seven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and forty thousand horsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of their host, who died there.

r

19 And when all the kings that were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the [1] children of Ammon any more.

9 But Uriah slept at the [°] door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.
10 And when they had told David, saying, "Uriah went not down unto his house," David said unto Uriah, "Camest thou not from thy journey? why then didst thou not go down unto thine house?"
11 And Uriah said unto David, "The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in tents; and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields; shall I then go into mine house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? as thou livest, and as [°] thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing."

23 But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? can I bring him back again? °I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me."

24 °And David comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and she bare a son, and °he called his name °Solomon: and [1]the LORD loved him.

25 [21]And He sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and °He called his name °Jedidiah, °because of [1]the LORD.

P X^1 (p. 424)

26 And Joab fought against Rabbah of the [9]children of Ammon, and took the royal city.

27 And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, "I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken the °city of waters.

28 Now therefore gather the rest of the People together, and encamp against the city, and take it: lest I take the city, and it be called after my name."

X^2

29 And David gathered all the People together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it.

30 And he took °their king's crown from off his head, the weight whereof was a °talent of gold with the precious stones: and it was set on David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city in great abundance.

31 [24]And he brought forth the people that were therein, and °put them °under saws, and °under harrows of iron, and °under axes of iron, and made them °pass through the °brick-kiln: and °thus did he unto all the cities of the [9]children of Ammon. So David and all the people returned unto Jerusalem.

13 And it came to pass °after this, that °Absalom the son of David had a fair sister, whose name was Tamar; and °Amnon the son of David loved her.

2 And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin; and Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her.

31 put = appointed, appointed over, set, &c. Heb. sûm (Gen. 2. 8; 45. 8, 9; 47. 6. Ex. 2. 14; 5. 14. 1 Sam. 8. 11; 2 Sam. 7. 10. 2 Kings 10. 24. Ps. 78. 5; 81. 5. Hos. 1. 11, &c.).

under = with, especially to work with. Heb. letter ב (Beth), prefixed as prep. = in, within, with. When the prep. "under" = beneath, then it is either part of a verb or one of four distinct words: 'êl (2 Sam. 2. 23); mattâh (1 Chron. 27. 23); tʻḥoth (Jer. 10. 11. Dan. 4. 12, 21; 7. 27, "under the heavens"); taḥath (Dan. 4. 14, "under a tree"). Beth, when translated "under", is only in the sense of within (as "under (or within the shelter of) the wing", or "under (or within) the earth"). Otherwise, used with a tool or weapon or instrument, it always means "with". See "with an axe" (Deut. 19. 5. Jer. 10. 3); "with axes" (Jer. 46. 22. Ezek. 26. 9. Ps. 74. 6); "with nails and with hammers" (Jer. 10. 4); "with an ox-goad" (Judg. 3. 31); "with mattock" (Isa. 7. 25); "with sword and with bow" (Gen. 48. 22. Josh. 24. 12. 2 Kings 6. 22); "with a graving tool" (Ex. 32. 4), &c.

pass through = pass by or before. Heb. 'âbar, as in Ezek. 37. 2; 46. 21. Deut. 2. 30. Ex. 33. 19. 1 Sam. 16. 8, 9, 10, &c.

brickkiln = brick-work; hence, brick pavement or paved area (R.V. marg.). Not brickkiln; no brickkilns in Palestine. All bricks there are sun-dried. Only once spoken of as burnt—as being a strange thing (Gen. 11. 3, and marg.). Heb. malbēn, occurs only here, Jer. 43. 9, and Nah. 3. 14, the former at "entry" of royal palace, the latter said to be "fortified". Both out of the question, and quite incongruous for a brickkiln. The very paved area of Jer. 43. 9 was discovered at Tahpanhes by Flinders Petrie in 1886, where Nebuchadnezzar did exactly what David did here and in ch. 8. 2 and 1 Chron. 20. 3.

thus did he: i. e. as in 8. 2, with Moab, so here; he caused the captives to pass by before him, he seated on a pavement of brick-work, or paved area, where he appointed them to the various departments of labour for which they were suited. Cp. Jer. 43. 9–11. These were the "strangers" (i. e. foreigners) and the "abundance of workmen" referred to in 1 Chron. 22. 2, 15. Cp. Deut. 29. 11. Josh. 9. 27. See notes on 1 Kings 5. 13; 9. 15, 21, 22.

1 after this: i. e. 938. David, 53; Amnon, 22; Absalom, 20; Tamar, 15; Solomon, 2. Absalom. Son of Maacah, daughter of king of Geshur (see note on 3. 3). Amnon. Son of Ahinoam (3. 2).

938 3 But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of °Shimeah David's brother: and Jonadab was a very °subtil °man.

4 And he said unto him, "Why art thou, being the king's son, lean from day to day? wilt thou not tell me?" And Amnon said unto him, "I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."

B a 424) 5 And Jonadab said unto him, "Lay thee down on thy bed, and °make thyself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, 'I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and give me meat, and dress the °meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand.'"

6 So Amnon lay down, and [5]made himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, "I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of °cakes in my sight, that I may eat at her hand."

7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, "Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him [5]meat."

8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took °flour, and kneaded it, and made [6]cakes in his sight, and did bake the [6]cakes.

9 And she took °a pan, and °poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, "Have out all °men from me." And they went out every °man from him.

10 And Amnon said unto Tamar, "Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand." And Tamar took the [6]cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

b 11 And when she had brought them unto him to eat, he took hold of her, and said unto her, "Come lie with me, my sister."

12 And she answered him, "Nay, my brother, do not °force me; for no such thing ought to be done in Israel: do not thou this folly.

13 And I, whither shall I cause my shame to go? and as for thee, thou shalt be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king; for he will not withhold me from thee."

14 Howbeit he would not hearken unto her voice: but, being stronger than she, forced her, and lay with her.

15 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said unto her, "Arise, be gone."

16 And she said unto him, "There is °no cause: this °evil in sending me away is greater than the other that thou didst unto me." But he would not hearken unto her.

17 Then he called his servant that ministered unto him, and said, "Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her."

18 And she had a garment of °divers colours upon her: for with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her.

c d 425) 19 And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and °laid her hand on her head, and went on crying.

20 And Absalom her brother said unto her, e "Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? but hold now thy peace, my sister: he is thy brother; regard not this thing." So Tamar remained °desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

21 But when king David heard of all these d things, he was very wroth.

22 And Absalom spake unto his brother e Amnon neither good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

23 And it came to pass after two full years, B a (p. 424) that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons.

24 And Absalom came to the king, and said, °"Behold now, thy servant hath sheepshearers; let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants go with thy servant."

25 And the king said to Absalom, "Nay, my son, let us not all now go, lest we be °chargeable unto thee." And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him.

26 Then said Absalom, "If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us." And the king said unto him, "Why should he go with thee?"

27 But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go °with him.

28 Now Absalom had commanded his ser- b vants, saying, "Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, 'Smite Amnon;' then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be °valiant."

29 And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon °as Absalom had commanded.

32 And Jonadab, the son of ³Shimeah David's brother, answered and said, "Let not my lord suppose that they have slain all the young men the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead: for by the appointment of Absalom this hath been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar.

33 Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead: for Amnon only is dead."

27 three sons. Did not survive him. Cp. 18. 18.

23 So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. k

24 And the king said, "Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face." So Absalom returned to his own house, and saw not the king's face. G² 936

25 But in all Israel there was [19]none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he polled his head, (°for it was at every year's end that he polled it: because the hair was heavy on him, therefore he polled it:) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels after the °king's weight.

27 And unto Absalom there were born °three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar: she was a woman of a fair countenance.

28 So Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, and saw not the king's face. H k 936-935

29 Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to have sent him to the king; but he would not come to him: and when he sent again the second time, he would not come. j

30 Therefore he said unto his servants, "See, Joab's field is near mine, and he hath barley there; go and set it on fire." And Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

31 Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto his house, and said unto him, "Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire?"

32 And Absalom answered Joab, [21]"Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, 'Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, 'Wherefore am I come from Geshur? it had been good for me to have been there still: now therefore let me see the king's face; and if there be any [9]iniquity in me, let him kill me.'"

935 33 So Joab came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king:

G[3] (p. 427) and the king kissed Absalom.

Y[3] J l n (p. 428) 934 15 And °it came to pass after this, that Absalom prepared him chariots and °horses, and fifty °men to °run before him.

2 And Absalom °rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any [1]man that had a controversy came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, "Of what city art thou?" And he said, "Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel."

3 And Absalom said unto him, "See, thy °matters are good and right; but there is °no man deputed of the king to hear thee."

4 Absalom said moreover, "Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every [1]man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice!"

5 And it was so, that when any [1]man came nigh to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him.

6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment:

o so Absalom stole the °hearts of the °men of Israel.

m 7 And it came to pass after °forty years, that Absalom said unto the king, "I pray thee, let me go and pay °my vow, which I have vowed unto °the LORD, in °Hebron.

8 For thy servant °vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, 'If [7]the LORD shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then I will serve [7]the LORD.'"

m 9 And the king said unto him, "Go in peace." So he arose, and went to Hebron.

n 10 But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "As soon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, 'Absalom reigneth in Hebron.'"

11 And with Absalom went two hundred [1]men out of Jerusalem, that were called; and they went in their simplicity, and they knew not any thing.

12 And Absalom °sent for °Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counsellor, from °his city, even from Giloh, while he °offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the People °increased continually with Absalom.

o 13 And there came a messenger to David, saying, "The hearts of the [1]men of Israel are after Absalom."

L p[1] 14 And David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, "Arise, and let us flee; for we shall not else escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and bring °evil upon us, and smite the °city with the edge of the sword."

15 And the king's servants said unto the king, °"Behold, thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall °appoint."

16 And the king went forth, and all his household after him. And the king left ten women, which were concubines, to keep the house.

17 And the king went forth, and all the People after him, and tarried in °a place that was far off.

18 And all his servants passed on beside him; and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the °Gittites, six hundred [1]men which 20 Whereas thou camest but yesterday, should I this day make thee go up and down with us? seeing I go whither I may, return thou, and take back thy brethren: °mercy and °truth be with thee."

21 And Ittai answered the king, and said, "As [7]the LORD liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will thy servant be."

22 And David said to Ittai, "Go and pass over." And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his [6]men, and all the little ones that were with him.

q¹ (p. 428) 23 And °all the °country wept with a loud voice, and all the People passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the People passed over, toward the way of the wilderness.

p² 24 And °Io Zadok also, and all the Levites were with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of °God: and they set down the ark of °God; and Abiathar went up, until all the people had done passing out of the city.

25 And the king said unto Zadok, "Carry back the ark of [24]God into the city: °if I shall find favour in the eyes of [7]the LORD, He will bring me again, and shew me both it, and His habitation:

26 But if He thus say, 'I have no delight in thee;' [15]behold, here am I, let Him do to me °as seemeth good unto Him."

27 The king said also unto Zadok the priest, "Art not thou a seer? return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz thy son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.

28 °See, I will tarry in the plain of the wilderness, until there come word from you to certify me."

29 Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the ark of [25]God again to Jerusalem: and they tarried there.

18 choose = hath chosen.

17 And Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this thy kindness to thy friend? why wentest thou not with thy friend?"

18 And Hushai said unto Absalom, "Nay; but whom [8] the LORD, and this People, and all the [5] men of Israel, [o] choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide.

19 And again, whom should I serve? should I not serve in the presence of his son? as I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence."

20 Then said Absalom to Ahithophel, "Give counsel among you what we shall do." w

934 21 And Ahithophel ° said unto Absalom, "Go in unto thy father's concubines, which he hath left to keep the house; and all Israel shall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father: then shall the hands of all that are with thee be strong."

22 So they spread Absalom a tent upon ° the top of the house; and Absalom went in unto his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 And the counsel of Ahithophel, which he counselled in those days, was ° as if a [5] man had enquired at the ° oracle of [16] God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

17 Moreover Ahithophel said unto Absalom, "Let me now ° choose out twelve thousand ° men, and ° I will arise and pursue after David ° this night:

2 And [1] I will come upon him while he is weary and weak handed, and will make him afraid: and all the People that are with him shall flee; and I will smite the king only:

3 And I will bring back all the People unto thee: the [1] man whom thou seekest is as if all returned: so all the People shall be in peace."

4 And the saying ° pleased Absalom well, ° and all the elders of Israel.

x 430) 5 Then said Absalom, ° "Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he saith."

6 And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake unto him, saying, "Ahithophel hath spoken after this manner: shall we do after his saying? if not; speak thou."

7 And Hushai said unto Absalom, "The ° counsel that Ahithophel hath ° given is not good at this time.

8 For," said Hushai, "thou knowest thy father and his ° men, that they be ° mighty men, and they be ° chafed in their ° minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a [1] man of war, and will not lodge with the People.

9 ° Behold, he is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some of them be overthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it will say, 'There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom.'

10 And he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly melt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a [8] mighty man, and they which be with him are ° valiant men.

11 Therefore I counsel that all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, from Dan even to Beersheba, ° as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that ° thou go ° to battle ° in thine own person.

12 So shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him ° as the dew falleth on the ground: and of him and of all the [5] men that are with him there shall not be left so much as one.

13 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there."

x 14 And Absalom and all the [1] men of Israel said, "The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel." For ° the LORD had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that ° the LORD might bring ° evil upon Absalom.

w 15 Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, "Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, 'Lodge not this night in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the People that are with him.'"

17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed by ° En-rogel; for they might not be seen to come into the city: and ° a wench went and told them; and they went and told king David.

18 Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Absalom: but they went both of them away 19 And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known.

20 And when Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house, they said, "Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" And the woman °said unto them, "They be gone over the brook of water." And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, and said unto David, "Arise, and pass quickly over the water: for thus hath Ahithophel counselled against you."

22 Then David arose, and all the People that were with him, and they passed over °Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

2 And David sent forth a third part of the People under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said unto the People, "I will surely go forth with you myself also."

4 And the king said unto them, "What seemeth you best I will do." And the king stood by the gate side, and all the People came out by hundreds and by thousands.

5 And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom." And all the People °heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.

b 9 And Absalom met the servants of David.
432) And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was °taken up between the heaven and the earth; and the mule that was under him went away.

10 And a certain °man saw it, and told Joab, and said, °"Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak."

13 Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against mine own °life: for there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thyself wouldest have set thyself against me."

14 Then said Joab, "I may not tarry thus with thee." And he took three °darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak.

b 17 And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid a very great °heap of stones upon him: and all Israel fled every one to his tent.

18 (Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself a °pillar, which is in the king's dale: for he said, "I have °no son to keep my name in remembrance:" and he called the °pillar after his own name: and it is called unto this day, Absalom's °place.)

36 Thy servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward?

37 Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and of my mother. But [1]behold thy servant Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good unto thee."

38 And the king answered, "Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee."

t 39 And all the people went over Jordan.

20 And there happened to be there a °man of Belial, whose name was Sheba, the °son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he blew a trumpet, and said, "We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: every °man to his °tents, O Israel." Y³

2 So every [1]man of Israel went up from after David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri:
but the [1]men of Judah clave unto their king, x from Jordan even to Jerusalem.

3 And David came to his house at Jerusalem; y and the king took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward, and fed them, but went not in unto them. So they were shut up unto the day of their death, living in widowhood.

4 Then said the king to Amasa, "Assemble x z me the [1]men of Judah within three days, and be thou here present."

933 5 So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah: but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him.

a¹ 436) 6 And David said to Abishai, "Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take °thou thy lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities, and escape us."

7 And there went out after him Joab's °men, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

z² 8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them. And Joab's garment that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon it a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and °as he went forth it fell out.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, °"Art thou in health, my brother?" And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him.

10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so he smote him therewith in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not again; and he died.

a² So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri.

11 And one of Joab's [1]men stood by him, and said, "He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him go after Joab."

z³ 12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And when the [1]man saw that all the People stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still.

13 When °he was removed out of the highway, a³ all the °People went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

w b 437) 14 And °he went through all the tribes of Israel unto Abel, and to Beth-maachah, and all the °Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after °him.

c 15 And they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maachah, and they cast up a °bank against the city, and it stood in the °trench: and all the People that were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down.

b 16 Then cried a wise woman out of the city, "Hear, °hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, 'Come near hither, that I may speak with thee.'"

17 And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, "Art thou Joab?" And he answered, "I am he." Then she said unto him, "Hear the words of thine handmaid." And he answered, "I do hear."

18 Then she spake, saying, "They were wont to speak in old time, saying, °'They shall surely ask counsel at Abel:' and so they ended the matter.

21 Then there was a °famine in the days of David three years, °year after year; and David enquired of °the LORD. And °the LORD answered, "It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites."

2 And the king called the °Gibeonites, and said unto them; (now the Gibeonites °were not of the °children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the °children of Israel had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to slay them in his zeal to the °children of Israel and Judah.)

3 Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites, "What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless the inheritance of [1]the LORD?"

4 And the Gibeonites said unto him, "We will have no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill °any man in Israel." And he said, "What ye shall say, that will I do for you."

5 And they answered the king, "The [4]man that consumed us, and that devised against us that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the °coasts of Israel,

6 Let seven °men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up unto [1]the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, whom [1]the LORD did choose." And the king said, "I will give them."

7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of [1]the LORD'S oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

8 But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of °Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite:

9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill before [1]the LORD: and they fell all seven together, and [2]were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest.

h 10 And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.

11 And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

g 12 And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the °men of Jabesh-gilead, which had stolen them from the °street of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, °when the Philistines had slain Saul in Gilboa:

13 And he brought up from thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul °and Jonathan his son buried they in the country of Benjamin in Zelah, in the sepulchre of Kish his father: and they performed °all that the king commanded.

And after that °God was intreated for the land. f

M i 930 to 923

15 Moreover the Philistines had yet °war again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines: and David °waxed faint.

k[1] 16 And Ishbi-benob, which was of the sons of the °giant, the weight of whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of brass in weight, he being girded with a new sword, °thought to have slain David.

17 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the [5]men of David sware unto him, saying, "Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the °light of Israel."

i[2] 18 And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at °Gob:

k[2] then Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Saph, which was of the sons of the [10]giant.

i³ (438) -923 k³ 19 And there was again a battle in [18]Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim, a Beth-lehemite, slew °the brother of °Goliath the Gittite, the °staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

i⁴ k⁴ 20 And there was yet a battle in Gath, where was a [4]man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the [16]giant.
21 And when he °defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimeah the brother of David slew him.

i⁵ 22 These four were born to the [16]giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

THE °FIRST BOOK OF THE °KINGS,

COMMONLY CALLED,

THE °THIRD BOOK OF THE KINGS.

B¹ G¹ J (p. 447) 921

1 Now °king David was °old and stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he °gat no heat.

K

2 Wherefore his °servants said unto him, "Let there be sought for my lord the king a young °virgin: and let her stand before the king, and let her cherish him, and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king may get heat."

3 So they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the °coasts of Israel, and found Abishag a Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

4 And the damsel was very fair, and cherished the king, and ministered to him: but the king knew her not.

H L a

5 Then °Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king:" and he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty °men to run before him.

6 And his father had not displeased him at any time in saying, "Why hast thou done so?" and he also was a very goodly man; and °his mother bare him after Absalom.

7 And he conferred with °Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest: and they following Adonijah helped him.

b

8 But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the °mighty men which belonged to David, were not with Adonijah.

a

9 And Adonijah slew sheep and oxen and fat cattle by the stone of Zoheleth, which is by °En-rogel, and called all his brethren the king's sons, and all the °men of Judah °the king's servants:

b

10 But Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the [8] mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he called not.

TITLE, First . . . third. See note on p. 366. The wrong division into two books cuts up the histories of Ahaziah and Elijah.

THE STRUCTURE OF 1 AND 2 KINGS AS RELATED TO 1 AND 2 SAMUEL:

x	2 Sam. 2. 1—4. 12.	The Divided kingdom.
y	2 Sam. 5. 1—24. 25.	The United kingdom.
y	1 Kings 1. 1—12. 15.	The United kingdom.
x	1 Kings 12. 16—2 Kings 25. 30.	The Divided kingdom.

Kings. As compared with Chronicles, Kings and Samuel give the history from the human point of view, while Chronicles gives the same history from the Divine standpoint. The former, as man ruled the history; the latter, as God overruled it. Cp. Saul's death, 1 Sam. 31. 6, with 1 Chron. 10. 13, 14; and in Kings, three verses given to Hezekiah's reformation, and in Chronicles, three chapters.

For the parallel passages in the Book of Chronicles, see Ap. 56, and note on Title of 1 Samuel, p. 366.

M N e (p. 448) 921 11 Wherefore Nathan spake unto Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not?

d 12 Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own °life, and the °life of thy son Solomon.

d 13 Go and get thee in unto king David, and say unto him, °'Didst not thou, my lord, O king, swear unto thine handmaid, saying, 'Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?' °why then doth Adonijah reign?'

e 14 °Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words."

O 15 And Bath-sheba went in unto the king into the chamber:

G² and the king was very old; and Abishag the Shunammite ministered unto the king.

M O e 16 And Bath-sheba bowed, and did obeisance unto the king. And the king °said, "What wouldest thou?"

f 17 And she said unto him, °"My lord, thou swarest by °the LORD thy °God unto thine handmaid, saying, 'Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne.'

g 18 And now, [14]behold, Adonijah reigneth; and °now, my lord the king, thou knowest it not:

h 19 And he hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the host: but Solomon thy servant hath he not called.

i 20 And °thou, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are upon thee, that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

21 Otherwise it shall come to pass, when my lord the king shall °sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted °offenders."

N e 22 And, °lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in.

23 And they told the king, saying, °"Behold Nathan the prophet." And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground.

f 24 And Nathan said, "My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?

g 25 For he is gone down this day, and hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest;

i 27 Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou hast not shewed it unto thy servant, who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

P¹ Q 28 Then king David answered and said, "Call me Bath-sheba." And she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king.

k¹ 29 And the king sware, and said, "As [17]the LORD liveth, That hath redeemed my °soul out of all distress, 921 30 Even °as I sware unto thee by [17]the LORD [17]God of Israel, saying, 'Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead;' even so will I certainly do this day."

l[1] (p. 448) 31 Then Bath-sheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and said, "Let my lord king David live for ever."

Q[2] j[2] 32 And king David said, "Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada." And they came before the king.

k[2] 33 The king also said unto them, "Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon °mine own mule, and bring him down to Gihon:
34 And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel: and blow ye with the trumpet, and say, [17]'God save king Solomon.'
35 Then ye shall come up after him, that he may come and °sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah."

l[2] 36 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, "Amen: [17]the LORD [17]God of my lord the king say so too.
37 [30]As [17]the LORD hath been with my lord the king, even so be He with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David."

Q[1] j[3] 38 So Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to Gihon.

k[3] 39 And Zadok the priest took an horn of oil out of the °tabernacle, and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and all the People said, [17]"God save king Solomon."

l[3] 40 And all the People came up after him, and the People °piped with pipes, and °rejoiced with great joy, so that °the earth rent with the sound of them.

P[2] m (p. 449) 41 And Adonijah and all the guests that were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, "Wherefore is this noise of the city being in an uproar?"

n 42 And while he yet spake, [25]behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said unto him, "Come in; for thou art a valiant [5]man, and bringest good tidings."
43 °And °Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, [5]"Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king.
44 And the king hath sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the °Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule:
45 And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon: and they are come up from thence rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that ye have heard.
46 And also Solomon °sitteth on the throne of the kingdom.
47 And moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, °'God make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne.' And the king °bowed himself upon the bed.
48 And also thus said the king, 'Blessed be [17]the LORD [17]God of Israel, Which hath given one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes even seeing it.'"

m 49 And all the guests that were with Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and went every [5]man his way.
50 And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose, and went, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

n 51 And it was told Solomon, saying, [23]"Behold, Adonijah feareth king Solomon: for, °lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let king Solomon swear unto me to day that he will not slay his servant with the sword.'" 52 And Solomon said, "If he will °shew himself a °worthy man, there shall °not an hair of him fall to the earth: but if wickedness shall be found in him, he shall die."

and he °charged Solomon his son, saying,

2 "I go °the way of all the earth: be thou °strong therefore, and shew thyself a °man;

3 And keep the °charge of °the LORD thy °God, to walk in His ways, °to keep His statutes, and His commandments, and His judgments, and His testimonies, °as it is written in the law of Moses, that thou mayest °prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself:

r

5 Moreover thou knowest also what °Joab the son of Zeruiah °did to me, and what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto °Abner the son of Ner, and unto °Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet.

6 Do therefore according to thy wisdom, and let not his hoar head go down to °the grave in peace.

p q

7 But shew kindness unto the sons of °Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those that eat at thy table: for so they came to me when I fled because of Absalom thy brother.

r

8 And, °behold, thou hast with thee °Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite of Bahurim, which cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came down to meet me at Jordan, and °I sware to him by [3]the LORD, saying, 'I will not put thee to death with the sword.'

9 Now therefore hold him not guiltless: °(for thou art a wise [2]man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him); °but his hoar head bring thou down to [6]the grave with blood."

14 she said. Some codices, with two early printed editions, Sept., Syr., and Vulg., add "unto him".

920 16 And now ℨ ask one petition of thee, °deny me not." And she said unto him, "Say on."

t 17 And he said, "Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, (for he will not °say thee nay,) that he give me Abishag the Shunammite to wife."

u 18 And Bath-sheba said, °"Well; ℨ will speak for thee unto the king."

s 19 Bath-sheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a °seat to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand.

20 Then she said, "ℨ desire one small petition of thee; I pray thee, [17] say me not nay."
And the king said unto her, "Ask on, my mother: for I will not [17] say thee nay."

t 21 And she said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite °be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife."

u 22 And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, "And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also; for ℌe is mine elder brother; even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah."

23 Then king Solomon sware by [3] the LORD, saying, [8] "God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against his own °life.

24 Now therefore, as [3] the LORD liveth, Which hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and Who hath made me an house, °as He °promised, Adonijah shall be put to death this day."

25 And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him that he died.

W Y[1] (p. 450) 26 And unto Abiathar the priest said the king,
"Get thee to °Anathoth, unto thine own °fields;
for thou art °worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because thou barest the ark of the °Lord GOD before David my father, and because thou hast been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted."

27 So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto [3] the LORD; that he might °fulfil the word of [3] the LORD, which He spake concerning the house of Eli in °Shiloh.

X[2] 28 Then tidings came to Joab: for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after °Absalom. And Joab fled unto the °tabernacle of [3] the LORD, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

29 And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the [28] tabernacle of [3] the LORD; and, [8] behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying,
"Go, fall upon him."

30 And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of [3] the LORD, and said unto him, "Thus saith the king, 'Come forth.'" And he said, °"Nay; but I will die here." And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, "Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me."

31 And the king said unto him, "Do [24] as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; that thou mayest take away the innocent blood, which Joab shed, from me, and from the house of my father.

32 And [3] the LORD shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two °men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof, to wit, Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah.

33 Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from [3] the LORD."

34 So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him: and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

Y 35 And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host: and Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar.

X 36 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, "Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence °any whither.

37 For it shall be, that °on the day thou goest out, and passest over the brook Kidron, thou

920 shalt know for certain that thou [2]shalt surely die: thy blood shall be upon [c]thine own head."

38 And Shimei said unto the king, "The saying is good: [24]as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do." And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

39 And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto Achish son of Maachah king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, [8]"Behold, thy servants be in [c]Gath."

40 And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath.

41 And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again.

42 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, "Did I not make thee to swear by [3]the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, 'Know for a certain, on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die?' and thou saidst unto me, 'The word that I have heard is good.'

43 Why then hast thou not kept the oath of [3]the LORD, and the commandment that I have charged thee with?"

44 The king said moreover to Shimei, "Thou knowest all the [c]wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father: therefore [3]the LORD shall return thy [c]wickedness upon thine own head;

45 And king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before [3]the LORD for ever."

46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; which went out, and fell upon him, that he died.

V (p. 450) And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

3 And Solomon made [c]affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of [c]the LORD, and the wall of Jerusalem round about.

T A v (p. 452) 2 [c]Only the people sacrificed [c]in high places, because there was no house built unto the name of [1]the LORD, until those days.

3 And Solomon loved [1]the LORD, walking in the [c]statutes of David his father: [2]only he sacrificed and burnt incense in [c]high places.

4 And the king went to [c]Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place: a thousand burnt offerings did Solomon [c]offer upon that altar.

12 °Behold, I have done according to thy words: °lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none °like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

And he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of [10]the LORD*, and [4]offered up burnt offerings, and °offered peace offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.

C H a (p. 453) 16 Then came there two women, that were harlots, unto the king, and stood before him.

17 And the one woman said, "O my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house.

18 And it came to pass the third day after that I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also: and we were together; °there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house.

19 And this woman's °child died in the night; because she °overlaid it.

20 And she arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while thine handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom.

21 And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, [12]behold, it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, which I did bear."

22 And the other woman said, "Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son." And this said, "No; but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son." Thus they °spake before the king.

b 23 Then said the king, "The one saith, 'This is my son that liveth, and thy son is the dead:' and the other saith, 'Nay; but thy son is the dead, and my son is the living.'"

24 And the king said, "Bring me a sword." And they brought a sword before the king.

25 And the king said, "Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other."

26 Then spake the woman whose the living child was unto the king, for her bowels yearned upon her son, and she said, "O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it." But the other °said, "Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it." a

1 four hundred and eightieth year. Note that the number is Ordinal (not Cardinal) = the 480th year of some longer and larger period, viz. the 490 years from the Exodus to the Dedication of the Temple; the difference of ten years being made up of seven years in building (v. 38) and three years in furnishing. Dedicated not in seventh year, for Completion took place in the eighth month of one year (v. 38), and the Dedication in the seventh month of another (8. 2). The chronological period was 40 years in wilderness + 450 years under judges + 40 years of Saul + 40 years of David + 3 years of Solomon (v. 1) = 573 (from 1490–917). The mystical period of 480 years is obtained by deducting the period of 93 years, when Israel's national position was in abeyance. Thus: 8 (Judg. 3. 8) + 18 (Judg. 3. 14) + 20 (Judg. 4. 3) + 7 (Judg. 6. 1) + 40 (Judg. 13. 1) = 93. (N.B. The eighteen years of Judg. 10. 7, 9, was local and beyond Jordan. It did not affect the national position). Hence 573 − 93 = 480 (from 873–93). See Ap., pp. 41, 56.

12 which I spake unto David. Cp. 2 Sam. 7. 13, 1 Chron. 22. 10.

P 11 And the word of [1]the LORD came to Solomon, saying,

12 "Concerning this house which thou art in building, if thou wilt walk in My statutes, and execute My judgments, and keep all My commandments to walk in them; then will I perform My word with thee, °which I spake unto David thy father:

917 13 And I will dwell °among the [1]children of Israel, and will not forsake My people Israel."

O 14 So Solomon built the house, and finished it.

(p. 456) N o[1] (p. 457) 15 And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, both the floor of the house, and the walls of the cieling: and he °covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir.

p[1] 16 And he built twenty [2]cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor and the walls with boards of cedar: he even built them for it within, even for the [5]oracle, even for the most holy place.

17 And the house, that is, the temple before it, was forty [2]cubits long.

o[2] 18 And the cedar of the house within was carved with knops and open flowers: all was cedar; there was °no stone seen.

p[2] 19 And the [5]oracle he prepared in the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of [1]the LORD.

20 And the [5]oracle in the forepart was twenty [2]cubits in length, and twenty [2]cubits in breadth, and twenty [2]cubits in the height thereof: and he °overlaid it with pure gold; and so [15]covered the altar which was of cedar.

o[3] 21 So Solomon [20]overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold.

22 And the °whole house he [20]overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: also the whole altar that was by the [5]oracle he overlaid with gold.

p[3] 23 And within the [5]oracle he made °two cherubims of °olive tree, each ten [2]cubits high.

24 And five [2]cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five [2]cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part of the other were ten [2]cubits.

25 And the other cherub was ten [2]cubits: both the cherubims were of one measure and one size.

26 The height of the one cherub was ten [2]cubits, and so was it of the other cherub.

27 And he set the cherubims within the inner house: and they stretched forth the wings of the cherubims, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.

28 And he [20]overlaid the cherubims with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubims and palm trees and open flowers, within and without.

o[4] 30 And the floor of the house he [20]overlaid with gold, within and without.

p[4] 31 And for the entering of the [5]oracle he made doors of olive tree: the lintel and side posts were a fifth part of the wall.

32 The °two doors also were of olive tree; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubims and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubims, and upon the palm trees.

33 So also made he for the °door of the temple posts of olive tree, a fourth part of the wall.

34 And the two doors were of fir tree: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.

35 And he carved thereon cherubims and palm trees and open flowers: and covered them with gold fitted upon the carved work.

36 And he built the inner court with three rows of hewed stone, and a row of cedar beams.

M (p. 917 to 910) 37 In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of [1]the LORD laid, in the month °Zif:

38 And in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the °eighth month, was the house finished throughout all the °parts thereof, and according to all the fashion of it. So was he °seven years in building it.

L q (p. 910) 7 But Solomon was building his own house °thirteen years, and he finished all his house.

15 cast. Heb. fashioned.
two pillars = the two pillars: i. e. the two notable pillars, for ornament, not for support, and hollow (Jer. 52. 21).
eighteen cubits high apiece. So 2 Kings 25. 17 and Jer. 52. 21. But 2 Chron. 3. 15 (marg.) says thirty-five cubits long: i. e. together, the top of "each" being reckoned separately. Therefore the height here was 17½ + ½ cubit being taken up in the joining on of the capital.
apiece. This is the reckoning here. In 2 Chron. 3. 15 they are reckoned together. See margin.
16 chapiters. Old French chapiteau, from Lat. capitulum = capitals, or crowns.
five cubits. So 2 Chron. 3. 15. But 2 Kings 25. 17 says three cubits, not including the "wreathen" or lattice work, which is described separately, and must have been two cubits.
17 nets = frames, or net- or lattice-work. These are included in the five cubits here and in 2 Chron. 3. 15, but not in 2 Kings 25. 17.
20 belly = swell, or protuberance.

pomegranates were °two hundred in rows round about upon the other [16]chapiter.

21 And he set up the pillars °in the porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called the name thereof °Jachin: and he set up the left pillar, and called the name thereof °Boaz.

22 And upon the top of the pillars was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished.

u (p. 458)

23 And he made a °molten sea, ten [2]cubits from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and his height was five [2]cubits: and °a line of thirty [2]cubits did compass it round about.

24 And under the brim of it round about there were knops compassing it, ten in a [2]cubit, compassing the sea round about: the knops were cast in two rows, when it was cast.

25 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

26 And it was an hand breadth thick, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies: it contained °two thousand °baths.

27 And he made ten bases of brass; four [2]cubits was the length of one base, and four [2]cubits the breadth thereof, and three [2]cubits the height of it.

28 And the work of the bases was on this manner: they had °borders, and the °borders were between the ledges:

29 And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubims: and upon the ledges there was a base above: and beneath the lions and oxen were certain °additions made of thin work.

30 And every base had four brasen °wheels, and °plates of brass: and the four corners thereof had °undersetters: under the laver were °undersetters molten, °at the side of every [29]addition.

31 And the mouth of it within the [16]chapiter and above was a [2]cubit: but the mouth thereof was round after the work of the base, a [2]cubit and an half: and also upon the mouth of it were gravings with their °borders, foursquare, not round.

32 And under the [28]borders were four [30]wheels; and the axletrees of the wheels were joined to the base: and the height of a wheel was a [2]cubit and half a [2]cubit.

33 And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axletrees, and their °naves, and their °felloes, and their °spokes, were all molten.

34 And there were four [30]undersetters to the four corners of one base: and the [30]undersetters were of the very base itself.

35 And in the top of the base was there a round compass of half a [2]cubit high: and on the top of the base the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the same.

36 For on the plates of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof, he graved cherubims, lions, and palm trees, according to the °proportion of every one, and [29]additions round about.

37 After this manner he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one size.

38 Then made he ten lavers of brass: one laver contained forty [26]baths: and every laver was four [2]cubits: and upon every one of the ten bases one laver.

39 And he put five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward over against the south.

40 And Hiram made the °lavers, and the shovels, and the basons.

So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he °made king Solomon for the house of [12]the LORD:

41 The two pillars, and the two bowls of the [16]chapiters that were on the top of the two pillars; and the two °networks, to cover the two bowls of the [16]chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars;

42 And four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, even two rows of pomegranates for one network, to cover the two bowls of the [16]chapiters that were °upon the pillars;

43 And the ten bases, and ten lavers on the bases; two hundred. In v. 42 called four hundred, because two hundred reckoned to each, as in 2 Chron. 4. 13. In 2 Chron. 3. 16 they are called one hundred, because reckoned one hundred to each row. In Jer. 52. 23 they are ninety-six "on a side" (Heb. rūachah = to windward: i. e. exposed to the wind or open air. The others within, or sheltered).

21 in the porch = for the porch.

Jachin = He (God) will establish. } Referring to His Boaz = In Him (God) is strength. } People Israel.

a line of thirty cubits. Here the proportion of the diameter to the circumference (1 : 3) was revealed, while human wisdom was still searching it out.

26 two thousand. 2 Chron. 4. 5 says three thousand. But 1 Kings 7. 26 speaks of what it did (usually) contain; while 2 Chron. 4. 5 speaks of what it could "receive and hold". No bath in use is filled to its full capacity. baths. See Ap. 51. III. 3.

28 borders = panels, or enclosures.

29 additions = connections. Probably wreaths. Occurs only here and vv. 29, 30, 36.

30 wheels: showing that these lavers were movable; and indicating that when "that which is perfect should come (viz. the washing with spirit, Acts 1. 5), the type (water) was to be wheeled away".

plates = axletrees.

undersetters = projections, or supports.

at the side of = opposite.

31 borders = panels. Removed by Ahaz (2 Kings 16. 17). Replaced by Hezekiah (2 Chron. 29. 19). Existed at taking of Temple (Jer. 52. 17, 20).

33 naves = felloes. felloes = spokes. spokes = naves.

36 proportion: i. e. on a reduced scale, as the plates required.

40 lavers – cauldrons (for boiling the peace offerings). Some codices, with three early printed editions, Sept., and Vulg., read "pans". Cp. v. 45 and 2 Chron 4. 11.

made = made for.

41 networks = lattices.

44 And one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea;
45 And the pots, and the shovels, and the basons: and all these vessels, which Hiram made to king Solomon for the house of [12]the LORD, were of bright brass.
46 In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarthan.
47 And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because they were °exceeding many: neither was the weight of the brass °found out.
48 And Solomon made all the °vessels that pertained unto the house of [12]the LORD: the °altar of gold, and the table of gold, whereupon the shewbread was,
49 And the °candlesticks of °pure gold, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, with the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs of gold,
50 And the bowls, and the snuffers, and the basons, and the spoons, and the censers of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner house, °the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, to wit, of the temple.

T (p. 458)

51 So was ended all the work that king Solomon made for the house of [12]the LORD. And Solomon brought in °the things which David his father had dedicated; even the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, did he put among the treasures of the house of [12]the LORD.

8 Then Solomon assembled °the elders of Israel, °and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the °fathers of the °children of Israel, unto king Solomon in Jerusalem, that they might bring up the ark of the covenant of °the LORD °out of the city of David, which is Zion.
2 And all the °men of Israel assembled themselves unto king Solomon at the feast in the month °Ethanim, which is °the seventh month.
3 And all the elders of Israel came, and the priests °took up the ark.
4 And they brought up the ark of [1]the LORD, and °the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in °the tabernacle, even those did the °priests and the °Levites bring up.

w

5 And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled unto him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

x

6 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of [1]the LORD unto his place, into the °oracle of the house, to °the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims.
7 For the cherubims spread forth their two wings °over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above.
8 And they drew out the staves, that the ends of the staves were seen out in the holy place before the [6]oracle, and they were not seen °without: and there they are °unto this day.
9 There was nothing in the ark °save the two tables of stone, which Moses put there at Horeb, °when [1]the LORD made a covenant with the [1]children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

10 And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud °filled the house of [1]the LORD, 63 And Solomon [62]offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he [62]offered unto [1]the LORD, two and twenty thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the [1]children of Israel dedicated the house of [1]the LORD.

64 The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house

66 On the eighth day he sent the People away: and they blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that [1]the LORD had done °for David His servant, and for Israel His People.

E[3] g 4 And if thou wilt walk before Me, as David thy father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, °and wilt keep My statutes and My judgments:

h 5 Then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom upon Israel for ever, °as I promised to David thy father, saying, 'There shall not fail thee a °man upon the throne of Israel.'

g 6 But if ye shall at all turn from following Me, ye or your °children, and will not keep My commandments [4]and My statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods, and worship them:

h 7 Then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed for My name, will I cast out of My sight; and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all °people:

8 °And at this house, which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, 'Why hath [1]the LORD done thus unto this land, and to this house?'

9 And they shall answer, 'Because they forsook [1]the LORD their °God, Who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath [1]the LORD brought upon them all this °evil.'"

22 But of the 9 children of Israel did Solomon 11 make no bondmen: but they were 12 men of war, 13 and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen.
23 These were the chief of the officers that were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, which bare rule over the People that wrought in the work.

27 And Hiram sent in the navy his servants, shipmen that had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon.
28 And they came to 17 Ophir, and fetched from thence gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

H1 10 And when the 18 queen of 19 Sheba 20 heard of the 21 fame of Solomon concerning the name of 22 the LORD, she came to prove him with 23 hard questions.
2 And 24 she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to 25 Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

Millo = the Millo. Part of Jebusite city, or the filling up between Jebus and Moriah. Hezekiah strengthened it. Shechem had a "Millo" (Judg. 9. 6). Cp. v. 24; 11. 27. 2 Sam. 5. 9. 1 Chron. 11. 8. 2 Chron. 32. 54.

Megiddo, the same (Josh. 12. 21. Judg. 1. 27; 5. 19, and 1 Kings 4. 12).

Gezer. Gezer was formerly under the suzerainty of Egypt. Correspondence of the time of Amen-hotep III and IV, about 1450 B.C., has been found at Tel-el-Amarnah explorations, which mentions Yapakhi as "king" of Gezer. Letters from Abdkhiba, king of Jerusalem, complain of the Gezerites. First mentioned in Josh. 10. 33. Conquest only partial (Josh. 16. 10. Judg. 1. 29). Allotted to Levites (Josh. 21. 21). In excavation by Palestine Exploration Fund a contract was found, dated 649 B.C. (in Assyrian). Gezer then still under an Egyptian Governor. Another contract, dated 647 B.C., was found, showing an Assyrian occupation in the time of Manasseh. This may explain the "captains" of 2 Chron. 33. 11.

3 And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his heart.

4 For it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was °not perfect with [2]the LORD his °God, °as was the heart of David his father.

7 Then did Solomon build an high place for °Chemosh, the [5]abomination of Moab, in °the hill that is before Jerusalem, and for °Molech, the [5]abomination of the [2]children of Ammon.

8 And likewise did he for all his [1]strange wives, which burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods.

10 And °had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which [2]the LORD °commanded.

u J^1 11 Wherefore [2]the LORD said unto Solomon, "Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept My covenant and My statutes, which I have commanded thee, °I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant.

12 Notwithstanding in thy days I will not do it for David thy father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son.

13 Howbeit I will not rend away all the kingdom; but will give °one tribe to thy son for David My servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen."

15 For ° it came to pass, when David was in Edom, and ° Joab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten ° every male in Edom;
16 (For ° six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom:)
17 That Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt; Hadad being yet a little child.
18 And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran: and they took ° men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt; which gave him an house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land.
19 And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen.
20 And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house: and Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh.
21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David ° slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country."
22 Then Pharaoh said unto him, "But what hast thou lacked with me, that, ° behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country?" And he answered, "Nothing: howbeit let me go in any wise."

w 23 And ‡ God stirred him up another [14] adversary, Rezon the son of Eliadah, which fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah:
24 And he gathered [18] men unto him, and became captain over a band, when David slew them of Zobah: and they went to Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus.
25 And he was [14] an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, beside the mischief that Hadad did: and he abhorred Israel, and ° reigned over Syria.

v x 26 And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an ° Ephrathite of Zereda, Solomon's servant, whose mother's name was Zeruah, ° a widow woman, even he lifted up his hand against the king.

y 27 And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon built ° Millo, and repaired the breaches of the city of David his father.
28 And the ° man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon seeing the young man that he was industrious, he ° made him ruler over all the charge of the house of Joseph.
29 And it came to pass at that time when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet ° Ahijah the ° Shilonite found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field:
30 And Ahijah caught the new garment that was on him, and ° rent it in twelve pieces:
31 And he said to Jeroboam, "Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith ‡ the LORD, the ‡ God of Israel, ° 'Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ° ten tribes to thee:

34 Howbeit I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand: but I will make him prince all the days of his life for David My servant's sake, whom I chose, because he kept My commandments and My statutes:
35 But ° I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it unto thee, even ten tribes.
36 And unto his son will I give one tribe, that David My servant may have a ° light alway before Me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen Me to put My name there.

12 And Rehoboam went to °Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was yet in Egypt, heard of it, (°for he was fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt;)

3 That they sent and called him. And Jeroboam and all the °congregation of Israel came, and spake unto Rehoboam, saying,

4 "Thy father °made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee."

d

5 And he said unto them, "Depart yet for three days, then come again to me." And the People departed.

b

6 And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men, that stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, and said, "How do ye advise that I may answer this People?"

7 And they spake unto him, saying, "If thou wilt be a servant unto this People this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be thy servants °for ever."

8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men that were grown up with him, and which stood before him:

9 And he said unto them, "What counsel give ye that we may answer this People, who have spoken to me, saying, 'Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us lighter?'"

10 And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, "Thus shalt thou speak unto this People that spake unto thee, saying, 'Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us;' thus shalt thou say unto them, °'My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with °whips, but I will chastise you with °scorpions.'"

12 So Jeroboam and all the People came to Rehoboam the third day, °as the king had appointed, saying, "Come to me again the third day."

14 And spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke: my father also chastised you with [11]whips, but I will chastise you with [11]scorpions."

15 Wherefore the king hearkened not unto the People; for °the cause was from °the LORD, that He might perform His saying, which °the LORD °spake by Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat. z

The sons of Jonathan, the grandson of Moses (see note on Judg. 18. 30), were ready to act as priests.

880 to 858 30 And this thing °became a sin: for the People went to worship before the one, even unto Dan.

g² (p. 470) 31 And he made an °house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of the People, which were not of the sons of Levi.

32 And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is in Judah, and he °offered upon the altar. (°So did he in Beth-el,) sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el the priests of the high places which he had made.

33 So he [32]offered upon the altar which he had made in Beth-el the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised °of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the [17]children of Israel: and he offered upon the altar, and burnt incense.

f h i¹ (p. 471) 13 And, °behold, there came °a °man of °God out of Judah by the word of °the LORD unto Beth-el: and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense.

2 And he cried against the altar in the word of [1]the LORD, and said, °"O altar, altar, thus saith [1]the LORD; [1]'Behold, a °child shall be born unto the house of David, °Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he °offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and °men's bones °shall be burnt upon thee.'"

j¹ 3 And he gave °a sign the same day, saying, "This is the sign which [1]the LORD hath spoken; [1]Behold, the altar [2]shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out."

i² 4 And it came to pass, when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the [1]man of [1]God, which had cried against the altar in Beth-el, that he °put forth his hand from the altar, saying, "Lay hold on him." And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him.

j² 5 The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of [1]God had given by the word of [1]the LORD.

i³ 6 And the king answered and said unto the [1]man of [1]God, "Intreat now the face of [1]the LORD °thy [1]God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again." And the man of [1]God besought [1]the LORD, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before.

h k¹ 7 And the king said unto the [1]man of God, "Come home with me, and refresh thyself, and I will give thee a reward."

8 And the [1]man of [1]God said unto the king, "If thou wilt give me °half thine house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place:

9 For so was it charged me by the word of [1]the LORD, saying, 'Eat no bread, nor drink water, nor turn again by the same way that thou camest.'"

10 So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el.

l 11 Now there dwelt an old prophet °in Beth-el; °and his sons came and told him all the works that the [1]man of [1]God had done that day in Beth-el: °the words which he had spoken unto the king, them they told also to their father.

12 And their father said unto them, "What way went he?" For his sons had seen what way the [1]man of [1]God went, which came from Judah.

13 And he said unto his sons, "Saddle °me the ass." So they saddled °him the ass: and he rode thereon,

14 And went after the [1]man of [1]God, and found him sitting under °an oak: and he said unto him, "Art thou the [1]man of [1]God that camest from Judah?" And he said, "I am."

25 And, °behold, °men passed by, and saw the carcase cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carcase: and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

26 And when the prophet that brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, "It is the [1]man of [1]God, who was °disobedient unto the word of [1]the LORD: therefore [1]the LORD hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath torn him, and slain him, according to the word of [1]the LORD, °which He spake unto him."

27 And he spake to his sons, saying, "Saddle [13]me the ass." And they saddled him.

28 And he went and found his carcase cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcase: the lion had not eaten the carcase, nor torn the ass.

29 And the prophet took up the carcase of the [1]man of [1]God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back: and the old prophet came to the city, to mourn and to bury him.

30 And he laid his carcase in his own °grave; and they mourned over him, saying, "Alas, my brother!"

31 And it came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spake to his sons, saying, "When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre wherein the [1]man of [1]God is buried; °lay my bones beside his bones:

32 And there was °war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.
33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel °in Tirzah, °twenty and four years.

d

34 And he did [26]evil in the sight of [3]the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his [26]sin wherewith he [26]made Israel to sin.

d

16 Then the word of °the LORD came to °Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying,
2 "Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee °prince over My People Israel; and thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made My People Israel to °sin, to provoke Me to anger with their °sins;
3 °Behold, I will take away the posterity of Baasha, and the posterity of his house; and will make thy house °like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
4 Him that dieth of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth of his in the fields shall the fowls of the air eat."

5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
6 So Baasha °slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah: and Elah his son reigned in his stead.
7 And also by the hand of the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani came the word of [1]the LORD against Baasha, and against his house, even for all the °evil that he did in the sight of [1]the LORD, in provoking Him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam; and because he killed him.

Q³ e 834

8 In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, two years.

f g

9 And his servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah, °drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza steward of his house in Tirzah.
10 And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead.

h

11 And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he slew all the house of Baasha: he left him °not one that pisseth against a wall, neither of his °kinsfolks, nor of his friends.

f g

12 Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of [1]the LORD, which He spake °against Baasha by [1]Jehu the prophet,

h

13 For all the [2]sins of Baasha, and the [2]sins of Elah his son, by which they [2]sinned, and by which they made Israel to [2]sin, in provoking [1]the LORD °God of Israel to anger with their °vanities.

14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

15 In the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah did Zimri reign seven days in Tirzah. 833
And the People were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. k 16 And the People that were encamped heard say, "Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slain the king:"
wherefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp. l
17 And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. l
18 And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died, k

f¹ 4 And the king of Israel answered and said, "My lord, O king, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I have."

e² 5 And the messengers came again, and said, "Thus speaketh Ben-hadad, saying, 'Although I have sent unto thee, saying, 'Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and thy wives, and thy [3]children;

6 Yet I will send my servants unto thee to morrow about this time, °and they shall °search thine house, and the houses of thy servants; and it shall be, that whatsoever is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away.'"

f² 7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, "Mark, I pray you, and see how this man seeketh mischief: for he sent unto me for my wives, and for my [3]children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I denied him not."

8 And all the elders and all the People said unto him, "Hearken not unto him, nor consent."

9 Wherefore he said unto the messengers of Ben-hadad, "Tell my lord the king, 'All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do: but this thing I may not do.'" And the messengers departed, and brought him word again.

e³ 10 And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said, "The gods do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me."

f³ 11 And the king of Israel answered and said, "Tell him, °'Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself as he that putteth it off.'" c² 12 And it came to pass, when Ben-hadad heard this °message, as he was drinking, he and the kings in the °pavilions, that he said unto his servants, "Set yourselves in array." And they set themselves in array against the city.

d² 13 And, °behold, there came a prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, "Thus saith °the LORD, °'Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thine hand this day; and thou shalt know that I am °the LORD.'"

14 And Ahab said, "By whom?" And he said, "Thus saith [19]the LORD, 'Even by the °young men of the princes of the provinces.'" Then he said, "Who shall order the battle?" And he answered, "Thou."

15 Then he numbered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty two: and after them he numbered all the People, even all the [3]children of Israel, being seven thousand.

16 And they went out at noon. But Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him.

17 And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, "There are °men come out of Samaria."

18 And he said, "Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, take them alive."

19 So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army which followed them.

20 And they slew every one his °man: and the Syrians fled; and Israel pursued them: and Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on an horse with the horsemen.

21 And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.

c⁴ 22 And the prophet came to the king of Israel, and said unto him, "Go, strengthen thyself, and mark, and see what thou doest: for at the °return of the year the king of Syria will come up against thee."

822 to 800 23 And the servants of the king of Syria said unto him, "Their gods are gods of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we; but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.

24 And do this thing, Take the kings away, every [20]man out of his place, and put °captains in their rooms:

25 And number thee an army, like the army that thou hast lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they." And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so.

26 And it came to pass at the [22]return of the year, that Ben-hadad numbered the Syrians, and went up to ᶜAphek, to fight against Israel.

d[3] (p. 483) 27 And the [3]children of Israel °were numbered, and were all present, and went against them: and the [3]children of Israel pitched before them like two little °flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country.

c[4] 28 And there came a °man of °God, and spake unto the king of Israel, and said, "Thus saith [13]the LORD, 'Because the Syrians have said, [13]'The LORD is °God of the hills, but ℌe is not °God of the valleys,' therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and °ye shall know that ℑ am [13]the LORD.'"

29 And they pitched one over against the other seven days. And so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined: and the [3]children of Israel slew of the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and there a wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the [20]men that were left. And Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner chamber.

d[4] 31 And his servants said unto him, °"Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings: let us, I pray thee, put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel: peradventure he will save thy °life."

32 So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, "Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, 'I pray thee, let °me live.'" And he said, "Is he yet alive? ℌe is my °brother."

33 Now the [17]men °did diligently observe whether °any thing would come from him, and did hastily catch it: and they said, "Thy brother Ben-hadad."

c[5] Then he said, "Go ye, bring him." Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot.

34 And Ben-hadad said unto him, "The cities, which my father took from thy father, I will restore; and thou shalt make °streets for thee in Damascus, °as my father made in Samaria." Then °said Ahab, "ℑ will send thee away with this covenant." So he made a covenant with him, and sent him away.

d[5] g (p. 484) 35 And a certain °man of the sons of the prophets said unto his neighbour in the word of [13]the LORD, "Smite me, I pray thee." And the [20]man refused to smite him.

36 Then said he unto him, "Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of [13]the LORD, [31]behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee." And as soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and slew him.

37 Then he found another [20]man, and said, "Smite me, I pray thee." And the [20]man smote him, so that in smiting he wounded him.

38 So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with °ashes upon his face.

h 39 And as the king passed by, ℌe cried unto the king: and he said, "Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and, [31]behold, a [20]man turned aside, and brought a [20]man unto me, and said, 'Keep this [20]man: if by any means he be missing, then shall thy [31]life be for his [31]life, or else thou shalt pay a °talent of silver.'

40 And as thy servant was busy here and there, ℌe was gone."

i And the king of Israel said unto him, "So shall thy judgment be; thyself hast decided it."

g 41 And he hasted, and took the [38]ashes away from his face; and the king of Israel discerned him that ℌe was of the prophets.

h 42 And he said unto him, "Thus saith [13]the LORD, 'Because thou hast let go out of thy hand a [20]man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy [31]life shall go for his [31]life, and thy people for his people.'" i 43 And the king of Israel went to his house heavy and displeased, and came to Samaria.

21 And it came to pass after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite °had a vineyard, which was in °Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

2 And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying, °"Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house: and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it; or, if it seem good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money."

3 And Naboth said to Ahab, °"The LORD forbid it me, that I should give °the inheritance of my fathers unto thee."

4 And Ahab came into his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him: for he had said, "I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers." And he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.

5 But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said unto him, "Why is thy °spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread?"

6 And he said unto her, "Because I spake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said unto him, 'Give me thy vineyard for money; or else, if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it:' and he answered, 'I will not give thee my vineyard.'"

7 And Jezebel his wife said unto him, °"Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? arise, and eat bread, and let thine heart be merry: I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."

8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, °and °sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth.

9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, "Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth °on high among the People:

10 And set °two °men, °sons of Belial, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, 'Thou didst °blaspheme °God and the king.' And then carry him out, and stone him, that he may die."

11 And the [10]men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did °as Jezebel had sent unto them, and as it was written in the letters which she had sent unto them.

12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth [9]on high among the People.

13 And there came in two [10]men, [10]children of Belial, and sat before him: and the [10]men of Belial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the People, saying, "Naboth did [10]blaspheme [10]God and the king." Then they carried him forth out of the city, and °stoned him with stones, that he died.

14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth is stoned, and is dead."

15 And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, °"Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money: for Naboth is not alive, but dead."

16 And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

17 And the word of [3]the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 18 "Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, which is in Samaria: °behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to possess it.

19 And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, 'Thus saith [3]the LORD, °'Hast thou °killed, and also taken possession?'" And thou shalt speak unto him, saying,

31 But the king of Syria commanded his thirty and two captains that had rule over his chariots, saying, "Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel."

33 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that [32] it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

34 And a certain [6]man drew a bow °at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the °harness: wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, °"Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am wounded."

35 And the battle increased that day: and the king °was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot.

36 And there went a proclamation throughout the host about the going down of the sun, saying, °"Every man to his city, and °every man to his own country."

[THE SECOND BOOK OF THE KINGS,

COMMONLY CALLED,

THE FOURTH BOOK OF THE KINGS.]

G (89) H a 1 Then °Moab rebelled against Israel °after the death of Ahab.

2 And Ahaziah fell down through a °lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them, "Go, enquire of °Baal-zebub the god of °Ekron whether I shall recover of this disease."

b 3 But the °Angel of °the LORD said to °Elijah the Tishbite, "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, 'Is it not because there is not a °God in Israel, that ye go to enquire of [2]Baal-zebub the god of Ekron?

c 4 Now therefore thus saith [3]the LORD, 'Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but °shalt surely die.'" And Elijah departed.

J 5 And when the messengers turned back unto him, he said unto them, "Why are ye now turned back?"

J 6 And they said unto him, "There came a °man up to meet us, and said unto us, 'Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, 'Thus saith [3]the LORD, 'Is it not because there is not a [3]God in Israel, that thou sendest to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? therefore thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but [4]shalt surely die.'"'

7 And he said unto them, "What manner of [6]man was he which came up to meet you, and told you these words?"

8 And they answered him, "He was an °hairy [6]man, and girt with a °girdle of leather about his loins." And he said, "It is Elijah the Tishbite."

H a 9 Then the king sent unto him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him: and, °behold, he sat on the top of an hill. And he spake unto him, "Thou °man of [3]God, the king hath said, 'Come down.'"

10 And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, "If ℑ be a [9]man of [3]God, then ° LET FIRE COME DOWN FROM HEAVEN, AND CONSUME thee AND THY FIFTY." And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

11 Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, "O [9]man of [3]God, thus hath the king said, 'Come down quickly.'"

1. 1 Moab rebelled. Moab had been subdued by David (2 Sam. 8. 2; 23. 20); and when the kingdom was divided it passed to Israel. It was greatly oppressed by Omri and Ahab, and, on the death of the latter (cp. 3. 5), Mesha, king of Moab, rebelled. See the record of the event on "the Moabite stone". Ap. 54.

The verse is introduced here to complete the symmetry of the introversion. See "G" in the Structure above.

802 to 800 13 And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, "O [9]man of [8]God, I pray thee, let my [c]life, and the [c]life of these fifty thy servants, be precious in thy sight.

14 [9]Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and [c]burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let [13]my life now be precious in thy sight."

15 And the Angel of [3]the LORD said unto Elijah, "Go down with him: be not afraid of him." And he arose, and went down with him unto the king.

b (p. 489) 16 And he said unto him, "Thus saith [3]the LORD, 'Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to enquire of [2]Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, [c]is it not because there is no [3]God in Israel to enquire of His word?

c therefore thou shalt not come down off that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.'"

E 17 So he died according to the word of [3]the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And Jehoram reigned in his stead in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

8 And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and smote the waters, and they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground. l

9 And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, "Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee." And Elisha said, "I pray thee, let a [c]double portion of thy [c]spirit be upon me." m

10 And he said, "Thou hast asked a hard thing: [c]nevertheless, if thou [c]see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so."

11 And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by [c]a whirlwind into [1]heaven. n

12 And Elisha [11]saw it, °and he cried, °"My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof." And he [11]saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces.

13 He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of Jordan;

14 And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, [12]and smote the waters, and said, °"Where is °the LORD God of Elijah?" and when he also had smitten the waters, °they parted hither and thither: and Elisha went °over.

15 And when the sons of the prophets which were to view at Jericho saw him, they said, "The [9]spirit of Elijah °doth rest on Elisha." And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him.

16 And they said unto him, "Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty strong °men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure the [9]Spirit of [1]the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley." And he said, "Ye shall not send."

17 And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, "Send." They sent therefore fifty [7]men; and they sought three days, but found him not.

18 And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho,) he said unto them, "Did I not say unto you, 'Go not'?"

19 And the [10]men of the city said unto Elisha, "Behold, I pray thee, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord seeth: but the water is naught, and the ground barren."

20 And he said, "Bring me a new °cruse, and put salt therein." And they brought it to him.

21 And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and °cast the salt in there, and said, "Thus saith [1]the LORD, 'I have healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death or barren land.'"

22 So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spake.

23 And he went up from thence unto °Beth-el: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth °little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, °"Go up, thou °bald head; °go up, thou bald head."

24 And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of [1]the LORD. And there came forth two she °bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two °children of them.

p q (p. 492)

6 And king Jehoram went out of Samaria the same time, and numbered all Israel.

7 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, "The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me against Moab to battle?" And he said, "I will go up: °I am as thou art, my People as thy People, and my horses as thy horses."

there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

21 And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all that were able to put on armour, and upward, and stood in the border.

22 And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood:

23 And they said, "This is blood: the kings are surely slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil."

24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country.

25 And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: only in Kir-haraseth left they the stones thereof; howbeit the slingers went about it, and smote it.

4 Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, "Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen."

2 And Elisha said unto her, "What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house?" And she said, "Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oil."

3 Then he said, "Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; borrow not a few.

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full."

5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured out.

6 And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, "Bring me yet a vessel." And he said unto her, "There is not a vessel more." And the oil stayed.

7 Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, "Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children of the rest."

a 11 And it fell on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there.

b 12 And he said to Gehazi his °servant, "Call this Shunammite." And when he had called her, she stood before him.

13 And he said unto him, "Say now unto her, [9]'Behold, thou hast been °careful for us with all this °care; what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be °spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host?'" And she answered, "I dwell among mine own people."

14 And he said, "What then is to be done for her?" And Gehazi answered, "Verily she hath no [7]child, and her [1]husband is old."

15 And he said, "Call her." And when he had called her, she stood in the °door.

16 And he said, "About this season, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son." And she said, "Nay, my lord, thou [7]man of [7]God, do not lie unto thine handmaid."

17 And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time °of life.

V 18 And when the °child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers.

19 And he said unto his father, "My head, °my head." And he said to a lad, "Carry him to his mother."

20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died.

W 21 And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the [7]man of [7]God, and shut the door upon him, and went out.

X 22 And she called unto her [1]husband, and said, "Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the [7]man of [7]God, and come again."

23 And he said, "Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? it is neither new moon, nor sabbath." And she said, "It shall be well."

24 Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, "Drive, and go forward; slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee."

Y 25 So she went and came unto the [7]man of [7]God to mount Carmel. And it came to pass, when the [7]man of [7]God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his [12]servant, [9]"Behold, yonder is that Shunammite:

26 Run °now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her, 'Is it well with thee? is it well with thy [7]husband? is it well with the [18]child?'" And she answered, "It is well."

27 And when she came to the [7]man of [7]God to the hill, she caught him by the feet: but Gehazi came near to thrust her away. And the [7]man of [7]God said, "Let her alone; for °her soul is °vexed within her: and [1]the LORD hath hid it from me, and hath not told me."

X 28 Then she said, °"Did I desire a son of my lord? °did I not say, 'Do not °deceive me?'"

29 Then he °said to Gehazi, "Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any [7]man, °salute him not; and if °any salute thee, answer him not again: and lay my staff upon the face of the °child."

30 And the mother of the [29]child said, "As [1]the LORD liveth, and as °thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee." And he arose, and followed her.

31 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the [29]child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, "The [29]child is not awaked."

W 32 And when Elisha was come into the house, [9]behold, the [29]child was dead, and laid upon his bed.

33 He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them twain, and prayed unto [1]the LORD.

Y 34 And he went up, and lay upon the [18]child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he stretched himself upon the [18]child; and the flesh of the [18]child waxed warm.

35 Then he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the [29]child sneezed seven times, and the [29]child opened his eyes.

U 36 And he called Gehazi, and said, "Call this Shunammite." So he called her. And when she was come in unto him, he said, °"Take up thy son."

37 Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and took up her son, and went out.

there was °a dearth in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him:

39 And one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a °wild vine, and gathered thereof wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred them into the pot of pottage: for they knew them not.

40 So they poured out for the °men to eat. And it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, "O thou [7]man of [7]God, there is °death in the pot." And they could not eat thereof.

41 But he said, "Then bring meal." And he cast it into the pot; and he said, "Pour out for the people, that they may eat." And there was °no harm in the pot.

c 42 And there came a [7]man from Baal-shalisha, and brought the [7]man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley, and full ears of corn in the husk thereof. And he said, "Give unto the people, that they may eat."

d 43 And his °servitor said, "What, should I set this before °an hundred [7]men?" He said again, "Give the people, that they may eat: for thus saith [1]the LORD, 'They shall eat, and shall leave thereof.'"

44 So he set it before them, and they did eat, and left thereof, according to the word of [1]the LORD.

N e (p. 495) 5 Now °Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, °was a great °man with his master, and honourable, because °by him °the LORD had given °deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty °man in valour, °but he was °a leper.

f 2 And the Syrians had gone out by °companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she waited on Naaman's wife.

3 And she said unto her mistress, °"Would God my lord were with the prophet that is °in Samaria! for he would recover him of his leprosy."

4 And one went in, and told his lord, saying, "Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel."

5 And the king of Syria said, "Go to, go, and I will send a letter unto the °king of Israel." And he departed, and took with him ten °talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten °changes of raiment.

6 And he brought the letter to the [5]king of Israel, saying, "Now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have therewith sent Naaman my servant to thee, that thou mayest °recover him of his leprosy."

7 And it came to pass, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said, °"Am I °God, to kill and to make alive, that this [1]man doth send unto me to recover a [1]man of his leprosy? wherefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarrel against me."

8 And it was so, when Elisha the °man of [7]God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, "Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel."

16 But he said, "As [1]the LORD liveth, °before Whom I stand, I will receive none." And he urged him to take it; but he refused.

17 And Naaman said, "Shall there not then, I pray thee, be given to thy servant two mules' burden of °earth? for thy servant will henceforth °offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto [1]the LORD.

20 But Gehazi, the °servant of Elisha the [8]man of [8]God, said, [11]"Behold, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but, as [1]the LORD liveth, I will run after him, and take °somewhat of him."

21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, °"Is all well?"

22 And he said, "All is well. My master hath sent me, saying, [11]'Behold, even now there be come to me from °mount Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a °talent of silver, and two changes of garments.'"

23 And Naaman said, "Be content, °take two [22]talents." And he urged him, and bound two [22]talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bare them before him.

24 And when he came to the tower, he took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house: and he let the °men go, and they departed.

9 And the [6]man of [6]God sent unto the °king of Israel, saying, "Beware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are come down."

10 And the king of Israel sent to the place which the [6]man of [6]God told him and warned him of, and saved himself there, not once nor twice.

11 Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was sore troubled for this thing; and he called his servants, and said unto them, "Will ye not shew me which of us is for the king of Israel?"

12 And one of his servants said, "None, my lord, O king: °but Elisha, the prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel the words that thou speakest in thy bedchamber."

22 And he answered, "Thou shalt not smite them: °wouldest thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive with thy sword and with thy bow? set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master."

27 And he said, °"If [17]the LORD do not help thee, whence shall I help thee? out of the barnfloor, or out of the winepress?"

29 So °we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the next day, 'Give thy son, that we may eat him:' and she hath hid her son."

o 32 But Elisha sat in his house, and the elders sat with him; and the king sent a [10]man from before him: but ere the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, "See ye how this son of a murderer hath sent to take away mine head? look, when the messenger cometh, shut the door, and °hold him fast at the door: is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?"

33 And while he yet talked with them, [1]behold, the °messenger came down unto him: and he said, [1]"Behold, this °evil is of [17]the LORD; °what should I wait for [17]the LORD any longer?"

5 And they rose up in the °twilight, to go unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the uttermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, there was no °man there.

6 For °the LORD* had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, °and a noise of horses, °even the noise of a great host: and they said one to another, °"Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the °kings of the Hittites, and the °kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us."

7 Wherefore they arose and fled in the [5]twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for °their life.

8 And when these lepers came to the °uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it.

10 So they came and called unto the porter of the city: and they told them, saying, "We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, [2]behold, there was no [5]man there, neither voice of °man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and °the tents °as they were."

12 And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, "I will now shew you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we be hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, 'When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.'"

13 And one of his servants answered and said, "Let some take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city, ([2]behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel °that are left in it: [2]behold, I say, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed:) and let us send and see."

8 And the king said unto °Hazael, "Take a °present in thine hand, and go, meet the [2]man of [2]God, and enquire of [1]the LORD by him, saying, 'Shall I recover of this disease?'"

9 So Hazael went to meet him, and took a [3]present with him, even of °every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, "Thy son Ben-hadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, 'Shall I recover of this disease?'"

10 And Elisha said unto him, "Go, say unto him, 'Thou °mayest certainly recover:' howbeit [1]the LORD hath shewed me that he shall °surely die."

11 And °he settled his countenance stedfastly, until °he was °ashamed: and the [2]man of [2]God wept.

13 And Hazael said, "But what, is thy servant °a dog, that he should do this great thing?" And Elisha answered, [1]"The LORD hath shewed me that thou shalt be king over Syria."

16 So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram.

17 And there stood a watchman on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, "I see a company." And Joram said, "Take °an horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, 'Is it peace?'"

18 So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, "Thus saith the king, 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu said, °"What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me." And the watchman told, saying, "The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again."

19 Then he sent out a second on horseback, which came to them, and said, "Thus saith the king, 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu answered, [18]"What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me."

20 And the watchman told, saying, "He came even unto them, and cometh not again: and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he driveth furiously."

21 And Joram said, "Make ready." And his chariot was made ready. And Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and met him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22 And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?" And he answered, [18]"What peace, so long as the °whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel and her °witchcrafts are so many?"

23 And Joram °turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, "There is treachery, O Ahaziah."

24 And Jehu drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram °between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot.

25 Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, "Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, [3]the LORD °laid this °burden upon him;

5 And he that was over the house, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and the bringers up of the children, sent to Jehu, saying, "We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes."

6 Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, "If ye be °mine, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of °the men [2]your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by to morrow this time." 3 And he was with her °hid in the house of °the LORD °six years.

And Athaliah did reign over the land.

4 And the seventh year °Jehoiada sent and fetched the °rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and brought them to him into the house of [3]the LORD, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of [3]the LORD, and shewed them °the king's son.

5 And he commanded them, saying, "This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you °that enter in on the sabbath shall even be keepers of the watch of the king's house;

6 And a third part° shall be at the gate of Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the guard: so shall ye keep the watch of the house, that it be not broken down.

7 And two parts of all you that go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of [3]the LORD about the king.

8 And ye shall compass the king round about, every °man with his weapons in his hand: and he that cometh within the ranges, let him be slain: and be ye with the king as he goeth out and as he cometh in."

9 And the captains over the hundreds did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took [8]every man his °men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.

10 And to the captains over hundreds did the priest give °king David's spears and shields, that were in the temple of [3]the LORD.

11 And the guard stood, [8]every man with his weapons in his hand, round about the king, from the right corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple, along by the altar and the temple.

12 And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and °gave him the °testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, "God save the king."

13 And when Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the People, she came to the People into the temple of [3]the LORD.

14 And when she looked, °behold, the king stood by °a pillar, as the manner was, and the princes and the trumpeters by the king, and all the People of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets: and Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, °"Treason, Treason."

1 second year of Joash. According to 13. 10, Joash (king of Israel) began to reign in the thirty-seventh year of Joash (king of Judah). If Amaziah began in the second year of Joash (king of Israel), he would have reigned only thirty-nine years. But he reigned forty (12. 1). All depends on mode of reckoning from Nisan, and counting parts of years for complete years. This would at once explain the difference. See Ap. 50. V, p. 58. Our difficulty, as usual, arises from our ignorance.

1 Ahaz. One of the four kings in whose reign Isaiah prophesied. Cp. 2 Chron. 28. 1. Isa. 1. 1.

2 Twenty years old . . . sixteen. There is no reason for concluding that "there must be an error in one of the passages" (viz. 16. 2 and 18. 2), for Ahaz begins in 622 and reigns till 616. As he was twenty when he began, he was born in 652, and died when thirty-six. Hezekiah begins in 617, and reigns twenty-nine years, till 588. As he was twenty-five when he began he was therefore born in 642, and died when he was fifty-four. From this it is clear that Ahaz was between ten and eleven when his son Hezekiah was born. This sounds improbable only to Western ears. But, to Eastern ears and physiological phenomena, there is nothing unusual, and nothing to justify a conclusion that the text is corrupt—the usual excuse for ignorance of the facts.

1 twelfth year. There was anarchy for nine years between Pekah and Hoshea. For, in 15. 30, Hoshea conspired against Pekah in the twentieth year of Jotham, which was the third year of Ahaz (20 − 12 = 8): for Ahaz began in Pekah's seventeenth year (16. 1), and Hoshea began in Ahaz's twelfth year. 611 6 In the ninth year of Hoshea the °king of Assyria °took Samaria, and °carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in °Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

P x¹ (p. 514) 7 For so it was, that the °children of Israel had °sinned against ²the LORD their °God, Which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods,

8 And walked in the statutes of the ³heathen, whom ²the LORD cast out from before the ⁷children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they had made.

9 And the ⁷children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against ²the LORD their ⁷God, and they built them high places in all their cities, °from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

10 And they set them up °images and °groves in every high hill, and under every green tree:

11 And there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom ²the LORD carried away before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke ²the LORD to anger:

12 For they served °idols, whereof ²the LORD had said unto them, "Ye °shall not do this thing."

y¹ 13 Yet ²the LORD testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all the prophets, and by °all the seers, saying, "Turn ye from your °evil ways, °and keep My commandments °and My statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you °by My servants °the prophets."

x² 14 Notwithstanding they would not hear, but hardened their necks, °like to the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in ²the LORD their ⁷God.

15 And they rejected His statutes, °and His covenant that He made with their fathers, and His testimonies which He testified against them; and they followed °vanity, and became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom ²the LORD had charged them, that they should not do like them.

16 And they left all the commandments of ²the LORD their ⁷God, ¹⁵and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a ¹⁰grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.

17 And they caused their sons ¹⁵and their daughters to °pass through the fire, and used °divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do ¹⁵evil in the sight of ²the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.

y² 18 Therefore ²the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of °Judah only.

x³ 19 Also Judah kept not the commandments of ²the LORD their ⁷God, °but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

21 For He rent Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drave Israel from following ²the LORD, and °made them °sin a great sin.

22 For the ⁷children of Israel walked in all x⁴ the ⁷sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them;

23 Until [2] the LORD removed Israel out of His sight, ° as He had said [13] by all His servants the prophets.

So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.

24 And the king of Assyria ° brought men from Babylon, ° and from Cuthah, and from ° Ava, and from ° Hamath, and from ° Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the [7] children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

25 And so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not [2] the LORD: therefore [2] the LORD sent ° lions among them, which ° slew some of them.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, "The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the [7] God of the land: therefore He hath sent lions among them, and, ° behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the [7] God of the land."

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, "Carry thither ° one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the [7] God of the land."

28 Then [27] one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear [2] the LORD.

29 Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 °And the ° men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, ° and the ° men of Cuth made Nergal, and the ° men of Hamath made Ashima, 31 [30] And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, [30] and the Sepharvites ° burnt their [7] children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

32 So they feared [2] the LORD, and made unto themselves of the ° lowest of them priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 They ° feared [2] the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations ° whom they carried away from thence.

34 Unto this day ° they do after the former manners: they fear not [2] the LORD, neither do they after their ° statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which [2] the LORD commanded the [7] children of Jacob, ° whom He named Israel;

35 With whom [2] the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, "Ye shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 But [2] the LORD, Who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched out arm, Him shall ye fear, and Him shall ye worship, and to Him shall ye do sacrifice.

37 And the [34] statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment, ° which He wrote for you, ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods.

38 And the covenant that I have made with you ye shall not forget; neither shall ye fear other gods.

39 But [2] the LORD your [7] God ye shall fear; and He shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies."

40 Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner.

41 So these nations [33] feared [2] the LORD, and served their graven images, both their [7] children, and their [7] children's [7] children: ° as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.

18 Now it came to pass in the ° third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.

13 the fourteenth year. This was the first invasion of Judah which Sennacherib's inscription enlarges upon, but is only mentioned here. See note on v. 17. Cp. Isa. 36, 37, and 2 Chron. 32. all the fenced cities. Forty-six are mentioned in the inscriptions (see Ap. 67. xi). 14 sent. Sennacherib had not approached Jerusalem yet. I have offended. See v. 7. three hundred talents. The Assyrian inscriptions say 800, the exact equivalent of 300 Hebrew (silver) talents. 17 And the °king of Assyria °sent °Tartan and °Rabsaris and °Rab-shakeh from °Lachish to king Hezekiah with a °great host °against Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the °upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field.

18 And when they had called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the °household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder.

19 And °Rab-shakeh said unto them, "Speak ye now to Hezekiah, 'Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, °'What confidence is this wherein thou [5]trustest?

20 Thou sayest, (but they are but °vain words,) I have counsel and strength for the war. Now [19]on whom dost thou [5]trust, that thou rebellest against me?

21 Now, °behold, thou °trustest upon the staff of this °bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a °man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh °king of Egypt unto all that [5]trust on him.

22 But °if ye say unto me, 'We [5]trust in [3]the LORD our [5]God:' [19]is not that He, Whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, 'Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?'"

23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

24 [19]How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy [5]trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

25 Am I now come up °without [3]the LORD against this place to destroy it? [3]The LORD said to me, 'Go up against this land, and destroy it.'"

26 Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh, "Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the °Syrian language; for we understand it: and talk not with us in the Jews' language in the ears of the people that are on the wall."

27 But Rab-shakeh said unto them, "Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the °men which sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?"

28 Then Rab-shakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spake, saying, "Hear the °word of the great king, the king of Assyria:

29 Thus saith the king, 'Let not Hezekiah °deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you out of °his hand:

30 Neither let Hezekiah make you [5]trust in [3]the LORD, saying, [3]'The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.'

31 Hearken not to Hezekiah:' for thus saith the king of Assyria, °'Make an agreement with me by a present, and °come out to me, and then eat ye °every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his cistern:

33 Hath any of the gods of the nations [32] delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

34 Where are the gods of °Hamath, and of °Arpad? where are the gods of °Sepharvaim, °Hena, and °Ivah? have they [32] delivered °Samaria out of mine hand?

36 But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, "Answer him not."

B[1] a (p. 517) 37 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

b 19 And °it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of °the LORD.

c 2 And he sent Eliakim, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to °Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

3 And they said unto him, "Thus saith Hezekiah, 'This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and blasphemy: for the °children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

A[2] 8 So Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was °departed from Lachish.

9 And when he heard say of °Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "Behold, he is come out to fight against thee:" he sent messengers again unto Hezekiah, saying,

17 Of a truth, [1]LORD, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands,

19 Now therefore, O [1]LORD our [4]God, I beseech thee, save Thou us out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that Thou art [1]the LORD [4]God, even Thou only."

d e (p. 519) 20 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus saith [1]the LORD [4]God of Israel, 'That which thou hast prayed to Me against Sennacherib king of Assyria I have heard.'

f 21 This is the word that [1]the LORD hath spoken concerning him;

'The virgin the daughter of Zion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn;

And against Whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high?
Even against the Holy One of Israel.

'With the multitude of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains,
To the sides of Lebanon,
And °will cut down the tall cedar trees thereof,
And the choice fir trees thereof:
And I °will enter into the lodgings of his borders,
And into the forest of his Carmel.

24 I have digged and drunk strange waters,
And with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of besieged places.'

25 Hast thou not heard long ago how I have °done it,
And of ancient times that I have formed it?
Now have I brought it to pass,
That thou shouldest be to lay waste fenced cities into ruinous heaps.

They were dismayed and confounded;
They were °as the grass of the field,

30 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall yet again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

31 For °out of Jerusalem shall go forth a °remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of °the LORD of hosts shall do this.

f 32 Therefore thus saith [1]the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, 'He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor °cast a bank against it.

33 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city,' saith [1]the LORD.

A cylinder recently acquired (1910) by, and now in the British Museum, states: "On the twentieth day of the month Tebet (Dec.), Sennacherib, king of Assyria, his son slew him in a rebellion." The rebellion (it says) lasted till the twenty-eighth of Sivan (June) of next year, "when Esarhaddon his son sat on the throne of Assyria." The will, or rather deed of gift, of Sennacherib (2 inches by 1, containing eleven lines; in the Kouyonjik Gallery) gives all to Esarhaddon. This probably led to Esarhaddon having afterwards to fight his two brothers, Sennacherib's murderers.

The word "degrees" is repeated here six times (in the history), but five times in Isaiah's gracious words (38. 8). 10 down = forward (v. 9). 11 dial = degrees. Ahaz. See note on v. 8.

12 Berodach. Some codices, with Sept. and Syr., read "Merodach". Cp. Isa. 39. 1. king of Babylon. First occurrence of this title. Babylon and Nineveh the two great cities competing henceforward for supremacy in Assyria. Finally settled by Nabopolassar and his son Nebuchadnezzar, "the head of gold" (Dan. 2. 37, 38). sent letters and a present. These did what the king of Assyria and the king of terrors could not do. See the Structure "C" of Isa. 36—39.

and a °present unto Hezekiah: for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick.

13 And Hezekiah °hearkened unto them, and shewed them °all the house of °his precious things, the silver, °and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and °all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his °treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

14 °Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, °"What said these °men? and from whence came they unto thee?" And Hezekiah said, "They are come from °a far country, even from Babylon."

15 And he said, [14] "What have they seen in thine house?" And Hezekiah answered, "All the things that are in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my [13]treasures that I have not shewed them."

16 And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah, "Hear the word of [1]the LORD.

17 °'Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, shall be carried [3]into Babylon: nothing shall be left,' saith [1]the LORD.

18 'And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall °they take away; and they shall be °eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.'"

19 Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, °"Good is the word of [1]the LORD which thou hast spoken." And he said, °"Is it not good, if peace and truth be in my days?"

20 And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made °a pool, and °a conduit, and °brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

21 And Hezekiah °slept with his fathers: and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

21 °Manasseh was °twelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was °Hephzi-bah.

2 And he °did that which was °evil in the sight of °the LORD, after the abominations of the °heathen, whom °the LORD cast out before the °children of Israel.

3 For he built up again °the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made °a grove, °as °did Ahab king of Israel; and worshipped all °the host of heaven, and served them.

4 And he built altars in the house of [2]the LORD, of which [2]the LORD said, "In Jerusalem will I put My name."

This chapter, compared with the last chapter of Jeremiah, points to his authorship. The (one) book of Kings brings the history of Israel and Judah down to the Captivity, and ends there. See the Structure, p. 413. The (one) book of Chronicles begins from Adam, and leads on from the Captivity to the book of Ezra-Nehemiah.

TITLE, First. See note on p. 530.

Chronicles. Heb. name, Dibrēi hayyāmīm = words of the days. Greek name, Paraleipomena = things omitted. Latin name, Chronicon, from whence comes English title, Chronicles. These books belong to quite another part of the O.T., and do not follow in sequence on the books of Kings. See Ap. 1. They are, according to the Heb. Canon, the conclusion of the O.T.; and the genealogies here lead up to that of Matt. 1. 1, and the commencement of the N.T. They end with the ending of the kingdom; and the question of Cyrus, "Who is there?" (2 Chron. 36. 23) is followed by the answer, "Where is He?" (Matt. 2. 2), and the proclamation of the kingdom by the rightful King and His forerunner. It begins with the first Adam and leads on to the "last Adam".

For the relation of Chronicles to Kings see notes on title "Kings" (p. 447); and for the parallel passages in Samuel and Kings see Ap. 56.

It deals with the kingdom of Judah, because Christ was proclaimed as the successor of David.

It refers to other books:—Kings (2 Chron. 16. 11; 27. 7; 33. 18); Prophets (1 Chron. 29. 29. 2 Chron. 9. 29; 12. 15; 13. 22; 20. 34; 26. 22; 32. 32). It gives the histories from the Divine standpoint, pointing the moral, and giving the reason of both the judgments and the mercies (cp. 1 Chron. 10. 13. 2 Chron. 12. 12; 25. 20; 27. 6, &c.).

4 Shem. Cp. Gen. 5. 32; 10. 21. In cases where there are several sons of one father, the collateral are dealt with first, and the main line taken up later. Hence Shem's main line is not dealt with till v. 24, after the sons of Japheth and Ham have been given. 5 Japheth. Cp. Gen. 10. 2, &c. 6 Riphath. Some codices, with four early printed editions, Syr. and Vulg., read "Riphath", others "Diphath", owing to Heb. ד ("D") and ר ("R"). 7 Dodanim, or Rodanim. See above note. 8 Cush. Recent discoveries at Pterium, in Cappadocia, show that the Babylonians called Cappadocia Kus. The great king of the Hittites had his palace there, and was called "king of Kus". The river Gihon (classic, Pijramus) flows into the Mediterranean. Cp. Gen. 10. 6, 7. Isa. 11. 11. 10 Nimrod. Cp. Gen. 10. 8. 17 Uz . . . Meshech were sons of Aram (Shem's youngest son). No error, for grandsons are often reckoned, by descent, as sons. See Laban (Gen. 29. 5), Mephibosheth (2 Sam. 19. 24). Of the "sons of Judah" (4. 1–4) only the first-named was his son. It is assumed that we are acquainted with Genesis, and shall supply the links dealt with here with such brevity. 19 Peleg = disruption. See note on Gen. 10. 25. 20 Joktan. Cp. 15 David. The different spelling of many of these names in the Heb. is due to certain vowels being written out in full ("plene"). Where not written they are called "defective". The fact of this difference in Chronicles shows an independent origin.

the seventh. Jesse begat eight sons (1 Sam. 16. 5–11 and 17. 12–14). Here seven are numbered and named, and David is the seventh and the youngest; the eighth may have died young and left no issue. While it was proper to mention the eight in the history, it is unnecessary to do so in the genealogy.

16 Zeruiah. Sister of David. Nahash (2 Sam. 17. 25) may have been the father of Jesse's wife. Otherwise, she and Abigail were half-sisters.

17 Jether. Cp. 2 Sam. 17. 25 (marg.). Another name was Ithra.

18 Caleb the son of Hezron. The ancestor of "Caleb the son of Jephunneh" (Num. 13. 6, 30; 14. 6, 24; 32. 12; 34. 19. Josh. 14. 6, 14), who is distinguished from this Caleb in 4. 15. This shows the present genealogy to be independent.

19 Ephrath. Called Ephratah, v. 50. Cp. 4. 4.

20 Bezaleel. Gifted for the construction of the Tabernacle (Ex. 31. 2; 35. 30; 36. 1, 2; 37. 1). This proves those to be wrong who assume that the Caleb of v. 18 is the same as Caleb the son of Jephunneh (Bezaleel's great-grandfather), thus creating their own difficulty.

21 Machir. Cp. Num. 32. 40. Deut. 3. 15.

22 three and twenty. Increased afterward to thirty (Judg. 10. 4).

23 Geshur. North-east of Bashan (Deut. 3. 14. Josh. 12. 5. 2 Sam. 15. 8).

them: the Manassites. Cp. Num. 32. 41. Deut. 3. 14.

threescore cities. Cp. Num. 32. 33. Deut. 3. 4.

belonged to. Supply the Fig. Ellipsis (Ap. 6) by inserting "took" instead of "belonged to".

24 dead in Caleb-ephratah. Some wrongly affirm that this grandson of Judah must have died in Egypt. True, Hezron lived in Egypt, but did no one ever leave Egypt? Had he not heard of Abraham's sepulchre and Jacob's funeral? Had he no faith and no thoughts of God's promises? The difficulty is created gratuitously. His death there gave the name to the place, afterward called Beth-lehem.

25 Jerahmeel. See 1 Sam. 27. 10; 30. 29.

and: or, supply "of".

33 And the sons of Jonathan; Peleth, and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel.

e5 (p. 533) 34 Now Sheshan had no sons, but daughters. And Sheshan had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Jarha.
35 And Sheshan gave his daughter °to Jarha his servant to wife; and she bare him Attai.
36 And Attai begat Nathan, and Nathan begat Zabad, 37 And Zabad begat Ephlal, and Ephlal begat Obed,
38 And Obed begat Jehu, and Jehu begat Azariah,
39 And Azariah begat Helez, and Helez begat Eleasah, 40 And Eleasah begat Sisamai, and Sisamai begat Shallum, 41 And Shallum begat Jekamiah, and Jekamiah begat Elishama.

e6 42 Now the sons of °Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were, Mesha his firstborn, which was the °father of Ziph; and the sons of °Mareshah the °father of °Hebron.
43 And the sons of Hebron; Korah, and °Tappuah, and °Rekem, and Shema.

45 And the son of Shammai was °Maon: and Maon was the [42] father of Beth-zur.
46 And Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bare Haran, and Moza, and Gazez: and Haran begat Gazez.
47 And the sons of Jahdai; Regem, and Jotham, and Gesham, and Pelet, and Ephah, and Shaaph.
48 Maachah, Caleb's concubine, bare Sheber, and Tirhanah.
49 She bare also Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbenah, and the father of Gibea: and °the daughter of Caleb was Achsa.

e7 50 These were the [7]sons of °Caleb the son of Hur, the firstborn of Ephratah; Shobal the [42] father of °Kirjath-jearim, 51 °Salma the father of Beth-lehem, Hareph the [42] father of °Beth-gader.
52 And Shobal the [42] father of [50] Kirjath-jearim had sons; Haroeh, and °half of the Manahethites.
53 And the families of [50] Kirjath-jearim; the Ithrites, and the Puhites, and the Shumathites, and the Mishraites; of them came the °Zareathites, and the °Eshtaulites.

55 And the families of the scribes which dwelt at °Jabez; the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and Suchathites. These are the °Kenites that came of Hemath, the father of the house 990-509 of °Rechab.

B5 f1 (p. 534) 960 to 953 3 Now these were the sons of David, which were °born unto him °in Hebron; the firstborn Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second ° Daniel, of Abigail the Carmelitess:
2 The third, Absalom the son of Maachah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur: the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith:
3 The fifth, Shephatiah of Abital: the sixth, Ithream by °Eglah his wife.
4 These six were [1]born unto him in Hebron; and there he reigned seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years. 953 to 920
5 And these were °born unto him in °Jerusalem; Shimea, and Shobab, and °Nathan, and °Solomon, four, of °Bath-shua the daughter of °Ammiel:
6 Ibhar also, and Elishama, and Eliphelet, 7 And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia, father. Here used in the sense of ruler. Cp. v. 54; 4. 4.

Mareshah. The name of a city, also in Judah (Josh. 15. 44. 2 Chron. 11. 8).

43 Tappuah. Also the name of a city (Josh. 15. 34).
Rekem. Also a city, of Benjamin (Josh. 18. 27).
45 Maon. Also the name of a city (Josh. 15. 55). Mentioned in connection with David (1 Sam. 23. 24).
49 the daughter of Caleb was Achsa. "Caleb the son of Jephunneh" had a daughter named Achsah, who married Othniel (Josh. 15. 16, 17). Judg. 1. 12, 13). Hence the "discrepancy" assumed by some. See note on v. 18.
50 Caleb the son of Hur. The son of the Caleb in v. 19, Hur giving him the name of his own father. It is possible that this Caleb (v. 50) may have been the son of Jephunneh (Num. 13. 6), Jephunneh being the surname of the Hur of Ex. 17. 10; 24. 14; 31. 2; 35. 30.
Kirjath-jearim. An old Gibeonite city (Josh. 9. 17; 15. 60), where the Ark tarried long, and whence it was brought to Zion by David (1 Sam. 6. 21; 7. 2. 2 Sam. 6. 2. 1 Chron. 13. 5, 6).
51 Salma. A family name, repeated in Ruth 4. 20 and v. 11 above.

52 half. For the other half see v. 54.

Kenites. These were the posterity of Jethro and Hobab. See Judg. 1. 16; and cp. 1 Sam. 15. 6; 27. 10. They became an ascetic people, and, by being mentioned here in connection with "scribes," may have been teachers. This perhaps accounts for Jehu's action in 2 Kings 10. 15, 16. Rechab. Cp. Jer. 35.

38 And the sons of Jether; Jephunneh, and Pispah, and Ara.
39 And the sons of Ulla; Arah, and Haniel, and Rezia.
40 All these were the [12]children of Asher, heads of their father's house, choice and [7]mighty men of valour, chief of the princes. And the number throughout the genealogy of them that were apt to the war and to battle was twenty and six thousand [21]men.

8. 1 Benjamin. This tribe is now dealt with, and brought down to Saul and Jonathan.
The date of writing is Post-Exilic. See v. 28; 9. 3, 27, and compare with Ezra 2 and Neh. 10, which show that Benjamin was brought back to the Land after being nearly extinguished in Judg. 20. Loyalty to Judah and the house of God had been rewarded. Note the passages which connect Benjamin with Judah and with the blessings of the return from Babylon: Ezra 1. 5; 2; 4. 1. Neh. 7; 11. 4, 7, 31; 12. 34. The genealogy of Saul leads up to the subject of the book.
begat. The former genealogy (7. 6–12) is not full, but specifies only the families to be dealt with later.
2 Nohah . . . Rapha. Nowhere else mentioned in O.T. Cp. Gen. 46. 21. Perhaps grandsons. But these names show independence of Chronicles.
3 Addar. Called Ard in Gen. 46. 21. Num. 26. 40.
Gera. Name derived from a son of Benjamin (Gen. 46. 21). Repeated in v. 5.
5 Gera. Another Gera. Cp. v. 7.
6 these are the: or, "and these are they—the".
Geba. Near Gibeah of Saul (Josh. 18. 24. 1 Sam. 10. 26; 13. 3). Cp. Judg. 19. 12.
and. Read: "but they were carried away to Manahath".
they (the Gebaites) removed = were carried away, (same word as in 5. 26). The occasion is not known, but probably after they returned from captivity, as Geba is mentioned in Ezra 2. 26. Lod and Ono in v. 12 are named in Ezra 2. 33, and "the sons of Gibeon" in Neh. 7. 25. Cp. Ezra 2. 20.
Other names found here are mentioned in Neh. 10. 14, 20, 22, 24, 26, 27: e. g. Meshullam (v. 17), Hanan (v. 23), Elam and Hananiah (v. 24).

31 Zacher. Supply Ellipsis thus: "and Zacher [and Mikloth]. And Mikloth", &c.
33 Ner begat Kish. There are three genealogies of the house of Saul. We place the facts, (1) that persons often had two names (v. 34. Judg. 6. 32, &c.), and (2) that the same name recurs in the same family, against the assumption that the opposite is the case. It is this assumption which creates the difficulties in "reconciling" 1 Sam. 9. 1; 14. 51; and 1 Chron. 9. 38.

The following makes all the lists agree:

Esh-baal. Another name for Ish-bosheth (2 Sam. 2. 8).
34 Merib-baal. Another name by which Mephibosheth was known. Cp. 2 Sam. 2. 8; 4. 4. See note on v. 38 above.
The addition "bosheth" (= shame) came to be substituted for "Baal" as the latter word became associated with idolatry. Cp. Judg. 6. 32 with 2 Sam. 11. 21.
38 Bocheru. Some codices, with Sept. and Syr., read "his firstborn" (bᵉkhorō).

w 9 And when they came unto the threshingfloor of °Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold [3]the ark; for the oxen stumbled.

10 And the anger of [2]the LORD was kindled against °Uzza, and He smote him, because he put his hand to [3]the ark: and there he °died before [2]God.

11 And David was °displeased, because [2]the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called Perez-uzza to this day.

x 12 And David was afraid of [5]God that day, saying, °"How shall I bring [3]the ark of [5]God home to me?"

13 So David °brought not [3]the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

14 And [3]the ark of [5]God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months.

b c 13 And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley.

d 14 Therefore David enquired again of [10]God; and [10]God said unto him, "Go not up after them; turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

15 And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for [10]God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines."

e 16 David therefore did as [10]God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from °Gibeon even to °Gazer.

17 And the fame of David went out into all lands; and [2]the LORD brought the fear of him upon °all nations.

15 And David made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for °the ark of °God, and °pitched for it a tent.

2 Then David said, °"None ought to carry [1]the ark of °God but the Levites: for them hath °the LORD chosen to carry [1]the ark of [1]God, and to minister unto Him °for ever."

3 And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up [1]the ark of [2]the LORD unto his place, which he had prepared for it.

4 And David assembled the °children of Aaron, and the Levites:

5 Of the °sons of Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twenty:

6 Of the sons of Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty:

7 Of the sons of Gershom; Joel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and thirty:

8 Of the sons of Elizaphan; Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred:

9 Of the sons of Hebron; Eliel the chief, and his brethren fourscore:

10 Of the sons of Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for °Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, 12 And said unto them, "Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up [1]the ark of [2]the LORD [1]God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because ye did it not at the first, [2]the LORD our [1]God made a breach upon us, for that we sought Him not after °the due order."

14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up [1]the ark of [2]the LORD [1]God of Israel.

15 And the [4]children of the Levites bare [1]the ark of [1]God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, °as Moses commanded according to the word of [2]the LORD.

16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their °brethren to be the singers with instruments of musick, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed °Heman the son of Joel; and of his [16]brethren, °Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their [16]brethren, °Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

18 And with them their [16]brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the porters.

19 So the singers, [17]Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass;

20 And Zechariah, and °Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries °on °Alamoth;

21 And Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps [20]on the °Sheminith °to excel.

22 And Chenaniah, °chief of the Levites, °was for song: he instructed °about the song, because he was skilful.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for [1]the ark.

24 And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow with the trumpets before [1]the ark of [1]God: and Obed-edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for [1]the ark.

25 the elders. As representing "all Israel" (2 Sam. 6. 15).

[1]the ark of the covenant of [2]the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom with joy.

26 And it came to pass, when [1]God °helped the Levites that bare [1]the ark of the covenant of [2]the LORD, that °they offered seven bullocks and seven rams.

27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare [1]the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers: David also had upon him °an ephod of linen.

28 Thus all Israel brought up [1]the ark of the covenant of [2]the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

w (p. 549) 29 And it came to pass, as [1]the ark of the covenant of [2]the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she °despised him in her heart.

3 And he dealt to °every one of Israel, both °man and woman, to °every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

5 And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear staff was like a weaver's beam.

6 And yet again there was war at Gath, where was a ° man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he also was the son of [4] the giant.

7 But when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea David's brother slew him.

2 And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the People, "Go, number Israel from Beersheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it."

4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

b 922 5 And Joab gave °the sum of the number of the People unto David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand °men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand °men that drew sword.

6 But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was abominable to Joab.

M d (p. 558) 9 And [3]the LORD spake unto Gad, David's seer, saying,

10 "Go and tell David, saying, 'Thus saith [3]the LORD, 'I offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.'"

e 13 And David said unto Gad, "I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of [3]the LORD; for very °great are His mercies: but let me not fall into the hand of °man."

e 14 So [3]the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand [5]men.

17 And David said unto [7]God, °"Is it not I that commanded the People to be numbered? even I it is that have [8]sinned and done °evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? let Thine hand, I pray Thee, O [3]LORD my [7]God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on Thy People, that they should be plagued."

O 18 Then the angel of [3]the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an altar unto [3]the LORD in the threshingfloor of [15]Ornan the Jebusite.

Ahimelech. So that Abiathar had a son named Ahimelech, who assisted him, as Hophni and Phinehas assisted Eli.

Z p⁴ 24 Now these are the °divisions of the sons of Aaron. The sons of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

2 But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no °children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office.

3 And David °distributed them, both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service.

4 And there were more °chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen °chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar according to the house of their fathers.

5 Thus were they °divided by lot, one sort with another; for the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the house of °God, were of the sons of Eleazar, °and of the sons of Ithamar.

6 And Shemaiah the son of Nethaneel °the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and °Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, 921 and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites: °one principal household being taken for Eleazar, and one °taken for Ithamar.

7 Now the first °lot came forth to °Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

8 The third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,

9 The fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

10 The seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah,

16 The nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezekel,

17 The one and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul, 18 The three and twentieth to Delaiah, the four and twentieth to Maaziah.

19 These were °the orderings of them in their service to come into the house of °the LORD, according to their manner, under Aaron their father, °as °the LORD [5] God of Israel had commanded him.

p[5] 20 And °the rest of the sons of Levi were
(p. 560) these: Of the sons of Amram; °Shubael: of the sons of Shubael; Jehdeiah.

21 Concerning Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah.

22 Of the Izharites; Shelomoth: of the sons of Shelomoth; Jahath.

23 And the sons of Hebron; °Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.

24 Of the sons of Uzziel; Michah: of the sons of Michah; Shamir.

25 The brother of Michah was Isshiah: of the sons of Isshiah; Zechariah.

26 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi: the sons of Jaaziah; °Beno.

27 The sons of Merari by Jaaziah; Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibri.

28 Of Mahli came Eleazar, who had no sons.

29 Concerning Kish: the son of Kish was Jerahmeel.

30 The sons also of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites after the house of their fathers.

31 These likewise °cast lots °over against their brethren the sons of Aaron in the presence of David the king, and Zadok, and Ahimelech, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites, even the principal fathers over against their younger brethren.

p[6] 25 Moreover David and the °captains of the host separated to the service of the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of °Jeduthun, who should °prophesy with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals: and the number of the workmen according to their service was:

2 Of the sons of Asaph; Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and Asarelah, the sons of Asaph under the hands of Asaph, which prophesied according to the order of the king.

3 Of [1] Jeduthun: the sons of [1] Jeduthun; Gedaliah, and Zeri, and Jeshaiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, °six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp, to give thanks and to praise °the LORD.

4 Of Heman: the sons of Heman; Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, °Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth:

Solomon appointed the same courses, which were continued by Hezekiah and Josiah. Only four returned from the Captivity (Ezra 2. 36–39. Neh. 7. 39–42; 12. 1–21). Luke 1. 5 shows that they must have been made complete.

4 Giddalti. The fact that the meanings of these six names form a complete sentence in Hebrew is no more proof that this is a mistaken "obscure and ancient prayer", than that the chronicler has strung together a list of six names in order to form a sentence. What it shows is that Heman, in naming his sons, did so with this set purpose, as parents have often done since his day. The supposed prayer would read:

"I have magnified, and I have raised up help; Sitting in trouble, I have spoken many oracles."

y p. 560) 26 Concerning the °divisions of the °porters: Of the °Korhites was Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of °Asaph.

2 And the sons of Meshelemiah were, Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elioenai the seventh.

4 Moreover the sons of Obed-edom were, Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth, v 18 O [1]LORD [1]God of [c]Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of Thy People, and prepare their heart unto Thee:

19 And give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep Thy commandments, Thy testimonies, and Thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build [1]the palace, for the which I have made provision."

y 24 And all the princes, and [c]the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, [c]submitted themselves unto Solomon the king.

920 I may °go out and °come in before this People: for °who can judge this Thy °People, that is so great?"

a (p. 569) 11 And [1]God said to Solomon, "Because °this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor °the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked °long life; but hast asked wisdom and [10]knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge My People, over whom I have made thee king:

e (p. 570) 11 Then Huram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, "Because [1]the LORD hath loved His People, He hath made thee king over them."

12 Huram said moreover, "Blessed be [1]the LORD [4]God of Israel, That made °heaven and earth, Who hath given to David the king a wise son, endued with prudence and understanding, that might build an house for [1]the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

13 And now I have sent a [7]cunning [2]man, endued with understanding, of Huram my father's,

14 The son of °a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a [2]man of Tyre, skilful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy [7]cunning men, and with the [7]cunning men of my lord David thy father.

15 Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine, which my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants:

16 And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as thou shalt need: and we will bring it to thee in °floats by sea to Joppa; and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem."

d 17 And Solomon numbered all °the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering wherewith David his father had numbered them; and they were found an hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred.

18 And he set threescore and ten thousand of them to be bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand to be hewers in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to °set the people a work.

g 4 And the porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was °according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was °an hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

f 5 And °the greater house he °cieled with °fir tree, which he overlaid with °fine gold, and set thereon °palm trees and °chains.

6 And he garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim.

7 He overlaid also the house, the beams, the °posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and graved cherubims on the walls.

8 And he made °the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred °talents.

9 And the °weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold.

2 Also he made a molten sea of ten [1] cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and five [1] cubits the height thereof; and a line of thirty [1] cubits did compass it round about.

3 And under it was the similitude of oxen, which did compass it round about: ten °in a [1] cubit, compassing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen were cast, when it was cast.

4 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

5 And the thickness of it was an handbreadth, and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies; and it °received and held three thousand baths.

6 He made also ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: such things as they ° offered for the burnt offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.

7 And he made ten °candlesticks of gold according to their form, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.

8 He made also ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. And he made an hundred °basons of gold.

13 And four hundred pomegranates on the two [12] wreaths; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two [12] pommels of the chapiters which were ° upon the pillars.

14 He made also bases, and lavers made he upon the bases;

15 One sea, and twelve oxen under it.

16 The pots also, and the shovels, and the fleshhooks, and all their instruments, did Huram his father make to king Solomon for the house of °the LORD of bright brass.

17 In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredathah.

18 Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be ° found out.

19 And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of [11] God, the golden altar also, and the tables whereon the shewbread was set;

20 Moreover the candlesticks with their lamps, that they should burn °after the manner before °the oracle, of pure gold;

21 And the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, made he of gold, and that °perfect gold;

917 to 910 22 And the snuffers, and the basons, and the spoons, and the censers, of °pure gold: and the entry of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most °holy place, and the doors of the house of the temple, were of gold.

910 5 Thus all the work that °Solomon made for the house of °the LORD was finished: and Solomon brought in all the °things that David his father had °dedicated; °and the silver, and the gold, and °all the instruments, put he °among the treasures of the house of °God.

k 6 Also king Solomon, and all the °congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him before [2]the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

j 7 And °the priests brought in [2]the ark of the covenant of [1]the LORD unto his place, to °the oracle of the house, into °the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims:

8 For the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered [2]the ark and the staves thereof above.

9 And they °drew out the staves of the ark, that the ends of the staves were seen from [2]the ark before [7]the oracle; but they were not seen without. And there it is °unto this day.

10 There was °nothing in [2]the ark save the two tables which Moses put therein at Horeb, when [1]the LORD made a covenant with the [2]children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

13 It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking [1]the LORD; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of musick, and praised [1]the LORD, saying, °"For He is good; for His °mercy endureth for ever:"

7 Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, °the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the °sacrifices; and the glory of °the LORD filled the house.

i 2 And the priests could not enter into the house of [1]the LORD, because the glory of [1]the LORD had filled [1]the LORD'S house.
3 And when all the °children of Israel saw how [1]the fire came down, and the glory of [1]the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised [1]the LORD, saying, "For He is good; for His °mercy endureth for ever."

4 Then the king and all the People °offered sacrifices before [1]the LORD.

z 6 And the priests waited on their offices:

z the Levites also with instruments of musick of [1]the LORD, which David the king had made to praise [1]the LORD, because His mercy endureth for ever, when David praised by their ministry; and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood.

y 7 Moreover Solomon °hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of [1]the LORD: for there he °offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brasen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat.

V[2] a 8 Also at the same time Solomon kept °the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great °congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto °the river of Egypt.

10 And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the People away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that [1]the LORD had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel His People.

10 And °Rehoboam went to Shechem: for to Shechem were °all Israel come to make him king. G³ A¹ (p. 579)

2 And it came to pass, when °Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt. B¹ C
3 And they sent and called him.

So Jeroboam and all Israel came and spake to Rehoboam, saying, D s¹ 4 "Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous 880 servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee."

t¹ (p. 579) s² 5 And he said unto them, "Come again unto me °after three days." And the People departed.

6 And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, "What counsel give ye me to return answer to this People?"

7 And they spake unto him, saying, "If thou be kind to this People, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever."

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, "What °advice give ye that we may return answer to this People, which have spoken to me, saying, 'Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?'"

10 And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, "Thus shalt thou answer the People that spake unto thee, saying, 'Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us;' thus shalt thou say unto them, 'My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 For whereas my father put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.'" t² 12 So Jeroboam and all the People came to Rehoboam on the third day, °as the king bade, saying, "Come again to me on the third day."

13 And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men,

14 And answered them after the °advice of the young men, saying, "My father °made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions."

s³ 15 So the king hearkened not unto the People: for the cause was of °God, that °the LORD might perform His °word, which He spake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

t³ 16 And when ¹all Israel °saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the People answered the king, saying, "What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse: °every man to °your °tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thine own house." So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the °children of Israel that °dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram that was over the tribute; and the ¹⁷children of Israel °stoned him with stones, that he died. But king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

C 11 And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and °Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam.

2 But the word of °the LORD came to °Shemaiah °the man of °God, saying,

3 "Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 'Thus saith ²the LORD, 'Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return °every man to his house: for °this thing is done of Me.'"' And they obeyed the words of ²the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

P (p. 580) 13 And the priests and the Levites that were in [a]all Israel resorted to him out of all their [b]coasts.

14 For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the priest's office unto [1]the LORD:

15 And he ordained him priests for the high places, and for the [c]devils, and for the calves which [d]he had made.

16 And [e]after them [f]out of all the tribes of Israel such as [g]set their hearts to seek [2]the LORD [2]God of Israel came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto [2]the LORD [2]God of their fathers.

17 So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, [h]three years: for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.

E 18 And Rehoboam [i]took him Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse;

19 [j]Which bare him [k]children; Jeush, and Shamariah, and Zaham.

20 And after her he took [l]Maachah the daughter of [m]Absalom; which bare him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loved [20]Maachah the daughter of [20]Absalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines; and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters.)

22 And Rehoboam made Abijah the son of Maachah the [n]chief, to be ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him king.

23 And he dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his [o]children throughout all the countries of Judah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city: and he gave [p]them victual in abundance. And he desired many [q]wives.

F 12 And it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and had strengthened himself, [r]he forsook the law of [s]the LORD, and [t]all Israel with him.

B² u (p. 581) 875 2 And it came to pass, that in the [u]fifth year of king Rehoboam [v]Shishak king of Egypt came up [w]against Jerusalem, because they had [x]transgressed against [1]the LORD,

3 With twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; the [y]Lubims, the [z]Sukkiims, and the Ethiopians.

4 And he took the fenced cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

v 5 Then came [a]Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, "Thus saith [1]the LORD, 'Ye have forsaken Me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.'" w 6 Whereupon the [b]princes of [c]Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, [1]"The LORD is righteous."

x 7 And when [1]the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of [1]the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, "They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them [d]some deliverance; and My wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

8 Nevertheless they shall be his servants; that they may know [e]My service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries."

u 9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up [f]against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of [1]the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon [g]had made.

17 And Abijah and his People slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen [3]men.

18 Thus the [7]children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the [7]children of Judah prevailed, because they relied upon [5]the LORD [5]God of their fathers.

17 And of Benjamin; Eliada a [13]mighty man of valour, and with him armed men °with bow and shield two hundred thousand.

18 And next him was Jehozabad, and with him an hundred and fourscore thousand ready prepared for the war.

19 These waited on the king, beside those whom the king put in the fenced cities °throughout all Judah.

riches and honour in abundance. This is repeated from 17. 5, to show that there was no need for any alliance of any kind.
joined affinity. By marrying his son Jehoram to Athaliah the daughter of Ahab (21. 6. 2 Kings 8. 18). Contrast 17. 1, where he began by strengthening himself against Ahab, and now "joined affinity" with him. See Ap. 55. Cp. Asa's alliance with Syria (1 Kings 15. 17–19).
Note the three alliances or unequal yokes: (1) Marriage (18. 1; 21. 6); (2) War (18. 2–34); (3) Commerce (20. 35, 36). The consequence of this alliance was that Jerusalem ran with blood. The same was seen when James I of England married his son Charles I to Henrietta of France. England ran with blood, Charles lost his head, and his son James II lost his throne.

"Better is he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city" (Prov. 16. 32). But Jehoshaphat did not "take it".

v (p. 587) 6 But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not here a prophet of [4]the LORD [c]besides, that we might enquire of him?"

w 7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, "There is yet one [5]man, by whom we may enquire of [4]the LORD: but [c]I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always [c]evil: the same is [c]Micaiah the son of Imla." And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say so."

Z 8 And the king of Israel called for one of his officers, and said, "Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla."

A 9 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets [c]prophesied before them.

10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him horns of iron, and said, "Thus saith [4]the LORD, 'With these thou shalt push Syria until [c]they be consumed.'"

A 11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for [4]the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king."

Z 12 And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake to him, saying, [c]"Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one [c]assent; let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good."

x 15 And the king said to him, "How many times shall I adjure thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of [4]the LORD?"

y B[1] a (p. 588) 16 Then he said, "I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and [4]the LORD said, 'These have no master; let them return therefore [5]every man to his house in peace.'"

b 17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, but [7]evil?"

a 18 Again he said, "Therefore hear the word of [4]the LORD; I saw [4]the LORD sitting upon His throne, and all the host of heaven standing on His right hand and on His left.

19 And [4]the LORD said, 'Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?' And one spake saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner.

20 Then there came out a [c]spirit, and stood before [4]the LORD, and said, 'I will entice him.' And [4]the LORD said unto him, 'Wherewith?'

21 And he said, 'I will go out, and be a lying [20]spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And the LORD said, 'Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do even so.'

b 22 Now therefore, [12]behold, [4]the LORD hath put a lying [20]spirit in the mouth of [c]these thy prophets, and [4]the LORD hath spoken [7]evil against thee."

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, "Which way went the [20]Spirit of [4]the LORD from me to speak unto thee?"

24 And Micaiah said, "Behold, [c]thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself."

25 Then the king of Israel said, "Take ye Micaiah, and [c]carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

26 And say, 'Thus saith the king, [c]"Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with [c]bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace."'"

27 And Micaiah said, "If thou certainly return in peace, then hath not [4]the LORD spoken by me." And he said, "Hearken, all ye [c]people."

28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, [c]"I will disguise myself, and will go to the battle; but put thou on thy robes."

20 And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in [3]the LORD your [6]God, so shall ye be established; believe His prophets, so shall ye prosper."

21 And when he had consulted with the People, he appointed singers unto [3]the LORD, and that should praise [c]the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, [c]"Praise [3]the LORD; for His [c]mercy endureth for ever."

22 And when they began to sing and to praise, [c]the LORD set [c]ambushments against the [1]children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten.

23 For the [1]children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another.

24 And when Judah came toward the watch tower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and, [2]behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his People came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with [c]the dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they [c]stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much.

i 26 And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of [c]Berachah; for there they blessed [3]the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Berachah, unto this day.

27 Then they returned, [c]every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for [3]the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets unto the house of [3]the LORD.

h 29 And the [c]fear of [6]God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that [3]the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel.

g 30 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet: for his [6]God gave him rest round about.

-1 Jehoram. He was designated to be king in the seventeenth year of his father, but crowned in his father's twenty-third year. He reigned eight years in Jerusalem: two with his father, and six after his father's death (cp. 2 Kings 1. 17; 8. 16).

O U (p. 586)

35 And [c]after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah [c]join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, [c]who did very [c]wickedly:

36 And he [35]joined himself with him [c]to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in Ezion-gaber.

V

37 Then [c]Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because thou hast [35]joined thyself with Ahaziah, [3]the LORD hath [c]broken thy works." And the ships were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

P 794

21 Now Jehoshaphat [c]slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David.

G[7] D (p. 591)

And [c]Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

796 to 788 2 And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of °Israel.

3 And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram; because he was the firstborn.

4 Now when Jehoram was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and °slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel.

5 Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

E (p. 591) 6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had °the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was °evil in the eyes of °the LORD.

7 Howbeit [6]the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of °the covenant that He had made with David, and °as He promised to give °a light to him and to his sons for ever.

E n (p. 592) 8 In his days °the Edomites revolted from under the dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jehoram °went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So [8]the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah °unto this day. The same time also °did Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken [6]the LORD °God of his fathers.

o 11 Moreover he made high places in the °mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit °fornication, and °compelled Judah thereto.

12 And °there came a writing to him from °Elijah the prophet, saying, "Thus saith [6]the LORD [10]God of David thy father, 'Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go a whoring, like to the whoredoms of the house of Ahab, and also hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thyself:

14 °Behold, with a great plague will [6]the LORD smite thy People, °and thy °children, and thy wives, and all thy goods:

15 And thou shalt have great sickness by disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.'"

n 16 Moreover [6]the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the °spirit of °the Philistines, and of the Arabians, that °were near the Ethiopians:

17 And they came up °into Judah, and brake into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and °his wives; so that there was °never a son left him, save °Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

2 Israel. This word was originally represented by the abbreviation י (i or y), which was read for "Israel" as well as Judah. The reading in the Severus Codex (see Ap. 34) is "Judah", and this is supported by the first edition of the Hagiographa (Naples, 1486-1487), the Complutensian Polyglot, Sept., Syr., and Vulg. This same note applies to 28. 19, where the same phenomena occur.

4 slew all his brethren. The mischief of his marriage (18. 1) was thus soon seen. The enemy's design in breaking into the royal line so as to destroy the promises of Gen. 3. 15 and 2 Sam. 7. 16 is seen. See Ap. 23, 25. Jehoshaphat made the beginning (18. 1); Jehoram follows it up (21. 4); the Arabians continue the assault (21. 17; 22. 1); Athaliah nearly succeeds in accomplishing the design of Satan (22. 10).

18 And after all this [6] the LORD smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease.
19 And it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of sore diseases. And his people made [c] no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.
20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed [c] without being desired. Howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

22 And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made [c] Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had [c] slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.
2 [c] Forty and two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Athaliah the [c] daughter of Omri.
3 He also walked in the [c] ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counsellor to do wickedly.
4 Wherefore he did [c] evil in the sight of [c] the LORD like the house of Ahab: for they were his counsellors after the death of his father to his destruction.
5 He walked also after their counsel, and went [c] with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote [c] Joram.
6 And he returned to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And [c] Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick.
7 And the [c] destruction of Ahaziah was of [c] God by coming to Joram: for when he was come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, [c] whom [4] the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.
8 And it came to pass, that, when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that ministered to Ahaziah, he slew them.
9 And he sought Ahaziah: and they caught him, (for he was [c] hid [c] in Samaria,) and [c] brought him [c] to Jehu: and when they had slain him, they buried him: "Because," said they, "he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought [4] the LORD with all his heart."
So the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep still the kingdom.
10 But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, [c] she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah.
11 But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him [c] from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a [c] bedchamber. So Jehoshabeath, [c] the daughter of king Jehoram, [c] the wife of Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not.
12 And he was with them [5] hid [c] in the house of [7] God [c] six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

In 2 Kings 8. 26 Ahaziah's actual age (twenty-two years) is given when he began to reign (790) during the two years of his father's disease. His father, Jehoram, was thirty-two when he began to reign with Jehoshaphat, two years before the latter's death (2 Kings 8. 16). This was in 796. Jehoram therefore was born in 828. 23 °And in the °seventh year Jehoiada °strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him.

2 And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of °Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

3 And all the °congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of °God.

s And he said unto them, °"Behold, the king's son shall reign, °as °the LORD °hath said of the sons of David.

r 4 This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the °doors;

5 And a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the People shall be in the courts of the house of ³the LORD.

6 But let none come into the house of ³the LORD, save the priests, and they that minister of the Levites; they shall go in, for they are °holy: but all the People shall keep the watch of ³the LORD.

7 And the Levites shall compass the king round about, °every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever else cometh into the house, he shall be put to death: but be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out."

8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took ⁷every man his °men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not the courses.

9 Moreover Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in the house of ³God.

10 And he set all the People, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the °temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the °temple, by the king round about.

s 11 Then they brought out the king's son, and °put upon him the crown, and gave him the testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, ³"God save the king."

F³ (p. 593) 12 Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the People running and praising the king, she came to the People into the house of ³the LORD:

G³ 13 And she looked, and, °behold, the king °stood at his pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king: and all the People of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets, also the singers with instruments of musick, and such as taught to sing praise.

F¹ Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, °"Treason, Treason."

14 Then Jehoiada the priest °brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the °host, and said unto them, "Have her forth of the ranges: and whoso followeth her, let him be slain with the sword." For the priest said, "Slay her not in the house of ³the LORD."

15 So they °laid hands on her; and when she was come to the entering of the horse gate by the king's house, they slew her there. 782

16 And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the People, and between the king, that they should be ³the LORD'S People. G¹

17 Then all the People went to °the house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake his altars and his images in pieces, and °slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

18 Also Jehoiada appointed the offices of the house of ³the LORD by the hand of the priests °the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of ³the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings °of ³the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was ordained °by David.

19 And he set the porters at the gates of the house of ³the LORD, that none which was unclean in any thing should enter in.

13 by them: i.e. by their hand: i.e. by their direction.

13 So the workmen wrought, and the work was perfected °by them, and they set the house of [5]God in his state, and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished it, they P brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, whereof were made vessels for 782 to 742 the house of [2]the LORD, even vessels to minister, [o]and to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of [2]the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

N (p. 595) 15 But Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days when he died; [o]an hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the city of David [o]among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward [5]God, and toward His house.

M 17 Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and [o]made obeisance to the king. Then the king hearkened unto them.

18 And they left the house of [2]the LORD [5]God of their fathers, and served [o]groves and [o]idols: and [o]wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their [o]trespass.

19 Yet He sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto [2]the LORD; and [o]they testified against them: but they would not give ear.

20 And the [o]Spirit of [5]God [o]came upon [o]Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the People, and said unto them, "Thus [o]saith [5]God, 'Why transgress ye the commandments of [2]the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? because ye have forsaken [2]the LORD, He hath also forsaken you.'"

N 21 And they conspired against him, and [o]stoned him with stones [o]at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of [2]the LORD.

22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when [o]he died, he said, [2]"The LORD look upon it, [o]and require it."

L 23 And it came to pass at the end of the year, that the [o]host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and [o]destroyed all the princes of the People from among the People, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of Damascus.

24 For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of [o]men, and [2]the LORD delivered a very great [23]host into their hand, because they had forsaken [2]the LORD [5]God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash.

K 25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the [o]sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him [o]not in the sepulchres of the kings.

26 And these are they that conspired against him; [o]Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and [o]Jehozabad the son of [o]Shimrith a Moabitess.

H 27 Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the [o]burdens laid upon him, and the [o]repairing of the house of [5]God, [o]behold, they are written in the [o]story of the book of the kings. And Amaziah [o]his son reigned in his stead.

1 Amaziah. Cp. 2 Kings 14. 1–3. Complementary to Kings (see Ap. 56); vv. 5–10 and 13–16 are additional.

25 [o]Amaziah was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. G[11] (p. 749 to 711.)

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of °the LORD, °but not with a perfect heart.

3 Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was °established to him, that he slew his servants that had °killed the king his father.

4 But he slew not their children, but did °as it is written °in the law in the book of Moses, where [2]the LORD commanded, saying, "The fathers shall not die for the °children, neither shall the °children die for the fathers, but °every man shall die for his own °sin."

5 Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield.

6 He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for an hundred °talents of silver.

7 But there came °a °man of °God to him, saying, "O king, °let not the °army of °Israel go with thee; for [2]the LORD is °not with Israel, to wit, with °all the [4]children of °Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt go, do it, °be strong for the battle: [7]God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for [7]God hath power to help, and to cast down."

9 And Amaziah said to the [4]man of [7]God, "But what shall we do for the hundred [9]talents which I have given to the °army of Israel?" And the [4]man of [7]God answered, [2]"The LORD is able to give thee much more than this."

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the [9]army that was come to him out of [7]Ephraim, to go home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

11 And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his People, and went to the °valley of salt, and smote of °the [4]children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand left alive did the [4]children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces.

13 But the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of °them, and took much spoil.

14 Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the [4]children of Seir, and °set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them.

15 Wherefore the anger of [2]the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and He °sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, "Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, which could not °deliver their own people out of thine hand?"

16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, °"Art thou made °of the king's counsel? forbear; why shouldest thou be smitten?" Then the prophet forbare, and said, "I know that [7]God hath °determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel."

17 Then Amaziah king of Judah took °advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us °see one another in the face."

18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The °thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give thy daughter to my son to wife:' and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the °thistle.

19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites; and thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldest

b 10 Also he built towers in the desert, and digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country, and in the plains: husbandmen also, and vine dressers in the mountains, and in Carmel: for he loved husbandry.

c 11 Moreover Uzziah had an °host of fighting men, that went out to war °by bands, according to the number of their account °by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

12 The whole number of the °chief of the fathers of °the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred.

13 And under their hand was an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand

14 And Uzziah prepared for them throughout all the [11]host shields, °and spears, and helmets, and °habergeons, and bows, and slings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Jerusalem °engines, invented by °cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal.

And his name spread far abroad; for he was °marvellously helped, °till he was strong.

16 But °when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he °transgressed against [4]the LORD [5]his God, and went into the temple of [4]the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of [4]the LORD, that were °valiant men:

18 And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, "It appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto [4]the LORD, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are °consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast °trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour from [4]the LORD [5]God."

19 Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he °was wroth with the priests, °the leprosy even rose up °in his forehead before the priests in the house of [4]the LORD, from beside the incense altar.

20 And Azariah °the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, °behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea, °himself hasted also to go out, because [4]the LORD had smitten him.

21 And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a °several house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of [4]the LORD: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the People of the land.

22 Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did °Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, write.

23 So Uzziah °slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in °the field of the burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, "He is a leper:" and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

27 Jotham was °twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

3 He built the °high gate of the house of [2]the LORD, and on the wall of °Ophel he built much.

4 Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers.

5 He fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the °children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred °talents of silver, and ten thousand °measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. 647 to 631 8 He was °five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

9 And Jotham °slept with his fathers, and they buried [him] in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

G[14] C (p. 600) 632 to 616 28 Ahaz was °twenty years old °when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did °not that which was right in the sight of °the LORD, like David his father:

D 2 °For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for Baalim.

3 Moreover he burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt his °children in the fire, after the abominations of the °heathen whom [1]the LORD had cast out before the °children of Israel.

4 He °sacrificed also and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

E F 5 Wherefore [1]the LORD °his °God delivered him into the hand of °the king of Syria; and °they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 For °Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all °valiant men; because they had forsaken [1]the LORD [5]God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri, a °mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah that was next to the king.

8 And the [3]children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand, °women, sons, and daughters, and °took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

9 But a prophet of [1]the LORD was there, whose name was °Oded: and he °went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, "Behold, because [1]the LORD [5]God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, He hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that °reacheth up unto heaven.

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the [3]children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but °are there not with you, even with you, °sins against [1]the LORD your [5]God?

11 Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of °the LORD is upon you."

12 Then °certain of the °heads of the [3]children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of °Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war,

13 And said unto them, "Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have °offended against [1]the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our °sins and to our °trespass: for our °trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel."

14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the °congregation.

22 And in the time of his distress did he °trespass yet more against [1]the LORD: °this is that king Ahaz.

23 For he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus, °which smote him: and he said, "Because the gods of the kings of Syria °help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me." But they were °the ruin of him, and of all [10]Israel.

24 And Ahaz °gathered together the vessels of the house of [5]God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of [5]God, and °shut up the doors of the house of [1]the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

25 And in every several city of Judah he made high places to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger [1]the LORD [5]God of his fathers.

26 Now the rest of his acts and of °all his ways, first and last, °behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it °on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they °sprinkled the blood upon the altar.
23 And they brought °forth the he goats for the sin offering before the king and the °congregation; and °they °laid their hands upon them:
24 And the priests killed them, and they made °reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an °atonement °for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made °for all Israel.

i (p. 602) 25 And he set the Levites in the house of [2]the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of °David, and of Gad the king's °seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandment °of [2]the LORD °by His prophets.
26 And the Levites stood with the instruments °of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

h 27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of [2]the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the instruments ordained by David king of Israel.

i 28 And all the [23]congregation worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.
29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped.
30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto [2]the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

R k (p. 603) 31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, "Now ye have °consecrated yourselves unto [2]the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of [2]the LORD."

l And the [23]congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a free heart burnt offerings.

m 32 And the number of the burnt offerings, which the [23]congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to [2]the LORD.
33 And the °consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.

l 34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.
35 And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of [2]the LORD was set in order.

7 And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which °trespassed against [1]the LORD [1]God of their fathers, Who therefore gave them up to desolation, °as ye see.

8 Now be ye not °stiffnecked, as your fathers were, but °yield yourselves unto [1]the LORD, and enter into His sanctuary, which He hath sanctified for ever: and serve [1]the LORD your [1]God, that the fierceness of His wrath may turn away from you.

9 For if ye turn again unto [1]the LORD, your brethren and your [6]children shall find compassion before them that °lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for [1]the LORD your [1]God is °gracious and merciful, and will not turn away His face from you, if ye return unto Him."

10 So the [6]posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.

16 And they °stood in their place after their manner, according to °the law of Moses °the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Levites.

17 For there were many in the [2]congregation that were not sanctified: therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the °passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto [1]the LORD.

18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover °otherwise than it was written.

7 And he set a carved image, the °idol which he had made, in the house of °God, of which °God had said to David °and to Solomon his son, "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put My [4]name for ever:

8 Neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for °your fathers; °so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses."

i 9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the [2]heathen, whom [2]the LORD had destroyed before the [2]children of Israel.

f 10 And [2]the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his People:

g but they would not hearken.

h 11 Wherefore [2]the LORD brought upon them the °captains of the host of °the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh °among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

h 12 And when he was in affliction, he besought [2]the LORD his [7]God, and humbled himself greatly before the [7]God of his fathers,

13 And prayed unto Him:

g and He was intreated of him,

f and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then e Manasseh knew that [2]the LORD ☥e was [7]God.

A 14 Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of °Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish gate, and compassed about °Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

Z 15 And he took away the strange gods, and the [7]idol out of the house of [2]the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of [2]the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

16 And he repaired the altar of [2]the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings and thank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve [2]the LORD [7]God of Israel.

17 Nevertheless the People did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto [2]the LORD their [7]God only.

Y 18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his [7]God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the name of [2]the LORD [7]God of Israel, °behold, they are written in the book of the kings of °Israel.

21 °Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem. G[17] n (p. 609) 533–53

22 But he did that which was °evil in the sight of [2]the LORD, °as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all the carved [19]images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them; o

23 And humbled not himself before [2]the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; °but Amon °trespassed more and more.

24 And his servants conspired against him, o and slew him in his own house.

25 But °the People of the land slew all them n that had conspired against king Amon; and the People of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

34 °Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years. G[18] B 531 to 500

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of [c] the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and [c] declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

D[1] E G (p. 610) 523 to 519

3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while [b] he was yet young, [c] he began to seek after the [3] God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the [c] groves, and the [c] carved images, and the molten images.

4 And they [c] brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; [c] and the images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the [3] groves, and the [3] carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it upon the [c] graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.

5 And he [c] burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, [c] with their mattocks round about.

7 And when he had broken down the altars and the [3] groves, and had beaten the graven images into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

H p[1] 513

8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, [c] he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, [c] to repair the house of [2] the LORD his [3] God.

9 And when they came to [c] Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of [3] God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem.

10 And they put it in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of [2] the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of [2] the LORD, to repair and amend the house:

11 Even to the artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And [c] the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and other of the Levites, [c] all that could skill of instruments of musick.

13 [c] Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.

q[1]

14 And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of [2] the LORD, Hilkiah the priest [c] found a book of the law of [2] the LORD given [c] by Moses.

15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have [14] found the book of the law in [2] the house of [2] the LORD." And Hilkiah delivered the [14] book to Shaphan.

16 And Shaphan carried the [14] book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, "All that was committed [c] to thy servants, they do it. p[1]

17 And they have [c] gathered together the money that was found in the house of [2] the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen."

18 Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest hath [c] given me a [14] book." And Shaphan read it before the king. q[1]

F r (p. 610) 20 And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and °Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's, saying,

21 "Go, enquire of [2]the LORD for me, and for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the [14]book that is found: for great is the wrath of [2]the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept °the word of [2]the LORD, to do after all that is written in this [14]book."

s 22 And Hilkiah, and they that the king °had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the °college:) and they spake to her to that effect.

F r 23 And she answered them, "Thus °saith [2]the LORD [3]God of Israel, 'Tell ye the °man that sent you to me,

24 'Thus saith [2]the LORD, °'Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are °written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah:

25 Because they have forsaken Me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the °works of their hands; therefore °My wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched.'"

26 And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of [2]the LORD, so shall ye say unto him, 'Thus [23]saith [2]the LORD [3]God of Israel concerning the words which thou hast heard;

27 'Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before [3]God, when thou heardest °His words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before Me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before Me; I have even heard thee also,' [23]saith [2]the LORD.

28 "Behold, I will °gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be °gathered to thy [4]grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the °evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same."'" fourteenth day. In this respect it was unlike Hezekiah's. Cp. 30. 2, 3. 2 Kings 23. 22, 23.

2 he set the priests, &c. This passover is interesting from the succinct description of its observance.

32 And he caused all that were °present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of [3]God, the [3]God of their fathers.

33 And Josiah °took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the °children of Israel, and made all that were present in Israel to °serve, even to serve [2]the LORD their [3]God. And °all his days they departed not from following [2]the LORD, the [3]God of their fathers.

35 Moreover °Josiah °kept a passover unto °the LORD in Jerusalem: D[2] t (p. 611) and they killed the passover on the °fourteenth day of the first month. u

2 And °he set the priests in their charges, v

518 and encouraged them to the service of the house of [1]the LORD,

3 And said unto the Levites [c]that taught [d]all Israel, which were [c]holy unto [1]the LORD, [e]"Put [c]the [c]holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; it shall not be a burden upon your shoulders: serve now [1]the LORD your [c]God, and His People Israel,

4 And prepare yourselves by the houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to [f]the writing of David king of Israel, and according to [c]the writing of Solomon his son.

5 And stand in the [3]holy place according to the [c]divisions of [c]the families of the fathers of your brethren [c]the People, and after the division of the families of the Levites.

6 So kill the passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of [1]the LORD [c]by the hand of Moses."

w 7 And Josiah gave to [5]the People, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance.

w 8 And his princes gave willingly unto the People, to the priests, and to the Levites: [g]Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of [c]God, gave unto the priests for the passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen.

9 Conaniah also, and [c]Shemaiah and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and [c]Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave unto the Levites for passover offerings five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen.

v 10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king's commandment.

11 And [c]they killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites flayed them.

12 And they removed the burnt offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of [5]the families of [5]the People, to [c]offer unto [1]the LORD, as it is written in [c]the book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen.

13 And they roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: but the other [3]holy offerings [c]sod they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them speedily among all [5]the People.

14 And [c]afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in [c]offering of burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the commandment of [c]David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's [c]seer; and the porters waited at every gate; [c]they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

16 So all the service of [1]the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of [1]the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah.

17 And the [c]children of Israel that were w present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days.

18 And there was [c]no passover like to that t kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover [c]kept.

19 kept. The Septuagint Version adds here [with a colon after kept]: ": after all these things that Josiah did in the house, who also burnt those who had familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the images, and the idols, and the sodomites, which were in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he might confirm the words of the law that were written in the book which Hilkiah the priest had found in the house of the LORD. There was no one like him before him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart, and all his soul, and all his strength, according to all the law of Moses, and after him there rose up none like him. Nevertheless the LORD turned not from the anger of His great wrath, wherewith the LORD was greatly angry against Judah, for all the provocations wherewith Manasseh provoked Him. And the LORD said: 'I shall even remove Judah also from My presence, as I have removed Israel; and I have rejected the city which I chose, even Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, 'My Name shall be there.'" y² 22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but °disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of ²⁰Necho from the mouth of ³God, and came to fight in the valley of °Megiddo.

x³ 23 And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, "Have me away; for I am sore wounded."

y³ 24 His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of the °sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

25 And °Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, °behold, they are written in the lamentations.

SPECIAL NOTE ON 2 Chron. 36. 21.

THE "SERVITUDE", THE "CAPTIVITY", AND THE "DESOLATIONS".

Three Periods of seventy years are assigned to these three respectively, and it is necessary that they should be differentiated.

i. The "SERVITUDE" began in the fourth year of JEHOIAKIM, and the first of NEBUCHADNEZZAR, when the "KINGDOM" passed under CHALDEAN rule for seventy years (Jer. 25. 1). This period closed with the capture of BABYLON by DARIUS the MEDIAN (ASTYAGES), and the "Decree" of CYRUS to rebuild the Temple. It lasted from 496-426 B.C.

ii. The "CAPTIVITY" commenced, and is dated by EZEKIEL from the carrying away to BABYLON of JECHONIAH, in the eighth year of NEBUCHADNEZZAR (2 Kings 24. 8-16). This was in 489 B.C. Consequently, when the "Servitude" ended in 426 B.C., the "Captivity" had lasted for sixty-three (9 × 7) years.

Seven years later CYRUS died, in 419 B.C. That year (419) is further notable for:

1. The appointment of Nehemiah as Governor of Jerusalem by Cambysses (Neh. 5. 14).
2. The completion of "the wall" in fifty-two days (Neh. 6. 15); and
3. The fact it marks the end of the fifth of the "seven sevens" of Dan. 9. 25. (See Appendix 50. VI, p. 90; and 50. VII (5), p. 67. The "Captivity" lasting from 489 to 419 B.C.

iii. The "DESOLATIONS" commenced with the beginning of the third and last siege of JERUSALEM by NEBUCHADNEZZAR in 479 B.C., and cover a period of "seventy years", ending in the second year of DARIUS HYSTASPIS: i.e. in 409 B.C.

This "threescore and ten years" which is referred to here (2 Chron. 36. 21), is the fulfilment of Lev. 26. 32-35, and has reference to "the LAND".

It is this period of which DANIEL says he "understood by books", as being the number of the years that Jehovah "would accomplish in the Desolations of Jerusalem" (Dan. 9. 2).

The DARIUS here (Dan. 9. 1) is evidently CYRUS, the son of ASTYAGES (see notes on p. 618, and Ap. 57); and as the first year of his reign was 426 B.C., it follows that seventeen years had, then, yet to run before the "Desolations" of the LAND were ended, in 409 B.C.

Hence, DANIEL'S prayer, that follows, resulted in the giving to him the famous prophecy of the "seventy sevens" of years contained in Dan. 9. 20-27.

* In Hebrew manuscripts of the Bible, and the early printed editions of the Hebrew text, these two books are always treated and reckoned as one book: the 685 verses being numbered from the first verse of Ezra to the last verse of Nehemiah; the middle verse of the one book being given by the Massorites as Neh. 3. 32; while of the ten Sedarim (or Cycles for public reading), the fourth begins at Ezra 8. 35 and ends with Neh. 2. 10. See note at foot of p. 632. Moreover, the notes which the Massorites place at the end of each book are placed at the end of Nehemiah, and not at the end of Ezra. Cp. note on the books of SAMUEL, KINGS, and CHRONICLES, p. 366.

The Structure of the one book is set forth as above, the two Divisions being given in their CANONICAL ORDER.

EZRA confines himself mainly to the events connected with the TEMPLE.

NEHEMIAH confines himself mainly to the events connected with the WALL and the CITY.

Ezra comes first in the Canonical Order, because the TEMPLE is more important than the WALL, morally and spiritually.

Nehemiah follows, because the WALL is of secondary importance.

When the whole of the events are looked at in their CHRONOLOGICAL and HISTORICAL order, a different Structure is necessarily observed: this Structure is determined by certain fixed points, common to both Orders. These fixed points determine the place of the remaining events recorded in the two parts respectively. See Table of Events and CHRONOLOGICAL Structure on p. 618, and the Harmony of Events in Ap. 58.

† The letters of this fount (in brackets) correspond with the same letters in the CHRONOLOGICAL Structure on page 617.

NOTES TO THE CHRONOLOGICAL STRUCTURE (p. 617).

The CHRONOLOGICAL ORDER of EVENTS, and the STRUCTURE based thereon, revolutionises the traditional view, which treats this one book as two books; places Ezra historically as preceding Nehemiah; and inserts the book of ESTHER between Ezra, chapters 6 and 7, instead of before Ezra–Nehemiah. (See date, Est. 1. 3.)

Those who thus dislocate the two divisions of this book proceed to speak of certain portions as being "misplaced", and "not original", and as having "false connections". These so-called "discrepancies", after having thus been first made by the commentators, are charged home on the inspired writers themselves.

That the "difficulties" exist only in the minds of the critics will be seen if we note the following facts:—

1. The fixed points, common to the two parts of the book, determine for us the true position of all the other parts, and result in giving us the Chronological Structure of the whole on page 617.

2. The traditional view places the building of the temple by Ezra as coming many years before Nehemiah 1. But this is inconceivable in view of the report brought by Hanani to Nehemiah concerning the desolations (Neh. 1. 3) and repeated to the king (Neh. 2. 3).

3. Nehemiah would surely have inquired about the welfare of the 42,360 exiles who are supposed to have returned to Jerusalem, and not about "the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity" (Neh. 1. 2).

4. When the wall was finished, "the houses were not yet builded" (Neh. 7. 1–4).

5. When the Feast of the seventh month was kept (Neh. 8), "the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid" (Ezra 3. 1–6).

6. When the people dwelt in their "cieled houses", the house of the LORD still lay waste (Hag. 1. 1–4). These facts are more certain than all chronology, and are more important and conclusive than all reasoning.

7. The names of some of the kings mentioned have been hitherto regarded as proper names; whereas, according to Sir Henry Rawlinson, Professor Sayce, The Encyclopædia Britannica, and The Century Encyclopædia of Names, three at least are appellatives (like Pharaoh, Abimelech, Czar, Shah, Sultan); viz. AHASUERUS, which means "The venerable king", ARTAXERXES, which means "The great king", and DARIUS, which means "The maintainer". See the Genealogy of the Persian kings (Ap. 57). If these appellatives denote separate and different individual kings, no place can be found for them all on the page of history.

8. See the longer notes on special passages at the end of Nehemiah, page 658.

°EZRA.

A¹ B (p. 616) (N) (p. 617) 426

1 NOW in the first year of °Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of °the LORD by the °mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, °the LORD stirred up the °spirit of °Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

2 "Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, [1]'The LORD °God of heaven °hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and ℌe hath °charged me to build Him °an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

3 °Who is there among you of all His People? his [2]God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and °build the house of [1]the LORD [2]God of Israel, (ℌe is the [2]God,) which is in Jerusalem.

4 And °whosoever °remaineth in any place where ℌe sojourneth, let °the °men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, °and with goods, and with beasts, beside the free-will offering for the [2]house of °God that is in Jerusalem."

(P) A (p. 619)

5 Then rose up °the °chief of the fathers of °Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose [1]spirit [2]God had raised, to go up to build the house of [1]the LORD which is in Jerusalem.

B a

b

6 And all they that were about them strengthened °their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, beside all that was willingly offered.

7 Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of [1]the LORD, °which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods;

8 Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto °Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.

9 And this is the number of them: thirty °chargers of gold, a thousand °chargers of silver, nine and twenty knives,

10 Thirty basons of gold, silver basons of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did [3]Sheshbazzar bring up with them of the captivity that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

TITLE, Ezra. For the Structure of the two books (Ezra-Nehemiah) as a whole, in their canonical order, see p. 616. For the Structure of the chronological order, see p. 617 and the reasons for it, on p. 618.

The book of Esther precedes (chronologically) the book of Ezra-Nehemiah.

1 Cyrus. The son of Astyages and Esther. See Ap. 57, 58, on the genealogy of the Persian kings. So named nearly 200 years before he was born (Isa. 44. 28).

The book of Esther precedes the book of Ezra-Nehemiah, and Neh. 1. 1—7. 4 precedes Ezra 1. 1–11. See note on Neh. 1. 2. Est. 3. 8; 10. 3, and Ap. 57, 58.

mouth. Cp. 2 Chron. 36. 21–23. Jer. 29. 10–14.

spirit. Heb. rūach. Ap. 9.

2 God. Heb. Elohim. Ap. 4. I.

God of heaven. See note on 2 Chron. 36. 23. Appropriate in the mouth of Cyrus, and in contrast with all heathen inscriptions.

hath given me. The son of Astyages (the venerable king = Ahasuerus) and Esther. Trained by Mordecai and Nehemiah, he was brought up in the knowledge of God and His Word.

charged me to build. Cp. Isa. 44. 24–28; 45. 1–6, 13.

an house. This proclamation put first, as it is the great subject treated of by Ezra.

3 Who is there . . . ? Fig. Erotēsis. Ap. 6.

build = rebuild.

the men of his place: i. e. his Persian neighbours.

men. Heb. 'ĭsh. Ap. 14. II.

God. Heb. Elohim (with Art.) = the [true] God. Ap. 4. I.

5 the chief of the fathers: i. e. those named in the next chapter.

chief = heads.

Judah and Benjamin. But the other tribes found representatives. Cp. 2. 59, 70, where the terms "of Israel" and "all Israel" are used. In 1 Chron. 9. 3, Ephraim and Manasseh are mentioned by name. See note on 1 Kings 12. 17.

6 their hands = them. Put by Fig. Synecdoche (of Part), Ap. 6, for themselves.

7 which Nebuchadnezzar had brought. Cp. 2 Kings 24. 13; 25. 14. 2 Chron. 36. 7. Jer. 27. 18–22; 28. 6; 52. 18, 19. Dan. 1. 2; 5. 2.

8 Sheshbazzar = the Chaldean name of the prince of Judah. Not Zerubbabel, which means born at Babel. Probably = Nehemiah, for he was the son of Hachaliah and Zidkijah (Neh. 10. 1), and therefore a "prince of Judah".

9 chargers = basons or bowls. Heb. 'ăgartāl. In Numbers kᵉ'ārāh, plate or dish. Eng. "charger", from French charger, to load. Hence used of both a dish and a horse.

58 All the [43] Nethinims, and the [1] children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.
59 And these were they which went up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsa, Cherub, Addan, and Immer: but they could not shew their father's house, and their seed, whether they were [o] of Israel:
60 The [1] children of Delaiah, the [1] children of Tobiah, the [1] children of Nekoda, six hundred fifty and two.

d (p. 620) 61 And of the [1] children of the priests: the [1] children of Habaiah, the [1] children of Koz, the [1] children of Barzillai; which took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name:
62 These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore were they, [o] as polluted, put from the priesthood.
63 And the [o] Tirshatha said unto them, that they should [o] not eat of the most [o] holy things, till there stood up a priest [o] with [o] Urim and [o] with Thummim.

c 64 The whole [o] congregation together was [o] forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore, 65 Beside their servants and their [o] maids, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and there were among them two hundred singing men and singing women.
66 Their horses were seven hundred thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty and five;
67 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five; their asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

B b (p. 619) 68 And [o] some of the [o] chief of the fathers, when they came to the house of [o] the LORD which is at Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of [o] God to set it up in his place:

46 Shalmai. Some codices, with one early printed edition, Sept. and Syr., read "Selami".
59 of Israel. See note on 2. 2, and cp. 1 Kings 12. 17.
62 as polluted, put. R.V. = deemed polluted and put. Heb. gā'al, to pollute; not gā'al, to redeem. Supply Ellipsis thus: "therefore were they [rejected] from the priesthood as polluted". So in Neh. 7. 64; 13. 29. Isa. 59. 3; 63. 3. Lam. 4. 14. Zeph. 3. 1. Mal. 1. 7.
63 Tirshatha = governor (Persian title). Here refers to Nehemiah, as in Neh. 8. 9; 10. 1; 12. 26. The Heb. title is Pechah (Neh. 5. 14, 18; 12. 26). Whence the Turkish Pashah. See note on 5. 3.
not eat of the most holy things: i. e. the remains of the meal offering, sin offering, and right shoulder of the peace offerings. Cp. Lev. 2. 3; 10. 12–14, 16, 17. Num. 18. 9, 10.
holy. See note on Ex. 3. 5. with = for.
Urim and with Thummim. See note on Ex. 28. 30. Num. 26. 55.
64 congregation = assembly, or muster.
forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore. This number (42,360) agrees with Neh. 7. 66. The two lists of names are not alike; but there is no "discrepancy". The two lists, while they agree in the numbers, and vary in names, yet have the totals identical. This shows the independence of the two accounts.

65 maids = handmaids.
68 some = a portion. Ezra mentions what one portion gave. Nehemiah (7. 70) mentions what he and two other portions gave. Hence the numbers "perforce" cannot be the same, and there is no "discrepancy".

69 They gave after their ability unto the [o] treasure of the work threescore and one thousand [o] drams of gold, and five thousand [o] pound of silver, and one hundred priests' garments.

70 So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, dwelt in their cities, and [o] all Israel in their cities. a

2 Then stood up °Jeshua the son of °Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and °Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the °God of Israel, to °offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is °written in the law of Moses °the [1] man of God.

3 And they set the altar upon his bases; for fear was upon them because of the °people of those countries: and they [2]offered burnt offerings thereon unto °the LORD, even burnt offerings morning and evening.

f Tisri 15-21

4 They °kept also the feast of tabernacles, °as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day required;

f

5 And afterward offered the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of [3]the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a free-will offering unto [3]the LORD.

e

D

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto [3]the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of [3]the LORD was not yet laid.

C^2 g^1 425

7 They gave money also unto the masons, °and to the °carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to °bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of °Joppa, according to the °grant that they had °of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of °God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to °set forward the work of the house of [3]the LORD.

h^1

9 Then stood Jeshua with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of °Judah, together, to [8]set forward the workmen in the house of [8]God: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

g^2

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of [3]the LORD,

h^2

°they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with °cymbals, to praise [3]the LORD, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.

11 And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto [3]the LORD; because He is good, for His °mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the People °shouted with a great shout, when they praised [3]the LORD, because the foundation of the house of [3]the LORD was laid.

g^3

12 But many of the priests and Levites and °chief of the fathers, °who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes,

h^3

wept with a loud voice; and many °shouted aloud for joy:

15 And I gathered them °together to the river that runneth to °Ahava; and there °abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the People, and the priests, and found there °none of the sons of Levi.

16 Then sent I °for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, °chief men; also for °Joiarib, and for Elnathan, °men of understanding.

17 And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief at the place °Casiphia, and I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the °Nethinims, at the place °Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our °God.

18 And by the good hand of our [17]God upon us they brought us °a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen;

19 And Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty;

20 Also of the [17]Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty [17]Nethinims: all of them were expressed by name.

B b

21 Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river °of [15]Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our [17]God, to seek of Him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

22 For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, "The hand of our [17]God is upon all them for good that seek Him; but His power and His wrath is against all them that forsake Him."

23 So we fasted and besought our [17]God for this: and He was intreated of us.

24 Then I separated twelve of the °chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them,

25 And weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the °offering of the house of our [17]God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his lords, and °all Israel there present, had offered:

26 I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty °talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred °talents, and of gold an hundred °talents;

27 Also twenty °basons of gold, °of a thousand °drams; and two vessels of °fine copper, precious as gold.

28 And I said unto them, "Ye are °holy unto °the LORD; the vessels are °holy also; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering unto °the LORD [17]God of your fathers.

29 Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the [24]chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of [25]Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of [28]the LORD."

30 So took the priests and the Levites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our [17]God.

B b

31 Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem: and the hand of our [17]God was upon us, and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way. 12th Nisan to 4th Ab 32 And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days.

c

33 Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels weighed in the house of our [17]God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Levites;

34 °By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time.

35 °Also the °children of those that had been carried away, which were come out of the captivity, offered burnt offerings unto the [17]God of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering unto [28]the LORD.

36 And they delivered the king's °commissions unto the king's °lieutenants, and to the governors on this side the river: and they furthered the People, and the house of °God.

Thus ends the first part of this book "Ezra-Nehemiah"; not abruptly; as it is followed by the second part, which is concerned mainly with the rebuilding of the city and the walls, instead of with the Temple. THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH.

1 °THE words of °Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month °Chisleu, in the °twentieth year, as °I °was in °Shushan the palace, K L 2 That °Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain °men of Judah; and °I asked them concerning °the Jews that had °escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 And °they said unto me, °"The remnant that are °left of the captivity there in the °Province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is °broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire."

M h k 4 And it came to pass, when I heard °these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and °prayed before the °God of heaven,

5 And said, "I beseech thee, O °LORD ⁴God of heaven, the great and terrible °GOD, That °keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love Him and °observe His commandments:

6 Let Thine °ear now be attentive, and Thine eyes open, that Thou mayest hear the prayer of Thy servant, which I pray before Thee now, day and night, for the °children of Israel Thy servants, l and confess the °sins of the °children of Israel, which we have °sinned against Thee: both °I and my father's house have °sinned.

7 We have dealt very corruptly against Thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which °Thou commandedst °Thy servant Moses.

m 8 Remember, I beseech Thee, the word that ⁷Thou commandedst ⁷Thy servant Moses, saying, °"If ye °transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:

1 The words. Divine revelation in writing must be made up of words (see Ap. 47). The "words" here were written, chronologically, long before the book of Ezra. See the Structures (pp. 616, 617, notes on p. 618; also Ap. 50, 57, and 58).

Nehemiah = comforter of (= appointed by) Jehovah. From 10. 1 he was one of the "princes" (9. 38) who signed the Solemn Covenant: a prince of Judah, for the "king's seed" and "princes" were taken to Babylon (Dan. 1. 3), according to the prophecy in 2 Kings 20. 17, 18. The next who signed was Zidkijah, a son of king Jehoiakim (1 Chron. 3. 16). Hanani (v. 2), his brother or near kinsman (a shortened form of Hananiah, cp. v. 2, and 7. 2), was another "prince", renamed Shadrach (Dan. 1. 3–6), Nehemiah was the Sheshbazzar of Ezra 1. 8.

Five parties seen in action in this book: Nehemiah, Ezra, the People, their enemies, and the God of heaven.

Chisleu. The ninth month. See Ap. 51. III. 4.

twentieth year. See Ap. 50. VI and VII. 5. Cp. 2. 1. Forty-two years from the beginning of the Babylonian Servitude, thirty-five years from Jehoiachin's captivity, and twenty-three years from the destruction of Jerusalem, and the beginning of the Desolations. See special note on p. 615.

I was in Shushan. Like Joseph in Egypt, Obadiah in Samaria, Daniel in Babylon, and the saints in Cæsar's household (Phil. 4. 22). was = came to be.

Shushan. He had been there about sixteen years, and was removed thither from Babylon. Excavations in 1909 by M. de Morgan, at Susa, exposed the remains of three cities. Among them, four black stone pillars, with the Code of Khammurabi (see Ap. 15). Bricks of his palace or temple were also found. Occupied by Babylonians in 2800 B.C. 2 Hanani. Shortened form of Hananiah. Cp. 7. 2. See note above, and cp. Dan. 1. 3, 6. men. Heb. 'ĕnōsh. See Ap. 14. III. I asked. Not about Ezra, and the 42,360 who are supposed to have been already in the Province of Judah: this Nehemiah would surely have done if they had really been there. the Jews. Mentioned eleven times in this book (1. 2; 2. 16; 4. 1, 2, 12; 5. 1, 8, 17; 6. 6; 13. 23, 24). escaped: i. e. from the lands of their captivity. See Jer. 44. 13, 14. Why escape if already set free (Ezra 1. 3)? 3 they said: that which could not have been said if Ezra and his thousands had been already there. The remnant. For the history of this "remnant" see Jer. 40—44. Only a few poor serfs there (Jer. 52. 15, 16). left. Not carried away or returned (Jer. 52. 15, 16). Province = Judah. See Ezra 5. 8. broken down. Just as left by Nebuchadnezzar (2 Kings 25. 9, 10. Jer. 52. 12–14). For the subsequent history see Jer. 40 to 44.

4 Then the king said unto me, "For what dost thou make request?"

h So I prayed to the °God of heaven.

L N n (p. 634) 5 And I said unto the king, "If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it."

6 And the king said unto me, (° the queen also °sitting °by him,) "For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return?" So °it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time.

Artaxerxes = the great king. An appellative (like Pharaoh, Czar, &c.) used of several kings of Persia. Synonymous with Artachshast (Arta = great, and Kshatza = king, preserved in the modern "Shah"). See Ap. 57 and 58. This Artaxerxes was the great king ASTYAGES (of Herodotus), and ARSAMES (of Darius Hystaspis' Inscription), the husband of Esther, and father of Cyrus. He was also the Ahasuerus of Est. 1. 1, which means "the venerable king"; and he was also the "Darius the Mede" of Ezra 6. 14 and Dan. 5. 31. See Ap. 57 and 58.

6 the queen. Heb. ha-shĕgāl = wife. Occurs only here and in Ps. 45. 9. Dan. 5. 2, 3, 23. Not a Heb. word, but borrowed from the Akkadian sha = a bride, and gal = great. Used of a foreign queen. Here it would exactly suit "the great bride" or "foreign (Jewish) queen", Esther. (See notes on the Chronological Structure of Ezra-Nehemiah, p. 618.) Esther is introduced here (parenthetically) because of her sympathy and interest, which Nehemiah so greatly needed at this juncture, as Mordecai had needed it before (Est. 4. 14).

it pleased the king. The fruit of Nehemiah's prayer (v. 4). 7 governors = pashas.

8 forest = park. Heb. pārdēs. A Persian word which occurs only here, Ecc. 2. 5, and Song 4. 13, where it is rendered "orchards". Sept. renders it "paradise", which occurs twenty-eight times: (nine times = Eden, nineteen times = garden, Heb. gan.)

Also put by Fig. Metonymy (Ap. 6) for God's purpose (Acts 4. 28, 30); power (1 Chron. 29. 16); sovereignty (Ps. 31. 15); providence (1 Chron. 29. 16); supply (Ps. 104. 28); prosperity (Neh. 2. 8); security (John 10. 28, 29). God. Heb. It is dated the seventeenth year of Darius Nothos (son of Darius Hystaspis). See Ap. 57 (Nothos = Greek "bastard"). Here ends the fourth of the ten Sedarim (or, Cycles for public reading) which commenced with Ezra 8. 35; thus showing that the two books were and are to be regarded as one. See note on p. 632; and cp. notes on p. 366. Horonite. Not of Beth-horon (Josh. 10. 10), but an alien (ch. 13. 27, 28) of Horonaim, a Moabite. Cp. Isa. 15. 5. Jer. 48. 3, 5, 34. See also the Moabite Stone. Ap. 54.

°Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, °heard of it, °it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a °man to seek the welfare of the °children of °Israel.

O 11 So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three 454 days.

12 And I arose in the night, ℑ and some few °men with me; neither told I any [10]man what my [8]God had put in my heart to do °at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that ℑ rode upon.

13 And I went out °by night by °the gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the dung °port, and °viewed the walls of Jerusalem, °which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to [13]the gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by °the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

n 16 And the °rulers knew not whither ℑ went, or what ℑ °did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, °nor to the priests, °nor to the nobles, °nor to the rulers, °nor to °the rest that did the work.

17 Then said I unto them, "Ye see °the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem [3]lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach."

o 18 Then I told them of the [8]hand of my [8]God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me.

p And they said, "Let us rise up and build." So they strengthened their hands for this °good work.

q 19 But when Sanballat the [10]Horonite, and [10]Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and °Geshem the °Arabian, heard it, °they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, "What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king?"

O 20 Then answered I [them], and said unto them, "The [4]God of heaven, He will prosper us; therefore we His servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem."

H² P R (p. 635) 3 Then °Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they builded °the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the °doors of it; even unto the tower of Meah, they sanctified it, unto the tower of °Hananeel.

2 And °next unto him builded °the men of Jericho. And next to them builded Zaccur the son of Imri.

r¹ (p. 635) 3 But the [3]fish gate did the sons of Hassenaah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and set up the [1]doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

U³ (p. 637) 454 11 And our adversaries said, "They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and °cause the work to cease."

V³ 12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwelt °by them came, they said unto us °ten times, "From all places whence ye shall return unto us °they will be upon you."

W³ s (p. 638) 13 Therefore set I in °the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

t 14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the °rulers, and to the rest of the People, "Be not ye afraid of them: remember °the LORD*, Which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses."

15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and ⁴God had °brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every °one unto his work.

u 16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my °servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the °habergeons; and the °rulers were °behind all the house of Judah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 °For the builders, every ¹⁵one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded.

s And he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

t 19 And I said unto the nobles, and to the ¹⁴rulers, and to the rest of the people, "The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, ¹⁵one far from another.

20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our ⁴God shall fight for us."

u 21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, "Let every ¹⁵one with his ¹⁶servant °lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day."

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my ¹⁶servants, nor °the °men of the guard which followed me, °none of us put off our clothes, saving that every ¹⁵one put them off for washing.

T v 5 And there was °a great cry of °the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews.

w 2 For there were that said, "We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live."

3 Some also there were that said, "We °have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of °the dearth."

4 There were also that said, "We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.

v 5 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our °children as their °children: and, °lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards." w

V W¹ g and they spake unto Ezra the scribe to bring [6]the book of the law of Moses, which [6]the LORD had commanded to Israel.
2 And [6]Ezra the priest brought the law before the [6]congregation both of [1]men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, [6]upon the first day of the seventh month.

X h 3 And he read therein before the [1]street that was before [1]the water gate from the [6]morning until midday, before the [6]men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the People were attentive unto the book of the law.

i 4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a [6]pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and [6]beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, [6]and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

g 5 And Ezra [6]opened the book [6]in the sight of all the People;

6 And Ezra blessed [1]the LORD, the great [6]God. And all the people answered, [6]"Amen, Amen," with [6]lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped [1]the LORD with their faces to the ground.
7 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the People to understand the law: and the People stood in their place.

h 8 So they [6]read in [1]the book in the law of [6]God [6]distinctly, [6]and [6]gave the sense, [6]and [6]caused them to understand the reading.

W² j 9 And [6]Nehemiah, which is the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the People, said unto all the People, "This day is [6]holy unto [1]the LORD your [6]God; mourn not, nor weep." For all the People wept, when they heard the words of the law.

404 fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 Thou gavest also Thy good °spirit to instruct them, [6]and withheldest not Thy °manna from their mouth, and gavest them [15]water for their thirst.

21 Yea, forty years didst Thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their °clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover Thou gavest them kingdoms and °nations, and didst °divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of °Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of °Og king of Bashan.

23 Their [1]children also multipliedst Thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which Thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

24 So the [1]children went in and possessed the land, and Thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the °people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and a °fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, °wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and °delighted themselves in Thy great goodness.

t[3] 26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against Thee, and cast Thy law behind their backs, and °slew Thy prophets which °testified against them to turn them to Thee, and they wrought great provocations.

s[4] 27 Therefore Thou deliveredst them into the hand of their °enemies, who vexed them:

t[4] and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto Thee, s[5] Thou heardest them from heaven; and °according to Thy [18]manifold mercies Thou °gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their °enemies.

t[5] 28 But after they had rest, they did °evil again before Thee:

s[6] therefore leftest Thou them in the hand of their °enemies, so that they had the dominion over them:

t[6] yet when they returned, and cried unto Thee, Thou heardest them from heaven; s[7] and many times didst Thou deliver them °according to Thy mercies;

29 And [26]testifiedst against them, that Thou mightest bring them again unto Thy law:

t[7] yet they [16]dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto Thy commandments, but °sinned against Thy judgments, (which if °a man do, °he shall live in them;) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

s[8] 30 Yet many years didst Thou forbear them, and [26]testifiedst against them by Thy spirit °in Thy prophets:

yet would they not give ear: t[8] therefore gavest Thou them into the hand of the [24]people of the lands. s[9]

31 Nevertheless for Thy great mercies' sake Thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for Thou art a gracious and merciful °GOD.

A[2] 32 Now therefore, our [3]God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible [31]GOD, Who keepest covenant and °mercy, let not all the trouble seem little before Thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, °and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all Thy People, since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day.

B[2] 33 Howbeit Thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for Thou hast done right, but °we °have done wickedly:

34 Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept Thy law, nor hearkened unto Thy commandments and Thy testimonies, wherewith Thou didst [26]testify against them.

35 For they have not served Thee in their kingdom, and in Thy great goodness that Thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which Thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their °wicked works.

1 those that sealed. These are stated by the Talmudical writings, and the unanimous voice of tradition, to have formed "The Great Synagogue". It consisted at first of 120 members, but was afterward reduced to seventy. It represented the five divisions of the nation: (1) the chiefs of the priests; (2) the chief Levites; (3) the chiefs of the people; (4) the representatives of the cities; (5) the doctors of the law. Its work was (by solemn oath): (1) not to intermarry with the heathen; (2) to keep the sabbath; (3) to keep the sabbatical year; (4) to pay annually ⅓ of a shekel to the temple; (5) to supply wood for the altar; (6) to pay the priestly dues; (7) to collect and preserve the canonical scriptures. The Great Synagogue lasted 110 years: from Nehemiah to Simon the Just, when, having completed its work, it became known as the Sanhedrim of the N.T., the supreme council of the Jewish nation; which rejected the kingdom, and crucified the King (Messiah).

24 And the [7]chief of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of David °the °man of °God, ward over against ward.
25 Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the °ward at the °thresholds of the gates.
26 These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the °governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.

E L[1]O[1] (p. 650) 27 And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both °with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

P[1] 28 And the sons of °the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the °plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophathi;

29 Also from °the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the People, and the gates, and the wall. P[2]

31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, O[2] and appointed two great °companies of them that gave thanks, N Q[1] whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall toward the dung gate: R[1] 32 And after them went °Hoshaiah, and half of the princes of Judah, 33 And Azariah, °Ezra, and Meshullam,

34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah, 35 And certain of the priests' sons with

403 trumpets; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph:

36 And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments °of David [24] the man of [24] God, and Ezra the scribe before them.

37 And at the fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by °the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water gate eastward.

N R² (p. 650) 38 And the other [31] company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and ℨ after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces even unto the broad wall;

39 And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above the old gate, and above the fish gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto the sheep gate: and they stood still in the prison gate.

Q² 40 So stood the two [31] companies of them that gave thanks °in the house of [24] God,

M O³ and ℨ, and the half of the rulers with me:

41 And the priests; Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

42 And Maasciah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.

P³ 43 Also that day they °offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for [24] God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the °children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

P⁴ 44 And at that time were °some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the °offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather °into them out of the fields of the cities the portions °of the law for the priests and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites that waited.

O¹ 45 And both the singers and the porters kept the °ward of their °God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.

46 For in the days of David and Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto [45] God.

47 And °all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion: and they sanctified holy things unto the Levites; and the Levites sanctified them unto the °children of Aaron.

L² S x (p. 651) 13 °On that day they read in °the book of Moses in the audience of the People; and therein °was found written, that the Ammonite and the °Moabite should not come into the °congregation of °God for ever;

2 °Because they met not the °children of Israel with bread and with water, but °hired Balaam against °them, that he should °curse them: howbeit our °God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the °mixed multitude. y

4 °And before this, Eliashib the priest, having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our [2] God, was allied unto Tobiah: x

5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the °meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the °new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the °offerings of the priests.

408 °Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and after certain days °obtained I leave of the king:
7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the °evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of [1]God.
y (p. 651) 8 And it grieved me sore: therefore °I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.
9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of [1]God, with the [5]meat offering and the frankincense.
T z (p. 652) 10 And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every °one to his field.
a 11 Then contended I with the rulers, and said, "Why is the house of [1]God forsaken?" And I gathered them together, and set them in their place.
12 Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new [5]wine and the oil unto the treasuries.
13 And °I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and °next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of °Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute unto their brethren.
b 14 Remember me, O my [1]God, concerning this, and wipe not out my °good deeds that I have done for the house of my [1]God, and for the °offices thereof.
T z 15 In those days saw I in Judah some treading °wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.
16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the [2]children of Judah, °and in Jerusalem.
a 17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, "What [7]evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day?
18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our [1]God bring all this [7]evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by °profaning the °sabbath."
19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day.
20 So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.
21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, "Why °lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you." From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.
22 And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day.
b Remember me, O my [1]God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the °greatness of Thy °mercy.
S U 23 In those days also saw I Jews that °had married wives of °Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:

LONGER NOTES ON SPECIAL PASSAGES IN NEHEMIAH.

2. 1 the twentieth year. The "seventy sevens" of Dan. 9. 24-27 begin here (454 B.C.).
The "seven sevens" (Dan. 9. 25), or forty-nine years begin here, and end in 405 B.C.; marked by the completion and dedication of the second Temple.
The "threescore and two sevens" (Dan. 9. 26), or 434 years begin (or rather, follow on) in 405 B.C., and end in A.D. 29, the year of the Cross.
The last "seven" is therefore, still future.
The first four of the "seven sevens" ended in 426 B.C., marked by the Decree of Cyrus, which ended the Babylonian Servitude of seventy years. See Ap. 50, 57, and 58.

5. 14-19 Moreover from the time that I was appointed, &c. Verses 14-19 are put within brackets for the following reasons:
As Nehemiah's record must have been written many years later, after the dedication both of the Temple (405 B.C.) and the Wall (403 B.C.), the reference to his policy during the twelve years of his governorship, from the twentieth to the thirty-second year of ARTAXERXES (DARIUS HYSTASPIS, 419-407 B.C.), is introduced here, in order to emphasise the contrast between the rapacity of "the nobles and rulers" (5. 7), and his own conduct. For he says that, not only at that time (454 B.C.) did he not exploit the people for his own advantage, but that during his governorship (which ended in 407 B.C., some four or five years at least before the time of his writing the final record, more than forty years later than 454), when, according to Eastern views, he would have been justified in getting as much as he could out of his office, he not only lived entirely at his own charges but supported others also. See note below on 13. 4-9.

7. 4 the houses were not builded = no sign of houses being built. This statement refers to the permanent stable habitations of the city proper which Haggai speaks of as being in existence forty-four years later (Hag. 1. 4, 9). The word bayith, house, means a dwelling, and in 2. 3 and 3. 31 is rendered "place", which clearly indicates its meaning in these passages. Among the ruined houses left by Nebuchadnezzar many might easily have been made habitable sufficiently to fulfil the conditions of 8. 16.

7, 5 I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first. It must be borne in mind that Nehemiah wrote long after this date (426 B.C.); probably between 403 and 400 B.C. It is quite natural therefore that he should write of finding such a book as this. When he says, "I found a book", &c., it does not mean that Nehemiah found or discovered the register at that time; but, writing long after, he says, "I find that the list of names was, so and so", &c.

13. 4-9 And before this . . . the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon (13. 6). The ARTAXERXES (= great king) here is DARIUS HYSTASPIS. The record here must have been written after the dedication of both Temple (405 B.C.) and Wall (403 B.C.). The thirty-second year is that of the king's age, not of his reign, for he only succeeded CAMBYSES in 411 B.C. His twentieth year (5. 14) was 419 B.C., when, on the death of Cyrus, NEHEMIAH was "appointed" to be "governor in the land of Judah".
Consequently Nehemiah's twelve years of governorship end in 407 B.C., two years before the completion and dedication of the Temple, and when DARIUS HYSTASPIS had been reigning three years.
In that year (407) NEHEMIAH evidently receives a report from his deputy (probably HANANI still) as to the Temple progress, and doubtless of the ELIASHIB-TOBIAH scandal. He determines to go himself, obtains leave of absence (with difficulty, apparently, 13. 6), and comes to Jerusalem. Arriving there, he "understands" the evil concerning Eliashib, casts forth TOBIAH and his "stuff", and hurries on the Temple work towards completion.

THE °BOOK OF ESTHER.

1 °Now it came to pass in the days of °Ahasuerus, (°this is Ahasuerus which reigned, °from India even unto Ethiopia, over °an hundred and seven and twenty provinces:)

2 That °in those days, when the king 'Ahasuerus °sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in °Shushan the °palace,

3 In °the third year of his reign, he made °a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the °power of °Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him:

b 4 When he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even °an hundred and fourscore days.

a 5 And when these days were expired, the king made [3]a feast unto all the people that were present in Shushan the [2]palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's °palace;

6 Where were white, green, and blue, hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the °beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black, marble.

7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (°the vessels being diverse one from another,) and royal °wine in abundance, according to the state of the king.

8 And the drinking was according to the °law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every °man's pleasure.

9 Also °Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

TITLE, Book of Esther. One of the five Megilloth. For its place in the Hebrew Canon see Ap. 1. Read at the Feast of Purim. Comes chronologically thus: (1) Daniel; (2) Esther; (3) Nehemiah; (4) Ezra. The Divine name does not occur, except five times in the form of an Acrostic (Ap. 6). See Ap. 60, and notes on Est. 1. 20; 5. 4, 13; 7. 5, 7.

an hundred and seven and twenty provinces. Dan. 6. 1 says 120 princes. The number continually altered to suit the requirements of government. Only in Dan. 6. 1 do we find 120. Plato says that "when Darius (i.e. 'the Maintainer' = Astyages) came to the throne, being one of the seven, he divided the country into seven portions" (De Legibus iii). These are the seven named in vv. 13, 14. When Babylon afterward fell into his hands, he divided his newly acquired kingdom into 120 parts (Dan. 9. 1. Cp. 6. 1). Why should he not have added these to the seven he already possessed, and thus have made the 127 of Est. 1. 1; 9. 30? In the later days of Darius (Hystaspis) these had reduced to twenty-three, as stated and named on the Behistûn inscription.

6 Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with °Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had °carried away.

7 And he brought up °Hadassah, that is, °Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither °father nor mother, and the [4]maid was fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her f¹ father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.

B² 656) 8 So it came to pass, when the king's °commandment and his °decree was heard, and when many [4]maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the [3]custody of Hegai, C² f² that [7]Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And the [4]maiden pleased him, and she °obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven [4]maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he °preferred her and her [4]maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

e² 10 Esther had °not shewed her People nor her kindred: for [5]Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it.

11 And [5]Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, °to know how [7]Esther did, and what should become of her.

B³ 12 Now when every [4]maid's turn was come to go in to king [1]Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, °(for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women;)

13 Then thus came every [4]maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the [3]custody of Shaashgaz, the king's [3]chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

C³ f³ 15 Now when the turn of [7]Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's [3]chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And [7]Esther [9]obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So [7]Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month °Tebeth, in the °seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved [7]Esther above all the women, and she [9]obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the [1]virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of [1]Vashti.

18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even [7]Esther's feast; and he made a °release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king.

e³ 19 And °when the [1]virgins were gathered together the second time, then [5]Mordecai °sat in the king's gate.

No such secrecy would have been necessary, and no thought of allowing the People, whom he had just emancipated, to be exterminated, as is described in the book of Esther: But Cyrus, being her son, would be carefully prepared by her and Mordecai to begin his reign by such emancipation from Babylon (note, not from Shushan: cp. 4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether [2]Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

E l 5 And when Haman saw that [2]Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on [2]Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the People of Mordecai: wherefore °Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of [1]Ahasuerus, even the People of [2]Mordecai.

J o 5 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's [4]chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a °commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was.

6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate.

p 7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of °the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them.

8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the [3]decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her People.

9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

J o 10 Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him [5]commandment unto Mordecai;

11 "All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether °man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one °law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days."

p 12 And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.

13 Then Mordecai °commanded to answer Esther, "Think not with °thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there °enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and °who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

H 15 Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer,

16 "Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink °three days, night or day: I also and my [4]maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the [11]law: and if °I perish, I perish."

G² K 3rd Nisan 462

5 Now it came to pass on °the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the °inner court of the king's house, °over against the king's house: and the king sat °upon his royal throne in the royal house, °over against the °gate of the house.

462 2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she °obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre.

L q (p. 659) 3 Then said the king unto her, "What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the half of the °kingdom."

r 4 And Esther answered, "If it seem good unto the king, °LET THE KING AND HAMAN COME THIS DAY unto the banquet that I have prepared for him."

q 5 Then the king said, "Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said."

r So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

K 6 And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, °"What is thy °petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy °request?

L s even to the half of the °kingdom it shall be performed."

t (p. 659) 7 Then answered Esther, and said, "My petition and my request is;

8 If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will °do to morrow as the king hath said."

s 9 Then went Haman forth that day joyful and with a glad heart:

t u but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he °stood not up, nor °moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai.

v 10 Nevertheless Haman refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and °Zeresh his wife.

11 And Haman °told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his °children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

v 12 Haman said moreover, "Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and to morrow am I invited unto her also with the king.

u 13 Yet all °THIS AVAILETH ME NOTHING, so long as I see °Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate."

14 Then said [10]Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, "Let a °gallows be made of fifty °cubits high, and °to morrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet." And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the °gallows to be made.

E' K 2 And it was found written, that °Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the °door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

3 And the king said, "What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this?" Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, "There is nothing done for him."

J 4 And the king said, "Who is in the court?" °(Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the °gallows that he had prepared for him.)

5 And the king's servants said unto him, °"Behold, Haman °standeth in the court." And the king said, "Let him °come in."

462 6 So Haman °came in. And the king said unto him, "What shall be done unto the °man whom the king delighteth to honour?" Now Haman °thought in his heart, "To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself?"

7 And Haman answered the king, "For the [6]man whom the king delighteth to honour,

8 Let the royal apparel be brought which the king useth to wear, °and the horse that the king rideth upon, °and the crown royal which is set upon his head:

9 [8]And let this apparel [8]and horse be delivered to the hand of °one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, [8]and bring him on horseback through the street of the city, [8]and proclaim before him, 'Thus shall it be done to the [6]man whom the king delighteth to honour.'"

H 10 Then the king said to Haman, °"Make 654) haste, and take the apparel and the horse, °as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken."

11 Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, "Thus shall it be done unto the [6]man whom the king delighteth to honour."

C² 7 So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen.

D³ 2 And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine,

K "What is thy °petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy °request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the °kingdom."

L 3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, "If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let °my life be given me at my petition, and my People at my request:

4 For we °are °sold, to be °destroyed, to be °slain, and to °perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not °countervail the king's damage."

K 5 Then the king Ahasuerus °answered and said unto Esther the queen, °"WHO IS °HE, AND WHERE IS HE, that durst presume in his heart to do so?"

6 And Esther said, "The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman." Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen.

7 And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his °life to Esther the queen; for he saw °THAT THERE WAS °EVIL DETERMINED AGAINST HIM by °the king.

8 Then the king returned out of the [7]palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the °bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, °"Will he force the queen also before me in the house?" As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, °"Behold also, the °gallows fifty °cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman." Then the king said, "Hang him thereon."

10 So °they hanged Haman on the [9]gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

C³ (p. 654) 462

8 °On that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman °the Jews' enemy unto Esther the queen.

D¹

And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was unto her.

2 And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and °gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai °over the house of Haman.

E¹ M

3 And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the °mischief of °Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

4 Then the king held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king,

5 And said, °"If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy °the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:

6 For how can I endure to see the °evil that shall come unto my People? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?"

N w (p. 662)

7 Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew,

x y

°"Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the °gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews.

z a

8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it °liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring; for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, °may no man reverse."

9 Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the month °Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai °commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every People after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

23rd Sivan 461

10 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by °posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries:

x y

11 Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for °their life, to °destroy, to °slay, and to cause to °perish, all the °power of the people and province that would assault them, both °little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey,

10 The ten sons. In all Heb. MSS. and printed editions these ten names are written with the word vᵉēth, being the demonstrative pronoun = self, or this same, or himself, thus:

vᵉēth	Parshandatha,
vᵉēth	Dalphon,
vᵉēth	Aspatha,
vᵉēth	Poratha,
vᵉēth	Adalia,
vᵉēth	Aridatha,
vᵉēth	Parmashta,
vᵉēth	Arisai,
vᵉēth	Aridai,
vᵉēth	Vajezatha.

It has been suggested that it is because they were hanged one above another. But, as each Hebrew character is a number as well as a letter, the numerical value of these names (regarded as an addition sum) amounts to 10,244, or 13 × 788; while Haman the Agagite = 117 (13 × 9), and Zeresh = 507 (13 × 39), and the whole family = 10,868 (13 × 836). See Ap. 10 for the significance of this. On the other hand, 'Eth-Hadassah hi' Esther (2. 7) adds up 1,152 = 8 × 12², and "Mordecai", son of Jair, son of Shimei, son of Kish, a Benjamite (2. 5), adds up 1,912 = (8 × 239). See Ap. 10. the enemy of the Jews. See note on 3. 10. slew they. See note on "Benjamite" (2. 5). laid they not their hand. Cp. note on "take the spoil" (3. 13). They probably remembered taking the spoil instead of obeying in 1 Sam. 15. Hence the emphasis on this in vv. 10, 15, 16. 13 let Haman's ten sons be hanged. One of the ten deaths occasioned or obtained by women. See note on Judg. 4. 21. be hanged. Not alive, but hanged up after death. They were slain in conflict first. See vv. 6, 7. 14 commanded. N¹ c² (p. 663) 461 15 For the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, d² and slew three hundred [2]men at Shushan;

e¹ but on the prey they [10]laid not their hand.

c³ 16 But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, l 19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

N³ f 20 And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far, h 23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them;

24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, [10]the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them;

f 25 But when Esther came before the king, he [14]commanded by letters that his wicked °device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

* Note that by this grand Introversion the ministry of ELIHU, the Mediator, is placed in the middle, summing up the ministry of JOB'S three friends, and introducing the ministry of JEHOVAH.

NOTE ON THE DATE AND AUTHORSHIP OF THE BOOK OF JOB.

A lengthened account of the discussion of these questions would be without profit.

But, if JOB was the son of ISSACHAR (Gen. 46. 13), then we have a clue that may help us to a decision of both.

It is better to keep within the Bible itself for the settlement of its problems; and to treat the whole Book as the context of all its parts.

There is no reason why JOB should not be the son of ISSACHAR, and no better evidence is forthcoming for a different view.

The three friends of Job were descendants of ESAU; they would therefore be contemporaries.

ELIPHAZ, of TEMAN, in Idumea, was a son of ESAU, and had a son called TEMAN, from whom his country took its name (Gen. 36. 10, 11). It was noted for its "wise men" (Jer. 49. 7); and is mentioned with EDOM (Amos 1 11, 12). Compare Jer. 25. 23, where both are connected with BUZ, the brother of Uz (Gen. 22. 21).

BILDAD the Shuhite. SHUAH was the sixth son of ABRAHAM by KETURAH (Gen. 25. 2); and is mentioned in connection with ESAU, EDOM, and TEMAN (Jer. 49. 8).

ZOPHAR the Naamathite. NAAMAH (now Nā'aneh, six miles south of Lod, in the lowlands of Judah).

If JOB was the son of ISSACHAR (Gen. 46. 13), he would have gone down to Egypt with his father.

ISSACHAR was forty at "the going down to Egypt". (See Ap. 50. III, p. 52.)

If JOB was the third son (Gen. 46. 13), he would have been about twenty at that time (1706 B. C.).

We are told that he lived 140 years after his "double" blessing (42. 10). If that "double" blessing included length of years, then his age would have been 70 + 140 = 210 (i. e. three seventies of years). His lifetime would be from 1726-1516 B. C.

According to this, he was born the year after JOSEPH was sold, and died 119 years after the death of JOSEPH (in 1635 B. C.). When JOSEPH died, JOB was ninety-one. If his "double" blessing did include length of years, then his affliction took place twenty-one years previously, when he was seventy. His removal from EGYPT to Uz must therefore have taken place earlier still.

When JOB died (1516 B. C.) MOSES was fifty-five, and had been in MIDIAN fifteen years (twenty-five years before the Exodus).

This would account for JOB being a worshipper of the God of ABRAHAM, and explains how Moses could have been the author of the book, and perhaps an eye- and ear-witness of the events it records in Midian. If so, the time has come (as Dr. Stier foretold and hoped[1]) when this book would be regarded as "the Porch of the Sanctuary"; and when this "fundamental wisdom of original revelation will cease to be ascribed, as it now is by some of the best, to a later poet in Israel".

°THE BOOK OF JOB.

A A (p. 667) 26-1516

1 °THERE °was a °man in the land of °Uz, whose name was °Job; and °that °man °was °perfect and upright, and one that feared °God, and eschewed °evil.

B 2 And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters.

C 3 His substance also was seven thousand sheep, °and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great household;

C so that this [1]man was the greatest of all the °men of the east.

B 4 And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every °one °his day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

A 5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting °were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and °offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, "It may be that my sons have °sinned, and °cursed [1]God in their hearts." Thus did Job continually.

B D a 6 Now there [1]was a day when the °sons of [1]God came to °present themselves before °the LORD, and °Satan came also among them.

TITLE, The Book of Job has always formed an integral part of the Hebrew Canon; and some fifty-seven passages in it are quoted or referred to in the other books of the Bible. See Ap. 61.

The object of the book is to show "the end of the LORD" (Jas. 5. 11): the end to which Job was brought in 40. 4, 5; 42. 5, 6; viz. the confession of human impotence in attaining righteousness, and thankfully casting himself on Divine omnipotence for salvation. All tends to this "end". The three friends show the impotence of human experience (Eliphaz), human tradition (Bildad), and human merit (Zophar). Elihu points to God as the giver of a Divine righteousness for helpless guilty sinners. See note on p. 666.

c 8 And [5]the LORD said unto [6]Satan, "Hast thou considered My servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a [1]perfect and an upright [1]man, one that feareth [1]God, and escheweth [c]evil?"

d 9 Then [6]Satan answered [5]the LORD, and said, [d]"Doth Job fear [1]God for nought?

10 [d]Hast not Thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? Thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.

e 12 And [6]the LORD said unto [6]Satan, [e]"Behold, all that he hath is in thy [e]power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand."

f So [6]Satan went forth from the presence of [6]the LORD.

g 13 And [c]there [f]was [c]a day when his sons and 16 [c]While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, [c]"The fire of [1]God is fallen from heaven, [14]and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee."

17 [16]While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, "The Chaldeans made out three bands, [14]and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee."

18 [16]While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, "Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking [13]wine in their eldest brother's house:

19 And, [c]behold, there came a great [c]wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee."

h 20 Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and [c]shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped,

21 And said, "Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: [6]the LORD gave, and [6]the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of [6]the LORD."

i 22 In all [c]this Job [c]sinned not, nor charged [1]God [c]foolishly.

JOB'S LAMENTATION.

3. 3–26 (G¹, above).

L¹ (p. 669)
3 Perish the day when born I was to be,
Or night which said a man-child is brought forth.
4 That day! may it be darkness evermore;
Let not Eloah care for it above,
And let not light shed on it one clear ray.
5 Let darkness stain it and the shade of death.
Let densest clouds upon it settle down;
Let gathering darkness fill it with alarm.
6 That night! Let darkness take it for its own;
Be it not joyous, 'mid the other days,
Nor come into the number of the months.

7 °Lo, let that night be solitary, let no joyful voice come therein.
8 Let them curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up °their mourning.
9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be °dark; °let it look for light, but have none; neither let it see the dawning of the day:

M¹ (p. 669)

10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.

L²

11 °Why died I not °from the womb? why did I not °give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?
12 ||Why did °the knees °prevent me? or why the breasts that I should suck?

M²

13 For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept: then had I been at rest, 14 With kings and counsellors of the earth, which built °desolate places for themselves;
15 Or with princes that had gold, who filled their houses with silver:
16 Or as an hidden untimely birth I had not been; as infants which never saw light.
17 There the °wicked cease from troubling; and there the °weary be at rest.
18 There the prisoners rest together; they hear not the voice of the °oppressor.
19 The small and great are there; and the servant is free from his °master.

L³

20 °Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the bitter in °soul;
21 Which °long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than for hid treasures;
22 Which rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find the °grave?
23 °Why is light given to a ³man whose way is hid, and whom °GOD hath hedged in?

M³

24 For my sighing cometh before °I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters.
25 For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me.
26 I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet; yet trouble came."

24 I eat = my food.

4. 1—5. 27 [For Structure see next page].

1 answered and said = replied and said. The idiom (Ap. 6) requires that the first verb (where nothing has been as yet said) must be rendered according to the context: "spake", "prayed", "began", "concluded", &c. Here it = replied and said. See note on Deut. 1. 41.
2 assay = attempt, or try. to commune = a word.
who . . . ? Fig. Erotēsis. Ap. 6.

7 Lo! let that night be cheerless evermore;
And let no joyful sound be heard therein.
8 Let those engaged in banning days curse this;
Those ready e'en to rouse Leviathan.
9 Let all the twilight stars thereof be dark:
Let it look forth for light, but look in vain;
Nor ever see the eyelids of the dawn.

M¹

10 Because it shut not up my mother's womb,
And from mine eyes hid all this misery.

L²

11 Why should I not have died within the womb?
Or, when brought forth, why not have then expired?
12 Wherefore were [nursing] knees prepared for me?
Or why were breasts [prepared] that I should suck?

M²

13 For then, in silence had I been laid down;
I should have sunk to sleep and been at rest
14 With monarchs and with counsellors of Earth;
(The men who build their mouldering monuments),
15 With princes who [in life] possessed much gold,
(And who, with silver, had their houses filled).
16 Would I had been but an untimely birth,
Like stillborn babes which never see the light.
17 For there the wicked cause no more annoy.
And there the wearied ones [at last] find rest:
18 Together with them captives find repose,
And hear no more the harsh taskmasters' voice.
19 The small and great alike are gathered there;
The servant from his masters is set free.

20 Wherefore unto the toilworn gives He light? L³
Or life [prolongs] to the embittered soul?
21 (To those who look for death that cometh not,
And seek for it as those who treasure seek,
22 Who would rejoice with exultation—yea!
Be glad indeed, if they could find the grave).
23 The grave—'Tis for the man whose way is hid,
For him whom GOD hath hedged round about.

24 For sighing cometh in, in place of food, M³
My groanings are like water poured forth.
25 For, that which I so feared hath come on me,
And what I dreaded, that hath come to me.
26 I was not careless; nor did feel secure;
Nor rested without thought: yet, trouble came.

q (p. 672)

19 In troubles six He will deliver thee;
Yea! e'en in seven shall no misfortune harm.
20 In famine He will ransom thee from death;
In battle from the power of the sword;
21 In slander thou shalt be in safety hid;
And when destruction comes thou shalt not fear:
22 At dearth and devastation thou wilt laugh;
And of the beasts thou shalt not be afraid.
23 For with the field stones thou wilt be in league;
And e'en wild beasts shall be at peace with thee.
24 Yea, thou shalt know that peace is in thy tent;
And, looking through thy home, wilt nothing miss.
25 And thou shalt know thy offspring numerous;
Thy progeny as herbage of the field:
26 And thou, in ripe old age unto thy grave Shalt come; like sheaves in harvest gathered in.

N l 27- Lo! this we well have pondered; so it is:

m -27 Hear it, and treasure it for thine own good.

JOB'S REPLY TO ELIPHAZ'S FIRST ADDRESS.
6. 1—7. 21 (K¹, p. 669).

2 Oh, that my woe could be exactly weighed,
And my bemoaning set in scale therewith! K¹ S (p. 673)
3 The woe more heavy than the sand would weigh:
'Tis this that makes my utterances wild.
4 For Shaddai's arrows now [stick fast] in me,
The heat whereof my spirit drinketh up:
GOD'S terrors now against me are arrayed.
5 Will the wild ass o'er tender herbage bray?
Or lows the ox while fodder he doth eat?
6 Can tasteless food be eaten without salt?
Or is there any taste in white of egg?
7 The very things my soul refus'd to touch
Are, as it were, my uninviting food.

8 Oh, that my prayer might come [before my God]: T
That Eloah would grant my heart's desire:
9 That it would Eloah please to crush me quite:
That He would loose His hand, and cut me off.

1656 10 Then should I yet have comfort; yea,
°I would harden myself in sorrow: let Him not spare; for I have not concealed the words of the Holy One.
11 °What is my strength, that I should hope?
and °what is mine end, that I should prolong my °life?
12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh of brass?
13 Is not my help in me? and is °wisdom driven quite from me?

U (p. 673) 14 To him that is afflicted pity should be shewed from his friend; but he forsaketh the fear of 'THE ALMIGHTY.
15 My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook, and as °the stream of brooks they pass away;
16 Which are blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid:
17 What time they wax warm, they vanish:
when it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.
18 The paths of their way are turned aside;
they go °to nothing, and perish.
19 The °troops of Tema looked, the °companies of Sheba waited for them.
20 They were confounded because they had hoped; they came thither, and were ashamed.
21 For now ye are nothing; ye see my casting down, and are afraid.

U 22 °Did I say, 'Bring unto me?' or, 'Give a reward for me of your °substance?'
23 Or, 'Deliver me from the enemy's hand?'
or, 'Redeem me from the hand of the °mighty?'
24 Teach me, and I will hold my tongue:
and cause me to understand wherein I have erred.
25 How forcible are right °words! but what doth your arguing °reprove?
26 Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as °wind?
27 Yea, ye overwhelm the fatherless, and ye dig a pit for your friend.

10 I would harden, &c. Occurs only here. = Let me even exult in my anguish (should He not spare) that I have not concealed, &c.
11 What . . . ? Fig. Erotēsis. Ap. 6. Continued in vv. 12, 13. life = soul. Heb. nephesh. Ap. 13.
13 wisdom = stability. See note on Prov. 2. 7.
15 the stream of brooks. Heb. 'ăphīḳ = a torrent restrained in a narrow channel, natural or artificial, open as in a gorge, or covered as in an aqueduct, passing away, inaccessible, and out of sight. See note on first occurrence, 2 Sam. 22. 16.
18 to nothing = into a waste. Heb. tohū, as in Gen. 1. 2.
19 troops = caravans.
companies = travellers.
22 Did I say . . . ? Fig. Erotēsis. Ap. 6. Continued in v. 23.
substance. Heb. strength; put by Fig. Metonymy (of Adjunct), Ap. 6, for what is produced by it.
23 mighty = adversary. Cp. chs. 1 and 2.
25 words = sayings.
reprove = convince, or confute: i. e. what can a reproof from you reprove? See translation, below.
26 wind. Heb. rūach. Ap. 9.

7. 1 Is there not . . . ? Fig. Erotēsis. Ap. 6. an appointed time = a warfare. Cp. 14. 14.
man = mortal man. Heb. 'ĕnōsh. Ap. 14. III.
are not . . . ? Fig. Erotēsis. Ap. 6.
2 the shadow = the shade: i. e. daytime.
work. Put by Fig. Metonymy (of Effect), Ap. 6, for the wages or reward gained by work: i. e. evening.

28 Now therefore be content, look upon me;
for it is evident unto you if I lie.
29 Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity;
yea, return again, my righteousness is in it.
30 °Is there iniquity in my tongue? °cannot my taste discern perverse things?

T 7 °Is there not °an appointed time to °man upon earth? °are not his days also like the days of an hireling?
2 As a servant earnestly desireth °the shadow, and as an hireling looketh for the reward of his °work:

---

10 I then should comfort find; yea, e'en in this,— (Though HE spare not, that I could yet endure),—
The Holy One whom I have not yet denied.
11 But what then is my strength, that I should hope?
Or what mine end, though I be patient still?
12 My strength; has it become the strength of stones?
Or has my flesh become like flesh of brass?
13 [Alas!] if my help lie not in myself,
All that is stable hath been driv'n from me.

U (p. 673) 14 E'en to th' afflicted, love is due from friends;
E'en though the fear of Shaddai he forsake.
15 But MY friends prove illusive, like a brook;
Like streams whose flowing waters disappear,
16 And are not seen by reason of the ice,
[Or of the] snow, which, falling, covers them.
17 What time it waxeth warm, the streams dry up;
When it is hot they vanish from their place:
18 They turn aside from out their usual course;
Are lost; and gone up into empty air.
19 The caravans of Tema look about;
The travellers of Sheba long for them.
20 They feel ashamed that they had trusted them.
They reach the spot; they stand; and are amazed.

21 [And thus it is with you]. Ye come to me;
Ye see a fearful sight; and are dismayed.

U 22 Came ye because I said, "Give aught to me?"
Or, "Of your substance bring to me a gift?"
23 Or, "Snatch me from the adversary's power?"
Or, "Ransom me from the oppressor's hand?"
24 Teach me, I pray; and I will hold my peace!
And make me understand where I have erred.
25 How forcible are words of uprightness!
But wherein doth your arguing convince?
26 Do YE reprove by fast'ning on MY words,
When one in sheer despair-[at random] speaks
27 Like to the wind? Orphans ye might as well
Assail; and on your friend's disasters feast.
28 Be satisfied then. Do but look on me.
And 'twill be plain to you if I speak false.
29 Return, I pray you; let not wrong prevail;
Yea, turn again; my cause is truly just.
30 Is there, I ask, perverseness in MY tongue?
And can I not discern iniquity?

T 7 Is not a mortal's life a warfare here
On earth? and as a hireling's day, his days?
2 As [weary] labourer panteth for the shade,
And as the hireling longeth for his wage,

1656 3 So am I made to possess months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.
4 When I lie down, I say, 'When shall I arise, and the night be gone?' and I am full of tossings to and fro unto the °dawning of the day.
5 My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become loath-some.
6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.
7 O remember that my life is °wind: mine eye shall no more see good.
8 The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: Thine eyes are upon me, and I am not.
9 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away: so he that goeth down to °the grave shall come up no more.
10 He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place °know him any more.

S (p. 673) 11 Therefore ℨ will not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my °spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my °soul.
12 °Am ℨ a sea, or a °whale, that Thou settest a °watch °over me?
13 When I say, 'My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my °complaint;' 14 Then Thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions:
15 So that my [11]soul chooseth strangling, and death °rather than my °life.
(16 I °loathe it; I would not live alway): let me alone; for my days are vanity.
17 °What is [1]man, that Thou shouldest magnify him? and that Thou shouldest set Thine heart upon him?
18 And that Thou shouldest visit him °every morning, and try him every moment?
19 How long wilt Thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?
20 I have sinned; what shall I do unto Thee,
O Thou Preserver of °men? why hast Thou set me as a mark against Thee, so that I am a burden °to myself?

16 loathe [it] = loathe [life], v. 16 is parenthetical, being the thought of suicide, which intrudes itself upon him.

8 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and J² V (p. 675) said,

and how long shall the °words of thy mouth be like a strong °wind?

3 So I inherit months of vanity;
And nights of weariness have been my lot.
4 As soon as I lie down to sleep, I say:
'How long till I arise, and night be gone?'
And I am full of tossings till the dawn.
5 My flesh is clothed with worms, and clods of earth;
My broken skin heals up; then runs afresh.
6 Swifter than weaver's shuttle are my days,
And they are spent without a gleam of hope.
7 Remember that my life is but a breath,
Mine eye shall not again enjoyment see.
8 The eyes that see me now, will see no more,
But Thine will see me, though I shall not be.
9 As wasted cloud that vanishes away,
So he that goes to Sheōl comes not back;
10 No more doth he return unto his house.
The place that knew him knoweth him no more.

S (p. 673) 11 [And hence my grief]. I cannot check my words;
In anguish of my spirit I must speak,
And utt'rance find for bitterness of soul.
12 Am I a [restless] sea? or monster of
The deep, that Thou about me sett'st a bound?
13 Should I have said, "My bed shall comfort me;
My couch shall yield a respite from my moans."
14 Anon Thou terrifiest me with dreams,
And with alarming visions fillest me,
15 So that my soul e'en strangling would prefer—
Death [self-inflicted, wrought]—by mine own hands.
16 I loathe my life: I would not thus live on.
Let me alone; my days are vanity.
17 What is frail man that Thou shouldst lift him up?
Or that Thou shouldest set Thy heart on him?
18 That every morning Thou shouldst visit him,
And ev'ry moment put him to the test?
19 How long e'er Thou wilt turn away from me?
Wilt Thou not for one instant let me be?
20 Watcher of men, what shall I do to Thee,
If I have sinned? why set me as Thy butt,
As if I were a burden unto Thee?
21 Why, rather, dost Thou not forgive my sin,
And take all mine iniquity away?
For in the dust I soon shall lay me down;
And thou shalt seek me, but I shall not be.

3 °Doth °GOD pervert judgment? or °doth °THE ALMIGHTY pervert justice?

4 If thy °children have sinned against Him, and He have cast them away °for their °transgression;

3 The [righteous] GOD: Will He in judgment err?
Or, Shaddai: Will He e'er pervert the right?

4 It may be that thy sons 'gainst Him have sinned;
And He, through their rebellion, cut them off.

8 Enquire, I pray thee, of the former age;
And of their fathers set thyself to learn;
9 (For we're of yesterday, and nothing know;
Yea, as a shadow are our days on earth).
10 Shall they not speak to thee, and wise things tell
To thee from their experience: [such as these]?
11 "The reed: can it grow high without the mire?
And can the flag thrive where no water is?
12 While yet 'tis green, and while it stands uncut,
Sooner than any grass it withers up.
13 So is the end of all who GOD forget;
So perisheth the hypocrite's vain hope.
14 His confidence shall worthless prove to him;
And that on which he trusts, a spider's house.
15 He leans upon it, and it giveth way,
He clings to it; but it will not endure.
16 [Or like the tree] so green before the sun,

18 If one uproot it from its place, at once
It doth disown him, with 'I know thee not.'
19 Behold [thus ends] the joy of its brief life,
While, where it grew shall other trees spring up."

20 But upright men GOD never casts away; Y
Nor takes He evil doers by the hand.

21 [Then wait]; and one day He will fill thy mouth V

JOB'S REPLY TO BILDAD'S FIRST ADDRESS.
9. 2—10. 22 (K², p. 669).

Z¹ A¹ (p. 677)
9 2 Most surely do I know that this is so;
But how can mortal man be just with GOD?
3 If man contend in argument with HIM,
Of thousand things he could not answer one.
4 However wise of heart, and stout of limb,
Who ever braved HIM, and prospered?

B u
5 Who moveth mountains, and they know it not;
Who overturneth them in His fierce wrath;
6 Who maketh Earth to tremble from her place,
So that its pillars rock themselves in fear.
7 Who bids the sun, and it withholds its light,
And round about the stars he sets a seal.
8 Who arch'd the heavens by Himself alone,
And marcheth on upon the cloudy heights.
9 Who made the Fold, Orion, Pleiades,
Yea, [stars in] the recesses of the South.
10 Who doeth mighty works, past finding out,
And wondrous things, in number infinite.

v
11 Behold! He passeth, but I see Him not;
He sweepeth by, but is invisible.
12 Lo, He doth seize; who then can hold Him back?
Or, who shall say to Him "What doest Thou?"

A²
13 Should GOD, at length, His anger not avert,
Helpers of pride must stoop beneath His hand.
14 How then can I [address or] answer Him?
Or choose my words [for argument] with Him?
15 I could not be induced to make reply,
Though just: but I would supplicate my Judge.
16 If I had called, and He had answered me,
Yet could I not feel sure that He had heard—17 He Who o'erwhelms me with [destructive] storm,
And multiplies my wounds without a cause:
18 Who hardly suffers me to take my breath,
But fills me with excess of bitterness.

B u
19 If I appeal to strength; Lo! He is strong.
And if to justice; who could summon Him?
20 Should I attempt to justify myself,
My mouth would instantly the act condemn:
And, if I say that I am free from blame,
Then it would only my perverseness prove.

1656 21 Though I were perfect, yet would I not know °my soul: I would despise my °life.
22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, 'He destroyeth the perfect and °the wicked.

21 Though I could say, "My heart and life are pure,"

3 But I have intellect as well as you;
And I am not inferior to you:
Who hath not knowledge of such things as these?
4 My neighbours come and mock me; and they say
"Aha! he calls on GOD, that He should answer him!"
And I, an upright man, am made their sport.

H 5 A lamp is scorned by one who feeleth safe;
(p. 680) But 'tis prepared for them of tottering feet.
6 Prosp'rous and peaceful are the spoilers' tents.
Security is theirs who GOD provoke:
Abundance doth Eloah give to them.
7 Ask now the beasts: each will thy teacher be;
The birds of heav'n shall learning to thee bring.
8 Hold converse with the Earth, and it will speak;
Yea, fishes of the sea will tell their tale.
9 Who knoweth not, by every one of these,
That 'tis Jehovah's hand that doeth this?
10 In Whose hand lieth every living soul,
The spirit of all flesh,—of every man.
11 Doth not the ear discern the sense of words,
Just as the palate doth distinguish food?
12 So with the aged wisdom should be found,
And length of days should understanding give.

J 13 With HIM, then, there must wisdom be, and might;
Counsel [to plan] and wisdom [to adapt] 14 Lo! He casts down, and no one can raise up.
He shutteth up, and no man openeth.
15 The waters He withholds; the streams run dry:
He sends them forth; they devastate the earth.
16 To Him [belong] both strength and wisdom's might,
To Him [are known] deceivers and deceived;
17 'tis He Who leadeth counsellors, from whom
He wisdom strips; and maketh judges fools.
18 'tis He Who breaks [confed'rate] bonds of kings,
And girds their loins with cords [as prisoners led];
19 He leadeth priests [of their pretensions] stripped,
And overthrows the long-established [thrones].
20 The trusted [speaker] He deprives of speech;
And takes away discernment from the old.
21 'tis He Who doth on princes pour contempt;
And strippeth of their strength [the stout] and strong.
22 Deep things from out of darkness He reveals; Yea, bringeth things to light from out death's shade.
23 He maketh nations great; and then destroys:
Increaseth them; and then, doth captive lead.
24 Princes of Earth of reason He deprives,
And makes them wander in a pathless waste.
25 They grope in darkness, as in densest night:
He makes them stagger like a drunken man.

13 Behold, mine own eye hath seen all these things,
Mine ear hath heard; and understood them all.
2 What ye know, I know also, even I:
In no one thing do I fall short of you.
3 It is to Shaddai that I fain would speak;
With GOD to reason, that is my desire.
4 But as for you, smirchers with lies are YE;
Physicians of no value are ye all.
5 Would ye but altogether hold your peace;
That, of itself, would show that ye were wise.

H 6 But hear, I pray, the reasoning of my mouth,
And to the pleadings of my lips attend.
7 Is it for GOD ye utter what is wrong?
Is it on His behalf ye speak deceit?
8 Dare ye show partiality to Him?
Is it, indeed, for GOD that ye contend?
9 Would it be well that He should search you out
Or can ye mock at Him, as at frail man?
10 You He will openly convict, be sure,
If you in partiality acquit.
11 Will not His majesty make you afraid?
And will not dread of Him upon you fall?
12 Your weightiest words are as the ashes—light;
Your arguments, like clay defences—weak.
13 Hold ye your peace; let me alone, that ℑ
May speak,—and then, let come on me what will.
14 Aye, come what may, I willingly the risk
Will take; and put my life into my hand.
15 Though He may slay me, I will wait for Him;
And, before Him, my doings would defend.
16 Yes, even He shall my salvation be,
For ne'er will hypocrite before Him stand.
17 Hear now [my friends], give heed unto my word,
And keep my declaration in your ears.
18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause;
I know that I shall be declared just.

19 Who then is he that will contend with me? J
For now, if I keep silence, I should die.
20 Only, [O God] do not two things to me;
And then I will not hide me from Thy face:
21 Thy hand—from off me—take Thou far away,
Nor let Thy terror fill me with alarm.
22 Then call Thou [me, and] ℑ will answer [Thee];
Or, I will speak, and do Thou answer me.
23 How many are my sins,—iniquities,— Transgressions?—These, oh! make Thou me to know.
24 Why hidest Thou from me Thy countenance?
Why shouldst Thou count me as Thine enemy?
25 Wilt Thou pursue me as a driven leaf?
And chase me as the stubble [light and] dry?

26 For Thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possess the °iniquities of my youth.
27 Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and lookest narrowly unto all my paths; Thou °settest a print upon the heels of my feet.
28 And °he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth eaten.

14 °Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble.

4 °Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.
5 Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with Thee, Thou hast appointed his °bounds that he cannot pass;
6 Turn from him, that he may rest, till he shall accomplish, as an hireling, his day.
7 °For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.
8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground;
9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a °plant.
10 But °man dieth, and °wasteth away: yea, [1]man °giveth up the ghost, and °where is he?
11 As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up:
12 So °man lieth down, and riseth not: till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.
13 °O that Thou wouldest hide me in °the grave, that Thou wouldest keep me secret, until Thy wrath be past, that Thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!
14 If a [10]man die, °shall he °live again? all the days of my °appointed time will I wait, till my °change come.

28 He, &c. = they (my feet) waste away.

14. 1 Man. Heb. 'ādām. Ap. 14. I. "Man" is to v. 1 what v. 1 is to the whole paragraph. The Heb. accent (D^ehi) emphasises the word "man", and divides the verse into two members; viz. (1) man and (2) his characteristics which are three: (1) his origin (born in sin), (2) his brevity of life, and (3) his fulness of sorrow.

me. Sept., Syr., and Vulg. read "him".
4 Who . . . ? Fig. Erotēsis. Ap. 6. Fig. Parœmia. Ap. 6.
5 bounds. Four early printed editions read "fixed times".
7 For there is hope of a tree. This is a positive independent statement, about which there is no doubt. There should be a full stop here. Then the Heb. accents mark off two hypotheses: (1) if it is cut down (v. 7) the Spring will wake its sap; (2) if waxing old (v. 8) it may still send forth a new growth. But there is no hope of man's living again like a tree. If he is to "live again" he must be raised from the dead.

26 For bitter things, against me, Thou dost write,
And dost entail on me my sins of youth.
27 My feet Thou settest fast within the stocks,
And lookest closely into all my ways,
Branding Thy mark upon my very feet.
28 While these, thus marked, in rottenness wear out,
As garment when the moth hath eaten it.

14 [Frail son of] man that is of woman born,
How few his days; and these, of trouble full!
2 He springeth like a flow'r, and is cut down:
He fleeth as a shadow; makes no stay.
3 Yet, op'nest Thou Thine eyes on such an one?
And bring'st him into judgment with Thyself?
4 Oh that a clean thing could come forth from out
A thing unclean! But there is no such one.
5 If now his days are all [by Thee] decreed,
And fixed the number of his months with Thee,
If Thou hast made him bounds he may not pass,
6 Then look away from him, that he may rest,
And, like a hireling, may fulfil his day.
7 For of a tree, indeed, there still is hope
That, if it be cut down, 'twill sprout again;
And that its suckers will not cease [to grow].
8 Though, in the earth, the root thereof wax old,
Though in the dust[of earth] its stump should die;
9 [Yet] will the scent of water make it bud,
And put forth shoots like newly-planted tree.
10 But man—he dies; and, fallèn, he departs:
Yea, man—when he expireth—Where [is he]?
11 As waters fail, and vanish from the sea,
And as a river wasteth and dries up;
12 So man lies down and rises not again:
Until the heavens are no more, they ne'er
Awake; nor are aroused from their sleep.

Conceal me, till Thine anger turn away;
Fix me a time; and then remember me.

14 If a man dieth, will he live again?
Then—all my days of service I will wait,
Until the time of my reviving come;
15 Then shalt Thou call, and I will answer Thee;
For Thou wilt yearn toward Thy handiwork.

* * * * * *

16 But now—Thou numberest my ev'ry step:
And Thou wilt not pass over [all] my sin.

ELIPHAZ. SECOND ADDRESS.

(J⁴, 15. 2-35).

K¹ a (p. 684) 2 A wise man, should he give vain knowledge forth,
Or fill himself with words like blustering wind?
3 Should he contend with words of no avail,
Or speeches wherewith he can do no good?

4 But thou—thou wouldst make void the fear of GOD, b
And weaken [all] devotion [due] to Him.
5 Thy mouth declares thine own iniquity;
And thou thyself dost choose the crafty tongue.
6 Thine own mouth and not I doth thee condemn;
Yea, thine own lips against thee testify.

7 Art thou the first man who was [ever] born? a Wast thou brought forth before the hills [were made]?
8 Eloah's secret counsel didst thou hear?
And to [His] wisdom canst thou e'er attain?
9 What knowest thou, that is not known to us?
What understandest thou, that we do not?
10 (The grey-haired and the agèd is with us,
More full of days than thine own father was).
11 GOD'S comfortings, are they too small for thee?
Or is there any secret [sin] with thee?
12 Why let thy feelings carry thee away?
What meaneth, then, this quiv'ring of thine eyes?
13 That thou shouldst turn thy rage against [thy] GOD,
And cause such words to issue from thy mouth.

1656 14 [g] What is [c] man, that he should be [c]clean?
and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

K² c 17 I will shew thee, hear me; and that which I have seen I will declare;
18 Which wise men have told from their fathers, and have not hid it:
19 Unto whom alone the earth was given,
and no stranger passed among them.
20 The [c]wicked man [c]travaileth with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.

of darkness, and ẖe is [c]waited for of the sword.
23 ẖe wandereth abroad for bread, saying,
'Where is it?' he knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.
24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

d 25 For he stretcheth out his hand against [t]GOD, and strengtheneth himself against [c]THE ALMIGHTY.
26 He runneth upon Him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers:

ness, and maketh [c]collops of fat on his flanks.

c 28 And he dwelleth in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.
29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither [c]shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.
30 He shall not depart out of darkness; the flame shall dry up his branches, and by the [c]breath of His mouth shall he go away.
31 Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity: for vanity shall be his recompence.
32 It shall be accomplished before his time, and his branch shall not be green.
33 He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.

16 How much less [man], corrupt, defiled! Yea, man,
Who drinks, like water [his] iniquity.

K² c 17 Give heed to me; and I will thee instruct;
And that which I have seen I will declare:
18 (Which wise men plainly have made known to us,
And have not hid them—truths their fathers taught;
19 The men to whom alone the land was given,
And among whom no alien passed); [They said]:
20 "The wicked sorely labours all his days,
His years reserved for the oppressor's greed.
21 A voice of terror ever fills his ears;
And when he prospers, then the spoiler comes.
22 He has no hope from darkness to return;
[And thinks] that he is destined for the sword;
23 He wanders forth and asks:—'O, where is bread'
Well knowing that a dark day draweth nigh.
24 Distress and anguish fill him with alarm;
They overpow'r him like a warrior's charge.

25 Because he stretchèd out his hand 'gainst GOD d
And haughtily El Shaddai did defy,
26 [Because] he used to run with stiffened neck
Against Him, with the bosses of his shield;
27 Because his face he clothed with his own fat,
And gathered rolls of fat upon his loins.

28 Therefore he dwelleth in a ruined place; c
In houses where none other deigns to live;
In places destined to be ruined heaps.
29 He will not long be rich, nor will his wealth
Endure, nor will his shadow lengthen out.
30 From darkness he will nevermore escape;
His tender branch the flame shall wither up;
In God's hot anger he will pass away.
31 Let no one put his faith in vain deceit;
For vanity will be his recompense;
32 [And] he will be cut off before his time,
So that his palm will not be always green.
33 As shaketh off the vine its unripe fruit,
Or as the olive casts away its flower,
34 So will the household of the vile be naught;
And fire consume the tents of the corrupt

And to the King of Terrors hurry him.

ZOPHAR'S SECOND ADDRESS.
20. 2-29 (J6, p. 669).

J6 R 20 2 Not so: my thoughts impel me to respond,
And therefore is my haste within me [roused].
3 Correction meant for my reproof, I hear,
But zeal, with knowledge, gives me a reply.
4 Know'st thou [not] this?—a truth of olden time, Since Adam first was placed upon the earth:
5 That brief the triumph of the wicked is,
And momentary is the sinner's joy?

6 His joy may mount up to the [very] skies, S
His head reach up unto the [highest] clouds:
7 Like his own stubble he is swept away;
And they who see shall say, "Where has he gone?"
8 He fleeth as a dream, and is not found:
Is chased away, like visions of the night.
9 The eye which saw him sees him not again;
His dwelling-place descrieth him no more.
10 His children shall pay court unto the poor;
And his own hands give back again his wealth.
11 His bones are filled with sins in secret done,
And with him in the dust they shall lie down.
12 Though wickedness, while in his mouth, be sweet,
Though underneath his tongue he keep it hid,— 1656

13 Though he spare it, and forsake it not; but keep it still within his °mouth:
14 Yet his °meat in his bowels is turned, it is the gall of asps within him.
15 He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again: °GOD shall cast them out of his belly.
16 He shall suck the poison of asps: the viper's tongue shall slay him.
17 He shall not see the °rivers, the °floods, the °brooks of honey and butter.
18 That which he laboured for shall he restore, and shall not swallow it down: according to his substance shall the restitution be, and he shall not rejoice therein.
19 Because he hath oppressed and hath forsaken the [10]poor; because he hath violently taken away an house which he builded not;
20 Surely he shall not °feel quietness in his belly, he shall not save of that which he desired.
21 There shall none of his [11]meat be left; therefore shall no man look for his goods.
22 In the fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits: °every °hand of the °wicked shall come upon him.
23 When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fury of His wrath upon him, and shall rain it upon him while he is eating.
24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of steel shall strike him through.
25 It is drawn, and cometh out of the body; yea, the glittering sword cometh out of his gall: terrors are upon him.
26 All darkness shall be hid in his secret places: a fire °not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his °tabernacle.
27 The heaven shall reveal his °iniquity; and the earth shall rise up against him.
28 The increase of his house shall depart, and his goods shall °flow away in the day of His wrath.

K[6] T[1] (p. 691)

13 Keeping it long, and loth to let it go,
Retaining it within his palate's taste;
14 Yet in his bowels is his food all changed;
Within him it becomes the gall of asps.
15 He swallowed wealth, but vomiteth it up:
Yea, from his belly GOD will drive it forth.
16 The venom of the adder shall he suck;
The poison of the viper slayeth him.
17 He shall not look upon the [flowing] streams,
Or floods, or brooks of honey and of milk.
18 In vain he toiled, he shall not swallow [it];
Like wealth giv'n back, in it he has no joy.
19 Because he crush'd, and helpless left, the poor;
[And] seized upon a house he did not build:
20 Because content within he never knew,
Nor let escape him ought that he desired,
21 (No, not a shred that he devoured not):
Therefore it is, his wealth shall not endure.
22 When it is at its height, his straits begin;
The power of distress shall come on him.
23 For, when he is about to eat his food,
Then [God] shall send on him His burning wrath,
And rain it on him for his punishment.
24 [Though] he may flee away from lance of steel,
The [shaft from] bow of brass shall pierce him through:
25 [And if] one draws it forth from out his flesh,
The gleaming arrow-head from out his gall,
[Then other] terrors shall upon him come.
26 For his hid treasures every trouble waits;
A fire not blown [by man] devours them all;
It shall consume what in his tent is left.
27 The heav'ns shall his iniquity reveal:
Against him riseth up the [very] earth:
28 The increase of his house to exile goes,
Like flowing waters, in God's day of wrath.
29 Such is the sinner's portion sent from God;
And such the doom GOD hath appointed him.

27. 11—28. 28 (J[3], p. 669). ZOPHAR'S THIRD ADDRESS. (Introversion and Alternations.)

J[3] | F | 27. 11–23. Unwisdom.
G | n | 28. 1–6. What man knows.
o | 28. 7, 8. What man does NOT know.
G | n | 28. 9–11. What man can do.
o | 12–19. What man can NOT do.
F | 28. 20–28. Wisdom.

11 I will teach you. This is Zophar's third and last address. (1) It is required by the Structure on p. 669 to complete the symmetry of the book. (2) The sentiments of 27. 11—28. 28 demand it, for they are the very opposite of Job's and the same as Zophar's in 27. 13; 20. 29. (3) If these are Job's words, then his friends had convinced him, which Elihu declares they had not done (32. 12). (4) The Heb. of 29. 1 does not mean "continued", but "added to take up his discourse", which may mean conclusion as well as continuance. (5) It marks off and separates 29. 1—31. 40 from Job's ordinary replies. Instead of replying to Zophar, Job utters his "self-justification" (in 29. 1—31. 40), which corresponds with his lamentation in 3. 1–26, and forms the conclusion (G^2) as that had been the introduction (G^1), and prepares us for "the words of Job are ended" in 31. 40. (6) Kennicott, Bernard, and Wolfsson assign a third address to Zophar. 12 Behold. Fig. Asterismos. Ap. 6. 13 This is the portion, &c. Zophar thus takes up the words with which he had concluded his second address (20. 29). man. Heb. 'ādām. Ap. 4. 1. 14 children = sons. 15 buried in death = buried through pestilence. his widows. The widow of each one of them.

13 The heav'ns so fair His Spirit beautifies,
The Serpent [constellation] He hath formed.
14 Lo, these are but the outlines of His ways;
A whisper only, that we hear of Him;
His wondrous pow'r, who then, can comprehend?

* * * * * *

D (p. 697) 27 Moreover Job did add these words, and say:
2 As GOD doth live Who takes away my right,
E'en Shaddai, Who hath so embittered me;
3 So long as breath remaineth in [my mouth],
And in my nostrils is Eloah's breath,
4 These lips of mine shall not perverseness speak,—
My tongue shall never utter what is false.
5 No; never will I grant that you are right,
Nor, while I live, my innocence let go;

E 6 My right I hold; I will not give it up!
My heart shall not reproach me all my days,
7 E'en were the Evil One mine enemy,
And he—th' Unjust—should my accuser be.

8 What hope is left the godless man, what gain,
When once Eloah doth his life demand?
9 Will GOD [indeed] give ear unto his cry
When [trouble or] distress on him shall come?
10 He is not one who doth in Shaddai joy!
Or on Eloah calls, at any time!

ZOPHAR'S THIRD ADDRESS
27. 11—28. 28 (J[3], p. 669).

J[3] F (p.
11 I now would speak about the ways of GOD,
And Shaddai's dealings [with you] not conceal.
12 Ye, surely, must have seen them for yourselves;
Or are ye, then, so altogether vain?
13 THIS is the lot of wicked men from GOD;
Th' oppressor's heritage from Shaddai's hand:
14 If sons do multiply, 'tis for the sword:
Of bread his offspring will not have enough:
15 Their issue buried, killed by pestilence,
Their widows will not lamentation make.

1656 16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;
17 He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.
18 He buildeth his house as a moth, and as a °booth that the °keeper maketh.
19 The rich man shall lie down, but °he shall not be °gathered: he openeth his eyes, and °he is not.
20 Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night.
21 The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth: and as a storm hurleth him out of his place.
22 For °God shall cast upon him, and not spare: he °would fain flee out of his hand.
23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

G n (p. 698) 28 °Surely there °is a °vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they fine
it.
2 Iron is taken out of the °earth, and brass is molten out of the stone.
3 °He setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death.
4 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot:
they are dried up, they are gone away from °men.
5 As for the earth, out of it cometh bread:
and under it is turned up as it were fire.
6 The stones of it are the place of sapphires:
and it hath dust of gold.
o 7 There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen:
8 The °lion's whelps have not trodden it,
°nor the fierce lion passed by it.
G n 9 He putteth forth his hand upon the °rock;
he overturneth the mountains by the roots.

18 booth. Generally made of branches of trees. Cp. Isa. 1. 8. Jonah 4. 5. Lev. 23. 40-42.
keeper = watcher: i. e. vineyard watcher.
19 he = it: i. e. his wealth which is out at interest.
gathered = gathered in, or collected.
he = it: i. e. his wealth is gone. Not he, the rich man, for if he opens his eyes, he "is", not "is not".
22 God is wrongly supplied. It means "he who was wont in times past to flee from the rich man will now come down on him".
would fain flee. Heb. a fleeing would flee. Fig. Polyptōton (Ap. 6) = would hastily flee.

28. 1 Surely. This is the continuation of Zophar's last address. Not Job's words. Cp. 35. 16; 38. 2. They are opposed to his own words, and confirm those of his friends. Cp. his second address, 20. 1-29.
is = doth exist.
vein = outlet: i. e. mine, or shaft.
2 earth = dust.
3 He = man: i. e. the miner.
4 men = mortal men. Heb. 'ĕnōsh. Ap. 14. III.
8 lion's whelps = sons of pride: i. e. ravenous beasts.
nor = and . . . not.
9 rock = flint.

10 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks;
and his eye seeth every precious thing.
11 He bindeth the floods from overflowing; and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.

12 But where shall wisdom be found? and o where is the place of understanding?
13 °Man knoweth not the price thereof;
neither is it found in the land of the living.
14 The depth saith, 'It is not in me:' and the sea saith, 'It is not with me.'
15 It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.
16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.
17 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it:
and the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold.

---

16 Though silver, like the dust, he heapeth up,
And garments, made in number like the sand,
17 Though he prepare, the just will put them on;
His silver will the innocent divide.
18 The house he builds, 'tis frail as is the moth's,
Or as the booth which vineyard watcher makes.
19 He lies down rich, [his wealth] not gathered in:
He openeth his eyes, and it is gone!
20 Terrors will overtake him as a flood:
A whirlwind in the night will sweep him off.
21 The east wind catcheth him, and he is gone;
Yea, as a storm, it hurls him from his place.
22 He who, before, was wont to flee from him,
Will now come down on him, and will not spare.
23 In triumph he will clap his hands at him;
And hiss him forth from out his dwelling-place.

* * * * * *

G n (p. 698) 28 Yes, for the silver there exists a vein;
A place withal for gold which they refine.
2 From out the earth iron may be brought up;
And copper may be smelted from the ore.
3 To darkness ['neath the earth] man sets a bound;
In all directions he explores [beneath];
Yea, e'en the ores of earth in darkness [hid].
4 A shaft he sinks, 'neath where the settler dwells:
And there, forgotten by the well-worn way,
The miners bore, and pass away [from sight].
5 As for the earth, bread cometh forth from it:
Yet underneath it fire is stirred up.
6 Among its stones are glowing sapphires found;
And in its dust are nuggets of pure gold.
7 There is a path no bird of prey hath known; o
Nor hath the eagle's eye discovered it.
8 [A path] which no proud beast hath ever trod:
Not e'en the lion ever passed that way.
9 Man lays his hand upon the flinty rock; G n
The hills he overturneth by their roots.
10 He cutteth water-channels in the rocks:
His eye detecteth every precious thing.
11 The overflowing floods he doth restrain:
The hidden things he bringeth forth to light.
12 But wisdom—whence can wisdom be obtained? o
And understanding: where is found its place?
13 No mortal man doth know the way thereto;
Among the living it can not be found.
14 Th' abyss exclaims "[Wisdom] is not in me."
And ocean roars—"Nor dwelleth it with me."
15 Fine gold cannot be given in its stead,
Neither can silver for its price be weighed.
16 With Ophir's gold it never can be bought;
Nor with the onyx, or the sapphire gem.
17 Crystal and gold cannot compare with it;
Nor vessels of pure gold be its exchange.

1656 18 No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.
19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

F (p. 698) 20 °Whence then cometh wisdom? and °where is the place of understanding?
21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the air.
22 °Destruction and death °say, 'We have °heard the fame thereof with our ears.'
23 °God understandeth the way thereof, and He knoweth the place thereof.
24 For He looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven;
25 To make the weight for the °winds; and He weigheth the waters by measure.
26 When He made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder:
27 Then did He see it, and declare it; He prepared it, yea, and searched it out.
28 And unto °man He said, °'Behold, °the fear of °the LORD*, °that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.'"

H¹ J p (p. 700) 29 °Moreover Job °continued his parable, and said, 2 °"Oh that °I were as in months past, as in the days when °ⒼⓄⒹ preserved me;

the LORD*. One of the 134 alterations of the Sōpherīm (Ap. 32), by which the name "Jehovah" in the primitive text, was changed to Adonai.
that is wisdom. This was a libel on Job, for Job had this "fear" or reverence; yet he was suffering. That was the very point in question, and leads up to the answer. This was Zophar's philosophy. The fear of the LORD is not true wisdom; it is only "the beginning of wisdom" (Ps. 111. 10. Prov. 1. 7; 9. 10). True wisdom is to take the place of the sinner before God, and Job takes this place (42. 5, 6). This is "the end of the LORD" (Jas. 5. 11), and it is "the end" of this book. This wisdom "justifies God" (Ps. 51. 3, 4, 6. Matt. 11. 19. Luke 7. 35). True wisdom is "given", and we have to be "made" to know it (Prov. 30. 24. 2 Tim. 3. 15. Job 38. 36). Cp. 33. 27, 28; 34. 31; 35. 11; 39. 17. Zophar's was human wisdom founded on human merit. To depart from evil is what every prudent man would do from good policy.

18 Corals and pearls can not with it be named;
The worth of rubies wisdom far excels.
19 The topaz gem of Cush vies not therewith;
And purest gold with it can not be weighed.

F (p. 698) 20 Whence, then, this wisdom? [Whence, then, doth it come]?
And understanding, where is found its place?
21 So hidden from the eyes of all who live;
And from the birds of heav'n so close concealed.
22 Death and Destruction [both alike] declare:—
"The rumour of it, it hath reached our ears."
23 Eloah, though, hath understood the way;

"Lo! Wisdom is to reverence the Lord;
And understanding is to flee from sin."

JOB'S SELF-JUSTIFICATION. CONCLUSION.
29. 1—31. 40 (G², p. 669).

H¹ J (p. 7 2 Oh that I were as in the olden times;

8 The young men saw me, and withdrew themselves;
Yea, all the elders would rise up, and stand.
9 The rulers, too, from talking would refrain,
And lay their hand, for silence, on their mouth.
10 The nobles' voice was hush'd; they held their peace;
Their tongue, in silence, to their palate clave:

And at my counsel silence they did keep.

So that on them my wisdom still might fall.
23 Yea, they would wait, as men for showers wait,
And open wide their mouths as for the rain.
24 That I should mock them they would ne'er believe,
Nor would they cause a shadow on my face;
25 'Twas mine to choose their way, and sit as chief;

20 I cry unto Thee, and Thou dost not °hear me: I stand up, and Thou regardest me not.
21 Thou art become cruel to me: with Thy strong hand Thou opposest thyself against me.
22 Thou liftest me up to the [15]wind; Thou causest me to ride upon it, and dissolvest °my substance.
23 For I know that Thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

6 In dark ravines they make their dwellingplace,
In holes of earth, and caverns of the rocks;
7 Among the desert scrub they raise their shouts,
[And] under bramble bushes herd [like beasts].
8 Children of fools, yea, sons without a name,
As outcasts they are driven from the land.
9 But, now, I have become their mocking-song;
I have become a by-word unto them.
10 They [all] abhor and stand aloof from me;
And spare not now to spit before my face.
11 Since He hath loosed my bow, and humbled me,
They too, before me, cast off all restraint.
12 At my right hand this rabble rises up;
They thrust aside my feet; [leave me no room];
Against me they oppose their hostile ways:
13 They mar my path; [my movements they impede];
They seek my hurt, although it helps them not,
14 As [waters] through a breach, they come [on me];
And like a tempest they rush in on me.

M (p. 701) 15 All now is overthrown: and, like the wind, Terrors my dignity have scattered far;
And gone, like clouds, is my prosperity.
16 And now my soul within me is poured out;
The days of my affliction hold me fast.
17 By night my bones are pierced [with pains] without;
My throbbing nerves [within me] never rest.
18 By great exertion is my garment changed;
It girds me as my tunic girds my neck.

19 Into the mire His hand hath cast me down; L
To dust and ashes I may be compared.
20 I cry aloud to Thee, Thou answ'rest not;
I stand [in prayer], but Thou dost not regard.
21 Thou art become relentless [to my prayer];
And dost assail me with Thy mighty hand.
22 Thou used'st to uplift me on the wind;
[Yea] Thou didst cause me [thereupon] to ride:
[But now] my substance Thou dost bring to naught.
23 I know that Thou wilt turn me o'er to death,—
E'en to the place ordained for all who live.
24 Ah! prayer [for these] is vain. He will not help,
Though when in trouble they may cry [to Him].

25 Did not I weep for him whose lot was hard? M
Was I not for the helpless sorely grieved?
26 Yet, when I looked for good, then evil came;
And darkness [deep], when I expected light.
27 My bowels boil, and they are never still;
So suddenly has trouble come on me.
28 Shrouded in gloom I go, without the sun.
I rose in the assembly, and cried "Help!"
29 Brother am I become to howling brutes,
And a companion to the screeching birds.

ELIHU'S ADDRESSES.
32. 6—37. 24 (E, p. 665).
INTRODUCTION, 32. 6-22.

32 6 I am but young in years, and ye are old:
Therefore it was that I held back in fear,
And durst not show what my opinion was.
7 For those of many days should speak, I thought;
A multitude of years should wisdom teach.
8 Howe'er, a spirit dwells in mortal man,
And Shaddai's breath makes them to understand:
9 The greatest men are not at all times wise;
Nor do the aged [always] rightly judge.

10 Therefore I said, "O hearken unto me;
I too will show my knowledge, even I."
11 Lo! I have listened unto your discourse;
To all your reas'nings I have given ear,
Waiting till ye have searched out what to say.
12 But, though to you I carefully gave heed,
There was not one of you convicted Job;
Not one who really answered what he said.
13 I pray you, say not "We have wisdom found;
'tis GOD alone Who thrusts him down, not man."
14 Since not 'gainst ME hath he arrayed his words,
I will not with YOUR words reply to him.
15 (All broken down, they answer him no more:
They have not any more a word to say.

1656 16 When I had waited, (for they spake not, but stood still, and answered no more;)
17 I said, 'I will answer also my part, I also will shew mine opinion.
18 For I am full of °matter, the [8]spirit within me constraineth me.
19 [11]Behold, my belly is as °wine which hath no vent; it is ready to burst like new °bottles.
20 I will speak, that I may be refreshed: I will open my lips and answer.
21 Let me not, I pray you, accept any [13]man's person, neither let me give flattering titles unto °man.
22 For I know not to give flattering titles; in so doing my Maker would [8]soon take me away.'

Q¹ R¹ a¹ (p. 706) 33 Wherefore, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words.
2 °Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my mouth.
b¹ 3 °My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.
4 The °Spirit of °GOD hath made me, and the °breath of °THE ALMIGHTY hath given me life.
a² 5 If thou canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up.
b² 6 [2]Behold, I am according to °thy wish in [4]GOD'S stead: I also am formed out of the clay.
7 [2]Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.
S c 8 Surely thou hast spoken in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of °thy words, saying, 9 'I am clean without °transgression, I am innocent; neither is there °iniquity in me.
10 [2]Behold, He °findeth occasions against me, °He counteth me for His enemy,

16 And still I waited, though they could not speak,
But silent stood and offered no reply.)
17 I will reply—e'en I:—on mine own part;
I too will show my knowledge, even I.
18 For I am fillèd full with [wisdom's] words;
The spirit in my breast constraineth me.
19 It is as wine secured, without a vent,
Like wine-skins new, which are at point to burst.
20 So, I will speak, that I may find relief;
Open my lips, and take up my discourse.
21 I will not now regard the face of man,
And to no man will flattering titles give.
22 I know not how to flatter. Otherwise
My Maker soon would summon me away.

ELIHU. FIRST ADDRESS TO JOB. 33. 1-33.

Q¹ R¹ a¹ (p. 706) 33 And now, O Job, I pray thee hear me speak,
And be attentive to my every word.
2 Behold now that I have begun to speak;
My tongue shall utt'rance give, distinct and clear:
b¹ 3 For all that I shall say comes from my heart,
My lips shall speak what is sincere and true.
4 GOD'S Spirit made me [at the first], and [still]
'tis the Almighty's breath must quicken me.
a 5 If thou be able, answer me, I pray:
Array thy words in order; take thy stand.
b² 6 Lo, I am here—thou wishedst—in GOD'S stead.
And of the clay I have been formed, [like thee].
7 Behold, my terror will not make thee fear;
Nor heavy will my hand upon thee press.
S c 8 But, surely, thou hast spoken in mine ears,
And I have heard a voice of words like these:
9 "A man without transgression, pure, am I:
Yea, I am clean; without iniquity.
10 He is against me; seeking grounds of strife,
That He may count me as His enemy;
11 My feet He setteth fast within the stocks,
And taketh observation of my ways."
d 12 Behold, thou art not just: I answer thee:
HOW GREAT IS GOD COMPARED WITH MORTAL MAN?

13 Why dost thou strive against Him? for He giveth not account of any of His matters.

14 For [4]GOD speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not.
15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon [12]men, in slumberings upon the bed;

16 Then He openeth the ears of [12]men, and sealeth their instruction, 17 That He may withdraw °man from his purpose, and hide pride °from man.
18 He keepeth back his °soul from the °pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.

19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain:
20 So that his life abhorreth bread, and his [18]soul dainty meat.
21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out.
22 °Yea, his [18]soul draweth near unto the °grave, and his life to the destroyers.

23 °If there be a messenger with Him, an °interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto [17]man °His uprightness:
24 Then He is gracious unto him, and saith, 'Deliver him from going down to the [18]pit: I have found °a Ransom.'
25 His flesh shall be fresher than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth:
26 He shall pray unto [12]ℌℴℌ, and He will be favourable unto him: and he shall see His face with °joy: for He will render unto [12]man [23]His righteousness.
27 He looketh upon [12]men, and if any say, °'I have °sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;'
28 He will deliver his [18]soul from going into the [18]pit, and his life shall see the light.

27 I have sinned. This is true wisdom. See note on 28. 28. This is "the end of the Lord" (Jas. 5. 11), to which all was leading, and which is reached at length in 42. 2-5. sinned. Heb. chaṭa'. Ap. 44. i.
29 Lo. Fig. Asterismos. Ap. 6.
33 hearken = hearken thou.

29 °Lo, all these things worketh [4]GOD oftentimes with [17]man, 30 To bring back his [18]soul from the [18]pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.

31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me:
hold thy peace, and ℑ will speak.

32 If thou hast anything to say, answer me:
speak, for I desire to justify thee.

33 If not, °hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom."

---

13 Why, then, 'gainst Him didst thou dare make complaint,
That by no word of His He answ'reth thee?

14 For GOD DOTH speak. He speaks in sundry ways:
Again, again, though man regard it not.
15 He speaks in dreams, and visions of the night,
When, deep in slumber, lying on their bed,
There falls on men an overwhelming sleep.

16 Then opens He their ear, that they may hear,
Pressing, as with a seal, the warning given,
17 To make a man withdraw himself from sin,
Or keep him from the [dangerous] way of pride.
18 Back from the pit 'tis thus He keeps a man,
And saves his life from falling by the sword.

19 He speaks again, when, chastened, on his bed
Another lies, his bones all rack'd with pain;
20 So that his daily food he doth abhor,
And turns against his choicest dainty meat.
21 His flesh, it wastes away and is not seen:
His bones, before concealed, show through his skin.
22 Unto destruction he is drawing nigh,
And death's dark angel waits to end his life.

23 Then, then, He speaks with him by Messenger
Who can interpret;—One, 'mong thousands chief,
Who will reveal to man HIS righteousness.

24 Then He doth show him grace [Divine, and saith]:—
"Deliver him from going down to death;
A Ransom I have found—Redemption's price."
25 Young as a child's becomes his flesh again,
And to his youthful days he doth return.
26 He, supplication to Eloah makes,
Who grace and kindly favour showeth him,
So that he looketh up to God with joy.
Thus, doth [He] give to man HIS righteousness.
27 This, then, becomes the burden of his song:—
"I sinned! and I perverted what was right!
Although no profit from it came to me."
28 His soul HE hath redeemed from the pit:
His life will yet again behold the light.

29 Thus doth GOD speak, in all these sundry ways:
Time after time; and yet again He speaks:

30 That from destruction He may save a soul,
And make him joy in light—the light of life.

31 Mark this, O Job, and hearken unto me.
I will now speak: and, as for thee, hold thou
Thy peace, while I with words of wisdom teach.

32 If there be any answer, answer me.
Speak: for I long to see thee justified.

33 If not; do thou then hearken unto me:
Hold thou thy peace, while wisdom I impart.

P² (p. 705) 1656 Q¹ T g (p. 708)

34 Furthermore Elihu °answered and said,

2 "Hear my °words, O ye wise men; and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.
3 For the ear trieth words, as the °mouth tasteth meat.
4 Let us choose to us judgment: let us know among ourselves what is good.

8 Which goeth in company with the workers of °iniquity, and walketh with °wicked °men.
9 For he hath said, 'It profiteth a [7]man nothing that he should delight himself with °God.'

U j 10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye [8]men of understanding:

12 Yea, surely [5]GOD will not do [8]wickedly, neither will [10]THE ALMIGHTY pervert judgment.

ELIHU. ADDRESS TO JOB'S FRIENDS.
34. 1–37 (Q², p. 705).

P² (p. 705) Q² T g (p. 708)

34 Elihu then addressed [Job's friends] and said:

2 Hear now my words, ye wise [and clever] men;
And ye who knowledge have, give ear to me.
3 For 'tis the ear that [proves and] trieth speech,
E'en as the palate shows what food is good.
4 Then, let us, what is right, choose for ourselves:
Let us decide among us, what is good.

h 5 Now Job hath said—
"I am and have been just:
But GOD my righteous cause hath turned away.
6 Shall I against my right speak what is false?
Sore is my wound; though through no sin of mine."

i 7 Where is the worthy man [who] like to Job,
Drinks up as water all your scornful words?
8 And keepeth company with those who sin,
And doth associate with wicked men?

9 For he hath said—
"It profiteth not man
That he should take delight in Elohim."

10 To this, ye wise men, list to my reply: U j

Far be such evil from the mighty GOD, k
And far from Shaddai such iniquity.
11 For, sure, man's work He will repay to him,
And will requite according to his ways.
12 Nay, surely, GOD will not do wickedly,
And Shaddai never will pervert the right.
13 Who e'er to Him did delegate the charge
Of earth? or trusted Him with all the world?
14 Should He think only of Himself, [and all]
His breath, the breath of life withdraw; [what then?]
15 All flesh together would [at once] expire,
And man would straight to dust return again.

16 Now, if thou understanding hast, hear this; U j
Give heed unto the teaching of my words.

17 Can one who hateth justice rule [the world]? k
Wilt thou condemn the Just, the Mighty One?
18 Shall one say to a King—"Thou worthless man"?
Or, unto nobles, "Ye ungodly men"?

1656 19 °How much less to Him That °accepteth not the persons of [18]princes, nor °regardeth the rich more than the °poor? for they all are °the work of His hands.
20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away °without hand.
21 For His eyes are upon the ways of °man, and He seeth all his goings.
22 There is no °darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of [8]iniquity may hide themselves.
23 For He will not lay upon [21]man more than right; that he should enter into judgment with [5]GOD.
24 He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their stead.
25 Therefore He knoweth their works, and He overturneth them in the night, so that they are °destroyed.
26 He striketh them as [8]wicked men in the open sight of others;
27 Because they turned back °from Him, and would not consider any of His ways:
28 So that they cause the cry of the [19]poor to come unto Him, and He heareth the cry of the afflicted.
29 °When He giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and °when He hideth His face, who then can behold Him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a [11]man only:
30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ensnared.
31 Surely it is meet to be said unto [5]GOD, 'I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more:
32 That which I see not teach Thou me: if I have done [8]iniquity, I will do no more.'

19 How much less wilt thou say it then to Him?
Who [neither] doth accept the face of kings,
Nor doth regard the rich above the poor,
For they are all the work of His own hands.
20 They in a moment die, e'en in a night;
The people tremble when they pass away;
The mighty fall, but by no [human] hand.
21 For on the ways of men His eyes are set,
And all their footsteps He doth see [and note].
22 There is no darkness, and no shade of death,
Where workers of iniquity may hide.
23 Man doth not need repeated scrutiny,
When he to GOD for [final] judgment comes.
24 He breaks the strong in ways we cannot trace;
And others, in their stead, He setteth up.
25 To this end takes He knowledge of their works;
And, in a night He overthroweth them,
[In such a way] that they are [all] destroyed.
26 [Sometimes] He smites the wicked where they stand,
In open sight of all men who behold;
27 Because they turnèd back from after Him,
Nor any of His ways would they regard;
28 But, [by oppression,] brought the poor man's cry
To Him Who hears the plaint of the oppressed.
29 When He gives quiet, who can e'er disturb?
Or who can see Him when He hides His face?
(Whether it be a nation or a man,
30 Whether because the godless may not reign,
Or those who of the people make a prey.)
31 If Job had [spoken] unto GOD, [and] said:
"I have borne chastisement: and never more 32 Will I transgress; that which I do not see Teach me Thyself: if in the past I wrought Iniquity, I will not work it more:"
33 Should He requite on thine own terms, [and say]:
"As thou wilt choose [so be it], not as I?"
Say therefore, now, O Job, if thou dost know. Tg (p. 708)
34 For ME would men of understanding speak;
Yea, every wise man listening now [will say]:
35 "Job, without knowledge, spoke in ignorance; h
And void of understanding were his words."
36 Oh would that Job were proved unto the end, i
For his replies are those of evil men.
37 Rebellion he doth add unto his sin:
Defiant in our midst he claps his hands;
And, against GOD he multiplies his words.

ELIHU. SECOND ADDRESS TO JOB.
35. 1-16 (Q[3], p. 705).

P[3] (p. 705)
1 Elihu further spake to Job and said:—
2 Dost thou count this sound judgment? Thou didst Q[3] V[1] l[1] (p. 709) say,
"My righteousness surpasseth that of GOD:"

1656 3 For thou saidst, °'What advantage will it be unto thee?' and, °'What profit shall I have, if I be cleansed from my °sin?'

m¹ (p. 709) 4 I will answer thee, and thy companions with thee.

5 °Look unto the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds which are higher than thou.

6 If thou ³sinnest, what doest thou against Him? or if thy °transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto Him?

7 If thou be righteous, what givest thou Him? or what receiveth He of thine hand?

8 Thy °wickedness may hurt °a man as thou art; and thy righteousness may profit the son °of man.

V² l² 9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.

m² 10 But none saith, 'Where is °GOD my Maker, Who giveth songs in the night;

11 Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?'

12 There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of °evil men.

13 Surely ²GOD will not hear vanity, neither will °THE ALMIGHTY regard it.

V³ l³ 14 Although thou sayest thou shalt not see Him, m³ yet judgment is before Him; therefore °trust thou in Him.

15 But now, because it is not so, °He hath visited in His anger; yet He knoweth it not in great extremity:

16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplieth words without knowledge."

m¹ (p. 709) 4 I—even I, will make reply to thee,
And, with thee, to these friends of thine as well.
5 Look up unto the heav'ns; consider them;
Survey the skies, so high above thy head.
6 If thou hast sinned, what doest thou to Him?
Be thy sins many, what dost thou to Him?
7 If thou art just, what dost thou give to Him?
Or from thy hand what [gift] will He receive?
8 Thy sin may hurt a mortal like thyself;
Thy righteousness may profit one like thee.

V² l² 9 Men make an outcry when they are oppressed:
They cry for help when 'neath the tyrant's pow'r.

m² 10 But no one saith, "Where is my Maker, GOD,
Who giveth songs to us in sorrow's night;
11 And teacheth us beyond the beasts of earth,
And makes us wiser than the fowl of heav'n?"
12 But the true reason why He answereth not,
Although they cry, is—evil doers' pride,
13 For vanity GOD will in no wise hear,
Nor will th' Almighty hold it in regard.

V³ l³ 14 How much less, then, when thou dost say to Him—
"I see Him not: [He doth not hear my cry]."
Yet judgment is before Him: therefore wait.
15 But now, because He hath not punished thee,
[Thou say'st]:— "His anger doth not visit sin;
Nor strictly mark wide-spread iniquity."
16 Thus Job doth fill his mouth with vanity;
And, without knowledge, multiplieth words.

ELIHU. WORDS ON GOD'S BEHALF.
36. 2—37. 24 (Q⁴, p. 705).

2 Bear with me, while I, briefly, make thee see
There yet are words to say on GOD'S behalf.
3 My knowledge I shall gather from afar;
And to my Maker righteousness ascribe.
4 For truly, nothing false is in my words:
Th' Omniscient One it is Who deals with thee.

X 5 Lo! GOD IS GREAT,—but naught doth He despise:
In power great, in wisdom great, is He.

o 6 He will not let the wicked ever live:
But He will right the cause of the oppressed,
7 And not take from a righteous man His eyes.
He seateth them with kings upon the throne;
He makes them sit in glory; raised on high.

1656 8 And if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;
9 Then He sheweth them their work, and their °transgressions that they have exceeded.
10 He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from °iniquity.
11 If they obey and serve Him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.
12 But if they obey not, they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.
13 But the hypocrites in heart heap up wrath: they cry not when He bindeth them.
14 °They die in youth, and their life is among the °unclear.
15 He delivereth the [6]poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression.
p 16 Even so would He have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and that which should be set on thy table should be full of fatness.
. 710) 17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the [6]wicked: judgment and justice take hold on thee.
18 Because there is wrath, beware lest He take thee away with His stroke: then a great ransom cannot deliver thee.
19 °Will He esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.
20 Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.
21 Take heed, regard not [10]iniquity: for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.
22 [5]Behold, [5]GOD exalteth by His power: °who teacheth like Him?
23 [22]Who hath enjoined Him His way? or [22]who can say, 'Thou hast wrought °iniquity?'
24 Remember that thou magnify His work, which °men behold.

o 27 For He maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof:
28 Which the clouds do drop and distil upon [25]man abundantly.
29 Also °can any understand the °spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of His °tabernacle?
30 [5]Behold, He spreadeth His light upon it, and covereth the °bottom of the sea.

8 And, if they be in [iron] fetters bound,
Or, [if] they be held fast in sorrow's bonds,
9 [It is] that He may show to them their deeds
And their transgressions which have sprung from pride.
10 Thus openeth He their ear, and doth instruct
And warn them from iniquity to turn.
11 Then, if they hearken and obey [His voice],
They in prosperity shall spend their days,
[And end] their years in peace and pleasantness.
12 Should they not heed, they perish by the sword;
And die, not knowing [how it is, or why].
13 But hypocrites in heart will heap up wrath,
[Because] they cry not when He bindeth them.
14 [Wherefore] they die while they are yet in youth,
Their life is spent among polluted ones.
15 Yet He doth save the poor in all his woes,
And openeth their ear in their distress.
p 16 Thus, in like manner, He would THEE allure, . 710) And from the mouth of trouble draw thee out
Into a pleasant place:—no trouble there;
Thy table well prepared with richest food.
17 But [if] with sinners' pleadings thou be filled,
Judgment and justice will lay hold on thee.
18 For, there is wrath; [beware, then,] of its stroke;
For, then, a ransom great will not suffice,
19 Nor treasure turn the threatened stroke aside,
Nor precious ore avail, nor all thy strength.
20 Oh, long not for the night [of death], in which [Whole] nations get upheaved from out their place!
21 Take heed! regard not thou iniquity;
For this thou didst prefer to all thy woes.
22 Lo, GOD will be exalted in His pow'r:
Who can convey instruction like to Him?
23 Who is it that assigns to Him His way?
Or who can say to Him—"Thou hast done wrong"?
24 Remember that thou should'st extol His work,
Which men have contemplated, [and have sung]:
25 Yea, all have gazed in wonder thereupon;
And mortal man beholds it from afar.
X n 26 Lo! GOD IS GREAT,—[greater] than we can know;
The number of His years past finding out.
o 27 'Tis He Who draweth up the vapour-clouds;
And they distil [from heaven] in rain and mist:
28 E'en that which from the [low'ring] skies doth fall,
And poureth down on man abundantly.
29 Can any man explain the rain-clouds' balancings,
The rumbling thunders of His canopy?
30 Behold, He spreadeth out His light thereon,
While making dark the bottom of the sea.
31 (Yet He His judgment executes by these:
By these He giveth food abundantly.)
32 He [graspeth] in His hand the lightning flash,
And giveth it commandment where to strike.
33 Of this the noise thereof quick notice gives,
The [frightened] cattle warn of coming storm.

1656 37 At this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.
2 Hear attentively the noise of °His voice, and the sound that goeth out of °His mouth.
3 He directeth it under the whole heaven, and His lightning unto the ends of the earth.
4 After it a voice roareth: He thundereth with the voice of His excellency; and He will not stay them when His voice is heard.
5 °GOD thundereth marvellously with His voice; great things doeth He, which we cannot comprehend.
6 For He saith to the snow, 'Be thou on the earth;' likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of His strength.
7 He sealeth up the hand of every °man; that all °men may know His work.
8 Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their °places.
9 Out of the south cometh the whirlwind: and cold out of the north.
10 By the °breath of [5]GOD frost is given: and the breadth of the waters is straitened.
11 Also by watering He wearieth the thick cloud: He scattereth His bright cloud:
12 And it is turned round about by His counsels: that they may do whatsoever He commandeth them upon the face of the °world in the earth.
13 He causeth it to come, whether for correction, or for His land, or for mercy.

p (p. 710) 14 Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of [5]GOD.
15 °Dost thou know when °ꓓꓠꓓ disposed them, and caused the light of His cloud to shine?
16 [15]Dost thou know the balancings of the °clouds, the wondrous works of Him Which is perfect in knowledge?
17 How thy garments are warm, when He quieteth the earth by the south wind?
18 Hast thou with Him spread out the °sky, which is strong, and as a molten °looking glass?
19 Teach us what we shall say unto Him; for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.
20 Shall it be told Him that I speak? if a °man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.
21 And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds: but the °wind passeth, and cleanseth them.
22 Fair weather cometh out of the north: with [15]ꓓꓠꓓ is terrible majesty. W
23 Touching °THE ALMIGHTY, we cannot find Him out: He is excellent in °power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: He will not afflict.

37 [The rumbling thunder] makes my heart to quake,
And [startled] it leaps up from out its place.
2 Hear ye, O hear, the roaring of His voice,
The loud reverberations from His mouth,
3 As under heaven's expanse the sound goes forth.
His lightning to the Earth's extremities
4 [He sends], and after it the thunder roars:
He thund'reth with His voice of majesty:
One cannot trace Him, though His voice be heard.
5 GOD'S voice is wondrous when He thundereth.
Great things He doth: we comprehend them not.
6 For to the snow He saith—"Fall thou on Earth:"
And to the show'r, yea, to the flooding rains
7 Which stop the work of man and make it cease,
That all men of His doing may take note;
8 Then must the beasts each to his covert go,
And in their lairs must they [perforce] remain.
9 Out from the south proceedeth the hot blast;
And from Mezarim comes the biting cold.
10 The wind of GOD produces the hoar-frost;
The waters wide are all congealed by it.
11 With rain He ladeneth the thick dark cloud,
And dissipates the filmy cumulus:
12 It turneth round about as He doth guide,
That His commandment it may execute
Upon the [vast] expanse of all the earth,
13 Whether in chastisement, or for His land,
Or else in mercy cause He it to come.
14 O Job! [I pray thee] hearken unto this: p Stand still and contemplate GOD'S wondrous works. (p.
15 Know'st THOU how Eloah gives charge to them,
And how He makes His light on them to shine?
16 Or dost thou know the thick-clouds' balancings,
His wondrous works, Whose knowledge hath no bound?
17 How [is it that] thy garments [feel so] warm,
When He makes still the Earth with southern heat?
18 Wast thou with Him [when] He spread out the sky;
And made it like a molten mirror [firm]?
19 Oh, tell me that which we should say to Him:
We know not what to say; so dark we are!
20 Must He be told that I would speak to Him!
And if I speak, can man see Him and live.
21 But now, [though] men see not the light [of God],
Yet He is bright [in splendour] in the skies:
But when the wind has passed and cleared the clouds,
22 Then from the north there comes a golden light.
Ah! but with ꓓꓠꓓ there is a majesty W
23 Divine. And Shaddai's paths we cannot find;
So great, so great is He in pow'r; so full
Of righteousness and truth: He will not crush.
24 Therefore can men but stand in awe of Him:
For none can know Him, be they e'er so wise.

By words devoid of knowledge, [and of truth]?
3 Gird up thy loins, now, like a man; for I
Will ask of thee, and do thou answer Me.

Or who upon it stretched the measuring line?

Or who its corner-stone [so truly] laid,

And all the sons of God did shout for joy)?

And darkness deep the swaddling-band thereof;

A 36 Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts?
Or understanding given to the heart?

And clods cleave fast together solidly?

40 What time within their dens they lay them down,
Or in their jungle lairs they lie in wait?
41 Who is it that provides the Raven meat;
When unto GOD his young ones lift their cry,
And wander forth abroad from lack of food?

G H (p. 714) 39 Know'st thou the time the Rock-Goat gendereth?
Observest thou the calving of the Hinds?
2 The months they fill, didst thou their number set,
And know the time when they to birth should bring?
3 They bow themselves: they bring their offspring forth;
And to the winds cast all their pangs away.
4 Strong grow their young; they fatten on the plains;
And to their parents never more return.

J 5 Who is it that sent forth the Wild Ass free?
Or who hath loosened the swift runner's bands?
6 Whose dwelling I have made the wilderness;
His haunts the salt and arid desert waste.
7 The city's busy tumult he doth scorn;
The driver's shouts and cries he doth not hear.
8 The mountains are his ample pasture ground;
There roameth he in quest of all things green.

Or pass the night, contented, by thy crib?

Or leave to him the tillage of thy ground?

Or gather corn to fill thy threshing-floor?
13 The Ostrich wing, admired tho' it be;
Is it the pinion of the kindly Stork?
14 Nay! she it is that leaves to earth her eggs,
And in the dust she letteth them be warmed;

Or that the roaming beast might trample them.
16 She dealeth sternly with her young, as if Not hers: and fears not that her toil be vain.

The horse and rider both alike she scorns.
19 The War-horse: didst thou give to him his strength? J
Or clothe his arching neck with rustling mane?
20 Make him leap lightly, as the locust does?
The glory of his snorting fills with dread:
21 He paws the plain, rejoicing in his strength;
He rusheth on to meet the armed host:
22 He mocks at fear, and cannot be dismayed;
Nor from the sword will he turn back or flee,
23 Though 'gainst him rain the arrows of the foe,
The glitter of the lance, and flash of spear.

1656 24 He swalloweth the ground with fierceness

JOB'S FIRST REPLY TO JEHOVAH.
40. 3–5 (Z, p. 713).

Z 3 Then Job confess'd, and made reply; and said,
4 "Lo! I am vile! What shall I answer Thee?
Rather, I lay my hand upon my mouth.
5 Already have I spoken far too much;
I cannot answer. I will add no more."

JEHOVAH'S SECOND ADDRESS.
40. 6—41. 34 (Y, p. 713).

JEHOVAH'S FIRST APPEAL TO JOB.
40. 6–13 (K[1], above).

Y K 6 Again Jehovah said, from out the storm:—
7 Now like a strong man, gird thou up thy loins:
'tis I Who ask thee: make thou Me to know.
8 Wilt thou indeed My judgment disannul?
And Me condemn, that thou mayst righteous seem?
9 Hast thou an arm, then, like the mighty GOD?
Or, canst thou thunder with a voice like His?
10 Deck thyself now with glory and with might:
Array thyself with majesty and power:
11 Send far and wide thy overflowing wrath:
And on each proud one look, and bring him low:
12 Each proud one single out, and humble him;
Yea, crush the evil-doers where they stand:
13 Hide them away together in the dust;
And in the deepest dungeon have them bound.
14 THEN, ALSO, I MYSELF WILL OWN TO THEE L THAT THY RIGHT HAND TO SAVE THEE WILL SUFFICE.

K² (p. 716) 1656

15 [4]Behold now [c]behemoth, which I made with thee; he eateth grass as an ox.
16 [c]Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the [c]navel of his belly.
17 He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his stones are wrapped together.
18 His bones are as strong pieces of brass; his bones are like bars of iron.
19 He is the chief of the ways of [9]GOD: He That made him can make His sword to approach unto him.
20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food, where all the beasts of the field play.
21 He lieth under the shady trees, in the covert of the reed, and fens.
22 The shady trees cover him with their shadow; the willows of the brook compass him about.
23 [4]Behold, he drinketh up a river, and hasteth not: he [c]trusteth that he can draw up Jordan into his mouth.
24 He taketh it with his eyes: his nose pierceth through snares.

41 [c]Canst thou draw out [c]leviathan with an hook? or his tongue with a cord which thou lettest down?
2 Canst thou put an [2]hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn?
3 Will he make many supplications unto thee? will he speak soft words unto thee?
4 Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant for ever?
5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?
6 Shall the companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?
7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish spears?
8 Lay thine hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more.
9 [c]Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?
10 None is so fierce that dare stir him up: who then is able to stand before Me?
11 Who hath [c]prevented Me, that I should repay him? whatsoever is under the whole heaven [c]is Mine.
12 I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion.
13 Who can [c]discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him [c]with his [c]double bridle?
14 Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible round about.
15 His scales are his pride, shut up together as with a close seal.
16 One is so near to another, that no [c]air can come between them.
17 They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundered.

40. 15—41. 10- (K², p. 716).

K² (p. 716)

15 Behold Behèmoth now, which I have made
As well as thee. Grass like the ox he eats.
16 Behold, his massive strength is in his loins:
His force doth in his belly's muscles lie;
17 Shakes he his tail? 'tis like a cedar tree.
The sinews of his thighs are firm entwined.
18 His bones are strong, like unto tubes of brass;
His ribs with bars of iron may compare.
19 A masterpiece of all GOD'S ways is he:
Only his Maker can bring nigh His sword.
20 The mountains will bring produce forth for him,
While all the beasts do, fearless, round him play.
21 Beneath the shady trees he lieth down,
And rests in covert of the reed and fen:
22 The shady trees weave o'er him each its shade;
While willows of the brook encompass him.
23 Suppose the stream should swell; he will not blench:
For he believes that Jordan he can drink.
24 Shall any take him while he lies on watch?
Or with a hook shall any pierce his nose?
41 Canst thou draw up Leviathan with hook?
Or catch, as with [an angler's] line, his tongue?
2 Canst thou insert into his nose a reed?
Or canst thou pierce his jaw through with a thorn?
3 Will he make many humble pray'rs to thee?
Or will he ever say soft things to thee?
4 Will he engage in covenant with thee,
That thou shouldst take him for thy lifelong slave?
5 Wilt thou, as with some linnet, play with him?
Or wilt thou cage him for thy maidens' sport?
6 Will trading dealers haggle o'er his price?
And rétail him among the merchantmen?
7 Wilt thou with darts essay to fill his skin?
Or [pierce] his head with spears for catching fish?
8 Lay thou thy hand upon him, though but once:
Think only of the contest: do no more.
9 Behold, all hope of taking him is vain:
E'en at the sight of him one is cast down:
10- None so foolhardy as to stir him up:
-10 BEFORE ME, THEN, [HIS MAKER], WHO CAN STAND?
11 WHO E'ER FIRST GAVE TO ME, THAT I SHOULD HIM REPAY? SINCE ALL BENEATH THE HEAV'NS IS MINE?

L²

JEHOVAH'S THIRD APPEAL TO JOB.
41. 12-36 (K³, p. 716).

12 Silence I shall not keep about his parts:
His wondrous strength: his well-proportioned frame;
13 His coat of mail: who hath e'er stripped this off?
His double row of teeth: who enters there?
14 The doors which close his mouth: who opens them?
His teeth's surroundings are a scare to see.
15 The scales which form his armour are his pride:
Each one shut up and closed as with a seal.
16 So near one to another do they lie
That air between them cannot find a way:
17 So close unto each other do they cleave,
And cling so fast, that none can sunder them.

K³

1656 18 By his °neesings a light doth shine, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.
20 Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron.
21 His °breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.
22 In his neck remaineth strength, and sorrow is turned into joy before him.
23 The flakes of his flesh are joined together: they are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved.
24 His heart is as firm as a stone; yea, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone.
25 When he raiseth up himself, the mighty are afraid: by reason of °breakings they °purify themselves.
26 The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold: the spear, the °dart, nor the °habergeon.
27 He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.
28 The arrow cannot make him flee: slingstones are turned with him into stubble.
29 °Darts are counted as stubble: he °laugheth at the shaking of a spear.
30 Sharp stones are under him: he spreadeth sharp pointed things upon the mire.
31 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the sea like a pot of ointment.
32 He maketh a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be hoary.
33 Upon earth there is not his like, who is made without fear.
34 He beholdeth all high things: he is a king over all the °children of pride."

laugheth. Fig. Prosopopœia. Ap. 6.
34 children of pride = sons of pride, or proud beasts.

42. 1 the LORD. Heb. Jehovah. Ap. 4. II.

I will demand of thee. Supply the Ellipsis (Ap. 6): "[Thou saidst]: 'Let him answer Me'" (see 40. 2).
6 I abhor myself, and repent. "The end of the Lord" (i. e. what Jehovah designed as the great lesson of this book) is at length reached. Cp. Jas. 5. 11.

Z (p. 713) 42 Then Job answered °the LORD, and said,
2 "I know that Thou canst do every thing, and that no thought can be withholden from Thee.
3 °Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I understood not; things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.
4 °Hear, I beseech Thee, and I will speak: °I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
5 I have heard of Thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth Thee.
6 Wherefore °I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes."
7 And it was so, that after [1]the LORD had spoken °these words unto Job, M (p. N
[1]the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite,

18 His sneezings are a flashing forth of light,
His eyes are like the eyelids of the Dawn.
19 Out of his mouth vapours like torches go,
And sparks like fire therefrom make their escape.
20 Out of his nostrils goeth forth a smoke,
As from a boiling pot on reed-fire set.
21 His breath,—as if it would set coals aflame;
And from his mouth a flame seems issuing forth:
22 His strength abideth ever in his neck;
Before his face grim terror dancing goes.
23 His softer folds of flesh, though hanging, cleave
So close on him that moved they cannot be.
24 His heart is hard, hard as a stone is hard;
Yea, like a nether millstone, firm and hard.
25 Whene'er he riseth up, the mighty cow'r;
And, at the waves he makes, their fright is great.
26 Let one encounter him—no sword will stand:
No spear, nor dart, nor iron coat of mail.
27 Iron he counts no better than a straw,
And brass no better is than rotten wood.
28 The arrow will not make him flee away:
Slingstones to him are stubble, and no more;
29 Like harmless chaff he counts the pond'rous club,
And at the whizzing of a spear will laugh.
30 His under-parts are sharply pointed spikes:
He spreads like threshing-drag upon the mire.
31 Like boiling pot he makes the deep to foam:
And, like a well-stirr'd ointment pot, the Nile.
32 His wake he makes a sparkling, shiny path,
So that the deep will look like hoary hair.
33 His equal is not found on all the earth:
He hath been made insensible of fear:
34 On all things high he looketh [dauntlessly];
And over all proud beasts he is a king.

JOB'S SECOND REPLY TO JEHOVAH.
42. 1-6 (Z, p. 713).

1 Then answered Job, and to Jehovah said:— Z
2 "I know, I know, that THOU canst all things do: (p.
No purposes of THINE can be withstood.
3 [Thou askedst (38. 2; 40. 2)]—
'Who is this that counsel hides,
And darkens all, because of knowledge void?'
'tis I! I uttered things I could not know;
Things far too wonderful, beyond my ken.
4 Hear now, I pray thee: let me speak this once.
[Thou saidst (40. 2)]:—
''tis I who ask thee: Answer Me.'
5 I heard of Thee by hearing of the ear,
But now mine eye hath seen Thee, I abhor
6 [Myself]. In dust and ashes I repent."

O s (p. 718) 1656 t

"My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends:

for ye have °not spoken of Me the thing that is right, °as My servant Job hath.

O s

8 Therefore take unto you now °seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to My servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a °burnt offering; and My servant Job shall pray for you:

t

for °him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of Me the thing which is right, like My servant Job."

N

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as [1]the LORD commanded them:

M

[1]the LORD also accepted °Job.

B P (p. 719)

10 And [1]the LORD °turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also [1]the LORD gave Job °twice as much as he had before.

Q

11 Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned ḥim, and comforted ḥim over all the °evil that [1]the LORD had brought upon him: °every man also gave him a °piece of money, and °every one an earring of gold.

P

12 So [1]the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, °and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses.

Q

13 He had also [5]seven sons and three daughters.

A R

14 And he called the name of the first, °Jemima; and the name of the second, °Kezia; and the name of the third, °Keren-happuch.

15 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

S 1656-1516

16 After this lived °Job an hundred and forty years, not spoken of Me the thing that is right. We have, therefore, an inspired record of what they said; but all they said was not inspired, and cannot be quoted as the Word of Jehovah.

THE PSALMS.

THE STRUCTURE OF THE BOOK AS A WHOLE*.

1—150. THE FIVE BOOKS†.

A[1] 1—41. THE GENESIS BOOK‡: CONCERNING MAN. The counsels of God‖ concerning him. All blessing bound up in obedience (cp. 1. 1 with Gen. 1. 28). Obedience is man's "tree of life" (cp. 1. 3 with Gen. 2. 16). Disobedience brought ruin (cp. Ps. 2 with Gen. 3). The ruin repaired only by the SON OF MAN in His atoning work as the seed of the woman (cp. Ps. 8 with Gen. 3. 15). The book concludes with a Benediction and double Amen.

B[1] 42—72. THE EXODUS BOOK‡: CONCERNING ISRAEL AS A NATION. The counsels of God‖ concerning ISRAEL'S RUIN, ISRAEL'S REDEEMER, and ISRAEL'S REDEMPTION (Ex. 15. 13). Cp. Ps. 68. 4 with Ex. 15. 3, "JAH". It begins with Israel's cry for deliverance, and ends with Israel's king reigning over the redeemed nation. The book concludes with a Benediction and a double Amen.

C[1] 73—89. THE LEVITICUS BOOK‡: CONCERNING THE SANCTUARY. The counsels of God‖ concerning the Sanctuary in its relation to man, and the Sanctuary in relation to Jehovah. The Sanctuary, Congregation, Assembly, or Zion, &c., referred to in nearly every Psalm. The book concludes with a Benediction and a double Amen.

B[2] 90—106. THE NUMBERS BOOK‡: CONCERNING ISRAEL AND THE NATIONS OF THE EARTH. The counsels of God‖ concerning the EARTH, showing that there is no hope or rest for the Earth apart from Jehovah. Its figures and similes are from this world as a wilderness (cp. the references to mountains, hills, floods, grass, trees, pestilence, &c.). It begins with the prayer of Moses (the Man of the Wilderness), Ps. 90, and closes with a rehearsal of ISRAEL'S rebellions in the wilderness (Ps. 106). Note "the New Song" for "all the earth" in Ps. 96. 11, where the theme is contained in one sentence which gives an Acrostic, spelling the word "Jehovah": "Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad" (see note on 96. 11). The book concludes with a Benediction and Amen, Hallelujah.

A[2] 107—150. THE DEUTERONOMY BOOK‡: CONCERNING GOD AND HIS WORD. The counsels of God‖ concerning His Word, showing that all blessings for MAN (Book I), all blessings for ISRAEL (Book II), all blessings for the EARTH and the NATIONS (Book IV), are bound up with living on the words of God (Deut. 8. 3). Disobedience to Jehovah's words was the source of MAN'S sorrows, ISRAEL'S dispersion, the SANCTUARY'S ruin, and EARTH'S miseries. Blessing is to come from that Word written on the heart (cp. Jer. 31. 33, 34. Heb. 8. 10-12; 10. 16, 17). Ps. 119 is in this book. The Living Word (John 1. 1) began His ministry by quoting Deut. 6. 13, 16; 8. 3; 10. 20 in Matt. 4. 4, 7, 10. The book begins with Ps. 107, and in v. 20 we read, "He sent HIS WORD and healed them", and it concludes with five Psalms (one for each of the five books), each Psalm beginning and ending with "Hallelujah".

* Manuscript and Massoretic authorities, the Talmud (Kiddushin 33a) as well as the ancient versions, divide the Psalms into five books. The Midrash on Ps. 1. 1 says. "Moses gave to the Israelites the five books of the Law; and corresponding with these David gave them the five books of the Psalms."

The Structure of each Psalm being perfect in itself, we may well expect to find the same perfection in the arrangement of the five books respectively as well as of the one hundred and fifty Psalms as a whole.

Many attempts have been made from ancient times to discover the reason for the classification of the Psalms under these five books; but none of them is so satisfactory as to preclude this further attempt.

It is certain that the present order in which we have the Psalms is the same as it was when they were in the hands of our Lord, and were quoted repeatedly by Him, and by the Holy Spirit through the Evangelists and Apostles. Indeed, in Acts 13. 33, the Holy Spirit by Paul expressly mentions "the second Psalm". This puts us upon sure ground.

There must be a reason therefore why "the second Psalm" is not (for example) the seventy-second; and why the ninetieth (which is the most ancient of all the Psalms, being a prayer of Moses) is not the first.

The similar endings to each book are noted above. There are in all seven "Amens", and twenty-four Hallelujahs. All the latter (except the four in Book IV) are in Book V.

NOTES ON THE STRUCTURE, PAGE 721.

* In the first Book of the Psalms the leading thought corresponds with that of the first Book of the Pentateuch. The counsels of God are shown from the beginning to the end in relation to MAN.

As Genesis begins with the Divine blessing on Man (1. 28), so Psalm 1 opens with "Blessed is the man". All blessedness for man is shown to consist in subjection to, and occupation with, God's Law. It is the Tree of Life to him; and, meditating on this, he becomes like a well-watered tree in the Paradise of God.

But, in Gen. 3, Man rebelled against that Law: and Ps. 2 describes the consequences of that rebellion; while Ps. 3 takes its title from one who rebelled against God's King. The ruin can be repaired only by "THE MAN Christ Jesus" (the Seed of the woman, Gen. 3. 15); and in the Psalms of this first Book (the third section) we see Him in His atoning work, which alone sets man again in the blessedness which he had lost.

The first Book consists of forty-one Psalms. The central Psalm is 21, which sets forth the eternal life and blessedness of God's King. All that have titles (37) are David's—the man of God's choice.

Of the Divine Titles, Jehovah occurs 279 times, and Elohim only 48 times, 9 of which are joined with Jehovah. (See Ap. 4.) Note also the references to the events, &c., of Genesis in this first Book. (See Ap. 63. V.)

† Pss. 1 and 2 are linked together by having no Titles; and by Ps. 1 opening, and Ps. 2 closing with "Blessed".

The first or GENESIS book is divided into three sections, which (on p. 721) are stated thus:—

1. The First (Pss. 1–8) concerning "MAN".
2. The Second (Pss. 9–15) concerning "THE MAN OF THE EARTH" (the Antichrist).
3. The Third (Pss. 16–41) concerning "THE MAN CHRIST JESUS" (the Messiah).

‡ Pss. 9 and 10 are linked together by having an irregular alphabet running acrostically through the two. The alphabet is broken and irregular, like the "times of trouble", "the great tribulation", of which they speak.

‖ Ps. 16 is the first Michtam Psalm. The others are Pss. 56–60. See Ap. 65. xii.

§ Ps. 32 is the first Maschil Psalm, denoting instruction.

The Structure is due to the Fig. Synezeugmenon (see Zeugma, Ap. 6), by which all the statements are yoked on together to one verb at the end instead of each having its own verb. For scope of Ps. 15 see the Structure of A^{2}, p. 721. Note contrasts with Ps. 12.
This Psalm forms the text of the Sermon on the Mount (Matt. 5—7). See Ap. 70. The theology pertains to the Kingdom, not to the Church of God. Not true of this present Dispensation. See Ap. 63. IX.

[c] A Psalm of David.

G H a (p. 737) 1 The heavens [c] declare the glory of [c] GOD;
And the [c] firmament [c] sheweth His handy-work.

b 2 [c] Day unto day [c] uttereth [c] speech,
And night [c] unto night sheweth [c] knowledge.

c 3 There is no [2] speech nor [c] language,
[c] Where their [c] voice is not heard.

19 (S, p. 721). ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF CHRIST'S GLORY IN CREATION, AND REVELATION.

S | G | H | 1-4. The heavens. The word written there: (eight lines).
J | 4-6. In them (bāhem) the sun (six lines).
G | H | 7-10. The Scriptures. The word written therein (eight lines).
J | 11-14. In them (bāhem) Thy servant (six lines).

The position of this Psalm in the Structure (p. 721) shows that it corresponds with "S", Ps. 29, with its two answering parts, the "Glory" and the "Voice" of Jehovah.

The verbs in the first part (1-6) are literary, and in the second part astronomical, thus interlacing and uniting the two parts in one whole.

Title. A Psalm of David. One Psalm: one whole, not two odd scraps strung together by some late "redactor". See Ap. 65. XVII.

Title. A Psalm. See Ap. 65. XVII.
of David = relating to or concerning David's Son and David's Lord (Matt. 22. 41-46). "The root and the offspring of David" (Rev. 22. 16). David "being a prophet and knowing . . . spake of". These three Psalms (22, 23, 24) relate to the sufferings and the glory of "the Man Christ Jesus." 22 = The Good Shepherd on Earth, in Death (John 10. 11). 23 = The Great Shepherd, in Heaven, by Resurrection (Heb. 13. 20). 24 = The Chief Shepherd, coming in His Glory to earth and Zion, again (1 Pet. 5. 4. Rev. 19). See the Structure of O (p. 721). Ps. 22 is Christ as the sin offering; Ps. 40, as the burnt offering; Ps. 69, as the trespass offering. 1 My GOD, my GOD. Heb. my El (Ap. 4. IV). God as Almighty in relation to the creature; not Jehovah (Ap. 4. II), in covenant relation with His servant. Quoted in Matt. 27. 46. Mark 15. 34. The Psalm is Christ's prayer and plea on the Cross. It begins with "My God, my God" (Matt. 27. 46. Mark 15. 34), and it ends with "It is finished". See note on v. 31, and cp. John 19. 30. If the Lord uttered the whole of this Psalm on the cross, the dying malefactor must have "heard", and believed (Rom. 10. 17). Cp. Luke 23. 32, 40-42. The "kingdom" had been referred to by Christ in Ps. 22. 22-30. See note on "roaring", below. The Fig. Epizeuxis (Ap. 6) is used for solemn emphasis. roaring = lamentation. Heb. shā'ag = spoken of a lion, and of thunder.

assembly = congregation: in civic aspect.
wicked = breakers up. Heb. rā'a'. Ap. 44. viii.
They pierced, &c. = "As a lion [they break up] my hands and my feet". The Heb. text reads kā'ărī = as a lion (the "k" = as). The A.V. and R.V., with Sept., Syr., and Vulg., take the "k" as part of the verb k'ārū, and alter the vowel points, making it read "they pierced". It is better to translate the Heb. text literally, and supply the Ellipsis of the verb from Isa. 38. 13, "they break up". The meaning is exactly the same, and agrees with John 19. 37.
17 tell = count. The whole description applies to death by crucifixion only.

Title. A Psalm. See Ap. 65. XVII. of David = concerning David and the true David. Relates to the entrance of the Ark into Zion (see Ap. 68), typifying the coming glory of Heb. 1. 6. Cp. 2 Sam. 6. 2. 1 Chron. 15. 25. Ps. 68 relates to the setting out of the procession. Ps. 24 to the entrance up to Zion. Ps. 87 to the joy of the entrance with dancings and shoutings. Ps. 105, for subsequent celebrations of the event.
1 The earth. Heb. 'ĕrez, the earth (as created).
the LORD'S. Heb. Jehovah's. Ap. 4. II. The emphasis is on Jehovah = "JEHOVAH'S is the earth".
the fulness = all that fills it. Quoted in 1 Cor. 10. 26.
world. Heb. tēbēl, the world (as inhabited).
2 founded, &c. Cp. 2 Pet. 3. 5. Ps. 136. 6. Gen. 1. 1.
3 the hill = the mountain (of Zion, south of Moriah). Seven times so called: here, and Gen. 22. 14. Num. 10. 33. Isa. 2. 3; 30. 29. Mic. 4. 2. Zech. 8. 3. See Ap. 68.
Or. The A.V., 1611, read "And". Changed in 1769 to "Or".
stand = rise up. Cp. 1. 5. holy. See note on Ex. 3. 5.
4 clean. Cp. Ps. 15 and Ex. 20. 13–16.
soul. Heb. nephesh. Ap. 13. 5 And = Even. righteousness. The gift received from Jehovah.
God. Heb. Elohim. Ap. 4. I.
6 This = Such: i. e. not a "new cart" (2 Sam. 6. 3), but the Kohathites. See Num. 7. 9; 4. 2, 15. Deut. 10. 8; 31. 9, &c; and cp. 2 Sam. 6. 13. 1 Chron. 15. 2.
generation = class or circle. Here, the Kohathites. Cp. 22. 30. O Jacob. Sept. and Syr. read "O God of Jacob". Jacob. See notes on Gen. 32. 28; 43. 6; 45. 26, 28. Selah. Connecting the first triad with the Ark of Jehovah: transferring our thoughts from the general claim to the particular making of the claim by this event. See note on v. 10, and Ap. 66. II.
7 everlasting doors = age-abiding entrances. The tabernacle (or tent) of David, on Mount Zion, was not ancient. This looks forward to the fulfilment of prophecy in times yet to come. King of glory = Glorious king. The repeated question points us both to 22. 6 ("a worm, and no man") and to 23. 1 (The Shepherd). 10 Who = Who then, is He, this glorious King? The LORD of hosts. See note on first occurrence (1 Sam. 1. 3), and Structure above. Selah. Connecting Ps. 25 with Ps. 24. Ps. 24 referring to Zion, the new place of worship, and Ps. 25 referring to the worship itself, which was to be and could henceforward be offered there. Ps. 24 corresponds with 1 Chron. 15, and Ps. 25 with 1 Chron. 16, which together give a full description of the worship. Ps. 25 is further emphasised by being an Acrostic Psalm, in which the worthiness of Jehovah and the unworthiness of His worshippers stand out in vivid contrast.

The second Acrostic Psalm (see Ap. 63. vii). The omission of ק (Kōph) makes twenty-one letters (7×3) instead of twenty-two, and marks off one verse (v. 11) as central, which is the first confession of sin in the Psalms; thus linking on Repentance to Suffering and Resurrection (Pss. 16, 22), as in Luke 24. 44–47. The double א (A = Aleph) in vv. 1, 2 connects the looking up of the worshipper with the double ר (R = Resh) of vv. 18, 19, which speaks of the looking down of Jehovah. These two are linked on to Ps. 25 by the Selah of 24. 10 and 24. 4. See note on Selah (24. 10). Title. of David = by David, or pertaining to the true David. 1 LORD. Heb. Jehovah. Ap. 4. II. lift up. Verses 1 and 2 are connected with vv. 18, 19: the double Aleph (א), with the double Resh (ר), connecting David's looking up with Jehovah's looking down. soul. Heb. nephesh. Ap. 13.
